[redacted] "We had an appointment at the hotel at 12:30 and another one at one. We thought that you would be meeting at the hotel and we'd be eating in one room and I would take you aside to the other room. I tried to reach you and we couldn't reach you.....so if we can get out we'd like to visit with you for 40 or 45 minutes and you can order your lunch."

MEYER "I can eat after you leave."

b7C

[redacted] "MEYER, you gotta make this trip to Israel."

MEYER "I'm going to, but it can't be right away."

[redacted] "The Coronia (ph) leaves in October and it goes through the Mediterranean right to Haifa."

[redacted] "I went on that cruise a year ago last October."

MEYER "I was thinking of leaving right after Labor Day-going to Belgium, Copenhagen, and then coming back by boat.

"I took the trip once to the Mediterranean, but I only went as far as Italy. I think it was in 1949. I came back on the QUEEN ELIZABETH. I went back on the ITALIA. The ITALIA was better because it was slow.

"I used to take trips to Bermuda by boat, but I didn't like the boats because they weren't stabilized.

"My son is being stationed in Japan. I don't know, I may meet him, I may go to Israel. He got his Masters in engineering since you last saw me.

"How's [redacted] (PH)?"

b7C

[redacted] "I'll tell you he's a pistol. He's fine. He remarried."

MEYER "Who went over with you, [redacted]

[redacted] "Neither. [redacted] was supposed to go, but neither of them went. I went with [redacted] and then later we were joined by [redacted] (?), the whole contingent from California.

"One of [redacted] boys is getting married."

MEYER "Give him my best. Him I saw in December or January up here."

[redacted] "He'll be in California....."

[redacted] "(interrupting) he'll be in NY today. I just called him at the Lombardy (?). He wasn't in. He's leaving tonight or tomorrow for California because he's going back for the wedding."

All discuss millionaires' sons who did well by themselves and they included President KENNEDY in this category.

[redacted]

[redacted] "Yesterday we got the order for the new Drake Hotel here that [redacted] is.....the addition to it.

MEYER "To the old Drake?"

[redacted] "Yeah, on 54th.

"We wanted to see if we can't sell them on a rehabilitation program so we'll be popping in and out of here and [redacted] will be here a couple of weeks, won't he?"

ALL b7C

[redacted] "Yeah, he was in the Playboy....."

[redacted] "He'd love to see you MEYER."

MEYER [redacted] was here a couple of weeks ago."

[redacted] "I talked to him a week ago last Sunday when I was here."

MEYER "Yeah, my brother told me. [redacted] looked good.

[redacted] hopping all around."

[redacted] "Activity has picked up in the last three years not only on the strip, but the apartment houses, the homes.....in five years they'll have a 150,000 population. The area is about 100,000 now."

MEYER "I was reading that Idaho was going to allow gambling now."

[redacted] "I doubt if they'll vote it. Let's say that they do. It'll take them 25 years to come close to what you're banking on. Today in Las Vegas, you've got 250,000....."

[redacted]

[redacted] "Yeah, they made the carpet for a new house I furnished in Palm Springs."

[redacted] "Yes. I saw it being made. It was gold and orange I believe. You could use it and get away with it because you had a big room.

[redacted] what made you start up smoking?"

All
b7c.

[redacted] [redacted]quit smoking cigars once for two years, so redacted sold us on smoking cigars again. I'm on this ship and he says these won't hurt you."

[redacted]

[redacted] "Getting back to Las Vegas, there's so much activity and so much growth and development. I mean, to me, with all the checking and the investigation, it's all (obscene). It will all pass over and I think this KENNEDY is....."

[redacted] "Vindicative."

MEYER "But you see, if a state in the East like West Virginia.....I think it's got a very good chance of passing there, the state's in a bad economic condition. You've heard a lot about it. I'd like to see a few more states get it. Then you'd have more senators in the congress..... I don't know how your senator is, but the junior one seems to be a more popular fellow in the newspapers."

[redacted] "redacted (barely audible) is a hell of a guy. He's a real citizen."

[redacted] "Nevada lost a great guy when they lost redacted in that plane. He had more power than any senator. He was top man in the First National Bank of Florida. He was a great guy, but we've found that even though he's passed on, the bank is carrying on in the same way. They're loaning the money to the hotels and so on for improvements.....so on and so forth. They're supporting the industry, but if they can investigate General Motors, US Steel, General Electric, what the hell, this (obscene) is a copper at heart. He's going to investigate."

All b7C

MEYER "Being a copper is one thing.....but his methods are bad."

[redacted] "I agree with you."

MEYER "Did they have you before a jury?"

[redacted] "Oh, yeah, sure."

MEYER "Did they ever ask you about our deal?"

[redacted] "No.....that is.....what they asked was.....they were very very nice to me.

"They asked me how I got into the area.

"They asked about the work I could get and I told them. I got a kick out of that. I didn't tell them all of the things....."

MEYER "You weren't lying."

[redacted] "That's right. They asked me if I knew the [redacted]

"I said yes.

"They said how did you get to know him?

"I said we were doing a lot of work on the hotel and he was around quite a bit with his family .....spending as much time there as I did, I met him. I said we were nodding acquaintances.

"They asked who introduced you?

"I said no one introduced me.

"They said you just went up and said hello?

"I said, well gentlemen, if you know anything about Las Vegas....."

ALL b7C.

The informant did not hear the end of the above conversation concerning [redacted] testifying before a jury. b7C

MEYER "A year ago I was in Florida and they asked my brother in and they asked him about [redacted]. My brother saw so little of [redacted] and his wife you could take it any way. They asked if he knows him and he said yes. They asked do you know where he is and he said no. They asked where's your brother and he said he didn't know. So they said tell him to get in touch with us.

"So they started to come to my house when I wasn't there, 'is LANSKY in, FBI.' The (obscene) wouldn't come at six, six thirty or at nine in the morning. They always came at two in the afternoon and hours like that. [redacted] was having trouble with the help. Every maid I got, got contacted by the FBI, and they were quitting. So I decided I better call these (obscene) and I called. So they said we'd like to come to see you at your house.

"There was a knock on the door and they said may we come in.

"I said we'll sit in your car. They said it's a little too hot. I said well come in my house, it's air conditioned. They said we'd like to sit out on the terrace.

"So now I know they've got a recording machine. I gues it couldn't work as well in the house. They probably had the rest of the electronic equipment in the car. So I said okay we'll sit on the terrace.

"They said we'd like to ask you some questions. I said what's my rights. They said you don't have to answer and you have the right to a lawyer. I says why did you come to talk to me? These questions, will I benefit, will they help me? They said there's a moral complication. I said would you like to discuss morals with me? I know I'm not equipped to discuss it. I don't know if you are. Are you Socrates or some kind of a philosopher or something? So I turned to the other guy [redacted] b7c. I said [redacted], what's moral? So he said we're not here to talk about that. So I straightened him out as to what was moral. I said are you a lawyer and he said he was not. I said you understand the law and he said yes. I said you're going around questioning people about my income. You're going to people that are so devoted to me, it's not even funny. Then if you don't like what they say, you say 'don't you know he's a big gambler. You only know the good side.'

"I said what the (obscene) side do you know of me? Was I a thief? Sure I was a gambler. My doors were as wide open as the Fountainbleau Hotel. But it didn't take in a poor unfortunate worker. It took in a class of people that could afford it. Nobody was forced to gamble or to come there. Your (obscene) reformers that came there and ate my food and your newspapermen and many big officials.....they didn't pay their (obscene) check. If it was so terrible, why the (obscene) didn't they pay their (obscene) check?

"I said I know you know everything, but will you tell me what you're trying to accomplish? Will you tell me what do you want to make out of this? You don't want to see me make a living? I don't intend to starve. Before I do, I assure you I'm going to do something to feed myself. Only a moron would refuse. I said I don't intend "to do anything immoral. I have sympathy for a thief if conditions force him to steal. But I have no sympathy for an immoral thief.

[redacted] said we don't want to hear all this. We just want to ask you four questions.

"I said if the Commies were getting on the beach here, you'd be worried about a broken down MEYER LANSKY. I might live a year, two years.

"They said don't get excited.

"I said you're not exciting me. (MEYER is talking in a very excited manner.) But let's get smart. I realize you have a job. But your FBI, a respected organization. We all respected you. Now they're sending you around like some (obscene) investigator. That's what's happening. Only a little baby would attack Cuba the way we did. I told them we attacked the worse point where the poor fishermen are instead of head on where the rich people are..... where they would have turned against CASTRO.

[redacted] said what are you a moralist and a military strategist too?

"I said your department can tell you if they don't want to lie. I told them in '58 Cuba was going Communist.

[redacted] said we know all about that.

"I said I told that (obscene) AG who came to see me about Cuba that he wasn't fooling me asking about Cuba. He could go over there himself or contact our Embassy there.

All b7c

"This [redacted] was a nice guy, but he was a shrewd one. He kept popping questions to me. He stated do you know [redacted] I said is he wanted for a crime, this name you're asking me about. He said no. I said when you have people wanted for crimes, and you think I can be of benefit..... how come you ask me about people not wanted for crimes. I don't go for that."

(Telephone call interrupts conversation)

MEYER "(talking on the phone) Well I'll be. Where are you? When are you checking in? How's she feeling? Yeah, yeah, well you know the procedure. When are you leaving to go back? Well what's the number there? I'm leaving at the end of the week. 1-2957. Okay, I'll call you. I can't drive yet. I know, he told me. Give my best to [redacted] (ph) and the kids. (MEYER LANSKY hangs up.) That was [redacted]

[redacted] "Oh really?"

MEYER "His wife is sick. They brought her up here and operated on her."

[redacted] "I saw [redacted] and the whole crew in London. They were on the Variety Show."

MEYER "I know, I hear he was here. He wouldn't..... I was in the hospital. He was just here for one day.

"So [redacted] says to me, are you going to answer the question? I said I need you as my lawyer, you advise me. He said in the first place I'm not a lawyer. I said I'm sorry I refuse to answer. He said on the advice of counsel? I said on the advice of MEYER LANSKY. So they left.

All b1c

"You're living in an (obscene) police state, whether you like it or not [redacted] People don't realize it. Especially legitimate people. So many people think it can't touch them. This (obscene) city, you can't take a walk in it, you can't get off the beaten path.

"I read last week 15 kids here jumped two brothers and killed one of them. Some of these kids don't come from bad families."

[redacted] "The lousy police can't control them."

MEYER "They're playing politics, the (obscene)."

[redacted] "My sister lives in Brooklyn. In Los Angeles we've got wetbacks attacking people, kids, and everything else."

[redacted] "Yeah. They attacked [redacted] in Palm Springs."

MEYER [redacted] they attacked?"

[redacted] "He walked out of that restaurant on Main Street across from Chico's."

MEYER "But he's a six footer."

[redacted] "He was with the song writer who goes with [redacted]. He's about 70 years old. As they came out of the restaurant, three or four big guys with brass knucks started beating up [redacted] for no reason whatsoever. Broke his tooth, cut his lip. They don't know who, why, or when."

[redacted] "No, they caught the kids. They came back later to get [redacted] at his home."

MEYER "And there was no special grudge or nothing?"

ALL
b7C

[redacted] "No. That is I don't know whether there was nne. That I can't answer."

MEYER "The white man is in a tough spot."

[redacted] "The Moslems are on the Coast."

MEYER "A policeman shot one of them and the (obscene) right away they holler discrimination, that they shot him because he was a Negro. There was a riot.....these lousy minority groups."

[redacted] "Well you know it's tough on the coppers..... some of them anyway."

MEYER "They're getting belted left and right here."

[redacted] "They can't hire them. They're on the force six or seven months and quit. There's not only the criminals against them, but the public is against them."

[redacted] "It's not only the colored people, there's kids from Beverly Hills, from better homes."

MEYER "They caught students from Princeton stealing. If they can steal,what about the poor guy that's hungry?"

[redacted] [redacted] was right."

[redacted] "He was. I read his article. He said the crime rate is growing six times as fast as the population."

MEYER "Not only that the ethics and morals. What's happened?"

[redacted] "Politicians are reducing the quality of morals..... committing minor offenses. Not only that they've always got the fix in, and the police without the proper help of the judiciary, what can they do?"

ALL
b7C

[redacted] "They should get punished."

MEYER "If you wanted to go into that, you'd have every man in jail. Punishment's not the answer. Long ago they used to cut off arms, fingers, and torture them. It didn't cure it."

[redacted] "There's where [redacted] is wrong."

MEYER "If you find a person stealing who doesn't have enough to eat, there a reason. But tell me why you steal if you've got money in your pocket. You see these nigger kids stealing. Their parents are ignorant, no education. There's a certain spark that's bursting in them. But when you get a bright boy who comes from a nice family and he steals.....it's hard to understand these things.....cheating, and this (obscene) like TED KENNEDY."

[redacted] "And they want to get somebody else cheating. They all ought to be together."

MEYER "What a laugh that is. That's very funny. (All laugh heartily)."

[redacted] "I'll be back in a couple of weeks and so will [redacted] I think. I'd like to set the schedule and see a full day with you."

MEYER "I'll be in Florida until the end of July and then I'll come up this way and then I'll go somewhere around here where it's cool."

After the tailor departed, the following conversation took place:

[redacted] "He got in. He was anxious to get out of there..... to get somewhere for a couple of days."

MEYER "I wonder if his wife is coming by train. She doesn't like to fly."

[redacted] "(inaudible)....redacted."

MEYER "Did you go up?"

[redacted] "He says to me I could never get you in. He was short on cash. I gave him $2500.

"I asked him how [redacted] was.

"He said it was kind of rough with that ten per cent. It's tough all over with business MEYER..... somehow they get hurt."

MEYER "That steel business.....weren't they going in Texaco (?). That steel business was not in Canada."

[redacted] "What difference does it make. Money is worth ten per cent less."

MEYER "What's that got to do with it. They bought the steel business a long time ago."

[redacted] "I don't know. He told me about the money, I don't understand it."

MEYER "I'm trying to figure it out. I was up in the office with him.....you know. the stock man."

[redacted] "Yeah, [redacted]

ALL b7C

MEYER "He's a wealthy guy and he had some mills and scrap to buy in Mexico. So I mean the money comes from Mexico.....and brought in to Canada.

"It means the Mexican dollar will be worth more. I think the Mexican dollar as it stands now is about 13 to one."

[redacted] "On every hundred dollars they're getting ten dollars less."

MEYER Yes, but this money is drawn in from Mexico. That's where the business is. Say the Canadian dollar is 13 to one. So now it's 12 to one. The Mexican dollar will be worth more. Oh, I see.....you mean they lose it up there. Why can't they bring it into the United States someway."

[redacted] "Don't they have to pay a tax?"

MEYER "They can buy United States dollars in Mexico. Why can't they do that?"

[redacted] "I don't know MEYER."

MEYER "Ten per cent isn't bad. I don't thinkit will stay that way."

[redacted] "Now say I come in with American dollars..... Canadian dollars. I get 110 for a hundred. Now .....we used to have connections like at the Hotel (inaudible, possibly Mt. Veret) with the cashier. They got a lot of American money there and saved it for us and we used to stake it..... and that's it, getting (inaudible) for a gambler.

"So I says I don't think it would be too long for that thing because they're growing. Canada is growing. I don't know how it went down ten per cent."

ALL b7C

MEYER "Well I guess the kind of business they have must have stopped somewheres."

[redacted] mentions a newspaper article about the Attorney General.

MEYER "Let me tell you something. Anyone who hasn't lived, hasn't the right to tell anyone else anything. He's a young boy, 37 years old. He hasn't lived yet and he wants to tell others how to live. He's an arrogant punk."

[redacted] and an unidentified male individual entered.

UNSUB "Did you see [redacted] this morning?"

MEYER [redacted] wasn't in this morning. He didn't feel too well. He said he was going to take it easy."

UNSUB "One thing about him, the first little thing he doesn't feel good, he stays in."

MEYER "He's got many a worry. He's got a big position with that shot(?)(ph), Of course it cost him nothing.

"It's called General Hacrian (?)(ph) cemetics (ph). It used to be Shoe (inaudible) Machine, but they merged. He got it for nothing.

"Let me ask you something. When you get something like that for 20, don't you have to pay capital gain? How can you pay capital gain on that?"

[redacted] "Well you take it in at nothing and you pay 33 per cent or 25 an eight, whatever the tax is."

MEYER "I paid nine per cent in my bracket."

ALL b7C

[redacted] "I just ran into [redacted] I told [redacted].. no not [redacted] (inaudible) Reinspect (ph) company. I told him to tell him not to call you."

MEYER "He doesn't call him anyhow."

[redacted] "I told him not to call you."

UNSUB "Not to call him?"

MEYER "That was a couple of years ago."

[redacted] "No, a couple of weeks ago. No not you..... he called you. I told him I must have misunderstood you."

[redacted] "He had my telephone number, my name, and my address in a book. They got the book. You know how they got it? He told me they stopped him.....took everything out. They held him. They took the addresses. They must have taken photo copies of everyone of them.....let him go. He had my name and address and telephone number.

"I wouldn't have told him that. They called me down. I went down, that's it.

"He said I meant to call you. I said that's all right."

MEYER "Was that from that time on the street?"

[redacted] "It might have been then. It might have been after that killing.....they picked him up again. Where the hell I met him, I don't know. I met him one time. He came up to see [redacted] in the hospital. MEYER I still think.....(Maid enters and interrupts conversation and then departs.)

[redacted] [redacted] just came from out there. He was out West. He told me that (someone whispers 'that Italian from Mt. Vernon') he left there on Friday and [redacted] (ph) told him to check out, that they were going to pick him up.

[redacted] "They were going to throw him on a train. Do you think he can sue? He's an undesirable."

MEYER "There's no such thing as an undesirable. I happened to be there and the two chiefs told me 'we're going to pick you up everytime you're in town.' When we got out of the court.....I wasn't dismissed. [redacted] went over to the station house and says Mr. LANSKY said you said you were going to pick him up everytime he's in town and I want you to repeat it. 'Oh' he says 'Mr. LANSKY and I are going to be friends. I wouldn't do that'.

Subject was visited at his hotel room in the Volney Hotel by [redacted] MEYER remarked that [redacted] was coming up with his car and would give him a ride around NYC.

[redacted] enters the hotel room and mentions something inaudible concerning [redacted] remarked that he [redacted] used to frequent a Chinese restaurant on 22nd Street in Miami Beach and that he usually went with [redacted] LNU).

MEYER LANSKY remarked that the Copacabana had the nicest and cleanest kitchen he knew, but that he hadn't been there in a while.

The following conversation took place:

[redacted] "Where's [redacted]

[redacted] "He went to the cemetery. Two days he went to the cemetery."

MEYER "That's all right. In memory of his father one day, and his mother the other day."

[redacted] "The girl.....her husband died and left her some money."

MEYER "She must be in good shape."

[redacted] "Who?"

[redacted] [redacted] friend."

MEYER "You don't like her?"

[redacted] "Of course."

[redacted] "You gotta be dumb to like her MEYER."

Conversation was interrupted by an incoming telephone call from [redacted] (LNU). LANSKY remarked that he could not make a date for today because "he wants to be with his children." MEYER remarked that he would be here all week "so we are going to meet Monday."

All discussed cigars and [redacted] remarks that [redacted] smokes cigars and [redacted] used to smoke them and "the old man" [redacted] smokes them. MEYER remarked that the "old man" quit for a year or so and then went back.

Someone mentioned the name [redacted] and MEYER asked whether or not he was in Washington. The reply was inaudible.

The following conversation took place:

MEYER [redacted] had a good time in Cuba. They all had a good time in Cuba."

[redacted] "Yeah, cheating. One time in Florida.....he'd say I'm sending you some cigars. That [redacted] (ph), I wonder what happened to him. He'd come and say did you get the cigars I sent you? I grabbed him one time and pinned him down."

MEYER "You didn't smoke then, did you [redacted]

[redacted] "I used to give them to [redacted] (ph). He went into the hospital and when he came out I told him he was better off if he didn't smoke."

MEYER "How is his son doing?"

[redacted] "He's working for the hotel (inaudible)."

[redacted] enters MEYER LANSKY's hotel room.

[redacted] inaudible) on 36th Street, northwest corner, one room in the rear at 300 a month."

MEYER "You got their home number with you?"

[redacted] "I've got [redacted] I don't think [redacted]..."

[redacted] "They're both in the book." b7C

[redacted] has a new car."

[redacted] criticizes [redacted] for not taking his date home the previous evening.

[redacted] b3, b7C, b7C

[redacted] "After the accident with the baby we all chipped in and gave her $3000. [redacted] and I gave her ten plus the house. So now that the house is sold, so [redacted] says he's got nothing left out of the house anyhow. So [redacted] ph)(inaudible) [redacted] has the house and he gave her overhead to buy the purchase plus the mortgage and wound up with nothing. So [redacted] says to me I'm going to pay you guys $3000. I said you owe me nothing." b7C

Someone remarks "you going to Vegas next month?" Someone replies "maybe, I was supposed to go there last month."

Discussion turns to the stock market.

[redacted] "I owed them a 14,000 balance and I gave them 17..... 31,000. A lousy $50,000. b7C

MEYER "$50,000?"

[redacted] [redacted] came over to discuss railroad bonds I purchased on margin."

[redacted] "I wish you would've told me about Pacific."

[redacted] [redacted] first of all I didn't know [redacted] (ph) was connected with Bell and Pacific.

"He told me that Pacific is a good deal. He just came back from Europe.... [redacted] (?) He said we can sell the company tomorrow and get $18 per share. He said within a year the company will earn two and a half dollars and they were buying. When you talk to him it's just like [redacted] told you. This is the sixth largest house in the United States."

[redacted] remarked that he gets his hair cut for $25 at a shop across the street from the Beverly and that he gets his hair tinted blue "so the yellow don't show."

MEYER remarked that he gets a shave, manicure, and shampoo for $7.95 at Petrillo's (?) in the Waldorf.

MEYER mentioned that [redacted] of NYC and [redacted] of Boston are cousins and are both "nice fellows."

[redacted] has an apartment on 5th Avenue and has a girl friend on the side whom he never takes out publicly. She gets anything she wants except going out publicly."

MEYER "That's okay. He loves his wife, he loves his family and he doesn't want to embarrass them."

MEYER mentioned that he will eat at the Carlyle that evening.

[redacted] discussed an individual who made money as a bookie until 1955. [redacted] stated that this person bet on elections, baseball, and anything else.

MEYER "He couldn't stand off a $25,000 bet. His girl cost him a lot of money.....50 a year. Her vacations, the way she lived and dressed, his home, the help he had, the other house.....he was a good fellow. All this and his other expenses, he went for a hundred a year. How long has he been out?"

[redacted] "Two years or less."

The group departs discussing [redacted] (ph).

Subject was visited by [redacted] The subject [redacted] discuss subject's getting a passport. Subject remarked that his old passport expired in 1959 and that he would have to get it renewed when he gets back to Florida. Subject stated that he believed he would fly over to Europe the day after Labor Day, take in Brussels, Switzerland, Spain, and Israel and return by boat.

Subject remarked that he had a friend who was just made vice president of Hilton Hotel operations in the East or Far East and recently went to Greece by boat.

Subject inquired whether or not it would be permissable for him to go up to Carolina by car about the end of July if he didn't do the driving. The doctor said it would be permissable. Subject inquired if he could drive until he felt tired [redacted] that this would also be permissable.

[redacted] subject inquired about [redacted] whether [redacted] heard from him. The [redacted] reply was inaudible.

Later that day subject remarked to his wife TEDDY that he got a haircut across the street from [redacted] place and then went up to visit [redacted]

[redacted]

Subject remarked that the address was sufficient.

MEYER mentioned that he would like to eat either at Longchamps, the Hotel Westbury, or the Hotel Hyde Park.

MEYER stated that he had no plans to eat with his wife TEDDY that evening and he discussed eating with [redacted] in New Hyde Park Restaurant.

[redacted] and MEYER LANSKY both referred to [redacted] as "the old man."

That evening, subject received a telephone call and the following conversation took place:

MEYER "Listen, did [redacted] get back? I've got to tell my man here.....fisherman. The fisherman wants to come down."

"Okay, I'll tell him.

"You told who? [redacted]

"When did you talk to him?

"Oh, you spoke to him today. Oh, that's who you mean.

"Oh, because I didn't know he's been after me.

"Did you call him?

"We were together yesterday. We took a long walk.

"How is his wife feeling?

"Oh, I was going to give him a call myself. Is he home?

"Just a minute. What's the number?

[redacted] Okay, give my best to [redacted] b7C

"Oh, it must have been a straight call then. Okay, [redacted] (ph). Good-bye."

Subject also spoke to someone on the phone by the name of [redacted] MEYER inquired if he had a beautiful day out there.

Subject made another outgoing call and said "I called you Friday night and you were out. I didn't know [redacted] was back." The rest of the conversation was inaudible.

After subject returned, he and TEDDY LANSKY were visited by [redacted]LNU). Their conversation was general in nature.

Date of Activity 6/7/62
Date Received 6/7/62

Subject and his wife were visited by [redacted]. The following conversation took place:

[redacted] "Jewish men are the best providers."

MEYER "The Italians are good providers too."

[redacted] "The Irish are good fathers, but they don't provide too well."

Discussion turns to catering places.

MEYER "If I knew of two young guys who wanted to go into business, I would put them up in the catering business. It's a sure thing."

[redacted] "[redacted]rother got married unexpectedly. [redacted] to leave for Vegas on a Monday or Tuesday. He called up a caterer who lived down the block Saturday morning and Sunday at four o'clock they had a complete set-up."

Conversation turns to nationalities.

[redacted] "Scandanavian people are very healthy outdoor types."

MEYER "They're not only physically healthy, but their lives are more healthy. They're cleaner. They're not as criminal as some of the other nationalities. The Latins are more criminal. They had to steal to subsist."

MEYER remarked that Saturday or Sunday he intends to go over to the museum and buy a photograph of "Aristotle Contemplating the Bust of Homer", which is selling at $12.50.

MEYER LANSKY remarked that [redacted] (ph) and [redacted] told him "about [redacted] being beaten up walking out of the Dunes Restaurant in Palm Springs, California." MEYER stated, "If they can do that to a big guy like [redacted] what can they do to a little guy like me. Niggers are getting even with white people through welfare and they're laughing at the white people."

MEYER berates the NAACP for always taking the stand that there is discrimination. MEYER stated, "We know there's discrimination. We know that cops are capable of beating someone outside their religion."

[redacted] stated, "Yes, the Irish cops used to beat up all the Italians." MEYER said, "But you can't yell discrimination on everything."

MEYER "Right after the war was ending, the Catholic Church saw Communism and they weren't watching. They were worried about freedom. They were worrying about Catholicism. They became our backbone of foreign policy because we used them as a listening ear during the war."

[redacted] "I don't know which is worse, Communism or Catholicism.....to me they're the same class."

MEYER "We always had Catholics as congressmen and other top levels of government. There's only 40,000,000 of them, but they're well organized and they're all educated. They left us in a spot."

Subject received an incoming telephone call from [redacted]. Subject instructed [redacted] to tell [redacted] to give him a call.

[redacted]

MEYER remarked that the doctor there who treated her, [redacted] is someone whom he met before TEDDY injured her toe. MEYER stated that this last trip he didn't stay at the motel on the premises, but that he used to walk back and forth every day.

MEYER related the following:

"Now we have a man at the hotel and he gets a terrible sunburn. [redacted] and I come back from dinner. This is a fellow way up in his years. This guy is really burned....third degree burn. I told him to go to a doctor. This chiropractor that I already know, [redacted] recommended a doctor at the hospital. We took him over to the hospital and this doctor was so small he just came up to my chin."

The rest of the conversation was very general in nature. As [redacted] was departing, he gave subject his "mother-in-law's phone number out there" as [redacted]. MEYER remarked that [redacted] could either write to him at his Florida address or up here, care of [redacted] b1C

After [redacted] departed, subject was visited by [redacted] Conversation was not pertinent.

Subject received an incoming telephone call and after hanging up, he stated to [redacted] that "we'll hear from [redacted] now." b1C

[redacted] "(inaudible) you forget to call him MEYER. He's got to check in with somebody."

[redacted] back home. He wants to stay in two weeks. He's in bad shape. He's had a major head operation..... blood clot.....took a lung out."

[redacted] "He doesn't even sound right MEYER."

MEYER "If I ever got as sick as one of those guys, I'd take a pill."

[redacted] "That FBI guy [redacted] tried to contact me at the hotel. [redacted] as saying he was trying to get a hold of [redacted] too."

[redacted] "Think it's account of him MEYER?"

MEYER "No. He went up to look for [redacted] They told him he wasn't in this week."

[redacted] "They know where you've been."

MEYER "That's because they just walk in and take the register. So they know where you've been."

[redacted] "That's what I said. They just walk in and take the register."

The group discusses the possibility of using fictitious names when registering at hotels.

[redacted] "No matter what name and address you give, in some places the FBI finds out."

[redacted] "There's no law if you pay in advance that you have to use your own name."

MEYER "There's a 50 dollar fine if you use the wrong name."

[redacted] "No, doctors do it all the time."

ALL b1C

"It's okay if they don't know you. I'm going to do it at the Eden Rock. They won't be able to find it with the thousands of records. Hot Springs, it's different. It's a small place. They come in and get the register. They go to the telephone company. When you sit down with your accountant you have to save all your hotel bills and your plane tickets and account for them."

MEYER "That's all [redacted] Then you (obscene) them. What can they do about it?"

[redacted] "Say they ask this guy.....how do you make a living."

"Say I said I steal for a living. Say a guy stole a hundred thousand dollars.....spent the money. The Government's got a tax claim on him. They don't care how you make it, just so they get their money. Say I stick a bank up or a jewelry store for a hundred fifty thousand. Two years later I spent the money. They identify me. Say you want to pay the Government, what do you tell them? Do I list so much for each heist?"

MEYER "You won it, that's all, at a track, self-employed."

[redacted] the next time you see the kid, you saw yesterday, you want to pick up.....like a daily double or something.....you understand.....he'll give you a call when they have one. Know what I mean? Last year they had one for 16 thousand dollars."

[redacted] "If I want to put in some losers, they wouldn't let me put some losers in."

[redacted] "No, you gotta have (inaudible)."

[redacted] "I'm getting some. I told [redacted] I'd get some stuff, you know."

UNSUB "You don't need no losers."

[redacted] "No, you know what you need? Be sure you are there. You can't take it with you."

ALL b1C

MEYER "But you don't need it."

[redacted] "Can't you have some losers?"

MEYER "Yeah."

[redacted] "I've found that the accountants.....see, you don't have to.....unless a guy tells you (inaudible) to keep records."

MEYER "That's right."

[redacted] "(whispers something inaudible)"

MEYER "(apparently overhearing says in an angry tone) but I just told you.....what the hell do you want, fifty down here."

[redacted] "I heard you MEYER."

"I'm trying to tell you."

MEYER "Well the kid ain't got them.....go up there and buy it, that's it. You gotta look at the people."

UNSUB "Easy, easy, what's the matter with you guys."

[redacted] "You see it'd be the easiest thing when we're working the race track and the kid walks in..... be next door to the track.....one thousand, two thousand instead of (inaudible) you know now you've gotta scout around and look. Who the hell's out there?"

MEYER made an outgoing call to [redacted] and stated that he was calling to find out how he was feeling. MEYER stated that he would not forget and that he'd see him tomorrow at four. MEYER inquired about [redacted] foot.

Conversation continued as follows:

MEYER "Telephone (stock) is down again."

[redacted] [redacted]ph) got a lot of it."

"What are you doing the Drake Hotel?"

UNSUB "Yeah."

MEYER "He's doing the Playboy too you know. That's some place. The whole building there on 59th Street."

"(inaudible) whoever his decorators are. He's got one man that he gave me. They have quite a group. He's the head guy. The first job he did was the Tropicana. This fellow did a good job. Most of them use him."

UNSUB "The Desert Inn uses [redacted]

MEYER "He did the Astor and Manhattan for [redacted] but now he got this job for [redacted]

MEYER discusses the steps in putting up a hotel and getting a decorator after it's up.

UNSUB "Out there, you know how much a room runs into because furniture is the same in each place."

[redacted] "If a guy had a home, a guy like (inaudible) [redacted] would do you a favor and send his man down to decorate before you move in. It'd be like a palace. [redacted]..he decorated his house. Did some job."

All b1c

MEYER "You remember the fellow who worked for me in Cuba, was it [redacted] and then later you became friends with him when I came out. He told me where he was working.....where the Horseshoe is now. Is he out there yet?"

[redacted] "I don't know. I tried to ask for him."

MEYER "He's a nice fellow."

[redacted] "He was working there. He was drinking heavy. I don't know if he died."

MEYER "I heard something about him a couple of years ago."

[redacted] "He worked for that guy from Texas, [redacted] (ph)."

MEYER "That's right. They had the Horseshoe. It was named something else then."

[redacted] (ph) have a big house?"

UNSUB "I don't remember."

MEYER [redacted]had a big house."

[redacted] "Now redacted is going to do the house.....he bought.....sold. His wife didn't like it."

MEYER "What's he need a house for?"

[redacted] "Did you speak to [redacted] yet?"

MEYER "Yeah, he called here. He wanted to talk to you. I said you better do it fast."

[redacted] "You want [redacted] number?"

MEYER "Give him a call."

[redacted] "How long is he staying?"

MEYER "A whole week."

[redacted] "He's going back?"

MEYER "He's going out to Vegas."

[redacted] "Oh (expresses surprise) [redacted] lost on the stock IT&T."

[redacted] "What did he lose?"

[redacted] "The time I was in Hot Springs going to [redacted] we're leaving. He had three different bank books. So I said look hard when you leave. He says you know I was going to ask you if I leave anything. I said what are you going to do, call me up tomorrow and ask me if there's stock."

MEYER "He's got 500 shares of IT&T."

[redacted] "Is that all?"

MEYER "That's $50,000 at a hundred. I think it was a hundred and thirty."

[redacted] "Are you kidding?"

UNSUB "He must be loaded MEYER. A cool million."

MEYER "Oh [redacted] (apparently disagreeing) I mean what he can turn into cash immediately.

ALL 67C

[redacted] "I've got shares too MEYER (inaudible)."

MEYER "They won't give the number?"

[redacted] "Yeah. We've got to be over there to make loans."

MEYER "If you don't make loans they don't want you to come up."

[redacted] "They don't want you, they don't need you."

[redacted] "You just use your money for other people..... you make.....you sign for."

MEYER "What do you get? Six per cent, five per cent."

[redacted] "$500 today cost $30 a year. You pay $10 a week. You can make it with two years. But those days you probably paid $15. On a $100 you probably paid $3."

MEYER "You belong to Juliat (ph)?"

[redacted] "No, I did. I heard [redacted] was (inaudible) few people. [redacted] was there. I owed $1200. He died. I had too many people come over.....the Irish."

[redacted] "I was talking to (inaudible) again yesterday."

[redacted] "(inaudible) ends with Monday. Nice joint, I didn't even have to go upstairs."

"I had a guy come in my house. He's the only Italian in there. They don't allow no.....it's only Jewish."

(MEYER laughs)

[redacted] he has straightened out all the shylocks in there. He used to go sign my name. He used to get the money before, then he'd bring up the papers for me to sign."

Subject was visited in his hotel room at the Volney Hotel, NYC, by an unidentified male with whom subject played cards. The following conversation took place:

MEYER "Last year when I was in Carolina I went over to the house of the fellow who made the reservations there for me. He drives a Cadillac..... owns an Oldsmobile agency. He is very popular in that vicinity. He was born right there in Nashville, North Carolina. I went to his house.....he invited me to dinner. We had hors d'oeuvres there. I told him I'd send him some fish delicacies I can get up in Boston."

MEYER "Who's it against?"

[redacted] "I don't know."

MEYER "It's against somebody."

[redacted] "It can't be you."

MEYER "Somebody has to be investigated."

[redacted] "My lawyer is going to try and find why they're calling me. It might be too late to find out who it is they're investigating. There's only one guy I can think of, that's [redacted]

MEYER "Do you think they would do it? That's another thing, it might be Florida."

[redacted] "How the hell do I fit in the picture?"

MEYER "Well.....I wouldn't be concerned about it. They don't know anything."

[redacted] reads off a price list for renting cars by the month. MEYER stated that he could buy a car for the amount that they want for rent and that he would, therefore, come up with his own car.

[redacted] "Yes, because I never had any trouble."

MEYER "Do you understand what I'm talking about?"

[redacted] "Yes. They'll never take me in on myself because I have immunity."

MEYER "It means it cannot try criminally anymore."

[redacted] "Can I get immunity for somebody else too?"

MEYER "It isn't that you get immunity. How do you know they can give you immunity? You don't know if they're able to give you immunity."

[redacted] "I'm trying to think what.....if it's tax trouble..... maybe in Florida."

MEYER "It may have been...."

the subject's activities at his residence in Hallandale, Fla.

[redacted] b7D

To date, the source has not furnished any information of significant value in connection with the Criminal Intelligence Program concerning LANSKY's activities. The source has established LANSKY's pattern of daily living, the fact that his conversations center around topics of current events, and he has not conversed with reference to any business dealings or activities of a criminal nature. He does spend time away from his residence playing gin rummy, frequently eats out in the evening, and apparently enjoys attending the movies. It is also noted, according to the source, that he has few visitors at his residence at this time who, [redacted] are not known to be engaged in criminal activity. b7C

Miami is at its slack period for hoodlums frequenting this area, as well as for those in Miami remaining here the summer months. It is believed this source would be invaluable during the forthcoming winter season in not only covering the activities of the captioned subject, but learning of the activities, plans, and connections of associates.

Bureau authority is requested, in view of the above, to deactivate this source at this time. [redacted] b7D

This would be done, of course, upon any indication developed by Miami or other divisions indicating the desirability of such reactivation. This would be contingent upon learning of LANSKY having visitors of significance in the Criminal Intelligence Program, as well as reports developed by the Miami Office or another field division indicating some unusual expected activity on the part of LANSKY or his associates either in the Miami area or elsewhere.

Miami contemplates, if Bureau authority granted for discontinuance, to closely follow this matter to determine the most logical time that it would be re-activated. It is anticipated the same would be in 10/62.

Miami Office should closely follow and evaluate information received through [redacted] for a thirty-day period, ending 8-20-62, and thereafter, recommendations for temporary discontinuance of this source should again be submitted to the Bureau if lack of productivity during the period makes such course of action appear justified. It is noted that as recently as July 12, 1962, Lansky was visited by [redacted] b7C

In addition, in order for the Bureau to evaluate productivity of this source, you are requested to furnish a weekly summary of pertinent dialogue developed through this source. In this regard, you may wish to refer to communications submitted by the New York Office reporting pertinent information on Lansky's activities and contacts while recently in New York City area through [redacted] Information of significance to other field offices should be made available to them by making an appropriate designation of copies of the communication for the particular field office.

NOTE: Meyer Lansky is a notorious hoodlum figure whose hoodlum activities go back to the early 1920's. He has been designated for intensive coverage. He recently suffered a heart attack in New York City. The New York Office developed a highly confidential source which reported details on his contacts and activities. The source was deactivated 6-11-62, when Lansky departed New York City for his residence in Florida. On 6-12-62, Miami source located in his residence began reporting information. Miami now recommends discontinuance of this source until October, 1962, because it does not appear to be sufficiently productive. Since this request is premature, Miami asked to evaluate over 30-day period and submit recommendation. Dialogue summaries similar to those regularly submitted by NYO on previous source being requested from Miami in order for the Bureau to be advised of productivity on a weekly basis. This will afford opportunity to discontinue source before 30-day period if warranted [redacted]

DETAILS:

RESIDENCES

Daily surveillance or spot checks were maintained at residence of the subject, 612 Hibiscus Drive, Hallandale, Florida, by SA [redacted] from June 12 until July 25, 1962. During this time the premises were never closed down and evinced evidence of continual habitation. b1C

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

[redacted] advised [redacted] on July 25, 1962, that he knew subject had not been away from home overnight since his arrival from New York on June 11, 1962. b2

[redacted] advised [redacted] n July 25, 1962, that he has seen subject about his home on an almost daily basis since the middle of June, 1962. He stated subject appears to be in poor health and the only activity he displays is to go fishing occasionally in the canal behind his home. b7C

PHYSICAL CONDITION

[redacted] advised [redacted] on July 25, 1962, that since coming from New York, subject is convalescing from his heart ailment. He suffers from a breathing difficulty and is being treated by [redacted] of the Diplomat Hotel, Hollywood, Florida. [redacted] lso stated that he has been in touch with other friends of the subject and the subject spends most of his time lounging around the house and taking short naps after eating. Informant believes subject is very concerned about his health and is doing nothing to further impair it. b2 b7C

[redacted]

b7C, b7D

MM 92-102

TRAVEL

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] on July 18, 1962, that he had heard the LANSKYs were contemplating an European vacation starting in early September, 1962. They planned to visit several countries including Switzerland, Italy and France. b2 b7C

[redacted]

b2, b7C, b7D

ASSOCIATES

[redacted] advised SA [redacted] on July 7, 1962, that [redacted] played cards with the subject at [redacted] house in Hollywood, Florida, on the evening of July 6, 1962. [redacted] are long time acquaintances of the subject and have been fully identified in previous reports. [redacted] advised SA [redacted] on June 5, 1962, that subject was visited in New York on June 5, 1962, by [redacted] advised that subject was visited by the same 2 men on several other occasions during his stay in New York and also by [redacted] all are long time acquaintances of subject and have been previously identified. b2 b7C

SA [redacted] advised on June 3, 1962, that [redacted] is in the garment business in Los Angeles, California, and is an associate of the subject. b7C

[redacted]

b7C, b7D

June 8, 1962, that subject met [redacted] and an unknown individual to discuss [redacted] pending appearance before the Federal Grand Jury, Southern District of New York. According to informant, [redacted] was not worried about being questioned about himself because he believed this [redacted] automatically gave him immunity. Informant stated [redacted] said that no matter what he is asked by the Grand Jury, he would deny knowing anything. Informant also advised that [redacted] re subject's underlings in New York City. b7C

Previous investigation reflected that a car bearing New Jersey license #GAF 594 was seen outside the Community Barber Shop, Sunny Isles Shopping Center, Miami Beach. This shop is a known hangout of the LANSKY-[redacted] group. b7C

MEYER is visited by an unknown man (probably an insurance man) and MEYER states he has an income of $30,000.00 a year from investments but he is retired.

8/30/62

MEYER talks to an unknown man (probably [redacted] concerning pickup of MEYER's mail while he is away.

8/31/62

No unusual activity.

9/1/62

Unknown family, man, woman and child, visited the LANSKYs and indicated they are from Charlotte, North Carolina, and they called subject Uncle MEYER. MEYER indicates that they are leaving that evening for Europe and that brother JACK is going to take them to the airport.

LANSKY [redacted] Inasmuch as the Bureau sent out these instructions under the title of MEYER LANSKY, this report and the results of the investigation will also be titled MEYER LANSKY. b7C

[redacted] b7C b7D

It will be noted that in the 6/5/62 Bureau airtel to Las Vegas, Miami, and New York referred to above, that the Bureau advised the Las Vegas Office to "discreetly explore the possibility that the LANSKY group through MEYER LANSKY's [redacted] has arranged to supply . . . products to (Las Vegas) motels and hotels . . . . Las Vegas Office should make no open or direct inquiries at this time which could compromise [redacted] b2 b7C

Because of the above instructions no direct or active investigation was conducted and no contacts were made except through established sources of known reliability or who were known to be discreet.

An information copy of this report is being furnished the New York Office inasmuch as their source [redacted] was the one which originally furnished the information concerning the possibility of MEYER [redacted] supplying products to the Las Vegas Strip hotels. b2 b7C

Careful consideration has been given to the sources concealed as T-symbols in this report and they have been utilized only in instances where deemed necessary.
