Re: 88A-MP-47461, 05/13/1997

Investigation at Minneapolis also reveals that on 04/29/1997, the body of Jeff Trail was found bludgeoned to death in an apartment in Minneapolis, Minnesota. This apartment was owned and occupied by Madson and Cunanan. Through investigation conducted at Minneapolis, Minnesota it appears that Trail was killed on 04/27/1997. On 04/28/1997, Madson and Cunanan were seen around this apartment building. Madson's body was discovered on the shoreline of East Rush Lake, located in Chisago County, Minnesota on 05/03/1997.

On 05/04/1997, the body of Lee A. Miglin was discovered in the garage of his residence located at 25 Scott Street, Chicago, Illinois. Miglin was a wealthy businessman in the Chicago area. Missing from Miglin's garage was a 1994 Lexus LS 400, 4-door Sedan, black Jade Pearl in color, Illinois License Plate YKD 399. This vehicle was equipped with an attached cellular telephone with telephone number (312) 802-0725. Investigation conducted in and around the Miglin residence in Chicago, Illinois located a red Jeep Cherokee bearing Minnesota plates parked on the street near the Miglin residence. Investigation has confirmed that this vehicle belonged to one of the two homicide victims in Minnesota.

Contact with Ameritech Cellular indicated that Miglin's cellular telephone was activated on 05/04/1997 in Union County, Pennsylvania. Subsequent monitoring of the telephone's activity indicated that it was activated in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania on 05/08/1997. On 05/09/1997, it was determined that the cellular telephone was now active in Southern New Jersey showing activity off cell towers in Penns Grove, New Jersey and Carney's Point, New Jersey. On 05/09/1997, Miglin's Lexus was discovered in Pennsville, New Jersey as part of an additional homicide crime scene. Missing from that crime scene was the victim's 1995 red Chevrolet pickup bearing New Jersey license KH 993D.

After high school, he attended the University of California at San Diego for one year and then dropped out. He is able to speak both French and Spanish.

When questioned about [redacted] background regarding occupations and employment, [redacted] advised that he only had two jobs to her knowledge. He had been employed as a manager of a THRIFTY JUNIOR DRUG STORE that was located across the street from their residence in Rancho Bernardo. In addition, she believed he worked for a temporary agency in some capacity as an office worker for a bank in San Francisco, California.

When questioned regarding the family history, [redacted] advised that ANDREW had been born in National City, California, living there until [redacted] June of 1972. In August of 1972, the family moved to 577

Watercrest Drive, Bonita, California and lived there for the next ten years. In approximately 1982, the family moved to Rancho Bernardo, California where they bought a villa.

At age 19, [redacted] ANDREW left home and traveled to the Philippines. He had gone to visit [redacted] with expectations of being a missionary. He only remained in the Philippines for one month before returning to the U.S. When he returned to the U.S., he lived with [redacted] in San Francisco. ANDREW [redacted] described [redacted] as a [redacted] who permitted her son to live with her. ANDREW lived with [redacted] until 1991. While living in San Francisco, she believed [redacted] worked at a bank in San Francisco.

In 1991, [redacted] returned to live with her until 1994. During this time, he worked as a manager at the THRIFTY JUNIOR DRUG STORE located across from their residence in Rancho Bernardo.

While residing with [redacted] he, at times, would use the alias, ANDREW DE SILVA.

In 1989, [redacted] and she believed he was living in a mansion in La Jolla, California.

b7C

[redacted]

[redacted]

With regard [redacted] lifestyle, [redacted] advised that she realized [redacted] was "gay" when he was approximately 17 years of age. He had feminine mannerisms and voice patterns. He socialized in the gay community in California and it was her belief that he would befriend wealthy gay men and begin relationships with them, which enabled him to be supported by them. [redacted] lived a rich lifestyle from gifts from male companions. She described [redacted] as "a high class male prostitute".

When asked about her knowledge of any of [redacted] companions, [redacted] advised that he had a companion, [redacted] who was, [redacted], employed as [redacted] California. [redacted] was believed to be one of [redacted] "lovers" who was wealthy [redacted]

[redacted] had another male companion known only by the first name of [redacted]

[redacted] added that there was an incident in [redacted] of 1993 when [redacted] he became angered. During the ensuing argument [redacted] took her to the [redacted] emergency room. [redacted] Before entering the hospital, she was instructed [redacted] He warned her not to say anything about the incident or he would kill her.

When questioned regarding [redacted] ownership of any weapons, she denied having any knowledge of him ever owning any guns.

[redacted] was questioned regarding any knowledge of [redacted] reasons for being in Minnesota, Chicago, or going to the east coast. She denied having any knowledge as to [redacted] would have traveled to any of these locations.

[redacted] indicated that it was common [redacted] wear prescription glasses and that he was approximately 5'10" in height and had hazel eyes. He was a gourmet when it came to food and wines, and would only eat in the most expensive restaurants. He was impeccable in his appearance, and would wear only the very best in clothing. He suffers from migraine headaches.

She described [redacted] as a "loner" who had very little contact with his family. The only person in the family he was close to was [redacted] who resided in [redacted]

At the conclusion of the interview [redacted] was provided with a business card and indicated that she would contact the FBI should she learn anything regarding [redacted] whereabouts, or should he make any attempt to contact her.

The following investigation was conducted by Detective [redacted] of the Chicago Division's Fugitive Task Force on May 12, 1997:

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS:

On May 12, 1997, [redacted] telephonically contacted the writer in response to efforts to locate her at her residence in [redacted] Illinois and at her employment in [redacted] Illinois.

After being advised as to the identity of the interviewing Officer to the nature of the investigation, [redacted] related the following in summary:

[redacted] wanted subject, ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN. She indicated the last time she saw [redacted] ANDREW, was 6 years ago when she had an occasion to go into the Thrifty Drugstore located in Rancho Bernardo. At the time, [redacted] was a manager in the drugstore. When she saw him at that time there was no conversation and she made her purchase and left. She indicated that she last spoke to [redacted] ANDREW, approximately 9 years ago when she was at [redacted] in Rancho Bernardo. She explained that [redacted] were not very close, and that he had an "air" about him and that he was too busy with his life to be involved [redacted] would have family functions [redacted] he would never show up.

[redacted]

She denied having any knowledge as to his friends and he never admitted to her to being "gay". She had her suspicions, but never confronted him with them.

[redacted], ANDREW was extremely intelligent and read a lot. She denied having any knowledge of him ever being arrested. She believed he had worked at a bank in the past, but she denied having any knowledge where or when.

The only person she could think of who was extremely close [redacted] was a close friend of his [redacted] resided in California, but she denied having knowledge as to the address.

Since this incident and the wide publicity it has received, she had an occasion to watch the news accounts on TV. She observed the account of the murder in Chicago and saw a photograph of the victim, LEE MIGLIN, on TV. It was at this time that she recalled an occasion of approximately 5 years ago. [redacted] had found some photographs [redacted] showed her the photographs which contained photographs of [redacted] with older men. In 2 of the photographs she believed the companion [redacted] to be the murder victim, LEE MIGLIN, but she could not be positive. The photographs appeared to be indoors and [redacted] had his arm around the older gentlemen. They appeared to have been intoxicated. She never paid any attention to these photographs until she saw the photograph on TV of the homicide victim. It was at this time that the earlier photograph flashed back to her with regards to [redacted]

[redacted] who resided in San Francisco.

The following investigation was conducted Detective [redacted] of the Chicago Division's Fugitive Task Force on May 13, 1997:

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS:

On [redacted] the writer was contacted by [redacted] at the request of the wanted subject [redacted]. After being advised as to the identity of the Task Force member and to the nature of the investigation, [redacted] advised that [redacted] wanted subject. [redacted] has known him since [redacted] lived continuously with him for approximately [redacted] years from [redacted] During that time, CUNANAN lived with [redacted] in La Jolla, California. At that time, CUNANAN would have been a senior in high school or a freshman in college. She later moved to [redacted] While living there CUNANAN began housekeeping for [redacted] and lived at [redacted] residence, taking care of the dog. CUNANAN later moved and resided with [redacted] in the upper [redacted] California. The last place that CUNANAN resided with her was [redacted] in Berkeley, California. Her relationship with CUNANAN was never sexual in nature. [redacted]

b7C

Sometime in the beginning of 1996 CUNANAN gave her a voice mail number of (619)736-9174, informing her that he was going to Mexico indefinitely and that she could contact him through the voice mail. He indicated that he did not know when he would be returning. She began leaving messages on the voice mail, however he only returned one call. Six months later the voice mail was disconnected. This was the last time she spoke with him. She assumed that he would eventually return to live with [redacted]

When CUNANAN lived with [redacted] he would [redacted] travel with them extensively. She knew him to have visited Florence and Rome, Italy, the Philippines a couple times, New Mexico, Oregon and Washington. He traveled extensively throughout the state of California

With regard to her background with CUNANAN [redacted]

88A-MP-47461-37

[redacted] had very expensive tastes and common interests. She indicated that they would go out to the best restaurants in the San Diego area and they made up his alias of Desilva because it was a name of [redacted] CUNANAN made up the name "BARON OSHKINOZY" as a name he would use to impress the maitre d's at restaurants when attempting to get reservations. CUNANAN would use these aliases in an attempt to impress people. It seemed to her that he was not happy with his life and that he always wanted more glamour. [redacted] felt that [redacted] CUNANAN and that if he was on the run he would contact her. However, she moved approximately [redacted] and he does not have her current address.

She characterized him as caring more about the way people perceive him than life itself. She could not believe that he would be involved in these murders. It is her belief that CUNANAN is with someone who is doing the killings and that he eventually may end up dead himself.

When questioned regarding her knowledge of CUNANAN'S gay lifestyle she advised that she always knew he was gay, but it was never discussed. She didn't know any of his gay friends and could not explain his travels to Minnesota, Chicago or the east coast. She assumed that if he had traveled to the east coast, it was for the purpose of visiting friends. He was believed to have several friends located throughout the United States. He had a circle of friends in the San Francisco community that he was close with. She knew one to be named [redacted] but she had no further information concerning this individual. He had a close friend, [redacted], described as [redacted] approximately [redacted] years of age who lived in the [redacted] California area. [redacted]

When questioned regarding identifiable marks on CUNANAN, [redacted] indicated that she believed he may have had a surgical scar from an appendix operation. He also always wore glasses. She indicated that she has several photographs of CUNANAN and in all the photographs he is wearing glasses.

[redacted] is still good friends with CUNANAN and may have some information of value in this investigation. She indicated that she would contact him and have him contact the writer.

She described CUNANAN as being extremely vain and extremely conscious of his looks. He wanted the best of everything. His clothes were the most expensive and he grew up around a lot of money. The only jobs she ever knew him to have was when he was working for a temporary agency and when he was the manager of a THRIFTY Drug Store located on Bernardo Center Drive in Rancho Bernardo. She never knew him to be involved with drugs and never saw him with any weapons. He was an avid reader and extremely intelligent.

At the conclusion of the interview, [redacted] expressed cooperation in this investigation and would contact the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) in the event of any future communication from CUNANAN.

The following investigation was conducted by Detective [redacted] of the Chicago Division's Fugitive Task Force on 5/13/97:

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS:

On 5/13/97, [redacted] telephonically contacted the writer at the request of [redacted] After being advised as to the identity of the interviewing Officer and to the nature of the investigation, [redacted] advised the following in summary:

He indicated that he was close friend of the wanted subject, ANDREW CUNANAN, having met him in June of 1988 through his relationship with [redacted] and CUNANAN [redacted] Eventually, he [redacted] came to live with them. There was no jealousy in that he was strictly a very close friend [redacted] CUNANAN stayed with them rent free and [redacted] The last time he saw CUNANAN was [redacted] in late 1993.

When questioned about his knowledge of CUNANAN's friends, he described [redacted] as CUNANAN's best friend. He did not feel he had any other "best friends" other than [redacted] No one really knew CUNANAN other than [redacted] CUNANAN was [redacted] and was the [redacted].

[redacted] and CUNANAN for a time [redacted] and he believed that in either 1990, 1991 or 1992 that CUNANAN worked at the BANK OF CALIFORNIA in San Francisco for approximately six months straight.

When questioned about his knowledge of CUNANAN's gay lifestyle, he indicated that he had no true knowledge as to the persons involved with CUNANAN, but that it was understood that he was gay. He did indicate however, that CUNANAN had a very close friend, [redacted] who was a [redacted] who spent a lot of money on ANDREW. CUNANAN also had an acquaintance named [redacted] but he had no further information with regard to [redacted] He believed [redacted] was a high school friend, that possibly CUNANAN's mother may know. He [redacted] had heard news accounts about CUNANAN being HIV positive and explained that he found it hard to believe because CUNANAN had spoke of the fact that he "loved using condoms". He showed no outwardly gay mannerisms.

88A-MP-47461-38

When questioned about his knowledge of the alias DE SILVA used by CUNANAN, he denied knowing him to use this alias, but explained that the name DE SILVA was probably from the DE SILVA family who was one of the richest families in the world. [redacted] lived in the Rancho Santa Fe area of California and are quite prominent in charity and social work in the community. They were at one time listed as being in the top four hundred wealthiest people in the world. It should be noted that in the interview with [redacted] she indicated that [redacted] close friends with the DE SILVA family.

When questioned regarding identifiable marks, [redacted] indicated that to his knowledge, CUNANAN had an appendix scar on his side.

With regards to any knowledge he may have had regarding any violent activity, [redacted] indicated that he found the news accounts of the murders hard to believe with regard to CUNANAN being involved. He did indicate, however, that CUNANAN at times glamorized violence and when watching movies would comment that if someone did that to me "I'd go on a five state killing spree". He thought that he was just kidding at the time. [redacted] characterized CUNANAN as "a delicate butterfly" who constantly fantasized about being rich. He lived "the lifestyles of the rich and famous" by hanging on and pretending.

During the conversation, [redacted] advised that it was always his belief that CUNANAN would return to live with them. He had kept CUNANAN's shaving kit out in the open and would periodically look at the shaving kit with the hopes that CUNANAN would come back and live with them. [redacted] indicated that there may be fingerprints on or in the shaving kit. In response to this, he was advised to set aside the shaving kit for possible evidentiary value in the future.

[redacted] could provide no explanation for CUNANAN's travels to Minnesota, Chicago, or the East Coast. It was [redacted] feelings that if and when the authorities caught up to CUNANAN he would probably be found in some exclusive country club or expensive restaurant.

[redacted] cooperation in this investigation and stated that he would contact the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) with any further information of value in this investigation.

Cunanan dragnet hits the Internet

■ FBI's No. 1 fugitive on Web as effort to snare him grows

RUBÉN ROSARIO STAFF WRITER

If Andrew Phillip Cunanan ever wanted a homepage on the World Wide Web, he has one now.

The nationwide search for the suspected killer of four men in a cross-country murder spree officially entered the information superhighway Tuesday. Meanwhile, the first reward money in connection with the manhunt was announced as efforts intensified to warn gays in New York City and other areas about the case.

Like a hit record, Cunanan shot up to top billing as the lead fugitive featured on the FBI's "Crime Alert" Web page.

The 27-year-old suspect in the slayings of two Twin Cities men, a Chicago real estate tycoon and a New Jersey cemetery security guard has his own section on the Web site. Cunanan's page on the Internet contains several recent photos provided to authorities by acquaintances, a summary of the crime spree, and his physical description.

The New York City Gay and Lesbian Anti-Violence Project posted a $10,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Andrew Cunanan.

Cunanan, who has brown hair and brown eyes, is 5-foot-10½-inches tall and weighs 185 pounds, not 5-9 and 160 pounds, as the FBI's earlier description said, according to Lisa Vizi, an agency spokeswoman in Philadelphia. He may also wear prescription glasses.

She said the updated physical description was developed through the investigation, but wouldn't say how.

Also on Tuesday, the New York City Gay and Lesbian Anti-Violence Project posted a $10,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Cunanan. The reward money was announced after someone reported seeing a man fitting Cunanan's description at a gay club Monday in New York's Hell's Kitchen neighborhood in lower Manhattan.

The sighting, one of several called into authorities on the East Coast following Friday's slaying of the cemetery worker, prompted a mass dissemination of Cunanan's picture throughout New York's gay community. Another sighting had Cunanan arriving in Scranton, Pa., from New York by bus. Both reported sightings remain under investigation.

Volunteers and members of the anti-violence project in New York canvassed the city's predominantly gay neighborhoods Tuesday night, handing out fliers with Cunanan's pictures and informing residents of the manhunt. Two of the targeted neighborhoods included Chelsea, just south of Hell's Kitchen, and Greenwich Village. In particular were clubs and establishments known to be frequented by wealthy middle-age men. Cunanan is reported to have friends in gay communities throughout the country, including New York, Boston, Washington, D.C., and Florida.

The anti-violence project was notified by both FBI and New York police of the possibility that Cunanan might be in the city's gay neighborhoods.

The canvassing was the latest activity in a two-week effort by gay community groups to assist authorities in spreading the word about the search for the elusive suspect.

Cunanan, described as openly gay, is a graduate of a prestigious prep school in San Diego and portrayed himself as a high-flying jet-setter who dated older men and had money to burn.

"We have been in contact with friends and acquaintances (of Cunanan)," said Constance Potter, the anti-violence coordinator for the Minneapolis-based Gay and Lesbian Community Action Council. She said two of them told her after the most recent slaying that Cunanan had friends in New York and that it would be a likely next stop on his journey.

"If this man has targeted individuals in the community as we know, the potential risk that people who know him are at risk and could fall victim is of great concern to us and a top priority," she added.

Cunanan is facing second-degree murder charges in connection with the shooting death of David Madson, 33, of Minneapolis.

Madson, shot in the head with a .40-caliber pistol, was found May 3 in an abandoned farm on East Rush Lake in Chisago County.

The discovery came five days after the body of Jeffrey Trail, 28, a Bloomington engineer, was found bludgeoned inside Madson's downtown Minneapolis apartment. Trail, a U.S. Naval Academy graduate who met Cunanan while stationed in San Diego several years ago, had been repeatedly struck in the head with a claw hammer.

Police found a nylon gym bag with Cunanan's name on it and an empty holster of a .40-caliber handgun they believe had been issued to Trail when he was a cadet at the California Highway Patrol academy.

Friends told police that Madson and Cunanan had been lovers, and that the suspect arrived in Minneapolis on April 25 to "take care" of business matters with Trail.

Police have not been able to pinpoint a motive for the slayings.

On May 4, police in Chicago found the body of real estate tycoon Lee Miglin, 72, in the detached garage of his posh townhome. Miglin had been tortured and repeatedly stabbed by a killer who apparently left a half-eaten ham sandwich, a fake gun and a razor with stubble at the victim's home.

Cunanan emerged as a prime suspect in that slaying when Madson's missing Jeep Cherokee was found parked around the corner from Miglin's home. Miglin's 1994 Lexus was reported missing.

Authorities launched a nationwide search and were able to track the stolen car's whereabouts through its car phone to somewhere in the Philadelphia area last Thursday.

The following day, authorities in Pennsville, N.J., discovered the body of William Reese, 45. Reese, caretaker at the Finn's Point National Cemetery, had been shot once in the head in the basement of an administration building. Outside, authorities found Miglin's Lexus.

Cunanan is believed to have taken Reese's 1995 red Chevrolet pickup truck. The trail has since gone cold, and investigators suspect that Cunanan may have ditched the stolen truck.

Meanwhile, Minneapolis investigators are in possession of belongings seized under a search warrant executed last week at Cunanan's apartment in San Diego. They will be sifting through the belongings for clues, as well as attempting to lift fingerprints. Cunanan has never been arrested, and his fingerprints are not on file. In order to connect him to the crime scenes, investigators in the four jurisdictions where the killings have taken place are attempting to determine whether similar prints are present. They would then try to make a match if Cunanan were apprehended.

The FBI, the lead agency in charge of coordinating the search for the suspect, continues to chase reported sightings and leads. Agents have cast a dragnet that includes constant contact with anyone connected with the suspect and alerts to bus terminals, train stations, and airlines.

They have also put together an extensive background profile that they hope can help in forecasting his next move. But as of Tuesday night, his whereabouts remained a mystery.

"We have nothing new to report," said spokeswoman Coleen Rowley of the Minneapolis FBI office.

[redacted] heard about CUNANAN's possible involvement in the murders when he received a telephone call from [redacted] the previous Thursday (5/8). [redacted] explained that [redacted] and he used to live together at his current home and CUNANAN [redacted] had called to speak with [redacted] because that was the only number she had. [redacted] happened to be present when she called so [redacted] spoke with her. [redacted] knew of no information that CUNANAN [redacted] had of his whereabouts. [redacted] later called a second time. He described her as being mentally unbalanced.

[redacted] said he thought he knew CUNANAN fairly well but added that no one knew him as well as [redacted] had told him that she had not heard from CUNANAN and [redacted] believes this.

[redacted] described CUNANAN as the kind of person who was fun to be around. CUNANAN would trade his company with other people in exchange for a wealthy life style. [redacted] explained that CUNANAN liked to associate with people who had money. He liked to have a mystique about himself. CUNANAN often would enjoy falling off the face of the earth and [redacted] would not hear from him in several months. While he had no close friends besides [redacted] that [redacted] knew of, CUNANAN would often lie to others about being part of the "upper crust." [redacted] knew that CUNANAN was bisexual who did care about sex but he did not know any of his partners. [redacted] said he did not think of CUNANAN as a male prostitute but felt he probably would have accepted money if offered. [redacted] explained that CUNANAN never worked a regular job except for being the assistant manager for Thrifty Drug Store in San Diego. He described CUNANAN as being lazy because he never seemed to work much. However he always seemed to have money. CUNANAN also worked as a temporary employee at the Kelly Agency when he lived in San Francisco.

[redacted] never knew CUNANAN to have a steady girlfriend except for someone named [redacted] who was a student at the University of California at Berkeley. [redacted] knew of [redacted] named [redacted] in San Francisco and [redacted] age [redacted] who was [redacted] in San Francisco, whom CUNANAN had befriended. However he did not have any further information as to their whereabouts. When asked about [redacted] said he was another acquaintance of CUNANAN's who was a [redacted] but [redacted] did not know where he lived or worked. b7C

Another person who had let CUNANAN live with her several years ago was a [redacted] who had [redacted] in San Francisco from [redacted] can be reached at telephone [redacted]

When asked what [redacted] thought about CUNANAN being involved in the murders, [redacted] said that CUNANAN did appear to have a revenge streak. If someone had done him wrong, [redacted] felt that CUNANAN could feel obligated to do something in return as a matter of honor. However [redacted] said he could not imagine CUNANAN going after the victim grave digger just to get his vehicle. When asked if CUNANAN ever had a firearm, [redacted] said that he had never seen CUNANAN with one. However CUNANAN liked to talk like he knew a lot about guns.

[redacted] related an incident with CUNANAN when he was riding in a car with him and [redacted] in 1991. During casual conversation, CUNANAN words to the effect, "If I had AIDS (or if someone did that to me), I'd go on a five state killing spree and take everyone with me I could." However [redacted] thought CUNANAN was joking and had gotten the phrase from a movie.

[redacted] said that he recalls seeing a two inch scar on CUNANAN's abdomen and thought it could be an appendix scar.

[redacted] knew that CUNANAN had used the name DESILVA previously. CUNANAN also had passed himself off as Baron ASHKENAZY (phonetic) at parties and as a joke.

b7C [redacted] said he would contact the FBI if he hears from CUNANAN. Because CUNANAN had previously stayed at his house, he would know how to get there and might still know his telephone number. He does not think that CUNANAN would ever ask him for help as CUNANAN always seemed to handle his own matters by himself and did not like to impose on people.

She thought something must have really altered his life to cause him to do commit the crimes he had been accused of. CUNANAN was raised a Roman Catholic and often went to church on his own so she believes it is way out of his frame of mind to go out and kill people. She never knew him to be involved with drugs or to have any weapons. She did not think him to be a male prostitute. CUNANAN always seemed to be an interesting person and good company. He always had a lot of wealthy friends. CUNANAN was very concerned with his image and would always wear Georgio Avani designer glasses.

[redacted] said that she had heard of [redacted] but had no information on how to contact him. She also had heard of [redacted] as being a friend of CUNANAN's but she does not believe that she has never met [redacted] She has no information on where he lives or works.

On May 16, 1997, [redacted], date of birth (DOB) [redacted], residing at [redacted] California, telephone [redacted], stated that he had known Andrew Philip Cunanan for approximately [redacted]. They dated one month and had also been friends. [redacted] In March 1997 Cunanan stated that he planned to do some traveling soon. He casually spoke about traveling to Madison, Wisconsin, to visit friends. He did not say why he might travel to Wisconsin, and he also did not [redacted] to give him the names and phone numbers of contacts that [redacted] had in the Milwaukee, Wisconsin area.

[redacted] were recently contacted by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). [redacted] live in [redacted]. His sister has told him that they were advised by the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) that their names and phone numbers were found among Cunanan's belongings that were recovered by the police. [redacted] has no idea why Cunanan would know their names or phone numbers, but he suspects it is related to the disappearance of his address book in January 1997.

[redacted] used to keep a very small address book that listed his business contacts, family, friends, and credit card numbers. The address book disappeared sometime in January 1997 along with several cassette tapes. The items were kept in his car. Cunanan borrowed the car a few times and could have easily taken the items. Cunanan never said anything that would have suggested that he was interested in the information contained in [redacted] address book.

Cunanan always appeared to have a great deal of money. Cunanan often would insist on paying for dinner for a group of five or six friends. He would pay in cash and leave a large tip. Cunanan stated that his financial advisor [redacted] named [redacted] (phonetic spelling), [redacted] in the San Diego area. [redacted] lives in [redacted] California.

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the San Diego Division:

On May 16, 1997, [redacted] residing at [redacted] San Diego, California, telephone [redacted] stated that he was a friend of Andrew Philip Cunanan. He had known Cunanan under the name of Andrew De Silva, and until two days prior, he did not realize that the individual wanted for murder was in fact the same person. [redacted] stated that he does not regularly read newspapers and although he had heard that an individual named Cunanan was wanted for murder, he did not pay attention until he had happened to see a photograph of the suspect. At that time he realized that he knew Cunanan.

[redacted] first met Cunanan in approximately February 1996. During a chance encounter on November 1, 1996, Cunanan mentioned that he was going to have a party in a few weeks. [redacted] stated that he was interested in attending and that he would like Cunanan's phone number to get further information. Cunanan then wrote out on a Bank of America Automated Teller Machine (ATM) withdrawal receipt, his name using the name Andrew De Silva, home telephone [redacted], and voice mail number [redacted]685-3539.

The receipt dated October 31, 1996, was for an account at the Bank of America. The first five digits of the account were blocked off, but the last five digits were [redacted]5481. The receipt showed a withdrawal of $300.00 and a remaining balance of $19,194.41.

[redacted] expressed his uncertainty whether Cunanan did in fact commit the murders described in the press. He believes that the circumstances are "fishy" and that Cunanan could not be capable of committing murder.

[redacted] California, was telephonically interviewed at [redacted] was informed of the residence in [redacted] identity of the interviewing agent and the purpose of the interview. He provided the following information:

[redacted] Andrew P. Cunanan, [redacted] He met Cunanan socially in San Diego about three years ago. [redacted] described Cunanan to be the center of social activity in the Gay community. He was very popular, well known, and well liked. He was heavily involved in philanthropic activities, and [redacted] stated, "If people needed something done, they would call Cunanan." Cunanan "spent money like crazy" on his friends, taking them out to dinner often and picking up the bill. He spent money "as if it grew on trees."

[redacted] described Cunanan as very intelligent and knowledgeable in many areas. He believed Cunanan to have a masters degree in business from University of California, San Diego. He did not know what or where Cunanan studied as an undergraduate.

[redacted] had never witnessed any indication of Cunanan having a short temper and never heard him raise his voice at anyone. [redacted] knew Cunanan to use crack cocaine but did not know him to deal crack [redacted] was aware Cunanan was involved in the illegal sale of pharmaceutical drugs and believed him to be selling drugs for members of the Italian Maffia who were associated with the downtown San Diego area. [redacted] understood Cunanan to be a "go between" for drug deals. [redacted] had heard Cunanan describe the drugs he was in custody of as having "fallen off trucks."

[redacted] did not know Cunanan to be regularly employed, except for one job for a short time as a clerk. He believed him to receive money from a wealthy woman in San Francisco to whom he used to be married and with whom he had a daughter. [redacted] believed the daughter to be about three or four years old. He did not know the daughter's name or the name of Cunanan's former wife, as Cunanan never talked about either. Cunanan was also vague about his parents. They were upset with him when he disclosed to them he was gay, and [redacted] did not believe them to be in contact.

Cunanan recently ended a one year relationship with a man named [redacted], Last Name Unknown (LNU). [redacted] lived at [redacted] California. [redacted] described [redacted] as a very wealthy white male approximately [redacted] years of age. Cunanan explained to [redacted] that he ended the relationship because [redacted] was not providing for him in the manner in which he was use to.

Cunanan had recently indicated to [redacted] he was running out of financial resources. [redacted] believed Cunanan to have increased his drug sales activity recently in order to make money. He had also spent the last several weeks in the apartment trying to get as much money as he could through bank loans.

[redacted] recalled hearing about a jeep Cunanan had driven following one of the murders. [redacted] advised Cunanan is unable to drive a stick shift car. He did not believe Cunanan to have left the Unites States as he has lots of resources here. He believed Cunanan to be capable of persuading friends that he is innocent and getting them to assist him.

[redacted] knew Cunanan to have friends in France, New York, and San Francisco, with the latter two cities being his favorite places to travel to. Cunanan traveled often. [redacted] never traveled with him, and did not know any of the people he traveled with, except for [redacted] LNU.

[redacted] advised he located a notebook in Cunanan's room with a list of serial numbers of guns, crack cocaine, and pharmaceutical drugs. He contacted the San Diego Police Department, Detective [redacted] and advised her of those items being located at the apartment.

Synopsis: Lead to locate and apprehend captioned subject.

Enclosures: Enclosed for each receiving office are two copies each of a wanted poster of captioned subject.

Details: For information of receiving offices, since 04/29/1997, Andrew Phillip Cunanan is believed to have killed four people, including two in Minneapolis, Minnesota, one in Chicago, Illinois, and one in Pennsville, New Jersey, on 05/09/1997. The subject is possibly still traveling in the New Jersey victim's vehicle, a 1995 red Chevrolet pick-up, New Jersey license KH993D.

On 05/07/1997, the Chisago County District Court issued an arrest warrant charging Cunanan with Murder in the Second Degree. On 05/05/1997, a warrant charging Cunanan for Unlawful Flight to Avoid Prosecution for Murder in the Second Degree was issued by U.S. Magistrate Judge Arthur Boylan.

Cunanan is a homosexual, a male prostitute, who frequents upscale gay establishments. The two victims killed in Minnesota were former lovers of the subject. However, the motives for their deaths are unknown. The person killed in Chicago was a wealthy businessman. The motive for this killing is also unknown. However, Cunanan did steal this victim's vehicle. He left this vehicle at the scene of the New Jersey murder and took that victim's vehicle. It is possible that some of these murders occurred simply because Cunanan needed a vehicle. These murders have been described as vici[illegible] execution-style killings.

[redacted] who lives in an area known [redacted] Mexico, met Andrew Cunanan, whom he knew as DeSilva, in early [redacted] was reluctant to provide an address, [redacted] met him at the University of California, San Diego, then saw him socially. Cunanan told him he was living in Rancho Bernardo and working at the Thrifty pharmacy there. Cunanan's family lived in Rancho Santa Fe.

[redacted] and Cunanan [redacted] and saw each other weekly. [redacted] and would go out with Cunanan to dinner, movies, and occasionally a bar.

Cunanan and [redacted] had been seeing each other for approximately [redacted] before Cunanan moved [redacted] Cunanan gave up his job while he lived with [redacted] for the next [redacted] When Cunanan broke up with [redacted] he told [redacted] that [redacted] was tight financially. Cunanan told [redacted] that he moved into a small apartment complex for approximately one month before moving [redacted]

Cunanan spent two weeks in San Francisco in late March 1997, where he was considering moving. [redacted] asked him why he was leaving San Diego. Cunanan said he was bored. [redacted] thought Cunanan was leaving because he was running out of money. Cunanan had a certain lifestyle to maintain, and would have been embarrassed if he could not continue it. Cunanan told [redacted] he had sold his car for the money. [redacted] could sense that Cunanan was becoming stressed, and could have been headed for a nervous breakdown.

Cunanan came back from San Francisco and went to dinner a few times with [redacted]. Cunanan continued talking about moving to San Francisco. Cunanan then went back to San Francisco for three or four days, then returned to San Diego. [redacted] had dinner with Cunanan around [redacted] Cunanan [redacted] he had an apartment in San Francisco and was excited about moving there.

[redacted] also had dinner with Cunanan on [redacted] at the [redacted] restaurant. Cunanan talked about his two-bedroom apartment and that he wanted people to visit him there. [redacted] made plans to go to San Francisco the week after Cunanan was due to return from Minneapolis. Cunanan also wanted [redacted] take his suits because he was getting a whole new wardrobe, starting from scratch. Cunanan had given away his expensive watch to someone. Cunanan told [redacted] that he was very upset [redacted] Cunanan told [redacted] had given him approximately $15,000 cash, in addition to the Infinity.

On [redacted] was not present, but knew that Cunanan had dinner with [redacted] and some other friends. Cunanan gave his [redacted] and gave away other personal items. b7C

Cunanan had been to Minneapolis several times to see David Madson before his trip there in April 1997. Cunanan had broken up with Madson but was still friends with him and seemed casual when talking about Madson. Cunanan told [redacted] that his main purpose in going to Minneapolis was to visit [redacted] Jeff Trail. Cunanan was scheduled to spend the weekend there, with [redacted] to pick him up [redacted]

Cunanan had purchased an open-ended ticket and was going to call [redacted] with his flight information, but never called.

The last time [redacted] heard from Cunanan was either Tuesday, Wednesday, or Thursday, 4/29, 4/30, or 5/1/97. Cunanan left a message on [redacted] answering machine. The message said something to the effect of, [redacted] "this is Andrew, I'll call you later". [redacted] stated that the message was more brief than normal for Cunanan.

[redacted]

that Cunanan had called to say goodbye.

[redacted] was shown by the interviewing Agents a copy of a photograph of a male individual standing next to a [redacted] bearing California license plate [redacted] stated that the individual in the photograph [redacted]

[redacted] was also shown by the interviewing Agents a copy of a second photograph containing [redacted] male individuals. [redacted] did not know who took the photograph, but recognized the following individuals: The person at the [redacted] is [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU), who is [redacted] the person second from [redacted] is known as [redacted] the third person from the [redacted] the person in the [redacted] and the person at [redacted] are unknown to [redacted] the person second from the [redacted] is [redacted] the person on the far [redacted] is [redacted] name not known by [redacted] stated that he could have also seen this photograph in Cunanan's wallet, but was not sure [redacted] does not know who took the photograph.

Cunanan mostly smoked cigars, rarely cigarettes. He preferred "sweet" drinks.

[redacted] stated that he could not forget [redacted] friendship with Cunanan, but feels betrayed by Cunanan, and stated that he would not harbor him.

When Cunanan moved [redacted] agreed to pay Cunanan [redacted] would not disclose to the interviewing agents. [redacted] stated that he paid Cunanan an amount that Cunanan could have earned at a professional job. [redacted] paid Cunanan at the first of each month by check. [redacted] was interested in seeing to it that Cunanan was not working during this time, because [redacted] wanted Cunanan available to travel, and was good company. In addition to cash, [redacted] gave Cunanan a [redacted] for Cunanan's birthday [redacted] Cunanan [redacted] automobile for which he paid approximately [redacted] Cunanan maintained ownership of the car, [redacted] later heard that Cunanan had sold the [redacted]

At the end of [redacted] Cunanan left a note with [redacted] stating that the two were too different, and that Cunanan wanted to move out. [redacted] had no warning that Cunanan was planning on moving out. Even though [redacted] was never threatened by Cunanan, [redacted] felt concerned about the possibility of [redacted] As a result, [redacted] decided to pay Cunanan [redacted] as a severance. [redacted] paid Cunanan by check at the time when Cunanan came to the residence to pick up some books. After Cunanan moved out, [redacted] never attempted to reconcile.

[redacted] was advised by the interviewing agents of the existence of a [redacted] deposit into Cunanan's Bank of America account on [redacted]. This deposit was made subsequent to the [redacted] check from [redacted] deposited by Cunanan on [redacted] stated that he did not know where the [redacted] deposit came from. Cunanan did not have access to [redacted] credit cards, which consisted of [redacted] and [redacted] never gave either credit card to Cunanan and did not think it likely that Cunanan could have stolen his credit card numbers.

After Cunanan moved out [redacted] saw little of him. [redacted] would run into Cunanan occasionally at restaurants, but never met with him on a one-to-one basis. Several weeks before Cunanan left town, [redacted] heard from mutual friends that Cunanan was planning on moving to San Francisco. The second to last time [redacted] spoke to Cunanan was at the end of [redacted] or early [redacted] The meeting was very brief.

The last time [redacted] spoke to Cunanan was through a telephone call a day or two before the last weekend of [redacted] received the call at [redacted] at [redacted] Cunanan told [redacted] that he was calling from Minneapolis, Minnesota. He was sorry that things had not worked out, and was calling to say goodbye. Cunanan told [redacted] that he would be moving to San Francisco, and that maybe they would run into each other in San Francisco sometime. [redacted] assumed that Cunanan had contacted him because [redacted] had not been able to make any of Cunanan's going away dinner parties in San Diego in April 1997.

Some of the traveling Cunanan and [redacted] consisted of several trips to New York [redacted] a trip to Hawaii in [redacted] a trip to Florence, Italy in [redacted] The last trip Cunanan [redacted] took was a trip to the south of France in [redacted] During those trips, Cunanan [redacted] were together every day, and Cunanan did not have any friends at those locations. Cunanan did not speak of any particular favorite places. [redacted] was not surprised to hear that Cunanan may have been headed to New York following the murders, but had a hunch that Cunanan may have headed to the south beach area of Miami. Cunanan seemed to know the Miami area.

[redacted] was shown by the interviewing agents a copy of a photograph containing an unknown male individual standing next to a [redacted] with California license plate [redacted] identified the individual in the photograph as being [redacted] was also shown a copy of a photograph containing a group of unidentified individuals. [redacted] was unable to identify any of the individuals in the photograph.

[redacted] stated that the photographs he has seen of Cunanan in the media are good likenesses of Cunanan. Cunanan always seemed to wear the glasses that he is pictured with in the media photographs. In June 1996 Cunanan got the buzz cut. Cunanan normally does not wear any facial hair, but could easily grow a beard or mustache.

[redacted] stated that Cunanan was an occasional cigarette smoker, but smoked one to two cigars a day, preferring expensive Cuban cigars. During the time [redacted] Cunanan did not drink much, however, he told [redacted] that he had gone through drug and alcohol rehabilitation years earlier.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] at San Diego, California, on June 19,1997:

Telephonically contacted [redacted] date of birth [redacted] San Diego, California, home telephone number [redacted] California, telephone number [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] first met Andrew Cunanan, whom he knew as Andrew DeSilva, approximately [redacted] years ago through [redacted] rarely spoke to Cunanan, and saw him approximately once a month at social gatherings, dinners, or cocktail parties, [redacted]

Within the past year, Cunanan would call [redacted] to go to dinner, which [redacted] did a few times with Cunanan and other friends. On Wednesday, [redacted] had dinner with Cunanan at a restaurant in San Diego called the [redacted] During the dinner, Cunanan told [redacted] that he was moving to San Francisco. Cunanan told him that he had an apartment, friends, relatives, a daughter, and an ex-wife in San Francisco. Cunanan was his usual self at that time, which was the last time that [redacted] saw Cunanan. [redacted] was including [redacted] and was normally not a part of Cunanan's not [redacted] social group. [redacted] had met Jeffrey Trail through Cunanan and other people in,1996.

[redacted] believed that Cunanan moved in [redacted] after having a falling-out with his family. [redacted] had been invited by Cunanan to visit him at [redacted] house at [redacted] When Cunanan moved out [redacted] he did so by leaving only a note stating that he was planning other things in his life.

[redacted] had assumed that Cunanan had worked in the past, and at one point [redacted] offered Cunanan a job [redacted] which Cunanan did not accept. [redacted] believed that Cunanan had previously worked in a Thrifty Drug store in Rancho Bernardo as a pharmacist/clerk. Cunanan owned an [redacted]Infiniti, which he sold for approximately $20,000 [redacted] assumed that Cunanan had lived off the proceeds of the sale for months prior to leaving San Diego.

[redacted] stated that [redacted] had received a

UFAP - MURDER 2nd DEGREE

Synopsis: To request lab analysis of two shell casings and one projectile with those previously examined under lab number 70623023.

Details: On instant date at approximately 8:00 AM well known fashion designer, GIANNI VERSACE, was murdered outside his residence in Miami Beach, Florida. Two shell casings were covered at the scene as well as one projectile from the victim. All apparently of .40 caliber.

Witness description of the subject generally matched the physical description of FBI's top ten fugitive, ANDREW PHILIP CUNANAN.

Clothing matching the general description of that worn by the fleeing subject was located in a parking garage near the crime scene.

The clothing was laying on the ground next to a red pickup which was stolen from the scene of a murder in New Jersey which CUNANAN is also a suspect.

Synopsis: Lead to locate and apprehend captioned subject.

Reference: 88A-MP-47461 Serial 218

Enclosures: Enclosed for each Division is one copy of "America's Most Wanted" tip sheet pertaining to lead.

Details: Serial 218, EC to all offices, furnished information regarding captioned subject. Subject has been featured several times on "America's Most Wanted." Several viewers have called to offer information regarding possible sightings of the fugitive. Lead information from these callers is as follows:

[redacted] Miami Beach, Florida, reported seeing a man resembling captioned subject in the area of Washington and Sixth Street, South Beach, Miami Beach, Florida, in mid May. The man was described as approximately 6', 200 pounds, with crew-cut hair and glasses. [redacted] has The man was walking with six to seven other men. seen the man approximately three times.

88A-MP-47461-53

[redacted] telephone [redacted] reported that a man resembling captioned subject was staying at the Travel Lodge in Fond du Lac, Wisconsin, on 06/15/1997. The man was described as 26 to 27 years old, 5'10", 180 pounds, with short black hair in a feathered style. He was described as a clean cut, preppy, materialistic man who drove a 1990s model Yukon.

On 06/23/1997, a female reported suspicions about her brother's new roommate. The man now lives with the caller's brother at [redacted] New York City. The man was described as a nice, outgoing gay man from the west coast. The man was also described as in his late 20s, with dark hair, who goes by the name "Andrew." The man also wears wire-framed glasses.

[redacted] Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, telephone [redacted] reported that he was at the [redacted] (a gay bar) on [redacted] in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, when he was discussing the Cunanan case with other patrons. When [redacted] unfolded a picture of Andrew Cunanan which he had obtained from the FBI web site, a man sitting at the bar "bolted" from the bar, leaving behind an empty glass and cigarettes. The manager of the bar and a bartender preserved the glass and cigarettes for fingerprints.

[redacted] telephone [redacted] reported seeing a man resembling captioned subject at the Bagel Bakery, Old Keene Mill, Springfield, Virginia, in early June, 1997. The man was described as in his mid 30s, 5'11" to 6', 160 to 170 pounds, with a full head of dark brown hair. The man was a customer at the bakery and was alone. The man was driving a newer model red pickup truck with Maryland plates.

DAVID,

I KNEW IN MY HEART "SOMEDAY MY PRINTS WOULD COME." THANKS FOR THE CARE PACKAGE. "IT'S A BABY. DINGLE!" I CAN'T SEE YOUR BLUE EYES BECAUSE OF THE AVIATORS. P.B. — PUPPYSEED BAGEL (JUST HAD ONE). THE BOOK IS BEAUTIFUL! I PLAN TO LEAVE IT OUT IN A CONSPICUOUS PLACE AS EVIDENCE OF MY HIGH ERUDITION & EXALTED TASTE — POOR FOOLS IF THEY ONLY KNEW, HA! REALLY, THANK YOU. I THINK MAYBE YOU'RE KINDA SMART+

I'M A LITTLE UNDONE BECAUSE YOUR GIFTS WERE SO SWEET. THEY MADE ME FEEL GOOD ABOUT THE WORLD. I BREATHLESSLY AWAIT NEWS OF YOUR ARRIVAL. BY THE TIME YOU GET THIS I WILL BE INSTALLED IN MY N.Y. HOTEL WHERE I WILL BE SPENDING NEW YEARS. I CAN'T WAIT TO SEE YOU. UNTIL THEN I MUST CONTENT MYSELF WITH THESE PHOTOS IN HUES OF ICE. PEARL. MIST. ASH (NOT STARK, STYLISH) AND REMEMBER THROUGH-THE-VEIL-OF-IMAGINATION WITH THEM.

PHOENIX

DAVE,

PHOENIX IS A LARGE CITYLIKE AREA SURROUNDING THE RITZ-CARLTON. IT'S ABOUT 3000 MILES FROM MANHATTAN. THE TERRAIN HERE IS VARRIED AND RANGES FROM CLAY TO GRASS TO COMPOSITION, DEPENDING ON THE TYPE OF COURT YOU LIKE. J.T. SAYS THAT BECAUSE PHOENIX IS ON THE LARGE SIDE IT IS ADVISABLE TO PLAY CLOSE TO THE NET. PEOPLE ARE SUPPOSED TO COME HERE BECAUSE OF THE CLIMATE (NO DOUBT ATTRACTED BY THE PLEASANT GLARE AND FESTIVE AIR COLORS). THE PEOPLE AT CANYON-RANCH ARE ALL ON SPECIAL DIETS THAT RESTRICT THEIR INTAKE OF SYNTNETIC FOOD. (SYNTHETIC FOOD?) J.T. SAYS THAT ORGANICALLY GROWN FRUITS & VEGETABLES MAKE THE COCAINE WORK FASTER. THE PEOPLE ARE SO LIFELIKE! YOU REALLY HAVE TO WATCH FOR THE GOLD CHAINS & TURQUISE JEWELRY. THE ARCHITECTURE HERE IS BASICALLY THE PRODUCT OF A SOUTHWESTERN HERITAGE & A RICH INNER LIFE. HOUSES ARE DISTINGUISHABLE FROM PUBLIC BUILDINGS ONLY BY THE NUMBER OF CARS PARKED OUTSIDE. (IF THERE ARE OVER 12, THEY TAKE AMEX).

ST. JEAN CAP FERRAT IS VERY CUTE. LOTS OF BIG WHITE VILLAS, PRETTY BEACHES, FRENCH ACTORS, YACHTS, LAVISH PARTIES AND PEOPLE WHO SPEAK ENGLISH. I CAN'T WAIT TO GO BACK. PEOPLE THERE SPEND MOST OF THEIR TIME HAVING LUNCH, WHICH IS SOMETHING I DO VERY WELL. FRANCE IS

2401 E. CAMELBACK ROAD, PHOENIX, ARIZONA 85016 (602) 468-0700

VERY ACHITECTURAL AND THEY HAVE ART THERE
EVERYBODY ON THE RIVIERA IS BUSY. THE DIRECTORS ARE BUSY TRYING TO GET SOMETHING TO DIRECT,
THE PRODUCERS TO PRODUCE, THE BUYERS WANT SELLERS
AND THE SELLERS WANT BUYERS. AND THE WAITERS
ARE VERY BUSY TRYING NOT TO TAKE YOUR ORDER.
I'VE FOUND OUT THE BEST WAY TO MEET PEOPLE IS TO SIT IN A CAFE + ORDER A DRINK. A FEW HOURS LATER THE WAITER WILL BRING YOU ~~SOMEONE~~ ELSE'S BEER. YOU PICK IT UP AND HOLD IT OVER
YOUR HEAD + LOOK AROUND. A FEW TABLES AWAY
SOMEONE WILL BE HOLDING YOUR KAHLUA + CREAM
IN A QUIZZICAL POSITION AND YOU WILL BE ALL SET TO MAKE A NEW FRIEND (AND/OR DEAL.)

WENT TO THE NEW MUSEUM OF CONTEMPORARY
ART IN S.D. VERY COOL. MUCH COOLER THAN THE
S.F.M.C.M.A MET TWO GUYS THAT WORK WITH
ROBERT VENTURI ("OH, BOB.") WHATEVER. I AM NOW PLOTTING REVENGE. UNFORTUNATELY THE CLOCK HAS JUST CAUGHT MY EYE. I MUST GET GOING. I HAVE DECIDED AGAINST THE HALF AN ORANGE AND JAR OF PEANUTS
IN THE MINI-BAR AND ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT
HAVE DECIDED TO DINE OUT. I GUESS THAT'S JUST THE KIND OF BOY I AM — WHIMSICAL. DON'T WORK TOO HARD (BUT MAKE SURE JOHN IS PREPARED!).

DEAR DAVE.

CARNEVALE! CONFUSED MEMORY.

PROSCIUTTO & MELON FOR BREAKFAST OVERLOOKING THE GRAND CANAL. EVERY MORNING I WANDER THROUGH A MAZE OF STREETS & BRIDGES TO FLORIAN'S FOR COFFEE. SOMETIMES BOUNCING OVER THE LAGOON IN A RIVA ON A STREAM OF SUNLIT FOAM. SOMETIMES KEEPING PACE WITH THE ITALIANS (VERY SLOW, LIKE A GONDOLA). I AM SUCH A TOURIST! OH WELL. THE SOUND OF WATER LAPPING ON STONE IS EVERYWHERE. GARDENS HIDDEN BEHIND HIGH WALLS. LOTS OF SECRETS. I KINDA LIKE IT. THE PLACE IS IN DECAY. WHEN THE LIGHT IS FADING I LOOK AT THE FACADES AND THEY START TO DISSOLVE. LEPROUSY, YOU KNOW. THEY NEED FATHER DAMIAN FROM MOLOKAI. "WOODY ALLEN" CAME AFTER ALL!

THE NAME OF HIS JAZZ GROUP IS WOODY DAYS, WHAT'S HE THINKING? LIDO ROSSI IS HERE. HE SHOULD REBUILD LA FENICE, I AM A CIPHER AMIDST THE IMMENSE SPLEDORS OF THIS PLACE, I DON'T HAVE A MASK (BUT MY NATURAL ONE IS SO GOOD!) MORE DOGS. MORE THAN IN ASPEN EVEN. THEY BAING THEM TO RESTARAUNTS. PRINCETON WOULD BE VERY HAPPY CAUSE THERE AIN MOSTLY DALMATIONS HERE. I DID NOT SEND YOU A VALENTINE BUT I WISH YOU WERE MINE. I AM ENCLOSING THE FLORIAN LOGO WHICH I THINK LOOKS LIKE A HEART. "EUROPEAN MEN ARE SEXY. AMERICAN MEN ARE CUTE." — JOHN FABER THE PENCIL KING. NEVER THOUGHT ABOUT IT, BUT HE'S KINDA RIGHT. TOMMOROW IS THE BALL. BIPPITY-BOPPITY-BOOP! I WISH IT WERE THAT EASY. I MAY JUST STAY IN WITH MY 10-INCH PIANIST. NEXT WEEK I GO TO FIRENZE INCOGNITO.

PETER GABRIEL PRESENTA !HE ROCKED S.A V MARCO! UN BALLO IN MASCHERA WAS FUN. EVERYBODY KNEW I WAS AMERICAN! GEE, AM I THAT OBVIOUS? WATCHING THE SUNSET OVER THE ARNO. I WENT TO A COOL HOUSE IN VENICE BY CARLO SCARPA. 15TH C, OUTSIDE INSIDE CONTEMPORARY & VERY GOOD SPACE. YUM. WOODY ALLEN DOESN'T PERFORM UNTIL MARCH 1+2 SO I WILL MISS HIM. "MIGHTY APHRODITE" IS CALLED "LA DEA DELL'AMORE" HERE WHICH MEANS "THE GODDESS OF LOVE." IT DOESN'T RHYME, MAN !!! I CAN'T WAIT TO GET BACK TO THE STATES. FLORENCE IS COLD AND METALLIC & VERY DE CHIRICO THIS TIME OF YEAR. ARRIVED BY TRAIN THIS AFTERNOON. I ATE AT HARRY'S BAR IN VENICE ALMOST EVERY DAY & IT REALLY IS THE ONLY GOOD PLACE. WE HAD A HIGH TIDE & I HAD

TO WALK ON WOODEN PLANKS 'CAUSE THE STREETS WERE FLOODED. THE HOTEL WAS FLOODED TOO, SO OF COURSE I ASKED FOR A RATE REDUCTION. FLORENCE IS ONE OF ITALY'S GAY MECCAS SO I THINK I'LL GO OUT TONIGHT. THE LOCAL CLUB IS CALLED THE "CRISCO" WHICH IS NOT ENCOURAGING (AT LEAST, NOT TO ME ANYWAY). O.K. NOBODY WEARS B-BALL HATS HERE & THERE ARE NO BLONDES. LATER, WILL HAVE DINNER WITH SOME STUDENT FRIENDS AT ENOCOTECA PINCHIORI & I CAN SPEAK AMERICAN & BE VULGAR, YEAH! THE SHOPS HERE ARE NOT SO GOOD & I HAVEN'T BOUGHT A THING. I WILL BE BACK IN NEW YORK BEFORE YOU GET THIS & WILL TELL YOU ALL ABOUT CARNEVALE WHEN I CALL.

THIS IS SO BRADY BUNCH "THE HAWAIIAN EPISODES". EVEN THE HOTEL LOOKS LIKE A MIKE BRADY ORIGINAL. NEVER TOOK TO THE SKIES BUT DID GO OUT ON AN OUTRIGGER (I SUCK). TOOK THE BOYS TO DINNER & ALL IS FORGIVEN. THE ART HERE (NOTWITHSTANDING THE BUILDING WHICH HOUSES IT) IS ACHINGLY BEAUTIFUL. AT NIGHT THEY SHINE SPOTLIGHTS ON THE WATER AND YOU SEE GIANT MANTA RAYS! VERY LANGUID. I SLEEP 14 HOURS A DAY. FEEL SUSPENDED BETWEEN TWO WORLDS HERE. NOT PARADISE, BUT NOT MIAMI BEACH EITHER. GOOD BALANCE. MUST BE THE JAPANESE INFLUENCE. BEST SUSHI EVER! YOU PICK YOUR DINNER OUT SWIMMING IN A TANK AND THEN THEY SCOOP IT UP AND SUSHI IT. O.K. SO MUCH FOR THE ALOHA SPIRIT. THERE IS FUN HERE AND MUCH BEAUTY, BUT I WONDER IF ALL THE HOWLII'S (HAULIS) KNOW HOW LUCKY THEY ARE. I'M SURE I DON'T. BIG KISS FOR PRINTS, MANALO.

DEAR DAVID,

THIS HOTEL IS BEATIFUL. IT USED TO BE A JESUIT CLOISTER & JEAN-MICHEL WILMOTTE REMODELED IT. IT'S SO CHIC I ALMOST SCREAMED. MEDIEVAL & MODERN (& VERY QUIET) THE ROOMS HOWEVER ARE A BIT STARK & I MAY MOVE TOMMOROW TO THE HOTEL D'EUROPE. AVIGNON IS STILL FULL OF SCAMPS & VAMPS. CEST MOI, NE PAS? PLUS NOW THEY HAVE GREAT SHOPPING. WE PICKED UP A HITCH-HIKER & HE TURNED OUT TO BE COOL & GAY (QUEL SURPRISE!) & TO HAVE LIVED IN N.Y.C. NOW HE'S A WAITER AND WERE OFF TO HIS RESTAURANT TONIGHT. FD-302 (Rev. 10-6-95)

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 07-20-97

On Friday, July 18, 1997, [redacted] telephonically advised that he was the source of information for MAUREEN WORTH (sic), "journalist", who is writing an article for Vanity Fair Magazine. [redacted] explained that he was the person who advised WORTH that ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN had at one time met with GIANNI VERSACE, in San Francisco, at the opening of the San Francisco Opera in October of 1990.

[redacted] stated that he wanted to advise the FBI personally in view of the fact that WORTH was being pressured to divulge his name for investigative purposes.

[redacted] stated that during the gala celebrating the opening of the opera, he observed VERSACE approach CUNANAN and make a comment to the effect of: "Hi, how are you, I remember you from Lago di Como, No?" CUNANAN had replied "Yes," and VERSACE moved on. [redacted] did not observe any further contact, nor is aware of any further contact between CUNANAN and VERSACE. [redacted] explained that it appeared VERSACE knew CUNANAN, but [redacted] could not say whether or not VERSACE could have confused CUNANAN with someone else.

[redacted] explained that had there been any contact between CUNANAN and VERSACE, at any time, CUNANAN is the type of person who would be unable to keep from sharing that kind of information with anyone, especially [redacted] went on to explain that CUNANAN is such a pathological liar, that when he did tell the truth, there was usually confusion as to whether his statement/claim was the truth, or just another lie. [redacted] stated that CUNANAN never mentioned any other contact with VERSACE.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 7/18/97

On July 16, 1997, Detective (Det) [redacted] and Special Agent (SA) [redacted], both members of the Chicago Division's Fugitive Task Force (FTF) met with [redacted] The meeting took place at the [redacted] Illinois. The purpose of this meeting was to attempt to identify several of the items found in the Lexus found in New Jersey and items that were found at the crime scene in New Jersey.

The items that would be presented to both [redacted] were from the New Jersey State Police Crime Scene Evidence Log. Only those items which had some type of identifiable characteristics were presented in an attempt to identify ownership. This New Jersey State Police Crime Scene Evidence Log was provided to the Chicago Division by SA [redacted] of the South New Jersey RA.

The below list contains the items which were presented to [redacted] in an effort to identify the ownership:

b7C

1. One brown paper bag containing numerous newspapers. [redacted] indicated that it was common practice for [redacted] to cut out news clippings, but [redacted] would not keep these news clippings in a brown paper bag.

2. Numerous bundles of light colored paper. Both [redacted] indicated that without seeing these items they could not make a positive identification, but felt that if these items were blank pieces of paper that this was not consistent with items that would be in the Lexus.

3. One black paper shopping bag. (Banana Republic) Both [redacted] indicated that a shopping bag from the Banana Republic would not be consistent with an item that LEE MIGLIN would have in his vehicle.

CPD [redacted]

by SA [redacted] AT/bac

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

4. One set of jumper cables. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] kept jumper cables in the car.

5. Cloth gloves having black dots [redacted] indicated that if these gloves were work type gloves for gardening then that would be consistent with [redacted] having them in his vehicle. If they were other type gloves then he would have no knowledge of these.

6. Five plastic garbage bags. Both indicated not consistent for being in the vehicle.

7. One black suede shoe, "Salvatore Ferragamo" (right). [redacted] indicated that one of [redacted] shoes was missing from the crime scene and that the manufacturer brand of Ferragamo was consistent with [redacted] purchasing habits. It is believed that this is the victim's missing shoe from the crime scene.

b7C

8. One black umbrella with wooden handle. It was determined that this is consistent with what the victim would have had in his car.

9. Pair of blue cloth/gray leather tipped gloves and pair of tan suede gloves. [redacted] indicated that only if these were work gloves would they be consistent with [redacted] keeping them in the vehicle.

10. One pack of paper matches in brown paper bag. These matches would not be consistent as MIGLIN did not smoke.

11. Wire frame eyeglasses. These glasses would only have been in the vehicle if they had been reading glasses.

12. One black cap. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] had a snap type brim or news boy type cap that was kept in the vehicle.

13. Salem cigarette butts. These items would not be consistent with being in the vehicle as no one in the family smoked.

14. Black appointment book with pen and paper. Both [redacted] indicated that an appointment book would be consistent with being in the vehicle as MIGLIN would use it to write notes for business and personal reasons.

15. Eyeglasses in case. If they were reading glasses then it would be consistent. Could not make identification without seeing them.

16. Mini mag light with case. Both agreed it was consistent with being in the vehicle.

17. Xerox copy of real estate listing from Minneapolis. Both [redacted] indicated that the victim had no real estate connections in Minneapolis and would not be consistent with being in the vehicle.

b7C

18. Tooth brush. This was not consistent with being in the vehicle.

19. White cross brand stretch bandage. This was not consistent with being in the vehicle.

20. Sentinel newspaper. This was not consistent with being in the vehicle.

21. Wrigley's chewing gum (3 pack). This would be consistent with being in the vehicle.

22. A garage door opener-Stanley Manufacturer. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] had a new type of garage door opener described as a 1" by 2" gray plastic garage door opener which attached to a key ring. He did not believe that it was a Stanley brand.

23. Scissors with red handles. This was not consistent with being in the vehicle.

24. Assorted candy and wrappers. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] would have candy in the vehicle and favored butterscotch.

25. Gold pocket comb. This would be consistent with being in the vehicle.

26. Assorted United States coins totaling a $1.95 in a plastic film holder with lid, 35mm (two). [redacted] indicated that [redacted] would keep quarters in the 35mm plastic film holders.

27. Chicago road map. [redacted] indicated that it was possible that this may have been in the vehicle.

28. Creative thinking cassette album. [redacted] identified that as [redacted]

29. One creative thinking cassette tape. Identified as belonging to LEE MIGLIN. b7

30. Garage door opener, Stanley brand. Again, it depends on the size and description if it was consistent with the garage door opener owned by [redacted]

31. Key ring with three keys. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] kept three house keys on a ring one of which was a special pick proof key which could not be copied. [redacted]

32. Black wallet with assorted credit cards and driver's license. This would be consistent with [redacted] and this wallet would contain family photographs.

33. Lexus owner's book with paperwork. Would be consistent with being in vehicle.

34. Black envelope containing men's cologne. Would be consistent with being in vehicle.

35. Silver pliers, Lexus. Consistent with being in vehicle.

36. New York City pocket atlas. [redacted] said [redacted] was familiar with New York City and did not believe [redacted] would keep a atlas in the vehicle. He had never personally seen a New York City atlas, but if [redacted] had one it would be kept in the house and only used in the vehicle for travel purposes.

37. Lexus tool kit. Consistent with being in vehicle.

This concludes the items that were read to [redacted] from the New Jersey Evidence Log.

[redacted] were questioned with regard to the $50.00 gold piece pawned by CUNANAN in Miami Beach. Both [redacted] indicated that this would not have been in MIGLIN's possession. They had no knowledge of LEE MIGLIN possessing a $50.00 gold piece. They were also questioned with regards to the prescription glasses found in a gold colored sack. They indicated once again that LEE MIGLIN had prescription reading glasses which were purchased by his wife from Walgreen's, but they were not kept in a gold colored sack.

Both [redacted] were questioned with regard to any knowledge of any connection LEE MIGLIN would have had with VERSACE. They denied any knowledge of LEE MIGLIN having any connection either personally or of a business nature with VERSACE.

[redacted] were questioned with regard to the pre-printed label found containing LEE MIGLIN's name. They indicated that in fact LEE MIGLIN had a lot of magazines, some at his residence and some at the business. They indicated that they would have to see the label to make any further identification as to the possible location of the magazine as being taken from the residence or kept in the vehicle.

They were questioned with regard to a piece of paper found in the New Jersey Crime Scene Investigation which contained sayings which are commonly referred to as tongue tied sayings.

These sayings are commonly used in speech therapy. Both [redacted] indicated that they had no knowledge of LEE MIGLIN ever keeping this type of item in his wallet.

This interview did reveal, however, that several items which should have been in the Lexus have yet to be recovered. [redacted] indicated that [redacted] wallet should have contained photographs of the family. One photograph would have been of LEE MIGLIN, [redacted] and the [redacted] Another photograph that [redacted] kept in the wallet was of [redacted]. A third photograph that was missing from the wallet would be of [redacted] taken when [redacted] The last photograph would have been of LEE MIGLIN [redacted]

[redacted] also indicated that [redacted] kept at least six CDS in the vehicle which would have been characterized as easy listening type music. [redacted] was fond of "Jackie Gleason" and would have had at least one of his CDS in the vehicle. b7

[redacted] indicated that LEE MIGLIN kept at least three business files in the vehicle. They were described as brown paper having the appearance of leather. An elastic band was attached to secure the folder shut. Of the three folders, one folder was kept for the business at 181 West Madison Street, Chicago, Illinois. The second folder was for items connected with [redacted] Illinois. The third business folder contained business papers for whatever project [redacted] was working on at the present.

Due to the suspicious circumstances surrounding a bible found at the New Jersey Crime Scene, [redacted] was questioned regarding anything of an unusual nature connected with any bibles at the residence. [redacted] advised that there may be possibly one or two bibles in [redacted] but nothing of an unusual nature had been noted with regards to them. He indicated that if something was found to be out of the ordinary he would contact the FBI.

It should be noted that in an attempt by [redacted] to identified these items they both expressed a desire to actually see these items in person or photographs of these items to make any positive identification.

The following investigation was conducted by Detective (Det) [redacted] and Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Chicago Division's Fugitive Task Force (FTF) on July 18, 1997:

AT CHICAGO, ILLINOIS:

Information had been received prior to this date from CHICAGO POLICE DEPARTMENT (CPD) Det [redacted], assigned to Area 3 Violent Crimes Unit, that an individual, [redacted] had contacted the CPD to advise that he was a male prostitute who had in the past had sexual relations with LEE MIGLIN and ANDREW CUNANAN. In response to this information, arrangements were made [redacted] for an interview to be conducted at his residence on [redacted]

Det [redacted] and SA [redacted] accompanied by Det [redacted] responded to [redacted] residence where an interview revealed the following information in summary:

[redacted] described himself as a male prostitute, using the word "rent boy" as a common term used in the "Gay Community" to describe a male prostitute. He indicated that he had been involved in this occupation for years and had used the proceeds from this business to pay his way through college.

As a matter of practice in this occupation, he placed an ad beginning in [redacted] a magazine called the [redacted] This ad ran from [redacted] until [redacted] It cost $13.00 a week to place the ad. He could not recall the exact words of the ad, but believed it would have been words to the affect, "New in town, young college boy looking to meet discriminating gentlemen". The ad gave his voice mail pager of [redacted] as a contact number.

[redacted] indicated that he believed it would be possible to contact the [redacted] and obtain a copy of the ad as it had appeared in the past.

As a result of this ad, several customers responded. In Autumn of [redacted] an individual left a message on his voice mail with regards to the ad. This individual was named either Tadd, Todd or Tom. [redacted] could not recall the exact name that this individual had used at the time. Eventually, [redacted] called back and a meeting was set up. [redacted] was told to go to a corner located somewhere in the area of [redacted] in the area of [redacted] He could not recall the exact intersection, but he remembered that he had parked his car near the [redacted]

[redacted] A time was set up in the evening hours and as agreed upon, he stood on the corner. Eventually, a 2-door large auto pulled up. He described this car as being two tone in color, possibly a Cadillac or Oldsmobile. In the vehicle at the time were two occupants. The younger of the two occupants was driving the vehicle and would later be described by [redacted] as ANDREW CUNANAN. The older gentlemen was seated in the front passenger seat and would later be described by [redacted] as LEE MIGLIN. [redacted] recalled that the vehicle was a 2-door, because MIGLIN had to bend forward and pull the seat forward so [redacted] could get into the backseat. They drove to the area of [redacted] and [redacted] Street. He believed they parked at or near [redacted] Street and [redacted] Street near the [redacted] They walked a short distance to a building described by [redacted] as possibly being a 12 flat. They went to an apartment which was located on the 1st floor above the lobby. It was a one bedroom apartment. Once inside, they had one cocktail and he [redacted] performed [redacted] to both the older gentlemen (MIGLIN) and the younger gentlemen (CUNANAN). The price had been set at $140.00 for what [redacted] described as "a 50 minute hour". He was paid cash and then given $10.00 or $15.00 to take a cab back to his car which was parked near [redacted]

[redacted] advised that in this type of business, he did not use his real name and used the made up name of "Daniel". The older man, however, was introduced to him as "Lee" and again the younger man had either the name of "Tom", "Tadd" or "Todd".

Approximately 1 or 2 weeks later, he received a second call on his voice mail from either "Lee" or "Todd". He was told to come directly to the building, which he did. Once inside the lobby, using a cellular phone that he carried called up to the apartment and was buzzed in. [redacted] indicated that there was a doorman on duty at the building both times he went there.

On this second encounter, he related that they drank some white wine and talked more freely than in the first encounter. During the conversations this time, [redacted] mentioned that he was interested in going to college in Europe. "Lee" told him about locations that he was familiar with. In addition, "Lee" spoke of the fact that [redacted] was involved in someway with the "Home Shopping Network".

He eventually performed [redacted] on both "Lee" and "Todd" and left. This was the last time that he would have sexual relations with either of these individuals.

Possibly a month or two later, he ran into "Todd" at a gay bar called the [redacted] located at [redacted] and [redacted] in Chicago. [redacted] saw "Todd" inside the establishment and did not approach him, however, "Todd" did buy [redacted] a drink. No conversation took place.

[redacted] indicated that he had only seen "Lee" one other time. He could not recall exactly, but believed it was some months later when he had an occasion to run into "Lee" in a store. "Lee" was with another couple and he did not approach him or have any conversation with him. When he made eye contact with LEE, he [redacted] simply nodded.

When asked to describe the individual he referred to as "Lee", he described him as a white male, approximately 5'10", medium build, being at least 55 years of age and having fat fingers. He believed he remembered seeing a gold "pinky ring" having a red or purple stone on "Lee's" hand. [redacted] indicated that since the news coverage with regard to CUNANAN, he has on numerous occasions seen photographs of LEE MIGLIN [redacted] on TV and is positive that the individual referred to as "Lee" is in fact LEE MIGLIN.

When asked to describe the individual referred to earlier as "Todd", "Tadd" or "Tom", [redacted] indicated that he was in his early 20s, approximately 5'10", medium build and having no glasses. In the news coverage with regards to the investigation of CUNANAN, [redacted] indicated that the earlier photographs which depicted him with glasses and much thinner did not look like the person he referred to as "Todd". It was only recently when the news media showed the photograph dated April of 1997 in which he is not wearing glasses and his face is heavier did he realize that this individual was in fact the person with MIGLIN when they had sex.

At the time of this interview, [redacted] advised that he is a [redacted] and is currently [redacted] of this interview. He indicated that he would be willing and able to find the exact address of the building and be able to point out the exact apartment where the sexual encounters took place, once [redacted] and he was relieved of his [redacted]

[redacted] added that in his conversations with "Todd", he remembered that "Todd" told him that he also was a male prostitute, "rent boy", and that he ("Todd") had placed ads in a national gay magazine called the "Advocate Classified".

[redacted] advised that it is common knowledge in the "Gay Community" that LEE MIGLIN is "Gay". It is also rumored that [redacted]

It should be noted that during the course of this interview, [redacted] hoped that he was not the only individual to come forward to expose MIGLIN's gay life style. In addition, he was not providing this information to "dirty MIGLIN's name", but was attempting to assist in this investigation. He explained that whatever MIGLIN's sexual preference was, it was no reason for him to have been murdered.

At the conclusion of the interview, it was understood that [redacted] would obtain the exact address and apartment for the location he was taken to and secondly, he would attempt to obtain a copy of his ad as it appeared in the [redacted]

SUBJECT ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN

FILE NUMBER 88A-MP-47461 SECTION # 11

Federal Bureau of Investigation

88A-MP-47461
RLH:rlh

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent (SA) [redacted] of the Miami Division, Palm Beach County Resident Agency (PBCRA), on July 16-17, 1997, while in the capacity of Duty Agent.

On July 16, 1997, SA [redacted] delivered copies of the Wanted Poster of ANDREW CUNANAN, to the Watch Commanders at Lake Worth Police Department, Boynton Beach Police Department and Palm Beach Police Department. The Watch Commanders were asked to distribute the flyers to the officers and asked they check any gay bars in their respective cities.

SA [redacted] received a telephone call at approximately 11:30 p.m. from Boynton Beach Police, Sgt. [redacted] Sgt. [redacted] had received a telephone call from [redacted] Florida, telephone number [redacted] Ms. [redacted] told Sgt. [redacted] she had seen a man whom she thought was ANDREW CUNANAN, while she was in [redacted] located at [redacted] Boynton Beach, Florida. Sgt. [redacted] advised officers were sent to [redacted] Bar and did not locate the subject there. Officers also checked area motels for the subject, but did not locate him.

SA [redacted] called Ms. [redacted] at her residence at approximately 11:35 p.m. Ms. [redacted] advised she was with her husband sitting at the bar next to a good looking young man in his middle twenties. The subject drew attention to himself by commenting to Ms. [redacted] about the homicide of Gianni Versace, and the individual who was being sought in the homicide. Ms. [redacted] had not heard the news and felt uncomfortable talking to the subject. The subject introduced himself as [redacted] and commented he was from [redacted] and [redacted] Ms. [redacted] thought the topic was unusual for the subject to bring up, because the bar had Karaoke going, and there was not any television on in the bar at the time. When Ms. [redacted] and her husband went home at approximately 10:00 p.m. they saw the news and thought the subject they had been talking to, had a strong resemblance to CUNANAN.

A request was received from SA [redacted] to obtain information on missing subjects from the last sixty days from Palm Beach County. Lt. [redacted] of the Palm Beach Sheriff's's Office compiled a list of three individuals: [redacted] PBSO case # [redacted]; [redacted] PBSO case # [redacted]; [redacted] PBSO case # [redacted]. Copies of the reports were to be faxed from Lt. [redacted] to Miami, SA [redacted] July 17, 1997.

ARMED AND EXTREMELY DANGEROUS; ARMED WITH A .40 CALIBER SEMI-AUTOMATIC.

RE TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN SA [redacted] ATLANTA DIVISION, AND SA [redacted] MIAMI DIVISION, ON 7/19/97; REFERENCE TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN SA [redacted] ATLANTA DIVISION, AND SA [redacted] ON 7/20/97; REFERENCE TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN SA [redacted] ATLANTA DIVISION, AND MINNEAPOLIS DIVISION, ON 7/20/97; AND REFERENCE TELETYPE FROM MINNEAPOLIS TO ATLANTA, DATED 7/21/97.

AS PER THE REFERENCED TELEPHONE CONVERSATION BETWEEN SA [redacted] AND SA [redacted] TELEPHONE NUMBER [redacted] WAS A NON-PUBLISHED TELEPHONE NUMBER. THROUGH THE ASSISTANCE OF BELLSOUTH TELEPHONE COMPANY, THE ATLANTA DIVISION DETERMINED THAT THAT NUMBER IS SUBSCRIBED TO BY [redacted] GEORGIA. WITH THE ASSISTANCE OF THE [redacted] GEORGIA POLICE DEPARTMENT, THE ATLANTA DIVISION CONDUCTED A DISCREET NEIGHBORHOOD INVESTIGATION SURROUNDING [redacted] RESIDENCE PERTAINING TO THE SUBJECT WITH NEGATIVE RESULTS. IN ADDITION, NO POSSIBLE VEHICLES THAT HAD BEEN ASSOCIATED WITH THE SUBJECT WERE

PRESENT AT THE RESIDENCE. THEREAFTER, BUAGENTS AND OFFICERS OF THE [redacted] POLICE DEPARTMENT CONFRONTED [redacted] AT THE ABOVE [redacted] ADDRESS.

[redacted] PROVIDED HIS BIOGRAPHICAL INFORMATION AS A [redacted] DOB: [redacted] SSAN: [redacted] POB [redacted] EMERGENCY CONTACT NUMBER: [redacted] GEORGIA, [redacted] VERIFIED THAT HE DID KNOW THE SUBJECT, AND HAD MET HIM WHEN HE LIVED IN THE SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA AREA IN EARLY [redacted] HE EXPLAINED THAT HE MOVED FROM THE ATLANTA, GEORGIA AREA IN [redacted] AND MOVED TO [redacted] TO BE WITH FRIENDS AND LIVE NEAR THE BEACH. WHILE RESIDING IN SAN DIEGO, HE MET THE SUBJECT WHILE FREQUENTED GAY CLUBS IN THAT AREA. HE DESCRIBED HIS RELATIONSHIP WITH THE SUBJECT AS ONLY ACQUAINTANCES AND THAT THEY MET ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS WHEN THEY WERE AT THE DIFFERENT NIGHT CLUBS. [redacted] ADVISED THAT HE KNEW THE SUBJECT BY THE NAME ANDREW DESILVA.

b7C

[redacted] WAS ASKED BY THE ATLANTA DIVISION WHY HE HAD NOT CONTACTED THE FBI OR LAW ENFORCEMENT AUTHORITIES PERTAINING TO HIS KNOWLEDGE OF THE SUBJECT. [redacted] ADVISED THAT HE HAD

BEEN IN CONTACT WITH AN AGENT WHO HAD INITIALLY E-MAILED HIM APPROXIMATELY ONE MONTH PRIOR TO THIS INTERVIEW, AND IDENTIFIED HIMSELF AS [redacted] FBI NEWARK, TELEPHONE NUMBER [redacted] IN ADDITION, [redacted] ADVISED THAT HE PROVIDED HIS KNOWLEDGE OF THE SUBJECT TO [redacted] THROUGH E-MAIL AND VIA TELEPHONE CONVERSATION.

[redacted] ADVISED THAT HE WAS IN [redacted] FROM [redacted] UNTIL HIS RETURN TO THE ATLANTA AREA IN [redacted] DURING THAT PERIOD OF TIME, HE FREQUENTED CLUBS WITH THE SUBJECT ON NUMEROUS OCCASIONS, BUT WAS NEVER AWARE OF WHERE THE SUBJECT LIVED. [redacted] DID ADVISE THAT THE ONLY ASSOCIATE THAT HE RECALLS THE SUBJECT BEING VERY CLOSE TO IN THE SAN DIEGO AREA, WAS A [redacted] THAT HE KNEW BY THE NAME OF [redacted] WHO HE RECALLED DROVE A [redacted] HE REMEMBERED THAT THE SUBJECT AND [redacted] WERE ALWAYS TOGETHER, AND APPEARED TO BE A COUPLE.

[redacted] DESCRIBED THE SUBJECT AS BEING VERY SMART, AND ACTED LIKE HE WAS WEALTHY. HE DOES NOT RECALL WHAT EMPLOYMENT THE SUBJECT CLAIMED HE WAS IN TO. [redacted] ADVISED THAT HE HAD HEARD THROUGH THE NEWS REPORT THAT THE SUBJECT WAS INTO DRUGS AND PROSTITUTION. [redacted] WAS NEVER AWARE OF THE SUBJECT

BEING A PROSTITUTE, NOR DID HE EVER SEE HIM USING ANY DRUGS. IN ADDITION, HE RARELY SAW THE SUBJECT CONSUME ALCOHOL.

[redacted] RECALLED THAT DURING HIS CONVERSATION WITH FBI NEWARK, HE HAD PROVIDED THEM WITH AN ASSOCIATE OF THE SUBJECT THAT HE KNEW BY THE NAME OF [redacted] (LNU), WHO LIVED IN THE [redacted] AT TELEPHONE NUMBER [redacted].

[redacted] ADVISED THAT HE IS CURRENTLY RESIDING AT [redacted] RESIDENCE WITH [redacted] DOB: [redacted] POB: [redacted] SSAN: [redacted] EMERGENCY CONTACT NUMBER: [redacted] TELEPHONE NUMBER [redacted]

67C [redacted] IS CURRENTLY LEASING THE RESIDENCE AT [redacted] AND IS EMPLOYED WITH [redacted] GEORGIA, [redacted]

[redacted] ADVISED THAT HE HAS NOT HEARD FROM OR SEEN THE SUBJECT SINCE HE LEFT THE SAN DIEGO AREA. HE DOES NOT BELIEVE THAT THE SUBJECT KNOWS HIS CURRENT WHEREABOUTS, BUT WAS AWARE THAT HE HAD MOVED FROM SAN DIEGO TO [redacted]. [redacted] IS WILLING TO COOPERATE WITH AUTHORITIES AND WILL CONTACT THE ATLANTA DIVISION PERTAINING TO ANY NEW INFORMATION HE MAY OBTAIN PERTAINING TO THE SUBJECT'S WHEREABOUTS.

THE ATLANTA DIVISION DID CANVAS [redacted] THROUGH NCIC PERTAINING TO A CRIMINAL HISTORY, WITH NEGATIVE RESULTS.

AS PER THE REFERENCED TELEPHONE CALL BETWEEN SA [redacted] AND THE MINNEAPOLIS DIVISION, ON 7/20/97, THE ATLANTA DIVISION TELEPHONICALLY CONTACTED [redacted] AT [redacted]

[redacted]

CONNECTICUT, TELEPHONE NUMBER [redacted] STATED THAT HE KNEW THE SUBJECT, AND HAD MET HIM APPROXIMATELY FOUR YEARS PRIOR TO THIS INTERVIEW AT A PARTY IN SAN DIEGO, CALIFORNIA. [redacted] EXPLAINED THAT HE IS FROM [redacted] AND IS

b7C CURRENTLY [redacted] THE HARTFORD AREA. [redacted] PROVIDED THE NAME [redacted]

[redacted] GEORGIA, TELEPHONE NUMBER [redacted] HE ADVISED THAT [redacted] IS AN ASSOCIATE OF THE SUBJECT, AND THAT IN HIS OPINION THE SUBJECT MAY BE IN CONTACT WITH HIM. [redacted] FURTHER STATED THAT HE HAD NO POSITIVE INFORMATION THAT THE SUBJECT WAS IN CONTACT WITH [redacted] BUT BECAUSE [redacted] AND THE SUBJECT HAD BEEN CLOSE ASSOCIATES IN THE SAN DIEGO AREA, HE FELT THAT

[redacted] last saw Cunanan in late [redacted] in front of the [redacted] in San Diego. It was during this encounter that [redacted] advised Cunanan that he was employed at [redacted]. Although Cunanan does not have [redacted] home telephone number, [redacted] is certain that Cunanan will stop in [redacted] on his way to San Diego to attend the San Diego Gay Pride celebration, scheduled for the weekend of July 26-27, 1997. Cunanan volunteered to [redacted], but furnished no other particulars. [redacted] is unaware of other individuals [redacted] area whom Cunanan is familiar with. Cunanan did mention to [redacted]

According to [redacted] Cunanan's behavior was not unusual. [redacted] did notice, however, that Cunanan dressed differently. Instead of his usual "preppy" look, Cunanan was sporting baggy Abercombie and Fitch pants and shirt, and was wearing a baseball hat, presumably because he had shaved his hair off. [redacted] also noticed that Cunanan, who loves shoes, was still wearing his "Clark's", Cunanan's preferred brand. Cunanan, who always had a "wad of cash" usually shopped at Nordstrom's and always paid in cash. [redacted] never observed Cunanan in possession of a credit card. Cunanan did not mention to [redacted] that he had contracted AIDS, although a rumor to that effect had been circulating throughout the gay community in San Diego.

[redacted] described Cunanan as being very promiscuous. Cunanan is attracted to younger military-type males, preferably shorter than Cunanan, with short blond hair. Cunanan was known to frequent [redacted]. [redacted] recalled that Cunanan was acquainted with a [redacted] last name unknown to [redacted]. [redacted] was not aware if Cunanan and [redacted] LNU were sexually intimate but remembers hearing that [redacted] LNU was a very good friend of [redacted]. [redacted] was uncertain as to the identity of said victim. Further, Cunanan was also a friend of [redacted] LNU's ex-lover, a former [redacted] possibly named [redacted] is originally from [redacted]. Other locations which Cunanan frequented are: [redacted], where Cunanan would prostitute himself to older gay males; [redacted], a gay bar; [redacted], a lesbian bar; [redacted], two other gay bars; and the [redacted] all located in the [redacted] of San Diego. Cunanan also spent a lot of time at the University of San Diego (USD), where he played the part of a student and where he often picked up young gay males. Cunanan was also known to often visit Tijuana, Mexico.

Cunanan may have been sexually involved with an individual by the last name of [redacted] (phonetic) who resides in [redacted]. Another individual from [redacted] area that Cunanan may have been sexually involved with is an individual named [redacted], first name possibly [redacted]. Another older gay male whom Cunanan may have been intimate with is an [redacted]. Cunanan was very fond of [redacted] name unrecalled by [redacted] whom Cunanan claimed was [redacted] also remembered Cunanan once stated that he was previously married but never mentioned any specifics concerning his ex-wife. [redacted] speculated that Cunanan was not very close to his parents because Cunanan once confided in [redacted] that they were not aware that he was gay.

Regarding Cunanan's character, [redacted] described Cunanan as being very loud and obnoxious and always has to be the center of attention. Cunanan has a very distinct voice and laughs very loudly. Cunanan will never admit being wrong. Cunanan is not a leader and would be more aptly characterized as a provider. Cunanan more often than not [redacted]

[redacted]. Cunanan boasted that he lived on money he inherited from his parents. [redacted] recalled that Cunanan once displayed a picture to him of a large house where Cunanan claimed to reside. Cunanan later admitted that he did not reside at said house. [redacted] learned that Cunanan made a living by being a "kept Boy" (the equivalent of having a "sugar daddy") and by prostituting himself to older gay males, primarily in [redacted] in Los Angeles. According to [redacted], young white males at the above noted bars are routinely approached by older gay males, mostly on weekend nights, who are willing to pay from $150 to $500, depending on the sexual activity sought. Cunanan always bragged of his acquaintance with celebrities. [redacted] was unable to remember any of the celebrities mentioned by Cunanan because he never took Cunanan's boasts seriously, but was positive that Gianni Versace's name was never mentioned by Cunanan. [redacted] was certain that if Cunanan had met Versace before their last encounter, Cunanan would've mentioned meeting Versace to [redacted]

b7D

[redacted] continued by advising that Cunanan never exhibited any violent behavior. When confronted, Cunanan would merely stare back, fire a short vocal burst, and walk away. In spite of all his faults, Cunanan was always willing to assist his friends, financially and otherwise, and [redacted] never had a reason to distrust him. [redacted] who was somewhat doubtful that Cunanan was responsible of the allegations against him, never saw Cunanan while in possession of a handgun, nor any other weapon. [redacted] opined that if Cunanan is indeed guilty of the accusations against him, he is relishing his notoriety and is likely to "go out with a bang" by doing something even bigger that killing Gianni Versace, and then surrendering to authorities or killing himself. [redacted] also advised that Cunanan is too intelligent to be cornered and is able to mix in any type of social setting and not be identified.

[redacted] is certain that Cunanan will somehow manage to attend the upcoming San Diego Gay Pride celebration. [redacted] was also of the opinion that Cunanan may also attend the New Orleans "Day of Decadence," scheduled for the Labor Day weekend. In addition to the Gay Pride celebration, Cunanan may also attempt to attend the Gay Rodeo, scheduled in San Diego during the month of August. In addition to the San Diego Gay Pride parade, other popular events which Cunanan may take in include: The Broadway street pier dance; the gay royal celebration scheduled to take part at the U.S. Grant Hotel on July 26, 1997; a San Diego to Coronado harbor cruise; [redacted] or any of numerous "roof-top" and private parties that will be taking place throughout the gay district of San Diego. Cunanan is not likely to visit any of his previous hang-outs but is very likely to sneak into one of many beer tents that will be set up during the celebration, which 70,000 people are anticipated to attend. [redacted] also opined that Cunanan may have attended the New York and/or South Beach, Florida, Gay Pride celebrations held approximately two weeks ago.

b7D

As far as Cunanan's habits and routines, [redacted] offered that Cunanan enjoys conversing with friends in coffee houses; hanging out by the beach or boardwalks; loves big dogs, particularly Rottweilers and Dobermans; and started smoking cigars in 1996.

[redacted] agreed to immediately contact the Federal Bureau of Investigation if contacted by Cunanan.

COMPLAINT

The Complainant, being duly sworn, makes Complaint to the above-named Court and states that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed the following offense(s). The Complainant states that the following facts establish PROBABLE CAUSE:

Your complainant is an investigator employed by the Chisago County Sheriff's Department. In that capacity, your complainant has reviewed police reports relating to the above-named defendant and the allegations contained herein. Based upon that information, your complainant believes the following to be true and correct.

On May 3, 1997, two fishermen discovered the body of an adult male lying in the grass near the shoreline of East Rush Lake. The fishermen contacted the Chisago County Sheriff's Department, who dispatched deputies to the scene. When the deputies arrived, they observed a deceased male who appeared to be in his late twenties/early thirties. In a cursory visual examination of the body, deputies observed what appeared to be bullet wounds to the decedent's head. Officers also noted in the grass near the body, tracks where a motor vehicle pulled into the area, drove in a circle, and then drove back out.

The officers then conducted a search of the area, discovering two empty casings for a .40 caliber Remington/Peters ammunition, along with a remote entry system and keys for a Chrysler product motor vehicle. The decedent did not have any identification on his person. The body was then taken to the coroner's office where an autopsy was to be conducted. The Chisago County Sheriff's Department then released information regarding the unidentified male being found near Rush Lake. The information included the height, weight, hair color, and approximate age of the decedent.

Shortly thereafter, Investigator Rivard of the Chisago County Sheriff's Department was contacted by Minneapolis Police Sergeant Tichich, who told Investigator Rivard that the gunshot victim found near Rush Lake fit the description of a person they were looking for regarding a homicide investigation in Minneapolis. Sergeant Tichich told Investigator Rivard the party they were looking for was named David Madson. Sergeant Tichich then shared information regarding the Minneapolis investigation.

On April 29, 1997, the caretaker for the apartment building located at 280 2nd Avenue North in Minneapolis was contacted by a co-worker of David Madson, the tenant in Apartment 404 of her building. The co-worker told the caretaker that David Madson had not been to work the last two days and that the co-worker was concerned for his well-being. The co-worker then requested the caretaker to check Madson's apartment. The caretaker then enlisted the aid of another resident and went to David Madson's apartment, number 404, and entered using the pass key. Inside the apartment they saw what they thought was a person lying on the floor wrapped in a heavy rug. They also saw blood on the floor and the back of the front door to the apartment. The caretaker and friend then left the apartment and called the police.

The Minneapolis Police Department conducted an investigation, which revealed the victim found in Madson's apartment was one Jeffrey Trail, an acquaintance of Madson's. When the officers determined it wasn't Madson, whose body was in the rug, they received a search warrant for the apartment. Found in the search of the apartment was a claw hammer with a blood-like substance on it. Also found was a nylon gym-type bag with Andrew Cunanan's name on it. Inside the bag was an empty holster for a handgun and a box of Remington/Peters brand .40 caliber Golden Saber bullets, 15 live rounds in the box, 10 rounds having been removed. A gun was not located in the apartment.

While the police were conducting their investigation, a friend of Madson's arrived at the apartment building. The friend was identified as Ms. Salvetti. Ms. Salvetti indicated she had come to the apartment due to her concern for Madson as she had heard from another friend that he hadn't been to work for two days. Ms. Salvetti then shared that she had gone to dinner with with Madson and a friend of his, Andrew Cunanan, who was visiting from California, on Friday night, April 25, 1997 at Nye's Restaurant. On Saturday, April 26, 1997, Madson called her to see if she wanted to go dinner with them, however, she had plans. On Sunday morning, April 27, 1997, she spoke to Madson who told her that he and Cunanan had gone to dinner at the Monte Carlo Restaurant. They then went dancing at the Gay 90's. Cunanan then went to stay with another friend, who Ms. Salvetti knew as T.J. or J.T.

Ms. Salvetti also told the officers that Madson and Cunanan were homosexual and had been intimate. Madson told Ms. Salvetti that Cunanan was secretive and elusive and thought he may be into something "shady" so he put an end to the intimacy of their relationship. Ms. Salvetti told the officers that Madson met Cunanan while visiting friends of his, Karen Lapinski and Evan Wallit, in California. Ms. Salvetti did not speak to Madson after Sunday morning, April 27, 1997.

Minneapolis officers spoke to a neighbor of Madson's, Jessie Schedoan, who told them on Sunday evening, April 27, 1997, he heard some unusual noises coming from Apartment 404. He recalled hearing someone in a very loud voice yell something to the effect of "Get the fuck out." He then heard the wall shaking and thud-like noises. He stated that the yelling and shaking continued for 30 to 45 seconds, then stopped. He went to the hallway after hearing the noises, but didn't see anyone. He then heard the sound of running water coming from Apartment 404.

While processing Madson's apartment, officers observed that his phone was equipped with a caller ID unit, and when the phone rang at a time indicated as 11:05, the call which was not answered came from number 941-5390. The subscriber of that number was J. Trail.

A police officer then called that number and spoke to Jon Hackett. Hackett told the officer that he is homosexual and has an intimate relationship with Jeff Trail. He had called David Madson's apartment to see if Madson knew of Trail's whereabouts. Hackett told the officers he had reported Jeff Trail missing to the Bloomington Police Department.

Hackett told the officer that he last spoke to Jeff Trail Sunday, April 27, 1997 about 9:00 p.m. Trail told him he was going to meet Andrew at a coffee shop near the Gay 90's and that he would walk to the Gay 90's and meet Jon. Trail told Jon Hackett that Andrew planned on staying that night at David Madson's. Hackett told the officers that Trail never met him that night, nor did he show up for work Monday as they both work for Ferrell Gas Company.

During the autopsy of Trail, his watch was observed to have stopped at 9:55 on April 27, 1997.

On May 6, 1997, Investigator Rivard spoke to Karen Lapinski and Evan Wallit. They told Rivard that they knew both Cunanan and Madson. Cunanan had told them that he was coming to Minnesota to take care of some business matters with Jeff Trail and to see David Madson. Lapinski told Investigator Rivard that Cunanan and Madson were homosexual and had been intimate, however, Madson was apprehensive about Cunanan.

Also, on May 6, 1997, Investigator Rivard spoke to an individual who stated that on May 2, 1997 he was returning to Pine City from the Twin City area driving north on Interstate 35. As he drove, he observed a red Jeep Cherokee in front of him. He noticed that there was a bumper sticker on the tailgate that wasn't quite straight that said "VAIL" and that the license place number ended with the letters LUG. He observed two males in the vehicle, one with light colored hair and one with dark colored hair. The vehicle would slow down and then speed up. This individual passed the jeep and remembers seeing it in his rear view mirror periodically, however, after passing the Rush City exit, he doesn't recall seeing the jeep again. Madson's vehicle was a 1995 Jeep Cherokee with Minnesota license number 534 LUG. Additionally, it had a "VAIL" bumper sticker on the hatchback consistent with the description given by the reporting party. Further, Madson had blonde hair and Cunanan has dark colored hair.

During the autopsy of Madson, a bullet consistent with that of a .40 caliber Golden Saber was recovered from his chest. Additionally, the coronor indicated the time of death was on or about May 2, 1997.

At approximately [redacted], [redacted] decided to leave the bar and head home. A taxi was called and [redacted] was dropped off first and then [redacted].

[redacted] had some thoughts about DESILVA:

- DESILVA seemed to dote on [redacted] for example, he had [redacted]. He was also very attentive to her, if [redacted]. [redacted] thought that a lot of DESILVA's actions did not seem consistent with a gay male.

- [redacted] noticed that DESILVA only wore his glasses when he drove at night.

- [redacted] stated that DESILVA liked to be the center of attention. He controlled the conversation and had a knack of switching the conversation to what he wanted to talk about.

- [redacted] remembers while DESILVA, [redacted] and himself were hanging out at [redacted] DESILVA received numerous telephone calls, approximately 4 or 5 at [redacted].

- In conversation, DESILVA indicated that he knew New York City very well.

[redacted] Date of Birth [redacted] California, telephone number [redacted] was interviewed at his residence. [redacted] was advised of the identities of the interviewing Agents and the nature of the interview. [redacted] provided the following information:

Approximately one year ago, ANDREW CUNANAN had talked about the South Beach area of Miami, Florida. [redacted] did not know whether or not CUNANAN had actually been there, but CUNANAN seemed to be acquainted with the gay community there. [redacted] stayed in Miami approximately ten years ago [redacted] does not know any prominent people in the Miami area. [redacted] did not recall CUNANAN ever mentioning GIANNI VERSACE. CUNANAN may have mentioned VERSACE's style of clothing at some time. [redacted] CUNANAN possibly heading to the South Beach area of Miami was nothing more than a hunch.

CUNANAN had gone to Milan, Italy in April, 1995 to attend a friend's wedding. CUNANAN mentioned the name of the friend as [redacted] Phonetic). [redacted] thought it possible that CUNANAN could have met VERSACE there. During that time period, CUNANAN [redacted]

Regarding LEE MIGLIN, [redacted] did not know MIGLIN, [redacted] was never in Chicago [redacted] CUNANAN may have gone to Chicago on his own. [redacted] was told by a friend that another friend had heard that MIGLIN and his partner had put on a party at Lloyd's Restaurant in Chicago, which had been attended by gays wearing leather. [redacted] may be able to verify the information. [redacted] had heard from his friend that MIGLIN was possibly into "S&M". [redacted] had no indication that CUNANAN had any interest or any ties to "S&M".

Regarding [redacted] trip to Europe, [redacted]

[redacted]. CUNANAN may have known where [redacted] was headed when he left San Diego. However if CUNANAN knew, he received the information from someone else, not [redacted]. CUNANAN would have been able to venture a good guess as to where [redacted] would be staying in [redacted]

[redacted] originally had made plans to stay at the [redacted] but after hearing reports of the murders on the radio and that CUNANAN was possibly headed to New York, [redacted]

CUNANAN they had stayed [redacted] CUNANAN had never stayed with [redacted] at the [redacted] or the [redacted] stated that he had not been to the [redacted] New York for approximately fifteen years.

[redacted] provided the name of [redacted] as being known to CUNANAN. [redacted] stated that [redacted] spent time in London and New York. CUNANAN stated to [redacted] that he knew [redacted] stated that he believes [redacted] could be a potential target for CUNANAN.

[redacted] was asked by the interviewing Agents to recall, word for word, the telephone conversation he had with CUNANAN in late [redacted] from his [redacted] stated he could not recall the conversation word for word but recalled that CUNANAN stated he was calling from Minneapolis to let him know he was moving to San Francisco. CUNANAN also stated something to the effect that he was sorry things did not work out. [redacted] not recall the words which ended the conversation. [redacted] was surprised to get the call because he thought it strange that CUNANAN would call from Minneapolis only days after leaving San Diego. [redacted] wondered why CUNANAN had not called from San Diego. [redacted]

[redacted] met JEFFREY TRAIL prior to [redacted] which is when CUNANAN [redacted]. [redacted] does not recall [redacted] but stated it was possible that he had.

[redacted] was shown by the interviewing Agents two colored photographs, each containing two individuals (the photographs are attached to this FD-302). [redacted] was not given any information about the photographs by the interviewing Agents. [redacted] was asked whether he recognized or knew any of the individuals. Regarding the photograph in which one of the individuals was wearing a hat, (the copy of this photograph has been denoted by a "1"), [redacted] stated that the individual on [redacted] looked familiar. The person on [redacted] was not familiar. Regarding the other photograph, (denoted by a "2"), [redacted] stated the individual on the left was the same individual as in the first photograph. The person [redacted] was not known [redacted] did not recognize the name of [redacted]. The original photographs, received from Miami Division, have been retained in a FD-340 envelope.

[redacted] stated that he had never heard the name

[redacted] stated that he had no [redacted] at [redacted] for approximately a year several years earlier.

[redacted] knew that CUNANAN had traveled to San Francisco a few times and once to Minneapolis. Other than San Francisco, Los Angeles, New York and Miami, [redacted] knew of no other cities where CUNANAN would be comfortable. [redacted] never knew CUNANAN to dress in drag, and assumed that CUNANAN had no interest in dressing in drag. [redacted] at which CUNANAN would have had an opportunity to dress in drag. However, CUNANAN chose not to. CUNANAN had used electric clippers to reduce his body hair during the time [redacted] knew him. [redacted]

[redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] a friend of Andrew Cunanan, although he knows Cunanan as Andrew DeSilva. He would see Cunanan about two to three times per month. Cunanan had two sets of friends in the San Diego gay community. One set of friends were those that would "party" at the bars. The other set of friends was the "non-bar" people. These people were more discreet about their activities. In their conversations, Cunanan never mentioned anything about having AIDS or being HIV positive.

Several months before leaving San Diego, Cunanan spoke about giving David Madson a ring. Cunanan was in love with Madson. Cunanan wanted to give Madson the ring during a mutual trip to San Francisco. While in San Francisco, Madson "turned down" Cunanan's proposal. Cunanan returned to San Diego. A short time after this, Cunanan told [redacted] that everything was fine between he and Madson, as they had spent a weekend in Los Angeles subsequent to the San Francisco meeting.

[redacted] felt that Cunanan was a "talker" and tried to impress people with fictitious stories and information. [redacted] said he "believed about half of what he said." Regarding financial resources, Cunanan was rumored to be a drug dealer.

Approximately five to six weeks before Cunanan left San Diego, [redacted] saw Cunanan at [redacted] located at [redacted], California. Cunanan said he hated designer Gianni Versace and believed him to be the worst designer ever. He hated Versace's designs. Cunanan has also made reference to [redacted] who is the [redacted] Cunanan claimed that [redacted] knows [redacted] well.

On [redacted] San Diego, California, [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the purpose of the interview. He agreed to be interviewed and voluntarily provided the following information:

[redacted] on the weekend that Cunanan departed for Minneapolis. [redacted] related that Cunanan was carrying only one piece of luggage. He described the luggage as "a small, black, rectangular, duffle-styled bag, maybe leather, which could fit into the overhead compartment (of an aircraft)." He further stated that Cunanan was wearing "a black or brown leather jacket."

[redacted] related that Cunanan had spoken with him "two to three times" about Versace. [redacted] noted that on these occasions Cunanan related that he "hated Versace" because Versace came from nothing, worked hard, and gained success. [redacted] further explained that Cunanan "was jealous of Versace," and often called him (Versace) "pretentious, pompous, and ostentatious."

b7C

[redacted] commented that approximately one month ago he was contacted, by pager, by members of the press. He believes the members belonged to an NBC station in Chicago. They explained that his [redacted] pager number had been found in Cunanan's phone records, which they had recently obtained.

When questioned by the interviewing agent regarding Cunanan's attendance at previous Gay Pride parades and activities, [redacted] responded that he was unaware of any such attendance.

He met Andrew Cunanan approximately [redacted] years ago, however the majority of their contact occurred in the last year after Cunanan broke off relations with [redacted]. During that time Cunanan spent a lot of time with Jeff Trail, [redacted]

Regarding his contact with Cunanan prior to the Trail and Madson murders, [redacted] related that they saw each other socially. On one such occasion, during a dinner [redacted] had the opportunity to meet with Cunanan. [redacted] and Trail were also in attendance. It was the first time [redacted] Later in the evening, while [redacted] Trail were away from the table, Cunanan stated "I've really done my homework." He further related how he had researched older gay men to determine their wealth, then identified with which organizations they associated. He would then become involved in the same social circles and make himself known to the men he researched. [redacted] commented that this was the way in which Cunanan became involved with [redacted] noted that Cunanan paid for this dinner with a gold-colored credit card.

to his old job" and further explained that this was "selling drugs, crystal meth." When Cunanan returned to the table [redacted] jokingly stated "I would love to do ecstasy again," referring to a drug. Cunanan then responded "Let me know what you want. I can get it for you."

Several months later, Trail was discharged from the US Navy and was in the process of obtaining employment with the California Highway Patrol (CHP). According to [redacted] "he was very excited about this," referring to the CHP. [redacted] noted that during Trail's training period in Sacramento with the CHP he would occasionally make weekend trips to San Francisco to meet with Cunanan. On one particular weekend Trail traveled from San Francisco to San Diego [redacted] A few days later they left San Diego and Trail returned to Sacramento. Approximately one to two weeks later Trail arrived in San Diego looking for a place to stay and related to [redacted] that he had dropped out of the CHP program and had broken off his relationship with [redacted] was shocked due to Trails previous enthusiasm regarding the CHP.

For the next two months, Trail made trips to various cities searching for employment. Among the cities he visited were Houston, Chicago, Minneapolis, and possibly Austin. Cunanan accompanied Trail to Houston, Chicago, and possibly Minneapolis. [redacted] noted that during this time one of his [redacted] became involved with Trail. Trail and [redacted] together, began having problems, then broke off their relationship. According to [redacted] was very upset with the breakup. During this time [redacted] noted that Trail began to display a sudden shift in his behavior. He didn't talk to friends as much and he seemed very depressed. During a phone conversation [redacted] asked Trail

if he was depressed because he "was sick", meaning HIV positive. Trail responded "God, no," but failed to provide any further information. Around the same time, [redacted] ran into Cunanan at the [redacted], San Diego. [redacted] asked Cunanan if he had talked to Trail recently. Cunanan responded that he had not, adding "I've really got to get up there (Minneapolis) to see him." [redacted] spoke with Trail again by phone he asked him if he had spoken to Cunanan. Trail responded that he and Cunanan "had a huge falling out" and that he would never speak to him again. When [redacted] asked why, Trail related that he was "sick of the lies and bullshit." Trail then made the comment, "I've got to get out of here. They're going to kill me." [redacted] paid no particular attention to this comment at the time. On one occasion [redacted] had the opportunity to speak with Trail [redacted] who related that Trail had become paranoid and that he was concerned because someone had stolen his checkbook.

Soon afterwards [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] During this attempt he had the opportunity to speak with [redacted] who related similar stories regarding behavior changes. [redacted] further related that he had suddenly moved out of the apartment in the middle of the night.

[redacted] noted that during the weekend he was contacted by Sergeant [redacted], Minneapolis Police Department, [redacted] who informed him of the murders of Trail and David Madson (who [redacted] knew as Trail's former lover). [redacted] immediately attempted to contact [redacted] was unable to contact [redacted] for the duration of the aforementioned weekend. Several days later [redacted] contacted [redacted] and related that he was upset because [redacted] had caused problems with [redacted] commented that [redacted] felt he [redacted] referring to [redacted] being gay. [redacted] and [redacted] no longer have contact.

Following the aforementioned murders [redacted] contacted several acquaintances in order to obtain photographs of Cunanan to give to law enforcement. One such person he contacted was [redacted] During the conversation [redacted] mentioned that [redacted]

[redacted] thought this to be believable since CUNANAN was able to describe [redacted] house. Specifically, the view and the style of the house. The description CUNANAN was able to give would have only been possible if a person was able to view the house from a close proximity, which would not be possible due to the residence being in a gated community.

CUNANAN also talked about a [redacted] named [redacted] (Phonetic), and may have said he met [redacted]. CUNANAN was a fan of [redacted] and gave [redacted] a [redacted] in approximately [redacted] CUNANAN was also a fan of [redacted] due to his [redacted].

[redacted] did not speak to CUNANAN during the conversation. When [redacted] following the telephone conversation, he looked puzzled, and said that CUNANAN had just called to say goodbye. [redacted] looked "thoughtful", and stated the call was odd.

[redacted] stated that when [redacted] traveled to [redacted] that CUNANAN would have known the hotel at which [redacted] would stay. CUNANAN had previously remarked to [redacted] that he enjoyed the view of the park from the hotel he stayed at with [redacted] was not sure of the hotel, but mentioned [redacted].

On [redacted] DOB [redacted] San Diego, California, [redacted], was interviewed [redacted] about Andrew Phillip Cunanan, whom [redacted] had explained to him the nature and scope of the investigation and agreed to be interviewed. [redacted]

[redacted] stated that he called the San Diego Police Department's 531-2000 number on Thursday [redacted] at approximately [redacted] PM, and that he spoke with a female. [redacted] told the female that Cunanan had mentioned that Cunanan would get whoever gave him AIDS. The female then told him that if there was an emergency, then he should call 9-1-1. [redacted] said that he did not recall the name, identification number, or any other information about the individual to whom he spoke.

[redacted] advised that in February of this year [redacted] gave information regarding HIV and AIDS to Cunanan. [redacted] advised that he has given this type of information to 30 to 40 people in a day, and that he worked five days a week including weekend visits to AIDS patients in hospitals.

[redacted] mentioned that he had been keeping the entire interview confidential for [redacted] since the manhunt began because he did not want to divulge any sensitive information about Cunanan. [redacted]

[redacted] noted that the meeting with Cunanan only lasted approximately three to four minutes. According to [redacted] the conversation between him and Cunanan consisted primarily of whether "unprotected sex with withdrawal before ejaculation," and "swallowing semen," could spread AIDS. [redacted] told Cunanan that these actions where in a "grey area," meaning that the actions could possibly spread the virus. At this point Cunanan became

Synopsis: Request of New York to contact locations visited by CUNANAN.

Details: On 7/16/97, the Miami Division identified several items found in the WILLIAM R. REESE 1995 Red Chevrolet pick up truck. The items were found as a result of the truck being found in the vicinity of the GIANNI VERSACE murder scene. Some of these items seem to indicate that CUNANAN left the Chicago area and drove directly to New York. Staying there from 5/5 through 8/97.

Those items are identified as a membership card in CUNANAN'S name, showing visitation on 5/5/97 at 12:45 AM at THE WEST SIDE CLUB. According to DAMRON ADDRESS BOOK 97 this club is located in New York, New York. Also found were two movie stubs for the CHELSEA. One dated 5/7/97 for "LIAR, LIAR" and time stamped 8:01 PM. The other was dated 5/8/97 for DEVIL'S OWN" and time stamped 9:45 PM.

[redacted] met the subject in approximately [redacted] when they met on the dance floor at [redacted] California. The subject was only known to [redacted] by the name Andy de Silva. They used crystal methamphetamine in the bathroom. De Silva got very drunk and asked [redacted] for a ride home, which [redacted] declined to do. The next time he saw him was at the same bar. At the time of the third meeting, [redacted] de Silva, [redacted]

On another occasion, [redacted] was driving [redacted] vehicle with [redacted] and another friend riding as passengers, [redacted]. De Silva was following in a separate car and observed the incident.

[redacted] advised he cared deeply about de Silva and that CUNANAN gave him approximately [redacted] during the period of their friendship to help [redacted]. He advised they did not have a sexual relationship, describing their relationship as a "narcissistic" contest, in which de Silva wanted control over [redacted] and [redacted] did not want to be controlled. They saw each other sporadically, but for the most part did not visit each other at their residences. They talked a few times a month on the telephone. Contacts were usually initiated by [redacted] They would see each other at the well-known [redacted] He described both he and the subject as "queens," and their conversations were on the order of gossip. He advised that de Silva had a number of "sugar daddies" and changed his telephone number on several occasions.

He did retain an old pager number for de Silva, as follows: 1-800-MCI Page, [redacted] He advised that their circle of friends was [redacted]. De Silva did not talk much about his sugar daddies. During this period, de Silva invited [redacted] to Palm Springs on one occasion, which [redacted] declined. On another occasion, [redacted] contacted a friend of his, [redacted] to try to facilitate CUNANAN's participation in a pornographic film. [redacted] stated that this filming never took place.

[redacted] and de Silva also communicated by E-mail. [redacted] would not provide either his own or CUNANAN's E-mail address.

[redacted] stopped communicating with de Silva in approximately [redacted] for, he claims, no particular reason. [redacted] only explanation was that their lifestyles diverged somewhat because [redacted] was making attempts at being "sober" and CUNANAN continued to be an active partier and substance abuser, using alcohol, crystal methamphetamine and cocaine.

[redacted] first learned that de Silva was wanted for murder in the early part of July 1996, after seeing his picture and reading about the murders in the news. [redacted] did not realize at first that de Silva's true name was ANDREW CUNANAN and advised he was in disbelief for awhile. He advised he had [redacted] One day later, he received a reply from CUNANAN, asking how [redacted] found him and advising him not to talk to anyone about their communication.

Since that time [redacted] advised he has communicated with CUNANAN approximately six times [redacted]. He believed that CUNANAN was traveling with [redacted]. [redacted] has not asked probing questions, but did ask him once why he was doing what he was doing. CUNANAN replied that he was tired of being used. [redacted] CUNANAN that CUNANAN was in a world where he had few friends left. CUNANAN [redacted] that "they" would not catch him before he was finished. [redacted] advised he did not fear that CUNANAN would harm him, but he also did not want to intentionally anger CUNANAN by asking probing questions.

[redacted] contact with CUNANAN before the GIANNI VERSACE murder. He experienced disbelief that CUNANAN would kill someone so respected in the gay community. He believes that CUNANAN committed the murder for publicity, but said he could shed no light on CUNANAN's selection of murder victims. He said he did not know any of the victims.

On [redacted] San Diego, California, [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the purpose of the interview. He agreed to be interviewed and voluntarily provided the following information:

[redacted] on the weekend that Cunanan departed for Minneapolis. [redacted] related that Cunanan was carrying only one piece of luggage. He described the luggage as "a small, black, rectangular, duffle-styled bag, maybe leather, which could fit into the overhead compartment (of an aircraft)." He further stated that Cunanan was wearing "a black or brown leather jacket."

[redacted] related that Cunanan had spoken with him "two to three times" about Versace. [redacted] noted that on these occasions Cunanan related that he "hated Versace" because Versace came from nothing, worked hard, and gained success. [redacted] further explained that Cunanan "was jealous of Versace," and often called him (Versace) "pretentious, pompous, and ostentatious."

b7C

[redacted] commented that approximately one month ago he was contacted, by pager, by members of the press. He believes the members belonged to an NBC station in Chicago. They explained that his [redacted] pager number had been found in Cunanan's phone records, which they had recently obtained.

When questioned by the interviewing agent regarding Cunanan's attendance at previous Gay Pride parades and activities, [redacted] responded that he was unaware of any such attendance.

On [redacted] DOB: [redacted] San Diego, California, 92116, [redacted] who resides at [redacted] California, [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing agents and the purpose of the interview. He agreed to be interviewed and voluntarily provided the following information:

He met Andrew Cunanan approximately [redacted] years ago, however the majority of their contact occurred in the last year after Cunanan broke off relations with [redacted]. During that time Cunanan spent a lot of time with Jeff Trail, [redacted]

Regarding his contact with Cunanan prior to the Trail and Madson murders, [redacted] related that they saw each other socially. On one such occasion, during a dinner [redacted] had the opportunity to meet with Cunanan. [redacted] and Trail were also in attendance. It was the first time [redacted] Later in the evening, while [redacted] Trail were away from the table, Cunanan stated "I've really done my homework." He further related how he had researched older gay men to determine their wealth, then identified with which organizations they associated. He would then become involved in the same social circles and make himself known to the men he researched. [redacted] commented that this was the way in which Cunanan became involved with [redacted] noted that Cunanan paid for this dinner with a gold-colored credit card.

to his old job" and further explained that this was "selling drugs, crystal meth." When Cunanan returned to the table [redacted] jokingly stated "I would love to do ecstasy again," referring to a drug. Cunanan then responded "Let me know what you want. I can get it for you."

Several months later, Trail was discharged from the US Navy and was in the process of obtaining employment with the California Highway Patrol (CHP). According to [redacted] "he was very excited about this," referring to the CHP. [redacted] noted that during Trail's training period in Sacramento with the CHP he would occasionally make weekend trips to San Francisco to meet with Cunanan. On one particular weekend Trail traveled from San Francisco to San Diego [redacted] A few days later they left San Diego and Trail returned to Sacramento. Approximately one to two weeks later Trail arrived in San Diego looking for a place to stay and related to [redacted] that he had dropped out of the CHP program and had broken off his relationship with [redacted] was shocked due to Trails previous enthusiasm regarding the CHP.

For the next two months, Trail made trips to various cities searching for employment. Among the cities he visited were Houston, Chicago, Minneapolis, and possibly Austin. Cunanan accompanied Trail to Houston, Chicago, and possibly Minneapolis. [redacted] noted that during this time one of his [redacted] became involved with Trail. [redacted] was [redacted] in San Diego. He approached [redacted] with a folder containing copies of his [redacted] provided the interviewing agents with the aforementioned folder (which is enclosed as Attachment 1). Shortly afterwards he was [redacted] believes [redacted] informed [redacted] that he was gay and was subsequently [redacted]

Trail and [redacted] together, began having problems, then broke off their relationship. According to [redacted] was very upset with the breakup. During this time [redacted] noted that Trail began to display a sudden shift in his behavior. He didn't talk to friends as much and he seemed very depressed. During a phone conversation [redacted] asked Trail

if he was depressed because he "was sick", meaning HIV positive. Trail responded "God, no," but failed to provide any further information. Around the same time, [redacted] ran into Cunanan at the [redacted], San Diego. [redacted] asked Cunanan if he had talked to Trail recently. Cunanan responded that he had not, adding "I've really got to get up there (Minneapolis) to see him." [redacted] spoke with Trail again by phone he asked him if he had spoken to Cunanan. Trail responded that he and Cunanan "had a huge falling out" and that he would never speak to him again. When [redacted] asked why, Trail related that he was "sick of the lies and bullshit." Trail then made the comment, "I've got to get out of here. They're going to kill me." [redacted] paid no particular attention to this comment at the time. On one occasion [redacted] had the opportunity to speak with Trail [redacted] who related that Trail had become paranoid and that he was concerned because someone had stolen his checkbook.

Soon afterwards [redacted] attempted to contact [redacted] During this attempt he had the opportunity to speak with [redacted] who related similar stories regarding behavior changes. [redacted] further related that he had suddenly moved out of the apartment in the middle of the night.

[redacted] noted that during the weekend he was contacted by Sergeant [redacted], Minneapolis Police Department, [redacted] who informed him of the murders of Trail and David Madson (who [redacted] knew as Trail's former lover). [redacted] immediately attempted to contact [redacted] was unable to contact [redacted] for the duration of the aforementioned weekend. Several days later [redacted] contacted [redacted] and related that he was upset because [redacted] had caused problems with [redacted] commented that [redacted] felt he [redacted] referring to [redacted] being gay. [redacted] and [redacted] no longer have contact.

Following the aforementioned murders [redacted] contacted several acquaintances in order to obtain photographs of Cunanan to give to law enforcement. One such person he contacted was [redacted] During the conversation [redacted] mentioned that [redacted]

In [redacted] Cunanan moved back to San Diego and moved in with [redacted] where he lived until [redacted] Cunanan got a job at Thrifty Drug Store, where he became manager. Although they lived together, there was no relationship between the two. At first, Cunanan appreciated being with [redacted] but after a while, [redacted] began visiting often, and the distance between Cunanan and [redacted] grew. Cunanan began staying away from [redacted]

During the 1991 to 1994 time period, [redacted]. Cunanan was upset with [redacted] for the lack of privacy. Cunanan was always home by 2:00 a.m.

In late [redacted] Cunanan moved out. Subsequently, [redacted] never saw him unless she was in need of a ride or needed some money to help with the bills. When she needed to contact Cunanan, [redacted] would leave him a message on his voice mail, and Cunanan would come by to give her a ride or money. During these visits Cunanan was always distant, impersonable, and showed no emotion. Cunanan was driving a dark green, almost black Lexus.

[redacted] Cunanan may have provided a total of $300 in a year [redacted] Cunanan would usually not respond to her voice mail messages unless she told him it was an emergency. When he would return the call, he would only say "How much do you need?"

The interview was conducted as a follow-up to a telephone call made the previous evening by [redacted] to the San Diego FBI in which [redacted] mentioned the names of GIANNI VERSACE, [redacted] (Phonetic), and [redacted] as being names mentioned by CUNANAN from time to time several years earlier. CUNANAN had told [redacted] that he had met and knew each of the individuals, including VERSACE. [redacted] provided the following information regarding the context in which the above individuals were spoken about:

Several years ago, CUNANAN mentioned the name VERSACE from time to time. CUNANAN was impressed with VERSACE due to VERSACE being very intelligent, very artistic, and very wealthy. The above listed individuals were admired by CUNANAN for the same attributes. CUNANAN was not so much interested in celebrities such as famous models or actors, because their intellect was not generally as high as the above-listed individuals. CUNANAN had an appreciation for the very intelligent and creative.

He advised that de Silva had a number of "sugar daddies" and changed his telephone number on several occasions.

He did retain an old pager number for de Silva, as follows: 1-800-MCI Page, [redacted] He advised that their circle of friends was [redacted]. De Silva did not talk much about his sugar daddies. During this period, de Silva invited [redacted] to Palm Springs on one occasion, which [redacted] declined. On another occasion, [redacted] contacted a friend of his, [redacted] to try to facilitate CUNANAN's participation in a pornographic film. [redacted] stated that this filming never took place.

[redacted] and de Silva also communicated by E-mail. [redacted] would not provide either his own or CUNANAN's E-mail address.

[redacted] stopped communicating with de Silva in approximately [redacted] for, he claims, no particular reason. [redacted] only explanation was that their lifestyles diverged somewhat because [redacted] was making attempts at being "sober" and CUNANAN continued to be an active partier and substance abuser, using alcohol, crystal methamphetamine and cocaine.

[redacted] first learned that de Silva was wanted for murder in the early part of July 1996, after seeing his picture and reading about the murders in the news. [redacted] advised that CUNANAN was in a city with a name like Seaside, one hour north of San Diego; he could not recall the name of the city. [redacted] advised that CUNANAN was planning to arrive at the house of [redacted], by August 4, 1997. [redacted] thinks that CUNANAN might be suicidal, but also thought he might flee the country soon after August 4, 1997. [redacted] advised that he was somewhat familiar with steps CUNANAN took to obtain a Canadian passport and driver's license for $3,200.00 The plan was for CUNANAN to pick up the documents from [redacted]. He would not elaborate on what steps he specifically may have taken to help CUNANAN.

[redacted] advised he has told this information to some of his friends. Four days ago (approximately [redacted], he [redacted] after moving out of a roommate situation with [redacted]

The interview commenced at approximately 1:00 p.m. and several breaks were taken. [redacted] was requested to elaborate on many areas, such as [redacted] the whereabouts of his computer, and the [redacted] which he refused to do. At approximately 5:30 p.m., [redacted] was requested, while his participation was voluntary, to accompany detectives to a local motel until this matter was resolved. [redacted] expressed concern that he may have done something, not further specified, to help CUNANAN. He agreed to be transported to a local motel, where he stayed with SPD officers until approximately 11:30 p.m. No promises were made to him and he was told that his information and the level of his cooperation would be conveyed to the proper authorities.

[redacted] WAS ACQUAINTED WITH THE SUBJECT, WHOM HE UNEQUIVOCALLY IDENTIFIED OFF THE FBI'S WANTED POSTER, IN LOS ANGELES ACTIVELY BETWEEN 2/96 - 7/96.

[redacted] MET THE SUBJECT IN APPROXIMATELY [redacted] WHEN THEY MET ON THE DANCE FLOOR AT [redacted] THE SUBJECT WAS ONLY KNOWN TO AARON BY THE NAME ANDY DE SILVA. THEY USED CRYSTAL METHAMPHETAMINE IN THE BATHROOM. DE SILVA, HEREINAFTER REFERRED TO AS CUNANAN, GOT VERY DRUNK AND ASKED [redacted] FOR A RIDE HOME, WHICH [redacted] DECLINED TO DO. THE NEXT TIME HE SAW HIM WAS AT THE SAME BAR.

b7C AT THE TIME OF THE THIRD MEETING, [redacted] CUNANAN, [redacted]

b7D [redacted]

ON ANOTHER OCCASION, [redacted] WAS DRIVING A VEHICLE WITH [redacted] AND ANOTHER FRIEND RIDING AS PASSENGERS, [redacted] CUNANAN WAS

FOLLOWING IN A SEPARATE CAR AND OBSERVED THE INCIDENT.

[redacted] ADVISED HE CARED DEEPLY ABOUT CUNANAN AND THAT CUNANAN GAVE HIM APPROXIMATELY [redacted] DURING THE PERIOD OF THEIR FRIENDSHIP TO HELP [redacted]. HE DENIED ANY SEXUAL RELATIONSHIP, DESCRIBING THEIR RELATIONSHIP AS A "NARCISSISTIC" CONTEST, IN WHICH CUNANAN WANTED CONTROL OVER [redacted] AND [redacted] DID NOT WANT TO BE CONTROLLED. THEY SAW EACH OTHER SPORADICALLY, ALTHOUGH NEITHER VISITED EACH OTHER AT THEIR RESIDENCES. THEY TALKED A FEW TIMES A MONTH ON THE TELEPHONE. CONTACTS WERE USUALLY INITIATED [redacted] THEY WOULD SEE EACH OTHER AT THE [redacted] HE DESCRIBED BOTH HE AND THE SUBJECT AS "QUEENS," AND THEIR CONVERSATIONS WERE ON THE ORDER OF GOSSIP. HE ADVISED THAT CUNANAN HAD A NUMBER OF SUGAR DADDIES AND CHANGED HIS TELEPHONE NUMBER ON SEVERAL OCCASIONS. HE DID RETAIN AN OLD PAGER NUMBER FOR CUNANAN, AS FOLLOWS: 1-800-MCI PAGE, [redacted] HE ADVISED THAT THEIR CIRCLE OF FRIENDS WAS [redacted]. CUNANAN DID NOT TALK MUCH ABOUT HIS SUGAR DADDIES. DURING THIS PERIOD, CUNANAN INVITED [redacted] TO PALM SPRINGS ON ONE OCCASION, WHICH [redacted]

b7C
b7D

DECLINED. ON ANOTHER OCCASION [redacted] CONTACTED [redacted] TO TRY TO FACILITATE CUNANAN'S PARTICIPATION IN A PORNOGRAPHIC FILM. THIS APPARENTLY NEVER TOOK PLACE.

[redacted] AND CUNANAN ALSO COMMUNICATED BY E-MAIL. [redacted] LACK OF COMPLETE COOPERATION WAS GAUGED BY HIS EMPHATIC REFUSAL TO PROVIDE EITHER HIS OWN OR CUNANAN'S E-MAIL ADDRESS.

[redacted] STOPPED COMMUNICATING WITH CUNANAN IN APPROXIMATELY [redacted] FOR, HE CLAIMS, NO PARTICULAR REASON. [redacted] ONLY EXPLANATION WAS THAT THEIR LIFESTYLES DIVERGED SOMEWHAT BECAUSE [redacted] WAS MAKING ATTEMPTS AT BEING "SOBER" AND CUNANAN CONTINUED TO BE AN ACTIVE PARTNER AND SUBSTANCE ABUSER, USING ALCOHOL, CRYSTAL METH AND COCAINE.

b7C
b7D

[redacted] FIRST LEARNED THAT CUNANAN WAS WANTED FOR MURDER IN THE EARLY PART OF JULY, AFTER SEEING HIS PICTURE AND READING ABOUT THE MURDERS IN THE NEWS. [redacted] DID NOT KNOW HIM BY THE NAME CUNANAN AND ADVISED HE WAS IN DISBELIEF FOR AWHILE. HE ADVISED HE HAD RETAINED CUNANAN'S E-MAIL ADDRESS, AND HE SENT

[redacted] TO SEE IF HE WAS STILL USING THAT ADDRESS. ONE DAY LATER, HE RECEIVED A REPLY FROM CUNANAN, ASKING HOW [redacted] FOUND HIM AND ADVISING HIM NOT TO TALK TO ANYONE ABOUT THEIR COMMUNICATION.

SINCE THAT TIME, [redacted] ADVISED HE HAS COMMUNICATED WITH CUNANAN APPROXIMATELY [redacted] HE BELIEVED THAT CUNANAN IS TRAVELING WITH A LAPTOP MODEM. [redacted] HAS NOT ASKED PROBING QUESTIONS, BUT DID ASK HIM ONCE WHY HE WAS DOING WHAT HE WAS DOING. CUNANAN REPLIED THAT HE WAS TIRED OF BEING USED. [redacted] CUNANAN THAT CUNANAN WAS IN A WORLD WHERE HE HAD FEW FRIENDS LIKE [redacted] LEFT. CUNANAN E-MAILED THAT "THEY" WOULD NOT CATCH HIM BEFORE HE WAS FINISHED. [redacted] ADVISED HE DID NOT FEAR THAT CUNANAN WOULD HARM HIM, BUT HE ALSO DID NOT WANT TO INTENTIONALLY

ANGER CUNANAN BY ASKING PROBING QUESTIONS.

[redacted] CONTACT WITH CUNANAN BEFORE THE GIANNI VERSACE MURDER. HE EXPERIENCED DISBELIEF THAT CUNANAN WOULD KILL SOMEONE SO RESPECTED IN THE GAY COMMUNITY. HE BELIEVES THAT CUNANAN COMMITTED THE MURDER FOR PUBLICITY, BUT SAID HE COULD SHED NO LIGHT ON CUNANAN'S SELECTION OF MURDER VICTIMS. HE SAID HE DID NOT KNOW ANY OF THE VICTIMS.

ON [redacted] CUNANAN AND CUNANAN REPLIED AT 8:41 P.M. THAT DAY. HE WOULD NOT SPECIFICALLY ADVISE WHAT THE [redacted] ADVISED THAT CUNANAN WAS IN SEASIDE, CALIFORNIA, ONE HOUR NORTH OF SAN DIEGO (HE COULD NOT REMEMBER THE NAME OF THE CITY; THIS IS BELIEVED TO BE OCEANSIDE, CALIFORNIA). [redacted] ADVISED THAT CUNANAN WAS PLANNING TO ARRIVE AT THE HOUSE OF [redacted] BY AUGUST 4. [redacted] THINKS THAT CUNANAN MIGHT BE SUICIDAL, BUT ALSO THOUGHT HE MIGHT FLEE THE COUNTRY SOON AFTER 8/4. [redacted] ADVISED THAT CUNANAN HAD OBTAINED A CANADIAN PASSPORT AND DRIVER'S LICENSE FOR $3,200. HE DID NOT ELABORATE ON HOW THIS WAS OBTAINED.

[redacted] ADVISED HE HAS TOLD THIS INFORMATION TO SOME OF HIS FRIENDS. FOUR DAYS AGO (APPROXIMATELY [redacted], HE MOVED INTO

FUGITIVE (A)(DECEASED);
UFAP-MURDER;
OO: MINNEAPOLIS

Synopsis: Update from Legat Manila concerning the disposition of the remains of deceased subject.

Administrative: Reference San Diego fax and telcal of SA [redacted] on 7/25/97 and reference MP EC dated 6/9/97.

b7C

Details: For information of recipients, referenced San Diego fax requested Legat Manila to contact [redacted] deceased fugitive ANDREW CUNANAN, and have him sign a "AUTHORIZATION FOR CREMATION AND DISPOSITION" form. This was being done at the request of Cunanan family members in San Diego, CA [redacted]

Through liaison with the [redacted] b

On [redacted] telephonically contacted Legat from the office of [redacted] telephone number [redacted], and indicated that he was willing to sign the form but wanted the ashes sent to the Philippines. Legat advised him that this matter was strictly up to him and his family, and whatever state or government regulations might apply. He was told that Legat's only involvement was assisting in the family's request.

Re: (88A-MP-47461), 08/07/1997

On [redacted] re-contacted Legat telephonically and advised that [redacted] were planning to leave for Miami,FL on Friday or Saturday, 8/8/97 - 8/9/97 (Manila Date), and attempt to bring the ashes of ANDREW CUNANAN back to the Philippines. He indicated he was staying away from San Diego,CA because of [redacted]. He indicated he would be contacting the FBI and Chief of Police in Miami,FL.

Because of subject's Philippine ancestry, there has been hundreds of news articles and TV Specials concerning subject in the Philippine media. Subject's father has been apparently capitalizing on this, and a news article in the PHILIPPINE DAILY INQUIRER dated 8/6/97 entitled, "CUNANAN PA CASHES IN ON INFAMY-LUCRATIVE DEALS FOR SON'S LIFE STORY" gives a possible insight into why he wishes to bring the ashes of his son back to the Philippines. The above is for background of Miami in the event [redacted] actually travels to the U.S. and contacts the Miami Division.

b7D

A review of referenced MP EC dated 6/9/97 enclosed Chicago interview of [redacted] date of birth [redacted] place of birth [redacted]. During interview, she indicated that [redacted] was believed to have [redacted]. Local Philippine new articles have also frequently mention this, however, [redacted] always denies it. CUNANAN talked about his relationship with MADSON, including the fact that he and MADSON used to be together a lot. He said that recently, it was becoming hard to maintain the relationship because CUNANAN saw MADSON infrequently. CUNANAN stated that he and MADSON both worked very hard at their respective jobs, but that they cared about each other. CUNANAN also said that even though they cared very much about each other, their current situation was not going to change.

Although CUNANAN did not specifically state that he and MADSON had an intimate relationship, [redacted] understood that they did. For example, [redacted] remembers being told that, [redacted] DAVID MADSON," was coming to the party with his "boyfriend" ANDREW.

Subject was very controlled and contained. Subject put on an air like he was from an old money family in New York. Subject was elegant and wanted to be liked. Subject acted quite old. [redacted] speculated this was perhaps why subject got along with an older group of men.

Subject talked about New York things, saying that he was from schools in New York. [redacted] assumed that subject grew up in and around New York.

Subject did not [redacted] Subject was always nicely dressed, wearing pressed shirts, gold wire-rimmed glasses, and dark complexion. Subject was fit, but not extremely so.

Subject was very concerned with things popular. As an example [redacted] stated subject would read Vanity Fair and know everyone in it. Subject wanted to be associated with glamour. [redacted] did not know any friends or relatives of subject.

There was some consternation in [redacted] gay community prior to the discovery of subject's suicide. Several representatives of the gay community contacted [redacted] County Sheriff's Office, regarding their fears of

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] believes [redacted] may also maintain close contact with Cunanan. In September [redacted], Cunanan and [redacted] traveled to Toronto, Canada, to visit [redacted] in Toronto, [redacted] Cunanan left the group and disappeared for approximately four and a half hours. [redacted] believes Cunanan [redacted] had a sexual encounter during that time. [redacted] he has heard through [redacted] that [redacted] and Cunanan remained very close. [redacted] believes that Cunanan would seek help from [redacted] before any other person.

[redacted] believes Cunanan is also close to a male [redacted] who lives [redacted] in Los Angeles but spends a lot of time in a place he [redacted] does not know the name of the [redacted] However, [redacted] advised that a close [redacted] will know how to get in contact with [redacted] Last Name Unknown (LNU), also known as [redacted], who will know how to get in contact with the [redacted] Both [redacted] reside in the Los Angeles area. However, [redacted] is unable to provide further information concerning their whereabouts. Because of this acquaintance on [redacted] [redacted] believes this would be a likely destination for Cunanan.

According to [redacted] Cunanan's friends refer to him as either Andrew or Canan (phonetic). [redacted] described Cunanan as a disguise artist who often drastically changed his looks several times in one day when [redacted] knew him in the late 1980's or early 1990's. In addition to English, Cunanan also speaks fluent German, Spanish, French, and Tagal, which he described as a Filipino dialect. Cunanan has a small brown mark on his upper left chest near the collar bone. This mark resembles a burn mark but is probably some type of birth mark. Sometime during the early [redacted] Cunanan starred in a pornographic movie [redacted] [redacted] does not know the name of this movie but advised that this birth mark is clearly visible in the film.

[redacted] believes Cunanan's motive for murdering Gianni Versace may have been revenge. In 1992, Cunanan was employed by [redacted] and was in the running for a modeling job for Versace. However, [redacted] was hired for this position over Cunanan. [redacted] believes Cunanan was very bitter over losing this modeling job and may have vowed to seek revenge.

[redacted] also believes Cunanan may have known the man he is believed to have murdered in Chicago, Illinois. [redacted] believes this person was [redacted] and advised that he was homosexual but married to a female. [redacted] believes

Fernando D. Carreira , born [redacted] Social Security Number [redacted] phone number [redacted] residing at [redacted] Miami Beach, Florida [redacted] was interviewed at Miami Beach Fire Station #3, 5303 Collins Avenue, and the Miami Beach Police Department, 1100 Washington Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing agent and the purpose of the interview, he provided the following information:

Between 3:30 and 4:00 pm on 07/23/1997 Carreira [redacted] went to check on the houseboat owned by [redacted] Carreira, upon trying to enter, noticed that the bottom lock(which he always locks) was unlocked and the top lock was secured. Only [redacted] and Carreira have keys to the top lock. Carreira had recently put in a new bottom lock. The only two keys to the bottom lock were in Carreira's possession.

After Carreira [redacted] entered the houseboat, he noticed that someone had been inside since things were arranged different from normal. At about 20 feet into the houseboat as he pulled out his own personal handgun, Carreira heard a shot come from the upstairs master bedroom on the south side of the houseboat.

Thinking he was being shot at, Carreira left the houseboat. He attempted to call 911 with his cellular phone about 3 or 4 times but could not get through. He then called [redacted] to have him call 911. The 911 dispatcher called Carreira. Carreira kept visual contact with the houseboat until police arrived. He did not hear any water splashes. [redacted] was with him the whole time.

[redacted] called [redacted] beeper with the cellular phone. [redacted] then called and Carreira told him to get the phone number to the houseboat(for the FBI). Carreira did not know [redacted] and [redacted] were in the car coming to the scene. He did not tell them to go home.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] at Miami Beach, Florida, on [redacted].

Contact was made with [redacted], team leader of the Metro-Dade Special Response Team, regarding his role during entry into the houseboat at 5310 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida. According to [redacted] other than the chemical agent rounds, there were no other rounds fired by the SRT. There were [redacted] rounds fired from the north side and [redacted] fired from the front(east side) of the houseboat into the second floor area. After waiting about 10 minutes, two twelve gage and one forty millimeter ferret rounds were fired from the east side into the first floor area. Metro-Dade [redacted] authorizes the use of chemical agents by the SRT.

[redacted] stated that he entered the residence along with [redacted]. They found a male subject upstairs in the master bedroom laying on his back facing up toward the ceiling wearing a pair of shorts. The team members entered the room simultaneously.

[redacted] checked the subject's pulse and found none. There was a gunshot wound to the right side of his face. The subject was holding what appeared to be a 40 caliber Taurus semi-automatic handgun in his right hand. No one on the SRT touched the gun. [redacted] was the only member of the SRT to touch the subject. He also helped check the bilge area. The master bedroom was left under the supervision and security of [redacted] who later turned it over to a Miami Beach detective.

Contact was also made with [redacted], another member of the Metro-Dade SRT, stated that he entered the residence but did not go up to the second floor. He helped search and secure the first floor. Other than the entry team members, no one else was seen in the first floor area. No shots were fired other than the chemical agent rounds prior to entry.

[redacted] also with Metro-Dade SRT, stated that he was called in as an extra person to assist the original entry team. The entry team searched the first floor then the second floor. [redacted] went up to the second floor bedroom to relieve another team member so they could get some fresh air. He saw a white male laying on the bed wearing blue boxer shorts with a pistol in his right hand. [redacted] also noticed blood on the subject's head but no specific wounds. He knew of no one on the SRT who touched the subject's body or the pistol held by him. [redacted] did not search the second floor bedroom. Other than the chemical agent rounds fired prior to entry, no other rounds were fired while the team members were inside. The bilge area was the last area to be b7C searched. [redacted] helped [redacted] Officer [redacted] and Officer [redacted] search the bilge area located beneath the first floor. No other subjects were found.

On the afternoon of July 23, 1997, the Miami Beach Police Department (MBPD) received a telephone call from FERNANDO CARREIRA, who described himself as the caretaker of a houseboat located at 5250 Collins Avenue, Miami Beach, Florida. CARREIRA told police he heard a gun shot as he entered the front door of the houseboat. Upon hearing the gun shot, CARREIRA retreated from the interior of the houseboat, maintaining visual contact with the front door at all times.

The MBPD responded and established a perimeter around the houseboat. The Metro Dade County Police Department (MDPD) Special Weapons and Tactics Team (SWAT) was called and deployed. Once in position SWAT made numerous attempts to contact anyone inside the houseboat. Following several more attempts at contacting someone inside the houseboat, SWAT fired tear gas inside and made entry. While clearing the houseboat, SWAT found the body of a white male laying on the bed in the upstairs master bedroom. The white male was checked for a pulse by SWAT with negative results. The white male had large amounts of blood coming from his ears, nose, and mouth as well as a large pool of blood under his back. The white male was holding a handgun that matched the handgun believed to be in possession of ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN.

b7C

After MDPD SWAT declared the houseboat secure a telephonic search warrant was obtained from United States Magistrate the Honorable Barry Garber. Once the search warrant was obtained the writer and MBPD Detective (DET) [redacted] entered the houseboat to make a visual identification of the white male. The writer and [redacted] visually identified the white male as ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN. The handgun in the white males hand was a Taurus .40 caliber semi-automatic handgun serial number SMK21812D. The serial number matched the handgun CUNANAN was believed to have stolen from JEFFERY TRAIL.

Following the visual identification the MBPD crime scene unit fingerprinted the white male and those prints were compared against prints taken from CUNANAN by MDPD fingerprint

Dear [redacted]

Reference is made to your immediate facsimile to Legat Rome dated July 31, 1997.

Enclosed is a copy of a memorandum from our Minneapolis, Minnesota, office dated July 18, 1997.

Thank you for your letter that is referenced above. As you are aware, Andrew Philip Cunanan was found dead in Miami, Florida, on July 23, 1997. He died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound to the head with a .40 caliber handgun found next to the body. Positive identification was made from fingerprint examination. As a result of this, the investigation to locate and arrest Cunanan was discontinued.

Legat Rome subsequently received the enclosed memorandum which reflects investigation conducted as of that date. Our office in Minneapolis, Minnesota, requested that this be provided to you for the information of your office.

On [redacted] was interviewed at his residence, [redacted] New Jersey (NJ). After being advised as to the identity of the interviewing investigators, and the nature of the interview, [redacted] furnished the following information:

[redacted] advised that approximately [redacted] years ago in May of [redacted] shortly after graduating from [redacted] Pennsylvania, he moved to San Diego. It was on his first day in San Diego that he became acquainted with ANDREW CUNANAN. [redacted] advised that CUNANAN introduced himself as ANDREW DeSLIVA. [redacted] advised that his friendship with CUNANAN grew to the point where they saw each other practically every day of the three years he stayed in San Diego. [redacted] stressed, however, that he did not have an intimate relationship with CUNANAN.

[redacted] advised that he was astonished when he first learned through the news media of CUNANAN's reported involvement in several murders. [redacted] advised that he always thought of CUNANAN as a nice guy who never gave the appearance of being easily agitated or violent. [redacted] further advised that he never witnessed CUNANAN use illegal drugs with the exception of valium. However, [redacted] did suspect that CUNANAN was taking Crystal Methamphetamine. [redacted] believed this, in part, given that Crystal Methamphetamine was the drug of choice within the gay community. Additionally, CUNANAN always appeared shaky, hyperactive, refrained from alcohol, and was able to stay awake until late in the day, every day.

[redacted] advised that for the last six months he lived in San Diego, CUNANAN resided only a few streets away. [redacted] however, could not recall CUNANAN's address.

Throughout all the time [redacted] knew CUNANAN, he never suspected that CUNANAN was prostituting himself. someone in his late seventies. He believed this largely due to the way CUNANAN would joke about how old his boyfriend was.

[redacted] recalled that CUNANAN was generous to a fault, always paying for dinner and drinks. He never saw CUNANAN without a roll of money. [redacted] recalled that CUNANAN would often fly to different places. He never, however, disclosed the exact locations he traveled. CUNANAN would simply generalize the places by saying that he was traveling to Europe or New York. CUNANAN once said that he had a friend who owned a condo in New York City, and that his friend allowed him to stay their when in town.

[redacted] stated that he knew one of the murdered victims, JEFF TRAIL. [redacted] stated that he knew TRAIL only casually as a bar acquaintance. Additionally, he is certain that CUNANAN also knew TRAIL. [redacted] did not believe that CUNANAN and TRAIL had an intimate relationship.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT CONTRACT

1986 - 1987

The Bishop's School

The undersigned enrolls ANDREW PHILIP CUNANAN as a student in the 12th grade of The Bishop's School for the school year beginning September 4, 1986. Enclosed herewith is a non-refundable deposit of $500.00 that will be credited against the tuition fee. The undersigned reserves the right of not entering said student in Bishop's provided the undersigned gives written notification of such withdrawal before August 1, 1986.

In consideration of the enrollment, the undersigned agrees to pay The Bishop's School $6,200.00 tuition for the school year beginning September 4, 1986. Tuition payment (less $500 non-refundable tuition deposit) is due in full by the first day of August 1986. Tuition may be paid in two payments: $2,850.00 to be paid by August 1, 1986, and the balance of $2,850.00 to be paid by January 28, 1987. Students for whom the first tuition installment has not been received by the opening day of school, and students for whom the second tuition installment has not been received by the first day of second semester classes, may not attend classes until the tuition due has been received by the school. In addition, a late fee of $100.00 will be assessed for tuition payments received after the due dates. No student will be reenrolled who has an unpaid balance from the previous year.

If tuition is to be paid in two payments, a charge of 3.5% of tuition ($217.00) is due and payable with the first tuition payment for enrollment in The Tuition Refund Insurance program. The Tuition Refund Insurance program provides for a refund of a percentage of the unused tuition charges in situations covered under The Tuition Refund Insurance program. If the year's tuition payment is made in full by August 1, 1986, participation in The Tuition Refund Insurance program is optional; however, it is recommended. The undersigned recognizes that the school enters into substantial financial commitments in reliance upon a full enrollment and that the undersigned shall be liable for the full school year tuition. Therefore, refunds for tuition and fees for withdrawal, absence, or dismissal will not be made by The Bishop's School except as covered under The Tuition Refund Insurance.

Music and tennis lessons, field trips, books, and other school supplies will be charged to the student's account. All accounts are due and payable within 30 days of billing. If an account is forwarded to a collection agency or an attorney for collection, the undersigned agrees to pay all fees and costs incurred by the Bishop's School in collecting the amounts owing.

Please sign and return both copies.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT CONTRACT

1985 - 1986

The undersigned enrolls Andrew Philip Cunanan as a student in the 11 th grade of The Bishop's School for the school year beginning September 6, 1985, ending June 7, 1986. Enclosed herewith is a non-refundable deposit of $500.00 that will be credited against the tuition fee. The undersigned reserves the right of not entering said student in Bishop's provided the undersigned gives written notification of such withdrawal before August 1, 1985.

In consideration of the enrollment, the undersigned agrees to pay The Bishop's School $5,680.00 tuition for the school year September 6, 1985, through June 7, 1986. Tuition payment (less $500 non-refundable tuition deposit) is due in full by the first day of August 1985. Tuition may be paid in two payments. $2,590.00 to be paid by August 1, 1985, and the balance of $2,590.00 to be paid by January 28, 1986. The school has the discretion to refuse to permit any student to attend classes for whom tuition has not been paid by the tuition due dates. In addition, should any tuition be accepted after the date it is due, the undersigned agrees to pay 12% per annum computed on a daily basis for each day late in payment. No student will be reenrolled who has an unpaid balance from the previous year.

If tuition is to be paid in two payments, a charge of 3.5% of tuition ($181.30) is due and payable with the first tuition payment for enrollment in The Tuition Refund Insurance program. The Tuition Refund Insurance program provides for a refund of a percentage of the unused tuition charges in situations covered under The Tuition Refund Insurance program. If the year's tuition payment is made in full by August 1, 1985, participation in The Tuition Refund Insurance program is optional; however, it is recommended. The undersigned recognizes that the school enters into substantial financial commitments in reliance upon a full enrollment and that the undersigned shall be liable for the full school year tuition. Therefore, refunds for tuition or fees for withdrawal, absence, or dismissal will not be made by The Bishop's School except as covered under The Tuition Refund Insurance.

Laboratory and art fees, field trips, books and other school supplies will be charged to the student's account. All accounts are due and payable within 30 days of billing. If an account is forwarded to a collection agency or an attorney for collection, the undersigned agrees to pay all fees and costs incurred by The Bishop's School in collecting the amounts owing.

STUDENT ENROLLMENT CONTRACT

The undersigned enrolls ANDREW PHILIP CUNANAN as a Student in the 10th grade of The Bishop's School for the school year beginning September 7, 1984 ending June 8, 1985. Enclosed herewith is a non-refundable deposit of $500.00 that will be credited against the tuition fee. The undersigned reserves the right of not entering such a student in the above-named school provided the undersigned shall give written notification of such withdrawal which reaches the School before August 1, 1984.

In consideration of the enrollment, the undersigned agrees to pay The Bishop's School $5,200.00 for tuition for the school year September 1984 ending June 1985. Tuition payment (less $500 non-refundable tuition deposit) is due in full by the first day of August 1984. Tuition may be paid in two installments: $2,350.00 must be paid by August 1, 1984, and the balance of $2,350.00 must be paid by January 29, 1985. Students for whom tuition has not been paid by the due dates will not be permitted to attend classes.

If tuition is to be paid in two installments, an automatic charge of 3.5% of tuition (after deposit) ($164.50) is due and payable with the first tuition installment for enrollment in The Tuition Refund Insurance program. The Tuition Refund Insurance program provides for a refund of a percentage of the unused tuition charges in situations covered under The Tuition Refund Insurance program. If the year's tuition payment is made in full by August 1, 1984, participation in The Tuition Refund Insurance program is optional; however, it is recommended. The undersigned understands that the School enters into substantial financial commitments in reliance upon a full enrollment including said student and that the undersigned shall be liable for the entire tuition of the school year. Therefore, refunds for tuition or fees for withdrawal, absence, or dismissal will not be made by The Bishop's School except as covered under The Tuition Refund Insurance.

Laboratory and art fees, field trips, books and other school supplies will be charged to the student's account and are payable 30 days after mailing of the statement. Student Accident Insurance fee of $30.00 will be charged against those accounts desiring participation.

If an account is forwarded to a collection agency or an attorney for collection, the undersigned agrees to pay all fees and costs incurred by The Bishop's School in collecting the amounts owing.

It is understood by the undersigned that the above-named student enrollee as well as the undersigned must agree to uphold the standards of the School and comply with the regulations adopted by the School. It is further understood that failure to do so may be sufficient cause for dismissal of the student at any time.

I had long looked foward to my tour and interview at Bishop invisioning ivy covered walls, spacious classrooms and teachers the like of Mr. Chips and Miss Jean Broods. I imagined it as the west coast version of Groton, Deerfield and so on. When I came for my visit I was not disapointed. The previous evening a student at the school [redacted], suggested that I go with him to school sit in at his classes and tour the grounds with him first so that I could have a better view of what being a student there was really like and afterwards I could go on the The next day I took up his offer and saw the small classrooms cracked sidewalk and old buildings. But it also saw the small classroom size with more individule atention, religious study and high quality students that attended the school.

b7C

Afterwards I went on the school tour which was far more sheltered. I viewed the newly refurbished library, the computer room, rooms used especially for entertaining and visited through only the well kept grounds.

That day I realized the real reason for going to a private school, for an education.

CLASS OF 1987

SUMMARY SCHOOL REPORT
END OF JUNIOR YEAR FOR ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN

Andrew is a true intellectual with a ready sense of humor and a concern for others. He relates very well to adults, discourses brilliantly about culture and history and is capable of profound thought. He is independent, occasionally self-indulgent and at times only interested in pursuing areas that truly interest him. A fascinating individual in every way, Andrew can't help but enliven a college campus!

Most of his teachers describe Andrew as absolutely unique in the classroom. He does excellent work on the Advanced Placement level (three 5's to date) with the exception of mathematics which doesn't intrigue him in the least. His study habits and organizational abilities are not as honed as many students, but in many ways that is his nature and his strength. As one of his English teachers notes: "He reads widely but not always the assigned material. He appears to have an international and extremely broad background. He writes with style and breadth - never misses the point of a question, although he may not have all of the factual information to address it." Andrew can miss weekly and monthly requirements yet be fully prepared and achieve a 5 on a AP examination. This first rate mind will be appreciated in every way by college professors. He has remained in the top twenty students in the class and has compiled an excellent record despite the tendency at times to follow his own imagination in academic pursuits. I would think that college professors would cry out for students like Andrew Cunanan.

Andrew's intellectual activities outside the academic day are as varied as his interests. He took a humanities course at the University of California last year simply for the love of learning. He has studied art history on his own fdor many years and received the school's art history award last year. Our teacher in this field (an expert of long standing) describes Andrew's reading and background in this field as one of the finest that he has ever encountered.

Lettering on the cross-country team for the past three years among other activities, Andrew is actively involved all around the campus. He has been active in the Beyond Bishop's Council, the Peace Club and has worked with young children in the pediatric ward of a local hospital. Andrew has done much for our literary publications editing and selecting material.

Finally, Andrew should not simply be viewed as satisfying the intellectual quotient at a particular college or univesity. Another faculty member states, "He is able to take an idea and follow all its ramifications (implied and explicit) without losing the train of thought." All of us applaud his originality, his fascination with ideas and his imagination. However, beyond all of this, he takes an active and integral role in his senior class at all times. He is an individual in every sense of the word and he will enrich a college campus immeasureably. He receives our enthusiastic recommendation.

This updates information provided in a SIOC note dated 5/12/97.

On 5/12/97, FBI PH advised CID that although they have received numerous tips in captioned matter, no credible sightings have been reported of Cunanan. Interviews have confirmed that he is an active homosexual and has many acquaintances in the New Jersey/New York area. One close associate of Cunanan's in [redacted] stated that he would expect Cunanan to contact him if he is in the area. This associate will report all contacts with Cunanan and FBI PH plans to [redacted] in case Cunanan should call.

b7C

The U.S. Attorney's Office is leaning toward accepting a case against Cunanan as they are of the opinion that conclusive federal jurisdiction apparently exists at the national cemetery in Fort Mott State Park, where victim Reese was murdered.

FBI PH is preparing a request for Cunanan to be placed in a Top Ten Most Wanted status as he has committed at least four murders in a little more than one week. No one has been able to locate any fingerprints of Cunanan as he has apparently never been arrested. A photograph was obtained however, and has been provided to the Fugitive Publicity Unit, OPCA, FBIHQ.

FBI CG advised that they have not found any evidence of a prior relationship between Cunanan and victim Lee Miglin, 72, the wealthy Chicago developer whose body was found Sunday morning (5/11) in his garage, his head bound in masking tape and his body covered with plastic and brown wrapping paper. Miglin had been stabbed several times, his throat slashed, his chest pounded by a blunt instrument. According to the Chicago PD, there was evidence that he had been tortured before he died.

The 1995 sports utility vehicle registered to victim Madson, who was found shot to death with on 5/3/97 near a lake in rural Chisago County northeast of MP, had been illegally parked around the corner from Miglin's home for several days. Madson's body was discovered four days after murder victim Jeffrey Trail, 28, was found beaten to death and rolled up in a carpet in Madson's loft apartment in Minneapolis. Miglin's Lexus was found abandoned near the murder scene of victim Reese, and Reese's vehicle is now missing.

CG Agents interviewed Cunanan [redacted] on 5/12/97 [redacted] advised the Agents that Cunanan has lots of money as the result of living off of wealthy homosexuals.

b7C [redacted] Details of those interviews will be available later today. CID discussed this matter with CASKU U/C [redacted] last night and instructed FBI CG to provide them with the results of their interviews for use in a potential profile.

FBI CG further advised that at some point in time, Cunanan lived in San Francisco with [redacted]. She has reached out to offer whatever assistance she can and a lead has been set for her to be interviewed today.

Additional information will be provided to CID as it becomes available.

Suspect Is Said to Know Son of a Murder Victim

CHICAGO, May 11 (Reuters) — The suspect in a series of killings in three states was a close friend of the son of one of the victims, The Minneapolis Star Tribune reported today.

The newspaper said the suspect, Andrew Cunanan, 27, was very close with Duke Miglin, a 25-year-old actor and the son of Lee Miglin, a millionaire developer whose body was found last week in the garage of his Chicago town house on May 4.

Mr. Miglin's family has denied any link to Mr. Cunanan, who remained at large today.

Mr. Cunanan spoke frequently to Duke Miglin, friends from San Diego told the newspaper.

Mr. Cunanan is suspected in the April 30 bludgeoning death of Jeffrey Trail, 28, in Minneapolis, and has been charged with murder in the shooting death of David Madson, 33, on May 3. Mr. Cunanan is believed to have killed William Reese, 45, a caretaker at the Finn's Point National Cemetery in Pennsville, N.J., on Friday and taken his pick-up truck.

On 5/9/97, at approximately 10:54 p.m., Associate SAC Sheila W. Horan, FBI Philadelphia, advised of the following investigation within the Philadelphia Division which has emanated from the Minneapolis and Chicago Divisions:

Associate SAC Haran, advised Andrew Phillip Cunanan was the subject of a state wide manhunt in the Chicago Division as the result of both a Minneapolis UFAP Case and the recent murder of Lee Miglin, a wealthy developer found slain in his residential garage in one of Chicago's wealthiest neighborhoods. Haran said media coverage concerning Miglin's murder has been well publicized throughout the country.

On 5/9/97 at approximately 10:30 p.m., Haran was notified that caretaker William Reese, 45, a federal employee of a national cemetery located within Fort Mott State Park, had been murdered. Fort Mott State Park is located near Pennsville, New Jersey. A Lexis vehicle belonging to Miglin was found at the crime scene and Reese's vehicle, a red Ford pickup truck with New Jersey license plates, was apparently stolen by Cunanan after Reese's murder. Follow-up investigation by the Chicago Division determined Cunanan was in the Philadelphia Metropolitan area when he utilized the cellular telephone in Miglin's Lexis at approximately 3:30 p.m. on 5/9/97. The wife of victim Reese attempted to telephonically contact her husband at Fort Mott State Park at approximately 5:00 p.m., but was unsuccessful and contacted local police who located victim Reese.

FBI, Philadelphia, and New Jersey State Police are working the case jointly due to concurrent jurisdiction. The case may be turned over to the State based on factors or determinations made by the United States Attorney's Office.

b7C On 5/10/97, SSA [redacted] Philadelphia Division, Fugitive Task Force, advised that on Thursday, May 8, 1997, two hits were made on victim Miglin's cellular telephone b2 in the Philadelphia area, however, [redacted] required additional hits to pinpoint location. A general radio message was disseminated through the Philadelphia Police Department to contact the FBI should victim Miglin's vehicle be located. On Friday, May 9, 1997, FBI, Chicago reported a hit on the cellular telephone at 2:30 p.m. at or near Route 295 in Pennsgrove, New Jersey. Local authorities and toll booth operators were notified to be alert for the vehicle. Subject Cunanan apparently exited at the last New Jersey exit and found his way to Fort Mott State Park, where victim Reese was working as the sole cemetery employee. Reese was shot once in the head. SSA [redacted] advised one Minnesota victim was shot with a .40 caliber weapon and a second victim was beaten to death with a hammer. A half empty box of .40 caliber ammunition was located. The Chicago victim, Lee Miglin, was stabbed to death.

b7C

On 5/10/97, SSRA [redacted] Philadelphia Division, South Jersey RA, advised that an autopsy revealed victim Reese was shot once in the back of the head with a .40 caliber weapon, and that the round exited through the right frontal lobe. Time of death was placed between 3:00 p.m. and 6:00 p.m. New Jersey State Police handled the collection of forensics evidence. Physical evidence located within Miglin's vehicle will be processed on Monday, 5/12/97, following coordination with FBI, Chicago. SSRA [redacted] advised telephone calls have been received from individuals claiming to know Cunanan, and one caller from Arizona described Cunanan as a "gay gigolo" who "catered to older men".

The following individuals were notified regarding this incident: Acting UC [redacted] and SC [redacted] VCFU, and Acting U/C [redacted] IT/GRC.

COMPLAINT

The Complainant, being duly sworn, makes Complaint to the above-named Court and states that there is probable cause to believe that the defendant committed the following offense(s). The Complainant states that the following facts establish PROBABLE CAUSE:

Your complainant is an investigator employed by the Chisago County Sheriff's Department. In that capacity, your complainant has reviewed police reports relating to the above-named defendant and the allegations contained herein. Based upon that information, your complainant believes the following to be true and correct.

On May 3, 1997, two fishermen discovered the body of an adult male lying in the grass near the shoreline of East Rush Lake. The fishermen contacted the Chisago County Sheriff's Department, who dispatched deputies to the scene. When the deputies arrived, they observed a deceased male who appeared to be in his late twenties/early thirties. In a cursory visual examination of the body, deputies observed what appeared to be bullet wounds to the decedent's head. Officers also noted in the grass near the body, tracks where a motor vehicle pulled into the area, drove in a circle, and then drove back out.

The officers then conducted a search of the area, discovering two empty casings for a .40 caliber Remington/Peters ammunition, along with a remote entry system and keys for a Chrysler product motor vehicle. The decedant did not have any identification on his person. The body was then taken to the coroner's office where an autopsy was to be conducted. The Chisago County Sheriff's Department then released information regarding the unidentified male being found near Rush Lake. The information included the height, weight, hair color, and approximate age of the decedent.

Shortly thereafter, Investigator Rivard of the Chisago County Sheriff's Department was contacted by Minneapolis Police Sergeant Tichich, who told Investigator Rivard that the gunshot victim found near Rush Lake fit the description of a person they were looking for regarding a homicide investigation in Minneapolis. Sergeant Tichich told Investigator Rivard the party they were looking for was named David Madson. Sergeant Tichich then shared information regarding the Minneapolis investigation.

On April 29, 1997, the caretaker for the apartment building located at 280 2nd Avenue North in Minneapolis was contacted by a co-worker of David Madson, the tenant in Apartment 404 of her building. The co-worker told the caretaker that David Madson had not been to work the last two days and that the co-worker was concerned for his well-being. The co-worker then requested the caretaker to check Madson's apartment. The caretaker then enlisted the aid of another resident and went to David Madson's apartment, number 404, and entered using the pass key. Inside the apartment they saw what they thought was a person lying on the floor wrapped in a heavy rug. They also saw blood on the floor and the back of the front door to the apartment. The caretaker and friend then left the apartment and called the police.

The Minneapolis Police Department conducted an investigation, which revealed the victim found in Madson's apartment was one Jeffrey Trail, an acquaintance of Madson's. When the officers determined it wasn't Madson, whose body was in the rug, they received a search warrant for the apartment. Found in the search of the apartment was a claw hammer with a blood-like substance on it. Also found was a nylon gym-type bag with Andrew Cunanan's name on it. Inside the bag was an empty holster for a handgun and a box of Remington/Peters brand .40 caliber Golden saber bullets, 15 live rounds in the box, 10 rounds having been removed. A gun was not located in the apartment.

While the police were conducting their investigation, a friend of Madson's arrived at the apartment building. The friend was identified as Ms. Salvetti. Ms. Salvetti indicated she had come to the apartment due to her concern for Madson as she had heard from another friend that he hadn't been to work for two days. Ms. Salvetti then shared that she had gone to dinner with with Madson and a friend of his, Andrew Cunanan, who was visiting from California, on Friday night, April 25, 1997 at Nye's Restaurant. On Saturday, April 26, 1997, Madson called her to see if she wanted to go dinner with them, however, she had plans. On Sunday morning, April 27, 1997, she spoke to Madson who told her that he and Cunanan had gone to dinner at the Monte Carlo Restaurant. They then went dancing at the Gay 90's. Cunanan then went to stay with another friend, who Ms. Salvetti knew as T.J. or J.T.

Ms. Salvetti also told the officers that Madson and Cunanan were homosexual and had been intimate. Madson told Ms. Salvetti that Cunanan was secretive and elusive and thought he may be into something "shady" so he put an end to the intimacy of their relationship. Ms. Salvetti told the officers that Madson met Cunanan while visiting friends of his, Karen Lapinski and Evan Wallit, in California. Ms. Salvetti did not speak to Madson after Sunday morning, April 27, 1997.

SIS COMPLAINT NUMBER(S)

Minneapolis officers spoke to a neighbor of Madson's, Jessie Schedoan, who told them on Sunday evening, April 27, 1997, he heard some unusual noises coming from Apartment 404. He recalled hearing someone in a very loud voice yell something to the effect of "Get the fuck out." He then heard the wall shaking and thud-like noises. He stated that the yelling and shaking continued for 30 to 45 seconds, then stopped. He went to the hallway after hearing the noises, but didn't see anyone. He then heard the sound of running water coming from Apartment 404.

While processing Madson's apartment, officers observed that his phone was equipped with a caller ID unit, and when the phone rang at a time indicated as 11:05, the call which was not answered came from number 941-5390. The subscriber of that number was J. Trail.

A police officer then called that number and spoke to Jon Hackett. Hackett told the officer that he is homosexual and has an intimate relationship with Jeff Trail. He had called David Madson's apartment to see if Madson knew of Trail's whereabouts. Hackett told the officers he had reported Jeff Trail missing to the Bloomington Police Department.

Hackett told the officer that he last spoke to Jeff Trail Sunday, April 27, 1997 about 9:00 p.m. Trail told him he was going to meet Andrew at a coffee shop near the Gay 90's and that he would walk to the Gay 90's and meet Jon. Trail told Jon Hackett that Andrew planned on staying that night at David Madson's. Hackett told the officers that Trail never met him that night, nor did he show up for work Monday as they both work for Ferrell Gas Company.

During the autopsy of Trail, his watch was observed to have stopped at 9:55 on April 27, 1997.

On May 6, 1997, Investigator Rivard spoke to Karen Lapinski and Evan Wallit. They told Rivard that they knew both Cunanan and Madson. Cunanan had told them that he was coming to Minnesota to take care of some business matters with Jeff Trail and to see David Madson. Lapinski told Investigator Rivard that Cunanan and Madson were homosexual and had been intimate, however, Madson was apprehensive about Cunanan.

Also, on May 6, 1997, Investigator Rivard spoke to an individual who stated that on May 2, 1997 he was returning to Pine City from the Twin City area driving north on Interstate 35. As he drove, he observed a red Jeep Cherokee in front of him. He noticed that there was a bumper sticker on the tailgate that wasn't quite straight that said "VAIL" and that the license place number ended with the letters LUG. He observed two males in the vehicle, one with light colored hair and one with dark colored hair. The vehicle would slow down and then speed up. This individual passed the jeep and remembers seeing it in his rear view mirror periodically, however, after passing the Rush City exit, he doesn't recall seeing the jeep again. Madson's vehicle was a 1995 Jeep Cherokee with Minnesota license number 534 LUG. Additionally, it had a "VAIL" bumper sticker on the hatchback consistent with the description given by the reporting party. Further, Madson had blonde hair and Cunanan has dark colored hair.

During the autopsy of Madson, a bullet consistent with that of a .40 caliber Golden Saber was recovered from his chest. Additionally, the coronor indicated the time of death was on or about May 2, 1997.

Gruesome Death Shakes Chicago's Gold Coast

Wealthy Developer Found Slain in His Garage

By Edward Walsh
Washington Post Staff Writer

CHICAGO, May 7—Lee Miglin dreamed big dreams. In the late 1980s, he announced plans to construct a 125-story office tower here that would be the world's tallest.

Because of financing problems, the project was never developed, but that did not diminish Miglin's business reputation or the rags-to-riches aura of his story as the son of an immigrant coal miner who became one of this city's most prominent and socially active real estate developers.

All that ended Sunday morning when the bloody body of Miglin, 72, his head bound in masking tape and his body covered with plastic and brown wrapping paper, was found by police in the garage of his elegant brownstone home in Chicago's wealthiest neighborhood, known as the Gold Coast. He had been stabbed several times, his throat had been slashed, his chest pounded by a blunt instrument. Police Superintendent Matt Rodriguez said there was evidence that he had been tortured before he died.

In a city where violent street crime is all too common, Miglin's gruesome death has sent a shudder through business and society circles and shocked the exclusive Gold Coast enclave, which hugs the shores of Lake Michigan north of downtown. Today, the case also appeared possibly linked to two earlier slayings in Minnesota that authorities said involved men who may have been lovers.

The link was a 1995 sports utility vehicle that has been illegally parked for several days around the corner from Miglin's home. Police said the vehicle's Minnesota license plates were registered to David Madson, 33, a Minneapolis interior designer who was found shot to death near a lake in rural Chisago County northeast of Minneapolis on Saturday.

Madson's body was discovered four days after another murder victim, Jeffrey Trail, 28, was found beaten to death and rolled up in a carpet in Madson's loft apartment in a trendy warehouse district near downtown Minneapolis.

Lee Miglin was found bound, beaten and stabbed at his home.

While Chicago police were searching today for Miglin's missing luxury automobile, police in Chisago County, Minn., issued a warrant for the arrest of Andrew Cunanan, 27, in Madson's slaying. According to news reports here and in Minneapolis, Cunanan and Trail were lovers.

"There is considerable speculation that some part of this is part of a lover's triangle, but we don't know that for sure," said Penny Parrish, a spokeswoman for the Minneapolis police department.

How, or even if, the Minnesota slayings were connected to Miglin's violent death was not known, but the presence of Madson's vehicle on a quiet Chicago street only deepened the mystery surrounding the killing of the real estate tycoon. According to Mark Jarasek, a spokesman for Miglin's real estate development firm, and John Ryan, whose retail marketing firm employed Madson, there is no known link between the two men.

Miglin was "a very, very private individual," Jarasek said.

The son of a Lithuanian immigrant coal miner from southern Illinois, Miglin began his real estate career as a salesman for Arthur Rubloff & Co., a Chicago real estate giant. He is widely credited for his concept of redeveloping aging warehouse areas into what is known today as upscale business parks, and at the time of his death had built a company responsible for developing several high-rise buildings in Chicago and its suburbs and managing 22 million square feet of office and retail space.

Miglin is described by friends as a kind and gentle man who was active in charitable causes. His wife of 32 years, Marilyn Miglin, is also a successful businesswoman, the owner of her own cosmetics and perfume company that she advertises on the Home Shopping Network and a fashionable boutique on a street of exclusive shops that last year was given the honorary title of Marilyn Miglin Way by the city government.

Marilyn Miglin called police Sunday morning after returning from a business trip to Canada, when she was unable to locate her husband in their home. After the grisly discovery of her husband's blood-soaked body in the garage, choking back tears, she told reporters she was certain the crime was an act of "random violence." At a news conference Tuesday, Miglin business partner, J. Paul Beitler, said: "This was not a gangland hit, not at all. . . . He had no enemies."

Police here have said they are ruling out a random attack as a possibility that Miglin was killed by someone he knew. Accounts of the investi there was no evidence of a entry into the house and som cations that Miglin's assailant sailants may have spent Sa night there. These included over ham sandwich and stubbl an electric razor in a bathroom

Chicago Sun-Times columnist Kupcinet, a friend of the f added another puzzling aspect case today. He reported that ing the Miglin home, he w prised to be confronted by a l growling dog. When he asked the dog was during the crim cinet said Marilyn Miglin sh her shoulders and said, "I want to buy a large dog."

Today, a police car occas circled the block that inclu Miglin home, but otherwis were no signs of the violent Madson's sports utility vehi been towed by police. A ha ten sign taped to the front the home asked that flowe eries be left on the front po

1997, ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN IS BELIEVED TO HAVE KILLED FOUR PEOPLE, INCLUDING TWO IN MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA, ONE IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, AND ONE IN PENNSVILLE, NEW JERSEY, ON MAY 9, 1997. THE SUBJECT IS POSSIBLY STILL TRAVELING IN THE NEW JERSEY VICTIM'S VEHICLE, A 1995 RED CHEVROLET PICK-UP, NEW JERSEY LICENSE KH993D.

ON MAY 7, 1997, THE CHISAGO COUNTY, MINNESOTA, DISTRICT COURT ISSUED AN ARREST WARRANT CHARGING CUNANAN WITH MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE. ON MAY 7, 1997, A WARRANT CHARGING CUNANAN FOR UNLAWFUL FLIGHT TO AVOID PROSECUTION FOR MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE WAS ISSUED BY U.S. MAGISTRATE JUDGE ARTHUR BOYLAN, ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA. THE ORIGINAL WARRANT FILED WITH THE U. S. MARSHAL'S SERVICE, MINNEAPOLIS, MINNESOTA.

CUNANAN IS A HOMOSEXUAL, A MALE PROSTITUTE, WHO FREQUENTS UPSCALE GAY ESTABLISHMENTS. THE TWO VICTIMS KILLED IN MINNESOTA WERE FORMER LOVERS OF THE SUBJECT. HOWEVER, THE MOTIVES FOR THEIR DEATHS ARE UNKNOWN. THE PERSON KILLED IN CHICAGO, ILLINOIS, WAS A WEALTHY BUSINESSMAN. THE MOTIVE FOR THIS KILLING IS ALSO UNKNOWN. HOWEVER, CUNANAN DID STEAL THIS VICTIM'S VEHICLE. HE LEFT THIS VEHICLE AT THE SCENE OF THE NEW JERSEY MURDER AND TOOK THAT VICTIM'S VEHICLE. IT IS POSSIBLE THAT SOME OF THESE MURDERS OCCURRED SIMPLY BECAUSE CUNANAN NEEDED A VEHICLE. THESE MURDERS HAVE BEEN DESCRIBED AS VICIOUS, EXECUTION STYLE KILLINGS.

[redacted]NAN IS DESCRIBED AS A WHITE MALE, DATE OF BIRTH [redacted] AUGUST [redacted], 1969, 5'9", 160 POUNDS, SHORT BROWN HAIR AND BROWN EYES.

A PICTURE OF CUNANAN WILL BE SENT UNDER SEPARATE COVER VIA FEDERAL EXPRESS TO RECEIVING OFFICES.

EACH RECEIVING OFFICE IS REQUESTED TO ALERT SOURCES IN THE GAY COMMUNITY REGARDING CAPTIONED SUBJECT, AND IF POSSIBLE, HAVE INFORMATION REGARDING CAPTIONED SUBJECT PLACED ON LOCAL TV AND IN LOCAL NEWSPAPERS. CUNANAN'S CURRENT WHEREABOUTS ARE UNKNOWN.

Re: CASKU assistance in the Andrew Phillip Cunanan investigation.

Since April 29, 1997, Cunanan is suspected of committing homicides in the following locations:

Minneapolis, Minnesota - April 29 - Jeffrey Trail (victim)
East Rush Lake, Minnesota - May 3, 1997 - David Madson (victim)
Chicago, Illinois - May 4, 1997 - Lee Miglin (victim)
Pennsville, New Jersey - May 9, 1997 - William Reese (victim)
Miami Beach, Florida - July 15, 1997 - Gianni Versace (victim)

* CASKU assisted Unit Chief [redacted] Violent Crime Unit with a press release subsequently made by Mr. Esposito on 5/16/97. b7C

* On 5/20/97, CASKU participated in a conference call with FBIHQ, FBI San Diego, Minneapolis, Chicago, and Philadelphia wherein strategies were discussed. CASKU recommended Rapid Start as an information management tool, discussed interview strategies, and offered behavioral considerations. CASKU emphasized to the group that we did not have pertinent FD302s or copies of crime scene/autopsy photographs or investigative reports important to fully develop offender characteristics.

b7C * On 7/16/97, CASKU again participated in a conference call with FBIHQ (Unit Chief [redacted] SSA [redacted] FBI Minneapolis, Chicago, Philadelphia, and Miami. Miami advised that the red truck found in a parking garage near the crime scene of Versace was the stolen vehicle taken from the homicide scene of victim Reese (New Jersey). Cunanan's wallet and several receipts were located in the truck and have been distributed for lead coverage to several field offices. The FBI Lab has matched the shell casings and rounds recovered from the Versace homicide scene with the East Rush Lake, Minnesota homicide (Madson) and the Pennsville, New Jersey homicide (Reese). The weapon has been identified as a .40 caliber Remington/Peters pistol. Miami reported no known current relationship between Cunanan and the victim has been identified. CASKU recommended the following:

b7E 1. [redacted]
2. [redacted]
3. [redacted]
4. [redacted]

b7E [redacted]

b7C Unit Chief [redacted] was advised that CASKU does not have the necessary information (relevant FD302s, crime scene data, etc) to assist in providing an assessment of Cunanan. It was emphasized that the conference recommended in item #3 would be an efficient way to provide such an assessment. UC [redacted] eemed to support this idea.

[redacted] The following investigation was conducted by SSA [redacted], CASKU, on 07/16/1997:

On the above date CASKU SSA's [redacted] and [redacted] participated in a telephone consultation with the other FBI Field Divisions involved in the fugitive investigation of Top Ten Fugitive Andrew Phillip Cunanan. The other FBI Field Divisions involved in this telephone consultation were Miami, Minneapolis, Chicago, Philadelphia and FBIHQ.

The Miami Division initially provided information concerning the homicide of fashion designer Gianni Versace which took place in Miami on 07/15/1997. After Miami spoke the various other Field Divisions updated one another on the status of their particular investigations.

CASKU was then asked for its input and the following recommendations were made:

Details: CASKU first became actively involved in the CUNANAN matter on 5/16/97 when UC [redacted] Violent Crime Unit (VCU), FBI Headquarters (HQ), requested CASKU's assistance in providing information on "Profiling" serial killers. UC [redacted] needed this information for inclusion in a statement Assistant Director Esposito was going to provide to the media regarding CUNANAN. The information was provided and it was used although the content was changed somewhat by HQ personnel and its accuracy therefore suffered.

On 5/19/97 SSA [redacted] HQ, telephonically contacted CASKU and requested the Unit's participation in a conference call with HQ personnel scheduled for 5/20/97. The Unit participated in that call and discussed interview strategies and offered behavioral considerations.

On 7/15/97 captioned victim Versace was murdered in front of his home in Miami Beach, Florida. On 7/16/97 CASKU was asked to participate in a teleconference with FBI personnel from (HQ), Miami (MI), Minneapolis (MN), Chicago (CG), and Philadelphia (PH). During this teleconference CASKU suggested: 1)That consideration be given to utilizing Rapid Start in the two existing CUNANAN cases (MN and PH) so there would be an accurate [redacted] 2)That consideration be given to scheduling a conference to be attended by all the Field Divisions having an interest in the CUNANAN investigation. This would enable CASKU to view the crime scenes from all five cases and therefore be in a better position to predict CUNANAN's future behavior. 3)That consideration be given to determining who, from CUNANAN's closest friends, might be the most appropriate person to make a national plea for CUNANAN's surrender. 4)The development of a comprehensive offender time line.

Subsequent to the 7/15/97 teleconference CASKU personnel were asked to participate in each subsequent, daily teleconference from 7/16/97 through 7/23/97. During those eight days the above four suggestions were adopted by all the teleconference attendees which grew to include Los Angeles (LA), San Francisco (SF), New York (NY), San Diego (SD) and Boston (BS). The above-referenced conference was convening when CUNANAN took his own life in MI on 7/23/97.

During the above conference, though a "Profile" was not an expectation, CASKU personnel were able to offer a number of suggestions which, if followed, would strengthen the evidentiary case against CUNANAN through utilization of forensic evidence to include hair, fiber and body fluid collection and comparison.

Further, CASKU personnel [redacted]

Also, between 7/16 and 7/23/97, the participating Divisions sought CASKU's recommendations with respect to media considerations and Unit personnel provided same with emphasis placed on cautioning the public regarding behavioral changes CUNANAN would most likely experience while in a fugitive status, [redacted]

Re: 88A-MP-47461, 07/24/1997

For information, the San Diego Division, on 7/22/97, had contacted the Baltimore Division in order to obtain AOL account information, if any, regarding subject. San Diego was advised that AOL account information could be obtained, however, that office would have to provide Baltimore with a subpoena. San Diego advised they would obtain a subpoena and fax same to Baltimore for service at AOL.

On 7/23/97, Baltimore IRS [redacted] recontacted San Diego and requested that they add the above two screen names to their subpoena, in order that subscriber information could be obtained. b7C

On 7/24/97, San Diego advised that because of subject's death, a subpoena would not be obtained for any AOL information.

The Baltimore Division currently has an ongoing investigation entitled [redacted] In order to obtain AOL information, this office uses a Federal Grand Jury subpoena issued out of the Eastern District of Virginia. b7C b7A

If Boston and/or New York is still desirous to obtain true name subscriber information regarding the above screen names, that office is requested to provide Baltimore with a subpoena for service at AOL.

Baltimore considers these leads covered.

Synopsis: Coverage of leads.

Details: The following leads have been covered in Baltimore Division:

Contact has been established with the Gay and Lesbian Community Center of Baltimore, as well as with other gay organizations within the division.

[redacted] telephone number [redacted] was contacted regarding his call to "America's Most Wanted". He said that he attended a baseball game at Camden Yards Stadium in Baltimore on 7/19/97. During the game, he became engaged in conversation with an individual resembling Cunanan. That individual said he had been travelling across the country from California and mentioned having been in Texas, Minnesota, New York, New Jersey and South Florida. He knew nothing about Baltimore and had a backpack containing maps. He said he was going to the [redacted] West Leesburg Pike (Route 7), Leesburg, Virginia, "To see my man". He took out a map and asked [redacted] for detailed directions to Leesburg, Virginia. [redacted] described this man as a white male, no indication of being gay, late twenties, 5'10", 150 lbs., short black curly hair, brown eyes, wearing shorts and carrying a backpack. This information was passed on to the WFO Command Post to ensure they were aware of the Leesburg b7C destination.

On 7/19/97, a citizen contacted the Easton, Maryland Police Department regarding a [redacted] in color, Massachusetts tag [redacted], being operated by an individual resembling Cunanan. That information was passed on to the Maryland State Police who in turn notified the FBI. The vehicle was registered to [redacted], date of birth [redacted] Massachusetts, on a [redacted] in color. The [redacted] Police Department interviewed [redacted] and learned telephonically that a family member was still in possession of the vehicle in Easton, Maryland.

b7C

On 7/20/97, a caller reported seeing a black Pathfinder, partial Florida tag [redacted] at East-West Highway and 16th Street in Washington, D.C. That vehicle was being operated by an individual resembling Cunanan and Baltimore Division agents are on the lookout for it.

On 7/22/97, an individual resembling Cunanan had a passport photo taken on Route 40 outside Baltimore. A license plate number was obtained for the Audi driven by that individual, who matches the description of Cunanan and [redacted] the registered owner. Interviewing agents obtained the negative of the passport photo. [redacted] was found not to be identical to subject.

(SERIAL 218), AND MIAMI TELETYPE TO ALL FIELD OFFICES DATED JULY 16, 1997.

FOR INFORMATION OF ALL DIVISIONS, REFERENCED SERIAL 218 REQUESTED ALL DIVISIONS TO CONTACT AND ALERT SOURCES IN THEIR COMMUNITY, AND PARTICULARLY THE GAY COMMUNITY, REGARDING CAPTIONED SUBJECT. ALL DIVISIONS WERE PROVIDED WITH WANTED FLYERS FOR DISSEMINATION. REFERENCED MIAMI TELETYPE AGAIN REQUESTED THE FIELD TO CANVAS ALL SOURCES, WITH SPECIAL ATTENTION TO SOURCES IN THE GAY COMMUNITY.

MINNEAPOLIS DIVISION IS REQUESTING THAT DIVISIONS THAT HAVE NOT ALREADY DONE SO MAKE CONCERTED EFFORTS TO ESTABLISH ON-GOING COMMUNICATION LINES WITH GAY COMMUNITY LEADERS AND ACTIVISTS. MINNEAPOLIS INVESTIGATION HAS REVEALED THAT MANY GAY COMMUNITY MEMBERS ARE CONTACTING THE LOCAL GAY AND LESBIAN REPRESENTATIVES INSTEAD OF LAW ENFORCEMENT.

FOR INFORMATION, ON TODAY'S DATE, MINNEAPOLIS MAILED APPROXIMATELY 2,000 FLYERS NATIONWIDE TO KNOWN GAY ESTABLISHMENTS, I.E., RESTAURANTS, HOTELS/MOTELS, MOVIE HOUSES, ETC. A COVER LETTER WAS SENT WITH THE FLYER REQUESTING THE ASSISTANCE OF THESE ESTABLISHMENTS.

FOR INFORMATION OF THE FIELD, MINNEAPOLIS HAS CONTACTED

THE APPROPRIATE DIVISIONS AND IS IN THE PROCESS OF UPDATING THE LHM USED FOR DISSEMINATION. THE LHM WILL BE DISSEMINATED TO ALL FIELD OFFICES UNDER SEPARATE COVER ON TODAY'S DATE.

LEADS:

ALL FIELD OFFICES:

IF NOT ALREADY DONE, ATTEMPT TO ESTABLISH AN OPEN LINE OF COMMUNICATION WITH LOCAL GAY COMMUNITY LEADERS AND ACTIVISTS IN AN EFFORT TO SOLICIT THEIR COOPERATION IN BOTH DISSEMINATING INFORMATION WITHIN THE GAY COMMUNITY AND TO CREATE A MEDIUM IN WHICH POSITIVE INFORMATION CAN BE QUICKLY REPORTED BACK TO YOUR PARTICULAR FIELD OFFICE.

SUBJECT ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN

FILE NUMBER 252B-IR-4777 SECTION # 1C

Federal Bureau of Investigation

ANDREW PHILLIP CUNANAN, Aka
Andrew Phillip De Silva,
Drew Cunningham,
Kurt Matthew Demars;
WILLIAM R. REESE (deceased)-VICTIM;
Finn's Point National Cemetery,
Pennsville, New Jersey'
5/9/97;
Crime on a Government Reservation - MURDER
70A-PH-81635

The first documented indication that ANDREW P. CUNANAN, driving the LEE MIGLIN Lexus, was in the vicinity of Pennsville, New Jersey was at 2:28 PM EDT on 5/9/97. This documentation was provided by Ameritech Cellular, showing incoming, unanswered calls to the cell phone installed in the center console of the Lexus. There had been reports in the media indicating that the police were tracking the movements of CUNANAN by monitoring the signal being emitted by the cell phone in the Lexus.

Witnesses in the Pennsville, New Jersey area put the vehicle in the vicinity of the Finn's Point National Cemetery by 1:00 PM on 5/9/97. These times are all estimated.

A witness observed what is believed to have been CUNANAN attempting to dismantle the telephone in the center console of the vehicle. When recovered, the hand set wire connecting it to the cradle had been cut, most likely with the pliers from the Lexus tool kit. The antenna had been removed from the rear window mount; the head liner at the rear window had been pulled down and the antenna wire from the antenna mount removed. With all of these attempts to eliminate the signal, the phone would still intone when engaging the ignition, giving the impression that the signal was still actively transmitting.

The body of the victim was found in the basement of the cemetery office building. The door to the basement had been latch locked by CUNANAN before he left the scene.

The vehicle was parked (neatly) next to the spot where the victim's pickup truck would have been parked.

Absolutely no connection between CUNANAN and the victim has been established nor is there one suspected.

It is the opinion of all involved in this homicide investigation that CUNANAN killed WILLIAM R. REESE for his vehicle, a red 1995 Chevrolet pickup truck.

Investigation conducted since that time revealed the probability that CUNANAN proceeded south (I 95) and removed a license tag from a car in Florence, South Carolina. Most likely while parked in a Wall-Mart parking lot near SC 20 and I 95).

The owner of the tag has said the plate had been held on loosely by one bolt.

Evidence found in the pickup truck in Miami Beach, Florida indicated CUNANAN probably stayed in New York, from 5/5/97 through 5/8/97.

It should be noted that the most direct route to Pennsville, New Jersey would be the New Jersey Turnpike.

Evidence obtained to date seems to indicate that CUNANAN traveled directly to New York from Chicago, Ill., via I 80.

While the Veteran's Administration representatives were conducting their inspection of the cemetery office space on 6/20/97, a bible was found on the desk. In the bible was an index card marking certain passages which speak of "Unknown Murderers", Deuteronomy, chapters 19 through 22. The victim was a religious man and studied the bible.
