To all:

As I send this, I am about to walk downstairs to deliver a statement to the media about our investigation of Secretary Clinton's use of a personal email server during her time as Secretary of State. I have attached a copy of the statement I intend to give. You will notice immediately that I am going to provide more detail about our process than we normally would in connection with an investigation, including our recommendation to Justice that no charges be brought. I am doing that because I think the confidence of the American people in the FBI is a precious thing, and I want them to understand that we did this investigation in a competent, honest, and independent way. Folks outside the FBI may disagree about the result, but I don't want there to be any doubt that this was done in an apolitical and professional way and that our conclusion is honestly held, carefully considered, and ours alone. I have not coordinated or reviewed my statement with anyone except a small group of FBI officials who worked on the investigation. Nobody elsewhere in government has any idea what I am about to say, and that's the way it should be.

There is a lot of the pronoun "I" above, but this investigation and the conclusion are the product of a large and talented FBI team, made up of agents, analysts, technical experts, lawyers, and others. I have stayed close to it simply to ensure that the team had the resources they needed and that nobody interfered with them. Nobody did. I am proud to represent their work, and the entire FBI. We have done it the way the American people expect and deserve.

ADICs and SACs,

SACs,

Please discuss the benefits of serving as an Inspector-In-Place (IIP) with your ASACs, especially if your office is scheduled for inspection in FY 2017. Serving as an IIP is an excellent opportunity to gain insight into the inspection process and trends, to observe/learn from other field office executive managers, as well as to gain operational experience in Programs other than those you currently manage. Participating as an IIP also allows ample opportunity to prepare for your own Field Office Inspection (FOI). Whether you're interested in becoming an Inspector at FBIHQ or just have a general interest learning the latest trends, this "ride along" opportunity is an excellent way to find out how INSD evaluates leadership, and the performance of investigative, Intelligence, and administrative programs. All IIPs have found the experience to be both professionally rewarding and beneficial in helping them improve their assigned programs in their field office as well as becoming a more effective leader. If your ASACs are interested in serving as an IIP, please direct them to the link below, ask them to prepare a short EC (example in the link), and have them contact any of the Inspectors to advise of their interest. Thank you.

That was the best media statement I have ever seen. You make us so proud it is difficult to contain. Thank you for your dedication to objectivity, fairness, and rightness. Your focus on a-politicalness will be missed by those wanting to politicize this either way, but to those who truly want to hear what we stand for and who truly believe in what we believe in, your message came through. Dear Director Comey,

I wanted to compliment you on a thoughtful, articulate, and direct statement this morning. Thank you for representing us well, for defending the work of your team, and for explaining a process that could easily have been twisted and turned by others to skew the end result. Regardless of the investigation's conclusion, your statement managed to cut through the politics and address the matter our organization was charged to investigate. I am always proud to work here, but even more so today. Maybe you think it's all just part of the job, but in my opinion it was an exceptional display of fidelity, bravery, and integrity.

I'm sure you receive too many emails already; I hope some of them include the appreciation and kudos you deserve.

Microwaves were saying at 04:02am: "We are watching with you; small round red laser light in middle of button of window & white laser light on my mattress!" At 04:27am big red laser light spot on table next to window porch side?

Microwaves ladies are saying someone watching you on laptop from Mexico?!

Yesterday between 3:45am and 4:45am faded red to pink laser light circle in shape of 52 inch on ceiling of room by middle of window front porch side!

Are red laser pin point satellites? One laser gun on street, or one laser gun from nearby residential houses?!

AG Lynch,

It is pretty clear now what was discussed during your private meeting with Hillary's husband, former President Bill Clinton - a bribe for not indicting her. Yesterday, the Clinton campaign announced that she is likely going to keep you on as Attorney General if she is elected. It sure is nice to see that our top justice officials can be bought just like our politicians. What a disgrace!!! Now, I see headlines that Hillary is traveling with President Obama on Air Force One, as he is going to be campaigning with her in North Carolina today. And the American people are supposed to believe that he isn't interfering with the FBI's criminal investigation into Hillary's private e-mail server while SOS. Give me a break!!! You and President Obama must think that the American public is stupid. What's more, President Obama is making the US taxpayers foot the bill for him to campaign for her - how absurd!!! I sure hope that you, the FBI, and President Obama do what is right and indict Hillary. If not, you could be facing far worse repercussions than the Clintons' wrath - numerous watch dog groups and members of Congress are already calling for your impeachment.

Today's Washington Brief

- A draft of the Democratic Party platform includes a campaign proposal from presidential candidate Sen. Bernie Sanders (I-Vt.) that would bar U.S. corporations from deferring taxes on foreign earnings. The proposal calls for using the resulting revenue to invest in infrastructure. (The Hill)
- Publicly available documents link Sens. Mark Warner (D-Va.) and Bob Corker (R-Tenn.) to Wall Street deals that reaped profits from the 2008 financial crisis. While the two now-members of the Senate Banking Committee invested in a fund that appears to have profited on financial products designed to bet against the real estate market, there's no evidence that the senators, who are co-sponsors of a measure aimed at reforming the housing finance market, knew the fund was shorting the market. (Yahoo News)
- After Puerto Rico defaulted on about half of its $2 billion debt payment last Friday, creditors are bracing for the aftermath. Republican supporters rallied reluctant colleagues in support of a debt restructuring measure signed into law Thursday by stressing that no taxpayer dollars would be used to address the debt, a theme they'll likely return to as a fiscal oversight board takes the helm. (Morning Consult)

Today's Business Brief

- JPMorgan Chase launched a fintech accelerator program that allows startups access to the bank's facilities, systems and expertise. The six-month program will give participants "unparalleled access" to the bank, although it's unclear whether they'll receive capital to jumpstart their innovations. (American Banker)

How 2 U.S. Senators Profited From America's Financial Crisis

Bethany McLean, Yahoo News

"The idea that Wall Street came out of this thing just fine, thank you, is just something that just grates on people. They think you didn't just come out fine because it was luck. They think you guys just really gamed this thing real well." So said then-Senator Edward E. Kaufman, a Democrat from Delaware, at the Congressional hearing in the spring of 2010 where assorted members of Congress lambasted Goldman Sachs' activity in the run-up to the financial crisis.

The Coming Week: Messaging Votes on Immigration, Terrorism

Fawn Johnson, Morning Consult

Creditors are anxiously awaiting the fallout of Puerto Rico's default on about half of the $2 billion due July 1. Keeping the island from defaulting was the goal of a carefully negotiated law, signed on Thursday, to allow San Juan to restructure its debt.

Potential Clinton VP Perez Still Supports Trade Deal Kevin Robillard, Politico

Labor Secretary Tom Perez, a potential Democratic vice presidential pick, isn't backing down from his support for the Trans-Pacific Partnership, the trade deal opposed by Hillary Clinton. The debate over trade has roiled the Democratic Party, with President Barack Obama and many congressional leaders supporting the agreement and both Clinton and Vermont Sen. Bernie Sanders opposing it.

Donald Trump's Complex Business Ties Could Set a New Precedent Monica Langley, The Wall Street Journal

Back in his 26th-floor office after a recent campaign swing, Republican presidential candidate Donald Trump sat down at his desk and began signing a two-inch stack of checks, including ones for $10,000 for fuel, $21,000 for concrete and $99,000 to a contractor at a hotel construction site. Mr. Trump personally oversees many of his routine business expenses this way.

Will a CFPB Commission Ever Happen? Kate Berry, American Banker

Some critics of the bureau think there is a renewed chance to change the bureau's structure. They point to the presidential election and recent setbacks to CFPB Director Richard Cordray, including a watchdog's report on employee discrimination and a pending legal challenge to its constitutionality, as laying the groundwork for a change.

Pound Slides With Stocks as Record-Low Yields Paint Glum Outlook James Regan and Lukanyo Mnyanda, Bloomberg News

The pound is weakening anew, bond yields are falling to records around the world, and both stocks and commodities are starting to move lower. It all adds up to a gloomy outlook for the global economy as trading picks up after the Fourth of July holiday in the U.S.

Banking

They're Building Some of Britain's Most Promising Companies. After Brexit, They're Thinking of Leaving.
Ylan Q. Mui, The Washington Post

The skyscrapers rising between the eastern bends of the River Thames are emblazoned with some of the biggest names in banking: Barclays, HSBC, JPMorgan and Citi. But the future of finance hangs out on the 39th floor of the tallest building of them all.

The 9 Ways Brexit Could Affect Foreign Banks Laura Noonan, Financial Times

Banks across Europe and the US have been battered by Brexit. Shares in big global banks outside the UK fell anywhere from 7 to 20 per cent on the day after the UK voted to quit the EU.

Financial Products and Investments

Goldman Sachs Tells Its Asset Managers to Tighten Belts Stephen Foley, Financial Times

Goldman Sachs has told staff at its asset management division GSAM to tighten their belts, amid outflows and poor performance from some of its largest funds. Executives have issued an edict that GSAM's 2,000 employees must curtail spending, including a ban on all travel that is not associated with meeting clients and winning new business.

Housing & GSEs

Moody: TRID Violations Won't Impact Private Mortgage Bonds Kelsey Ramirez, HousingWire

Violations to the TILA-RESPA Integrated Disclosure rule will not substantially increase the losses in prime jumbo residential mortgage-backed securities, according to Moody's Investors Service, which provides credit ratings and research covering debt instruments and securities. Moody's gave two reasons why these violations won't affect RMBS. The first, that third-party reviews will identify loans in violation to the rule. Also, the lenders and aggregators will be able to cure many of the violations before issuers place the mortgage loans in RMBS.

Banks Keep Making More Jumbo Mortgage Loans Rachel Louise Ensign, The Wall Street Journal

The jumbo mortgage business keeps getting bigger for banks. These high-dollar home loans rose to 24% of mortgage approvals at six of the largest U.S. banks in 2015 from 21% the year before, according to an analysis of federal home-loan data.

Taxes

Dem Platform Draft Adopts Sanders Proposal on Taxing Foreign Earnings

Naomi Jagoda, The Hill

A committee draft of the Democratic Party platform released Friday adopts a campaign proposal from Bernie Sanders to end U.S. corporations' ability to defer taxation on foreign earnings. "We will end deferrals so that American corporations pay U.S. taxes immediately on foreign profits and can no longer escape paying their fair share of United States taxes by stashing profits abroad," the platform draft states.

Trump Slams D.C. for 'Excessive' Tax Assessment on Hotel Project Toby Eckert and Josh Gerstein, Politico

Lawyers for Donald Trump filed suit against the D.C. government Thursday challenging the nearly $1.7 million tax bill for the luxury hotel he's developing on a prime piece of real estate downtown. The suit, filed in the D.C. Superior Court, called the District's valuation of the property at the Old Post Office on Pennsylvania Avenue "arbitrary, unreasonable and excessive."

JPM Launches Fintech Accelerator for 'Side by Side' Collaboration Tanaya Macheel, American Banker

JPMorgan Chase is opening its doors to fintech startups to work with its business lines directly on bank innovations for faster, safer and more cost-efficient operations. The young companies will work "side by side" with JPMorgan through a six-month accelerator program called In-Residence, the bank said Thursday.

Third Ex-Citigroup Currency Trader Wins Unfair Dismissal Suit Patrick Cower, Bloomberg News

Patrick Gower, Bloomberg News

A fired Citigroup Inc. currency trader, who claimed his bosses made him a scapegoat for the foreign exchange market-manipulation scandal, said he won a ruling that he was unfairly dismissed. The decision makes Robert Hoodless the third London currency trader to successfully sue Citigroup following his firing. Details of the ruling, including any possible financial award, weren't disclosed by the trader or the bank.

Wall Street's Favorite Technology Set Out to Disrupt How We Transfer Money, But May End Up Changing Everything Else Instead

Seth Archer, Business Insider

Bitcoin was created to revolutionize the way we pay for things. The decentralized control, quick payment processing and blockchain technology Bitcoin championed was intended to disrupt the status quo in payments.

New Payday Options for Making Ends Meet

Stacy Cowley, The New York Times

For decades, most American companies have paid their workers once every week or two, minimizing the administrative costs of frequent paydays and maximizing the interest the companies earn by keeping the money in the bank. And for equally long, workers have complained about the unfairness of waiting for their paychecks.

A Message from Visa:

Chip card technology helps prevent the leading type of payment fraud at stores—counterfeit cards—which represent about 70% of in-store fraud. Visa is accelerating merchant chip adoption by streamlining testing requirements and making it easier for merchants to enable chip card acceptance in stores quickly. Is There Life After Debt for Puerto Rico?

Brian Gendreau, The Huffington Post

While the rescue plan establishes the foundation for debt reduction and a smaller deficit, it is not enough to ensure an end to the crisis. Ultimately, that will take a revival of Puerto Rico's economy, something that the House bill does little to accomplish.

American Politics Could Be Ready for a Realignment on Trade

Matthew Yglesias, Vox

Donald Trump's Pittsburgh speech lambasting free trade deals may be a sign of where the future of the Republican — and Democratic — Party is headed. For now, Trump's position on free trade has scrambled America's polarized politics in unusual and entertaining ways. The US Chamber of Commerce, normally a reliable ally of Republican politicians, lit into Trump on Twitter and was joined by the also reliably conservative National Association of Manufacturers.

A Reading List of Tell-Alls, Strategic Plans and Cautionary Tales in Finance

Andrew Ross Sorkin, The New York Times

With the summer upon us and the so-called Brexit vote behind us, perhaps you might have some time to read one of the terrific books published recently that touch on big themes in business, finance and technology. I've been plowing through stacks of them to make your life simpler. Here are some of my favorites.

The Better GOP Agenda

Editorial Board, The Wall Street Journal

Donald Trump is running for President by stressing opposition to trade and immigration. That limited—we'd say crabbed—agenda means that if the presumptive GOP nominee does by some chance win in November, the proposals to watch are coming out of the Republican House majority. Mr. Trump will need their ideas to have any hope of governing.

A Message from Visa:

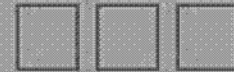

Visa recognizes the importance of helping merchants to get their chip terminal solutions up and running quickly so that everyone, especially consumers, can benefit from chip's powerful security protection. Visa is helping accelerate EMV chip implementation by streamlining testing requirements. The efforts are expected to reduce implementation time frames by as much as 50%, while also limiting exposure to counterfeit fraud liability for merchants who are making the transition to chip technology. Dear Jim

The American people are hopping mad that the fix is in with Loretta meeting Bill in Phoenix. Bill and Hillary have been CIA assets since at least 1986 and may be years before while Bill was at Oxford and we demand DoJ to bust the crime syndicate known as the Clinton Foundation NOW. Bill is not just only a person of interest and witness in the 2 DoJ investigations, but he must also be a target as he benefits from the Foundation and acts hands in glove with Hillary. Loretta must publically apologize, disprove the perception that she is a Clinton political hack, ask Putin or NSA for the 30,000 deleted emails, atone for her bad optics and appearance of corruption by prosecuting Hillary with extreme prejudice NOW, or she too must be lynched for destroying the public trust, corruption, misprision of felony, aiding and abetting treason, violation of her oath of office, and obstruction of justice. Loretta, you must refuse any bribe, job offer in the Hillary administration, or threat from Bill and serve the public interest, because we the people demand that you serve us and not sell out to Billary for personal gain.

These is no question about the guilt of Hillary for a combination of classified materials mishandling, wire fraud (a co-conspirator with Bill in the persistent fraud called the Clinton Foundation), and treason (quid pro quo selling of the public treasury, public military forces, and public policy, in one instance the sale of Syria to Saudi Arabia, many other instances are documented in the emails she did not turn over that NSA is holding back from FBI against a rainy day. DoJ must prosecute and lock up Hillary NOW because we know about the sale of 20% of the uranium in the US to Russia involved donors to the Foundation—unreported donors—as well as the participation of Hillary's State Department. Detailed by NY Times, the scandal has lain there for several months and DoJ must perp walk the Zionist bitch NOW and stop protecting Hillary. We are livid that only in America with a corrupt DoJ and incompetent FBI who failed to stop 911, Orlando, Sandy Hook, Boston, San Bernardino can a career criminal and foreign agent of Israel like Hillary be allowed to run for president. Hillary must be locked up NOW and denied bail as a flight risk because she is a HUGE liability to the party as voters would Trump her in November, and the price would be paid by ALL Democrats.

Hillary must be executed for espionage and treason like the Rosenbergs NOW because she intentionally had no password, and all you had to do was type "clintonemail.com" and you were in with full permissions. Even children have passwords for their phones and computers, so no password=intent. The hacker stories are all lies, because no hack was needed to get in AT ALL. Because there were thousands of classified documents there, it is obvious it was a front for selling America out in exchange for donations to the Clinton foundation. She clearly and obviously left it the way she did to let absolutely anyone in, if they knew about the domain clintonemail.com. We condemn DoJ and FBI for dragging their feet and demand Hillary to be arrested on TV for treason, corruption, and espionage NOW.

DoJ and FBI must stop wasting time because the heavy lifting has been done by a financial analyst named Charles Ortel. Ortel made a name for himself by publishing his analysis of serious problems in General Electric's financial reports (2008). On his website, he has begun taking apart the entire Clinton Foundation, brick by brick. Here is an explosive excerpt from his overview:

"In financial terms, the size of criminal activities directly involving the Clinton Foundation exceeds $2 billion—counting affiliated and indirect criminal activities, the size exceeds $50 billion. The geographic scope of these unprosecuted criminal activities touches all 50 U.S. states, the District of Columbia, and more than 100 foreign countries where Clinton Foundation entities operate or solicit donations."

"Beginning late in 2008, Bill Clinton, Hillary Clinton, and others expanded efforts to cover up illegal operating and fundraising activities of the Clinton Foundation since inception. Working ultimately with individuals inside the I.R.S. and elsewhere, these persons led efforts to 'restructure' the Clinton Foundation to make it appear that it had been legally constituted and validly operated in compliance with applicable laws, when this was certainly not the case."

"Trustees and other persons have been engaged in an unprosecuted criminal conspiracy to operate the Clinton Foundation in the guise of a public charity, when it is, instead, an illegal money-laundering and influence peddling scheme."

"In fact, the Clinton Foundation has engaged in widespread unauthorized activities, including illegal operations internationally and in the U.S., and illegal fundraising across state and national boundaries, using telephones, mail, and the internet."

"Moreover, the Clinton Foundation has never validly been authorized by the I.R.S. to pursue tax-exempt purposes other than serving as an archival records repository and research facility in Little Rock, Arkansas."

"Instead of concentrating upon its specifically-authorized tax-exempt purposes, trustees performed lax oversight and installed ineffective controls, creating conditions where Bill Clinton, Ira Magaziner, and others deliberately and illegally diverted substantial sums from the Clinton Foundation and its affiliates."

In light of Ortel's analysis, to say the Clintons have wandered off the reservation would be a vast understatement. Bill and Hillary have taken their massive Foundation to new heights of careless, reckless, devil-may-care criminality. The Clintons don't just push the boundaries of what is legal and moral, they drive a huge tank through the boundaries and shout WHO CARES as they hurtle off to commit new and slimier deeds. DoJ must arrest, prosecute, and imprison Hillary NOW because the Clintons are underbosses of the Bush-Clinton crime cabal, and they are no longer under CIA protection. Eliot Ness only busted Al Capone, but here is a once-in-a-lifetime chance for Comey to bust America's Most Wanted criminal Hillary and her Israeli handlers before the Russians release the emails. DoJ, stop going after the little guys like the Bundys, Jeff Sterling, Wen Ho Lee, or Snowden, because we the people pay you to bust criminals, politicians, judges, billionaires, CEOs, and bankers at the highest levels because after Brexit we demand our country back.

Hacked messages of #BlackLivesMatter leader reveals Obama admin's plan for 'summer of chaos' and martial law

by Dr. Eowyn

U.S. Attorney General Loretta Lynch is coordinating with Democratic activists to so disrupt the upcoming Republican and Democratic National Conventions that martial law will be declared.

That's the stunning discovery revealed in a series of direct messages between three activists. On Friday, June 10, 2016, someone hacked into the Twitter account of #BlackLivesMatter (BLM) leader and former Baltimore mayoral candidate DeRay McKesson. McKesson later confirmed the hack to The Baltimore Sun.

On June 11, 2016, a Twitterer who calls himself The Saint (@TheSaintNegro) tweeted a direct-message conversation on June 10 between McKesson and another BLM leader Johnetta Elzie (Netta), in which the two discussed talking with Attorney General Loretta Lynch about plans to bring on martial law by causing chaos at the upcoming Republican National Convention in Cleveland, Ohio, and the Democratic National Convention in Philadelphia, PA, so as to keep Obama in office.

<https://fellowshipofminds.files.wordpress.com/2016/07/deray-mckesson-johnetta-elzie.jpg> Here's the conversation over the course of several days between black activists DeRay McKesson (DM) and Johnetta Elzie (JE), and between McKesson and a "white ally" named Sam (S):

JE: "Have you spoken with Mrs. Lynch [Attorney General Loretta Lynch] recently about the plan for the summer and fall leading up to the elections."

DM: "We spoke two weeks and they want us to start really pushing how racist Trump is now instead of waiting so the others can start getting the protesters ready to shut both conventions down."

DM: "If we can get both conventions shut down for messing over Bernie and for having racist Trump, then get martial law declared so Obama can stay in office we will win. Call you soon when I get to my dads so I can use his landline and we can talk more on this."

DM: "We have to make sure that we use our voices to keep people disrupting Trump all summer and through the fall so martial law can be declared...."

S: "I wanted to touch base with you about the summer of chaos. So far we have over 2,000 people bused in from different cities and another 6,000 to 8,000 expected to drive into Cleveland for the Convention."

S: "They will not be ready for the crowds we are bringing and they will blame Trump for it, especially if we shut it down. The GOP will have to replace him at that point or we will continue the disruptions nationwide."

DM: "I will pass the info along. Good work, Sam. You never let us down. It's so important we stop Trump. He can not be president. He will destroy everything we worked so hard for and we can't trust...."

DM: "...today and he [Sam?] confirmed that there will be around 10,000 protesters disrupting the [Republican] convention. Plans are being made for other cities as well for upcoming Trump events. Ads have already been placed looking for people to help. I know you don't care for them [white people] but this is the time we need our white allies doing a lot of the work for us. They are the ones who listen the best."

JE: "That will put fear into the GOP and the country when they can't have their convention for all their racist supporting Trump. We've worked too hard and closely with the Obama administration to have that racist ass take it all away and Hillary.... You know I can't stand those white allies, but yo right this is the best to use them. They hang on every word you say and will do whatever is asked. I just hate all that kiss ass they try to do. Like that changes who they are."

DM: "We have a lot of white allies volunteering for Trump's campaign to pass along information to us before it's made public so we know when rallies are coming up before they are announced. That way we can plan major disruptions in those cities in advance. We just have to keep our names out of this and let these [white] people do the work for us by pushing how Trump's racist ways will destroy...."

JE: "That's all those white people are good for in my eyes. I couldn't imagine even pretending to like that racist ass Trump even to get info on his events. I'll be glad when we shut his ass down."

DM: "With the support we have from Mrs. Lynch and the help we've got from Sam and others it won't be hard to cause enough...."

Here are screenshots of The Saint's series of tweets:

The authorities seem to be taking the plan to disrupt the Republican Convention seriously.

As reported by Alice Speri for The Intercept, June 23, 2016, local police and federal agents from the FBI, DHS, and Secret Service are knocking on the doors of activists and community organizers in Cleveland asking about their plans for the Republican National Convention in July.

On June 29, 2016, McKesson sort of confirmed the plan when he went public with warnings about "possible" protests at the DNC and RNC, as reported by USA Today.

In fact, a recent survey showed that as many as 67% of Democrats want Obama for a third term.

Good Morning Gentleman, I hope that everyone had a wonderful 4th of July. I celebrated this year without being poisoned, kidnapped, murdered- it was great even though the electricity went out. The first time since 2012 that I have not been murdered on 4th of July. So, I thought I would just check in and say, "Hello" and "Thank you" for all that you do- and all that you did leading up to this that prepared you along the way to be where you are now. Long hours studying when you could have slacked off, long hours working when you could have joined the partyers (partiers sp?) and rising above deliberate mediocrity because I despise it. I am assured in the Holy Ghost that some of you are persons of excellence. I am going to go finish laundry now (I love to do laundry- it's a victory to me to put something dirty in and get something clean out.) Happy 5th of July- I am alive. Grateful for you [REDACTED]

Director Comey,

You are a joke and so is AG Lynch. Neither one of you are people of integrity. Having the audacity to say in your news conference today that your investigation was apolitical is disgraceful and a lie. What happened? Did President Obama threaten to fire you, or did the Clintons pay you off? You and AG Lynch need to step down, or I and countless other upstanding Americans are going to do everything in our power to get our congressmen and congresswomen to impeach you and remove you from office. To say you are proud of your and your team's gutless surrender to political influence would be comical if it wasn't so shameful.

Director Comey,

Just hours after your team interviewed Hillary Saturday morning, officials within the DOJ already leaked to multiple news media outlets and networks that Hillary will not be indicted. If so, that means "the fix" was in long before this interview even took place. Maybe, Hillary was right all along - it was just a "review," not an investigation as you contended. If these reports are true and you don't indict her, you, AG Lynch, and President Obama need to resign, or be impeached and removed from office. Believe me when I say, I and countless other proud and upstanding Americans will do everything in our power to get Congress to do just that.

Mr. Comey,

The largest difference between myself and Hilary is that I was and am naive to the law and legal matters such that I could be easily intimidate into admitting guilt by being presented with the prospect of incarceration. Also, I did not have the financial means to hire or attract a highly competent attorney to properly defend me. Thanks to what occurred, despite my innocence [redacted]

I do not have the financial means to procure the legal resources required for the small chance of getting a Presidential pardon. I have no political influence. Therefore, I am asking, in light of the logic you and your colleagues exercised in reviewing the Hilary Clinton matter, that you work with the President and others on my behalf to please excuse my felony label. I greatly appreciate your conscientious review of what happened to me and would ask that please work to make sure that no other person ever again gets unjustly labeled a felon in the name of national security. Let us exercise a bit of caution and responsibility to avoid labeling innocent people as criminals...especially when that label is set for life.

I cannot give you legal advice. I am not your lawyer, so my insurance wouldn't cover it if I did. Your best bet if you don't want to hire someone is to find a legal clinic in your area such as the ones that virtually every law school operates.

It is much harder to get a conviction based on a guilty plea set aside than a conviction after a trial; for an example, see [REDACTED] (should be available here), when I tried unsuccessfully to get a guilty plea set aside. That difficulty is why people who have pleaded guilty frequently allege they pleaded guilty because they received constitutionally ineffective assistance from their lawyer (also a hard claim to prove). Also, once a conviction has become final, it is necessary to challenge it on habeas corpus, which is subject to strict time limits and procedural bars that are difficult to overcome. The Elonis case is a very narrow ruling however; it basically just says a speaker can't be found guilty because a reasonable person would understand a statement to be a threat (which is a negligence standard); instead, the prosecution has to show that the speaker was at least reckless in saying something that he knew could be interpreted as a threat.

I hope you are able to find counsel to help you in your matter.

Legal advice is tough indeed. I should have trusted my gut. My attorney first of all compelled me to say [REDACTED] because a jury would believe [REDACTED] and not believe me. I asked my attorney to ask [REDACTED] My attorney said that would cost a huge amount of money and could precipitate a trial where I would risk going to prison. My attorney said that [REDACTED] because I was so upset that the assistant US attorney had more important things to pursue than an angry person who blurted something out. So I followed by attorney's advice. Six months later my attorney called me back to tell me that there was a new assistant DA in town and that he wanted to prosecute me. Frankly, in hindsight, as the senior attorney in the law firm which I used had been an assistant US attorney, I wonder how much collusion existed between my attorney and the assistance US attorney (who now has become [REDACTED]) I asked to be part of the meetings between my attorney and the assistant US attorney, but my attorney refused. Now I really wonder what their discussion was like. In the end, I not only never met my accusers, but I never actually was able to sit down with the assistance US attorney.

Legal advice is tough.

I went against every bit of advice offered. I wanted a trial.

I wanted them to call my accuser to the stand.

Dear people who should be interested parties:

I find it appalling that no one seems to want to provide me with any help in looking at what happened to me in my one encounter with law enforcement so that I can move on with my life and be a productive citizen. I find it more disgusting when I open up a major newspaper like the LA Times and find three articles on the front page of the Extra section which underscore the problems with justice and our legal system.

First, I find an article about Luis Garcia, an honest man who tried to point out the corruption in Cudahy city government, enduring threats to the life of himself and his family, but to no avail:

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/la-me-luis-garcia-20121020,0,658716.story>

His statement in the article about why his family came to the U.S. from Mexico are no different than [redacted] used to say about [redacted]. "the rights that people have." Unfortunately, not everyone seems to have the rights that Lindsay Lohan (among other entitled and wealthy individuals) seems to have.

Then we move on to read about how police commit perjury, resulting in consequences for innocent people:

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/la-me-lapd-trial-20121020,0,6858162.story>

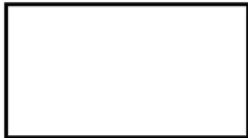

Fortunately, there happened to be video documentation available to indicate what really happened.

Then, I read about how someone running for district attorney has no problem taking donations from felons who are wealthy enough to matter to him all the while I am sure he provides no help to other people who have been labeled as felons who are not rich, no matter what their actual circumstances might be:

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/la-me-da-donor-felon-20121020,0,2946787.story>

The older I get, and the more I experience and the more I see, the more I want to find some other place in the world where I can live out the rest of my life. A place where I can at least get a job that allows me to utilize my background so that I can in some small way benefit mankind before I die. Somehow, I don't think that is too much for me to ask.

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/la-me-0630-banks-20120630,0,713715.column>

I had somehow not heard of this story until reading your article in yesterday's paper. There were three things that resonated with me in this story. First is the unwavering belief that I used to have for the competence and ethics of anyone in law enforcement, just like the people who like in the Champommier neighborhood. The second is how, according to the accounts of various people who knew Zac and who were cited in your article, there was no indication that Zac was the kind of person who would attempt to kill or harm anyone.. "a band geek" who didn't smoke, do drugs, or even get a speeding ticket. The third is how [Redacted]

b6

Although clearly there is a lot that is different as to how I was treated by the legal system versus what happened to Zac, most noteworthy being that Zac was tragically killed. Nevertheless, what I see in both cases is a fervor on the part of the legal system to prosecute someone and find them guilty despite a large amount of personal history which would indicate that the person involved could more likely be innocent than guilty. In the case of Zac, he was killed and never had a trial. Based upon my experience, I have to wonder, if he had been fortunate enough to live, how things would have progressed, particularly if he would not have afforded the likes of a Shawn Chapman Holley to represent him. Would the legal system have played upon his fears of prison and offered him some sort of plea bargain so that they could claim credit for bringing to justice someone that they would claim was guilty?

I would suggest that the story of Zac is most worthy of a documentary, perhaps to be done by the people (whose production company is ironically named, "The Documentary Group") that currently insist on working with a known and apparently not-yet-recovered sociopath, Lindsay Lohan, as they make a movie about Marilyn Monroe.

Lloyd and Larry,

The older I get, the more I come to grips with the fact that I really don't understand life and have for most of my life made assumptions about values of society that are completely untrue. I wanted to take the liberty of reaching out to both of you so that perhaps you can help me understand some things. Both of you are clearly very accomplished and successful. Lloyd has directed some impressive documentaries for PBS and Oprah, among others:

<http://thedocumentarygroup.com/our-team/lloyd-kramer/>

Larry has represented artists of great talent and longevity in their careers while producing entertainment for a variety of venues to great acclaim:

<http://www.larrythompsonorg.com/>

Both of you have won multiple prestigious awards. From what I understand, both of you are involved with a project now in production, called "Liz and Dick." In fact, production on this project just began recently:

http://www.eonline.com/news/lindsay_lohan_begins_shooting_elizabeth/320589

Not even two weeks into the production, it turns out that one of the stars in this production gets into a automobile accident, totaling an expensive sports car in the process:

<http://www.cnn.com/2012/06/08/showbiz/lindsay-lohan-crash/index.html>

<http://www.tnzm.com/2012/06/08/lindsay-lohan-car-accident-porsche-hospitalized/>

<http://latimesblogs.latimes.com/lanow/2012/06/lindsay-lohan-out-of-hospital-after-porsche-crash-on-pch.html>

Now, I have to ask you, bright and talented men that you are, could you not have predicted something like this happening? Did you hope that it would not occur until the project was "in the can?" Might there not have been a few subtle indications in the life history of that star that could have provoked a reasonable concern that perhaps this person was not sufficiently responsible to be worthy of putting lots of people's money and jobs at risk? Do you care about the kind of moral message this sends to society (impressionable young kids, in particular) when giving someone a chance who has yet to even have sufficient time to prove herself worthy of the requisite responsibility? How is it that it is so easy for Lindsay Lohan to convince people to give her not just a second chance, but a third, fourth, and fifth chance and to get those chances not in some menial job, but in some high profile, lucrative position?

If I might suggest, perhaps both of your time and talents would be better spent on a project which talks to a topic like how innocent people can get caught up in the legal system and become victims for life, unable to find work, particularly when they cannot afford the representation of a Shaun Chapman Holley. If you do not find that topic to be interesting or palatable, perhaps you might consider a documentary that looks at how someone can have a single and solitary blemish on their record and how that can keep them from becoming employed for the rest of their life. There might even be a purpose to having Lindsay Lohan star in one of these documentaries so that she might gain some perspective (through learning her character) on what happens to other people when they get in trouble with the law, justifiably or not. Perhaps then she might acquire the gravitas needed for her to be worthy of the kind of opportunity that you two have so generously provided to her.

As thrilled as I was to learn of the recent turn of events for Brian Banks, I was disgusted to learn that his wrongful accuser will not only likely not get prosecuted for perjury, but that she will also have succeeded in significantly financially profiting from her dishonesty:

<http://www.latimes.com/news/local/la-me-rape-dismissal-20120526,0,2765187.story>

Although I commend and admire Brian Banks for wanting no ill will against his accuser, I also am very concerned about the message that his accuser benefiting from, let alone having no consequences for, lying about his guilt sends to people who would corrupt our legal system, not by mistakenly accusing the wrong person, but by willfully and knowingly contending that an innocent person is guilty. It may be too late for me and my life, but I am hoping that Wanetta Gibson and anyone who wrongly accuses someone has a chance to spend some time in prison just the way that innocent people like Brian do thanks to their wrongful accusations. The police and the rest of the legal system face enough challenges in trying to maintain and just and fair legal system. Then there is the expense of $100 a day to which Brian is entitled which now we citizens will have to pay for the time that Brian served in prison. Against that backdrop, I do not see where there should be any tolerance for the kind of behavior that Wanetta exhibited. Please keep in mind that, thanks to Wanetta's wrongful accusation, not only did Brian suffer, but so did all of his family and, arguably, all of society which was denied Brian's ability to contribute to the world in a positive way for so many years.

Over the last several years, I have reviewed the scholarly law literature and have found that true legal experts have questioned the assumption that if someone pleads guilty that they must be innocent. The case of Brian Banks underscores how someone can be compelled to plead guilty on the basis of fear and mistrust of the legal system, despite their innocence.

With all the worthy folks in the this country and around the world who will never have a chance to attend the White House Correspondents Dinner you chose her? Did you think that if someone did not invite her that she would just go ahead and crash the dinner, Salahi style? If Lindsay Lohan represents the kind of guests that the White House would like to have for this dinner, maybe I should have written the White House and asked if I could attend the dinner if I brought along Charlie Sheen...

If the good will and attention on Lindsay Lohan could be suspended for just a moment, I would like just one attorney to be willing to help, rather than take advantage of, me so that I can finally get a job (big title or large salary not needed) where I can use my skills, particularly given all of the well recognized needs that this country has to improve its healthcare system, needs that arguably transcend the demand for Lindsay Lohan to make another movie or TV appearance.

David,

I just learned of the report by you and your colleagues at TRAC that indicates the variability by which Federal judges penalize various individuals who have committed similar crimes under similar circumstances according to the facts of their cases. With that in mind, per the email trail below, I wanted to share with you my circumstances which have resulted in rendering me unemployable. It should be stated that due to an incredible mistrust of the legal system which I developed by the way in which [REDACTED] was handled, I was compelled to trust the wrong folks and ultimately plead guilty to a crime which I did not truly commit, the consequences of which were not fully disclosed to me by my legal counsel. I have only had contact with the legal system this one solitary time in my life. The resulting label of felony has succeeded in convincing potential employers that I am a danger to their employees, customers, partners, and business, though outside of this single situation there is no evidence whatsoever that I am anything but an honest and law abiding citizen over the course of nearly [REDACTED] years of life. When the judge involved was presented my case, she did not question the strange nature of the entire matter that had been put before the court, which could have provided for an investigation of the veracity of the facts of the case against me and lead to my case being dismissed.

What I have also found is that beyond the variability that may exist on the bench, in our society there is a great deal of variability as to how someone who has been labeled a felon is treated. For instance, while I have not been able to find even the most menial of work to use the background which I have worked so long and hard to obtain, most recently Lyndsay Lohan seems to have had all of her multiple transgressions against the law forgiven and she is back to having a highly lucrative career again, per her multiple appearances on NBC this week, culminating with a guest appearance on Saturday Night Live. Of course she is not only wealthy, she is connected to NBC. Her attorney, Shaun Chapman Holley [REDACTED] [REDACTED] is married to one of the musicians in the Tonight Show Band. [Somehow, if I were to call up and ask Lorne Michaels (who I remember from his early days in Canada as a part of the comedy team of Lorne and Hart) about having any sort of an opportunity on SNL, I don't think he would oblige my request the way he honored Lindsay's request...then again, I am not a repeat offender.]

b6

I appreciate the work of you and your colleagues to highlight the inequities that exist within the legal system that does not treat people commensurately with whatever legal transgression that they may or may not have really committed.

Sincerely,

[REDACTED] At the time that I was going through the legal process, having never been involved in any sort of previous criminal behavior, I begged to be given a reprimand with the promise of severe consequences should I ever break the law in my life. My request was not honored. Apparently, the theory held by Charlie Beck and Mark Perez in terms of what it takes to "get things done" with people who happen to be police officers does not apply to regular people like me. That is not all that surprising to me, as it seems that the justice that is applied to people like Charlie Sheen and Lindsay Lohan does not apply to me either. I am sure that I am not alone. I am just wondering why we live in a country that has no problem conducting its legal system in this way.

Sincerely,

Debbie, Walter, and Larry,

As you thought that having Lindsay Lohan on your show was a good decision, I thought that I would share with you my situation, per the email trail below and attachments. It turns out that I have not been blessed with having been given a chance to move on with my life [redacted] [redacted] although I have only had a single contact with the legal system in my entire life of [redacted] years of life which, even if I had been truly guilty of the crime of which I was accused, it is completely and inexplicably uncharacteristic of everything else that I have ever done in my life. In addition, ironically, perhaps [redacted]

b6

[redacted] So I guess a truly innocent person who is not rich does not rate against a true criminal who can pay dearly. That is painful enough of a realization, but then I get to see the rich, spoiled entertainer move on with her life and even get a spot on your show. Imagine how you might feel in my situation.

To give you some perspective, innocence or guilt aside, all I want to do is to be able to use the skills and capabilities that I worked so hard to attain to make a difference in a field that is arguably at least as important as entertainment, healthcare. I never wanted to be rich. I never wanted to be famous. I never wanted to have a decadent sex life. I never wanted to do drugs. I never wanted to steal. I never wanted to hurt people. So I have never had anything in my life to make me a criminal or a sociopath. None of that seems to make a difference, though. I have been cleverly placed in a prison without walls...one in which I can see what regular life is like all around me while I am denied the one thing that is my addiction: work.

Sincerely,

I am writing to you again, hoping that somehow you will take heart in my circumstances. [redacted]

Now I understand that people like Lindsay Lohan and Charlie Sheen entertain us and entertainment is of some importance. I also recognize that we are willing to compensate people to the ends of the earth for making us smile. I also realize that everyone is entitled to a defense in court. Against that backdrop, I am not asking for a huge title, any notoriety, or a large salary. I am simply asking for a chance to use the skills and capabilities I worked to hard to obtain to have an opportunity make a difference in an area which is arguably at least as important as entertainment, healthcare. In addition to my previously stated flexibility, for the chance to work again, I am willing to pay the government and any attorneys involved as much as 85% of whatever I earn for the remainder of my life, hoping that that will prove to be sufficient punishment to satisfy all who would like to see me continue to be punished. I am willing to continue to be in some degree of personal pain.

Could you please help me with that?

Failing that, I would like to have the opportunity to be executed and I am willing to plead guilty to any capital offense necessary to facilitate my execution. My being dead is a far more humane way of handling my situation than having me suffer being unable to be a productive member of society while watching the likes of Charlie Sheen, Lindsay Lohan, and [redacted] commit crimes against people and simply continue to go on their merry way. I greatly appreciate whatever help and consideration I am afforded.

Chuck,

Although I admire your talent greatly and have enjoyed many laughs over the years thanks to your wonderful wit, I feel compelled to share with you my feelings about your colleague, Charlie Sheen, per the email below.

It is extremely ironic, and a bit macabre, that you recently wrote the following:

WARNING!

Do not attempt to replicate what you saw in tonight's episode of Two and a Half Men. Despite the seeming lack of serious consequences and regardless of the hilarity that ensued, this is extremely dangerous behavior and could result in injury or death. Please keep in mind that we employ a highly-paid Hollywood professional who has years of experience with putting his life at risk. And sadly no, I'm not talking about our stunt man.

Nina,

I am writing to you to express my disgust at how you and your colleagues have chosen to perpetually excuse the consistently sociopathic behavior exhibited by Charlie Sheen. As you are a woman, Charlie's treatment of women should be reprehensible to you to say the least. As you may be a mother, the negative impact Charlie is having upon his young and innocent children should also seem unconscionable to you.

[REDACTED]

b7C

[REDACTED] as upset as I am about the excuses that have been made for Lindsay Lohan and other well-to-do and entitled celebrities, I am disgusted by the treatment being afforded Charlie Sheen. I can't imagine a justification for the ethics that you have exercised in this situation.

To make things worse, the Sheen fiasco occurs against an economic backdrop where there are millions of people like myself who cannot find work, despite their best efforts. In particular, I am quite certain that there are plenty of actors that are both talented and well-mannered and yet are not being given an opportunity to work.

As for me [REDACTED] yet I could work in your news room, helping cover [REDACTED] or I could be a consultant, working with writers who are involved with writing shows that [REDACTED] I would kindly ask that you take a moment to consider whether my skills and capabilities might not be of sufficient value to allow me the privilege of at least an entry level position within CBS, without the need for me to be a substance abuser or a perpetrator of domestic violence.

Kevin, Doral,

I had really hoped for the best for Ted Williams. Thanks to your efforts, Ted was given such an amazing opportunity, one for which anyone in any economy would be eternally grateful. Therefore, you can imagine how disappointed I was to learn that Mr. Williams seems to be going back to his old ways, despite all of the opportunities that have come his way in only a week:

www.ktla.com/news/landing/ktla-ted-williams-homeless-detained-los-angeles,0,7965923.story

www.foxnews.com/entertainment/2011/01/12/ted-williams-enters-rehab-drug-alcohol-treatment-report-claims/

I must admit that this story is particularly painful for me because

and I cannot express to you how much I would have liked to have had an opportunity handed to me for just a pedestrian job where I could make use of my skills and capabilities. Had I been given such an opportunity, there is one thing that I can assure you: I would make the most of that opportunity and would not resort to any sort of illegal or deleterious behavior. I would welcome the challenge of demonstrating how, being given help no where near as glorious as what has been extended to Mr. Williams, I would act not only with gratitude, but with responsibility.

b6

I don't know what it takes to get a chance for someone like me to be productive again. Perhaps

I have to find myself holding a sign at the side of the road for a few years before the magic can happen for me (I refuse to do the drugs and the illegal activities). I hope that I have it in me to continue on until an opportunity does somehow and someday come my way.

[Redacted] and since Mr. Williams' poignant story takes place in Ohio, it was particularly moving to me. At a time when I have found it all too easy to find adversity in how things have evolved both in the world and in the U.S., it is both encouraging and comforting to see how people can and do reach out to help other people. The story of Ted Williams will give me a reason to remain hopeful and will get me through another day.

Although my own situation is no where near as dire as was that of Mr. Williams, I would like to ask for your help as I continue to try to find a new professional home for myself. As you can see from the correspondence below and the attachments, over the course of the past three years, my search for a new professional home has expanded from traditional "job hunting" to reaching out to a wider and wider circle of people in the hopes that someone will find me worthy of using my skills and capabilities, particularly given the challenges we currently face in our healthcare system. Other side effects include dry mouth, lethargy, restlessness of akathisia, muscle stiffness or cramping, restlessness, tremors, Rabbit syndrome, and weight gain; side effects like these are more likely to occur when the drug is given in high doses and/or during long-term treatment. Depression, severe enough to result in suicide, is quite often seen during long-term treatment. Care should be taken.

Federal Crime Reporting Statute

The federal offense of failure to disclose a felony, if coupled with some act concealing the felony, such as suppression of evidence, harboring or protecting the person performing the felony, intimidation or harming a witness, or any other act designed to conceal from authorities the fact that a crime has been committed.

Title 18 U.S.C. § 4. Misprision of felony. Whoever, having knowledge of the actual commission of a felony cognizable by a court of the United States, conceals and does not as soon as possible make known the same to some judge or other person in civil or military authority under the United States, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than three years, or both.

A federal judge, or any other government official, is required as part of the judge's mandatory administrative duties, to receive any offer of information of a federal crime. If that judge blocks such report, that block is a felony under related obstruction of justice statutes, and constitutes a serious offense.

Upon receiving such information, the judge is then required to make it known to a government law enforcement body that is not themselves involved in the federal crime.

 in no way, shape or form is anyone looking for you.

They said the BOLO that you created on your computers appeared to have been altered by someone and asked if I knew who had forged the BOLO document again. (Subject has suffered from severe mental health issues in the past)

As always the Sheriff Department again referred to you people as lunatics, idiots and jerks.

Could you respond on your request to meet at [REDACTED] along with US these murders of over 1000 small, poor, black and white farmers to the FBI, my 9 false arrest, imprisonments and my attempted murder by 11 drugs and government employees statements that government employees would never get a job, work, earn their own livings or ever pay any taxes to the government?

Congresswoman Hochul requested that the FBI conduct an investigation into these murders of farmers and my 9 arrest and imprisonments for reporting the murders and other corruption going on inside the government. The National Chairwoman of the Democratic Party Debbie Wasserman Schultz, the New York State Chairman of the Democratic Party David Paterson and [REDACTED] contacted Congresswoman Hochul, US Senator Schumer and Gillibrand for me about my arrest and the murders of farmers by government employees once they found out that the government employees in those offices were destroying all of the mail to elected officials to help other government employees cover up these murders and the corruption going on inside the government and what government employees are doing according to local elected officials to try and keep the government open so government employees can live off the taxpayers, live off the

The Internal Affairs Division of the FBI, US Marshals and ATF are investigating this investigation you conducted with the US Capitol Police, Sheriff Department and others from 2012 till now and the 8 to 10 people the Office of the Inspector General, the US Attorneys Offices, the Congress and News organizations are also investigating this attempt to arrest and imprison again.

 to implement a successful telework program*

Government & Industry Partners Are Invited to Attend

Congress has mandated that Federal Agencies adopt telework wherever feasible. GSA has developed telework policies for the Federal workforce that mirror industry "best practices" in taking advantage of non-traditional work settings. Additionally, GSA is encouraging Agencies to implement "Hoteling" as a way to reduce overall facility costs.

This one-day Potomac Forum Workshop will identify the costs, benefits and challenges of the virtual work environment and focus on supervising the remote worker and leading the virtual team. Attention will be paid to both knowledge workers and administrative staff. The perspectives and challenges of the employee, manager/supervisor and agency executive leadership will be addressed and discussed.

This is the 9th workshop in the highly successful training workshop rated as EXCELLENT by previous attendees.

What you will learn:

- o Telework from the employee's perspective
- o Telework from the manager's and supervisor's perspective
- o Supervising Knowledge Workers in a non-traditional settings
- o Supervising Administrative Workers in non-traditional settings
- o Avoiding hoteling pitfalls
- o How to overcome supervisor resistance to the virtual work setting
- o How Federal Agencies can optimize performance in the non-traditional work setting
- o What Managers Need to Know to be effective in the Telework/Hoteling Environment

Why you should attend:

- o Federal Agencies have been directed to implement telework policies and procedures
- o Selecting the appropriate non-traditional work environment can improve employee morale, increase organizational performance and provide ancillary benefits to the community at large
- o In implementing telework there are risks as well as rewards and understanding them can help you minimize the risks and maximize the rewards
- o Working in non-traditional settings requires new skills from both workers and supervisors
- o Hoteling can provide significant cost reductions for the Federal Agency, but there are risks as well as rewards in undertaking this approach to office management
- o Sharing the experiences from various Government Agencies can help you implement your own telework program

Who should attend:

- o Federal Managers who are implementing or anticipate implementing telework in their own organizations
- o Supervisors of teleworkers
- o Federal workers who are already teleworking or who anticipate doing so in the future
- o Human Resource Managers responsible for developing telework policy and guidance
- o Agency Executive Leadership who approve or review telework policy or implementation
- o IG's and Staff

Sir,

Everyday our most precious human treasures, who go into harm's way without question, are charged, prosecuted, sanctioned, discharged from the service and tarred for life for breaching the regulations and laws dealing with our national security for far less serious than anything you described by our former Secretary of State. Then, you, gratuitously, recommended to your compromised superiors that she not face prosecution for her extremely careless conduct in the handling of our most sensitive national security information.

You, thus, reaffirmed that there are privileged citizens, high public officials-servants of the people, who are not subject to the same laws and sanctions imposed on all Americans and can expect a complete pass for conduct which the law imposes on all Americans a mandatory penalty of ten years. See 18 USC 793(f) You followed the advice and direction conveyed publicly by President Obama that no case existed, contrary to his disclaimers, as to the merits of this case. Somehow he missed the "extremely careless" conduct. Thus, you also preserved your Attorney General's compromised political future if Mrs. Clinton is elected in November.

You insured that no "career professional prosecutor" had the opportunity to "independently" review your work and reach a conclusion more in keeping with the very words of the statute "grossly negligent" and an application that was equal to the same laws applied to all Americans including those who have been wounded and decorated for valor. HSR Violation Penalties More Than Doubled by FTC

On June 29, 2016, the Federal Trade Commission (“FTC”) announced an increase in the maximum civil penalties it may impose for violations of the Hart-Scott-Rodino Act (“HSR Act”) and various other rules and orders governed by the FTC. The maximum civil penalty for HSR violations has increased from a daily fine of $16,000 per day, to a much larger fine of $40,000 per day. While these higher maximum civil fines will apply to any penalties assessed after August 1, 2016, they will also apply to violations that predate the effective date.

I respectfully request that the cases specifically stated above be filed for exactly the same justifications including the content and its entirety stated in all "Bureau," "Intelligence" and "National Security" transmitted written documentation being the basis as specified in the previously filed case versus the municipality of Chicago, Illinois. Those that are/were responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes include those law enforcement (including corruption within The United States Department of Justice) and politicians (including all of the criminals that are/were affiliated with "The White House"). "All transmitted written documentation" has been and/or will be repetitive due to the lack of complete transparency, which includes enforcing the law to the fullest extent by having assurances and an understanding that all taxpayers and United States citizens must receive equal treatment disregarding profile and/or status. In lieu of being transparent which includes enforcing the law to the fullest extent, there is/was an abundance of corruption within The United States Department of Justice that includes those being responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) which are/were stated in the content of "all transmitted written documentation." In addition, there is/was an abundance of corruption within The United States Department of Homeland Security and The United States Department of State which includes personnel that are/were criminally responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. The specifically described personnel stated in the content of all (retroactive, current and subsequent) written documentation including all "Bureau," "Intelligence" and "National Security" transmitted written documentation in combination with the countless treacherous personnel affiliated with every media outlet/network which includes social media (including all types) have created and preserved a "criminal cover-up culture" in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Therefore, I respectfully request the right to charge/fine/tax the media/networks which includes social media (including all types) and its entirety $900,000,000,000,000.00 and that amount must be evenly apportioned to every media outlet/network due to the countless treacherous personnel affiliated with every media outlet/network. In addition, I respectfully request that every treacherous personnel affiliated with every outlet/network. In addition, I respectfully request that every treacherous personnel affiliated with every media outlet/network to be charged for genocide, treason and numerous other charges (stacked and linked) with the result being the "Death Penalty" for being criminally responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Criminals at every level are/were responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters in accomplishing those "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Political party affiliation and/or special interests including "celebrity status" do not compromise my judgment. Due to the infatuation with popularity ("celebrity status") the judgment of many has been compromised which has corrupted countless people in combination with the agendas of the "high profile" for personal and/or political purposes, sabotage (willfully) regarding National Security, the United States is and will be precarious. The "high profile," their accomplices and accessories are/were more worried about orchestrating and advocating "high profile" criminal probes including creating and preserving "high profile" scams as "high profile" cover-ups in accomplishing those "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. The irony of the phrases of "across the country," "so far," "that's not the case" and "twice" that are/were used and/or that will be used by innumerable personnel are/were examples of "high profile" cover-ups as a result of orchestrating and advocating all matters for personal and/or political purposes. The lack of appropriate priorities by personages has resulted in a combination of governing and operating for personal interests and special interests for intangible and/or tangible gains in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. In addition, by virtue of the telephone system method there is/was an abundance of corruption within the Federal Bureau of Investigation, therefore the method of communication was vague. In addition to the content stated in all (retroactive, current and subsequent) emails, I respectfully request exigency regarding all matters (directly and indirectly related) in combination with the content and its entirety stated in all written documentation. Thank you for your attention, cooperation, heightened seriousness and urgency regarding all matters.

Dear Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation:

In addition to the content stated in all (retroactive, current and subsequent) emails in combination with the content and its entirety stated in all "Bureau," "Intelligence" and "National Security" transmitted written documentation, innumerable personnel affiliated with countless financial institutions are/were responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Due to the lack of appropriate priorities in combination with a plethora of illicit inappropriate activities by the previously mentioned personnel affiliated with those financial institutions has resulted in a combination of sophisticated extortion schemes and/or direct and/or indirect garnishments by operating for personal interests and special interests for intangible and/or tangible gains. The previously mentioned intangible and/or tangible gains include illicitly releasing client data, forcing client delinquencies and financially capitalizing from those direct and/or indirect garnishments at the same time. Therefore, I respectfully request an "appropriate stipend instantaneously" and an appropriate monthly grant from your agency until certain (including those that are/were classified) matters are resolved with a likelihood of an ensuing offset or reimbursement regarding the previously mentioned matters, which will be negotiated subsequently. Furthermore, please recommend a principled and secure financial institution, which has been and/or will be incorruptible and nonpartisan. Thank you for your attention, cooperation, heightened seriousness and urgency regarding all matters.

All of the above are/were regarding "The Law," levels of sabotage and not politics (politicizing deception). Conformity to law, integrity, judgment, safety and security must never be compromised (knowingly) nor be jeopardized (willfully) in any political agenda for personal or political gains (eminence and personal interests). Personage(s) must never misuse their power nor bipartisanship be the justification in any political agenda for personal or political gains (eminence and personal interests). Technology must never be deliberately altered/devised (innovative) nor be a shameful use for illegitimate purposes in advocating this entire content. Such sabotage orchestrated by those classless thugs is/was detestation of, detracts/detracted and goes/went against the entire Constitution of the United States. Such sabotage orchestrated by athletes linked to numerous celebrities, their accomplices and accessories is disgraceful to the human species in addition to being a major component in the entire economy teetering on the brink of collapse. Family members (immediate), former colleagues (employers) and former friends (lifelong) are/were among the innumerable participants in all of the above. In conjunction with all of the above matters, I respectfully request [REDACTED] to be

As a taxpayer and United States citizen, I respectfully request urgency regarding all of the above. Thank you for your attention to this matter.

As an addendum to all of the above, I strongly believe that members of "Skull and Bones" society at Yale University implemented deceptive strategies for self-absorption. These strategies were applied carefully and secretly to launch a silent bombardment in accomplishing hidden personal agendas.

Athletes ("sports with venues located in Canada and the United States," (Those Thugs)) and celebrities (Those Thugs) are just as threatening as terrorists are and special interests do not compromise my judgment. All of those "pieces of trash" break every law, due to their "affluence" and "celebrity status," countless people cover up all of their criminal activity. People that value popularity (will have a horrific ending for a prominent "Hollywood Family" and their entirety) in lieu of "integrity" and "the law" are classless low lives. As a nonpartisan taxpayer and United States citizen, political party affiliation and politics do not compromise my judgment. Neither defeat of the taxpayer(s) and/or United States citizen(s) for personal or political gains (eminence and personal interests) must never exist in any political agenda (various members of "The White House" have known about these matters since 2008). Neither "breaking almost every law" nor sabotage of the entire economy (nation) for personal or political gains (eminence and personal interests) must never exist in any political agenda (use various forms of irony and deceptive strategies in accomplishing hidden agenda(s)). For convention (campaign) purposes, some are classified, as "Confirmed and Passed Surrogates" are high functioning terrorists, multi level criminals and those that commit crimes exceeding the criteria of "America's Most Wanted." For legal purposes, all are classified as high functioning terrorists, multi level criminals and those that commit crimes exceeding the criteria of "America's Most Wanted." "If" a certain sport linked to popular athletic sneakers "should exist," then almost everyone remembers a "certain prior administration." Numerous companies and parties have been warned regarding all of these matters. The ramifications will be detrimental to all related parties due to everything being taken to the extremes. Advocating detestation of the Constitution of the United States, genocide, homelessness and terrorism is a disgrace. All of that "scum" must receive the "Death Penalty!" Dear Rachel Maddow:

As an addendum to the below prior email, exposure of all personal information could eventually lead to identity theft. Fraudulent paper filed State and/or Local Income Tax Returns is a scarce form of identity theft. All personal information is deliberately inserted (substituted) into K-1's, Schedule C and various other tax forms where as the original paper filed Federal Tax Return(s) is/are not falsified. As a result, the taxpayer paper filing fraudulent State and/or Local Income Tax Return(s) is able to disguise income where as the identity theft victim will end up in a financial quandary. State and/or Local Departments become defrauded. All of the above information is then passed onto State and/or Local collection agencies, forwarded to Multi-State collection agencies and then funneled to the Department of the Treasury/Internal Revenue Service assuming a resolution has not been completed. Extremely stiff interest and penalties which could be made retroactively statutory are imposed. If financially feasible, an independent audit should be performed to avoid all of the above. The Department of the Treasury/Internal Revenue Service will be aggressive due to manipulation. Thank you for your time and effort.

In addition to the content stated in all (retroactive (including those previously transmitted to various personnel), current and subsequent) emails, I respectfully request the right to legally eradicate all of the sports associations/leagues affiliated (directly and indirectly) with the "STAPLES Center" for having all of those sports associations/leagues being criminally responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Suitably, I respectfully request the right to legally abolish the United States political system and its entirety for having all of those appointed and/or elected personages being criminally responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Accordingly, I respectfully request the right to legally eradicate the media/networks and its entirety which includes social media (including all types) for having all of those personnel being criminally responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. The previously mentioned legal abolishment and legal eradications must instantaneously transpire with exactly the same justifications as those included in the content and its entirety stated in all "Bureau," "Intelligence" and "National Security" transmitted written documentation being the basis. The lack of any and all "high profile" priorities along with a plethora of illicit inappropriate activities including the appropriate high profile promises along with a provision of more appropriate activities including an infatuation with popularity ("celebrity status") by innumerable personages has resulted in a combination of governing and operating for personal interests and special interests for intangible and/or tangible gains in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Meanwhile, I respectfully request immediate acceleration related to the formerly stated "transition process" regarding the previously mentioned "apposite classified relocation package" which would be in accordance to the content stated in all (retroactive (including those previously transmitted to various personnel), current and subsequent) emails. In addition, I respectfully request exigency regarding all matters (directly and indirectly related) in combination with the content and its entirety stated in all (retroactive (including those previously transmitted to various personnel), current and subsequent) emails which includes correspondence expeditiously regarding those matters. Dear [REDACTED]

As an addendum to the content and its entirety of all (retroactive (including those previously transmitted to various personnel), current and subsequent) emails, there have been and there will be many hearings regarding all of these matters (directly and indirectly related) in both classified and unclassified settings. Adolescents, athletes, celebrities, certain bureaucrats (preceding, current and ensuing), certain business executives including officers at the highest levels, law enforcement, personnel affiliated with every media outlet/network, personnel affiliated with the courts, personnel in positions with various levels of security clearance, plethora of lobbyists, politicians and innumerable others are/were responsible for all matters which are stated in this entire content. Those matters and criminal activities include numerous federal violations of American civil liberties including the right to privacy (breaking and entering, hackers, tapping telephones (cellular) and other privacy breaches with or by exposure of/exposing all personal information resulting in identity theft), orchestrating genocide, orchestrating homelessness, conspiring to threaten national security, terrorism and/or other federal violations. Those that are/were responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes include those law enforcement (including corruption within The United States Department of Justice) and politicians (including all of the criminals that are/were affiliated with "The White House"). All transmitted emails have been and/or will be repetitive due to the lack of complete transparency, which includes enforcing the law to the fullest extent by having assurances and an understanding that all taxpayers and United States citizens must receive equal treatment disregarding profile and/or status. In lieu of being transparent which includes enforcing the law to the fullest extent, there is/was an abundance of corruption within The United States Department of Justice that includes those being responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) which are/were stated in the content of those transmitted emails. In addition, there is/was an abundance of corruption within The United States Department of Homeland Security and The United States Department of State which includes personnel that are/were criminally responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters (directly and indirectly related) in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. The specifically described personnel stated in the content of all (retroactive (including those previously transmitted to various personnel), current and subsequent) emails in combination with the countless treacherous personnel affiliated with every media outlet/network has created and preserved a "criminal cover-up culture" in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. The sports associations/leagues operate/operated their respective businesses via a profusion of criminal activities and sophisticated cover-up schemes that includes all of the criminal activities stated in this entire content. Due to the plethora of illicit inappropriate activities in combination with the agendas of the "high profile," certain "eminent women" have financially capitalized and/or are financially capitalizing as a result of all criminal activities and are financially linked (retroactively, currently and/or potentially subsequently) to the sports associations/leagues. Criminals at every level are/were responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters in accomplishing those "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Political party affiliation and/or special interests including "celebrity status" do not compromise my judgment. Due to the infatuation with popularity ("celebrity status") the judgment of many has been compromised which has corrupted countless people in combination with the agendas of the "high profile" for personal and/or political purposes, sabotage (willfully) regarding National Security, the United States is and will be precarious. The "high profile," their accomplices and accessories are/were more worried about orchestrating and advocating "high profile" criminal probes including creating and preserving "high profile" scams as "high profile" cover-ups in accomplishing those "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. The irony of the phrases of "across the country," "so far," "that's not the case" and "twice" that are/were used and/or that will be used by innumerable personnel are/were examples of "high profile" cover-ups as a result of orchestrating and advocating all matters for personal and/or political purposes. In addition, in excess or one hundred municipalities both large and small are teetering on the brink of financial collapse due to the lack of appropriate priorities in combination with an abundance of criminal activities. Due to the lack of appropriate priorities and the agendas of the "high profile" including the infatuation with "celebrity status," The United States will financially collapse in the year 2019. In addition, innumerable personnel affiliated with countless financial institutions are/were responsible for orchestrating and advocating all matters in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Due to the lack of appropriate priorities in combination with a plethora of illicit inappropriate activities by the previously mentioned personnel affiliated with those financial institutions has resulted in a combination of sophisticated extortion schemes and/or direct and/or indirect garnishments by operating for personal interests and special interests for intangible and/or tangible gains. The previously mentioned intangible and/or tangible gains include illicitly releasing client data, forcing client delinquencies and financially capitalizing from those direct and/or indirect garnishments at the same time. Furthermore, deliberate "National Security Blunders" have been and/or will be conveyed via summations in complex and/or simple parlance in combination with being transmitted to various agencies. In addition to the previously mentioned deliberate "National Security Blunders," a lack of appropriate "high profile" priorities and a plethora of illicit inappropriate activities in combination with "selectively enforcing the law" has resulted in gargantuan amounts of global corruption and dysfunction. The lack of appropriate priorities by personages has resulted in a combination of governing and operating for personal interests and special interests for intangible and/or tangible gains in accomplishing "high profile" agendas for personal and/or political purposes. Accordingly, I suddenly require your assistance, which includes a temporary or permanent change of my social security number due to all of my personal information including certain assets being compromised in combination with respectfully requesting recommending a principled and secure financial institution, which has been and/or will be incorruptible and nonpartisan. Suitably, I respectfully request an "appropriate negotiable stipend instantaneously," an "appropriate negotiable monthly grant" and "temporary housing" which will be provided by your agency in combination with a lack of support system, I would expeditiously relocate from Pennsylvania to Connecticut. Fittingly, until certain (including those that are/were classified) matters are resolved in combination with a likelihood of an ensuing offset or reimbursement regarding the previously mentioned "apposite classified relocation package" will be negotiated subsequently. In addition, I respectfully request exigency regarding all matters (directly and indirectly related) in combination with the content and its entirety stated in all (retroactive (including those previously transmitted to various personnel), current and subsequent) emails which includes correspondence instantaneously regarding those matters. Thank you for your attention, cooperation, heightened seriousness and urgency regarding all matters.

Please forebear with me Guys- Gentlemen, I am CC you because Charles and the No-Named one have deceived William saying that I am part of a STING against WILLIAM. Does an unethical immoral sting go through the US Government? No You can read if you like- not required reading. Where we are at in this Terrible Deception is : William has knowledge of 3 women that he thought were seperate and distinct. They all 3 are me. I went through something similar in High School. I transferred to [REDACTED] at age 17. When I began school, a student was reading on the intercom the morning announcements and I guess I liked his voice- his maturity. Then, secondly, I heard about a student from other students that was supposedly the most intelligent one- reputation for it. His name was [REDACTED] and his intelligence was enough to make me interested. Third, I saw a very geeky guy in English Lit and he was very shy, wore glasses and never spoke. So, please, I ask for your grace, good humour as I am oh so patiently waiting for William to get it together. William, Get it together. Thank you, Gentlemen, for your protection while William's family has been trying to MURDER me. [REDACTED] JULY 05th, 2016th

Dear Sacred Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation Comey:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L0WjwMX63xE>

I thank you for your excellent speech today on the Hillary Clinton email investigation, including your mention that the entire investigative and decision-making process was insulated from outside input -- presumably including my previous emails to you, the most important two of which are included below.

I, myself, opposed prosecution of Ms. Clinton for as long as the Select Committee on Benghazi has been going on, UNTIL Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard helped Americans see that Ms. Clinton has, in my opinion, been deceiving the American people about her true neo-conservative approach to foreign policy, as fully laid out in my emails below.

However, given the fact that Hillary Clinton is, at best, in my newly informed opinion, per below, another George W. Bush, intent on committing the same sabotage to our national security as he did with the 2003 Iraq War, and at worst may cause a needless, illegal, and immoral war with Russia -- over her advocated Syria No-Fly Zone -- which could escalate into a World War, or even a nuclear war, I do support her prosecution for what it appears you are conceding are technical violations of felony Statutes.

In my own mind, assuming you are not aware of the danger former Secretary of State arguably causes of war with Russia, I am wondering if you will one day wish you had decided this investigation and prosecution matter differently.

For myself, I have [REDACTED] which I will carry out if an air war between the U.S. and Russia is caused by Ms. Clinton.

The foregoing article, in the Russian newspaper Pravda, which online newspaper I read last night for possibly the 1st time in my life to see their take on Brexit, is entitled and states:

War between Russia and USA may break out in Syria

23.06.2016

The New York Times published a collection of theses from the letter written by 51 diplomats criticizing the US State Department for its policy in Syria. The diplomats suggested attacking Bashar Assad's government troops with bombs and missiles to topple the unwanted Syrian president. According to the diplomats, the bombings of the Syrian government troops will help in the struggle against the Islamic State terrorist group (the organization is banned in Russia).

Vladimir Vasilyev, chief researcher at the Institute for the USA and Canada, believes that the most serious consequence of the above-mentioned letter could be a probable war between Russia and the United States.

"The war between Russia and the USA may break out even tomorrow, if the US bombs Assad. Units of the Russian Air Force are still present in Syria, so clashes between Russia and America are very likely to occur in Syria," Vladimir Vasiliev said in a brief interview with Pravda.Ru.

It seems to me the above article underscores Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard's thesis, positing that Hillary Clinton, as a NeoCon dishonestly portraying herself otherwise for years, if elected, may plunge us into an illegal (No Fly Zone not approved, as required, by Congress) war with Russia.

As such, her obvious guilt of violating laws regarding not sending classified information through unsecured email channels and so on, to me, rises to a level worthy of recommendation of criminal indictment, no?

I absolutely apologize to you for taking up your time with this email.

Subject: Why I urge criminal indictment of Hillary Clinton -- she's another "W" who risks nuclear war with Russia over Syria no fly zone [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

Dear Sacred National and International Leaders:

I supported Hillary Clinton for President for the past few years, until Congresswoman Tulsi Gabbard, an Iraq War Vet, former Vice Chairwoman of the Democratic National Committee, and Member of the US House Armed Services Committee, helped me understand that Hillary Clinton never changed her support for the 2003 Iraq War, but instead expanded it to depose Moammar Khadafy, and is now pushing extremely hard -- risking nuclear war with Russia in her advocacy of a Syria No Fly Zone -- to overthrow President Bashar Assad of Syria.

Thanks to Congresswoman Gabbard, and Presidential Candidates Bernie Sanders and Martin O'Malley, I now realize that Hillary Clinton:

A) at minimum, is another George W. Bush, committing treason by helping the real U.S. enemy (Osama Bin Laden in 2003, ISIS in 2016), while redirecting U.S. military resources to needlessly and counter-productively overthrowing an Arab dictator (Saddam Hussein in 2003, Syrian President Bashar Assad in 2016, but worse
B) is intent on imposing a No Fly Zone in Syria, which is a declaration of air war against Russia, which could also
C) escalate into a World War as other countries, beginning with Turkey, Saudi Arabia, and Iran, then NATO, then China, join in, and worst of all
D) could get us into a nuclear war with Russia, given her support for stripping Russia of its closest geographical allies, Ukraine and Georgia, despite the fact that Russia lost more people in World War 2 to Hitler -- 20 million Russians died -- and needs its closest neighbors as geographic buffers to a potential future invasion / takeover.

To prevent these wars which Hillary Clinton -- alone, since Donald Trump and Bernie Sanders oppose such wars -- wants to get us into, including likely War with Russia, I support criminal indictment of Ms. Clinton for her obvious guilt in using her private email system, illegally, to transmit classified information as U.S. Secretary of State.

Please watch the following videotapes of OUR HEROINE, CONGRESSWOMAN TULSI GABBARD, explaining the foregoing:

By contrast, Hillary Clinton continues to urge a No Fly Zone in Syria, despite this essentially being a declaration of an air war against Russia.

As a reminder, I repeat the video showing Hillary Clinton's No Fly Zone would cause 1) an air war with Russia, and might cause, 2) World War III, and, 3) a nuclear war with Russia.

Note 4 minute mark, citing danger of World War and nuclear war.

7 minutes 50 second mark, again citing danger of World War and nuclear war, to the end.

SUMMARY:

- 1) There is no doubt Hillary Clinton is guilty of violating criminal laws forbidding transmission of classified information via private emails, rather than through secure Government emails.
- 2) Given the fact Hillary Clinton, alone among the three remaining Presidential Candidates, is intent on repeating the mistakes of the 2003 Iraq War, by insisting overthrowing Syrian President Bashar Assad is more important than destroying ISIS (both Donald Trump and Bernie Sanders oppose overthrowing Syrian President Assad, and insist we must destroy ISIS instead), and in consequently intent on starting a war with Russia, who supports Syrian President Assad, through a Syria No Fly Zone, which air war with Russia could easily escalate into a World War, and conceivably into a Nuclear War with Russia.

Therefore:

- 3) I believe we all have an interest in seeing to it that Hillary Clinton is criminally prosecuted over her clear non-secure email crimes transmitting classified information, so as to prevent her from:

A) CERTAINLY repeating the mistakes of the 2003 Iraq War with her determination to overthrow Syrian President Bashar Assad, rather than wage war on ISIS;

B) probably causing a war with Russia over a Syria No Fly Zone, which could,

C) easily escalate into a World War, with Turkey, Saudi Arabia, and Iran, starting the chain of countries joining the war, and which could

D) very conceivably escalate into a nuclear war, given U.S. and European efforts to strip Russia of the protection of its neighbors, Ukraine and Georgia.

Sincerely,

Everyone, By the way, I need help protecting, "Existence" that I wrote for William. When formatted mathematically or philosophically, it is the finished works of Renee' Descartes. I wrote it in an artsy format for William- but thatNs not my usual style at all. Charles wants to dole it out to different writers and let them claim credit for it- but I e-mailed it to numerous Harvard professors in 2004 when I wrote it. I FedExed it to William in [REDACTED] but St. JAMES' Palace violently rejected it. So, I included a copy of it among letters I postal mailed to William in September 2011. William used to request my letters be sent to his RAF Base in Wales. I saw him in a tan-coloured Flight suit sitting at a computer desk on a roly wheeled-chair opening the Manilla envelope that contained my Christian Chronicle newsclipping about 9/11. That Manilla envelope contained a photo of me [REDACTED] I saw William take it out of the envelope. I wrote the letters, William- blue paper inside shiny, pretty pink envelopes. So, anyway, wicked Charles wants to steal all my hard work- all the books I have been working on, the plays, the TV pilots- so I want them protected. If he has already done any damage, the Lord has shown me that there will be huge worldwide celebrations as all those stolen things, all my stuff, is returned to me. I want my life back. The life Christ died to give me. I am loved, admired, celebrated, respected, trusted, by the World and Charles can't change that. [REDACTED]

Everyone, As discussed, I can't be put into the database of Witness Protection because Charles wants to hack the Hades out of it. I know him and the MI's are assuring me that if he can't find me- he may lash out at the others in the database-anyone with a similar name or suspected city. I also can not have a pet with any micro chip or attached ID because Charles is already planning to find me that way. I can not have a mailing address- or even a PO Box with a go-between to pick up mail because they will sit outside every US Post Office until someone leads them to me. I have heard the MI's discussing this. I have more thoughts on this later [REDACTED]

July 05, 2016 Back to business- Gentlemen, Stalkers beginning to surround me. Not MI's- although there were some here earlier. Locals. I am trying to get some thoughts down on paper- I am a writer or atleast I used to be. I want to press the most severe charges that exist against these Local Stalkers. Pic attached but pretty much everyone near me- is a Stalker [REDACTED]

Please stop the spamming and headgames, and check out who sent this phone # [REDACTED] Your FBI can abuse and steal from 100 year old ladies.

The FBI and their business partner [REDACTED] Stole my home and condo and threatened me several times. I do not need any reminder of this in my life.

Again, I just want my SEC money and the $10M from Richard Blum.

James Comey I myself am not an FBI issue and I want to be left alone. I have suffered enough from FBI Fraud, Waste, Abuse, Intimidation, Crimes, Toying, Head Games, etc.

For the record the Central FBI must compensate me for my stolen condo and home.

STOP FURTHER HEAD GAMES AND TOYING.

I have to be very careful. These chest pains that I have been telling you about are getting worse. Also, my mind is very fried and burned out on crimes. The FBI and [REDACTED] knew for months that they were adding stress, and they are basically putting me to the Grave.

Instead of the FBI and [REDACTED] focusing on Federal Crimes, they are stealing homes and playing head games, fraud, waste, and too much abuse.

I do have very bad chest pains, which I told your staff. The FBI wants me dead since I caught them in massive Crimes, which stealing Condo's and homes in against international law.
