To whom it may concern:

My name is Jacques Billeaud, and I'm a reporter for The Associated Press in Phoenix. I am writing to you today to request comments from DOJ on a Feb. 9, 2011, letter that Sen. Charles Grassley wrote to Attorney General Eric Holder regarding guns allegedly used in the Dec. 14 shootout near the Arizona-Mexico border. Border Patrol Agent Brian Terry died in the shootout.

DOJ had earlier told Grassley that the allegation was false. Grassley's letter -- see the attachment -- says he has documents to back up his assertion that two AK-47 variants found at the shootout scene had the same serial numbers as two guns bought in an ATF operation by an alleged straw buyer. What does DOJ have to say about the senator's assertion?

I plan to put a story on the wire within the next half hour.

I would appreciate whatever help you can provide.

Sincerely,

Jacques Billeaud
