I understand. I should have called his criminal chief myself.

Molly -- dennis is feeling raw and under fire by the Dept. He feels like he's being unfairly audited and second guessed -- by the IG, by the DAG's office (who had Jason review the operation), by Congress etc, and I think his reaction is just reflective of that.

Fine, but having some unknown cold-call directly to the wrong AUSA abt a matter as sensitive as this and request immediate assistance, you have to admit, was not OIA' finest moment. You have caused quite a degree of confusion.

Dennis – We just checked with Molly Warlow, the Director of OIA. (I've included her here.) As she describes it, the Mexicans are making noises that they are opening a criminal investigation of ATF for Fast and Furious and want to send an MLAT in aid of their investigation.

Sounds like they got incorrect information about who the lead AUSA is,
