 GOVERNOR'S WAR ON CRIME

Today VICTOR P. KEAY, presently an employee of The Wackenhut Corporation and formerly an Agent of the Bureau, contacted me and advised that The Wackenhut Corporation is having difficulty getting information from local law enforcement agencies. KEAY said he is fully familiar with the Bureau's regulations but he said he does feel they are being hampered by not getting information from local law enforcement agencies.

He said they have four or five excellent cases as far as local corruption is concerned and they intend to proceed on these cases in the near future. He stated the Governor recently contacted GEORGE WACKENHUT and advised him that he wanted to proceed against the hoodlums in Florida and requested that he get full background on them. KEAY said, of course, not having any inroads into this information, it would be almost an impossible situation.

KEAY said it was a situation that has to be resolved. I pointed out to KEAY the Bureau's regulations in connection with the dissemination of information to private investigative agencies and told him we were precluded by law. He said he fully realized the Bureau's position and stated it is his understanding, and he gave me this information confidentially,

He stated that WACKENHUT in no way wanted to run in opposition to the Bureau and merely wanted to get the thing clarified. Apparently the Wackenhut people have been turned down by all authorized law enforcement agencies.

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED] KEAY indicated there is a possibility he might contact the Director. I emphatically pointed out to KEAY that the regulations are hard and fast and I could see no reason why Wackenhut or any one of his representatives should contact the Director.

KEAY said he would keep me informed of developments and what plan WACKENHUT and [REDACTED] I will keep the Bureau advised.

I received a call at approximately 10 a.m., March 2, 1967, from former Inspector Victor Keay, who was calling from Miami, Florida, representing the Wackenhut Corporation. This corporation has been designated [redacted] to investigate matters involving organized crime within the state. There has been considerable criticism with regard to [redacted] actions in this regard [redacted]

Mr. Keay made reference to the [redacted] designation of the Wackenhut Corporation and indicated that there has been criticism in the Florida area concerning this matter. He stated such criticism was chiefly being made by left wing organizations. He told me that the designation of the Wackenhut Corporation [redacted] in the fight against organized crime was [redacted]. He stated that [redacted] approached George Wackenhut concerning the matter during the [redacted] Wackenhut, according to Keay, had never met [redacted] prior to that time. Keay described [redacted] as a very aggressive individual who demands that assignments be handled in an extremely rapid manner.

Keay attempted to explain that Wackenhut was [redacted] had no other place to turn. Keay stated, obviously Florida Sheriffs, some of whom are corrupt, could not be expected to handle such a matter. Keay then stated there was a distinct difference between the Wackenhut Corporation and the designation of George Wackenhut to investigate organized crime. He explained that George Wackenhut has been made a member of the Governor's personal staff and as a result has an official or legal basis on which to conduct investigations. Keay mentioned that despite the fact that the Wackenhut Corporation is using its investigators to handle this assignment, the files are nevertheless maintained separate and distinct from the Wackenhut Corporation. Keay stated these files are regarded as [redacted] files. Keay went on to tell me [redacted]

RE: THE WACKENHUT CORPORATION

[redacted] the chief magistrate of the State of Florida and according to the constitution of the State has the prerogative of employing individuals to "protect the life and liberty of the State." [redacted] allegedly also has the authority to employ investigators for this particular purpose.

b7D

Keay told me that the question has arisen regarding the obtaining of FBI criminal records by the Wackenhut Corporation. He stated there is also a question as to the Wackenhut Corporation receiving FBI information and, particularly that information which the FBI has given to local law enforcement. Keay stated in some instances local law enforcement has refused to give Wackenhut investigators any FBI criminal information as well as information from their files. Refusals have been based on the fact that the information received from the FBI has been intermingled with that information possessed by the local law enforcement agency. Keay stated he wanted to make it clear Wackenhut and his group have not asked for any information yet; however, the Wackenhut Corporation has been led to believe that the FBI will not cooperate neither will it allow local law enforcement agencies to cooperate.

I told Keay we, of course, have no jurisdiction over local law enforcement agencies; however, we did have every authority to dictate concerning any release of FBI criminal records or FBI information.

Keay told me on one occasion the assistant agent in charge of the Jacksonville Division of the FBI had advised a local law enforcement representative that if this representative's organization gave information to Wackenhut and his group, this organization would immediately be cut off from receiving further cooperation from the FBI. Keay stated a local agent in the Miami Division of the FBI had indicated the same policy to another local law enforcement representative. Keay stated the reason for his call was to determine policy in this regard inasmuch as Wackenhut, being an official representative [redacted] was entitled to receive information from local law enforcement files.

b7D

I told Keay that Wackenhut was not authorized to receive any information from FBI files and that furthermore no local law enforcement agency had authority to turn over to Wackenhut and his group any information which had originally been furnished by the FBI, criminal records or otherwise.

Memo: DeLoach to Tolson
Re: THE WACKENHUT CORPORATION

Keye replied that he thought perhaps [redacted] should correspond with the Director in order to properly identify the legal basis on which such records and information would be requested. I told Keye this, of course, [redacted]

[redacted] Keye stated that he thought about this initially; however, did not want it to appear he was going over the Director's head with respect to this issue. I told him once again that despite Wackenhut's designation to [redacted] staff it was true that Wackenhut and his assistants represent a private detective outfit with whom we have no authority whatsoever to cooperate and with whom very definitely we did not cooperate. Keye stated [redacted] would write a letter [redacted] asking for usage of FBI information and criminal records which could be obtained from local law enforcement in Florida. b7D

OBSERVATION:

The so-called "legal" or "official" basis upon which Wackenhut, through Keye, is making a claim to FBI information and criminal records is, of course, absurd. We, nevertheless, should alert the Attorney General to the matter so that he can anticipate a request from [redacted] in this regard.

ACTION:

The Special Investigative Division is preparing a letter to the Attorney General in connection with the above facts.

Mr. Ernest C. Friesen, Jr., Assistant Attorney General for Administration, by memorandum February 23, 1967, (attached) requested our comments regarding an inquiry made by the above Subcommittee. Chairman John E. Moss (Democrat - California) by letter February 13, 1967, to the Acting Attorney General requested information concerning the use of "lie detectors" by the Wackenhut Corporation, Coral Gables, Florida, under contract with the Department of Justice.

The Bureau is already on public record (July 22, 1963) with the above Subcommittee that we do not "contract with other public or private agencies to perform such tests." Therefore, it is proposed that we advise the Department that the Bureau does not currently have or has ever had any contract with the Wackenhut Corporation providing for the use of the polygraph.

Pages S2463-S2465. Senator Nelson, (D) Wisconsin, stated

"I think there is cause to be deeply disturbed by a number of developments recently which seem to indicate an alarming trend in this country toward the use of police-state tactics. I refer to the following developments: First. The lavish subsidization of the National Student Association and other private domestic organizations by the Central Intelligence Agency. Second. The widespread use of wiretapping and eavesdropping by Government agencies. Third. The subsidization of supposedly legitimate books by the U. S. Information Agency, primarily for propaganda purposes. Fourth. The use of private detective agencies by large corporations such as General Motors to harass a private citizen such as Ralph Nader. Fifth. The widespread practice of industrial spying to discover competitor's corporate secrets. Sixth. The use of a private detective agency by the State of Florida, allegedly to conduct a widespread investigation into crime and corruption." He also stated "When Federal agencies tap telephones and bug hotel rooms, they are not merely acting in secret—they are acting dishonestly. For the law, Government regulations, and the comments of high Government officials have all reassured us that these things were not being done. These assurances, it now appears, were lies." He also indicated the newly elected Governor (Florida) has "engaged a close personal friend, George R. Wackenhut, and directed him to unleash his detective agency throughout Florida in search of 'corrupt officials.' The Wackenhut Corp. has 5,000 employees in 28 offices stretching from Puerto Rico to Hawaii, with subsidiaries in several Latin American countries. - - - Now this gigantic organization, with its tentacles involved in politics and other affairs over much of the globe, has gone to work for a high public official. Presumably it will have access to all manner of official documents, police files, FBI files and other material generally available only to responsible public officials. I have said that all of these deplorable developments have in common the elements of secrecy and dishonesty."

Mr. J. Edgar Hoover
Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D.C.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Florida Gov. Claude R. Kirk has designated the Wackenhut detective agency as his special consultant and representative in a "War on Crime."

There has been considerable reaction ~~through~~ throughout Florida to the concept of a private detective agency working under the sanction of government and supported by private subscription.

The Florida Attorney General has since ruled that the detective agency has no standing other than that of any other private citizen in obtaining access to private police files.

The ruling was requested by Tampa Police Chief J.P. Mullins.

Tampa Mayor Nick Nuccio said one of the reasons the attorney general's opinion was sought was that FBI records are on file in the police department and that opening them to the detective agency would endange the department's standing with the FBI.

Question: What is the position of the F.B.I. in relation to cooperation with the Wackenhut Detective Agency as a representative of Florida Gov. Claude R. Kirk? Are the Bureau's files open to the Wackenhut agency? What would be the Bureau's position if local police agencies made F.B.I. records available to the Wackenhut Agency? Have you issued any instructions to special agents in Florida covering these situations?

Thanking you in advance for a prompt reply, I remain,
sincerely,

During his campaign preceding his election as Governor of Florida in November, 1966, Claude R. Kirk, Jr., promised to do something about organized crime activities in the Florida area and upon assuming office in January, 1967, he appointed the Wackenhut Corporation, a private detective company, as "a special police force" to conduct a privately financed investigation of crime conditions. According to recent press reports, the Governor's approach to the problem has created wide-spread controversy and aroused the Florida Sheriffs Bureau (FSB) to attempt to acquire more authority and stature as the primary official investigative agency for the State of Florida. In anticipation of the Governor's report on the influence of organized crime in Florida to be released this week and prepared from the results of the Wackenhut investigation, the FSB sent a report to the Governor and members of the cabinet on March 17, 1967, stating that the La Cosa Nostra has made "significant" inroads into legitimate businesses and many of its members have established permanent residences in Florida. A copy of the ten-page report has been obtained and a review of this report discloses that no specific data is contained therein, nor <sup>are</sup> any hoodlums or their places of business identified. The information is stated to be based on voluminous detailed reports maintained by the FSB and the summary set forth pertains to situations which are already known to us through our Criminal Intelligence Program.

We have identified 31 La Cosa Nostra members and 18 possible members who reside in Florida. We have also identified approximately 250 individuals connected with La Cosa Nostra activities who visit the Florida area from time to time.

Our Miami Office has reported that the influence of racket money is limited to approximately three per cent of the 1,700 hotels and motels in the South Florida area and is found in the major resort ocean front hotels. Lesser criminal elements have invested in night clubs and restaurants which we used as a cover to carry on gambling, prostitution and swiglocking activities. We have also developed information on hoodlum infiltration of legitimate businesses such as restaurants, taverns, vending, produce, cartage and construction.

As of February 28, 1967, we were conducting 140 investigations under the Anti-Racketeering category and 302 under the gambling categories. We have obtained ten convictions of the Federal gambling statutes and 21 other individuals are awaiting prosecution.

Where it has been considered feasible, information has been furnished to local authorities regarding gamblers after investigation determined these individuals were not violating Federal statutes. In ten cases such as mentioned above, 35 subjects have been arrested by local law enforcement agencies, 12 convictions were obtained and 22 other individuals are awaiting prosecution. One was killed by a local officer before trial.

With the cooperation of feature writers of the "Miami Herald" newspaper, to whom general lead information was provided, crime conditions and corruption have been exposed in the Miami area resulting in county grand jury probes. These grand juries indicted Dade County Sheriff T. A. Buchanan on April 20, 1966, for perjury, bribery and malfeasance. Broward County Sheriff Allen B. Michell has also been indicted in October, 1966, for the second time for misfeasance, malfeasance and nonfeasance.

In the course of our gambling investigations in the city of Jacksonville, we developed information concerning corruption in the police department which was made available to the Duval County prosecutor and resulted of a shakeup of the agency. We also provided pertinent information to the county prosecutor concerning corruption of city officials and a county grand jury has returned several indictments for bribery, misappropriation of funds and related violations on the part of councilmen and other city officials.

ACTION:

For information. Crime conditions in Florida are being carefully followed and every possible opportunity is being taken to develop the necessary evidence to obtain prosecutions / <sup>under</sup> Federal statutes or, where no Federal violation exists, to make such information available to responsible local authorities.

Dear Mr. Cox:

In response to your letter of March 3rd inquiring about the Wackenhut detective agency having access to FBI records, I want to make it clear that the files of this Bureau are confidential pursuant to regulations of the Department of Justice and that the FBI does not make its files available to this company.

The receipt of FBI identification records by duly authorized law enforcement agencies is, under Congressional enactment and ruling of the Attorney General, subject to cancellation if such records are used for other than official purposes. All police agencies are aware of this situation which exists to prevent the misuse of arrest records.

I trust this will clarify our position. Should you have any questions about the Departmental ruling on this matter, you may desire to direct them to the Attorney General.

Sincerely yours,

J. Edgar Hoover

NOTE: Mr. Cox is not identifiable in Bufiles. We have enjoyed cordial relations with The Tampa Tribune. The Wackenhut Corporation has been designated by Governor Kirk (R - Florida) to investigate matters involving organized crime within Florida. This is a very controversial matter and has been the subject of considerable criticism directed against Governor Kirk for his action in utilizing a private detective agency in this regard. Authority for canceling the distribution of FBI identification records to law enforcement agencies is based upon appropriation language dated June 11, 1930, and set forth in Title 5, Section 340, of the United States Code. The wording indicates that the FBI has authority for the acquisition, collection, classification and preservation of identification and other records and their exchange with and for official use of the duly authorized officials of the Federal Government, of states, cities and other institutions, such exchange to be subject to cancellation if dissemination is made outside the receiving Departments or related agencies. The Department has ruled that these records are set up for the purpose of cooperation with agencies having law enforcement functions. The records are not available to private individuals or companies. Departmental Order 324-64 dated 10-8-64 (previously Orders 260-62 and 3229) provides for the confidential nature of FBI files but does not relate to FBI identification records in the possession of local or state law enforcement agencies.

GOVERNOR'S WAR ON CRIME

Transmitted to the Bureau and each office is copy of a letter addressed by Attorney General EARL FAIRCLOTH to J. P. MULLINS, Chief of Police, Tampa, Fla., on 3/2/67.

This letter was in response to an inquiry by MULLINS regarding the authority of the Governor to require all law enforcement officials to surrender confidential police files to Agents or employees of the Governor for examination or copy. It is to be noted that Mr. FAIRCLOTH's opinion is that the Governor's agents have no more authority to examine police files than any other citizen. Further, that the Governor has no power to appoint except that granted by the legislature; that there is no constitutional or statutory provision making the Governor a peace officer, and that the sheriffs are the chief law enforcement officers. The opinion further appears to state in effect that the Governor does not have authority to accept private funds and that the creating of a private investigating force is "immoral and unethical in concept (and) the antithesis of a democratic government."

GOVERNOR'S WAR ON CRIME

TO: All Area Managers in Florida                      DATE: February 21, 1967
FROM: George R. Wackenhut grw                      DIVISION: Executive SUBJECT: Instructions for Investigators,
          Governor's War on Crime

The following instructions are being furnished for your guidance in connection with investigations made under the Governor's War on Crime. All investigators, whether full or part time, who do any investigations should be familiar with these instructions. In the future, you should have each of them read and initial these instructions prior to being assigned to such investigations. A copy of this Memo should be maintained where it will be available for review by the investigators when necessary.

1. The special credentials being issued by the Governor's office may not be used for any purpose other than in connection with investigations made for the Governor's War on Crime. The use of these credentials for any other purpose, including obtaining information in connection with an investigation for The Wackenhut Corporation, will be cause for immediate dismissal.

2. The investigators have no powers of arrest and no right to carry firearms by reason of receiving the credentials from the Governor. Investigators are in no sense police officers, but are authorized only to make investigations in connection with the Governor's War on Crime.

3. All correspondence, reports, and any other documents relating to the Governor's War on Crime must be kept separate and apart from The Wackenhut Corporation's files in your office. They must be kept secure and under lock and key at all times when the office is unattended. Under no circumstances may information obtained through the investigations for the Governor's War on Crime be used in connection with The Wackenhut Corporation's matters.

4. No information should be given to representatives of any of the news media, and in response to inquiries, you should answer that you have "no comment". Refer the person making the inquiry to Coral Gables. All inquiries should be reported immediately by memorandum to the Coral Gables office, or by phone if the nature of the inquiry indicates the matter should be handled expeditiously. I thought you would be interested in the statements attributed to Governor Claude Kirk of Florida following his visit with you on April 3, 1967.

According to the April 4, 1967, edition of the "Florida Times Union," Governor Kirk reportedly stated that while meeting with you, law enforcement problems generally were discussed, as well as national problems with which you are confronted and Kirk's own program on crime in Florida. Governor Kirk was quoted as stating "We're going to cooperate well, the Attorney General has a total purview of crime nationally and I have the picture in Florida. I shall furnish him all the information I can."

In the event any additional pertinent information in this connection comes to my attention, I shall forward it to you.

Transmitted herewith are the following newspaper clippings concerning AG EARL FAIRCLOTH's activity in the "War on Crime". It will be noted that FAIRCLOTH has been "at odds" with Gov. CLAUDE KIRK, JR. and his utilization of the Wackenhut Corporation for conducting investigations in the State of Florida.

The clippings are "St. Petersburg Times", 4/1/67, captioned "Crime War Escalation by Faircloth Proposed", "Tampa Tribune", 4/1/67, captioned "FAIRCLOTH Crime-Buster Unit Urged", "Tampa Tribune", 4/4/67, captioned "30-Man State Vice, Crime Squad Urged", and "St. Petersburg Times" dated 4/2/67, captioned "Crime War Legislation Plan Criticized".

As will be noted from these clippings, FAIRCLOTH, who has working for him the State Committee on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice, is apparently endeavoring to set up an investigative agency on his own.

Crime War Escalation By Faircloth Proposed

By DONALD DAVIS
Times Bureau

TAMPA — Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth yesterday threw another bucketful of criticism on Gov. Claude Kirk's use of the privately owned Wackenhut detective agency as the main force in Florida's war on crime.

Shortly afterwards, the Committee on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice proposed legislation to give Faircloth's office a new platoon of investigators to escalate that same war.

The idea was proposed shortly after Faircloth addressed a special meeting of the committee with state law officials, during which he underlined what he said is the need to have some one or some group in Florida coordinate the fight against organized crime.

THE PROPOSAL is one of the planned bills the committee intends to take to the State Legislature.

The attorney general also announced that his office is preparing legislation that would "pierce the veils of corporations owned by organized crime." He said he plans to strengthen the laws in the civil field that could be turned against racketeers and hoodlums who have infiltrated reputable business fields, such as motels, hotels and restaurants.

"I maintain that the state has the police powers," he said, "to prohibit a convicted felon from being the managing director of a $10-million corporation." He said this is aimed at members of organized crime syndicates and "some kid" who stole an automobile for a job.

has paid his debt to society.

FAIRCLOTH said the main weapon will be the state's power to control the establishment of corporations and renewal of licenses. He said the bill would be ready by the middle of next week.

Faircloth was emphatic as he said a central group or top person is needed to handle a "public supported, public directed" war on crime. He said he feels the use of a private firm is "fraught with danger."

"Private sleuthing and public law enforcement don't mix," he said.

HE CHIDED Kirk on the claim that Wackenhuts have no power over sheriffs.

"A sheriff looks just above the Wackenhut agent's shoulder and sees the man who can remove him from office," he said.

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Authorization for a 30-man vice and crime squad topped a long list of legislative proposals submitted yesterday by Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth.

The special trouble-shooters, operating from the attorney general's office, were recommended earlier by Faircloth's committee on law enforcement.

The committee was appointed by former Gov. Haydon Burns last year, it recommended that the special agents have arrest powers and be available for use by the governor or any law enforcement agency.

The six-page list of recommendations forwarded to Gov. Claude Kirk and all members of the legislature, also included proposals ranging from fiscal autonomy for the State Board of Regents to a code for public officials and employees.

Faircloth Crime-Buster

By BILL PURVIS
Tribune Staff Writer

Florida Attorney General Earl Faircloth yesterday blasted the governor's strategy in the war on crime and a Faircloth-organized committee came up with a battle plan of its own.

A 30-man force under the attorney general to fight organized crime and vice, as well as prosecute if local authorities won't, was proposed by the State Committee on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice.

The committee was organized by Faircloth last September at the request of then-

Gov. Haydon Burns. Faircloth is a member of the committee and opened a conference on law enforcement at the Hillsborough Courthouse yesterday.

Policemen, sheriffs, prosecutors and other officials gathered at the courthouse to offer comments on anti-crime legislation proposed by the committee.

Faircloth criticized Gov. Claude Kirk's war on crime as "fraught with danger," and in need of one leader responsible to the public. He urged unity among government law enforcement agencies fighting crime.

Faircloth left after his opening speech and the committee proposal for a special enforcement team under the attorney general came later in the day.

Organized crime and vice are principal theaters in the governor's war on crime.

Gov. Kirk has said he is the general in the war on crime and responsible to the people, but Faircloth's comments apparently were aimed at George Wackenhut, the head of the private detective agency responsible for investigation.

Unit Urged

After speaking, Faircloth told reporters he thinks the war on crime "will wind up trampling on basic liberties."

He said an attempt by the federal government to use a private agency early this century resulted in abuses. One of its agents became known as "The Available Man" because he worked as a government agent, a private agent and as an extortionist.

There is a temptation to misuse such power, Faircloth told the reporters, and the possibility of a conflict of interest "exists to a marked degree."

Faircloth suggested instead a publicly-financed agency with no divided loyalties, and possibly under direct command of the governor.

The Florida Sheriff's Bureau is something which could be built upon and expanded along those lines, said Faircloth.

Faircloth, in his speech, said he doesn't necessarily want to head such an agency.

And Edward Cowart of the attorney general's office said the same, explaining to the lawmen that the 30-man specialist squad could be placed under any government officer, although the proposed legislation has it under the attorney general's office.

Pinellas County State Atty. Clair A. Davis was the only lawman to speak against the proposal, and his comment was an objection to the

Davis said the squads should be ordered into action only when it is determined local officials won't act. The initial suggestion gave the attorney general power to act when it is "deemed in the public interest."

Faircloth disclosed his office is drafting laws to give lawmen the authority to "pierce the corporate veil" which shields racketeers who control private businesses.

Other legislation recommended by the committee: a central agency to store information and made it available to all lawmen; a permanent committee of the legislature to keep abreast of changes in the law; minimum standards for policemen; a change in prison release provisions which would keep convicts under parole supervision for their full sentence, even if an early release from prison is earned through good behavior.

A proposal which would have polished procedures for release without bond for good risks who could not afford to post bond was dropped when the lawmen voiced disapproval.

Alachua County State Attorney Ted Duncan said it didn't make sense to work hard for arrests and convictions and then make it easier for the prisoners to get out of jail. The lawmen applauded him.

The committee meets today to discuss the language used in the proposed laws.

Crime War Legislation Plan Criticized

By DONALD DAVIS
Times Bureau

TAMPA — The director of the Florida Sheriff's Bureau yesterday warned that proposed legislation to broaden the scope of the attorney general's office could make Earl Faircloth "the greatest, strongest and most powerful man in Florida."

The comments by Ed Yarborough of Baker County criticized part of the proposed legislative package of the State Committee on Law Enforcement and the Administration of Justice.

One bill would ball on the number of investigators under the attorney general from four to 30 and give them police-powers in certain areas pertaining to organized crime and vice. These investigators would be divided into three squads of 10 and stationed in the state courts of appeal districts. They would go into an area at the request of local authorities or when the attorney general ordered them to.

THIS SECTION is upsetting a number of state law officials, Yarborough said.

The second proposal under study would give the attorney general the power to file informations in criminal cases, impanel Grand Juries and subpoena witnesses in an investigation. These functions are currently in the realm of authority of state's attorneys. Pinellas County State Atty. Clair Davis voiced strong opposition to the bill at an earlier committee meeting.

"You are alienating many sections of law enforcement and now you are alienating the judiciary through..."

"I don't advocate putting the law enforcement agencies under one Cabinet officer."

"WHILE PASSING laws for the attorney general, you should pass some for other people or they are going to raise a little hell."

However, the committee passed a "policy statement" that said:

"The state investigative authority should be under the direction of the attorney general or a similar central, experienced legal authority. The governor should have power to order investigation by such agency."

The proposals are tied in with Faircloth's proposal Friday to set up legislation to attack organized crime in Florida. While deploring the use of the Wackenhut Detective Agency by Gov. Claude Kirk, Faircloth emphasized the need to have a central person or group coordinating strategy in the war on crime.

Under the new proposals, if passed by the Legislature, that central point would be his office.

ED COWART, an assistant attorney general, told the committee yesterday that "the chief legal officer (Faircloth) should operate in the fields of enforcement and prosecution."

Cowart said that "concerted opposition is expected" to the plans.

Yarborough said privately that "it'll never pass."

Cowart told the committee meeting at the Sheraton-Tampa Motor Inn the crime-busting force planned would "investigate specific areas of organized crime and vice . . . it is not setting up a state police force.

"It would exist as a backup squad to assist local agencies and keep abreast of changes" in organized crime.

He was emphatic that the plan was aimed at organized crime and not the individual commission of a criminal act.

"THE INTENT of this bill is that organized crime would be investigated by this agency as to its corporate structure."

Cowart estimated it would require $1.25-million during the next biennium to launch the project.

On Friday, Davis brought up the key opposition to the proposal of giving the attorney general extra powers in the field of prosecution. He said the powers of filing informations and setting up grand juries would be "infringing on the state's attorney's rights and could be subject to abuse."

He suggested the powers be amended so they could be used "only when local authorities fall down."

IN OTHER action yesterday, the committee:

- Set in motion action to have a bill drafted to provide a unified reporting service, setting up computer system for law enforcement using existing facilities and to be expanded as needed.

- Agreed to prepare and endorse a bill to let a state attorney appoint his own assistant rather than having the governor appoint the assistant.

- Approved a measure that would place on probation men who get out of prison early by receiving time off for good conduct and work. The State Pardon and Parole Board would be in charge of the former prisoners until after the date they would have ordinarily been released.

This is to advise that on Saturday evening, April 1, 1967, the writer had a chance encounter with SHELDON COOPER at the Jesuit High School Benefit night at Curtis Hixon Hall, Tampa, Fla. COOPER, who is a former FBI agent and during his employment with the Bureau was an acquaintance of the writer, commented that in recent months he has been extremely busy coordinating the work of the Wackenhut Corporation fight on crimes for Governor Kirk in the West Florida area.

COOPER volunteered that of recent weeks the Wackenhut investigators have been concentrating on 7 or 8 sheriff's offices in the western and south western areas of this state. Among those upon which concentrated investigative attention has been focused has been the Manatee County Sheriff's Office. COOPER further volunteered that Governor CLAUDE KIRK has called KEN GROSS, Manatee County Sheriff into his office on three separate occasions and "laid down the law" that GROSS must "clean up" corruption in Manatee County and to "beef up" law enforcement in that area without further delay. KENNETH GROSS

COOPER also related that Wackenhut investigators had made a recent "break through" as far as GROSS was concerned and that Wackenhut and Governor KIRK now feel that they have a "solid" case against GROSS which would support an indictment and subsequent prosecution. COOPER stated that in so far as GROSS is concerned, Governor KIRK feels that he in affording GROSS three chances to clean up Manatee County has been more generous and intends to extend no further courtesies or delays to GROSS.

COOPER stated that Governor KIRK has recently called in certain selected state attorneys throughout the state and has obtained from them their assurance that they

Sheriffs Authorizing Crime Investigation

TALLAHASSEE, April 3 (AP) — Sheriff's Bureau Director Ed Yarbrough said today Florida's 67 sheriffs are sending written authorization for crime investigation in their counties.

Gov. Claude Kirk, in Washington to discuss his anticrime activities with U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark, immediately expressed his pleasure at the action.

Yarbrough said telegrams and letters giving Sheriff's Bureau agents authority to investigate crime in any county in the state are coming from the individual sheriffs.

He said a great majority of them already has been received and he will present them to the state Cabinet Tuesday.

Under the present law, the Sheriff's Bureau can only enter a county to investigate crime at the request of the local sheriff.

Yarbrough said the written authorization will lift the restrictions for 90 days.

This, he said, will give the Legislature time to act on a bill sponsored by the sheriffs to give the governor power to send bureau investigators anywhere in the state.

Kirk said he has not seen a full statement concerning the sheriffs' action. But, he said, his understanding is that most of the state's sheriffs have voted to give him the authority. He said he understands those sheriffs who have not voted are being polled for their approval.

Under present law, the governor cannot send his own agents into a county for investigative work except by invitation of the sheriff. Kirk said this regulation is being waived for 90 days.

Kirk was accompanied to the conference with Ramsey by George Wackenhut, appointed by the governor to head the anticrime unit.

Kirk, a Republican who took over as governor in January, said he and Clark discussed law enforcement generally about Clark's national problems and about Kirk's own program in Florida.

"We're going to cooperate well," Kirk said. "The attorney general has a total purview of crime nationally and I have the picture in Florida. I shall furnish him all the information I can."

The governor met earlier today with James E. Webb, director of the National Aeronautical and Space Administration, to discuss the agency's operations at Cape Kennedy.

Kirk said there appears to be some question as to whether the Johnson Administration plans to continue technological experiments on solid fuels. Kirk said Florida is interested in these experiments and that he feels that neither liquid nor solid fuels should be neglected. "We're not getting ahead if we negate any system," he said.

On the attached teletype from Jacksonville, Florida, reporting statements made by Governor Kirk of Florida following his interview with the Attorney General, the Director instructed that the Attorney General be advised by memorandum of Kirk's statement. The Director also inquired as to whether our Florida Offices have been advised that we were not going to cooperate with Governor Kirk.

By airtel dated January 12, 1967, each of our Florida offices was informed that the Bureau does not recognize the Wackenhut Corporation as a properly constituted law enforcement agency and each was instructed to take all necessary steps to insure that no records or information is given to this organization or its representatives by the FBI. These instructions were telephonically reiterated to the Special Agents in Charge of our three Florida offices on April 3, 1967.

ACTION:

There is attached for approval a letter to the Attorney General advising him of Governor Kirk's comments following the meeting between the Attorney General, George Wackenhut and Governor Claude Kirk of Florida.

Kirk Discusses His Crime War With U.S. Attorney General

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Florida Gov. Claude Kirk, buoyed by news of new support for his Republican-style war on crime, discussed his crusade yesterday with U.S. Atty. Gen. Ramsey Clark.

Kirk brought along his appointed private crime fighter, George Wackenhut, who heads a huge private detective agency in Florida.

Clark, who previously expressed misgivings about using private agencies in "hard core law enforcement," had no comment on his hour and 45 minute conference with Kirk and Wackenhut.

Ramsey Clark
hears details

After arriving for the conference, Kirk told reporters, he received news that all Florida sheriffs had joined in giving his crime war a new endorsement good for 90 days.

In an unprecedented move, Florida sheriffs yesterday placed themselves at the mercy of Florida's first Republican governor in nearly a century.

The sheriffs wired and mailed to Sheriff's Bureau Director Ed Yarborough blanket authority for Governor Kirk to investigate crime in their counties at will.

The action was started at a meeting of the sheriffs at a law enforcement seminar in Tampa called by Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth.

"I'm pleased to hear about it," Kirk said.

The effect of the sheriffs' move, Kirk said, is that his crime fight has an automatic invitation to move into any of Florida's 67 counties during the 90-day period.

Under present law, Florida's autonomous sheriffs have jurisdiction over their own domains unless they issue invitations to outside agencies in the Kirk said the sheriffs apparently used the 90-day limit in anticipation of legislative action to clarify the legal standing of Kirk crime fighters.

Yarborough admitted that the sheriffs acted on what they felt would be a lesser of two evils.

It followed recommendation by the attorney general for creation of a 30-member racket-busting squad under the attorney general to fight organized crime and vice as well as prosecute if local authorities failed.

The suggestion came from Faircloth's state committee on law enforcement and the administration of justice.

The sheriffs left that meeting and gathered on their own to hand Governor Kirk the Florida Sheriff's Bureau, neatly wrapped up and tied with a bow.

It gives the Republican governor a weapon which the sheriffs of Florida have fought, bled and died to prevent falling into the hands of previous Democratic governors.

Transmitted herewith is an article appearing in the 4/1/67 issue of the "Tampa Tribune" captioned "Sheriffs Offer Governor Kirk Full Use of Their Bureau".

In connection with the Governor's War on Crime as noted in the article, a number of sheriffs met in Tampa, Fla., and after polling the sheriffs who were not in attendance, agreed unanimously to make it possible for the Governor to request the Florida Sheriffs' Bureau to send investigators from the latter bureau into any county without the specific request of the sheriff of that county.

In talking with Sheriff DON GENUNG (NA), Pinellas County, he indicated the sheriffs felt they had to do something to offset the Wackenhut Corporation being utilized by the Governor and that it was felt that by making available the services of the Florida Sheriffs Bureau, the Governor is now in a position where he cannot say as he did at one time that his hands were tied as far as asking the Sheriffs' Bureau for assistance in his investigations throughout the State. GENUNG stated that a number of the sheriffs have on

Sheriffs Offer Gov. Kirk Full Use of Their Bureau

By DAVID WATSON
Tribune Staff-Writer

Florida Sheriff's Association yesterday handed Gov.

Claude R. Kirk a major weapon in his war on crime and put the Florida Sheriff's Bureau at his disposal.

This was accomplished at a meeting of more than half the state's 67 sheriffs at the Sheraton-Tampa Motor Inn, when members unanimously voted to circumvent a technicality in the law.

In a wire to Kirk on behalf of all sheriffs, the association said it made a blanket request for use of bureau investigators anywhere. This had the effect of overcoming a legal restriction on bureau work, allowing agents to go into a county only when invited by a sheriff.

Although only about half the state's sheriffs were present yesterday, Association Attorney John Madigan said all others immediately were informed of the decision and no dissent had been received.

So far in his war on crime Kirk has used agents of the George Wackenhut private detective firm and has paid the bill from a fund of private donations.

It is the use of a private firm and donations which has caused controversy to swirl.

Yesterday's action by the association, said Sheriff's Bureau Director Ed Yarbrough, has the effect of putting a state agency at the governor's disposal with support by public funds.

It is conceded, however, that a bigger staff and more money are needed if bureau investigators are to be put in the field to strength.

At a convention in Orlando in January, Florida's sheriffs threw their support behind the principle of a state investigative agency and the authority for the governor to use it. The association was to follow up with a bill for the legislature to put the machinery into motion.

Yesterday's action simply gets the idea to work faster and is a hedge against any delay about getting the bill passed, said Yarbrough.

The governor now is chairman of the Sheriff's Bureau even though he can't assign investigators. The attorney general and five sheriffs are board members, so to speak.

In an Orlando address Kirk told the sheriffs that need for use of Wackenhut investigators could be materially reduced by such a bill as proposed by the association, and commended it.

As the law now stands, the sheriff's bureau may use investigators from any state agency so long as the agency itself consents. It may use county law enforcement officials, too, if the officials choose to cooperate. It also may use its own staff.

Critical portion of the law which limits scope of investigation, however, states:

"... any of said investigators may, upon request of the sheriff in any county investigate crime in such county and shall have authority to bear arms."

Into this section the sheriff's association wants the legislature to write authority for the governor to issue the orders of investigation.

W. P. (Bill) Joyce of Leon County is president of the association. Sheriff Don Genung of Pinellas County is a board member and attended yesterday's session.

Sheriff Malcolm Beard of Hillsborough County, who also attended, has on file in Tallahassee a standing invitation for bureau investigators to come into his county anytime in pursuit of their work.

Act To Aid Kirk's War on Crime

C. D. DeLoach to Mr. Tolson
Governor Claude Kirk; George Wackenhut

Governor Kirk then indicated that he hoped to explain to the Attorney General that his investigation in Florida was a bonafide investigation and that he and Wackenhut were not as naive as newspaper accounts had made them out. He asked again if there was any reason why he should stop by the FBI. I told him that I knew of no reason.

It appeared quite obvious that Governor Kirk was attempting to draw me out from the standpoint of stating that there was a problem insofar as furnishing information to him and Wackenhut is concerned. The Attorney General and the Department have been completely advised as to this situation and the FBI's position is on record, i. e., that we will not furnish any information to the Wackenhut people.

The Attorney General called me at 12:35 p. m. about the explosion at the Turkish Embassy. I gave him the same details which had previously been furnished to the Director in memoranda form. While talking with the Attorney General, he mentioned that Governor Kirk and Wackenhut had already been in to see him at approximately 11:00 a. m. this morning. The Attorney General stated that Assistant Attorney General Vinson was with him at the time inasmuch as he wanted a witness during the meeting.

The Attorney General told me that the interview was very disappointing inasmuch as Governor Kirk knew very little about law enforcement in the State of Florida and, as a matter of fact, had no idea as to the activities of law enforcement officers in his state. The Attorney General also stated that in answer to a direct question from Governor Kirk and Wackenhut, who was with the Governor at the time, he told them he would not honor Governor Kirk's request for furnishing information to Wackenhut and that furthermore he could not under any circumstances put the stamp of approval on Wackenhut.

The Attorney General told me that Governor Kirk seemed to take these remarks, however, it appeared obvious that he was here simply for the purpose of getting the Justice Department's approval of Wackenhut and his activities. The Attorney General stated that Governor Kirk agreed that there would be no press release reporting the results of the conference. The Attorney General stated that knowing the propensities of Governor Kirk, it appeared probable he will make some release on his return to Florida.

ACTION: I am advising the Florida Special Agents in Charge regarding this matter. For record purposes.

I am unalterably opposed to any cooperation with Wackenhut.

Further was advised 4/13

6-28 4-3-67 SAC D.K. Brown Jacksonville was advised. He will advise SAC, Tampa. SBD

Enclosed is a newspaper article which appeared in "The Miami Herald," Miami, Florida, on 4-13-67, reporting that GEORGE WACKENHUT, Governor CLAUDE KIRK's General in the Governor's War on Crime, was arrested for speeding on 4-12-67 when he was going 50 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone. The article further indicates that WACKENHUT had previously been arrested in 1964 and 1966 for speeding.

I am sure that this recent incident is extremely embarrassing to WACKENHUT as well as the Governor KIRK, in view of the fact that on 4-11-67 Governor KIRK proclaimed a state of emergency because of the alarming death and injury tolls on the Florida highways. Governor KIRK recommended that licenses of drivers who exceeded the speed limit by 25 miles an hour be suspended for a month.

It is noted that WACKENHUT's appearance in Metro Traffic Court is not set until June 5, 1967.

Wackenhut Nabbed for Speeding*Kirk 'General' Runs Afoul of the LawBy ROBERT H. HANSEN
Herald Staff Writer

George Wackenhut, the general in Gov. Claude Kirk's "other war" — the one on crime — turned up Wednesday as a casualty in his boss's new war, the one on traffic violators.

He charged into it willy-nilly, so to speak, in a bright red Corvette clocked at 50 miles an hour in a 30 miles an hour residential zone.

The governor had hardly declared his "state of emergency on Florida's highways" Tuesday before Metro Deputy John Stack responded by flagging down the 46-year-old former FBI agent on 120th St. near 67th Ave.

"I was just testing the officer's reaction to the governor's pronouncement," said Wackenhut with some irony. He added, "Seriously, I applaud the police officer's alertness."

Deputy Stack was, in fact, the fourth such alert officer Wackenhut has encountered since Aug. 21, 1964.

Wackenhut's previous arrests were for 70 in a 35-mile zone in 1964 and 55 in a 35-mile on Jan. 25, 1966, both times in Coral Gables. He was arrested May 4, 1966, on Old Cutler Rd. for illegally crossing a highway center line.

In all three previous cases, Wackenhut pleaded guilty and all or most of his fines, which ranged up to $20, were suspended.

This time — though Wackenhut's "points" don't add up to enough to net a license suspension — he might lose his license based on recommendations of his own boss.

Gov. Kirk recommended Tuesday that drivers exceeding the speed limit by "more than 25 miles an hour" lose their license for at least 30 days.

No one in the Governor's Office Tuesday cared to say if Kirk meant the suspension should start with a 25-mph excess or at 26-mph. The governor himself was reported out of town and unavailable.

Deputy Stack set June 5 as a date for Wackenhut to appear in Metro court.

On 4/5/67 [redacted] furnished the following information to SA JAMES B. HAFLEY:

During recent weeks several WACKENHUT investigators have visited his office and have advised him that they are currently conducting an intensive investigation into alleged corruption on the part of state officials in nearby Seminole Co., Fla. These investigators, who apparently are aware of the fact that [redacted] possesses a considerable amount of valuable intelligence information regarding the over-all crime picture in North Central Florida, have obtained from him names and addresses of potential witnesses who might be interviewed for pertinent information regarding the Seminole Co. area.

[redacted] explained that at no time have any of the investigators requested information from FBI Identification records.

He said one of the investigators recently confided in him that Governor KIRK now has sufficient derogatory information regarding four Florida sheriffs to suspend them from office. The investigator mentioned that among the four are Sheriff JUDSON L. HOBBY of Seminole Co. and the sheriff of Dixie Co., Fla. He did not mention the other two sheriffs involved.

Further, [ ] said that Governor KIRK intends to issue suspension orders against all four of the sheriffs involved simultaneously and that one or two other sheriffs could possibly be added to the list by the time the Governor's announcement in this regard is made public.

b7C

From [ ] contacts with the Wackenhut investigators, he gained the impression that Governor KIRK would not take any affirmative action regarding the proposed suspensions until after the current Florida State Legislature adjourns its present session, probably on or about 6/1/67. The Governor's reason for this timing is that he feels the Legislature, which has a Democratic majority in both the House and Senate, could reverse the suspensions by the adoption of certain legislative action. However, if he delays making the suspensions until after the Legislature adjourns, it is highly improbable that a special session of this group could be convened just for the purpose of vetoing the Governor's suspension action against the sheriffs.

This matter is being followed discreetly by the Tampa Office and the Bureau, Jacksonville and Miami will be immediately advised of any further pertinent developments.

During the period of SAC Frohbose's recent visit to the Seat of Government, the following matters were discussed with him:

(1) It was pointed out that special attention should be given to five bank robberies, six bank burglaries and five bank larcenies which were unsolved.

(2) The case of [redacted] an alleged victim in a kidnaping case [redacted] was generally discussed with SAC Frohbose. He indicated that the Miami office was pursuing all leads to resolve the question as to whether this was a legitimate kidnaping.

b6

(3) The Criminal Intelligence Program was discussed pointing out that the Miami area is open territory for the major national crime organization, La Cosa Nostra, and as a result leading La Cosa Nostra families throughout the country have representative in the Miami area to look after their racket interests and investments, primarily gambling, shylocking, extortion and prostitution. The activities of Meyer and Jake Lansky were discussed and it was pointed out that every effort should be made to keep abreast of their activities so that if possible a criminal case can be made against them.

(4) He was advised we would not supply authorities of the Bahamas any information of a criminal character in view of their not handling material in a confidential manner and their endeavoring to pressure us to have someone from the Bureau come to the Bahamas and testify before a special commission.

(5) It was also pointed out concerning the activities of the Wackenhut organization and its connection with Governor Kirk of Florida that it should be plainly understood no information is to be given to Wackenhut lic reaction against his private police force.

"The concept was good, but the way it was presented to the public made it a bad idea," the Governor was quoted as having said. The Governor was said to have deliberately created the private police force in an effort to get legislative approval for the plan he has now presented.

Critics of the private police force idea charge that Governor Kirk had directed the Wackenhut agency to investigate public officials, most of whom are Democrats, for political reasons.

One of the Governor's aides said many of the "tips" given to the private police force concerned public officials, but he said no breakdown of the number of public officials involved was available.

The Wackenhut spokesman said 910 letters were received from the public, 114 from anonymous sources and 796 signed.

The 23 persons arrested as a result of Wackenhut investigations face a variety of charges. Five have been charged with perjury, five with narcotics violations, six with grand larceny, two with burglary, and one each with bribery, conspiracy to commit bribery, conversion of official funds and malfeasance, ~~violation~~ on and the illegal practice of medicine.

For the past year [Redacted] has been employed as [Redacted] of The Wackenhut Corporation and his main duty appears to be contacting business firms in northeast Florida in efforts to have these firms hire security guards from Wackenhut Corporation. During January 1967, Florida Governor CLAUDE R. KIRK, JR., named GEORGE W. On 2/1/67 [Redacted] who is well acquainted with [Redacted] one of Jacksonville's principal Negro numbers-lottery operators, advised that about three weeks ago, he was at [Redacted] Jacksonville, and during that time observed [Redacted] and [Redacted] in a conversation. [Redacted] asked [Redacted] for a loan [Redacted] which he gave to [Redacted] believes [Redacted] gave at least [Redacted] of this amount to [Redacted] and wanted the additional [Redacted] advised that he learned from [Redacted] that he had been making "payoffs" to [Redacted] for years and has continued to do so since [Redacted]. He said [Redacted] and [Redacted] have always been "very close" and that [Redacted] indicated he gave [Redacted] some money on that date and related that [Redacted] is the "man in charge of this area" and that "you can get in trouble with the law if you do not cooperate." (CRIME)

WASHINGTON--GEORGE P. WACKENHUT TODAY HOTLY DENIED THERE WAS ANY CONFLICT OF INTEREST BETWEEN HIS MISSION AS FLORIDA GOV. CLAUDE KIRK'S PRIVATE POLICE CHIEF AND THE ROUND-THE-CLOCK PROTECTION HIS FIRM GIVES TO THE DAUGHTER OF BAHAMIAN LINKED WITH GAMBLING INTERESTS.

WACKENHUT TOLD SENATE INVESTIGATORS THAT HIS FIRM EMPLOYED THE DAUGHTER OF SIR STAFFORD SANDS FOR SEVERAL WEEKS EARLY THIS YEAR AND STILL GIVES HER PROTECTION PENDING HER FINAL DIVORCE DECREE.

THE GRAY-HAIRED, CREW-CUT FLORIDIAN SAID HE DISMISSED SAND'S DAUGHTER WHEN MAGAZINES PUBLISHED ARTICLES AND "THE INFORMATION CAME OUT THAT SIR STAFFORD MAY BE OR IS ALLEGED TO BE CONNECTED WITH GAMBLING INTEREST."

WACKENHUT ADMITTED THAT HE ALSO PROVIDED PROTECTIVE SERVICES AT ONE TIME FOR SANDS, A FORMER PRIME MINISTER OF THE BAHAMAS.

FERNARD J. FENSTERWALD, JR., COUNSEL FOR THE SENATE SUBCOMMITTEE, "YOU HAVE DONE WORK FOR PEOPLE IN GAMBLING AND NOW YOU ARE TRYING TO FERRET IT OUT. DOESN'T THAT RAISE A GREAT CONFLICT OF INTEREST."

WACKENHUT HEATEDLY DENIED THE ALLEGATION. HE SAID "I HAVE LEGAL OPINION THAT THERE ISN'T A CONFLICT OF INTEREST.

"THERE IS NOTHING UNTOWARD IN THIS, NOTHING AT ALL," HE TOLD SENATE INVESTIGATORS.

WACKENHUT, PICKED BY KIRK TO HEAD FLORIDA'S WAR ON CRIME, IS MAJORITY STOCKHOLDER OF THE WACKENHUT CORP. WHICH PROVIDES SECURITY FORCES FOR GOVERNMENT AGENCIES AND PRIVATE FIRMS.

CHAIRMAN EDWARD V. LONG, D-ME., ACCUSED WACKENHUT OF BEING OVERZEALOUS AND IGNORING THE LAW OF THE LAND.

HE BASED HIS CHARGE ON A QUOTE ATTRIBUTED TO WACKENHUT WHICH SAID, IN PART, "IF THE NEED ARISES...WE'LL TAKE MATTERS IN OUR OWN HANDS."

"IF THAT'S NOT OVERZEALOUSNESS AND IGNORING THE LAW OF THE LAND I WANT TO KNOW WHAT IS," LONG SAID. "YOU'RE STILL JUST AN ORDINARY CITIZEN AND YOU CAN'T TAKE THE LAW INTO YOUR OWN HANDS AS YOU SAID IN THIS STATEMENT."

WACKENHUT SAID THE QUOTE WAS TAKEN FROM AN INTER-OFFICE MEMO TO HIS PUERTO RICO MANAGER WHO COMPLAINED THAT SAN JUAN POLICE REFUSED TO PROTECT HIS GUARDS AGAINST LABOR "GOONS."

HE SAID "IT WAS WRITTEN IN ANGER...IT'S A LONG WAY FROM SAYING IT AND CARRYING IT OUT."

ALTHOUGH WACKENHUT PLEADED FOR LEGISLATION WHICH WOULD ALLOW POLICE TO USE WIRETAPPING AND EAVESDROPPING IN THE INVESTIGATION OF MAJOR CRIMES, HE DENIED HE HAS USED EITHER METHOD AS THE GOVERNOR'S CHIEF CRIME-BUSTER.

LOCAL PAPERS AND NEW YORK TIMES TODAY HAVE ARTICLES STATING THAT ON MAY TEN LAST, GEORGE WACKENHUT, OF WACKENHUT CORPORATION, APPEARED BEFORE A JOINT HEARING OF THE FLORIDA STATE SENATE AND HOUSE ANTI CRIME COMMITTEE IN TALLAHASSEE, FLA. HE READ A FORTY MINUTE STATEMENT OF HIS PROGRESS IN THE STATE'S ANTI CRIME FIGHT IN WHICH HE DEPLORED THE CRIME IN FLORIDA. HE ALSO LISTED NAMES OF RACKETEERS WHO HE CLAIMED WERE LINKED WITH NEFARIOUS ACTIVITIES IN THE STATE. LEGISLATORS CHALLENGED SOME OF HIS INFORMATION AND IN ONE INSTANCE SUPPLIED HIM WITH INFORMATION HIS INVESTIGATORS HAD NOT LOCATED.

HE RECOMMENDED A STATE BOARD OF INQUIRY RESPONSIBLE TO THE GOVERNOR TO HOLD HEARINGS ON THE CRIME SITUATION. THE

In connection with an article captioned "Kirk Aide Backs Anticrime Fight," which appears in the May 11, 1967, issue of "The New York Times," the Director has inquired if the Wackenhut State outfit has referred any of its results to the FBI.

Our offices in Jacksonville, Miami and Tampa have advised that several nonspecific complaints on matters within our jurisdiction have been disseminated to us by The Governor's War on Crime. These complaints are in the form of letters from private citizens delivered to a special Post Office box maintained by Wackenhut in Coral Gables, Florida, to receive citizen complaints, anonymously or otherwise.

Communications referred to our offices have included allegations in matters pertaining to civil rights, extortion, theft of motor vehicles and subversive activities. We have conducted preliminary inquiries in some of these cases. No substantive case has been developed to date.

KIRK AIDE BACKS ANTICRIME FIGHT

Says No Cases in Florida Are Politically Motivated

47

Special to The New York Times

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., May 10—Florida legislators were assured today that not a single case under investigation in Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr.'s privately financed war on crime was politically motivated.

Geroge Wackenhut of Miami, the Republican Governor's $1-a-year general of the crime war, told a joint hearing of the state Senate and House anticrime committees that each of the 442 matters now under investigation stemmed from a complaint or allegation received from citizens of the state.

Mr. Wackenhut, who is head of the Wackenhut Corporation, a nationwide security agency based in Miami, also reported that as of May 8 a total of 933 letters and nearly as many telephone calls had been received giving information on crime in the state. Some 30 per cent of these contained information of substance, he said, adding that, as all law-enforcement officials know, this represents an unusually high percentage.

Mr. Wackenhut, a former agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, read a 40-minute statement outlining the progress of the state anticrime fight, in which 38 agencies, assigned by his private agency to Governor Kirk, are engaged. He presented recommendations for continuance of the battle. Then he faced 45 minutes of questions from the legislators. Many of the queries were unfriendly.

In his statement Mr. Wackenhut said he had been shocked at the extent of official corruption that exists in the state today and amazed that so little has been done for so many years to correct this deplorable state of affairs.

Appalled at State Plight

He stated that, despite his experience in the field, he had been appalled at what he had learned concerning organized crime, which he said exists in all its heinous forms and is centered in the Southeast Florida, Tampa Bay and Central Florida areas.

He listed the names of various racketeers who he said had definitely been linked to nefarious activities in the state during the investigation.

This evoked a challenge by one of the legislators that the same information was in the files of the Florida Sheriffs Bureau.

It was also said that the Parole and Probation Commission had the address, and even the telephone number of Eddie Coco, described as a member of the Cosa Nostra. Mr. Wackenhut's statement listed Coco's address as "unknown to us."

Mr. Wackenhut replied that his investigators had not received full cooperation from state agencies. He said data that was provided had been given surreptitiously to his men.

This gave him the chance to emphasize his recommendation that the immediate solution to the problem could best take the form of a state board of inquiry comprised of a few individuals of unimpeachable integrity appointed by and responsible to the Governor.

He said it must be assumed that such a board — with the power to hold public and private hearings, to subpoena witnesses and records, to grant immunities to witnesses and to secure the necessary investigative force to implement its operations — would receive the cooperation of all official agencies.

The Senate committee is considering a bill that would create a commission of inquiry.

It also has before it a bill to establish a department of criminal justice as proposed by Governor Kirk. Such a department would consolidate the investigative and law-enforcement activities of all state agencies into one department with enforcement, crime analysis, rehabilitation and education divisions.

Mr. Wackenhut endorsed this as the long-range approach, but said the board of inquiry could provide the coordination and dissemination of intelligence that enforcement activities need in the state immediately.

Among Florida Officials—

Corruption 'Shocks' WackenhutBy DAVID WATSON
Tribune Staff Writer

TALLAHASSEE — Veteran FBI man George S. Wackenhut yesterday told joint legislative crime committees he is shocked and amazed at the extent of official corruption in Florida.

As Gov. Claude Kirk's general in the war on crime he charged that corrupt officials are operating from one end of the state to the other.

And corruption breeds crime which breeds corruption in a vicious circle, legislators were told.

Wackenhut said he was assigned by Kirk to probe organized crime and has never conducted a political investigation. He said so in answer to a direct question posed from the committee, although it is common knowledge that his agents run checks on state employees.

Agents also have admittedly looked into the offices of cabinet members, but not for political reasons, Wackenhut said.

On the other hand, his investigators have established that members of the crime cartels are in the state right now, Wackenhut said. They are engaged in illegal gambling, shylocking, bribery, extortion, strong arm activities, narcotics, labor racketeering and have "muscle in" on the vending machine and garbage disposal business.

Organized crime can exist and grow only where it has the umbrella of protection of corrupted local authorities, Wackenhut said.

The bulk of organized crime has centered in the Tampa Bay area, and south and central Florida, the legislators were told. Even so, the crime war boss said he could not at this time point the finger for anyone.

At the outset he said he did not intend his comments to be an indictment of all law enforcement and prosecution officials because most are honest and forthright. But he also made it clear his opinion does not apply to all.

Wackenhut and his private detective agency are employed by Kirk to conduct a statewide push against organized crime. His men have conducted 515 investigations, 442 of them still active, Wackenhut said.

Cooperation from state agencies has been less than complete, he charged. Questions by committeemen disclosed a head-on clash with the Florida Sheriff's Bureau.

"I'm not looking to get into a fight with any state agency here," said Wackenhut, pressed by committeemen to be specific.

But he said he had asked the Sheriff's Bureau for a list of Mafia names and was refused. His men developed a list of their own.

"Not everybody refused to cooperate," Wackenhut said of investigation troubles with officialdom, "but some refused to 'officially' cooperate. Those who did cooperate did so under the table, and I think that is a damnable way to assist a governor's appointed investigator."

Rep. Gordon Blalock, head of the house crime committee, said he was dismayed at the apparent lack of cooperation. He said he does not agree with use of a private investigative agency for state functions, but if that is the method the governor has chosen, and as the governor is the head of the Sheriff's Bureau, he would expect cooperation.

Ed Yarbrough, bureau director, said Wackenhut's request was rejected because the files on the Mafia contains confidential FBI information available only to lawmen.

In a statement following the hearing he said he had suggested that Wackenhut get written approval from the FBI director to use the files, or get a court opinion describing him as a law enforcement officer. Yarbrough also said he has an attorney general's opinion against releasing the files to Wackenhut.

Much of Wackenhut's recount of Mafia "family" organization in Florida covered ground ploughed previously by other agencies appearing before the committees. But Wackenhut said he makes the point that they are operating, not visiting, in Florida.

Rep. Elvin Martinez of Tampa asked the agent if his opening statements meant some officials in Tampa or Hillsborough County are being corrupted, thus allowing organized crime to function.

"My statements speak for themselves," replied Wackenhut. "I'm not going to point the finger at any area. The Trafficante organization operates out of Tampa. Beyond that, I don't care to comment."

He told the committees: "Santo Trafficante, also known as Louis Santos, also known as J. Gonzalez, recognized as the Florida representative of the Cosa Nostra, controls the bolita and Cuban lottery rackets throughout Florida and has been reported as one of the largest importers of South American cocaine into the country."

"Although Trafficante originally terminated his operations from Tampa and still visits Tampa at frequent intervals, he is now headquartered and residing in Miami."

"Sam Cacciatore Trafficante, also known as Toto, who is in charge, together with Frank Diecidue, Angelo Bedami and Augustine Primo Lazzara, are all top lieutenants in the Trafficante organization operating out of the Tampa Bay area. These lieutenants control at least a dozen more Mafia members of this organization known to us."

"Diecidue was arrested on gambling charges recently."

"Samuel Cacciatore, another lieutenant in the Trafficante organization, is in charge of all activities operating out of the Orlando area. From his base in Orlando he directs the Harlan Blackburn organization which extends throughout central Florida and most points north and east."

"Working for Blackburn and operating in the Brevard, Orange and Seminole County areas are at least 10 lesser representatives of this organization that have come to our attention."

"Trafficante attended a Cosa Nostra meeting in New York last Sept. 22 and during the course of that meeting was allegedly awarded the New Orleans territory of Carlos Marcellos, the leader there."

He said Trafficante was arrested in February in Miami while returning from a New Orleans visit with Marcellos. The charge involved an "intemperate, profane and violent outburst" when confronted with officers, and the result was a loss of Trafficante prestige in the Cosa Nostra, Wackenhut said.

His recommendations were to leave basic law enforcement with local agencies, but create a statewide investigation arm with authority to tackle official corruption and organized crime. A board of inquiry would be best, he said, appointed by the governor.

Wackenhut estimated a cost of $2 million to do the job right.

Sen. Truett Ott of Tampa, head of the senate committee, and Blalock, in essence agreed that Wackenhut's report solidified some legislative thinking, but the presentation wasn't entirely new.

Wackenhut Lists Corruption Cases

From Tribune Reports

TALLAHASSEE — Crime war boss George Wackenhut yesterday listed various official wrongdoings he said his investigators have looked into in Gov. Claude Kirk's war on crime.

"Permit me to be brutally frank and candid," Wackenhut told the committee as he ticked off, without names, cases of corruption now under investigation, examples he called "shockingly blatant."

—An official falsifying court records and pocketing bond forfeitures.

—A county official who is busily saving his friends tens of thousands of dollars in taxes by shaving assessments of their properties.

—County employees who are profiteering from prison labor.

—Two public officials who are in deadly competition with each other to determine who is going to be king of local bolita operations.

—Officials converting to their own use materials and supplies purchased with public funds.

—The official bigwig who solicited bribes from suspended licensees on the promise to get them reinstated.

—A judge who juggled the facts to clear a hoodlum goon.

—A group of officials who attempted to destroy judicial process by bribery.

—Agents of a state body accepting bribes to overlook violations of regulatory laws.

—An official who elicits bribes and kicks back a large portion to higher officials.

A lawman who is Mr. Big in a countywide bolita ring which is part of a national syndicate.

An official who deprived a mentally incompetent widow of a portion of her deceased husband's estate by forging records and confiscating the property for himself.

—A group of nearly a dozen officials who engaged in a sex orgy with a woman threatened with criminal prosecution.

—Officials who used persons in custody to pose for pornographic photographs.

The extent of organized crime, under the umbrella protection of corrupted local authorities, is "tremendous," he told the legislators.

"I am not naive and I was shocked and appalled."

He conceded the "vast majority" of public officials are honest and are cooperating with Kirk's anti-crime war. But some have thrown roadblocks in the way, cutting off sources of information. In the next breath he said the extent of official corruption was "tremendous."

Kirk Eye 'Shocked' At Crime

By D. G. LAWRENCE
Staff Writer

TALLAHASSEE — Tentacles of the Costa Nostra organization have entangled Central Florida in a two-state bolita operation, Gov. Kirk's crime war director told a senate anti-crime hearing Wednesday.

George Wackenhut pinpointed Samuel Cacciatore as crime overlord operating out of Orlando to direct sub-lieutenant Harlan Blackburn in bolita operations in Brevard, Orange and Seminole counties with the help of at least 10 Costa Nostra henchmen.

CACCIATORE has a lieutenant known as Ralph Strawder, who coordinates activities between the Blackburn unit and the bolita organization in Georgia, according to Wackenhut.

Wackenhut said extent of organized crime in Florida, concentrated in the vicinity of Orlando, the Tampa bay area and South Florida, "shocked and amazed him."

"Corrupt officials are operating from one end of this state to the other," he told the committee headed by Sen. T. Truett Ott, Tampa. Orange-Seminole Sen. Bill Gunter and Ken Plante are members.

Wackenhut told the committee, which is considering a statewide organization to replace the Wackenhut forces recruited by the governor to fight crime, that new legislation should en

BASIC responsibility for law enforcement should be retained by local police agencies.

A statewide investigative group should be created with the necessary authority to attack official corruption and investigate organized crime permitted and promoted by this corruption.

He said the statewide organization should be responsible to the governor.

Wackenhut cited numerous examples of official corruption now under investigation by the 38 investigators he has in the fields.

These include an official who is falsifying court records and pocketing bond forfeitures.

ANOTHER who is saving friends money by shaving property assessments.

County employes profiteering from prison labor.

Two public officials in deadly competition to determine who is to be king of bolita operations.

State agents accepting bribes to overlook violations of regulatory laws.

Wackenhut cited names of several dozen Costa Nostra operatives who live in Florida.

"WE HAVE definitely established that members of the cartels are in this state engaged in nefarious activities of illegal gambling, shylocking, bribery, extortion, strong arm activities and narcotics," he said. "They are also engaged in labor racketeering and have muscled in on the vending machine and garbage disposal businesses."

Overlord of the whole state's criminal syndicates, including operations in Central Florida, is Santo Trafficante, Wackenhut declared. Trafficante has changed his headquarters recently from Tampa to the report.

TALLAHASSEE — Crime war leader George Wackenhut revealed the names of 64 rackets leaders operating in Florida Wednesday, including the overlord for Central Florida, but was informed by House Crime Chairman Gordon Blalock his committee was familiar with everyone of them.

"We even know his telephone number," Blalock said of Eddie Coco, Cosa Nostra member, convicted murderer and prize fight promoter in the Miami area. Wackenhut said his men could not locate Coco.

BLALOCK DECLARED at a joint house-senate crime committee hearing — which heard Gov. Kirk's crime war director detail his operatives' activities — that names of the Cosa Nostra hoodlums operating in Florida had been supplied his committee by the Florida Sheriffs' Bureau.

"We asked the bureau to cooperate with us and were turned down three times," Wackenhut declared.

"It seems strange," replied Blalock, Jacksonville attorney, "that the governor is head of the bureau and yet they wouldn't cooperate with his crime war."

WACKENHUT CALLED on the committees to organize a Florida commission of inquiry as proposed by Sen. Robert L. Shevin to pick up the crime investigation from the Wackenhut forces. Later a department of criminal justice, including a statewide police force, could take over the inquiries, he said.

An appropriation of $1.5 to $2 million would be "adequate," said Wackenhut. Shevin's measure calls for $350,000 over the next two Wackenhut named Samuel Cacciatore as Cosa Nostra overlord in Central Florida. Operating out of Orlando, Cacciatore oversees Harlan Blackburn's bolita operations in Orange, Seminole and Brevard Counties, Wackenhut reported.

OVER-ALL FLORIDA rackets boss is Cacciatore's boss, Santo Trafficante who operates both from Tampa and Miami.

Wackenhut also identified a Ralph Strawder as coordinator of activities between the Blackburn organization and the bolita organization in Georgia.

Wackenhut repeatedly complained of lack of cooperation from law enforcement agencies in the work of his 38 operatives.

"IT SHOULD be noted our investigators were forced to work under extreme handicaps imposed by certain irresponsible officials in this state, who — for one reason or another known only to themselves — threw roadblock after roadblock in the path of our investigative progress," he complained.

Wackenhut detailed his investigators' finding before Blalock informed him of the committee's knowledge. Wackenhut said he was proud of uncovering the Cosa Nostra operators in his four-month investigation.

by an experienced and qualified investigative force that received proper cooperation and assistance without obstructive roadblocks and unfounded and destructive criticism."

HE REJECTED a suggestion of Sen. Lee Weissenborn that Atty. Gen. Earl Faircloth be empowered to investigate crime and call grand juries into session.

"No," said Wackenhut, "he's charged with civil matters. The governor should be the boss. He is the state's chief magistrate and is answerable to the people, all 6 million of them, and he can be impeached."

Wackenhut said he opposed taking prosecution and police investigation away from local authorities.

HE SAID the board of inquiry set up under Shevin's bill should hire a well-paid staff.

"You're not going to get the job done unless you get competent men and you can't get competent ones for a pittance," he observed.

The sheriffs' bureau and other state agency investigative bodies should be brought under the inquiry commission, he said. He had high praise for the Bureau's laboratory facilities.

"WHAT is needed," said Wackenhut, "is a hard-hitting group to go through the whole shooting match to get the job done."

Wackenhut reported his 38 investigators were investigating 442 cases, mostly involving official corruption.

He answered negatively by a question from Sen. Ralph Piston whether people in public office had been under "political investigation apparently in reference to a charge two months ago by Secretary of State Tom Adams that he'd been "tailed" by Wackenhut operatives.

"We have not opened one investigation that was not sent to us other than by a complaint of a citizen," said Wackenhut.

Wackenhut's Fault, No Data: Yarbrough

Sentinel Tallahassee Bureau

TALLAHASSEE — Head of the Florida Sheriffs' Bureau called it all George Wackenhut's fault Wednesday that the bureau wouldn't turn over files to the governor's crime fighter.

Wackenhut, said Ed Yarbrough, bureau director, was told he'd have to get permission from the FBI to see bureau files because they contain confidential federal agency information.

"He declined to do so," said Yarbrough.

Wackenhut Urges Elite Crime Board

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — The director of Gov. Claude Kirk's war on crime, claiming crime and corruption are widespread in Florida, has urged lawmakers to create a board of "untouchables" to lead the state crime fight.

George Wackenhut of Miami, whose private investigative firm has furnished the men for Kirk's privately financed anti-crime effort, said the proposed board of inquiry should be given some $2 million and be authorized to hire private investigators.

WACKENHUT MADE the statements in a 90-minute appearance before a joint meeting of the house and senate anti-crime committees which are considering various forms of state-financed crime-fighting agencies.

The former FBI man emphasized time after time in his 20-page talk that known leaders of organized crime, "the top dogs of the Mafia," are operating in Florida.

He said the bulk of organized crime activity was centered in South Florida, the Tampa Bay area and Central Florida.

"THERE IS no doubt that organized crime can exist and grow only where it has the umbrella of protection of corrupted local officials," said the governor's general in the crime war. "And as it grows, so grows its need to involve public officials at all levels of local and state government."

The implication that there were corrupt officials in the three areas named was questioned by Rep. Elvin Martinez, D-Tampa, but Wackenhut refused to change his remarks.

"I STAND on my statement," he said. "Organized crime cannot exist if corruption of officials does not exist."

Although there has been widespread criticism of Kirk's use of private detectives in his war on crime, Wackenhut repeatedly contended that the effort had the complete confidence of the people.

The fate of the present system was brought up in a question and answer period that followed Wackenhut's talk. Asked what would happen to the Wackenhut investigators if the legislature provided a state financed agency to fight crime, Wackenhut said:

"THAT'S PRETTY much up to you gentlemen."

Wackenhut also recommended that the legislators pass a law against consorting with known criminals.

Asked if Kirk's life were in jeopardy, he said there was more exposure to "crackpots" because Kirk was more in the public eye, but said he seriously doubted if organized crime would try to "knock off" the governor.

KIRK HAS asked the legislature to increase his "security force" of highway troopers from the present six to 10.

Kirk and Wackenhut held a briefing at the governor's mansion for newsmen before Wackenhut went in front of the committee.

Ott Unmoved by Wackenhut

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Legislative feelings ranged from warm to chilly today in the backwash of private eye George Wackenhut's charges of official corruption "from one end of this state to the other."

On the chilly side were two of the key men as far as anti-crime legislation is concerned. Sen. Truett Ott, D-Tampa, and Rep. Gordon Blalock, D-Jacksonville, chairmen of the senate and house crime committees, seemed unimpressed after hearing the square-jawed crimefighter say that the solution for cabinet-to-constable wrongdoing is a justice department run by the governor.

OTT AND BLALOCK said Wackenhut's testimony was helpful; but that most of it was already known to the legislature.

Blalock labeled the governor's justice department proposal "too broad and cumbersome," while Ott suggested that the idea be shunted into an interim committee for study.

Wackenhut also attacked a proposal by Sen. Robert Shevin, D-Miami, to create a state crime commission with wide powers of arrest and investigation, a bill which was at the top of the senate crime committee's agenda for this afternoon and which stands a good chance of approval.

HOWEVER, he said the provision for a $350,000 appropriation was too small.

"$1 million or $1.5 million would be more like it if you really want to do the job," he said.

Wackenhut, who has been hired by the governor as chief of his private war on crime, won the war approval of Sen. Ralph Poston, D-Miami.

Poston told Wackenhut in the middle of his presentation, "I for one approve of what you're doing and hope you make it."

HE LATER described Wackenhut as a "square-shooter."

Going into the house chamber for the hearing, Wackenhut quipped, "Call me Daniel. I'm going into the lion's den."

But committee members applauded when he finished his 50-minute, 20-page written presentation.

Wackenhut read off a list of Mafia and Cosa Nostra people in Florida but said his investigation had not developed enough information to provide a basis for informations to be filed or an indictment issued.

HE INSISTED the governor should be the "boss" of the crime fight, helped by a group of "untouchables." The attorney general, he said, should stick to civil law.

He was critical of some state law enforcement agencies for failing to give him information he requested, a point which brought expressions of shock from some committee members and a denial from the sheriff's bureau that Wackenhut was entitled to the information he sought.

Shotgun Load of Rock Salt

Legislators have a right to be disappointed and honest public officials at all levels in Florida irate at the appearance of George Wackenhut, director of Governor Kirk's "war on crime," before a joint legislative committee Wednesday.

Wackenhut did say at the outset he didn't intend an indictment of all public officials because most are honest and forthright. Then he tossed off blanket charges of "shockingly blatant" official corruption. And he spoke of 515 investigations conducted by his men, 442 of them still active cases, as if many of them concerned official misconduct.

The sum of his testimony was a scattershotting of public officials in general that had all the irresponsibility of Joe McCarthy in his heyday.

Specific cases summarized by Wackenhut, without names, dates or places, impugned among others all court officials, tax assessors, county public works employees, county commissioners, city policemen, state regulatory agencies, and county law enforcement officers.

Oh, yes, Mr. Wackenhut did name some names. He reviewed the Mafia-Cosa Nostra, or whatever, crime organization in the state, reeling off the same roster that has been public knowledge since Estes Kefauver came to Florida and has been periodically reviewed by political crime-chasers, national magazines and others ever since.

We agree with Mr. Wackenhut's basic thesis that a stronger state investigative arm is needed. We disagree with him in that the Florida Sheriffs Bureau seems to us the logical agency for the task, while he wants a separate "elite" state crime commission along with a state department of criminal justice.

But more credence could be given to his arguments had he either been more specific in his charges of official corruption—legislative hearings carry a measure of privilege in such matters—or at least couched them in less sweeping terms.

Crime war General Wackenhut had a golden opportunity Wednesday to take aim with a high-powered rifle at Florida's organized crime and what official corruption there may be. Instead, he went armed with a shotgun loaded with rock salt, and in the process impressed legislators very little while stinging the hides of a lot of honest public officials.

Publishers G. Bell & Sons Ltd. received an inquiry from the British tax offices requesting that Samuel Pepys come forth and identify his tax district and report whether he receives a pension.

The publisher responded for the diarist by returning the tax form with a notation that "Mr. Pepys is no longer employed by ourselves."

Wackenhut Is 'Shocked' At Crime's Extent In State

Times-Miami Herald Service

TALLAHASSEE — Widespread and "shockingly blatant" corruption of public officials in Florida at all levels of government was disclosed yesterday by George Wackenhut, director of Gov. Claude Kirk's "war on crime."

Stories of crooked police, of bribed officials, of Mafia entrenchment, of misused public money, of inmates forced upon prison inmates were related by Wackenhut before a stunned joint House-Senate Crime Committee.

Wackenhut said the roots of organized crime, nurtured by corrupt local officials, have been deeply planted in South and Central Florida and the Tampa Bay area. He named Santo Trafficante, longtime Tampa Mafia boss, now living in Miami, as head of a group that organizes crime in Tampa and Orlando.

Wackenhut, named by Kirk, as a $1-a-year man to lead his crime crusade, shared the committee's reaction.

"I am shocked and amazed," Wackenhut told them.

"... shocked at the extent of official corruption that exists in our state today and amazed that so little has been done for so many years to correct this deplorable state of affairs."

HAND IN HAND with public corruption, said Wackenhut, is organized crime and he identified — by names and addresses — some 50 "high echelon" Mafia bosses who work in Florida.

He said the list would have been "five times as long" if he included all the known organized gangsters in Florida.

Wackenhut's review of Florida's crime and corruption prefaced his appeal that the Legislature create a state crime commission with broad investigative

"RIGHT NOW, this minute, you need the type of thing this board of inquiry will give you," Wackenhut said.

The Senate committee is expected to approve a bill sponsored by Sen. Robert Shevin, D-Miami, creating a five-man board of investigation.

Wackenhut also urged the Legislature to consider Kirk's plan for a state department of criminal justice — including a state police force — as a long-range solution to Florida's crime problems.

But the information he gave the committee, Wackenhut said, showed some of the "remarkable results" of Kirk's war on crime which began with his inauguration last January.

Wackenhut said those results — including 26 arrests and nearly 500 cases currently under review — came despite the lack of cooperation from high state officials.

UPON QUESTIONING by the committee, Wackenhut said the Florida Sheriff's Bureau refused to give him information.

Other agencies, he said, cooperated reluctantly.

Ed Yarborough, director of the Sheriff's Bureau, replied that when the FBI opens its files to Wackenhut, "we will do likewise."

Asked if there were corruption on the Cabinet and state agency level, Wackenhut said he had "looked at state offices" but would not comment further on the ground that it would "endanger something we are working on."

He again refused to comment on the question later, saying only that all of the 442 investigations under way were the results of allegations from the public and were not political.

Wackenhut said corruption of public officials, intermeshed with bigtime organized crime syndicate operations, reaches from the local level up to the state government level.

"I DON'T mean that every public official with his hand in the cookie jar is a captive of organized crime," he said. "but one feeds on the other. Organized crime cannot exist without cooperation from officials and police."

In his detailed listing of criminal activities, Wackenhut said "organized crime in the Bay area is controlled by more than 100 "Citizen Mafia" groups under the direction of Santo Trafficante. He said crime in the Orlando area is directed by Trafficante's associate, Samuel Cacciatore.

Wackenhut said the Orlando group works in close coordination with bolita operations in Georgia.

OF THE CASES still open but without mentioning names, Wackenhut gave what he called a "brutally frank and candid" summary of a few, involving:

- ✓ An official who is falsifying court records and pocketing bond forfeitures.

- ✓ A county official who is busily saving his friends tens of thousands of dollars in taxes by shaving the assessments of their properties.

- ✓ County employes who are profiteering from prison labor.

- ✓ Two public officials who are in deadly competition with each other to determine who is going to be king of the local bolita operations.

- ✓ Officials converting to their own use, materials and supplies purchased with public funds.

- ✓ The policemen who nightly sit in parked cars outside a prostitute-ridden bar, go inside for a drink, and never make an arrest.

- ✓ Agents of a state body accepting bribes to overlook violations of regulatory laws.

- ✓ An official who solicits bribes and kicks back a large portion to higher officials.

- ✓ A lawman who is Mr. Big in a county-wide bolita ring which is part of a national syndicate.

Sanford Man Denies Bolita Link

Sanford's Ralph Strawder said Thursday he is not the person named Wednesday by crime war boss George Wackenhut as a coordinator of Central Florida bolita activities and denied any connections with "any of kind of rackets."

Strawder, who lives at 1206 Park Ave., challenged Wackenhut, who heads Gov. Claude Kirk's statewide war on crime, to "come see me, instead of talking to me through the newspapers."

STRAWDER, former owner of the Flamingo Club, a popular East Hwy. 50 nightspot that went out of business in 1953, said "there's not one ounce of truth, so help me God" in any charges Wackenhut made before a joint house-senate crime commission Thursday in Tallahassee.

Strawder, who says he's been state distributor since 1958 for Fabrication Steel Co., Greenville, N. C., maker of children's cars, told The Star he doesn't even know Santo Trafficante, the alleged bolita boss from Tampa and Miami, and added, "I wouldn't know (Samuel) Cacciatore from Adam's cat."

Cacciatore was named by Wackenhut as the boss of the Cosa Nostra operation in Central Florida, overseeing Harlan Blackburn's bolita operations in Orange, Seminole and Brevard Counties.

A Ralph Strawder was mentioned by Wackenhut as coordinator of activities between the Blackburn organization and the Georgia bolita interests, the Sanford man said he hasn't seen Blackburn in six months. "I am no racketeer," he declared, "and have no criminal record. If Wackenhut wants to talk about me let him come see me."

Chief of Kirk's Private Anticrime Drive Denies Use of Wiretaps

By NANN ROBERTSON
Special to The New York Times

WASHINGTON, May 18 — George R. Wackenhut, general of the Florida Governor's private "war on crime," swore to Congress today that nobody in his detective agency had ever tapped a telephone "so help me God."

But he conceded that he had done a bit of bugging in his day.

The jut-jawed witness, testifying at a Senate Judiciary subcommittee hearing chaired by Senator Edward V. Long, Democrat of Missouri, said:

"The Wackenhut Corporation has never tapped a telephone wire—and I'm under oath, sir—so help me God." A Federal law in 1934 made wiretapping illegal.

Mr. Wackenhut, a former agent for the Federal Bureau of Investigation, who heads the third largest detective agency in the nation, said that his men had used miniature radio transmitter bugs "infrequently" until last year, when the Federal Communications Commission ruled them illegal.

Many Devices Authorized

He was not asked whether his agents used a wide variety of electronic snooping devices still lawful under statutes and Supreme Court decisions. The devices include hidden microphones that transmit by wire instead of radio waves, directional mikes, or gadgets that can be pressed against a wall or door sill to pick up conversation in a room.

A Johnson Administration bill being pushed by Senator Long would outlaw all electronic surveillance except in cases involving national security.

The burly Mr. Wackenhut, who heads a $20-million-a-year operation, is director of Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr.'s anticrime campaign. It is financed by private contributions. Today, he pleaded for a bill that would authorize law officials to spy electronically on organized crime.

Throughout the hearing there were angry exchanges between Mr. Wackenhut and Senator Long, who repeatedly called the witness "Wackenhoff." The Senator read a quotation attributed to Mr. Wackenhut that urged a subordinate to form a "goon squad" and said in part:

"If the police can give you no protection against such gangsters we will take matters into our own hands."

Overzealousness Charged

"If that's not overzealousness and ignoring the law of the land I want to know what is," Senator Long said. "You're still just an ordinary citizen and you can't take the law into your own hands as you said in this statement."

The witness replied that the quote had been taken from an inter-office memo to his Puerto Rico manager, who that the San Juan police had to protect his guards against union assailants.

"It was written in anger," Mr. Wackenhut said. "It's a long way from saying it and carrying it out."

In his prepared testimony, the witness quoted a host of authorities, from Senator Robert F. Kennedy, Democrat of New York, to Justice Learned Hand and Britain's Privy Council, to support his argument that law enforcers should be allowed electronic surveillance of gangster activity.

"Why commit law enforcement to the horse and buggy days while the criminals use the most sophisticated devices?" he asked.

Senator Long said that he had read that in the last four months Mr. Wackenhut had caused the indictment of 23 public officials in Florida and was preparing cases against "at least 70 leaders in organized crime."

Mr. Wackenhut was "that successful" in gaining convictions without the use of bugs and wiretaps, Mr. Long asked, why did he need such devices?

The witness answered that he would have been much more successful had he been able to use those techniques. He conceded that all the indictments he had obtained so far were of allegedly corrupt public officials and did not touch the organized crime world.

Debate With Counsel

There was a heated give and take between Mr. Wackenhut and the subcommittee counsel, Bernard J. Fensterwald Jr. on another issue.

Wackenhut disclosed that he had employed the daughter of Sir Stafford Sands, former Tourist and Finance Minister of the Bahamas, who had been implicated in gambling scandals.

The witness said that he dismissed her last January after learning of the allegations in a magazine article but was fishing around-the-clock protection while she was in divorce. At one time, he said, his company also provided guards for Sir Stafford.

"You have done work for people in gambling and now you are trying to ferret it out," Fensterwald said. "Doesn't that interest you?"

Mr. Wackenhut, obviously nettled, said there was "nothing untoward in this, nothing at all" and that he had legal permission to employ her.

Florida Gangbuster Put on Defense Here

A3

By George Lardner Jr.
Washington Post Staff Writer

George R. Wackenhut, square-jawed director of Florida's privately paid gangbusters, went to Capitol Hill yesterday to plump for stiffer laws against "the sinister forces of crime, corruption and subversion."

He left with a promise to investigate a member of his own board of directors. A Senate subcommittee disclosed that one of them had been labeled a "security risk."

The Senate Subcommittee on Administrative Practice, headed by Sen. Edward V. Long (D-Mo.), also accused Wackenhut of past "overzealousness," questioned him about conflicts of interest, and revealed that one of his private clients was a former Bahamian official linked with American gambling interests.

"All we're doing is providing protection for his (the official's) daughter," Wackenhut said. He denied any conflicts of interest.

Idea Is Questioned

As head of the Wackenhut Corp., the Nation's third largest private detective agency, Wackenhut was drafted earlier this year by Florida's Republican Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr. to track down crime and corruption in the Sunshine State. Sustained by voluntary contributions so far, the privately paid force touched off cries of "Gestapo" and, recently, an acknowledgement by Kirk that it might not have been a good idea.

Wackenhut came to Washington yesterday to testify against the Administration right-to-privacy bill. He claimed that it goes too far in forbidding wiretapping and electronic eavesdropping. He contended that law enforcement agencies ought to be permitted to do both under court order, with the evidence thus gained admissible in prosecutions for major crimes.

For his pains, Wackenhut was put on the spot about his own activities stretching back to the mid-1950s.

Pointing out that the Wackenhut Corp. had substantial contracts with the Atomic Energy Commission and other Government agencies for guard services, Subcommittee Counsel Bernard Fensterwald asked how that squared with one Wackenhut director's loss of his security clearance several years ago for "mishandling classified information."

Wackenhut, who makes a sideline of warning against the Communist threat in a monthly publication called the Wackenhut Security Review, defended the director, whom both he and the Subcommittee declined to name, as "an outstanding American, completely trustworthy... a victim of circumstances."

No Check Needed, He Says

The Wackenhut board, he added, needs no security checks since "by resolution, they are barred from receiving information of a classified nature from the Federal Government."

In any case, Wackenhut said he would investigate.

Wackenhut also acknowledged providing round-the-clock protection for the daughter

The Washington Post
GEORGE WACKENHUT
... his zeal questioned

ter of Sir Stafford Sands, former Minister of Finance and Tourism in the Bahamas, but said he saw nothing wrong with that.

He said his firm also employed Sands's daughter for several weeks earlier this year, but he said he billed Sir Stafford for her pay and dismissed her when "the information came out that Sir Stafford may be or is alleged to be connected with gambling interests."

"You have done work for people who were immediately involved with top gamblers in the Bahamas and now you are trying to ferret (gambling in Florida) out," Fensterwald said. "Doesn't that raise a great conflict of interest?"

Wackenhut said he had obtained a legal opinion that it did not. He said he was simply protecting Sir Stafford's daughter from her estranged husband and is still providing that service.

Wackenhut Fined

MIAMI—George Wackenhut, the general of Gov. Claude Kirk's war on crime in Florida, was fined $30 for driving 55 miles an hour in a 30-mile zone.

Wackenhut pleaded guilty six weeks after Kirk told a news conference that anyone traveling 25 miles an hour above the speed limit should have his license lifted for 30 days.

But Judge Thomas G. O'Connell limited Wackenhut's penalty to the $30 fine and three points against his driving record.

Wackenhut said he thought the sentence was "fair."

Enclosed for the Bureau are the original and one xerox copy of an article which appeared in the Tuesday morning edition, May 16, 1967, of the Florida Times Union, Jacksonville, Florida.

This article states that PATRICK resigned from his position as Investigator with the Wackenhut Corporation effective Friday, May 12, 1967, and the article indicates the resignation was not voluntary.

This article states that Wackenhut Investigators have been conducting investigation regarding the Duval County Sheriff's Office since April 13, 1967, and that at least three Wackenhut Investigators are working in the Jacksonville area. Information received indicates that the current investigation regarding the Sheriff's Office was instituted regarding information furnished by several disgruntled persons who were formerly officers with the Duval County Sheriff's Office.

Detective In Agency Resigns

Duval Man Quits as Wackenhut Probe
Here Continues

A former Duval County detective chief, J. C. Patrick, has resigned as an investigator with the Wackenhut Corp., the Miami-based private detective organization commissioned by Gov. Claude Kirk to conduct his "war on crime."

Patrick's resignation — effective last Friday — came at the same time that Wackenhut detectives were, and are, conducting an investigation into operations of the office of Duval County Sheriff Dale Carson.

Patrick had been with the sheriff's office for 15 years when he resigned his post as chief of detectives in mid-1965. At the time of Patrick's resignation here, Carson said Patrick "advised me that he had taken an investigative position with a large firm in private industry."

Ralph Keel, public relations man for Wackenhut in Miami, said Patrick had been employed by Wackenhut in January 1966. He said he had resigned effective May 12.

When asked if the Wackenhut organization had asked Patrick to resign, Keel replied, "We understand he had been looking for other employment since last December."

Keel then was asked whether Patrick had been taking part in the investigation of the Duval County sheriff's office, and he said, "No, I don't think he was working up there."

Wackenhut investigators have been checking on the local sheriff's office since April 13, when Albert T. Healy, one of the top men in the organization, was sent here from Miami.

Currently, at least two other Wackenhut investigators are working here.

One of them is Willis Benner. The other is Gene Joyce, a member of the Atlanta office of the Wackenhut Corp. FLA

The Wackenhut investigation started here soon after Dr. William Hembree delivered a speech interpreted as being critical of the Duval County grand jury and the state attorney's office. FLA

The grand jury, in a 10-page report, fired back at Hembree, saying that his charges were politically motivated and that he didn't know what he was talking about.

Hembree, a dentist, is chairman of the Duval County Republican Executive Committee and is a Republican candidate for mayor.

Hembree said Monday that his interest was in "possible corruption of public officials and the possible lack of prosecution of these officials."

Hembree also acknowledged that about two weeks before the Wackenhut investigation started here, he was instrumental in preparing a package of information that subsequently reached Gov. Kirk, containing allegations about county public officials including the sheriff.

Much of the information received by the governor then and since then came from Claude West, a former sergeant in the sheriff's office, who was fired by Carson two years ago on grounds of insubordination.

Since the Wackenhut investigation started more than a month ago, investigators have questioned local newsmen, a number of present and former employees of the sheriff's office and Al Parsons, a former investigative reporter for WJXT, who wrote a special report dealing with the Duval County jail. FLA

Mr. George Wackenhut, President
The Wackenhut Corporation
3280 Ponce de Leon Boulevard
Coral Gables, Florida

Dear Mr. Wackenhut:

Enclosed you will find copies of a recent IAD memorandum on the seditious character of the current John Birch Society propaganda campaign. The key elements of the campaign are two Welch position papers (also enclosed) called, "The Truth about Vietnam" and "More Truth about Vietnam", and a petition which implies that traitors are responsible for United States policy in the Viet Nam confrontation.

Mr. Welch's basic thesis is that the American government is deliberately sacrificing American GIs in Viet Nam in order to help a foreign power and the "international communist conspiracy."

With a colossal disregard for historical fact, Mr. Welch is saying that in Ghana, the Congo, Cuba, the Dominican Republic, Algeria and Indonesia, "The Administration in Washington, whether headed by Eisenhower, Kennedy or Johnson, has been visibly and actively on the side of the Communist aggressors." (Page 7, "The Truth about Vietnam")

62-107335-

He charges these policies have been "edged out" with politically hermaphroditic characters serving alike in so-called Republican or Democratic administrations and with bi-partisan treason rampant everywhere." (Ibid.)

Clearly, in making such wild charges, Mr. Welch is seeking to turn citizens against their government. This goes far beyond criticism of government policies. This propaganda effort is just as subversive as any of the Communist Party efforts to make Americans distrust elected officials.

The Birch Society executive committee indicates that this 1967 campaign is being carried out as a matter of Birch policy. A recent directive to the 4,000 as so Birch calls, contained in the official Bulletin of the John Birch Society, called upon the members to involve DAR chapters and American Legion Posts and others who might be sympathetic in the petition campaign.

A patriot could hardly knowingly cooperate in this effort to convince his fellow citizens that they were governed by traitors, particularly when he knew this to be a Big Lie. Thus, Mr. Welch is forcing his followers to choose between a basic loyalty to the United States and loyalty to the John Birch Society, and he has the support of his executive committee in doing so.

Since two directors of the Wackenhut Corporation also function as a part of the John Birch Society propaganda apparatus and since the Wackenhut complex has contracted to take over certain police and security functions on both the state and national level, it seems to me the public has a right to know what position these directors and the Wackenhut Corporation has taken in these matters.

The Wackenhut directors closely identified with the Birch Society are:

Wackenhut Director [redacted] - He has been a member of the John Birch Society Council for some years. He appeared in the JBS Council picture circulated nationwide in the paid Sunday supplement the Birch Society ran in major newspapers, in the Spring of 1965.

b6
b7c

Wackenhut Director [redacted] - He is also Vice President of the 1976 Committee which makes no secret of the fact that it is "half-Birch," and he wrote the forward to a book called, "Fabian Freeway," printed by the Birch Society's Western Islands press and now being circulated in the Society's American Opinion libraries.

If these directors have secured Wackenhut Corporation acceptance of the Birch premise that, "bi-partisan treason is rampant everywhere," I would presume that much of your activity in connection with your work for the Atomic Energy Commission and National Aeronautics and Space Administration must be devoted to searching for traitorous activities within the Executive and Legislative branches of our government.

It is my understanding also that Wackenhut has prime NASA contracts involving the Goddard Space Flight Center near Washington and the Lewis Research Center in Cleveland and that your General Plant Protection subsidiary has a similar contract at the Flight Research Center in Edwards, California. Certainly many American taxpayers will be inclined to question the wisdom of entrusting security matters to a corporation whose directors also function as a part of the Birch Society.

June 23, 1967

In the February, 1962, edition of the American Bar Association Journal, FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover wrote:

"Today, far too many self-styled experts on communism are plying the highways of America giving erroneous and distorted information. This causes hysteria, false alarms, and misplaced apprehension by many of our citizens. We need enlightenment about communism - but this information must be factual, accurate and not tailored to echo personal idiosyncracies."

Does not Mr. Hoover's 1962 statement accurately describe the current Birch campaign? Unless your Birch-affiliated directors disassociate themselves from this campaign, will not the Wackenhut Corporation itself be suspect?

Since the Wackenhut Corporation attempts to evaluate security matters and publishes the Wackenhut Security Review, I presume you do expose Communist efforts to convince Americans that they cannot trust their government and warn against Communist efforts to undermine basic American morale.

Do you also warn against Radical Right efforts to achieve the same propaganda goals?

Does the Wackenhut Corporation have policies stemming from acceptance of the basic Welch premise that, "Democracy is a perennial fraud?"

Does the Wackenhut Corporation accept the Birch thesis that American GIs are being deliberately sacrificed in Viet Nam to help the Communists?

If not, has any member of the Wackenhut Corporation taken a position opposed to the current unAmerican John Birch Society campaign?

Currently, the Wackenhut Corporation is having its agents investigate me, presumably because of my function as executive director of the Institute for American Democracy. When I learned of this, I sent word to your agent asking that he come to my office. Having nothing to hide, I went out of my way to be cooperative.

When a private investigatory complex accepts quasi-public police power, as the Wackenhut Corporation is doing, it seems to me the public has a right to know to what extent radical political theorists are influencing corporate policies. Accordingly, I hope you can answer my questions with the same candor with which I replied to those of your private investigator.

Mr. George Wackenhut

Gentlemen:

I work for the Wackenhut Industrial Security Guard whose home office is in Coral Gables, Florida. My position is Lieutenant or Supervisor of The New Jersey Zinc Company in Palmerton, Pennsylvania. Enclosed find fingerprints of possible suspects in a robbery. Would you please see if it is possible to piece these fingerprints together and classify them for me. I do not have access to a fingerprint library so I would appreciate all the help you could give me. In the past few months, we have had quite a few series of robberies of company property.

Please mail the results to:

[redacted] Agent, Credentials [redacted] of the Wackenhut Corporation, contacted SA JAMES R. RYAN at the Cocoa, Florida, RA, concerning any ill feeling and general non-cooperative attitude existing between the Brevard County Sheriff's Office and [redacted] the Brevard County Solicitor. [redacted] also requested the names of other Agents, who might be knowledgeable of this situation.

[redacted] specifically made inquiry as to Former SRA JOHN R. PALMER's present duty assignment, indicating he believed SA PALMER had worked on the case involving one [redacted] which was also investigated by the Brevard County Sheriff's Office. Apparently [redacted] is referring to case captioned [redacted] aka.; ITSMV-RING CASE, TP 26-7283, Bufile 26-374426.

It should be noted that in the past Brevard County Sheriff LEE WILSON and Solicitor [redacted] have reportedly had differences of opinion centering around Sheriff's Office Investigator [redacted] who was the former Brevard County Sheriff. SA RYAN, acting in accordance with current Bureau instructions regarding the Wackenhut Corporation, declined to furnish any information to [redacted]

WFO should alert SA JOHN R. PALMER concerning this inquiry; however, it should be noted that SA PALMER was transferred prior to investigation of the [redacted] case. SA PALMER should be advised that the Bureau does not recognize the Wackenhut Corporation as a properly constituted law enforce-

The original information to the effect that [REDACTED] was a former FBI Agent came to me through Mr.
ED YARBROUGH, Director, Florida Sheriffs Bureau, Tallahassee, who simply remarked that a retired FBI Agent was in charge of Wackenhut investigations at Tallahassee, Fla. Upon receipt of re BuLet, SA ROBERT W. CLARK recontacted Mr.
YARBROUGH and told him that [REDACTED] was not an ex-FBI
Agent. He was asked whether [REDACTED] had made any such representations.

Mr. YARBROUGH said [REDACTED] had never made such a statement to YARBROUGH personally. He did say that [REDACTED] [REDACTED] a former Wackenhut investigator, had told YARBROUGH that [REDACTED] was a former FBI Agent. Efforts to locate [REDACTED] were unproductive. YARBROUGH claims that [REDACTED] worked for the Wackenhut organization but [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] Investigator, State Attorney's Office, Tallahassee, advised that he learned that [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] another Wackenhut Investigator, were investigating YARBROUGH.
[REDACTED] said that [REDACTED] told him [REDACTED] was formerly with OSI in 1950, received [REDACTED] and thereafter went to work with either the FBI or Department of Agriculture. [REDACTED] said he has been in the presence of [REDACTED] on many occasions and [REDACTED] has never said he was formerly an FBI employee, and the only person he has ever heard make this statement was that attributed to [REDACTED]

him make any statement that he was with the FBI.

JOEL SHOOK (Former FBI Agent), Secretary of State's Office, Tallahassee, advised he had not heard [redacted] claim that he was an FBI Agent, but that he had received a telephone call from JOHN MONTGOMERY (Former FBI Agent), a private detective in Tallahassee, during which MONTGOMERY asked if [redacted] were a former FBI Agent.

b6
b7C

JOHN MONTGOMERY advises that he did call SHOOK inquiring concerning [redacted] activities inasmuch as [redacted] was conducting an investigation of Secretary of State TOM ADAMS and [redacted] local businessmen. MONTGOMERY advised [redacted] had never referred to himself as a former FBI employee and he does not recall having even asked SHOOK about this matter.

On 8/11/67, [redacted] (Former Agent), a Wackenhut employee at Tampa, Fla., telephoned SAC, Jacksonville, to say that he had [redacted] come to Tampa, at which time he "Intended to lift his credentials." [redacted] said that [redacted] had become aware the Bureau was conducting inquiry to determine whether [redacted] was representing himself as an FBI Agent and further said that the Wackenhut Corporation was not going to tolerate such misrepresentations. I asked [redacted] if he had any direct information that [redacted] had made such misrepresentations. He said he did not but he intended to interview [redacted] and determine the facts.

b7C

Efforts were made to contact [redacted] but it was determined that he is away from Tallahassee at an undisclosed location conducting investigations of other public officials. His location could no doubt be determined from the Wackenhut Corporation at Miami. I do not feel it advisable to contact Wackenhut at this time, and had instructed the Senior Resident Agent at Tallahassee to straighten [redacted] out when next he encounters [redacted] at Tallahassee.

Subsequently, on 8/14/67, I was contacted by Former Special Agent JOHN E. (JAKE) EDWARDS from Tampa, Fla., EDWARDS said he had [redacted] come to Tampa, he had thoroughly interviewed him, and that [redacted] denied making any such statements.

b7C

EDWARDS said he asked [redacted] directly (1) Whether he had claimed to be an ex-Agent, and (2) Whether anyone in his presence had said [redacted] was an ex-FBI Agent. EDWARDS said [redacted] seemed to give straightforward answers in his denials, and he was convinced that [redacted] had never made such misrepresentations. Accordingly, [redacted] was not discharged by Wackenhut.

JK 80-403

EDWARDS asked that he be immediately advised if we received information that [redacted] had made such misrepresentations as [redacted] would promptly be discharged.

b6
b7c

It appears that we have checked about as much as we can without locating [redacted]. He probably can be readily located through the Wackenhut Office in Miami, Fla. However, I doubt that the Bureau will want this inquiry further pursued, and it will not be done UACB.

I am instructing the Resident Agents at Tallahassee to be alert for any further information to the effect that [redacted] is making these false representations and I will take immediate action in the event we can positively show this has been the case.

All persons contacted have been advised that [redacted] has never been employed by the FBI. The description furnished in relat, indicates that probably he is identical with the [redacted] born [redacted]. However, a check of the Drivers License Bureau at Tallahassee failed to locate a driver's license application, which would give us information concerning this man's birth date. His description is identical.

Today I received a call from captioned individual, who wanted my comments relative to Governor KIRK's War on Crime and further what my thoughts were concerning the Wackenhut organization. I specifically told JAFFEE I had no comment whatsoever to make in connection with either item. JAFFEE was calling from Atlanta where he is apparently headquartered. He stated he intended to do an article concerning Governor KIRK's War on Crime and the Wackenhut organization and was desirous of having the FBI's comments. I told him I had no comment to make.

He advised that he received information that the Wackenhut organization had furnished the FBI in Florida 27 specific cases and wanted my comments concerning this. I again told him I had no comment whatsoever to make.

I got the impression he was perturbed because he would not comment concerning the Governor and the Wackenhut organization.

Our three Florida offices have advised that the Wackenhut Corporation has not turned over any substantive cases to us.

During May, 1967, the Jacksonville, Miami, and Tampa Offices advised that several nonspecific complaints on matters within our jurisdiction had been disseminated to us by The Governor's War on Crime. Preliminary inquiries were conducted in some of these matters; however, no substantive case had been developed. See memo Mr. Gale to Mr. DeLoach 5-12-67 attached.

Our three Florida offices have advised that since 5-11-67, the Wackenhut Corporation has referred five matters to us. Two of these concerned Civil Rights complaints involving local police officers. One was a confidence scheme in which no Federal violation was present. Another concerned a letter written by a citizen regarding an alleged plan to invade Cuba, and the last involved a possible violation of the Impersonation Statute; however, it was determined there was no basis for investigation. None of the matters referred to us to date by the Wackenhut Corporation have developed into substantive cases.

Fla. Governor Ends Private Crime War

TALLAHASSEE, Fla., Nov. 8 (AP)—Gov. Claude R. Kirk Jr. proclaimed the death today of his privately financed "war on crime," a campaign that stirred up ten months of controversy and led to the creation of a State police force.

The phase-out of the Governor's force began Oct. 1, when the new State crime-fighting agency went into operation.

All that remains of the much-publicized effort that touched off widespread furor, Kirk said, is a $300,000 debt and files that are being processed to be turned over to the new Florida Bureau of Law Enforcement.

"My investigators are zero, zero, zero," Kirk said in his weekly news conference. "We don't have any money."

Kirk did not like for the Governor's investigators, hired from the Wackenhut Corp., to be called Wackenhut agents. Today he said that the agents who want to go to the new State Bureau are being "transferred."

The unusual approach to fighting organized crime and official corruption was announced in the Governor's Jan. 3 inaugural speech.

The "war on crime" was called many names—a Gestapo, Kirk's private police force and Wackencops among others.

LET'S SHOW PRES. NIXON AND THE WORLD
THE REAL FACE OF AMERICA

HERE'S THE STORY. !

You've probably read about the swinging new SQUARE movement in TIME, ESQUIRE, or NATIONAL REVIEW, heard about it on radio, or seen part of the story on TV or in newspapers. Here are the facts behind the headlines from The Westwood Village SQUARE magazine, "official" organ of the SQUARE movement...

WE didn't devise the title "Square". Other people pinned it on us. For years we were ashamed of being what we are, and so whenever we could, we avoided the label.

"Waddaya think I am, a Square?" said we, belligerently.

And gradually we forgot all the Square attributes — the square jaw, the square shooter, the square deal, and even the square meal. We let others invest our image with all that was old-fashioned, corny, hypocritical and often, foolish.

"Waddaya think I am, a Square?" said we, defensively. We endured the incessant parade of pretentious phonies, and turned away when they were smashing every positive symbol of faith, and culture, and courage and integrity; all the while exalting every negative force in society. We tended to ignore it, or to deplore it. But we did little to stop it. And a silence settled among us.

When we were forced to notice — we couldn't always avoid the smells, sights and sounds of decay — we hung our heads and mumbled.

"Waddaya think I am, a Square?" said we, sheepishly.

Some of us even went over to the other side for weekends, and stayed, finding Flower Power, or Black Power, or Student Power far less demanding than Will Power.

Soon we Squares were a minority group. It hasn't been easy to be a Square for the past several years. To see citizens crowding around the swill of sex and cynicism, garnering applause. To hear others venerate hallucination, corrupt intelligence, and receive congratulations for it.

But then one day, when someone snorted scornfully: "Wadda you, some kinda Square?" ... "Yes" said we, proudly.

We had finally admitted to ourselves that the world is in a revolution. A relentless conflict between right and wrong, good and evil, idealism and materialism. So we decided: "We'll face it, and win it."

We remembered at last, that a revolution made America free. When we finally forgot fear, we found that through the present revolution, America can liberate the world.

Squares, if that be the term, made every American revolution ... and every American dream.

Up to now the swine have had a monopoly of the action. But indeed the times they are a'changin.

From now on it will be a fight, in every arena. We'll take tools into the underground — a shovel to turn over the stones, a light to shine upon whatever crawls out, and an appropriate weapon for self-defense.

Nor do we intend to spare the whited sepulcher of the Establishment. We have the fairest system of government ever created. The blots and blemishes which have dishonored it must be removed.

In the process of winning the revolution, certain institutions are bound to be radically influenced. It is our job to see that what is bad in them be not merely white-washed, but erased. What is good must not only be preserved, but extended to every nation of the earth. For freedom cannot be captured and hidden from those who need it. History indicates that if we do not help others to find their own freedom, we will find ours taken away.

In the struggle we shall set the record straight about what Square really means. It is our individualism, not a three-button suit. Abraham Lincoln was certainly a Square, and he wore a beard. Lee Harvey Oswald hated everything we stand for, and he was clean shaven. Ben Franklin was a Square. His hair was long. Nazi Rockwell wasn't. His hair was short.

It is what is in a man's head, not on it, that counts with Squares.

In fact it is just that distinction — between mind and matter — which divides the Squares and their enemies. The Squares believe that mind matters most. That man can create his own destiny. The materialists think the movement of matter determines all of human history. That man's fate is controlled by atoms, not ideas.

So this magazine, for and about Squares, will appeal to the mind first. Nothing else matters as much to us. Here you will find humour, happiness, tragedy and tyranny, revulsion and revolution, glory and God, all summed up in the eyes of Squares.

Ed Butler
Editor and Publisher

Ed Butler will serve as National Chairman at the SQUARE Power Conference. He is the author of REVOLUTION IS MY PROFESSION and narrator of "Oswald: Self-Portrait," a TV documentary concerning Butler's debate with Lee Harvey Oswald shortly before the assassination of Pres. Kennedy.

DIVISION THREE

ALL INFORMATION CONTAINED
HEREIN IS UNCLASSIFIED
EXCEPT WHERE SHOWN
OTHERWISE

SUBJECT: GUARD - THIRD FLOOR
OLD POST OFFICE BUILDING (OPO)

ST
BT

The Bureau's Exhibits Section occupies about one third (7450 sq. feet) of the third floor of the OPO where the majority (34) of its employees are located. The remainder of the floor is occupied by United States Information Agency (USIA). Floor plan attached. Our space is blocked off from USIA and we are generally isolated at one end of the building.

Previous memoranda have advised USIA contacted Bureau about their hiring civilian guard outfit, such as Wackenhut, to sit at a desk near one of two elevator banks. USIA feels guard needed as they have been having trouble with undesirables wandering in bothering their people, stealing and damaging equipment and creating a security problem. (Exhibits Section has had no problem.) The Director noted he did not want a guard near our area from the Wackenhut Company and on 11/24/69 I spoke concerning this with [redacted] Assistant Director of Security, USIA.

[redacted] is on the Special Correspondents' List and is a former Agent who entered on duty [redacted] and resigned [redacted]

b7c

[redacted] subsequently advised he had instructed his people handling contracts to open the bidding whereby USIA would accept the lowest bidder. He felt this would result in an outfit other than Wackenhut being low bidder.

On 1/14/70 [redacted] called me and his Chief of Protection, [redacted] came to see me. Both advised the bids were in on their solicitation for a guard for the third floor of the OPO and also a guard for the second floor of this building. (The Bureau has no space on second floor.) Contrary to their expectation, Wackenhut was low bidder at $3.60 per hour; the next lowest bidder being $4.40 per hour. [redacted] advised he has been informed by his contracts people that it would not be proper for USIA to avoid the normal bidding procedures and negotiate with a company.

Memorandum to Mr. Callahan
Re: GUARD - THIRD FLOOR
OLD POST OFFICE BUILDING (OPO)

In order to help resolve this matter and still accept low bid submitted by Wackenhut, [redacted] advised they could have the guard on the third floor not wear a police type uniform. He would be instructed to stay completely away from Bureau space, not interfere in any way whatsoever with the Bureau's operation, and to remain as unobtrusive as possible as far as we are concerned. [redacted] was advised we will be in touch with him.

b7C

Under the restrictions mentioned, the operation of this one guard should not affect the functioning of our operations. The guard will be located in a position well removed from our area and people coming to our space will pass nowhere near him. He will be on duty from 9:00 a.m. to 5:30 p.m., normal working hours for USIA. Guard would be stationed on 11th Street side of building, whereas our entrance is on 12th Street side. Thus, we would have little or no contact with him.

RECOMMENDATION:

It is recommended that USIA be advised that if they persist in utilizing a Wackenhut guard they be informed to instruct him to stay away from Bureau space and not interfere in any way whatsoever with the passage of individuals to and from Bureau space. Whether he is in uniform or not is immaterial to us.

GERMANTOWN, MARYLAND
SURVEILLANCE OF SENATOR GALE W. MC GEE (D-WYO.)

Chief Counsel and Staff Director of the Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, on 8/10/70, advised Inspector  that an individual identified as  Germantown, Maryland, during the last several weeks had been observed parked across the street from the residence of Senator McGee on several occasions. He said on at least one occasion this individual had followed the Senator, his wife, and the Senator's oldest son when they left the residence in separate cars. He allegedly followed each of them for about two or three blocks. On other occasions he allegedly has taken photographs of members of the McGee family.  stated  has used two vehicles in this alleged surveillance, one a Chevrolet bearing 1970 Maryland license  and the other a Pontiac bearing Maryland license

By letter 12-2-70 to George R. Wackenhut, former Agent now President of the Wackenhut Corporation, the Director responded to Wackenhut's communication of 11-23-70 which contained generous remarks and Wackenhut's support of the Director's direction of the FBI. Similarly, we have sent cordial responses under date of 12-3 or 12-4-70 to three officials of Wackenhut in response to their letters showing support of the Bureau. This suggests reconsideration of Bureau policy in responding to requests for service record inquiries by Wackenhut on former Bureau employees and listing of former employees affiliated with Wackenhut on the Special Correspondents' List.

Since March, 1967, when Wackenhut Corporation requested service summaries on eight former Agents, one of whom, retired former Agent Robert F. Ryan (who made comments slandering the Director), was already employed by Wackenhut, our summaries to Wackenhut have not included comment as to character and services of the former employees regardless whether their services were satisfactory (per Ryan's file, he has not been with Wackenhut since June, 1968). It was also approved in March, 1967, that as we learn through service record inquiries and the like of affiliation of former Agents with Wackenhut, they be removed from the Special Correspondents' List if they are on such list.

Relations with Wackenhut have been up and down; however, in view of the current support by Wackenhut and three of his associates, one of whom is on the Special Correspondents' List and would otherwise be removed now, and the fact that we did respond cordially to their letters, it is believed the Bureau should henceforth handle service record inquiries from Wackenhut on the merits of each case just as we do from other sources and that we should no longer remove anyone from the Special Correspondents' List <sup>solely</sup> because of affiliation with Wackenhut.

Dear Ed:

Although I already have expressed my thoughts and personal support of Mr. Hoover to him, I think this attack on him and the FBI has reached a point where members of Congress may welcome an expression of opinion from their constituents.

As Vice President Agnew has noted, this is obviously an inspired and coordinated campaign against both the Director and the Bureau and for the shabbiest of reasons - politics.

Equally obvious is the fact that should the campaign be successful in arousing a question mark in the minds of our people concerning the ethics and reliability of the FBI with a resultant weakening of its position, then the nation would, indeed, suffer a grievous blow.

I hope you agree and will do anything necessary to support this agency that has contributed so much to the security of our nation.

Dear Mr. Hoover:

Congratulations on having passed the 47th Milestone in your career as Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation. Your record of performance and service to the American people is certainly without peer in the history of our great country.

So

I continue to be disturbed on almost a daily basis because of the concerted attacks on you and the Bureau. Needless to say, I feel that they are unjustified and emanate from individuals who seem to have less concern for the best interests of our country than they have for personal and political ends. In spite of these attacks, I still feel that the majority of the American people support you and question the motivations of those persons involved.

I have had several opportunities recently to discuss this situation with prominent individuals in various leading positions, and to my surprise, found several whose thinking has been considerably distorted by some of the publicity. On these occasions I have endeavored to explain as carefully as possible my high regard for you and the Bureau and justifications for various Bureau policies that are being attacked. I feel that I have been successful in some instances in correcting certain misconceptions and hopefully have added more supporters in your behalf. You may be assured that I shall continue to stand firmly behind you and the Organization you have headed in such an outstanding manner for forty seven years.

The Honorable Clarence M. Kelley
 Director, Federal Bureau of Investigation
 Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Director Kelley:

For the past year and a half The Wackenhut Corporation has been actively involved in providing Executive/Family protection services for some of the nation's top executives and other persons of similar status and vulnerability. This service has been rendered on an international basis and has met with much success. Currently, we have six highly skilled men assigned exclusively to this type of service. They are all stationed here at Headquarters, although 80% of the work is performed on premises in the field.

In order to better inform and educate executives at all levels on how to prevent such things as extortion, kidnapping, and terrorism, we have decided to launch a series of seminars on the subject of international terrorism, precautionary measures, and related matters. The first one will be held at the Dorado Beach Hotel located on Miami Beach, Florida, November 21 and 22, 1974. We have a distinguished panel of experts, and to name a few:

Ambassador Lewis Hoffacker, Special Assistant to the Secretary, coordinator for combating terrorism, Department of State.

Mr. Reg Murphy, Editor of the Atlanta Constitution newspaper who, as you know, was a victim of kidnapping and has since become an expert on preventive measures.

Mrs. Marilyn Baker, of KQED-TV, San Francisco, who positively identified members of the SLA and who is also an experienced crime reporter.

The purpose of this letter is to ask that you consider assigning one of your top staff members most experienced in this area of terrorism to also appear along with our other guests. I have called W. Raymond Wannall, Assistant Director of Domestic Intelligence to alert him concerning our interest in having a Bureau representative.

Since a majority of persons attending this first seminar will be executives and businessmen of national prominence, we consider it mandatory to attract experts with the broadest possible experience levels. We are, of course, prepared to assume transportation, hotel, and meal costs in connection with the appearance of our guests.

In the event that you are able to assign such a person, it would be appreciated if you would have him contact me directly for further details regarding a background sketch and suitable photograph for reproduction.

Sincerely,

John S. Ammarell, Jr.
Executive Vice President

Smith to W. R. Wannall Memo
RE: REQUEST FOR BUREAU SPEAKER ON
SUBJECT OF INTERNATIONAL TERRORISM
BEFORE SEMINAR SPONSORED BY WACKENHUT
CORPORATION, NOVEMBER 21-22, 1974

men together to discuss mutual problems, and the New York Port Authority on terrorism in which registration fees were charged. We have consistently taken the position and so advised Congressman Ichord during testimony before the House Committee on Internal Security that we welcome the opportunity to advise the business community of the dangers of terrorism.

As noted above, we have appeared before business groups such as the Chamber of Commerce and the American Society of Industrial Security and also are reaching the business community through our talks before businessmen's groups such as Rotary Clubs, Lions Clubs and other Chamber of Commerce Groups. It is felt that this is a better way to reach the overall business community than through a conference sponsored by a private corporation such as Wackenhut. As previously noted, 10% of the conference
Wackenhut is sponsoring is to be promotional and the Bureau might be placed in a position of being criticized for assisting private business ventures and we might thereafter be expected to appear at similar-type seminars conducted by other private corporations. It is therefore felt that we should continue to reach the business community through professional-type organizations and not through private concerns.

RECOMMENDATION:

If you agree, that the attached letter be forwarded to the Wackenhut Corporation declining this offer.

By letter dated 8/16/74 to the Director on which the Director noted "advise please," the Wackenhut Corporation advised that in order to better inform and educate executives at all levels on how to prevent such things as extortion, kidnapping, and terrorism that Wackenhut Corporation had decided to launch a series of seminars on the subject of international terrorism, precautionary measures, and related matters.

The first seminar is to be held in Miami Beach, Florida, November 21 and 22, 1974, and the Director was asked to consider assigning a representative familiar in the area of terrorism to appear with other guests which include Ambassador Lewis Hoffacker, Chairman, Working Group, Cabinet Committee to Combat Terrorism, Mr. Reg Murphy, Editor of the "Atlanta Constitution" newspaper and Mrs. Marilyn Baker, a crime reporter for KQED-TV, San Francisco.

It has been determined that there will be approximately 100 to 125 executives and businessmen of national prominence in attendance. The seminar will be approximately 90% educational and 10% promotional, since Wackenhut is engaged in providing protective services for some of the executives.

A $260.00 registration fee will be charged participants to defray expenses. It is noted that Bureau representatives have in the past appeared at conferences of the American Society for Industrial Security, the U.S. Chamber of Commerce and the World Trade Center conference sponsored by Probe International, a management consultant firm concerned in getting business.

Dear George:

Thank you for having written about my second anniversary. It is true that during this time the Bureau has been under almost continuous attack, but I do think that we are going to weather the storm and come out perhaps even stronger than ever before. Much of the difficulty has been a failure to really try to understand our mission, but in this area we seem to be making some progress.

I hope things are going along well with you and from reports about the expansion of your business, you seem to have this assured.

Sincerely,

Dear Director Kelley:

As you well know, two years have almost gone by since you were sworn in as a Director of the FBI on July 9, 1973.

I wish to congratulate you at this time on your past two years of service. Unfortunately, it appears that the Bureau has been under attack from one quarter or another during these two years. I want you to know that I and my associates here, who are former Special Agents of the FBI, fully support your endeavors and avail ourselves at every opportunity to refute any unfair criticisms of the Bureau.

If we here can help you at any time, please feel free to call on us.

Dear Director Kelly:

Unfortunately, since my letter to you dated July 7, 1976, we have had a new administration.

You have served as Director under unusual pressures which, I am sure, were never before contemplated.

We here at The Wackenhut Corporation, on your fourth anniversary as Director, express our appreciation for the responsibilities you have bravely carried for the past four (4) years.

Whenever the media attacks you and the Bureau, we all feel that we too, even though no longer in the Bureau, are being attacked and, therefore, will support you and your agents to the utmost.

Sincerely,

Dear George:

Your letter of July 5th was a most welcome one. Yes, it is true I served under most unusual circumstances and was subjected to most unusual pressures. My tenure, however, has been one which has been enjoyable and interesting to me inasmuch as it enables me to make some contributions toward the revival of the Bureau and hopefully in a posture where we will even be more significantly contributing to the welfare of the nation.

This may sound somewhat stilted, but nonetheless I have been apprehensive during these four years as to the effect on the capabilities of our organization and the safety of our country. Now I feel that when I leave we will have a great deal more possibility of stabilizing than for a while seemed to exist.

I hope that we get together during a visit to Florida which I make from time to time, but certainly during the IACP Convention in Los Angeles.

Sincerely,

Clarence

Dear [redacted]

Enclosed please find an undated blind memorandum concerning alleged improprieties on the part of Wackenhut Corporation in its dealings with U.S. Embassies in Central and South America.

The information set forth in the enclosed was provided by three individuals to a representative of the FBI during early March 1989. The three individuals requested confidentiality for fear of reprisals.

I am forwarding the enclosed for whatever purpose you deem appropriate.

NOTE: This letter provides the IG, Department of State with information provided to Unit Chief, Foreign Liaison Unit, OLIA, [redacted] in early March 1989, by three individuals from three U.S. Embassies in Central and South America who reported improprieties on the part of Wackenhut Corporation.

b6
b7c

The Embassies' locations are not being provided in the letter as to do so would pinpoint the sources to that location and the time frame the sources were in the Washington, D.C., area. Sources were adamant that their identities be protected and indicated that several Regional Security Officers in Latin America could provide substantiating information.

~~C O N F I D E N T I A L~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Information has been received that at least three U.S. Embassies in Central and South America currently have contracts with the Wackenhut Corporation to provide security at these sites. Allegedly, when Regional Security Officers (RSO) attempt to have a guard taken off the Embassy Protective Detail for whatever reason (found asleep at post, dishonest, etc.), Wackenhut management generally tries to keep the guard on the Embassy detail. If the RSO/Embassy tries to push for the guard's removal, Wackenhut will imply to Embassy personnel that if the Embassy will not allow the guard to continue, Wackenhut will appeal to their Washington, D.C., "contact". On several occasions, the RSO has received instructions from the Department of State (DOS) recommending that the guard remain on the detail.

The sources of the above information were of the opinion that someone at DOS is the Washington, D.C., "contact" for Wackenhut.

The sources further indicated that Wackenhut will hire local nationals at the three sites for a certain salary. The guards, fearful of losing a good job, will sign for the agreed upon pay, however, will receive much less. The guards are told that the money they do not receive is held for their pension plan, medical insurance or any other nonexistent reason. When they leave Wackenhut Service, they never see this money.

In addition, the sources indicated that the Wackenhut Corporation seems to have the "inside track" when bids are advertised for guard contracts, as they appear to know that the Embassy has been instructed to reduce the cost of the protection detail or appear to know the amount the Embassy is willing to expend.

On several occasions, Wackenhut has included their guards, detailed to other than the U.S. Embassies, to participate in Embassy scheduled firearms training for the Embassy Protective Detail, where U.S. Government ammunition, targets, etc., are utilized.

The sources are of the opinion that an investigation is urgently needed in order to look into what they perceive to be irregularities on the part of Wackenhut and possibly DOS persons, not further identified.

The three sources, who did not wish their identities revealed, suggested that RSOs in Latin America be contacted for corroborating information.
