Same answer for whether they paid mostly cash? Can't say if it's not in the public record.
An ATF was one of the 17 who made an initial not guilty plea, I assume.

All defendants that have appeared thus far in the district (17 of them) have entered "not guilty" pleas. This is on the docket sheet/public record. ATF
ATF Any questions about whether someone has entered a plea agreement can only be answered by referring them to the public record. Please give me a call if you need any more information on this.

Thank you

This is a question from the Republic. I think I know the answer to the second one, since it wasn't in the indictment. But anything we can tell him in regards to a plea on Privacy?

Robble:

Per our discussion, can you please check to see if Privacy (indicted in the recent guns case) entered a plea. Also, is there any way to say if the defendants paid cash for all/most of their purchases?

Thanks,

Robert
