Bank Robbed

SAN MARCO

Police Seek to Track Down Band of Heavily-Armed Thugs

SAN MARCO, May 19—San

Marco police officers today were called to track down a band of heavily-armed robbers who escaped with $2,500 in a safe during the First National Bank robbery

here yesterday afternoon.

Upon returning, the robbers in a gray sedan, which bore no license plates, turned into the Byronwood road after leaving the Shamrock. It was considered likely that they had headed in the general direction of San Antonio. Because of the peculiar shape of the steering wheel, the steers had a short distance to go and a narrow lane.

A. G. Blaske, president of the bank, expressed the belief that a woman, who possibly acted as a lookout, and another man, who came in a pick-up car, were imvolved in the robbery.

Mrs. Gene Brinkley, an employee stated that she could not see the two robbers in the car. Blaske was able to identify the main criminal by the rear part of the facing ahead.

The robbers in their heavily-armed sedan have been seen in a drawer of the bank.

SUSPECT RELEASED TO FEDERAL OFFICERS

Fort Smith, Ark., Aug. 31 (AP): Hubert Byrthe, who has been held at Van Buren, Ark., since July 27 as a suspect in the slaying of Marshal Henry Humphrey of Arna, Ark., was released to federal authorities on a warrant charging robbery of an interstate railroad shipment near Muskogee, Okla.

Sheriff Albert Mann of Van Buren, abandoned his attempt to link Byrthe with the Barrow holdups, Clyde and Marvin, in the Arkansas case. He failed to obtain positive identification of Byrthe as the man with Marvin Barrow when Humphrey was fatally wounded.

U. S. Marshal Cooper Hedges said he was informed that more than $500 in clothing was removed from a Missouri-Kansas-Texas train near Muskogee by Byrthe.

Byrthe was first arrested near Seminole, Okla., after Marvin Barrow was wounded fatally in an armed gun fight.

ONE OF WOMEN WITH BARROWS BELIEVED DEAD

Only three instead of four seen in armed auto.

The Missouri Times, San. 31 (AP): Two bandits and two women who engaged in a desperate gun battle with officers at Platts City, Mo., yesterday, were being sought in Iowa today.

The men are wanted for the murder of two Joslin, Mo., officers. They are Clyde Champion Barrow, 31, and Marvin Barrow, 21. It was believed last Sunday that one of the women may have left after wounds received in the Missouri gun battle. The remains of bloody clothing and faucets were found near Mount Airy, Iowa, where they had been partially buried.

Frank Marsh of California, near Mount Airy, reported seeing two men and a red-headed woman who he believed to be the fugitives. They were operating an auto in a small automobile.

The bandits were armed with a submachine gun, a repeater rifle and two revolvers. When officers attempted to forest the fugitives in a Platts City, Iowa, section, one of the barons mixing and two entered mines in the hills in which the bandits were said to have buried their loot and fled toward freedom.

Corp. Hickman telephoned

Joe Chamberlee's report of stolen at Widbta Falls

Yesterday at 2:30 p.m. Ford Model A Car. This was reported at Sunset in an alley.

T.S. Chamberlee, son of Joe and brother of Mary Chamberlee is missing from Widbta Falls.

Mary is Miss Barney Putte, former wife of Gene R. Darke and sister of T.S. Chamberlee. She is believed to be the woman with Hamilton. Hickmanbelieves either T.S. Chamberlee or Malcolm Bridges drove the Model A to Sunset for Mary to come home in.

that the officers were too close to make the switch and Raymond and Mary picked up the one who left the Model A to Sunset. This would seem to support the theory about picking up an outlaw hiding. Hickman is keeping the Chamberlee heirs informed.

Dear Bro:

Just a few lines to let you know I received your letter all OK. I had a letter from Uncle Bo, he came by from Houston. He said for me to write you.

He said he wish you ware on the Farm so it would be close so he could come and see you. Ant Berry said it swish to far her to come to the Walls. They live not far from the farm out Houston, the Retrieve isnt far from where she lives.

Well isnt much news, hope you are all OK.

As ever,

Dear Bro:

I received your letter several days ago, it found me in need of spear. I didn't need no attorney. I had Mr. Rodney but didn't need him.

I see where JO beat his case. He came by here, he wanted to know if I could get in touch of his brother Clyde. Clyde owed him and he wanted to know if you new where he moved to. I am trying to get my estate straightened up, and then I'm going to work at Moore Nichols, and draw my insurance they will owe me, and I'll see McDonald about that farm for you. I'm sure he will let his part go for $250 or $300, so bad don't worry.

Dad and mother are all OK. JO had two of Mr. Rodney address at both places, and he will make some ind. We both can do what we can but it will take time. Let me no if Clyde will come over and maybe can make a trade, so bad write me often quick as you can. Mother said write quick as you can, so love and best wishes.

She said she were mad at you for not writing her. Dan is on lake yet but it's bad time must close.

Hoping to hear from you soon, as ever.

Gentlemen:

With Clyde Barrow on the rampage down our way this afternoon and apparently headed toward Hutchinson after killing two men a suggestion we believe might be worth while.

Vern Waggoner notorious local racketeer and "fence" for stolen bonds has been harboring some very undesirable s of late. During the past week two men with bandaged heads and tough lockers were hanging out at his farm near Hutchinson. Waggoner is of beastful nature and justly so as far as conviction is concerned by local authorities. Local Chief of police is a partner in a gambling game—this we know to our personal knowledge. He also has a few so called higher-ups within his ring and of late somewhat careless.

It would be well worth while to have place right know. Waggoner is also kil.

yours truly, an ole timer.

CLYDE BARROW RECOGNIZED ON TERRELL VISIT

HIDOUTS WATCHED BUT GUN MAN AND GIRL SLIP THROUGH NET

Clyde Barrow, notorious West Dallas desperado, with a woman believed to be Bonnie Parker and their two new companions, were seen at Terrell, Tex., Monday morning about dark. It was revealed at the sheriff’s office Wednesday.

All known places in Dallas county where Clyde or Bonnie might visit were watched on Monday night, all day Tuesday and all Tuesday night.

A filling station operator at Terrell reported Clyde drove an Austin sedan leaving a North Carolina license plate, but his plates were lost before dark Monday. A complete check at all stations of Clyde and the filling of the gasoline tank was ordered.

At first the station attendant was not suspicious. He refused one of the men, helped the woman from the car. She walked to the pump, the attendant of one of the two men was refused. In the station attendant to Date: November 10th, 1933.

To Whom It May Concern:

After I have been duly sworn by Sheriff N. King, Assistant District Attorney of Dallas County, Texas that I do not have to make any statement at all, and that any statement I make may be used in evidence against me on the trial for the offense complained of, this statement is herein made, I also make the following voluntary statement to the aforesaid person:

My name is E. L. Jones.

My address is .....

I am 17 years old. I was born by 18th, 1916 in some little town in east Texas, but do not know the name of the town, nor the name of the County where the same is located.

I knew Clyde Barrow and have known him for about 11 years. I had met Bonnie Parker five or six times before the occasion when I left Dallas with Clyde Barrow and Bonnie Parker a day or two before Christmas, 1932, and went to Jalisco, Texas. Clyde killed a man who tried to interfere with us when we were passing a farm near the school there. We hid out in that Texas for a while, returning to Dallas on the night of Friday, January 6th, 1933, when some officers tried to arrest us at Mildred Hillard's house on County Avenue in East Dallas, and Clyde Barrow killed one of the officers with a shot-gun and Bonnie Parker also fired two or three times at the officers with a pistol.

We escaped from Texas then, and traveled through Oklahoma and Missouri, and hid away for some weeks at Jalisco, k. s., there we stayed, until we had a pitched gun battle with some officers who tried to arrest us there. I was shot and unconscious, but the others shot their way out and carried me with them, and we escaped in a Ford car. We hid out for a time, visiting various states including Texas, Oklahoma, Kansas, Indiana and Louisiana.

While we were in Louisiana, and before Clyde and Buck kidnapped the man and went there, they put me out of the car to steal a Chevrolet automobile for them. I saw this was my chance to escape and I jumped in this car and rode my way away and came back to Dallas, Texas.

I got back to Dallas about a week or a month and a half after the gun battle at Jalisco. ks. I cannot be any more definite as to the time. I stayed around Dallas several weeks. I stayed at my mother's at 2005 Harry Street in East Dallas. I saw and talked to Clyde Barrow's mother during this time, but I didn't tell any of the Barrows anything about what all had happened.

Late one afternoon—or rather about two o'clock in the afternoon—Buck, or rather about two o'clock in the afternoon—Buck, I was out at Sachem's Inn. I was walking along the road intending to go down to the Lake and to go to a dance at the Five Points barbecue that night. Bonnie Parker and Clyde Barrow drove up from behind me and stopped. They were in a V8 coupe.
I hadn't heard from them since I saw them last in Louisiana and did not know they were back in town until this time.

They spoke to me and told me to get in the car and I got in. They asked me if I wanted to go with them, and I told them I did not, and Clyde said I was going any way, and I did.

We drove on in the direction of Wichita Falls, going mostly on country roads. We stayed that night at the first little tourist camp on this side of Vernon, Texas. We left there early the next morning. He hadn't told me where we were going or anything — just said we were going 'up the country'.

We drove on all day and into the night. We went to sleep and while I was asleep we had a wreck. A bridge was out and Clyde drove off into the river, I was knocked out. Dennis was buried on her right leg from the thick on down, a pretty bad burn.

Dennis told me afterwards that the next thing she remembered was that she came to and we were all in a ambulance and she didn't know how we got there, and that I brought a rifle in the house, and she told me to take it to Clyde and I went out of the house with it. Dennis told me I brought a shot-gun there which scared a woman in the room. I don't know about anything that happened at this farmhouse, because if I did any of those things I was still out of my head from the injuries I had received in the wreck and knew nothing about them.

Dennis also told me the officers came to the house in a car and captured them and took their car and the officers with us and started for Oklahoma. I still don't remember this. But I came to while we were in this car. Clyde drove us driving and Dennis buried herself and myself and the two captured officers were in the car.

A few minutes after I came to we met back officers, in the edge of Oklahoma on a bridge. We were driving a Ford 10 convertible coupe. Blanche Burrow's wife was with him, Clyde drove up on one end of the long bridge and blew his horn and stopped, and we sat there a few minutes and we heard another horn at the far end of the bridge. Jack stopped his car there and came running up towards us. Clyde got out of the car with the two officers, and told us to drive the Chevrolet down towards Jack's car and get Blanche in it. I did that, and said there would be Jack and Clyde come back and I got in the coupe with Jack and Blanche and Dennis, and Clyde got in the Chevrolet and we had taken from the officers.

We bust up north into Oklahoma. On this trip I learned from their conversation that they had held up a bank somewhere and had froze of money. We went on into Arkansas from there.
