(Copy of email rec'd from OLA) Expressing concern regarding the reports that the Department of Justice (DOJ) and the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms, and Explosives (ATF) had participated in multiple acts of "gun walking," allowing firearms to pass from straw purchasers into the possession of criminal and other dangerous third party organizations. State that further reports and developments have deepened his concerns regarding the activities and conduct of the leadership with DOJ and ATF. Advising that he strongly support efforts to disrupt criminal syndicates that traffic firearms and drugs, and conduct other illicit and illegal activities. Requests answers to the enclosed questions.
