Kolan sent this to me before I spoke to him this afternoon. In that conversation I made very clear to him that I had made no such assurance about simultaneous receipt of documents. Rather, I had merely assured him that we would respond to Senator Grassley's letters as promptly as we respond to any other member.

I just learned that four documents responsive to Senator Grassley's requests are being made available to Congressman Issa's staff to review at the Justice Department. I will be sending Tristan Leavitt and Brian Downey from Senator Grassley's staff to review the documents as well. We were assured that we would receive any documents simultaneously with the House Committee, so I presume you will accommodate them. They are on their way. Thanks.
