3. In general, most of the people with whom we have come in contact since this publicity began have reacted favorably to CIA and in one instance we received an unsolicited offer [REDACTED] to write a letter on our behalf to the newspapers as well as to Senators Russell Long and Allen Ellender deploring the fact that the Agency was receiving such unfavorable publicity. We thanked him, but pointed out to him that we could not accept his offer. So far as I know he has not written such letters. The letter enclosed herewith is not from [REDACTED]
