I'm doing fine, thank you. I read the report myself. Yesterday Fox News reported that Chambers and Steward shouldn't have been able to pass the NICS check when they bought guns because they had been previously arrested (although never convicted) of a felony. If only you could permanently deprive someone of their firearms rights just by arresting them without ever having to convict them. Handy!

Don't know the status of the forfeiture complaint – up to my eyes with other things. I very sincerely thank you and your management for the support and important assistance.

Will call you soon,
Thank you
Emory

Subject: Hello there!

Just checking in to see how you were doing . :o)

I finished reading DOJ's 6/14/11 Joint Staff Report to Congress . Good, LORD!!! Do you know if anyone is addressing the direct lies and lies by deceitful omission that litter that Report???? I'd be more than happy to work with that person if there is one! I wrote my comments through-out the Report Met with my management today: they're all supportive :o) did give them my thoughts on DOJ's shameful Report

Also saw part of Newell's testimony today Was appalled by Sen Meehan's shameful attempt to investigate⁶⁹ and get answers⁶⁹ good grief. My heart & prayers go out to Bill!

Do you know if the Forfeiture Complaint got filed? I didn't see it on PACER last week.

May I help you with anything?
