DETAILS:

AT MONTGOMERY, ALABAMA

The following investigation was conducted by the writer and SA WADE H. GANS:

0 AUBREY WILLIAMS, Editor, The Southern Farmer, advised that he has known ANNA ROSENBERG since 1933 or 1934, and worked rather closely with her in Government service with the WPA, and later consulted her frequently while he was Administrator of the NYA. He stated that he knows nothing at all of the activities of the JOHN REED CLUB, and has no way of knowing whether or not ROSENBERG ever attended any meetings of this club, or if she was a member of this club.

He stated that he definitely does not believe ROSENBERG is or has ever been a member of the Communist Party. He stated that he bases this belief on the fact that he has never seen nor heard of ROSENBERG associating with persons who were reportedly members of the Communist Party, or who "followed the Communist Party line". He stated that on the contrary, ROSENBERG associated with individuals such as the late Senator WAGNER, BERNARD

LOUIS LOZOWICK
62 Massel Terrace
South Orange, New Jersey
(June 20, 1949)

Reference is made to the report of SA JAMES P. MARTIN, dated December 13, 1950, at New York, which sets out information concerning the John Reed Club of New York. One of the associates of this club, mentioned therein, is LOUIS LOZOWICK. Background information concerning LOZOWICK is being reported below.

According to Confidential Informant T-1, of unknown reliability, LOUIS LOZOWICK was co-author of the book, "Voice of October," which concerns art and literature in Soviet Russia, published in 1930.

A review of the "New Masses" magazines by SA JAMES R. SHINNERS reflected that as of May, 1932, in the magazine for that month, LOZOWICK was mentioned as a member of the Editorial Board of that magazine.

Confidential Informant T-2, of unknown reliability, who admitted being a member of the Communist Party until 1937, stated when interviewed in March, 1949, that in the 1930's while he was in Moscow, he met the wife of an artist, a Russian by birth, whose name was LOUIS LOZOWICK. The informant said that LOZOWICK'S wife worked at a publishing house in Moscow.

According to the informant, she often asked him if she should give up her American citizenship. She indicated to the informant that the Russian Foreign Office desired her passport. The informant stated that at that time he believed she was a Russian citizen. It is possible that this person is identical with the LOUIS LOZOWICK referred to previously.

The 1936 Icor Yearbook, a publication of the Icor Association for Information on the Economic, Cultural and Social Life of the Jews the World Over, Inc., reported that LOUIS LOZOWICK sponsored a delegation of American Jews invited to visit Biro-bidjan as guests of the Soviet Union. Other sponsors listed were WILLIAM GROPPER and MICHAEL GOLD, Editor, "New Masses."

According to Confidential Informant T-3, of unknown reliability, LOZOWICK was a member of the Subjects and Approvals Committee, Works Progress Administration Art Project, New York City. This information was furnished on July 12, 1940. The informant also stated that LOUIS LOZOWICK was a Communist.

Confidential Informant T-4, of known reliability, in 1941 furnished records of the Amtorg Trading Corporation reflecting the names of members of the CIO who were agents of the Amtorg Trading Corporation within the CIO and recipients of money from Amtorg. According to the list of recipients, LOUIS LOZOWICK, New York, received the sum of $6,000.

Confidential Informant T-5, another governmental agency which conducts investigations, advised in August, 1942, that LOUIS LOZOWICK was listed as one of the persons who supported the Communist Party candidates for President and Vice-President in 1932, namely, FOSTER and FORD. The informant also advised that LOZOWICK'S name appears on the pamphlet entitled, "Culture and the Crisis," which was issued by the League of Professional Groups for FOSTER and FORD.

The informant also advised that information had been reliably reported that LOZOWICK was a member of the Communist Party and as a Communist organizer had received money from the Third Internationale. The informant also reported that LOZOWICK was a member of the United American Artists and signed a letter to President ROOSEVELT urging aid to Britain. He contributed art work to New Masses Art Auction on April 5, 1942. According to the informant, LOZOWICK was also associated with the New Theater Group.

According to a memorandum of the Cultural Committee of the National Council of American Soviet Friendship, Inc., which was furnished to this office on May 4, 1944, Mr. CORLISS LAMONT reported that in connection with the Artists Committee of the Council, a portfolio of American black-and-white drawings had been presented by a group of artists, among whom was LOUIS LOZOWICK. These drawings were to be exhibited at the Metropolitan Museum of Art and later to be sent to the Soviet Union.

A letter on the stationery of the American Committee for Spanish Freedom, 55 West 42nd Street, New York City, which is dated December 7, 1946, listed LOUIS LOZOWICK as a sponsor.

A form letter of the American Jewish Cultural Congress, whose headquarters are located at 189 Second Avenue, New York City, which is dated August 25, 1947, reported that LOUIS LOZOWICK was a sponsor of the organization. Confidential Informant T-6, of known reliability, advised on September 4, 1947, that LOUIS LOZOWICK was a sponsor of the American Committee for Yugoslav Relief, Inc.

The "Daily Worker," May 17, 1948, page 13, column 3, reported that LOUIS LOZOWICK was a sponsor for a conference to be held at the New School Auditorium, New York City, on June 18 and 19, 1948, to disclose the status and perspective of American Jewish culture in English.

A letter of the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, Suite 1501, 192 Lexington Avenue, New York City, furnished by Confidential Informant T-7, of known reliability, listed LOUIS LOZOWICK as a national sponsor.

According to Confidential Informant T-8, of known reliability, LOUIS LOZOWICK was a sponsor of the "Action Committee to Free Spain Now." This information was furnished on May 18, 1946.

The "Daily Worker" for April 8, 1949, page 12, column 2, in an article captioned "Fine Paintings at Jefferson School Three Day Bazaar" reports that LOUIS LOZOWICK contributed to this bazaar which started on April 8, 1949.

According to Confidential Informant T-9, of known reliability, LOUIS LOZOWICK as of June 20, 1949, resided at 62 Massel Terrace, South Orange, New Jersey, and from 1938 to 1942 he had resided at 104 Lexington Avenue, New York City. It is believed that this individual is identical with the LOUIS LOZOWICK referred to in referenced report.

ABEL PLENN

Concerning ABEL PLENN, reference is made to the report of SA JAMES P. MARTIN, dated December 13, 1950, at New York, in connection with information set out regarding DORIS PLENN, the present wife of ABEL PLENN and the former wife of EMJG BASSHE.

Confidential Informant T-10, of known reliability, has advised that ABEL PLENN'S book entitled, "Wind in the Olive Trees," was published by Boni Gaer Publishers, who according to the informant are regarded as being sympathetic to Communist authors.

Confidential Informant T-11, of known reliability, stated that ABEL PLENN was a sponsor of the Council for the Advancement of the Americas, a Communist front organization. According to the informant, PLENN is a writer on Latin America.

At the time ABEL PLENN returned to New York City from abroad via Pan-American Airlines on November 5, 1944, it was ascertained that he returned on Pan-American Flight 13-020 and gave his full name as ABEL RALPH PLENN. He carried United

PERSONAL AND CONFIDENTIAL
BY SPECIAL MESSENGER

Honorable George C. Marshall
The Secretary of Defense
Washington 25, D. C.

My dear Mr. Secretary:

I wanted to advise you that the Federal Bureau of Investigation has now located the Anna Rosenberg who was a member of the John Reed Club in New York during the early thirties.

Mrs. Isidore Klein, whose maiden name was Anna Rosenberg, has been located and interviewed, and she admits that she, under the name of Anna Rosenberg, was a member of the John Reed Club in New York from shortly after its founding until 1934, at which time she moved to California.

With expressions of my highest esteem and best regards,

Sincerely,

DML:CSH

ATTENTION ASSISTANT DIRECTOR ROSEN.

TELETYPE SUMMARY, DECEMBER EIGHTEEN, FIFTY.

[REDACTED] WAS TACTFULLY ADVISED DEC. EIGHTEEN, FIFTY THAT THE BUREAU CANNOT SUPERVISE A LIE DETECTOR TEST AS REQUESTED BY [REDACTED] THIS SEEMED AGREEABLE TO [REDACTED] WHO SAID HE HAD MADE EFFORT TO TAKE TEST TO PROVE HIS OWN HONESTY IN THIS MATTER AND HE INDICATED THAT HE HAD NO DESIRE FOR SAID TEST UNLESS IT COULD HAVE BEEN CONDUCTED UNDER BUREAU SUPERVISION. RE ANNA ROSENBERG, FORMER CLERK-TYPIST, WPA.

[REDACTED] SAYS HE MAY HAVE BEEN MISTAKEN REGARDING THE EXISTENCE OF ANNA ROSENBERG, FORMER CLERK-TYPIST, WPA, STATING THAT IF THE BOOK OF EDWIN BANTA DOES NOT CONTAIN THE NAME ANNA ROSENBERG AS ONE OF PERSONS WHO AUTOGRAPHED SAID BOOK, HE, [REDACTED] WAS PROBABLY WRONG IN ADVISING THAT THERE HAD BEEN A GIRL NAMED ANNA ROSENBERG WHO WAS EMPLOYED AT

WRITERS PROJECT, WPA, NY. ACCORDINGLY THIS OFFICE CONTEMPLATES NO FURTHER INVESTIGATION TO LOCATE ANNA ROSENBERG, ALLEGED FORMER CLERK-TYPIST, WPA, NY. RE ANNA M. ROSENBERG. JOSEPH CURRAN, PRESIDENT, NMU, ADVISES HE WAS IN ALMOST DAILY CONTACT WITH ANNA M. ROSENBERG FROM FORTY ONE TO FORTY FOUR. SAYS SHE WAS NOT TO HIS KNOWLEDGE A MEMBER OF CP OR OF FRONT OR SPLINTER GROUPS AND SAYS SHE REFUSED MANY INVITATIONS TO COMMUNIST SPONSORED FUNCTIONS. [REDACTED] SAYS HE WAS [REDACTED] BUT COULD NOT RECALL ANYONE NAMED ANNA ROSENBERG EVER ASSOCIATED WITH JOHN REED CLUB AND KNOWS OF NO PERTINENT INFO RE ANNA M. ROSENBERG. RE ANNA ROSENBERG WHOSE NAMED APPEARED ON THE JOHN REED CLUB PETITION IN THIRTY. PROFESSOR HORACE GREGORY ADVISED THAT HE HAD KNOWN AN ANNA ROSENBERG ABOUT THE EARLY THIRTY-S. SAID THAT THIS ANNA ROSENBERG SUBSEQUENTLY MARRIED ONE ISIDORE KLEIN AND IS NOW RESIDING WITH KLEIN AT FORTY EIGHT THIRTY TWO THIRTY EIGHT STREET, LIC, NY.

GREGORY SAID THAT HE HIMSELF HAD BEEN ONE OF THE ORIGINAL MEMBERS OF

THE JOHN REED CLUB AND ADVISED THAT ISIDORE KLEIN ALSO HAD BEEN A MEMBER OF THE JOHN REED CLUB. SAID THAT HE HAD HEARD, A FEW YEARS AGO, FROM JOE FREEMAN /PREVIOUSLY INTERVIEWED IN THIS CASE/ THAT ANNA ROSENBERG, NOW MRS. ISIDORE KLEIN, HAD BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH JOHN REED CLUB. ALSO ISIDORE KLEIN, A FEW YEARS AGO, TOLD GREGORY THAT KLEIN-S WIFE, FORMERLY ANNA ROSENBERG, HAD BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH JOHN REED CLUB, IN EARLY THIRTY-S. ON INTERVIEW, EVENING OF DEC. EIGHTEEN, FIFTY, MRS. ISIDORE KLEIN, RESIDING ABOVE ADDRESS, LIC, ADVISED HER MAIDEN NAME WAS ANNA ROSENBERG. SHE SAID SHE WAS AN ARTIST AND HAD USED HER MAIDEN NAME IN HER ART WORK. SAID SHE MARRIED ONE FREDERICK FIELD IN TWENTY FOUR OR TWENTY FIVE AND WAS DIVORCED FROM FIELD ABOUT THIRTY ONE. SAID SUBSEQUENTLY "FOR THE RECORDS," SHE MARRIED ISIDORE KLEIN AUGUST TWO, THIRTY TWO. ADVISED SHE AND ISIDORE KLEIN WERE ASSOCIATED WITH JOHN REED CLUB FROM SHORTLY AFTER TIME SAID CLUB WAS ORGANIZED, AND PLACED THIS TIME AS ABOUT NINETEEN THIRTY. SAID SHE WAS KNOWN AT JOHN REED CLUB AS MRS. FIELD, ALSO AS MRS. KLEIN,

AND ALSO AS ANNA ROSENBERG. DOES NOT RECALL SIGNING ANY PETITION IN THIRTY AS MEMBER OF JOHN REED CLUB BUT SAYS SHE VERY WELL MAY HAVE DONE SO AND COULD NOT NOW RECALL. RESIDED IN NYC AT LEAST FROM NINETEEN THIRTY UNTIL THE END OF THIRTY FOUR, WHEN SHE WENT TO CALIFORNIA WHERE SHE LIVED UNTIL FORTY. THE NAME "I. KLEIN" APPEARED ALSO ON THE ABOVE MENTIONED JOHN REED CLUB PETITION IN THIRTY. ON INTERVIEW, ISIDORE KLEIN, HUSBAND OF ABOVE MENTIONED ANNA KLEIN, SAYS THAT HE WAS ACCUSTOMED TO SIGNING HIS NAME "I. KLEIN," AT THAT TIME IN NINETEEN THIRTY. HE ALSO CANNOT RECALL SIGNING SAID PETITION, BUT SAYS HE MAY HAVE DONE SO AND CANNOT NOW RECALL SAME. BOTH KLEINS ADVISED THEY KNEW OF NO OTHER ANNA ROSENBERG, OTHER THAN PRESENT MRS. ISIDORE KLEIN WHO WAS EVER ASSOCIATED WITH JOHN REED CLUB. MRS. KLEIN DOES NOT RECALL EVER KNOWING OR MEETING [REDACTED] OR JAMES MC GRAW. ALSO BOTH SAY THEY DO NOT PERSONALLY KNOW ANNA M. ROSENBERG. MRS. KLEIN FURNISHED A PHOTOGRAPH OF HERSELF TAKEN ABOUT THIRTY ONE AND ALSO A SKETCH OF MRS. KLEIN DRAWN BY ISIDORE KLEIN ABOUT THIRTY ONE.

SAID PHOTOGRAPH AND SKETCH WERE FURNISHED TO THIS OFFICE ON CONDITION THAT THIS BUREAU MAINTAIN SOLE CUSTODY OF SAME AND THAT SAME NOT BE GIVEN TO ANY OTHER AGENCY OR PRESS. KLEINS WERE ADVISED THAT THE INFORMATION THEY HAD GIVEN WOULD BE TRANSMITTED TO OTHER GOVERNMENTAL AGENCIES, IF NECESSARY, AND BOTH SAID THEY UNDERSTOOD THIS AND THAT THIS WAS AGREEABLE TO THEM. MRS. KLEIN WILL BE REINTERVIEWED ON DEC. NINETEEN, FIFTY. THE PHOTOGRAPHS OF MRS. KLEIN WILL BE SHOWN TO TOMORROW, EARLY AFTERNOON, TO SEE IF HE CAN IDENTIFY ABOVE MENTIONED MRS. KLEIN AS THE PERSON NAMED ANNA ROSENBERG WHOM HE ALLEGEDLY MET AT JOHN REED CLUB, UACB.

ALLEGATION OF ALLEGED MEMBERSHIP OF ANNA M. ROSENBERG IN THE JOHN REED CLUB, SI. RENYTEL DIRECTOR DECEMBER SIXTEEN LAST AND BUTEL NEWARK DECEMBER EIGHTEEN LAST AUTHORIZING INTERVIEW LOUIS LOZOWICK, SOUTH ORANGE, NJ. LOZOWICK INTERVIEWED NINETEENTH INSTANT. HE STATED HE WAS MEMBER ARTIST SECTION, JOHN REED CLUB, NYC FROM ABOUT NINETEEN THIRTY TO NINETEEN THIRTYTWO. HE STATED CLUB AT THAT TIME CONSISTED PRIMARILY OF ARTISTS, WRITERS AND PERSONS AFFILIATED WITH THE MOTION PICTURE INDUSTRY, THE TOTAL MEMBERSHIP OF WHICH DID NOT EXCEED ONE HUNDRED PERSONS. HE STATED THERE WERE APPROXIMATELY THIRTY TO FORTY ACTIVE MEMBERS IN ALL GROUPS OF CLUB OR APPROXIMATELY FIFTEEN MEMBERS EACH IN THE ARTISTS AND WRITERS SECTION. LOZOWICK IDENTIFIED JRC AS BEING A CLUB ORGANIZED PRIMARILY TO AID AND HELP FELLOW ARTISTS AND WRITERS. HE STATED, TO HIS KNOWLEDGE, JRC WAS NOT A COMMUNIST CLUB OR A CP CLUB BUT PERHAPS ITS MEMBERSHIP INCLUDED SOME COMMUNISTS AND CP MEMBERS. HE STATED THAT ON OCCASION CLUB HAD POLITICAL ISSUES OF THE DAY DISCUSSED AND THAT ON SOME OCCASIONS THESE DISCUSSIONS MAY HAVE BEEN QUOTE POLITICALLY LEFT UNQUOTE. HE RELATED THAT HE, LOZOWICK, HAD AT NO TIME MET OR HEARD OF AN ANNA ROSENBERG BEING A MEMBER OF THE JRC OR OF ATTENDING MEETINGS

ON JRC. REGARDING JRC PETITION TO NY TIMES, MAY NINETEEN NINETEEN THIRTY, LOZOWICK RELATED HE DID NOT RECALL SIGNING THIS PETITION ALTHOUGH IN ALL PROBABILITY HE WAS IDENTICAL WITH THE LOUIS LOZOWICK REFERRED TO IN INSTANT PETITION. IN THIS CONNECTION, HE STATED IT WAS CUSTOMARY THAT BLANKET ENDORSEMENTS BE GIVEN BY THE ENTIRE MEMBERSHIP OF THE JRC WITHOUT THE SPECIFIC KNOWLEDGE OR APPROVAL OF THE MEMBERS CONCERNED.

LOZOWICK SUGGESTED THAT MEMBERS OF THE WRITERS GROUP OF THE JRC WOULD BE IN A BETTER POSITION TO IDENTIFY THE ANNA ROSENBERG REFERRED TO IN INSTANT PETITION. LOZOWICK ALSO SUGGESTED THE POSSIBILITY THAT DUE TO THE COMMONNESS OF THE NAME ANNA ROSENBERG, THAT SUCH NAME AS IT APPEARED ON THE INSTANT PETITION, MAY HAVE BEEN FICTITIOUS. LOZOWICK SUGGESTED THAT THE FOLLOWING NAMED PERSONS WHOM HE HAD OBSERVED AT ONE TIME OR ANOTHER AT MEETINGS OF THE JRC IN NINETEEN THIRTY MIGHT POSSIBLY BE ABLE TO FURNISH SOME INFORMATION CONCERNING THE IDENTITY OF THE ANNA ROSENBERG REFERRED TO IN INSTANT PETITION. LOUIS MUNFORD, PHONETIC, PRESENTLY BELIEVED TO BE A WRITER FOR THE NEW YORK TIMES, ONE PROFESSOR PHILLIPS, PHONETIC, PRESENTLY BELIEVED TO BE A PROFESSOR AT COLUMBIA UNIVERSITY, AND JACOB BURCK, PRESENTLY BELIEVED TO BE A CARTOONIST ON SOME NEWSPAPER IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS. LOZOWICK STATED THAT HE DID NOT KNOW IF THE ABOVE INDIVIDUALS WERE MEMBERS OF THE JOHN REED CLUB OR WERE PERSONS WHO TOOK AN ACTIVE PART IN THE CLUB. LOZOWICK ALSO STATED IN THIS CONNECTION THAT HE HAD HEARD NO INFORMATION TO INDICATE THAT THE ABOVE NAMED PERSONS WERE EITHER COMMUNISTS OR CP MEMBERS. STILL IN THIS CONNECTION, LOZOWICK RELATED THAT IT WAS CUSTOMARY FOR THE JRC TO INVITE SPEAKERS FROM VARIOUS WALKS OF LIFE TO APPEAR AS

SPEAKERS BEFORE MEETINGS OF JRC AND THAT QUITE PROBABLY SOME OR ALL OF THESE INDIVIDUALS MAY HAVE BEEN IN THIS LATTER CATEGORY. IN CONNECTION WITH THE POSSIBILITY THAT JAMES MC GRAW, AKA MAGRAW, [REDACTED] AND HELEN WINNER OF THE WRITERS PROJECT, WPA WERE MEMBERS OF THE WPA WRITERS PROJECT COMMUNIST CELL, LOZOWICK STATED THAT THE NAMES, JAMES MC GRAW AND [REDACTED] WERE NOT FAMILIAR TO HIM AND SO FAR AS HE CAN RECALL HE NEVER MET THESE PERSONS NOR DID HE KNOW OF THEIR IDENTITY. HE STATED THAT THE NAME HELEN WINNER WAS NOT UNFAMILIAR TO HIM BUT HE STATED THAT HE CAN RECALL NOTHING ABOUT HER. IN CONNECTION WITH THE WPA WRITERS PROJECT, COMMUNIST CELL, LOZOWICK STATED THAT TO HIS KNOWLEDGE NO SUCH COMMUNIST CELL EXISTED WITHIN THE WRITERS PROJECT OF THE WPA ALTHOUGH HE STATED THAT IT WAS QUITE POSSIBLE THAT PERSONS WITH COMMUNIST LEANINGS OR PERSONS ACTUALLY MEMBERS OF THE CP WERE EMPLOYED ON THE WRITERS PROJECT OF THE WPA. LOZOWICK STATED THAT HE WAS NEVER A COMMUNIST, A MEMBER OF THE COMMUNIST PARTY OR A COMMUNIST SYMPATHIZER. HE STATED, HOWEVER, THAT ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS IN THE NINETEEN THIRTIES AND EARLY FORTIES, HE LENT HIS NAME TO VARIOUS ORGANIZATIONS WHICH HAVE SUBSEQUENTLY BEEN IDENTIFIED AS COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS. HE STATED THAT ON MANY OCCASIONS HIS NAME APPEARED AS BEING A SPONSOR OF OR AFFILIATED WITH VARIOUS QUOTE COMMUNIST FRONT ORGANIZATIONS UNQUOTE WHEN HE, LOZOWICK, HAD NO PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE THAT HIS NAME WAS BEING USED AS A SPONSOR OR MENTIONED AS BEING AFFILIATED WITH SUCH ORGANIZATIONS. WHILE HE WAS A MEMBER BOTH HE AND I ATTENDED GATHERINGS OF THE JOHN REED CLUB ON FOURTEENTH ST, ALTHOUGH I AM NOT CERTAIN OF THE LOCATION. I WAS PRINCIPALLY INTERESTED IN EXHIBITING MY OIL PAINTINGS. In connection with this investigation, it is noted that on December 9, 1950, when being interviewed concerning another matter, Mrs. HAROLD D. HOOPER, 504 Lee Street, Evanston, Illinois, telephone University 4-6563, advised that in connection with the recent newspaper publicity regarding Mrs. ROSENBERG's alleged membership in Communist front organizations in the 1930's, she recalled that her sister-in-law, CARMEN S. LEE, was well acquainted with Mrs. ROSENBERG during that period.

Mrs. HOOPER stated that she herself had met Mrs. ROSENBERG in the 1930's while Mrs. HOOPER was doing charitable work in New York, but does not recall anything concerning her other than that she was doing social work. She did not recall how Miss LEE met Mrs. ROSENBERG, but remembered that they came to associate socially. She said Miss LEE presently resides with a wealthy family named GIFFORD on Chestnut Hill Road, Wilton, Connecticut, where she is a governess for the GIFFORD children.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS:

HORACE GREGORY advises he was one of charter members of JOHN REED CLUB and recalls that Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN, nee ANNA ROSENBERG, was person mentioned to him as one associated with JOHN REED CLUB. Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN advises that her maiden name was ANNA ROSENBERG and says that, together with her present husband ISIDORE KLEIN, she was associated with the JOHN REED CLUB and that that association began about 1930. Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN says that at meetings of the JOHN REED CLUB she was known as both Mrs. I. KLEIN and as ANNA ROSENBERG. Both Mr. and Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN say that they know of no other ANNA ROSENBERG who was associated with the JOHN REED CLUB. Signed statement of Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN set out. Copies of photograph and sketched drawing of Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN exhibited to [redacted] and to JAMES McGRAW, but neither could identify Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN as anyone they had ever known. DETAILS:

AT NEW YORK, NEW YORKINFORMATION CONCERNING MRS. ISIDORE KLEIN, nee ANNA ROSENBERGRe: Horace Gregory

It is noted that information has been previously set out in this investigation concerning the Petition of the John Reed Club which appeared in the May 19, 1930 issue of the "New York Times". An examination of the list of signers of this petition reflects that included thereon was the name HORACE GREGORY.

Further, the report of Special Agent JAMES P. MARTIN dated December 13, 1950, at New York, reflects information from an article by MICHAEL GOLD, appearing in "New Masses" issue of January, 1930. This article describes the early activities of the John Reed Club and makes mention of one "GREGORY" and also of one "KLEIN".

On December 18, 1950, HORACE GREGORY was interviewed at the New York Office by SA ELMER M. ROTH and SA JAMES P. MARTIN. The following information was obtained:

HORACE GREGORY, lecturer on Poetry and Critical Theory at Sarah Lawrence College, Bronxville, New York, since 1934, presently resides at 59 Horatio Street, New York City.

During the early 1930's, GREGORY stated, he was very strongly in favor of Communism, associated with numerous individuals sympathetic towards Communism, and as a free lance writer contributed articles to the "New Masses".

By approximately 1936, he became disillusioned with Communism, having observed that it restricted writers in their freedom of thought and expression. Having turned against the movement, in 1936 he wrote an article which he said was published in the "New Masses", entitled "Why I Am Not a Communist". GREGORY asserted that he thereafter completely divorced himself from Communism, lost many of his friends, and is strongly opposed to Communism to this day.

NY 62-10641

After reading a newspaper account recently in the "New York Times" about the accusations against ANNA M. ROSENBERG, Assistant Secretary of Defense, and discussing it with his wife, the former MARYA ZATURENSKA, it occurred to both GREGORY and his wife that the ANNA ROSENBERG who had been a member of the John Reed Club, is very probably the present Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN, whom GREGORY had met during the 1920's, and whom Mrs. GREGORY subsequently came to know.

GREGORY recalled that he first met ANNA ROSENBERG (the present Mrs. KLEIN) through JOSEPH FREEMAN, during approximately 1924. He learned from FREEMAN at that time that ANNA ROSENBERG came to New York City from the State of Pennsylvania, and had endeavored to pursue a career of painting. It was his recollection that when she was unsuccessful in this ambition, she obtained a position as a stenographer.

Shortly after her arrival in New York City, ANNA ROSENBERG met an individual named FREDERICK FIELD, whose original name GREGORY recalled to have been SIMON FELSCHION or FELSHION, whom she married.

GREGORY learned at that time that FIELD, a school teacher in the New York school system, stemmed from a well to do family outside New York City, which family had invested considerable time and money in the cause of Zionism. FIELD however became greatly disillusioned with the cause of the Jewish homeland, and became a very enthusiastic Communist.

To the best of GREGORY'S recollection, the marriage between ANNA ROSENBERG and FREDERICK FIELD broke up during the late 1920's or early 1930's. GREGORY stated that from approximately 1924 on he frequently met ANNA ROSENBERG at social and literary functions.

GREGORY said that during the latter part of 1929 or the early part of 1930, he was one of the earliest or charter members of the John Reed Club, although he only attended meetings spasmodically, that is, three or four times a year. GREGORY did not recall having seen ANNA ROSENBERG or RALPH D'ASOLA at meetings of the John Reed Club, but did recall having seen JAMES MAGRAW.

NY 62-10641

To the best of his recollection, sometime during 1929 GREGORY became acquainted with ISIDORE KLEIN, generally known as I. KLEIN, who at one time worked as a cartoonist on the "New Yorker" magazine. He recalled that KLEIN made numerous sketches of the members of the John Reed Club of which KLEIN himself was a member. He stated that shortly after the marriage of ANNA ROSENBERG and FREDERICK FIELD broke up, ANNA ROSENBERG married I. KLEIN.

GREGORY also positively recalled that sometime during the latter part of 1929 or possibly during 1930, I. KLEIN informed GREGORY that ANNA ROSENBERG was then a member of the John Reed Club.

GREGORY stated that when he first met ANNA ROSENBERG she was approximately eighteen to twenty-one years of age, short of stature, with dark eyes, dark brown hair, possessing good features and an attractive personality, and rather on the plump side. He stated that on a few occasions he heard her sing at social gatherings.

GREGORY said that he and his wife maintained social contact with the KLEINS up until some three years ago, and that the last time they met was at the residence of ISIDORE KLEIN, 18-32 38th Street, Long Island City, New York.

GREGORY recalled that some several years ago in discussing Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN with JOE FREEMAN, the latter mentioned that Mrs. KLEIN'S maiden name had been ANNE ROSENBERG and FREEMAN made mention of the fact that this ANNA ROSENBERG had been associated with the John Reed Club.

Photographs of ANNA M. ROSENBERG, Assistant Secretary of Defense, were exhibited to GREGORY, and he stated that these bore no resemblance to the ANNA ROSENBERG he knew in the John Reed Club.

Re: Interview of Mr. and Mrs. Isidore Klein

During the evening of December 18, 1950, Mr. and Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN were interviewed at their residence, 48-32 38th Street, Long Island City, New York, by Special Agents THOMAS E. O'BRIEN and ELMER M. ROTH.

ISIDORE KLEIN stated he is an artist and cartoonist by background, presently employed as story-writer or gag-man for animated cartoons by Famous Studios, 25 West 45th Street, New York City. He said he generally signs his cartoons and illustrations as I. KLEIN.

KLEIN asserted that he became a member of the John Reed Club sometime after 1930, although he could not recall the exact date, and belonged to the club for about a year. During his membership he recalled having attended numerous meetings, and he exhibited a number of sketches which he made of the members.

According to KLEIN, at the time he joined the John Reed Club he was a free lance artist, and aside from the social aspects of the club he was prompted to join in an endeavor to arrange an exhibition of his work. This plan, however, never materialized, and he gave up attendance at club functions because he "did not like the atmosphere." He explained that he concluded that too much emphasis was placed on politics at the club meetings and not enough on art.

Both Mr. and Mrs. KLEIN readily stated that Mrs. KLEIN'S maiden name was ANNA ROSENBERG, and that during the time I. KLEIN was a member of the John Reed Club, ANNA ROSENBERG attended a number of meetings of that organization in KLEIN'S company. They both pointed out that membership in the club involved practically no formalities, and no dues were collected.

Mrs. KLEIN furnished the following background information concerning herself:

As ANNA ROSENBERG, she was born in Lublin, Poland, on April 7, 1904. She came to the United States with her parents sometime around 1911, although she was unable to recall the exact year or date. She stated she received derivative citizenship through the naturalization of her father, on May 25, 1915, and exhibited a photostatic copy of the naturalization papers which contained the following information:

MORIS ROSENBERG, age 44, height 5' 5", residence 36 Townsend Street, Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, born in Russia, became a naturalized United States citizen in the United States District Court at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania on May 25, 1915. The age of his wife was given as 42, and his children were listed as follows: [REDACTED]

After finishing the Fifth Avenue High School at Pittsburgh, ANNA ROSENBERG attended the College of Fine Arts, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, on a scholarship, during the years 1919-1920.

In 1924 she came to New York City and continued her art studies at the Art Students League of New York. She became friendly with SOPHIE FRANKEL, later SOPHIE GROPPER, and through her she met JOSEPH FREEMAN sometime during 1924 or 1925.

During 1924 or 1925 ANNA ROSENBERG married FREDERICK FIELD, and this marriage terminated in divorce during 1931.

During June, 1928, ANNA ROSENBERG, then Mrs. FREDERICK FIELD, went to Paris, where she met ISIDORE KLEIN. The then Mrs. FIELD, returned to the United States in November, 1928, and ISIDORE KLEIN preceded her to the United States. Following their return to the United States, Mrs. KLEIN stated they were married, "for the record", on August 2, 1932. She has one [REDACTED] born in [REDACTED] from this marriage, and another [REDACTED] first name [REDACTED] presently married, from the first marriage.

NY 62-10641

The KLEINS stated that during the end of 1934, they moved to Hollywood, California, where KLEIN for a time worked for the Walt Disney Studios. They returned to New York State during 1940 and have resided here since. Both Mr. and Mrs. KLEIN professed never to have met [redacted] or JAMES MAGRAW at the John Reed Club or elsewhere, and stated they could not recall being acquainted with these individuals.

A photostatic copy of an article which appeared in the "New York Times" on May 19, 1930, entitled "'Red Scare' Protest Issued by Liberals", purporting to be "A protest against the imprisonment of men and women for expressing their political opinions...." and containing the names of the signers was exhibited to the KLEINS. When it was pointed out that the names of the signers included the names I. KLEIN and ANNA ROSENBERG, they stated they could not recall having signed the particular document in question, although I. KLEIN added that during his membership in the John Reed Club he had signed many papers without inquiry, and that I. KLEIN would be the manner in which he would ordinarily sign his name.

Mrs. KLEIN stated that in addition to having no recollection of having signed the statement in question, she was at a loss to understand as to why, if she was actually the signer, she signed in that manner rather than as Mrs. FREDERICK FIELD, or as MRS. I. KLEIN. She did state, however, that, during that period, her art productions, such as portrait paintings, were signed as ANNA ROSENBERG.

The KLEINS asserted that they had never known any other ANNA ROSENBERG associated with the John Reed Club. Mrs. KLEIN stated that it has amused her to follow the career of the present Assistant Secretary of Defense because of the similarity in names; further, that when she recently read newspaper accounts of the charges against ANNA M. ROSENBERG, the thought occurred both to her and her husband that she, Mrs. KLEIN, might be the ANNA ROSENBERG involved as a member of the John Reed Club, but that they dismissed the matter by reflecting that during the pertinent period, as above indicated, Mrs. KLEIN would have been known by some name other than ANNA ROSENBERG.

In this connection, both Mr. and Mrs. KLEIN readily conceded that a number of individuals with whom Mrs. KLEIN became acquainted when she first arrived in New York may still think and speak of her as ANNA ROSENBERG, and that undoubtedly some members of the John Reed Club thought and spoke of her under this name during the time she was associated with the Club.

NY 62-10641

During the interview it was observed that Mrs. KLEIN is rather inclined to be corpulent, although not fat, and she stated that her stature had been substantially the same for many years. She gave her height as five feet.

NY 62-10641

Re: Reinterview of Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN

During the afternoon of December 19, 1950, Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN was again interviewed at her residence by SAS RUDOLPH V. GLINIAC and ELMER M. ROTH.

At this time, Mrs. KLEIN said she was able to recall definitely that she and her family moved to Hollywood, California during January 1935 rather than during the latter part of 1934, as stated the previous evening. She advised that in April, 1940 she and her family moved to New Rochelle, Westchester County, New York, where they remained until 1945. Since 1945 the KLEINS have resided at their present home at 48-32 38th Street, Long Island City, New York.

Mrs. KLEIN furnished the following signed statement:

"New York, N.Y.

"December 19, 1950

"I Mrs. Isidore Klein, nee Anna Rosenberg, make the following statements to RUDOLPH V. GLINIAC and ELMER M. ROTH, who have identified themselves as Special Agents of the FBI. I make these statements freely and voluntarily:

"As Anna Rosenberg I was born in Lublin, Poland on April 7, 1904, and came to the United States around 1911, although I am unable to recall the exact year. I became a U.S. citizen through the naturalization of my father on May 25, 1915 at Pittsburgh, Pa.

"After finishing high school, I attended the College of Fine Arts, Carnegie Institute of Technology, Pittsburgh, during 1919-1920.

"In 1924 I came to New York City and continued my art studies at the Art Students League of New York.

"In 1930 I was residing in New York City at which time I was generally known as the wife of ISIDORE KLEIN. During approximately 1930, my husband was a member of the

NY 62-10641

"John Reed Club at New York City, which membership lasted about a year. While he was a member both he and I attended gatherings of the John Reed Club on Fourteenth Street, although I am not certain of the location. I was principally interested in exhibiting my oil paintings.

"After my husband and I severed our connection with the John Reed Club, we continued to meet at the homes of friends which gatherings included occasional members of the John Reed Club.

"Both at meetings of the John Reed Club and at private gatherings I was known either as Mrs. I. KLEIN or as ANNA ROSENBERG. All my works of art during the period under discussion were signed as ANNA ROSENBERG.

"I recall that around 1930 two of my paintings provoked some comment. One was a portrait of a friend exhibited at the Opportunity Gallery, and the other portrayed another friend displayed at the then Anderson Galleries. Both of these paintings were signed by me as ANNA ROSENBERG.

"I do not recall having met at any time [redacted] JAMES MAGRAW or BENJAMIN H. FREEDMAN. Nor am I aware that any other ANNA ROSENBERG had ever been a member of the John Reed Club.

"In January, 1935, when I was an expectant mother, I moved to Hollywood, California with my family. During 1937, I visited in Pittsburgh for a week and spent another week in Newark, N.J., accompanied by my two daughters. During this visit I do not recall meeting any member of the group above discussed, and returned to Hollywood.

"During April 1940 my family and myself moved to New Rochelle, Westchester County, N.Y. and remained there until 1945. Since 1945 we have been living in our present home, Long Island City, N.Y.

"Upon reading the November 9, 1950 account in the 'New York Post' concerning the testimony of [redacted] alleging that ANNA M. ROSENBERG, Assistant Secretary of Defense, had been a member of the John Reed Club, my first reaction was that I may be the person being confused with ANNA M. ROSENBERG. However, in discussing the matter with my husband

"he pointed out that according to the news article the dates included were 1935 and 1938 at which time we were in California, whereupon I dismissed the matter from my mind, especially after my husband called my attention to the fact that there are numerous individuals named ANNA ROSENBERG in the New York area.

I now realize that although I did not know all members and visitors who frequented the John Reed Club, I cannot recall any other person known there as ANNA ROSENBERG. Therefore, in spite of the discrepancy in dates, above referred to, I feel it may be possible that I am the person who has been confused with ANNA M. ROSENBERG.

"I have read the foregoing five handwritten pages, have placed my initials on corrections, and affirm that the contents are true to the best of my knowledge.

ADMINISTRATIVE PAGERe: Mr. and Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent ELMER M. ROTH:

Throughout the interview on December 18, 1950,
Mr. and Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN exhibited a highly cooperative attitude.

Mrs. KLEIN indicated that she was greatly concerned about possible publicity attached to her past membership in the John Reed Club, and she stated that she was most anxious that her [redacted] whose married name she would not divulge, presently an expectant mother and highly nervous, be spared any unpleasantness.

b7C

She made available a small photograph of herself taken during 1930 or 1931 but only with the stipulation that this picture will not be released by the Bureau or given to an outside agency. It was pointed out to her that the purpose of the photograph would be to exhibit it to [redacted] [redacted] and possibly others, but that this Bureau would do everything possible to accede to her wishes in this regard.

ISIDORE KLEIN also made available, with similar stipulations, a sketch which he stated he made of ANNA
ROSENBERG during the early 1930's.

The photograph and the sketch are to be returned to the KLEINS after they have served their purpose.

During the interview with Mrs. KLEIN on December 19, 1950, she stated that in the interest of clearing the accusations made against ANNA M. ROSENBERG she had no objection to having the above photograph and sketch exhibited to any proper committee or governmental agency, provided that such action would not result in newspaper publicity. She reiterated her desire to avoid publicity, pointing out that as a prospective grandmother she was desirous of protecting her reputation, and that her association with the John Reed Club was actually prompted by artistic rather than political motives.

No commitments regarding publicity were made to Mrs. KLEIN, although she was assured that her wishes would be conveyed to the Bureau.

In the statement furnished by Mrs. ISIDORE KLEIN, nee ANNA ROSENBERG, the names of former friends, associates, and family members were omitted at her specific request.

It is to be noted that ANNA ROSENBERG took a trip to Paris during 1928, by which time she was estranged from her first husband, FREDERICK FIELD, although, according to her, a divorce was not obtained until 1931, and her marriage with ISIDORE KLEIN was not consummated until August 2, 1932. Mrs. KLEIN volunteered the information that prior to 1932 she had been a common-law wife to KLEIN, which set of facts may explain her use of the name of ANNA ROSENBERG on occasions.

Mr. Tolson

L. B. Nichols

Upon being informed that a story is being circulated in New York being attributed to [redacted] to the effect that I was out to get [redacted] I called [redacted] on the telephone and told him that I wanted to discuss with him the story that was back of him wherein he was being attributed as the source. He immediately asked if I had heard the story that Laskey had supposedly told [redacted] I tol him that this was the story I wanted to discuss with him.

He stated that his wife had told him that he should call, me and tell me the facts. [redacted] heard the story and jumped Victor Laskey. Laskey denies making any such statements to Ralph De Toledano. [redacted] stated he had talked to De Toledano and De Toledano had indicated that Laskey had told him such a story. He told De Toledano that this was a lie; that he, [redacted] on the other hand knew that the Bureau was not out to get anybody. I told Fred that I was content to take his word for this. He had also tried to get in touch with Laskey but he was on leave.

[redacted] told me confidentially that since "Seeds of Treason" both Laskey and De Toledano had gone off the beam; that Laskey's mental outlook had reached the state where the paper sent him on a two weeks vacation to see if that wouldn't help him; that he was on the verge of being fired by the paper. He cited as an illustration some of the things Laskey is doing - Laskey does not know Anna Rosenberg but when the [redacted] case broke he went to her apartment and started to master mind the whole thing and told her that they would take care of her. He shook hands with her when he started to leave and patted her hand and said "Don't worry little lady, we'll take care of you." Rosenberg called [redacted] and asked if Laskey was crazy.

[redacted] also told me that among the individuals master-minding the Anna Rosenberg matter was John Cahill and David Samuel; that he had participated in a conference in her apartment. He further stated that he had interviewed an individual named Charles Harrison. [redacted] had dinner with Harrison and Harrison told him that his psychiatrist had told him to stay out of the Rosenberg case; however, Harrison was telling the story that there was an Anna Rosenberg that was in the John Reed Club. [redacted] stated he suspected that Harrison did not tell us this and he doubted that he would.

SUBJECT: W. AVERILL HARRIMAN
INFORMATION CONCERNING

DATE: December 21, 1950

Rebutel to Kansas City titled "ALLEGATION OF ALLEGED MEMBERSHIP OF ANNA M. ROSENBERG IN THE JOHN REED CLUB, SPECIAL INQUIRY" dated 12/11/50, stating that JAMES T. JENNING, 1200 Oak Street, Kansas City, Missouri, wrote a letter to Senator McCARTHY alleging in part that "HARRIMAN is in charge of putting Reds in the Government" and further, that ANNA ROSENBERG is "very Red".

In contacting Mr. JENNING regarding ANNA ROSENBERG he mentioned that all of his information was supplied by Mrs. HELEN McALLISTER, 3514 Forest Avenue, Kansas City, Missouri, whose identity should remain confidential.

In contacting Mrs. McALLISTER regarding ANNA ROSENBERG, she volunteered that she had mentioned HARRIMAN also to Mr. JENNING and that her reason for believing HARRIMAN pro-Communist was that HARRIMAN is never criticized by the Communist press. She volunteered that she had no further information regarding HARRIMAN.

This is for the information of the Bureau.

SYNOPSIS OF FACTS: ESTHER ROSENBERG, Trenton, N. J., denies being identical with ANNA ROSENBERG, who was a member of the John Reed Club. She also states she does not know of any person by the name of ANNA ROSENBERG, nor has she used the alias of ANNA ROSENBERG at any time. LOUIS LOZOWICK, artist of South Orange, N. J., advised he was member Artist's Section, John Reed Club, N. Y. C. from about 1930 to 1932. LOZOWICK stated he did not know any ANNA ROSENBERG as being a member of the John Reed Club or any person by that name ever attending any meetings of the John Reed Club during this period.

- RUC -

DETAILS:

This is a joint investigation conducted by Special Agent JAMES H. HIGDON, JR. and the writer.

Mrs. ~~ESTHER~~ ROSENBERG, 84 Beechwood Avenue, Trenton, New Jersey, advised that she was arrested in the summer of 1930 on a charge of disturbing the peace but was released without payment of any fine or receiving any sentence. She stated at that time she resided at 261 Clay Street, Trenton, New Jersey and was the wife of JACOB ROSENBERG.

Mrs. ROSENBERG said that she never used the name of ANNA ROSENBERG at any time, nor did she know any person by the name of ANNA ROSENBERG who was a member of the John Reed Club.

An affidavit was furnished to the reporting agent by Mr. CHARLES SABIN, Attorney for Mrs. ROSENBERG, attesting to the above statement that Mrs. ROSENBERG never used the name of ANNA

ROSENBERG, nor did she know any individual by the name of ANNA ROSENBERG.

On December 19, 1950, Special Agents THOMAS W. KELTY and JAMES H. HIGDON, Jr. interviewed LOUIS LOZOWICK at his art studio, The Art Corner, 104 West South Orange Avenue, South Orange, New Jersey.

Mr. LOZOWICK advised that he was a member of the Artist's Section of the John Reed Club, New York City, New York, from about 1930 to 1932. He stated that this club at that time consisted primarily of artists, writers and persons who were affiliated with the motion picture industry. He related that the total membership of this club did not exceed 100 persons during the period 1930 to 1932. LOZOWICK continued that he believed there were approximately thirty to forty active members in the John Reed Club and he noted that the artists and the writers sections of this club probably consisted of fifteen members each.

Mr. LOZOWICK identified the John Reed Club as being a club that was organized primarily to aid and help fellow artists and writers. He continued that to his knowledge, the John Reed Club was not a Communist club or a Communist Party club, but he added that its members perhaps included some Communists or Communist Party members.

Mr. LOZOWICK went on to state that on some occasions the John Reed Club had political issues of the day discussed and that on some of these occasions these discussions may have been "politically left."

Mr. LOZOWICK advised that he did not know of any ANNA ROSENBERG ever being a member of the John Reed Club during the period 1930 to 1932 and he added that he had never heard of a person by the name of ANNA ROSENBERG ever attending any meetings of the John Reed Club during this period of time.

Regarding the John Reed Club Petition to the "New York Times" on May 19, 1930, Mr. LOZOWICK related that he did not recall signing this petition, although in all probability, he stated, he was identical with the LOUIS LOZOWICK who was referred to in instant petition.

In this connection, Mr. LOZOWICK continued that it was customary in the John Reed Club that blanket endorsements be given by the entire membership of the club without the specific knowledge or approval of the members concerned.

ADMINISTRATIVE DATA

In connection with the possibility that JAMES ~~McGRAW~~, also known as James Magraw, [redacted] and HELEN WINNER, [redacted]

[redacted] may have been [redacted]

[redacted] LOZOWICK stated that the names JAMES McGRAW and [redacted] were not familiar to him and so far as he could recall, he never met these persons nor did he know of their identity.

He related that the name HELEN WINNER was not unfamiliar to him but he stated that he could recall nothing about her.

In connection with the WPA, Writers Project Communist Cell, LOZOWICK stated that to his knowledge no such Communist Cell existed within the Writers Project of the WPA, although, he stated, it was quite possible that persons with Communist leanings or persons who were actually members of the Communist Party were employed on the Writer's Project of the WPA.

LOZOWICK volunteered the following information concerning himself.

He stated that he was never a Communist, a member of the Communist Party or a Communist sympathizer. He stated, however, that on numerous occasions in the 1930s and the early 1940s he lent his name to various organizations which have subsequently been identified as Communist front organizations. LOZOWICK did not elaborate on the identity of the Communist front organizations to which he had loaned his name, but he did state that he was aware at the time that some of these organizations had "Leftist tendencies." Still in this same connection, LOZOWICK stated that on many occasions his name appeared as being a sponsor of or affiliated with various "Communist front organizations" when he, LOZOWICK, had no personal knowledge that his name was being used as a sponsor or mentioned as being affiliated with such organizations.

LOZOWICK stated that he had never been in contact with the Communist Party of New Jersey nor to his knowledge had he ever been contacted by any members of the Communist Party of New Jersey. He stated that although he was not a member of the Progressive Party in New Jersey, he had on several occasions attended meetings of the Progressive Party and had loaned some of his paintings to Progressive Party sponsored gatherings.

[] has stated that he recalled an individual named HELEN WOODWARD who was assisted in obtaining a government position by ANNA M. ROSENBERG and may be of possible assistance to Communists. He stated that HELEN WOODWARD he recalled as an assistant to HARRY HOPKINS.

In connection with the above, an attempt was made to identify and locate HELEN WOODWARD in order that she may be interviewed.

JACOB BAKER, Hotel Chelsea, New York City, was contacted as to the identity of HELEN WOODWARD and did not recall any such person but believed that it could be a reference to ELLEN WOODWARD, a former Democratic National Committee woman from Mississippi, who was brought to Washington by PAT HARRISON. BAKER believed that this individual was later connected with the Social Security Board and may have been on the WPA project concerning women in the Relief Administration.

[] was reinterviewed as to the identity of HELEN WOODWARD and does not believe that the above individual mentioned by JACOB BAKER, ELLEN WOODWARD, is identical with the person he first named. [] stated that the person who would know HELEN WOODWARD is SUSAN LAFOLETTE, now employed by the publication, "Freeman" 240 Madison Avenue, New York City.

SUSAN LAFOLETTE, 240 Madison Avenue, New York City, was interviewed by SA FRANCIS J. GALLANT and stated that HELEN WOODWARD, who was a very close personal friend of hers, was not in any way connected with the Writers Project in the WPA. Miss LAFOLETTE was of the opinion that [] might be referring to a Mrs. AUDREY MC MAN who was head of the arts project of the WPA. She stated that she was certain that [] was mistaken as to the identity of HELEN WOODWARD; however, she stated that she would contact HELEN WOODWARD and would certainly have HELEN WOODWARD contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation if she had any information concerning ANNA M. ROSENBERG.

It will be recalled that [] mentioned one LOU GODY formerly the head of the Federal Writers Project in New York City in the early 1940's.

In an attempt to locate the whereabouts of GODY, Mr. JAMES REED, an employee of the New York Office of Marketing, United States Department of Agriculture, 90 Church Street, was interviewed on December 18, 1950.

Mr. REED stated that he had no knowledge of the present whereabouts of GODY. However, in 1945 he had heard from a friend that GODY was residing in Washington, D. C. and was employed by the Federal Government. REED stated that he believed that GODY had been at the very least a Party sympathizer and in his position as editor of the "New York City Guide" had been active as a Party sympathizer among the younger clerks on the project.

REED had no knowledge of ANNA M. ROSENBERG nor could he furnish any information pertaining to the John Reed Club.

It is noted that [] in his signed statement of December 7, 1950, furnished to this office, mentioned the name ROBERT M. HANOVER as a person whom he met at the John Reed Club. [] described ROBERT M. HANOVER as formerly an official of the Soviet-American Securities Corporation and a nephew of ELIZABETH De WARD.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent DONALD E. SHANNON:

ELIZABETH De WARD and her husband, ROBERT VERNON De WARD, both advised that they had no relative named ROBERT M. HANOVER and knew no person bearing this name.

It is further noted that a review of the Dies Committee testimony made by [] discloses that [] concerning a ROBERT HALPERIN. Further, that the Dies Committee reports reflect that ROBERT HALPERIN in testifying before said committee advised that his, HALPERIN's, sister was married to one VICTOR HANOVER.

[] upon further interview, advised Special Agent JOHN J. SIMMONS that he now recalls that ROBERT M. HANOVER was also known by the name ROBERT HALPERIN but [] said he had no information concerning the present whereabouts of ROBERT HALPERIN.

The above information is set out to identify the ROBERT M. HANOVER, previously mentioned by ROBERT HALPERIN. In view of the fact that this case is being closed on Bureau authority no further attempts have been made to locate or interview ROBERT M. HANOVER, also known as ROBERT HALPERIN.

The following investigation was conducted by SA JAMES W. RYAN for the purpose of locating MARTHA CAMPION for interview:

The Bureau advised that [redacted] that one MARTHA CAMPION could testify as to having seen ANNA ROSENBERG at John Reed Club meetings.

On being interviewed December 13, 1950 by SA WILLIAM G. O'DONNELL of the New York Office, [redacted] described the above MARTHA CAMPION as follows:

Height	5'
Weight	100 pounds
Hair	Yellow blond
Eyes	Blue
Complexion	Pale

[redacted] said that she is a former editor of the "New Pioneer" magazine and that she was formerly married to CONRAD KOMOROVSKI. He said KOMOROVSKI, a Communist Party member, many years ago was active in Latin American affairs.

[redacted] was unable to furnish a current or former address for either of the above two individuals.

The files of the New York Division show that a MARTHA CAMPION was Editor of an IWO publication known as "New Pioneer" in 1936. The files also show that this MARTHA CAMPION in about 1935 was the author of the following IWO material:

"New Pioneer Storybook";
"Swampfox Brigade";
Play entitled, "The Mist".

The files do not reflect an address for MARTHA CAMPION. (100-2936-619, pages 157, 158; 100-2936-753 page 83).

"~~CONRAD KOMOROWSKI~~, representing the American League Against Imperialism, in the name of the Commission strongly protested against the actions of the Cuban Government." (No address for KOMOROWSKI was given). (121-6319-1B2).

The report of SA JAMES R. YORE, dated February 24, 1943 at Chicago, entitled, "CONRAD KOMOROWSKI, INTERNAL SECURITY - C", reflects that KOMOROWSKI has resided with his wife at 1357 West Harrison Street, Chicago, Illinois since January, 1942. The name of his wife is given as NAOMI KOMOROWSKI.

Chicago report regarding ~~CONRAD ALEXANDER KOMOROWSKI~~, was, dated March 5, 1945, reflects that at this time KOMOROWSKI was residing at 3648 South Lake Park Avenue, Chicago.

Chicago letter to New York, dated October 30, 1946, shows that the above KOMOROWSKI was formerly married to one MABEL WORTHINGTON.

New York letter to Chicago, dated December 3, 1946, shows that KOMOROWSKI married ~~MABEL PARKER WORTHINGTON~~ on June 12, 1930 at the Municipal Building in New York City.

Chicago letter to New York, dated December 10, 1948, indicated that possibly the maiden name of KOMOROWSKI'S present wife is NAOMI ~~SCHOENBAUM~~. Chicago letter to New York, dated March 30, 1950, showed that the above NAOMI KOMOROWSKI came to Chicago from New York City in 1941 or 1942. She resided at 215 West 88th Street, New York City, during a visit early in 1947 according to the above letter. (Chicago File 100-9921; New York File 100-45622).

[] said FOX had told him that records of the John Reed Club were destroyed to conceal membership of persons who had gained prominence.

On interview by SA WILLIAM G. O'DONNELL, [] further described FOX as follows:

Age	60-65 years
Height	6'
Weight	250 pounds
Occupation	Lawyer

[] said FOX formerly resided on West 103rd Street, New York City, between Manhattan and Columbus Avenues. He said in the 1930s, FOX had a son who resided at 43 West 93rd Street, New York City.

The New York files failed to reflect an individual who could be identified with the above FOX.

Confidential Informant T-2, of known reliability, advised SA BRUCE KREIGHBAUM that in 1945, one SAM FOX was a UE organizer who was an "old man" with heart trouble who might now be deceased.

In accordance with Bureau instructions no additional investigation was conducted to locate the above FOX. The foregoing is set out as of possible future investigative value.

DETAILS:

Re EDMOND WILSON

At Wellfleet, Massachusetts

The following investigation was conducted by SA's WILLIAM H. CARPENTER and BARTON N. HAHN.

EDMOND WILSON, Money Hill, Wellfleet, Massachusetts, who identified himself as a summer staff member of "New Masses" and "New Yorker" magazines at New York City, and who is currently writing fiction, was interviewed on December 20, 1950. He stated he was not acquainted with [] JAMES MAGRAW, and did not know any person named ANNA M. ROSENBERG.

In addition, WILSON stated he was not acquainted with [] and never belonged to the John Reed Club in New York City or elsewhere. He asserted he never knowingly attended any meetings of the John Reed Club or any meetings sponsored by the John Reed Club, but stated he may have signed petitions protesting Red baiting which was sponsored by the John Reed Club and which were circulated during the early 1930's. Mr. WILSON could not recall with certainty whether or not he had signed any such petitions.

WILSON acknowledged that he knew of the existence of the John Reed Club of New York City during the early 1930's and that he was friendly with members of the Club and had also association with some persons who were known to him to be "Communists"; and, under such circumstances, he did sign several petitions reportedly directed against Red baiting but that he now has no specific recollection of the persons in question who were associated with the John Reed Club, nor could he identify the persons.

WALT KUHN. KUHN was an artist who openly stated he was a member of the Communist Party and who was believed by [] to be deceased.

TOM SPENCER. Member of W.P.A. Writers Project and admitted Communist Party member.

CHARLES GORHAM. Admitted member of the Communist Party who served in the RCAF during World War II.

During this period [] also had contact with HENRY ALLSBERG of New York who was the National Director of the W.P.A. Writers Project. ALLSBERG did not attend the Marxist classes referred to above and was not an openly admitted member of the Communist Party but was a very close friend of JAMES MAGRAW and was a person whom [] felt was willing to associate himself with individuals who were Communists and the then interests of the Communist Party.

It should be noted that [] is not in position to specifically identify by date or otherwise many of the facts set forth herein due to his current mode of living wherein he lives on a day to day basis from Welfare Agencies to Rescue Mission and is periodically under the influence of alcoholics.

During the course of these interviews, he appeared to be friendly and cooperative and made an effort to recall to mind the factors contained herein. He stated he had no papers of any kind which would be of assistance to him in connection with these factors.
