I don't think so, because the times are set up by the USMS. We can be a little late starting if you need some time, but the talk has to end when the next defendant after ours is set to go. We can move it back a week, I think everyone will understand. If we move it back a week, maybe Grassley and his staffers can attend.

Is there any way to push the interview to 930?

Hope,
Do you think you can make Wed. am?

Probably not. I am the only ATF agent assigned to my arrest team. I will check and see if Layne can go in my place.

Hope thought you might be able to escape for a couple of hours. If you can't, I'll move it to next week.

I've set up a freetalk with Celis-Acosta for this Wednesday at 8:30 am in the USMS freetalk room on the second floor of the courthouse. If the court releases him between now and then, we will still try to have it on Wednesday, but here in this office, about 9 am.

I know you are both busy today. Please just let me know when you can if this is OK.

Thank you

Emory
