Reference is made to letter dated February 17, 1989, from [Redacted] to James H. Geer, captioned as above.

I apologize for this delayed response to the letter to Mr. Geer. This issue was recently brought to my attention and I commend your efforts to [Redacted]. However, unfortunately the FBI cannot at this time make a Special Agent available for assignment to your staff.

Events of the past year have placed increasing demands on the FBI's counterintelligence resources and especially our Agents with language skills. As in the past, our FBI field offices will continue to assist you in any way possible.
