Dear Sir -

At the September 15th meeting of the National Council of Churches general Board a policy statement on Fire-arms control was adopted.

Enclosed find a copy of the proposed statement and the final statement. In a lively debate, I succeeded in having the board delete lines 35-38 of the proposed statement, which I saw as a gratuitous insult to police, and deleterious to morale.

It is anticipated that at the next meeting of the general Board February 19-22 in San Diego a policy statement on Police will be introduced. This will in all likelihood reflect the irresponsible emotional hysteria characteristic of NCCC's customary posture.

I should like to attend to mitigate the possible adverse effects on police morale, but find/am unable to budget for a cross-country trip.

Could you, Sir, Recommend a possible source to cover such expenses?

Asking Almighty God to continue to bless you and your great indispensable works, I am, faithfully,

ENCLOSURE

A POLICY STATEMENT of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America

FIREARMS CONTROL

Adopted by the General Board
September 15, 1967

Every year an appalling number of citizens of the United States are victims of gun murders, suicides and accidents. In comparison with other Western nations, it appears that too many of these casualties reflect overly permissive firearms policies. The nation has seen an alarming tendency for extremists of all kinds to depend upon the ownership and use of firearms to determine the success of their respective causes.

The National Council of Churches reaffirms its belief in the God-given "right to life" as fundamental and sacred. In an increasingly complex and urbanized society, it is not possible to protect life and maintain public order when individuals have unregulated access to firearms.

Therefore, the General Board of the National Council of Churches renews its support for strong and adequate legislation regulating the sale, transportation, ownership and use of firearms. Such legislation at the federal level should restrict the shipment and sale of firearms so as to eliminate mail-order sales to individual purchasers. It should also prohibit individual importation of all firearms with the exception of antique collectors' items. In addition, federal statutes should limit purchases of pistols to those persons over 21 years of age and of rifles to those over 18. Firearms manufacturers and dealers should be required to pay adequate federal license fees and be of reputable character and without criminal record.

Both federal and state governments should enact measures or broader existing legislation which outlaw private possession and transportation of destructive devices such as grenades, fire bombs, bazookas, mortars, and antitank guns.

States should require a permit for the purchase, ownership, possession and use of firearms in order to complement federal action. Permit requirements ought to incorporate proper identification of applicant (by the fingerprint method if possible), and a waiting period prior to issuance so that an adequate check can be made of the prospective purchaser to verify such matters as age, absence of mental illness, and lack of a felony record.

The states should institute appropriate procedures for the registration of all firearms and their owners. Failing action on these matters by the states, the federal government should take suitable action.

Federal, state and local legislation should incorporate firearms policies which protect and sustain the public interest rather than the special interest of any private group or sector of society.

We are fully aware that firearms control legislation does not take the place of constructive measures to eliminate the causes of crime and social disorganization. It does, however, represent a long overdue measure which might have prevented much tragic loss of life.

General Board
September 14 and 15, 1967

PROPOSED POLICY STATEMENT ON

Local Govt. -2-

24 States should require a permit for the purchase, ownership, possession
25 and use of firearms in order to complement federal action. Permit requirements
26 ought to incorporate proper identification of applicant (by the fingerprint 27 method if possible), and a waiting period prior to issuance so that an adequate 28 check can be made of the prospective purchaser to verify such matters as age, 29 absence of mental illness, and lack of a felony record.

30 The states should institute appropriate procedures for the registration of 31 all firearms and their owners. Failing action on these matters by the states, 32 the federal government should take suitable action.

33 Federal, state and local legislation should incorporate firearms policies
34 which protect and sustain the public interest rather than the special interest 35 of any private group or sector of society. At the same time the police, the 36 National Guard and other bodies entrusted by society with the possession and 37 use of firearms, should be trained in proper restraint in the use of such 38 weapons.

39 We are fully aware that firearms control legislation does not take the 40 place of constructive measures to eliminate the causes of crime and social dis-41 organization. It does, however, represent a long overdue measure which might 42 have prevented much tragic loss of life.

Dear Sir:

I am on a committee to study the church school literature of our local Methodist Church. As you know, much of this material comes from the National Council of Churches.

Will you please send me pertinent material on the National Council of Churches, material on infiltration of churches by Communists or directions as to where I can obtain such information.

I would appreciate any suggestions you could make as to the type of things we should be aware of in making this study.

Thank you for your cooperation.

Is there any information that you can release to me about the National Council of Churches; Whether or not it has Communist element in it?, is it involved in any of the riots we are having in this country, or any action that is contrary to Christain behavior?

The Presbyterian Church that I belong to has for some time supported the National Council of Churches, but, with some reservations, due to some of its policies and some of its work being questionable. It's for these reasons I would like this information and will be most grateful to you if you can be of any help to me.

Dear Mr Hoover,

I have never written to you before and therefore, I wish to begin by stating the deep respect and admiration I have for you as a person and for what you have accomplished through the FBI. I also want to state how much I personally and I know millions of others appreciate your influence upon the moral climate of our nation. May God give you strength to continue in your important calling.

My purpose in writing to you is due to the fact that, from time to time, I am confronted by people who allege that the Clergy of the United States and that specifically the National Council of Churches is infected with Communistic influence and that there are people within its organization who are Communistic in their philosophy. Very often, to back up their statements, they use the name of J. Edgar Hoover and the FBI as having made these charges. I would appreciate it if I could have some information as to what you may or may not have said in these matters or if you could refer me to where I could find copies of any statements you may have made in this regard that I might study them.

I apologize for making this demand upon your time and the time of your staff. If it is possible I would appreciate any help you might give me.

Mr. Edgar Hoover,

Dear Mr. Hoover, I am asking you a few questions. I have been reading the R. S. V. Bible, and many people claim it is much better Bible than the King James. But to me I think it is rotten. There are so many verses left out. The R. S. V. Bible leaves Christ in the grave, and it says Joseph is the father of the Lord Jesus Christ. King James say in Col. 1:14 that we have redemption through His blood. But the R. S. V. leave the blood out. Is it true that our Nation is going Red through the National Council of Churches? Is the National Council of Churches a Communist Front? I hear that there is a Communist Front in the Methodist Church. Is that true? Is it true that 30 of the translators of the R. S. V. Bible are connected or belong to Communist Fronts? When they tried Bishop Oxnam was he found guilty of preaching Communism, and being a fellow Traveler with the Communist? I read in a pamphlet that 4 Methodist Bishops belong to Communist Fronts is that true and what are their names? I belong to the Methodist at one time, but they got so rotten I got out of it. I appreciate the many good things you have done for the U. S. A. and wish we had millions like you. Please answer all these questions on a type writer. I am willing to pay you for the information. Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have in our Church School a teenager [redacted] whose uncle is a member of the John Birch Society.
I think [redacted] belongs to their youth organization.

As I was soliciting memberships for our local United Church Women, he brought me an article to read attacking the organization & their stance in support of the United Nations.

Each Sunday he would bring me another article to read about the United Nations or the National Council of Churches as I am interested.

in all three of these organizations.

He claims all the Presidents of the National Council have been Communist sympathizers. Knowing some of these men & many who hold important positions I know these statements are untrue.

I have brought him literature defending these organizations but he won't be influenced by anything I say.

Will you please send me a statement concerning your investigation or sinners of the National Council of Churches? This may have some effect on his thinking although he said you could be wrong too.

Sincerely yours,

June 21, 1967

VIETNAM SUMMER

The June 1967 issue of "Four Lights" published by the United States Section, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom (WILPF), contains an article captioned "'Vietnam Summer' Is Plan to Reach Grass Roots, MARTIN LUTHER KING Heads Drive to Put 10,000 Workers into Field," which states in part as follows:

"Vietnam Summer is a call for 10,000 volunteers to spend the summer in 500 communities organizing and educating against the war. The goal is to reach the millions of citizens in communities across the country who oppose the war in Vietnam but whose voices have not been heard. Dr. MARTIN LUTHER KING's call for Vietnam Summer is supported by Dr. BENJAMIN SPOCK, ROBERT SCHEER, Dr. JOHN C. BENNETT, Dr. ALBERT SZENT-GYORGI, Archbishop PAUL J. HALLINAN, Rabbi ABRAHAM HESCHEL and many others. The recommendation is to set up ad hoc committees in every community to 1) conduct draft education, 2) carry on a door to door educational campaign, 3) call congressmen home for hearings on the Vietnam war, 4) set up discussion groups in public places. Each community is to decide on plans adaptable to their specific areas.

"Teams of representatives of peace organizations visited key cities during the week of May 8 where they met with peace and other leaders to initiate ad hoc committees. JO GRAHAM participated in the Baltimore meeting and MILDRED SCOTT OLMSTED attended the meetings in Columbus, Ohio and Chicago. There will be training sessions for major leaders. There will be leaflets and other material. Also, we can and should use WILPF literature such as Peace in Vietnam and our latest flyer We Are Heading Toward World Destruction. Among study guides available are Peace Is Possible by ELIZABETH JAY HOLLINS and an

Dear Director Hoover:

I have been reading some material on the National Council of Churches in the hope of being better informed on the organization.

A book I recently read was the report of the Vestry Committee of St. Marks Episcopal Church in Shreveport, Louisiana. Their finding, in summation, state that it is an aid to the communist conspiracy because of their stands against right to work laws—in favor of seating Red China in the U.N.—for Medicare—increase foreign aid to Communist countrys, and abolition of the House Committee of Unamerican Activities. They also state the Board of the NCC speaks for 39 million protestants, who they do not truly represent.

If all of their findings are true, I am deeply concerned that an organization using the name of the church may be tampering with the Soul of America.

Would you please furnish me with any information you might have, and the results of your findings.

I have been asked to serve as organizer in this area for the Methodist Laymans Co-Ordinating Committee. I am enclosing a membership card which states the committees purposes, I was elected into this position of leadership at a meeting the other night, the National Council of Churches became a heated topic of conversation, the ministers and the district superintendent stated that the Methodist church had investigated the National Council of Churches and found no wrong, or dangerous communist element in them.

I as an American have great faith in the F.B.I. and feel your organization and the information received from your organization is fact and truth. It is my understanding the committee we are forming is to work against those trends which encourage infiltration of our churches with communist doctrine thru Methodist- Church and Sunday School, literature, thru ministers and all phases of church work.

Having committed myself to this work, to be effective, it will be necessary to work with fact and truth, only then can I work with confidence, and the assurance in knowing our cause is right.

I will appreciate any information which it is permissible for you to send on the National Council of Churches, anything which would be helpful in our work. UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : The Director

DATE: 5-12-67

FROM : N. P. Callahan

SUBJECT: The Congressional Record

Pages H5346-H5348. Congressman Rarick, (D) Louisiana, spoke concerning the involvement of ministers in various activities. He requested to have printed in the Record an editorial from the April 29, 1967, Baton Rouge State Times entitled "Not The Voice of America" and an article entitled "Is the NCC Really Soft on Communism?" written by David A. Noebel and published in the Christian Crusader for January 1967. The article in the Crusader comments on the operation of the National Council of Churches (NCC) pointing out it is really two organizations in one. The General Board and General Assembly are composed of denominational representatives. The article states "It is, in fact, the full-time professional staff that comprises the 'hidden' NCC. These individuals form the bureaucratic and policy-making structure of the organization - - - ." This article makes reference to a pamphlet issued by "NCC Number Two" in connection with the motion picture "Operation Abolition." The article points out that one is left with the impression that this pamphlet was actually endorsed by the General Board. "However, one page later we are tersely advised, 'The following material is not to be construed as reflecting the attitudes or position of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. '" The pamphlet was distributed by "NCC Number Two." Mr. Noebel goes on to state "The actual disposition of the professional staff was revealed more fully when this writer wrote the NCC Office of Information and asked for material concerning Operation Abolition. What should return but a malevolent article sent out by the National Council from the pro-Communist New York Post referring to the FBI Director as follows: 'The highest secular authority on matters of faith and morals in the U. S. is J. Edgar Hoover, horse player and wrestling fan.' (New York Post, May 4, 1961)" Mr. Noebel also stated "Herbert A. Philbrick, former FBI agent within the Communist Party and still a top authority on the subject, related in a recent article how the Communists planned to make the World Council of Churches toe the Communist line." He quoted from an article by Mr. Philbrick which appeared in the Manchester Union Leader, May 13, 1966.

In the original of a memorandum captioned and dated as above, the Congressional Record for 5-11-67 was reviewed and pertinent items were NOT RECORDED marked for the Director's attention. This form has been prepared in order that portions of a copy of the original memorandum may be clipped, mounted, and placed

Dear Sir:

Forgive me for taking up your time with what may seem of small importance to you but is of major importance to me and I believe of a large concern of many of my fellow church members.

There has been very strong rumors as to the full support of the National Council of the Churches of Christ in the United States of America, toward the Communist cause. I must confess that I have never been one to read the complete news of all the doings and have no source other than you to turn to for an accurate account of the Communistic control in this organization. This is becoming more and more a source of great discontent in our church, the First Baptist Church of [redacted] which was at one time as I understand it, a fully cooperative member of the American Baptist Convention before this discontent became so prominent. Such discontent could even grow into a major split of our church which I would regret very much to see happen.

Do you have and could you give me the names of active Communists and their position held in the National Council of the Churches? Or at least could you give detailed account as to some definite actions that this group has done to aid and further the Communist cause? I like to feel that in these United States, any person or organization is still innocent until proven guilty. I do not favor destruction of anyone or anything by way of a whispering campaign. I am proud of my American Heritage as well as my Christian Heritage and belief, and certainly would not want to help in any way to further communism any place. So would certainly appreciate any information you could give me regarding the presence of Communistic control and action within the structure of the National Council of the Churches of Christ, and if there is, any suggestion you could offer to best rid this condition from its midst, that could be done by people such as myself, would be greatly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance, for your dependability and cooperation in this matter, I remain a very concerned Christian worker to Christ's cause and not to Communism.

Sincerely,

I am at present the 4th grade Sunday School apt and teacher and the Dean of Vacation Bible School of the First Baptist Church of [redacted] Judson Press materials are affiliated with the National Council of Churches as is the Revised Version of the Bible and causing a direct conflict to our people.

Honorable Mr. J. Edgar Hoover,
Director,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Having never corresponded with your office before, I feel somewhat remiss about this letter. Realizing the magnitude and importance of your office to the welfare of our country, hesitantly I ask your guidance and assistance with the following.

I am a member of the Official Board (policy making board) of a local Methodist Church who have recently "investigated" the National Council of Churches of Christ in America. The Methodist Church, by local or individual congregation option, supports this organization by way of district and conference claims to the local budget. I believe the reasons for this investigation stems from the many charges and rumors (X) of Communist infiltration into the governing body and staff of the National Council of Churches (NCC).

As you may be aware, many Methodist Churches and probably other denominations have and are withdrawing support from this organization for these supposed charges. I think these church actions may be a case of follow the leader and may have resulted from right wing literature. John A. Stormer's "None Dare Call It Treason", Liberty Bell Press of Florissant, Missouri, would certainly bring action if taken at face value. Stormer entitled one section of this book, "Subverting Our Religious Heritage", pages 125-133. Stormer quotes from some articles in this section and gives reference to your 1967

What I would like to know is:

- (1) How many known Communists or sympathizers are on the policy making board of the National Council of Churches? Are names available?
- (2) How many known Communists or sympathizers are on the staff (employees) of the National Council of Churches? Are names available?
- (3) What is your opinion of the involvement of the National Council of Churches in racial matters; i.e., members officially participating in marches, sponsoring training camps for marchers, etc? Also your opinion on the NCC's involvement in labor and politics; i.e., lobbying in Congress in favor of "right to work laws", etc? Do you think these actions are or could be Communist dupes? It seems to me these areas are within the bounds of Christian social action, but how can one be sure of the true motivation for involvement?
- (4) How many known Communists or sympathizers are in the ministry of the Virginia Conference of the Methodist Church? Are names available?
- (5) How well have the Communists infiltrated the Methodist Church? In members, literature, etc?
- (6) How well have the Communists infiltrated our public and private schools? The 1940s.
- (7) What is your opinion of the value of withdrawing recognition and support from the National Council of Churches in order to combat subversion? Isn't it possible to do our own country more harm and give the Communists aid by this action? How does one find the real truth?

Some of the questions may sound "loaded", but believe me they are not meant to be. I am sincerely interested in enlightenment and feel your sound, knowledgeable judgement or opinion will give me this enlightenment. I am most confused by what I hear discussion-wise and by what I read.

Any further advice or guidance on this matter would be greatly appreciated. Thank you for your understanding and for your great service to our country.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I hate to bother you as I know how busy you are, but I need some information desperately, and think you can help me. I feel that you are the most well informed man in the United States today on the infiltration of communists in our country.

Do you have, or can you direct me to someone who can give me information on the communistic infiltration of the National Council of Churches? We are trying to educate the people in our church that ~~this is a~~ know fact, and naturally we have to have facts to prove it to them, our biggest concern is the men with communistic affiliations who helped write, or should I say translated the Revised Standard Version of the Bible. I have read it in the H.U.A.C. report, but thought by chance you could give me more to go on.

Any consideration you can give me on this will be very greatly appreciated, as things are really boiling here now.

Dear Congressman:

In reply to your letter of March 20, 1967.

Allow me to thank you for your efforts in my behalf. Also, via your office, may my thanks be expressed to Commissioner Cohen and his staff for efforts explaining why the Metropolitan Music School, Inc. and the National Council of Churches have not had their Tax Exempt Status removed.

However, would you please have Commissioner Cohen explain why a subversive organization (Metropolitan Music School, Inc.) and a church? organization the National Council of Churches can attempt to influence legislation and legislators and NOT have their Tax Exempt Status revoked?

Clearly the Metropolitan Music School, Inc. and the National Council of Churches have not adhered to their stated purposes and objectives upon organization.

On April 8, 1964 the NCC sent a letter to the Hon. Charles M. C. Mathias, Jr., House Office Bldg, Washington, D. C. seeking to influence legislation concerning School Prayers. It was this very piece of legislation that set off the investigation by the IRS of Christian Crusade.

Dear Congressman:

It is obvious to me that there is a double standard of dealing with various organizations as to Tax Exempt Status. There have been many instances of religious organizations, in the past three or four years, attempting to influence legislation. Vietnam, Civil Rights, School Prayers (The 1st Amendment) are only a few items.

When one organization's tax exemption is taken away and another's is not and both have openly attempted to influence the same piece of legislation then, it seems to me, some congressmen should find out why and bring justice back to the country they have sworn to uphold.

Please accept my thanks for your consideration of this matter in the past and may I hope to have a reply at your convenience?

Gentlemen:

Would you have any printed information concerning the National Council of Churches and whether or not it has been infiltrated by the Communists?

We belong to the United Church of Christ and it is affiliated with the National Council of Churches. Recently a controversy has arisen within one local church as to whether the N.C.C. is pro-Communist or not. We've heard radical opinions from both sides and would like true facts on this.

Has this organization been checked out at any time and would you have any documented information on this? I would appreciate any help you could give me on this matter.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover:

We have been having some discussion in our church concerning the old General Council of Churches and the present National Council of Churches and the World Council of Churches. The discussion centers around the fact that some people believe the organizations involved to be Communist organs and that they have infected many if not all churches affiliated with them. I know the department is fully informed upon such matters and is authoritative on this subject, which, I frankly admit I am not, but desire to know the truth involved in this matter.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Herewith is a list of various members, prepared by the Laymen's Commission of The American Council of Christian Churches.

I am wondering if someone in your organization can advise me if this list is accurate? Further, is it current? That is, are most of the people listed here still living?

I am concerned with what seems to me to be the growing communist control of our country. What can I do to off-set it?

Dear Sir,

Recently the youth group at my church got into a discussion about The National Council of Churches. I have often upheld this group in discussions and realize it has numerous faults, but in this discussion one of our leaders brought in information supposedly proving that The National Council of Churches was in reality a communist front organization. In supporting this thesis they quoted the FBI as a reference. I was to say the least, shocked. I am a third class personnelman in the U. S. Navy and consider myself an American in every sense of the word and certainly do not want my name associated with any subversive organizations. My question is do your records indicate that this organization is in fact a communist front? I would appreciate any information you could send me and would gladly pay any postage COD.

I realize your job is far more important than answering my questions and certainly appreciate your time.

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover, Director

Dear Mr Hoover:

In reading some of your public expressions of concern I conclude that you are in the forefront of those in this country who are deeply concerned with the spiraling crime rate that is presently in progress. I feel that you are also vitally interested in doing what you can to slow down or stop this trend and are in a position to lend aid to others who are interested in such an effort and this is why I am writing you.

I am a member of the General Board of the National Council of Churches and am disturbed that this organization has not spoken out in this area. I am also disturbed that so much of the effort at correction of the problem seems to be concerned with more laws, more law enforcement, etc. and although these are all very well, it seems to me that something should be said about each individual's responsibility in this and how much of this crime can be stopped only by each individual's re-evaluation of his own moral posture and coming to a decision that sometimes "getting by" or "getting away with" something is an immoral, criminal act. I think that there are others who are better able to make decisions about law enforcement but I think that it is certainly a duty and responsibility of the churches to speak out loud and clear on the moral side of the issue, especially to individuals.

Could you help me? I need any type of information that you feel would be helpful but most especially, I would think, information about the number of people who are convicted of income tax evasion, embezzlement, fraud, and those types of crime where the individual deliberately makes false statements for his own gain and does not usually consider this a criminal act in the more widely used sense of this term as armed robbery, for example. These acts are usually, I would think, of a solitary nature and involve only one person. The victim is a large institution or even our government and makes the act even more solitary because in this case the victim is not even an identifiable personality. I feel very strongly that this type of crime is doing much to speed the moral decay of this country.

I have not made any type of formal statement yet as I am still very much in the formulative stage. I would appreciate very much information such as I have mentioned or any that you feel would be helpful. If you have other ideas on this subject, I would be delighted to hear them.

Thanking you in advance for your consideration, I remain

February 12, 1967

The Honorable J. Edgar Hoover
Director of Federal Bureau of Investigation
United States Department of Justice
Washington, D. C.

My dear Mr. Hoover:

May I take a few moments of your valuable time to ask you some questions which are of great concern to me?

This area of concern to me is the National Council of Churches and what appears to me to be subversive influences in Methodism and other denominations of the Protestant faith. There are many in my Church who would question the actions of the National Council in true Christian spirit, but so many others who would laugh about "witch hunting" and fanaticism have certainly deterred them. What is most disturbing has been the public "Smearing" of any individual who will not be silenced without some reasonable explanation.

Recently the General Director of the Cleveland Council of Churches unleashed an attack on the American Council of Churches and a local Baptist Minister which was a far cry from Christian brotherhood and charity. Also, his views were published as "news" in the largest Cleveland newspaper. This method of smearing the people who question and not giving the answers lead one to suppose that the answers cannot be given. And in my opinion there are far too many Ministers who have been using this technique who are executive board members in the N.C.C.

I have read your excellent book "Masters of Deceit" and consider it to have been a fine credit to my knowledge. It was the Chapter on how to spot the Communist line that got me to wondering seriously about the N.C.C. Could you tell me if you, too, feel that there is a definite pattern developing? The part that is so terribly shocking to me is the consistency of all the recent "pronouncements" the N.C.C. has been issuing to the Press, which I think are the current Communist line.

Mr. Dalton J. Woods and a panel of laymen of the First Methodist Church of Shreveport, Louisiana compiled a booklet entitled "Things You Should Know About Subversive Influences in Methodism". According to this booklet the Methodist Church campaigned actively for 9 of 15 Communist Goals the Cardinal Mindszenty Foundation stated in 1961. This panel listed publications of the Methodist Church and other forms of activity the Church took supporting these nine Communist goals.

Could you tell me if there is valid reason for concern about this situation? If so, what can I do to help correct it and how can I best help others to become aware of the danger of apathy?

Could you please send me information on the current Communist line?

I shall certainly be grateful to you for your reply concerning this matter. Thank you.

Sincerely yours,

Dear Mr. Hoover

Also a close friend of a former F.B.I. Agent Don Hall.
 Since leaving baseball I am back in my home town and in business. One of my interests is my church, The First Baptist. Recently at a business meeting a vote was made by our church body to withdraw support to the World and National Council of Churches. However the majority of our members are very much uninformed on the subject and want a source of information to become better informed and know whether support should have been withdrawn.

REC-75

Can you supply us with either material or a good source for material which could give us a true evaluation of these organizations.

My personal thanks to you for your years of devotion to the Bureau and the fight for America

A PROMINENT LEADER FOR

The National Council of Churches of Christ

now describes Communism as a faith. Dr. John C. Bennett, President of Union Theological Seminary in New York, the largest protestant theological seminary in the United States, in his book "Christianity and Communism Today" on page 185 states:

"There is no other faith which can compare with Communism except Christianity."

This is in line with the teaching of Dr. Harry F. Ward, the Methodist minister and an identified communist who taught so many years at this same seminary and may explain Dr. Bennett's actions at the World Council of Churches Conference in Geneva, Switzerland in July, 1966.

The Communist publication The Worker, of July 31, 1966 gave front page coverage to resolutions passed at the meeting of The World Council of Churches condemning the policy of the United States Government in Vietnam. We are advised by those in attendance that Dr. John C. Bennett along with the Communist Metropolitan Nikedim assisted in writing the resolution of condemnation which has been used for propaganda purposes by the Communist Party on a world wide basis.

Triennial Convention of the National Council of Churches

Once again resolutions were passed at Miami, Florida by the church leaders condemning the policy of the own government and The Worker, the publication of the Communist Party U.S., gave it front page coverage with these headlines (issue of Dec. 13, 1966) - "National Church Body Rejects Johnson's Vietnam War Line". Vice President Hubert Humphrey spoke at the convention only to hear the administration soundly condemned. He even pleaded for their support.

Communist Evaluation of Propaganda

"As Soviet power grows, there will be greater aversion to Communist parties everywhere. So we must practice the technique of withdrawal. Never appear in the foreground; let our friends do the work. We must always remember that the sympathizer is generally worth more than a dozen militant communists. A university professor, who without being a Party member lends himself to the interests of the Soviet Union, is worth more than a hundred men with party cards." - Georgi Dimitrov, Lenin School of Political Warfare. See Congressional Record page 17719.

The National Council of Churches, claiming to represent over 41,000,000 American protestants, which in turn is aligned through an organization called "The Coalition of Conscience" under the leadership of Walter Reuther, Dr. Eugene Carson Blake and Dr. Martin Luther King are going to be, and in fact already are, pressuring the Administration to withdraw from Vietnam and use the funds that we have been using to contain the Communists to expand the domestic "War on Poverty Program". These powerful forces working from within our Country are the most effective propagandists that the World Communist Movement has. NOT RECORDED definitely help the Communists, is this not treason?

The Reuther-Meany Battle within the Labor Movement

Walter Reuther has condemned Mr. George Meany, president of the AFL-CIO for his inflexible anti-Communist stand. Mr. Karl Prussian, former F.B.I. undercover agent, reports that Moscow issued a directive the Communist Party U.S. in 1938 directing the Party to back and support Walter Reuther. Reuther also has the backing of The National Council of Churches and the "Left-Wing" negro leadership. It is now predicted that the old C.I.O. Unions, will, through the Industrial Union Department of the AFL-CIO, follow the "Left-Wing" or pro-Communist leadership of Reuther, while the A.F.L., Craft Unions will follow the anti-Communist leadership of George Meany. Only time will tell if this will lead to a break up of the AFL-CIO. The churches have chosen to follow the pro-Soviet route with Reuther. If your denomination is a member of the N.C.C. you are supporting the pro-Soviet position. Order our Publication No. 122 (4 pages) giving Reuther's background (25 copies $1.00)

The election of November 8, 1966 was a shock to the Church-Labor-Negro Coalition, but within a few days they were starting to rebuild their fences by organizing a new attack on Conservatives. The New York Times of November 19, 1966 announces the formation of a new group to fight the "EXTREMISTS". It is called "Institute For American Democracy". Now let us take a look at some of the leaders, 47 of whom are named in the N.Y. Times article:

DR. FRANKLIN H. LITTELL, Chairman - President of Iowa Wesleyan College of Mt. Pleasant, Iowa. Dr. Littell has served in an official capacity with the subversive Methodist Federation for Social Action. - See our Publication No. 87 for detailed information.

MR. WALTER REUTHER - President of the United Auto Workers and of the Industrial Union Department of the AFL - CIO. Mr. Karl Prussion, former F.B.I. undercover agent, reports that Moscow issued a directive in 1938 to the Communist Party, U.S.A. to support Reuther. He has a long and close affiliation with the National Council of Churches. - See our Publication No. 122 for detailed information.

DR. ARTHUR LARSON - Former Director of U.S. Information Agency. Launched the "National Council for Civic Responsibility" which was announced in the October 10, 1964 issue of "Information Service", an official publication of the National Council of Churches. This issue was entitled "The Radical Right". The President of the National Council of Churches was listed as a member of the new organization. The purpose was to smear Barry Goldwater and influence the election. It went out of business a week after the election. It was primarily financed ($60,000.00) by the Democratic National Committee and Walter Reuther's Unions.

DR. JOHN C. BENNETT - President of Union Theological Seminary, where the Methodist, (identified Communist) Dr. Harry F. Ward taught for so many years. Dr. Bennett in his book, "Christianity and Communism Today" on page 185 states:

"There is no other faith which can compare with Communism except Christianity." This tends to place Communism and Christianity on a par.

DR. KIMBALL WILES - Dean of the College of Education - University of Florida. Dr. Wiles has for years been known and described by his associates at the University as a supporter of "Left Wing" or liberal causes.

HARRY ASHMORE - Director of "The Center for Study of Democratic Institutions" of which U.S. Supreme Court Justice, W.O. Douglas is Board Chairman. The Center is closely affiliated with Walter Reuther. The Center has published a pamphlet "The Corporation and the Union", written by Walter Reuther and the President of the National Council of Churches. Its Vice President, W. H. Ferry is also connected with the left wing "Fellowship for Reconciliation". Clark Kerr, President of the University of California at Berkeley, Henry Luce, publisher of Look Magazine and Reinhold Niebuhr are consultants for the Center while Dr. Linus Pauling and Bishop James A. Pike are on the staff. - You should get the idea.

RALPH MCGILL - Publisher of the Atlantic Constitution - Atlanta, Georgia. "Nuff Said".

DR. MARTIN E. MARTY - An editor of Christian Century, the un-official publication of the National Council of Churches and the Ecumenical Movement.

Communists are not likely to be considered extremists by the above organization.

Gus Hall, General Secretary of the Communist Party, U.S. and Walter Reuther, ever since the 81 Communist Parties from around the world met in Moscow in December, 1960, and issued the Communist Manifesto of December 5, 1960 calling for the complete elimination of Anti-Communist programs in the Military, the schools and public meetings, have been telling the American public that the danger to this country is not from the Communists but from the Anti-Communists or the Rightists. The National and World Council of Churches are part and parcel of the One-World Socialistic Society which has full Communist Party support. The Party has found the World Council and National Council of Churches to be its most effective propagandist. The July 10, 1962 issue of The Worker said to the Churches, "You may call it the Kingdom of God on Earth, we call it the Cooperative Commonwealth; what matters names, if we mean the same concrete things?"

COME YE OUT FROM AMONG THEM, OR LEARN TO COUNT RUBLES. IT IS THAT SIMPLE.

Institute for American Democracy, Inc.

The Chairman Franklin D. Roosevelt has been exposed as a member of Communist front organization - The Marxist Federation for Social Action, It anticipated that there will be no Communists exposed as extremists by this group.

THE NEW YORK TIMES, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 19, 1966.

New Group to Fight Extremists on Left and Right

By JOSEPH A. LOFTUS
Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18 — A new organization took out today after the radical right and the radical left and said it intended to keep after them full time.

Calling itself the Institute for American Democracy, Inc., the organization says it had a committee of 48 persons, composed of prominent church, business, education, labor union and public service leaders, along with figures from both major political parties.

Heading this effort as chairman is Dr. Franklin H. Littell, president of Iowa Wesleyan University and former senior Protestant adviser to the United States High Commissioner in Germany. Charles R. Baker is the executive director.

Dr. Littell said during a news conference at the Sheraton-Carlton Hotel that the institute "grows out of the concern of informed Americans over the rising volume of extremist activity, particularly by organizations in the John Birch Society orbit."

Interlocking Directorates

Dr. Littell, an ordained Methodist minister, said the Birchers had established "an interlocking directorate with Liberty Lobby, Americans for Constitutional Action, the Church League of America and a dozen other radical right groups, including several with daily or weekly radio programs."

He continued:

"They are in the vanguard of the biggest effort to brainwash a substantial portion of a population since Hitler's backers helped pave that paranoiac's path to power with an aggressive propaganda campaign."

Dr. Littell said these persons sometimes were referred to as "pinks" but that his experience in Germany and elsewhere "convince me that both the Communist and the radical right leaders are playing for keeps, they are flesh eaters."

The institute said a principal function would be to provide "news groups with facts to combat extremists who tried to take over parent-teacher associations, schools, town meetings and library boards and to eliminate or discredit educational, religious, trade union and public service associations. The group has established headquarters at 1230 Massachusetts Avenue N.W., Washington.

Dr. Littell said the institute expected to produce educational materials that would make clear

Panel of 48 Religious, Labor, Business and Civic Leaders Pledge All-Out Drive

The meaning of democratic processes and the falsity of charges often made by extremists. There will be occasions, he said, when the organization will demand "equal time" to answer broad-casts.

Budgeting Key Factor

The extent of its work will depend on its budget, which "is in the making now," Dr. Littell said. He declined to discuss amounts and contributors at this time because he said he did not want to subject contributors to abuse. Eventually, he said, the institute's financial information will be made public.

He did not identify any organizations on the left except for the Communists, who he said had "fanned the flames of black power" and had sometimes taken over demonstrations against the war in Vietnam. The emphasis in his remarks and in the literature released was on the John Birch Society and its associations.

The members of the committee are as follows:

Organization Leaders

Dore Schary, chairman of the Anti-Defamation League.
Morris Abram, president of the American Jewish Committee.
Dr. Irvin Applegate, president of the National Education Association.
Dr. David Hunter, deputy general secretary of the National Council of Churches.
Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People.
Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers and vice president of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations.

Mrs. Norma Morrison, co-chairman, Committee on Advancing the Democratic Process, Glenview, Ill.

Marxists Have A Fertile Field From The National Council of Churches of Christ

Dr. Franklin H. Littell Speaks at N.C.C. Triennial Convention (Dec. 1-7, 1963)

Dr. Franklin H. Littell has gone to considerable trouble to develop the theme that our founding fathers did not found this country as a Christian nation. Dr. Littell is professor of history of Christianity at Chicago Theological Seminary whose president, Dr. Howard Schomer, is listed as a contributing editor of Christian Century magazine. Dr. Schomer headed a group of prominent clergymen who sought the release from prison for Carl Braden and Frank Wilkinson. Both have been identified as communists yet Dr. Schomer in his appeal referred to them as: "Two distinguished protestant political prisoners."

The petition, for the release of these identified Communists, which Dr. Schomer presented to Attorney General Robert Kennedy carried 3000 signatures including many prominent N. C. C. affiliated clergymen — (See Christian Century 12/6/61)

Dr. Franklin H. Littell, a principal speaker at the Triennial Convention of the National Council of Churches of Christ, was one of the prominent N.C.C. clergymen whose activities came to light when the House Committee on Un-American Activities investigated communist activities in the New York area. The information reported below will be found on pages 2120 and 2121 "Investigation of Communist Activities in The New York City Area" released July 6, 1953.

While serving as a member of the executive committee of the Methodist Federation for Social Action in 1944 and 1945 Dr. Littell wrote an article for the official publication of this organization. (listed as subversive) entitled:

"A Cell In Every Church"

Dr. Littell was not referring to a prison cell in case N.C.C. defenders come up with the statement that this is taken out of context as will be noted from the following excerpts:

"The ethical concern grows out of the group. It is not the center which brought the group together in the first place. — The cell is a face-to-face group without turnover in membership. — This working unit in our time is usually called 'the cell', a term describing a living thing which subdivides and becomes a whole body.

"There are some progressive movements today which have rediscovered the importance of keeping the basic unit small if much is to happen. — Action is undertaken with a sense of discipline which can never be attained by an open meeting called in enthusiasm for carrying out of some program. For social action, like the missionary outreach of the group, is conceived as the carefully worked out plan of community purpose — a plan whose carrying power rests in the life of cell, rather than the scattered individual efforts of many well meaning people."

The following is the analysis from page 2121 of the report:

"Mr. Littell, it is plain to see, is a strong advocate of secrecy, on the part of the cell, in the adoption of program leading to action. Why? Because the real motives behind the program is hidden. The tactic of secrecy is followed by Communist Cells in all movements infiltrated and in all front organizations. The Communist not only hide their identity but they never disclose the real reasons and objectives behind the movements they initiate on specific issues and the measures they support and the action they advocate.

"The Cell form of organization, made up of small disciplined group, bound by a common ideology, meeting in secret behind closed doors, is what Mr. Littell favors and which the leadership of the Methodist Federation for Social Action endorses. What is the purpose? Their purpose is to seize control of the Church."

Liberal, Materialistic Theology Carries Over Into Politics

Joshua Beeman is, Director of Education of the Northern California — Nevada Council of Churches. He is also president of the California Federation of Young Democrats who passed the following resolutions at San Diego. — (L.A. Herald-Examiner Sept. 9, 1963). Joshua Beeman is listed as a sponsor of the National Committee to Abolish HUAC, a Communist front — Page 115 Guide to Subversive organizations and publications.

1. Admit Red China to the U.N.
2. Resume Diplomatic and trade relations with Cuba.
3. Withdraw from South Vietnam.
4. Recognition of Communist East Germany and Red China.

Phil Silver, a prominent Democrat of Los Angeles, in the Herald-Tribune of September 12, 1963, had this to say regarding these resolutions:

These resolutions were not intended to safeguard and protect our country, our government or its people. They were intended to give aid and comfort to the enemies of this nation. Middle of the road Democrats are amazed that these young Democrats, masquerading under the banner of the great Democratic Party have seen fit to stigmatize and destroy the reputation of the Democrats as the party of the people. No so called young Democrat who supported or defended this act of perfidy is worthy of public office.

Did the National Council of Churches denounce their leader, Joshua Beeman? They did not. It is common practice for their leaders to support Communist programs and objectives. See below:

Eleventh Fall Retreat — Methodist Federation For Social Action — Oct. 25-26, 1963

Mr. Joshua Beeman was listed as a speaker 10:45 - 12:00 Oct. 26, 1963 and his subject was:

"On Implementing Christian Ideals In Peace and Politics"

Another speaker on the same program was Rev. Jack McMichael, who has been identified under oath as a Communist yet continues in good standing in the Methodist Church serving as Minister to Grace Methodist Church of Stockton California for further details ask for our Publication 62. The Methodist Federation of Social Action is listed as a Communist Front. The radicals have control of the organized church from the top down.

Christian Century magazine, referred to above, is under the control of a Board of Trustees composed of N.C.C. notables including Dr. Eugene Carson Blake. It is considered an un-official mouth piece for the National Council of Churches. The Social Gospel of the N.C.C. is nearer to Marxism than it is to the Gospel of Jesus Christ.

On October 15, 1963 a birthday party was held at Carnegie Hall to honor Dr. Harry F. Ward, an identified Communist, who wrote the "Social Creed" first used by both the Methodist Church and by the Federal Council of Churches, predecessor to the National Council of Churches. According to Toccin — leading west coast Anti-Communist weekly, such notables as Dr. John Bennett, Bishop James Baker, Bishop John Wesley Lord, Dr. John A. MacKay, Bishop Walter Mitchell, Bishop Edgar A. Love, Rev. Henry Hiss Crane, Rev. Edward L. Peet, Dr. Ralph Seckman and many, many others were among the sponsors. The Worker, Communist publication, of October 15, 1963, states:

"Dr. Ward is a link between the Christian Socialist preachers of the late 19th century, who sought to end the Churches' neutrality in the class struggle (or subservience to the capitalists) and the pastors of the 20th century, who have joined in humanity's struggle for peace and a decent life of brotherhood. Many Christian ministers who cast their lot with mankind were inspired and taught by Dr. Ward. He mobilized the Churches in support of the Unionists. He helped set up the American Civil Liberties Union in 1920, becoming its first chairman. He became a firm advocate of friendship with the Soviet Union. We are going to be at Carnegie Hall this Tuesday evening, October 15 to wish this grand man many more birthdays. We (the Communists) are sure we will see you there." (Source: our Pub. 70 for a complete report on Dr. Harry F. Ward).

The National Council of Churches is indebted to this, identified Communist, for its Social Gospel according to testimony by Joseph Z. Kornfeder. (See our Pub. No. 70). A Communist writer in The Worker of July 10, 1962 sees little difference between the position of Social Gospel clergy and the Communists. He states:

"They (the Clergy) may call it the 'Kingdom of God on Earth': Marxists call it the Cooperative Commonwealth; what matters names, if we mean the same concrete things?"

HARRY F. WARD will hold a "have place in the gallery of great art commencing here was a point — of a special trip. His coming in an and at 3. Remember — and seeing him in these last years one wondered what future would wait him away from this world he loved so well. But men like him have strong roots — they don't wait any. He was far tougher than he looked. For this mint was a fighting man — frail and slight and modest as he seemed, there was that deep fire inside, which showed only in those sharp blue eyes behind the glasses.

I had the writings of under his friendship and of work with him during the days of the New Masses especially. I wrote frequently for us in the latter years and often quoted him on many a various question. He always had the time.

He was then some 25 years of age, he had lived and had and stirred up a life of experience and sagacity, and he shared it gladly with anyone he felt was on the side of him. That put you, in his back, on the side of the smoke.

In his quiet and sturdy way

he was a generalissimo against war. This man who treated Christian slaves of the Union thing like a primary for a year, was also chairman of the American League for Peace and Democracy from 1929 to 1930. Severely he confronted his position in the NAACP's Committee on Un-American Activities, saying: "I say they have a model of a man whom they could burn and he wouldn't be hurt."

[illegible]

He came to his social vision through his spiritual vision. He served as a pastor of his church in Chicago, near the "hog-sheads" at the turn of the century. These were the years of "The Jungle" which Upton Sinclair and our own Elia Reeve Blair memorialized. Harry penetrated the jungle and taught for the victims. He never lost his powerful criticism of capitalism.

This story caused him to be called "the man who was wrong" for demanding understanding and cooperation with the enemy to end his role and ending his affiliation with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. He thought that a mass meeting of Madison Square Garden indicting the Reds and the native fascists. His last public statements were "I think the war in Vietnam is in 1953 he was a signer of an open letter to President Kennedy urging him to end the war in Vietnam.

[illegible]

I query that accolade as a service stripe, for I came from a commanding officer in the long battle for man's liberation. And I had his final instruction to write to me: "With love, the Negro people are still in need of more power and faith in you and yours."

on October 15, 1963 honored a man described by an agency of our government as one of America's outstanding Communists. This fact was reported in the official publication of the Communist Party exactly as stated in;

The Worker, Issue of July 23, 1963

"Seventy of the Nation's outstanding ministers and rabbis and lay religious leaders, and civil libertarians, are sponsoring a meeting Oct. 15 to honor Dr. Harry F. Ward on his 90th birthday anniversary.

The meeting will be held in Carnegie Hall. Dr. Ward, a Methodist minister and teacher, first came to prominence in the early years of this century, as the exponent of what has become known as the 'Social Gospel' or the need to bring the ethical concepts of religion to bear in the everyday affairs of men and Nations.

The sponsor's list brings together many who have known and worked with Dr. Ward over the years, including the 100 year old Bishop Herbert Welch, who with Dr. Ward, was one of the founders of the Methodist Federation for Social Services in 1907. Besides Bishop Welch, 14 other Protestant bishops are sponsors; the heads or former heads of a number of the country's leading seminaries, together with a representation from their faculties; heads of religious organizations; editors of religious publications; ministers and rabbis; and others who have worked with Dr. Ward."

Dr. Harry F. Ward

Born in Britain, Ward came to the U. S. at 17. He was a crony of Eugene Debs, founder of the U. S. Socialist Party and Wm. Z. Foster former head of the U. S. Communist Party. Ward traveled to Russia in 1924 and 1931 where he studied Marx and Lenin. Teaming up with Wm. Z. Foster in a radio broadcast in Feb. 1946 he declared that Russia's slave labor camps were in reality nothing more than rehabilitation programs.

Former New York Communist leader, Joseph Z. Kornfeder, testified to the key role assigned to Dr. Ward and the Methodist Federation for Social Action which he founded, in spreading Communist doctrine in the United States.

Karl Prussion, former F.B.I. counterspy reports that the Communist Party in Michigan tried to recruit him for the Protestant ministry while Prussion was a student at Wayne University. The Communist Party advised that Dr. Harry F. Ward, a professor at Union Theological Seminary, would make all necessary entrance arrangements at the Seminary.

Joseph Kornfeder stated that he had reason to believe that Dr. Ward in 1924 conferred with Joseph Stalin who was very much interested in the living church approach better known as the "Social Gospel" of today as preached by most ministers affiliated with the National Council of Churches. Kornfeder further stated that there is a question as to whether Stalin learned from Dr. Ward or the other way around.

Joseph Kornfeder testified that the international representative of the Communist Party told him "to use Ward's preachers" in an attempt to win control over workers in large industrial plants in Ohio.

Benjamin Gilrow, former Communist vice presidential candidate testified that;

"The Comintern leaders were of the opinion that clergymen with Dr. Ward's point of view, using the cloak of religion, could render service of inestimable value to the Communist Cause in China and to Soviet interests."

This man, Dr. Harry F. Ward, with a record of over 200 Communist front affiliations and citations listed by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, for over 30 years served as Chairman of the American Civil Liberties Union, the same organization which has brought the legal action resulting in the Supreme Court decisions responsible for taking the Bible and prayer out of our public schools.

Dr. Harry F. Ward wrote the original "Social Creed" of the Methodist Church. He undoubtedly has done more to subvert the Protestant Churches of America than any other individual. He is responsible for that apostasy known as the "Social Gospel" in which Stalin himself took a personal interest because it offered a means of using the churches to further the Communist conspiracy. Dr. Harry F. Ward is listed in U.S. Senate Document 117 on page 95 as one of the most typical sponsors of Communist front organizations in the United States, yet on October 15, 1963 this man was honored by prominent clergymen and Seminary faculty members.

We unhesitatingly state that the denominations affiliated with the National Council of Churches are well along the road to being servants of the Anti-Christ. There must be some born again Christians left among you in the local churches. Are you going to continue to let your church be used as an instrument of the Soviet conspiracy? May God have mercy on us all if we fail him now.

Memorial Rites Jan. 4 for Dr. Ward

MEMORIAL SERVICES for Dr. Harry Frederick Ward will be held Jan. 4 in the James Memorial Chapel of the Union Chapel of the Union Theological Seminary, Claremont Avenue at 120th Street, N. Y. City, at 8 p.m.

Speakers will include John W. Bennett, president of the Union Theological Seminary; Bishop Lloyd C. Wicke, of the New York area of the Methodist Church, and Rev. Richard R. Morford, executive secretary of the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship.

Others who will participate will be Bishop Herbert Welch, Senior Bishop of the Methodist Church and co-founder with Dr. Ward of the Methodist Federation for Social Service in 1907; Rev. William Howard Melish, assistant director of the Southern Conference Educational Fund; Rev. John A. Collins, pastor of the Jefferson Park Methodist Church; and Rev. Lee H. Ball, executive secretary of the Methodist Federation for Social Action.

What was Dr. Ward's worth to the Communist Party?

Georgi Dimitrov made the following statement to the Lenin School of Political Warfare:

"A University professor, who without being a Party member lends himself to the interests of the Soviet Union, is worth more than a hundred men with Party Cards." Congressional Record Page 17719.

A University professor in a Theological Seminary, who was identified as a Communist by the name of Dr. Harry F. Ward has been worth 41,000,000 men with Party Cards. The National Council of Churches has used these 41,000,000 church members to further many, many Communist Party causes. Are you one of this 41,000,000?

Dr. Ward, Champion of Democracy

By JOSEPH NORTH

HARRY F. WARD will hold a unique place in the Gallery of Heroes I am compiling. Here was a saint — of a special type. His life came to an end, at 83, December 9, and seeing him in these last years one wondered what breeze would waft him away from this world he loved so well. But men like him have strong roots — they don't waft easy. He was far tougher than he looked. For this saint was a fighting man — frail and slight and modest as he seemed, there was that deep fire inside, which showed only in those sharp blue eyes behind the glasses.

I had the privilege of enjoying his friendship and of working with him during the days of the New Masses especially. He wrote frequently for us in the latter years and I often consulted him on many a vexing question. He always had the time.

He was then some 70 years of age, he had lived and led and stored up a life of experience and sagacity, and he shared it gladly with anyone he felt was on the side of Man. That put you, in his book, on the side of the angels.

HIS CRITERION

If you were committed to humanity he did not require you to join his Methodist Church or its Federation of Social Service which he founded in 1907 and served as its general secretary from 1911 to 1944. He was national chairman of the American Civil Liberties Union for 20 years, from its founding until 1940. The fight of the minority was on his crusading banner.

In his quiet and simple way

he was a generalissimo against war. This man who taught Christian Ethics at the Union Theological Seminary for 25 years, was also chairman of the American League for Peace and Democracy from 1934 to 1940. Serenely he confronted his detractors on the UnAmerican Committees, standing before them like a modern day Bruno whom they could not burn, and he declared in 1953:

"My judgments and actions concerning political and economic issues are derived from the basic ethical principles of the religion of Jesus, of which I am a minister and teacher." If the origin of his commitment led them to make the charge that he was a Communist, it was a tribute to the ethics of the Marxist philosophy and its adherents. Harry Ward never denied that moral kinship — on the contrary. He told me the last book he was working on might be called "Christ and MARK."

He came to his social views, I recall him relating, when he served as a pastor of his church in Chicago, "near the stockyards," at the turn of the century. These were the years of "The Jungle" which Upton Sinclair and our own Ella Reeve Bloor memorialized. Harry penetrated the jungle and fought for its victims. He never lost his powerful criticism of capitalism since.

This space cannot hold a recital of all the wars he waged — like demanding understanding and cooperation with the Soviet Union, hence his long and energetic affiliation with the National Council of American-Soviet Friendship. He chaired many a mass meeting at Madison Square Garden indicting the Nazis and the native fascists. His last public utterances were against the war in Vietnam: in 1943 he was a signer of an open letter to President Kennedy urging him to end the war in Vietnam.

One of my proudest treasures is a letter from him written in 1963. Though, of course, he knew my basic politics and guiding philosophy from way back, that Christian leader said to this Marxist adherent: "Your writing is as powerful as ever because of its lighting up facts with a glow from their moral significance. I rank you first among the columnists I read."

I carry that accolade as a service stripe, for it came from a commanding officer in the long battle for man's liberation. And I heed his final injunction, his last words to me: "Well, Joe, the biggest battles are still before us so more power and good health to you and yours. As always. . . ."

BOX 3 ZAREPHATH, N. J.

DECEMBER 30, 1966

VOLUME X NO. 11

THE INSTITUTE FOR AMERICAN DEMOCRACY, INC.

We predict that the year 1967 will be a year of decision. The rapid growth of the conservative and anti-communist movement has caused concern to the Marxist-Socialist-atheist coalition with its network of organizations and agents. The continued increase in the number of Americans learning the truth about subversion in government, education and religion has resulted in a concentrated effort to halt this trend by an all-out assault on anti-communist organizations and individuals. A stepped-up program is being carried out in every city and town to remove all opposition and the outcome of this drive will determine the future policies of our government and, indeed, the type of country in which we will live. These organizations and individuals dedicate themselves to "fighting 'extremism' of the right and left," but actually they are only interested in fighting the right as they themselves are on the left.

A new organization dedicated to this high-sounding ideal is the Institute for American Democracy, Inc. It was formed on November 18, 1966 and represents a de facto coalition of anti-anti-communist leaders, communist-fronters and some of the usual go-gooders. The national headquarters of this new organization is at 1330 Massachusetts Ave., N.W., Washington, D.C. (telephone 202, 737-1226). At their initial press interview, which was reported in the N.Y. TIMES of November 19, 1966, their purpose was described as follows: "A new organization took out today after the radical right and the radical left and said it intended to keep after them full time."

However, the chairman of the organization, Dr. Franklin H. Littell, was quoted as stating that the institute "grows out of the concern of informed Americans over extremist activity, particularly by organizations in the John Birch Society orbit." A check of the names of the forty-eight persons listed as members of the committee fails to reveal anyone who has ever shown any signs of "taking out after" extremists of the left. So it is not likely that the activities of this new group of "concerned" Americans will cause the communists and left-wingers any loss of sleep. We can also expect that the "orbit" of the John Birch Society will turn out to be a rather large one in the eyes of these "informed Americans."

Dr. Littell, according to the N.Y. TIMES article, said the institute will produce educational materials "that would make clear the meaning of democratic processes and the falsity of charges often made by extremists," and that the organization will demand "equal time" to answer broadcasts. Dr. Littell refused to name financial contributors because, he said, he did not want to subject them to abuse. However, he made it clear that the extent of the work of the organization will depend upon their budget which he evidently expects will be substantial since the organization has big plans for this "full time" job. Noting that Dr. Littell failed to mention any organizations "on the left," the TIMES article stated: "The emphasis in his remarks and in the literature released was on the John Birch Society and its associations."

The chairman of this new organization, whose purpose is really to destroy anti-communist and conservative organizations, is Dr. Franklin Hamlin Littell, a Methodist clergyman affiliated with the National Council of Churches. He is a graduate of Union Theological Seminary, an institution which has produced many of the leftist and social gospel clergymen ranging the theological wasteland today. Identified communist, Dr. Harry F. Ward (now deceased) taught at Union Theological Seminary for many years and his influence is very much in evidence.

Dr. Littell originally came from Syracuse, N.Y. where he was born in 1917. He has had a long career as an educator, working with young people. He wrote for the publication, "Social Questions," of the Methodist Federation for Social Action, a cited communist front. His writings were so radical that they received attention from the House Committee on Un-American Activities in their Investigation of Communist Activities in the New York City Area (July 7, 1953). In these hearings three articles by Franklin H. Littell, shown as the director of the Student Religious Association, Lane Hall, University of Michigan, were analyzed. The three articles form a series and are entitled "A Cell in Every Church," "Protestantism is a Success," and "Formation of the Group." The analysis reads as follows:

"Mr. Littell's organizational proposals on the infiltration of religion follow closely the cell techniques on infiltration described in the thesis on organization of both the Communist Party and the Communist International.....In his second article.... his views put him in favor of planned economy and in the camp of the Communists who like to call themselves liberals...."

"To carry out aggressively and...y a program to win support among church people for a system of planned economy and to build up opposition to the American economic system, Littell strongly advocates the cell concept of organization, developed by the Communists, as the most important element in the formation of the group...The driving force in the Methodist Federation for Social Action is the small cell that knows where it is going, that is disciplined and the driving force in the organization. The record will show that the cell in the federation consistently follows the Communist Party Line.....That Mr. Littell knows he is writing about the Communist concept of organization is clear from the following words of his article, A Cell in Every Church:

"There are some progressive movements today which have rediscovered the importance of keeping the basic unit small if much is to happen."

"The only so-called progressive movements that are consciously built on the cell concept of organization is the Communist Party, the Communist-front organizations and the trade unions and other organizations in which the Communist cells have gained control.....

"Mr. Littell, it is plain to see, is a strong advocate of secrecy, on the part of the cell, in the adoption of program leading to action. Why? Because the real motives behind the program can be hidden. The tactic of secrecy is followed by Communist cells in all movements infiltrated and in all front organizations. The Communists not only hide their identity but they never disclose the real reasons and objectives behind the movements they initiate on specific issues....

"The cell form of organization, made up of small disciplined group, bound by a common ideology, meeting in secret behind closed doors, is what Mr. Littell favors and which the leadership of the Methodist Federation for Social Action endorses. What is their purpose? Their purpose is to seize control of the church."

This analysis of Dr. Littell's writings does not reveal him to be an enemy of "extremists of the left." Dr. Littell has been senior Protestant adviser to the United States High Commissioner in Germany, and is at present president of Iowa Wesleyan College.

Heading the list of committee members described as "Organization Leaders," we find Dore Schary, chairman of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith, who has a published record of affiliation with communist-fronts. Another committee member with A.D.L. connections is Samuel Dalsimer, listed as vice chairman of Grey Advertising, Inc., New York. He is a member of the A.D.L. Executive Committee. The A.D.L. has been attacking and undermining conservatives and anti-communists for many years so these two men will undoubtedly be quite an asset to this new organization in its fight against "extremists of the right."

Immediately following Mr. Schary we find Morris Abram, president of the American Jewish Committee. Mr. Abram is also connected with the A.D.L. and is on the staff of the United Nations. Abrams is the man who introduced the draft resolution at the U.N. which could put discrimination complaints under the jurisdiction of a U.N. World Court. Also with the American Jewish Committee is Jacob Blaustein who is listed with the committee members from Business and Industry. He is shown as a director of Standard Oil Company of Indiana and a former member of the United States delegation to the United Nations. Mr. Blaustein is active in numerous international Jewish agencies and was a consultant at the formation of the U.N. in 1945.

From the National Council of Churches comes their deputy general secretary, Dr. David Hunter. Others active in the N.C.C. who are listed on the Institute for American Democracy committee are Bishop A. Raymond Grant, Dr. John H. Burt, Rev. Ray Gibbons and Dr. John Coleman Bennett.

Bishop Grant, president of the Methodist Board of Social Concerns, has been active in the Methodist Federation for Social Action (a cited communist-front) and was reported as signing a protest against the deportation of identified communist, Harry Bridges. Bishop Grant has several other communist-front affiliations according to published reports. Dr. Burt, Episcopal Bishop-elect of Ohio, is reported to have signed a legal brief filed with the U.S. Supreme Court on behalf of Rev. William Howard Melish, an identified communist.

Rev. Ray Gibbons, executive director of the United Church of Christ's Council for Christian Social Action, was reported as the signer of a letter to President Roosevelt in defense of the Communist Party. He was also the signer of a petition to Congress to eliminate the House Committee on Un-American Activities. It is understandable that he would want them eliminated as they have a record of his communist-front activities, including a DAILY WORKER (communist) article showing him as the signer of an appeal on behalf of an organization cited as communist and subversive in which they urge a militant foreign policy.

Rev. John C. Bennett, president of the Union Theological Seminary, is a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and has a long list of communist-front affiliations, according to published reports. Among these communist-front activities are the signing of petitions on behalf of convicted communists and atom spies, and attempts to eliminate the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Dr. Bennett has been vice chairman of the Liberal Party and on the Executive Committee of the Fellowship of Socialist Christians.

From the Catholic Left we find Dr. George N. Shuster, assistant to the president of the University of Notre Dame; Rev. John B. Sheerin, C.S.P., editor of THE CATHOLIC WORLD; and Mgr. Salvatore J. Adamo, executive editor of THE CATHOLIC STAR HERALD. Dr. Shuster is shown as a member of the Council on Foreign Relations and has four listings of communist-front affiliations reported by the Special Committee on Un-American Activities of the U.S. Congress. These had particular reference to organizations dealing with youth and which have been cited as communist and subversive.

Rev. John B. Sheerin is well known for his "liberal" viewpoint. He attacked the film "Operation Abolition" in his syndicated column without ever having seen it and is a strong supporter of the A.D.L. McGr. Adamo has surfaced as a "liberal" Catholic and is aiding the campaign to smear the John Birch Society. In an editorial in his diocesan paper the society was called "a refuge for both hate and distortion."

Another "Organization Leader" listed on the committee of the Institute for American Democracy, Inc. is Roy Wilkins, executive director of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People. Wilkins has long been active in the Fabian Socialist League for Industrial Democracy and has been shown to have affiliations with cited communist fronts, including one cited as the legal arm of the Communist Party. He has five listings in the Dies Committee Appendix IX alone. Another committee member who has long been associated with the NAACP is former U.S. Attorney General Francis Biddle. He has a long left-wing record, having been National Chairman of the Americans for Democratic Action (ADA) and a trustee of the 20th Century Fund of Boston and New York which finances Fabian Socialist activities.

From the Council on Foreign Relations, a sinister organization which promotes world government and influences U.S. government policy so strongly that it is called by many the "Invisible Government of the United States," and which has numbered among its members communists, Socialists, Soviet espionage agents, U.S. State Department officials, U.S. Presidents and top industrialists, we have Sen. Clifford P. Case of New Jersey, former President of the left-wing Fund for the Republic. Also from the CFR are Sen. Gale W. McGee, of Wyoming who has close ties with the A.D.L. and supports its policy of anti-anti-communism; George Cabot Lodge of Harvard University School of Business and Oscar De Lima, president of the Roger Smith Hotel Corporation.

From the left-wing labor hierarchy we have Walter P. Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers and vice president of the American Federation of Labor and Congress of Industrial Organizations, who has been using union funds to halt anti-communist and conservative activity and who was trained in the Soviet Union; James Patton, president emeritus of the Farmers Union, who has been active over the years in a variety of left-wing causes; and Jacob Potofsky, president of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers Union, who is a former Bolshevik and friend of many past Soviet leaders. He has been an official of the Fabian Socialist League for Industrial Democracy, a sponsor of the Socialist Rand School and the communistic Brookwood Labor College. To

From the field of business, industry and finance the following have been recruited: C. E. Israel, vice president of Fashion Frocks; Edwin G. Halperin, chairman of the Blackstone Manufacturing Company, Chicago; Edward A. Ring, president of Circle F. Industries, Trenton, N.J.; E. A. Hayes, president of the Hawkeye National Investment Company; Assa Spauling, chairman of the board of the North Carolina Life Insurance Company.

Committee members with backgrounds in education are Dr. Irvanae Applegate, president of the National Education Association; Rev. Colman J. Barry, president of St. John's University, Collegeville, Minn., a strong advocate of ecumenism; Dr. William Haber, dean of the College of Literature, University of Michigan, Rumanian-born professor who held a number of government posts under the New Deal and who is on the Executive Committee of the American Jewish Committee; Dr. Kimball Wiles, dean of the College of Education, University of Florida; and Prof. Vernon Mickelson, department of organizational sciences, Case Institute of Technology, Cleveland.

Also on the committee of this new extremist-fighting organization is Daniel Bell, professor of sociology at Columbia University. Bell (born Bolotsky) was a writer for the Socialist NEW LEADER, has been a consultant and board member of the Jewish Labor Committee, was on the board of the American Civil Liberties Union, and is the author of an anti-anti-communist book entitled, "The Radical Right."

Listed with those persons from the field of "Public Affairs" is Dr. Arthur Larson, former director of the United States Information Agency. He is a former professor and was Director of the World Rule of Law Center at Duke University Law School. He was formerly head of an organization with similar objectives and with some of the same personnel as the Institute for American Democracy, Inc., which was called the National Council for Civic Responsibility. Among those who have lent their names to both organizations are: Dore Schary, Morris Abram, Bishop Grant, Leon Keyserling, Ralph McGill, Jacob Potofsky, Marion Folsom, Dr. John C. Bennett, Dr. William Haber, James G. Patton and Roy Wilkins. The Council for Civic Responsibility was supposedly "non-political" but it just happened to be formed before the 1964 presidential elections and just happened to fold up shortly after they were over.

From the writing and publishing field the Institute has secured Ralph McGill as did the Council for Civic Responsibility. McGill is publisher of The ATLANTA CONSTITUTION and is an ultra liberal who has usually been found in the ranks of the anti-anti-communists. Also on the committee of the Institute are Hodding Carter, publisher of the DELTA DEMOCRAT-TIMES, and Dr. Martin E. Marty, literary editor of the CHRISTIAN CENTURY. Another member of the committee is John Cogley, religious news editor of the N.Y. TIMES, who is reportedly resigning that position to go with the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions. He is a well known "liberal" Catholic and former editor of the left-wing magazine, COMMONWEAL. Harry Ashmore, director of the Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions, is a member of the committee of the Institute for American Democracy, Inc. and was also connected with the Council for Civic Responsibility.

Also from "Publishing and Arts" we find Louis Untermeyer, a poet and former poetry consultant to the Library of Congress. He was a review writer for the Socialist NEW REPUBLIC and is shown as having signed a protest on behalf of the John Reed Clubs, communist clubs named after John Reed who is now buried in a place of honor beneath the Kremlin wall. Many persons since identified as communists signed this protest which appeared in the N.Y. TIMES of May 19, 1930.

Other individuals associated with this new group are William B. Cate, executive secretary of the Greater Portland (Ore.) Council of Churches; Sen. Frank E. Moss of Utah; Marion B. Folsom, former Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare; Oscar Ewing, former Federal Security Administrator; Mrs. Norma Morrison, co-chairman of the Committee on Advancing the Democratic Process, Glenview, Ill.; Leon Keyserling, former chairman of the President's Council of Economic Advisers; Dr. Joseph F. Kerrins, consultant, New England Birch Watchers, Attleboro, Mass.; and Thurmond Arnold, Washington lawyer and former United States circuit judge. Executive secretary of the group is Charles R. Baker, a public relations man.

Thurmond Arnold has been affiliated with communist-fronts according to the official records of the Dies Committee. For several years he was assistant attorney general of the United States in the anti-trust division which group was headed for a time by John Abt who has been identified as a communist and member of a Soviet intelligence group, according to sworn testimony. Leon Keyserling has been reported as stating that he agrees with all the principles of the Communist Party except that he would not agree on the necessity for a so-called "black belt" or Negro republic in the South. His wife, Mary Dublin Keyserling, was described as follows: "The evidence presented to the Board (Commerce Department's Loyalty Board) shows that Mrs. Mary Dublin Keyserling had been a member of the Communist Party and that she belonged to an unlimited number of Communist fronts." (Congressional Record, April 21, 1952, p. 4153.) Mrs. Keyserling is now a high official in the U.S. Government; she is Director of the Women's Bureau, U.S. Department of Labor.

In this complete list of the individuals comprising the committee of the Institute for American Democracy, Inc., supposedly formed to fight extremists on the right and on the left, there is not one single person who has ever been known to fight extremists of the left. There are many who are well known for their smears and harassment of patriotic Americans, known to left-wing liberals such as the persons comprising this group, as "right-wing extremists." The only extreme thing the John Birch Society and most organizations in its "orbit" do is to place loyalty to country over a one-world government. By exposing the activities of those who would betray their country's sovereignty to the power-seeking U.N. clique, they are upsetting some very well laid plans and this must be stopped before the American public becomes aware of where they are being led.

The conservative trend in the last elections has frightened the left-wingers and this new group, which is a coalition of leaders in many different fields (religious, industrial, civic) vows an "all-out drive" which can be aimed only at the conservatives as there is no one associated with it who has ever been a known conservative or anti-communist. There are, however, many who have supported communists and communist-fronts. In the usual manner of the liberal do-gooders, they have tried to cloak their organization with a semblance of respectability and moderation, with an avowed high purpose, but behind its respectable front this organization is just another well organized, well financed attack on conservative Americans who do not like what is taking place in their country and who are trying to do something about it.

Since 1967 will be a year of decision, conservatives must work harder to spread the truth about the plans and personnel of the World Conspiracy. The HERALD OF FREEDOM will be found in the ranks of the so-called radical right, taking out full time after the radicals of the left. We thank our friends for their past support and request their continued help in our efforts to bring the truth to the American people.

Gentlemen:

Would it be within your province to send me information on the possible penetration of the Communist conspiracy with the churches and within the National Council of Churches in America?

Our small local parish has some people who are concerned in this area and have and are withdrawing church pledges because some of their support is going to the National Council of Churches. Since this will create budgetary problems and I feel should create budgetary problems, if true, we must have some factual information. I have read some of Mr. Hoover's factual information in books but I need it in a direct letter if you will.

Thank you for this courtesy and thank you for the fine job being done by your department. May it always be so.

Dear Mr. Hoover;

I realize your time is at a premium - therefor, I know I am presumptuous in making this request, but, I am troubled about this issue and I would appreciate your authoritative comment.

I have read and heard comments regarding the National council of Churches (Robert Grant, Stewart McBurnie) Simply and directly are they affiliated in any way with subversion? For the peace of mind and security of my family I would like to know.

Congratulations on your unfaltering and courageous stand regarding all moral and patriotic issues - You are a bulwark between between God and man and His enemies-

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I am writing you for information concerning the communist movement within the National Council of Churches.

I have been doing some reading on the National Council and it's leaders and have become quite alarmed at some of the things I have found. But the minister of my church fully defends and backs the council. Our church is a member of the N.C.C., and therefore we are helping to support it.

I am very much concerned about this and would appreciate any factual information you can send me, including your personal thoughts on the subject.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Included in my gratuitous services is the editing of a monthly publication for my church, Calvary Lutheran of [REDACTED]. Deeply aware of the responsibilities incumbent with any writing assignment I am always anxious that my views shall be weighed with the judgment of respected and informed sources.

Within The American Lutheran Church a dialogue is underway as a prelude to a decision on membership in the National Council of Churches. I hold views that are strongly opposed to many of the functions of the N.C.C., particularly its emphasis on the church and its relationship to the socio-political issues of the day. The statements of some N.C.C. spokesmen leaves me with concern of its loyalty to God or Country.

Before voicing my views editorially, I must know whether my views are substantive, or simply conclusions resulting from disadvantaged observations. The limited influence which my views might have on other parishioners does not detract from the obligations of the writer.

It would be sincerely appreciated, Mr. Hoover, if you could furnish me with data on the National Council of Churches and/or refer me to another reputable authority that would assist me in preparing an editorial that will be forthright and just.

With prayerful best wishes to you and your staff for the New Year.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am a senior in high school and I am taking a course called Problems. This course includes a semester of Americanism vs. Communism.

My teacher says that the NAACP is not only a Communist-infiltrated organization, but a Communist Front organization. She also claims that the F. B. I. has proved that the National Council of Churches is Communist-infiltrated, and that most of the riots around the country (Watts, Berkley, Harlem) are Communist backed and inspired. M

My father says that these two organizations are not Communist-infiltrated and that while there are, no doubt, people connected with the National Council of Churches with Communist leanings, if not allegiance, that Council cannot in any real sense be considered controlled or substantially influenced by Communists. REC-3

Would you please tell me what the F. B. I. has found concerning the NAACP and the National Council of Churches? Also, would you send me a list of organizations considered Communist controlled or otherwise subversive?

Thank you very much.

Dear Mr. Hoover;

Never in my 51 years have I been so confused as to what to believe! I would appreciate a statement from you, more than I can say, as to your opinion on the infiltration of Communism in the National Council of Churches.

One place I read, some one quotes you as saying that nearly all of the objectives of the Communist Party have been aided or carried out by the Council. And other people have told me that they have seen statements that you have issued that cleared the Council of any infiltration.

I am sure there are many people today in the United States, who, like me, would like to read a statement from you on this.

If at all possible I would appreciate a reply to this.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

You were most kind to respond very quickly to a recent communication. I wonder if I may impose on you again.

There is an element in our community, as in all communities, I am sure, which is trying to defeat the efforts of the NCC by so called documentary proof of communistic infiltration within the personnel structure of the NCC.

Dr. David Hunter of the NCC was in our Parish recently and convinced all except a few extremists that there is absolutely no validity to these accusations.

To support Dr. Hunter's remarks I would appreciate a brief statement from your office in regard to this matter.

Such a statement from you would be extremely helpful to me and I believe quite convincing to some of our overly conservative citizens.

Gentlemen:-

I am a Presbyterian who has become extremely concerned about the National Council of Churches. All the information I can find concerning this organization leads me to believe that it has been deeply infiltrated by the Communist Party.

A number of us in our church are trying to spearhead a drive to have our church drop out of the N.C.C. However; it takes quite a mountain of facts against an organization to convince some people.

Would you please send me all the information you can concerning the N.C.C., especially its involvement with different communist or communist front organizations.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I am a Christian Church minister who has served [REDACTED]

I live in a community where a well organized and highly vocal group is using every means possible to convince people that the N.C.C. is under the control of the communist. I have shown them statements attributed to you, such as "I want you to know that neither on this occasion nor at any other time, have I made any statement criticizing the Federal Council of Churches or the National Council of Churches." (In reference to remarks made before the House Committee on Un-American activities, March 28, 1947)

This local group will not accept this statement because the only source is from material that speaks favorable of the N.C.C. at the present time they are showing the film "Crisis in our Churches" (Publius and Associates) that relies heavily on a quote from you, which is no doubt accurate in the context in which you made it, but they use it to infer that the National Council of Churches is infested with communist and communist sympathizers.

I know that it is a lot to ask, but since this forum group is causing many people to withdraw from their Church, as a favor to me and other ministers in our city, would you please send me a personal letter as to any evidence you may have as to communist infiltration in the Churches, especially in the National Council of Churches.

As a local minister who represents my Church nationally on the Board of the N.C.C., I am concerned about the threat of communism, but I am also concerned about the weakening of our Churches which are a bulwark against communism. These people who cause others to withdraw from the Church over unsubstantiated claims of communist infiltration are, in my opinion, doing more harm than good. Can you help us?

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

I would greatly appreciate any information you can give me on the following subject:

In a recent debate, an article by John R. Riege,
Silva attorney, published in the "Christian" magazine, was used to argue for the National Council of Churches. You were quoted as having said "I want you to know that neither on this occasion no, at any other time, have I made any statement

criticizing the Federal Council of Churches or the National Council of Churches."

Many of us in our community have been alarmed over the socialist leanings of the N. C. C. and the many persons connected with Communist front organizations who are in high places in the organization.

We would very much like to press how you feel about this subject and thank you in advanced for you and

and trouble.

Very sincerely,

Honorable J. Edgar Hoover, Director

U. S. Department of Justice

Dear Mr. Hoover:

I was most appreciative of your immediate and most positive response in your letter dated October 5th. I would like to ask further favor of you, because we who serve as clergy in the South Florida area of the country are going to be bombarded with negative attitudes towards the National Council of Churches between now and the time that they meet in the early part of December in Miami Beach. With this in mind, I would appreciate anything you could do for me to help me be able to have adequate answers. I realize fully that the files of the F.B.I. are confidential, but it seems that so often we have information related to us of a negative nature and it, by allusion, sounds as though the F.B.I. and other persons in the Department of Justice point up the fact that the National Council of Churches is over-loaded with Communist conspirators. Since I am a part of the United Church of Christ, I do not feel, from my experience, that this is true. However, it would be most helpful if you would be able to pass on my concern to anyone else in the Federal Government who could give me some assistance at this time. For you see, the reason I write to you is that you are the only one who is respected by those who are on the ultra-conservative fringe of our country. And, therefore, your thought your wisdom and, of course, your knowledge of the problem can be of great help to us also. I only want to know so that I can be properly informed, and in that way help to properly inform the people whom I serve as a pastor.

Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Hoover,

In publications and papers from various sources, which I thought were dependable, I read of political practices of the National Council of Churches which stigmatize them as being un-patriotic and definitely non-Christian. In a recent National C. of C. publication, there was a denial of these charges and an accompanying quote, attributed to you, saying that you had never criticized the Federal Council or National Council of Churches.

My Church, "Disciples of Christ", is a member of the N.C.C. and I am very much concerned about these charges and if they are true.

I feel that your organization is the most reliable source of information on subjects of this nature. If you have any material or information, bearing on this subject, I will be very grateful if you will send it to me.

Respectfully yours,

Dear Sir:

As a Christian and a Protestant, dedicated to supporting and promoting Christian principles, I am disturbed by prevalent rumors that the National Council of Churches is communist tinged.

Recently at a gathering of Christian women here in San Mateo where I live, the guest speaker claimed to have direct communication from you, affirming this to be a fact. She claimed also to know a man, a member of a group fighting communism, who has done intensive research into the National Council, and has found it to be communistic.

I cannot believe that some of our oldest and most venerated Protestant denominations are guilty of this shocking evil. Hence this letter to you.

In your position of knowledge and awareness on all levels of our national life, you must know what this is all about and if you tell me the National Council is guilty, I shall accept it as factual.

But if these rumors are simply more of the character-assassination fanaticism, as I believe it to be, I feel I owe it to those concerned to do anything I can to expose the lie, and so I ask you for a reply. Either way, I deeply desire to know the truth.

Thank you for your years of devotion to our country's welfare, and may you enjoy many more years of service. We are grateful.

Yours sincerely,
