SI 192A-68

At approximately 9:30 AM, Charles E. Maibach, Chairman of the Board and President, Prospect National Bank, Peoria, Illinois, received telephone call at the bank from male who stated, "You have an emergency, call home", and hung up. Maibach immediately dialed his home phone number, and the same person answered the phone stating he was the emergency and gave him instructions to take all the money from the bank, place it in a bag, and immediately within five minutes, proceed to a telephone booth approximately one mile from the bank where he would receive further instructions. The caller advised Maibach he should not notify the police and not do anything foolish, as the money was insured and he was being watched. Maibach immediately placed $31,500 in a bank bag, which amount included [redacted] and proceeded to the telephone booth where he received instructions to go to a second telephone booth for further instructions. Upon arrival at the second telephone booth, Maibach was instructed to proceed approximately one block further and place the bag behind a blue trash receptacle at a Wendy's hamburger stand and then go home and make any necessary calls he would have to make. Maibach dropped the money off and left the area; and upon arriving at home, found out [redacted] was safe at the residence and knew nothing about the incident.

b7E

b7C

Investigation reflected Maibach's home telephone line had been interrupted with a pinpoint phone connector as his lines had been cut on the exterior of his house and the person talking to Mr. Maibach at the bank had apparently intercepted the call at the site of his residence.

No surveillance of the money drop was made, and subjects developed to date have been eliminated.

ALL RECEIVING OFFICES HAVING SIMILAR EXTORTION ATTEMPTS, INCLUDING SOLVED AND UNSOLVED MATTERS, ARE REQUESTED TO IMMEDIATELY ADVISE SPRINGFIELD SO APPROPRIATE INVESTIGATION CAN BE CONDUCTED TO DETERMINE IF THE SAME PERSONS POSSIBLY INVOLVED IN CAPTIONED MATTER.

Re SI FD-430 to Bureau, 12/7/82 (no copy Los Angeles or New York), Los Angeles airtel to Springfield, 12/30/82 (copies to Indianapolis, New York, Pittsburgh, Springfield).

Pursuant to a telephone call received on 12/3/82, $31,500 was taken by the bank president of the Prospect National Bank of Peoria, Peoria, Illinois, and after further instructions was dropped off behind a blue trash receptacle at Wendy's Restaurant in Peoria. To date, none of the money has been recovered.

On the evening of 12/3/82, [redacted] appeared at the Peoria Police Department and during the interview advised on Wednesday evening, 12/1/82, they were in the Averyville Tavern, North Adams Street, Peoria. They all stated two persons were seated at the bar who talked about hitting a bank in Peoria on Friday, 12/3/82, and stated they had a plan which was "easy as taking candy from a baby", which would result in their obtaining around $250,000 from a local bank without ever having to enter the bank. [redacted] stated they did not ever hear the two men use a last name, but did recall the two persons referred to each other as Carl and Harry. b6 b7C b7D

[redacted] was immediately given a polygraph examination on the evening of 12/3/82, which indicated he was telling the truth about hearing the two persons discussing the bank extortion in the bar on the evening of 12/1/82, which possibly occurred on 12/3/82.

On 12/3/82, a photographic spread was displayed to [redacted] which resulted in [redacted] identifying a photograph of Carl DeTienne as positively being one of the persons they observed in the tavern on 12/1/82, discussing the bank extortion which occurred in Peoria on 12/3/82. Also, [redacted] identified the photo of Carl DeTienne as being of a person they observed in the tavern on the evening of 12/1/82, although they did not hear him discussing any possible bank extortion plot.

A 24 hour surveillance was immediately instituted on 12/3/82, on the residence of Carl DeTienne, 723 North Monroe, Peoria, and on 12/6/82, Carl DeTienne, [redacted] and Harry Morgan, a resident of their home, were picked up by Peoria Police Department officers for questioning. During questioning, it was determined Harry L. Morgan, Sr., was wanted on bad check charges out of LaSalle County, Illinois, and LaSalle authorities immediately placed a hold on him.

A line-up was held on 12/7/82, at which time [redacted] [redacted] both advised Carl DeTienne and Harry L. Morgan were the two persons they overheard talking at the Averyville Tavern on 12/1/82, about obtaining money from a local bank in Peoria, without ever even having to enter the bank. Also, [redacted] [redacted] identified Harry L. Morgan, Sr., and Carl DeTienne as the two persons who were [redacted] on the evening of 12/1/82, talking to [redacted] as well as [redacted]
