I understand that you are leaving the Community Coordination Group, and it is a pleasure to join my colleagues in wishing you all the best in the future.

Also, I would like to take this opportunity to thank you for your leadership role in the mutual efforts of the law enforcement and intelligence communities against illegal drugs.
Our representatives who have worked closely with you over the past several years have enjoyed their professional association with you, as has the management of the FBI's Criminal Investigative Division. Your talents and abilities have greatly facilitated collaboration in the war against drugs worldwide. The American people have benefitted and will continue to benefit from the leadership which you have provided to the Community Coordination Group in the Counternarcotics Center.

With warmest regards,

Sincerely yours,

Louis J. Freeh
