WILLIAM H. REHNQUIST

Character:

DEPARTMENTAL APPLICANT
ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

Synopsis:

Unable to verify employment because students working for Stanford are not classified as employees and records of 20 years ago are limited.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

On January 16, 1969, [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] Personnel Office, Stanford University, Stanford, California, advised that it was a policy of Stanford University not to list employment of former students if they worked as student assistants or for teachers at Stanford.

She advised that Appointee was in attendance at Stanford from September, 1946, through June, 1947, but she could not verify his employment during that period because of limited records kept of twenty years ago.

It is noted investigation by the Milwaukee Office of the FBI indicated REHNQUIST listed employment by Stanford University from September, 1946, to June, 1947.

SUBJECT: WILLIAM HUBBS REHNQUIST
DEPARTMENTAL APPLICANT
ASSISTANT ATTORNEY GENERAL

The investigation of William Hubbs Rehnquist, who is under consideration for appointment as Assistant Attorney General, division not stated, has been completed.

Rehnquist, aged 44, received his law degree from Stanford University, Palo Alto, California, in 1952. He is a member in good standing of the Arizona State Bar, District of Columbia Bar, and American Bar Association, Chicago, Illinois. He served in the U.S. Army during 1943-1946 and was honorably discharged. He was a law clerk to Associate Justice Robert H. Jackson and since 1953 has been a practicing attorney in Phoenix, Arizona.

U.S. Senator Barry M. Goldwater (Republican) from Arizona recommends Rehnquist as a legal scholar who enjoys an excellent reputation. U.S. Senator Paul J. Fannin (Republican) from Arizona commented favorably describing Rehnquist as an outstanding attorney. Professional Associates, Federal judges, bar association officials, and religious acquaintances, described Rehnquist as conscientious, capable, and a brilliant attorney. They did not question his morals, character, associates, or loyalty.

ACTION:

Results of the investigation of Rehnquist are being forwarded to the Office of the Deputy Attorney General.

Kleindienst Eyed If Mitchell Quits

A-2 By David S. Broder
Washington Post Staff Writer

White House assistant John D. Ehrlichman yesterday removed his name from consideration as a possible successor to Attorney General John N. Mitchell.

Ehrlichman's announcement—made through fellow White House aide Robert H. Finch—increases the likelihood that Deputy Attorney General Richard G. Kleindienst will move up to head the Justice Department if Mitchell, as expected, resigns to direct President Nixon's re-election campaign.

Mitchell has said repeatedly that he has not been asked by the President to resume his 1968 role as campaign manager, and he reiterated yesterday that "I have no intention of resigning."

But his close associates in the administration and the Republican Party universally believe he will do just that, at Mr. Nixon's request, next fall or winter.

As a result, speculation on his successor has increased in recent weeks, with Ehrlichman's name among those prominently mentioned.

Finch surprised a group of newsmen by pushing away from the table after a breakfast question-and-answer session yesterday and announcing he had "one piece of hard news" to deliver before he left.

"Ehrlichman's not going to be attorney general," he said. Finch added that "you can draw your own conclusions" about who would take over at Justice.

Later, it was learned that Ehrlichman had asked Finch before the breakfast to knock down speculation about his succeeding Mitchell.

Ehrlichman is a Seattle lawyer and Nixon campaign aide who served as counsel to the President before taking over his present duties as assistant for domestic affairs.

Kleindienst, a 48-year-old

Arizona native and Harvard Law School graduate, was active in the presidential campaigns of both Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) and Mr. Nixon. He has served as Mitchell's deputy since the start of the Nixon administration.

According to Justice Department sources, Kleindienst has indicated an interest in succeeding Mitchell, but feels that whoever inherits the post should be free to pick his own deputy.

Associates take that to mean that he would not remain in the department if Mr. Nixon should choose someone else as attorney general.

His own choice as a deputy is thought likely to be either Robert Mardian, the assistant attorney general who heads the internal security division, or William H. Rehnquist, now assistant attorney general in charge of the office of legal counsel.

Finch, who said he "keeps a hand in" politics as a counselor to the President, told newsmen that no firm plans have yet been made about next spring's presidential primaries.

He said the White House "would not ignore" the possible challenge from antiwar Rep. Paul N. (Pete) McCloskey Jr. (R-Calif.), but Finch said he is "very much inclined to doubt" the President would campaign actively in the primaries, even if McCloskey runs.

Finch noted that state laws would probably require that Mr. Nixon's name appear on the ballot in half-a-dozen primaries, and said that "it might be in our interests" to have favorite sons represent the President in others.

Re: William Hubbs Rehnquist, Jr.

b6
b7C

In a memorandum dated 8/20/70 it was pointed out that Rehnquist had been designated by the Attorney General to act as counsel on real estate negotiations in a highly sensitive matter. It was learned that Rehnquist had sent a letter by messenger to a realtor advising that he was representing the legal interests of the Government in the matter and suggesting the realtor call him. In the realtor's absence from the city, the messenger merely slipped the letter through the mail slot of his office. The letter was retrieved by the Bureau and it was explained to Rehnquist that his action had jeopardized security. The memo observed that it was obvious Rehnquist was not security conscious and that he would be given close guidance. The Director noted, "I concur."

A check of the records of the Identification Division, FBI, on 10/21/71 indicates no records of Rehnquist.

ALTHOUGH WE CAN READILY UNDERSTAND AN FBI INVESTIGATION PROBING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF A PERSON BEING CONSIDERED BY THE PRESIDENT FOR NOMINATION, WE FIND IT HARD TO IMAGINE THE PURPOSE OF SOME OF THE QUESTIONS THAT WERE PUT IN THIS CASE. WHAT JUSTIFICATION IS THERE FOR THE FBI'S ASKING [REDACTED] TO GIVE QUOTE HIS REASONS UNQUOTE FOR STUDYING AND COMMUNICATING THE QUALIFICATIONS OF A POTENTIAL SUPREME COURT NOMINEE? WHY SHOULD THE FBI ASK WHAT HE PLANS TO DO WITH THE RESULTS OF A SIMILAR STUDY, SHOULD HE UNDERTAKE ONE, OF AN ACTUAL NOMINEE?

WE CANNOT ESCAPE THE CONCLUSION THAT MANY [REDACTED] WHO ARE MERELY DISCHARGING A RESPONSIBILITY AS LAWYERS AND SCHOLARS CONCERNED ABOUT THE SUPREME COURT ARE LIKELY TO FIND THE PROSPECT OF REPEATED FBI INVESTIGATION INTO THEIR MOTIVES AND INTENTIONS SERIOUSLY INTIMIDATING, HOWEVER POLITELY THE FBI INQUIRIES MAY BE CONDUCTED. BECAUSE WE TRUST THAT THIS IS NOT YOUR PURPOSE, WE HAVE THOUGHT IT IMPORTANT TO CALL THE MATTER TO YOUR ATTENTION.

WE LOOK FORWARD TO RECEIVING YOUR VIEWS. UNQUOTE.
