PETITION FOR PARDON AFTER COMPLETION OF SENTENCE

Petitioner shall typewrite or print the answers in ink or ballpoint pen. Each question must be answered fully, truthfully, and accurately. If the space for any answer is insufficient, petitioner may complete his answer on an attachment. Submission of false information is punishable by imprisonment of up to five years and a fine of not more than $10,000. 18 U.S.C. 1001.

THE PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES:

The undersigned petitioner prays that he be granted a pardon and in support thereof states as follows:

OFFENSE(S) FOR WHICH PARDON IS SOUGHT

2. Petitioner was convicted in the United States District Court for the _____ (Eastern, Western, etc.)

District of Columbia at Washington, D.C. on a plea of (State) (City)

guilty of the crime of SEE ATTACHMENT and was (Guilty, not guilty, etc.) (Describe specifically) sentenced on November 9, 19 73 to imprisonment for (imprisonment, probation)

8 years and to pay a fine of $10,000. Petitioner was (length of sentence)

54 years of age when the crime was committed.

If conviction was appealed, complete the following paragraph:

3. Petitioner appealed to the United States Court of Appeals, where the judgment was affirmed on February 25, 19 75. An appeal was not taken to the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court <sup>(was, was not)</sup>                      a petition for writ of certiorari on                     , 19       . If <sup>(granted, denied)</sup> certiorari was granted, the judgment was affirmed on                     , 19       . If case was published, give citation(s):
4. Petitioner began service of his sentence on March 22, 19 73; was released on January 12, 19 74 from Allenwood and was finally discharged by expiration of sentence on February 24, 19 77 <sup>(Federal institution)</sup>. 5. Give a detailed account of the offense including dates (or time span) of the offense, names of codefendants and, where applicable, the amount of money involved and whether restitution has been made. You are expected to describe the factual basis of your offense completely and accurately and not rely on code or name reference only. If your conviction resulted from a plea agreement, describe fully the extent of your total involvement in the criminal transaction as alleged by the prosecution not limiting yourself to the conviction itself.

Although numerous books have been written about Watergate including my "Undercover: Memoirs of An American Secret Agent" (Berkely/Putnam 1974) my involvement in the June 17, 1972 episode was this: Acting on what I believed to be executive authorization delegated to the then Attorney General, I helped organize an entry team of four men to enter the office of the Democratic National Committee and photograph its financial ledgers.
Purpose: search for illegal foreign contributions. The four men were:
Bernard Barker, Frank Sturgis, Virgilio Gonzalez and Rolando Martinez.
A fifth man, James McCord, who was employed directly by G. Gordon Liddy, accompanied the entry team to place electronic intercept and telephone bugging devices. The five men were arrested on DNC premises.

A Pardon for Howard Hunt

Washington.

Under the Constitution, as President Ford well knows, the president has power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States. This month the President will receive a petition for commutation in the case of E. Howard Hunt, Jr. In the name of mercy and justice, the petition should be granted.

Except for G. Gordon Liddy, who also merits relief but whose case is quite different, Hunt is the only Watergate defendant still in prison. No useful purpose whatever is being served by keeping him there.

We are concerned here with elementary questions of crime and punishment. Hunt's crime was conspiracy to commit burglary. His punishment is a prospective eight years in prison and a fine of $10,000. Except for the brutal 20-year sentence imposed on Liddy, the punishment given Hunt is the most severe of them all.

The crime itself, of course, was the breaking and entering of Democratic National Headquarters in the Watergate in June, 1972. Beyond question, Hunt was deeply involved in that sordid and stupid affair. He pleaded guilty. It is no defense to his crime, though it is a valid consideration in a plea for commutation, that he acted under the aegis of a former attorney general in what he supposed was the service of the then President of the United States.

The imposing of just sentences is the hardest task of criminal jurisprudence. Judges themselves cannot readily explain why Defendant A gets 1 year, Defendant B gets 5 years and Defendant C gets 10 years, when the defendants have similar personal records and are convicted of substantially identical offenses. Unhappily, these disparities turn up all the time, and as often as not they reflect little more than the passions and prejudices of the presiding judge.

This was the case in the matter of the Watergate defendants. They ran up against Judge John J. Sirica—"Hanging John," as harsh a judge as ever sat on the federal bench. His thought was to terrify the Watergate defendants by imposing sentences of a severity unheard of in simple breaking-and-entering cases. He hit them originally with sentences to shock the conscience and to extort their "co-operation."

Eventually, after letting them twist slowly, slowly, in the wind, Hanging John had mercy on five of the seven defendants. Frank Sturgis, Virgilio Gonzalez, Eugenio Martinez, James W. McCord, Jr., and Bernard Barker, who had been hit with four to six years, were released after 4 to 15 months. Judge Sirica had no mercy in his soul for Hunt or Liddy. Their pleas for reduction of sentence were flatly denied.

Liddy has stonewalled from the beginning; his circumstances, to repeat, are different. Hunt, by contrast, has co-operated fully since his conviction. In the past two years, he has testified repeatedly both in Congress and in the trials of such defendants as John N. Mitchell and John D. Ehrlichman. His prison record is exemplary.

Why do we sentence men to prison? Three reasons usually are advanced. The first is simple incarceration: The object is to keep dangerous criminals behind bars, where they cannot endanger society. The second is rehabilitation: The thought is to train men for useful roles in society. The third is retribution: The idea is to exact punishment for an offense against the state.

Surely it is pointless to incarcerate Howard Hunt; it is inconceivable that he would take up a burglar's career. He needs no "rehabilitation"; he is an accomplished writer, fully capable of supporting himself. He has now spent almost two years in prison; as punishment for a political escapade, in which no one was hurt and nothing of value was stolen, this seems more than sufficient.

SEASON TO BE JOLLY

New York, Dec. 26—

This being the season for cheer and forgiveness, I am moved to meditate that Chile may be showing greater concern for its political prisoners than the United States, it now being obvious that Howard Hunt really is just that—a political prisoner.

A year ago Professor James Q. Wilson of Harvard, whose book on crime and punishment is a contemporary classic, made a reference to the extraordinary prison terms given out by Judge John Sirica. As for Howard Hunt's term—two and one-half to eight years—Professor Wilson, who is a penological hawk, said that with Hunt's record (i.e., no previous convictions, zero probability of a repeated offense), anyone else convicted of the identical offense—conspiracy to break and enter—would have been fined, and given a "thirty-day suspended sentence."

Judge Sirica, as everybody knows, was endeavoring to put special pressure on his prisoners to cooperate with the prosecution. Well, that pressure worked. Hunt testified before every committee and every grand jury impaneled to investigate. As practically everyone knows, his wife was killed in an airplane accident in the fall of 1972, and he was left with four children to look after; and the months went by.

Now, there is a procedure for persons convicted of a federal offense who believe that their sentences were inordinate, or that for special reasons those sentences should be mitigated. In the office of the Attorney General of the United States is someone called the Pardon Attorney. His job is to prepare recommendations for the President of the United States. Hunt's attorney approached the Pardon Attorney in October 1975 and asked how long it would require to weigh the evidence, in the case of Hunt, in order to prepare a recommendation for the President. The answer: "Three or four months." The papers were completed instantly, and recommendations for leniency filed, including copies of public statements made by such as Eric Sevareid, James Jackson Kilpatrick, and Howard K. Smith.

Eight months went by. I am a friend of Hunt's, and godfather to three of his children, and accordingly telephoned the Pardon Attorney and asked if he could account for the extraordinary delay. Were there political considerations standing in the way of a commutation of sentence? He replied that I would have to draw my own conclusions, that he believed the recommendation would be made shortly.

A long while later—in July 1976—I addressed the Attorney General directly to ask whether, in fact, political considerations were vitiating due process. A month after that, I received a reply from the acting Attorney General advising me that the Pardon Attorney "expects to receive shortly the last report which he views as necessary to developing his recommendation to the Attorney General."

On the whole, I like to believe Attorneys General, but it is difficult to do so in this case. If there is an American this side of the fever swamps who believes that Howard Hunt should still be in jail for the foolishness he committed in June 1972, after spending thirty months in jail, I doubt that that person would have taken ten months to forward his recommendation to the Pardon Attorney. What obviously the whole gang did not want is to pardon Hunt during the election campaign, on the grounds that doing so would revive talk about the pardon of Richard Nixon. Well, let us be grand about it and accept it that Hunt's remaining in jail must be considered a trivial sacrifice to pay for the prospective re-election of a President of the United States.

But the election was weeks ago. Hunt rots in jail, for no purpose, and there is no explanation for it other than the sadistic neglect of uncommunicative bureaucrats who give speeches about justice and apparently think nothing of taking more than one year to process a simple application for justice and for mercy. If the Pardon Attorney concludes that Hunt should not be let out of jail, then why not develop the guts to say so? Perhaps the services of John Sirica as a ghost-writer could be made available? Or will Hunt have to wait for a Democratic President to exercise rudimentary clemency for a minor participant in that sordid affair who has been redundantly punished? □

A political silence?

Let President speak on Hunt amnesty bid

Relatives of E. Howard Hunt make a good case when they say that he has been more harshly penalized than others found guilty of participation in the Watergate conspiracy.

Hunt, a career espionage agent with the CIA, ran out of money to appeal his sentence of eight years in jail and a $10,000 fine. His appeals effort and his family both disintegrated when Mrs. Hunt was killed in a plane crash during a trip to secure money for legal fees.

Hunt has now served two years of his sentence and claims that he's been shuttled from jail to jail, denied privileges and subjected to "reverse discrimination" because his case is politically sensitive. He is bitter because Richard Nixon was pardoned after lying about Watergate, while he was jailed after telling the truth. Hunt says that he disapproved of the Watergate break-in from the beginning.

Hunt's only hope is executive clemency from President Gerald Ford. A clemency application was filed with the Justice Department last October, but in the nine months since then, Hunt's attorney has heard nothing. The Justice Department has no explanation for this long delay. The White House, pressed by Senator James L. Buckley and others, has been similarly silent.

This lack of attentiveness to what may be a serious miscarriage of justice must end. President Ford must direct the Justice Department to present the full facts on the Hunt case to him at once, and must make a prompt decision on whether or not clemency is justified.

Otherwise, suspicions will continue to exist that Hunt is languishing in jail because the Nixon pardon is highly unpopular and the White House is avoiding the clemency issue for

Barry For Watergate Pardons

WASHINGTON (AP) — Convicted Watergate conspirators who are seeking pardons have an advocate in Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"If he (President Ford) pardoned Nixon, I see no reason why he shouldn't pardon the others. I think all these men received sentences way, way out of line with what they did ... We even now don't know what went on and won't know until ex-President Nixon tells the truth," Goldwater said Monday in an interview with CBS.

Ford, in an October press conference, said there was "no credence" to rumors that he intended to give more Watergate pardons. But over the last weekend, in an interview with the Washington Post, Ford declined to say whether he planned to grant more pardons.

Four of the individuals convicted in the Watergate burglary, Bernard Barker, Eugenio Martinez, James McCord and Frank Sturges, have asked the Justice Department for pardons. Two others, E. Howard Hunt and Gordon Liddy, have asked for commutations of sentences they are now serving.

H.R. Haldeman, John Mitchell and John Ehrlichman are appealing convictions; Ehrlichman has begun his sentence even as his appeal continues.

The Arizona Republican said Ford's pardon of Nixon hurt his re-election campaign. "But I don't think going ahead and pardoning those who are left would cause any trouble."

SENTENCE

Synopsis:

Applicant appeared at the Miami Office of the FBI on December 17, 1981. He is a retired CIA Agent and is presently self-employed as an author. He desires a pardon to restore his civil rights for personal and family reasons. When confronted with preforming an illegal act, he entered a plea of guilty and also cooperated with the authorities and testified in other trials.

DETAILS:

This investigation is based upon a petition for pardon after completion of sentence, filed by Everett Howard Hunt, Jr., [REDACTED] Miami, Florida, dated October 9, 1981.

The applicant appeared in the Miami Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on December 17, 1981, at which time he was interviewed.

Interview of Applicant

A. Employment History

Applicant advised that he served for 26 years as an Agent for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and retired on May 1, 1970. He was then employed by R.E. Mullen and Company, 1700 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D.C., as Vice President from May, 1970, until June, 1972. He was also employed as a consultant by the Executive Office of the President, Washington, D.C., from July, 1971, until June, 1972. He was discharged from both the position at the White House and by R.E. Mullen and Company, because of the publicity over Watergate. Applicant is currently self-employed as an author and works from his residence.

B. Residence

b6
b7C

Applicant resided at 11120 River Road, Potomac, Maryland, from 1965 to 1974, and at [REDACTED] Miami, Florida, from 1974, to present.

C. Applicant's Version of Circumstances Under Which He Was Convicted.

Applicant advised that he met G. Gordon Liddy at the White House and believed that Liddy worked directly for Attorney General Mitchell, who was President Nixon's Campaign Manager. Liddy instructed him to organize a team to enter the Democratic National Committee Headquarters (DNCH) and to look for evidence that money was coming from a foreign source. He believed that executive authority was given for this venture. After working for the CIA for 26 years, he did not question his instruction and entered the DNCH.

Applicant entered a plea of guilty, in the United States District Court in the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., to the charge of Conspiracy, 18 United States Code 371; Burglary, 22 District of Columbia 1801(b); and Illegal Interception of Communication, 18 United States Code 2511. He was sentenced to be imprisoned for 2½ to 8 years and to pay a fine of $10,000.00. Time was served and the fine was paid.

D. Reason Pardon Desired.

Applicant advised that he desired a pardon because he would like to have his civil rights restored, that were removed by his conviction. He served for many years for the United States Government, entered a plea of guilty and testified regarding the break-in, when he realized that executive authority was not given and he had violated the law. He would also like the pardon for employment opportunities if he desired to work and for family reasons. He would like to clear his name for his children.

E. Present Mode and Standard of Living

Applicant is self employed and earns an income as an author. He has also retired from the CIA and receives a federal retirement. He has some money invested, from which he receives an income and lives in a house, which he owns. Applicant lives comfortably and is not very active.

G. Pending Matters Before Local, State and Federal Courts.

Applicant advised that he has two matters presently before the Florida State Courts as follows:

b6
b7C

1. A libel suit wherein applicant is plaintiff and [redacted] is a defendant. This matter is pending.

2. A libel suit wherein applicant is plaintiff and Liberty Lobby, Incorporated, is the defendant. This matter was tried on December 15-16, 1981, and the jury awarded him $650,000.00 in damages.

H. Any Prior or Subsequent Criminal Record

Applicant advised that he has not been arrested or convicted, other than in this present matter involving Watergate.

On January 8, 1982, WILLIAM F. BUCKLEY, [redacted] [redacted] advised he has known applicant since 1951 when both were members of the Central Intelligence Agency. He explained HUNT was his supervisor at that time. He characterized HUNT as a superb American, one whose patriotism towards this country has never been questioned. He felt the applicant is a capable, ingenious individual, one who has been skilled throughout his life. He felt the applicant meant well but made a judgment error in the Watergate affair. He believes the applicant is an impressive individual, one who has acted in a responsible manner. He stated he knows the applicant on a social basis and believes HUNT possesses a first-rate character. He related HUNT is a personable, cheerful individual to be with, one who possesses a quick nimble mind. He added he is aware of the applicant's desire for a pardon and based on past observations would have no hesitancy in giving HUNT his highest recommendation.

On January 15, 1981, Mr. George Munro, [redacted] advised that he has known Mr. Hunt since 1951 when they met in Mexico City. Mr. Munro stated that he was then an FBI Agent assigned as Assistant Legal Attache in Mexico City and Mr. Hunt was an officer of the Central Intelligence Agency. Mr. Munro stated that he also is a former CIA Officer and his friendship with Mr. Hunt has continued to the present day.

Mr. Munro stated that he considers Mr. Hunt to be a most loyal American citizen who has donated his whole life since college to serving the United States. Munro considers him to be a person of high integrity who enjoys an excellent reputation among his peers. He is a conservative individual and a very proud family man who feels he must somewhat clear his name for his family and also restore his own civil rights.

Munro added that the incident known as "Watergate" came as a complete surprise to him. He feels that Mr. Hunt has cooperated fully with the authorities and has now served his time for the conviction. Mr. Munro concluded by stating

SF 73-1732

Morris R. Poummitt

b6
b7C

On January 20, 1982, Morris Poummitt was interviewed at his residence and advised he has been acquainted with Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., since 1934 when he (Poummitt) was a music teacher at Hamburg High School and Hunt was his pupil. Poummitt stated that he also became acquainted with the Hunt family at that time and was very favorably impressed. Everette H. Hunt, Sr., according to Poummitt, was a well-respected lawyer in the Hamburg, New York community.

Poummitt advised that Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., was musically talented and played a major role as a singer and trumpet player in a school production directed by him at Hamburg High School. Poummitt further advised that he admired Hunt inasmuch as he utilized his musical talent as a means to work his way through Brown University.

BU 73-440

Poummitt stated that although he did not maintain contact with Hunt beyond Hunt's days at Brown University, he (Poummitt) again met Hunt in 1979 in Miami, Florida. Poummitt advised that he and Hunt renewed their friendship at that time and have met on numerous occasions since.

Poummitt advised Hunt, in his opinion, is a real gentleman. He further described him as an extraordinarily talented, personable, and honest man. Poummitt explained that Hunt feels no bitterness toward the Government and his country and believes Hunt to be loyal without question to the United States. Poummitt stated he has no reason to question Hunt's character or reputation and could provide no derogatory information regarding him. Poummitt further stated, in his opinion, Hunt's only failing would have been his blind loyalty which led to his legal problems. Poummitt is aware of applicant's petition for pardon and as such, highly recommends that a pardon be granted. Poummitt advised that Hunt desires a pardon for family reasons inasmuch as he feels his son and family have paid a great price for his (Hunt's) legal problems.

Synopsis:

Applicant resides at [redacted] Miami, Fla. He is retired from CIA and is self-employed as an author. All persons interviewed, including those who were neighbors and references, all made favorable comments regarding applicant's character, associations, reputation, integrity, loyalty, and recommended him for a pardon. Applicant's parole officer advised he was favorably impressed by applicant who followed all requirements imposed upon him and had recommended applicant for early release from parole. Arrest checks were negative. Credit check was satisfactory.

b7C[redacted]
Miami, Florida

On January 14, 1982, Donald G. Perry, [redacted] [redacted] advised that he has known applicant since approximately 1974 [redacted]

Applicant has been a good neighbor and they became friends socially. Applicant is a quiet person who takes good care of his home and yard and never has any wild or noisy parties. Perry advised that on several occasions he and his wife have gone out to dinner with applicant and his wife and on a number of occasions they have entertained in their home when applicant and his wife attended and they have been to parties in applicant's home. Applicant is a very nice person and is helpful whenever possible. They have had many discussions regarding world, national and community affairs and he considers applicant to be a conservative person. Applicant's friends that he has met have all been very nice people and he has never seen them or applicant use any marijuana, drugs or narcotics. They have never discussed the Watergate situation. Applicant told him that he was applying for a pardon and he would recommend that applicant receive a pardon.

On January 14, 1982, Vreny Vaunstark, [redacted] [redacted] advised that she has lived in this house for approximately three years [redacted] She knows applicant as a neighbor and somewhat socially. She likes him very much. He appears to be a very nice person and he has been helpful on a number of occasions. She believes him to be thoughtful, honest, trustworthy, and a loyal American. Applicant has a good reputation with other neighbors and the friends that she has met all are nice people. She knows that applicant has applied for a pardon and she would recommend that he receive his pardon.

b7C

On January 14, 1982, Kris Zsigmond, [redacted] [redacted] that applicant and her parents [redacted] are good friends. She considers applicant and his wife to be nice people, very quiet, are helpful towards their neighbors, and she has never observed anything going on at applicant's house that would be considered out of the way. Applicant has a good reputation with his neighbors and she believes him to be honest, trustworthy, and a loyal American. She advised that she would recommend applicant for a position of trust with the U.S. Government.

REFERENCE

On January 14, 1982, Kenneth W. Whittaker, Attorney-At-Law, [redacted] advised that he was formerly an SAC with the Miami Office of the FBI and lives right around the corner from applicant. He lived at that address before applicant moved into the Miami area but he did not meet applicant until 1977 after he retired from the FBI. After applicant moved to Miami and before he retired, applicant's son became good friends with his son and he would take applicant's son to various places including church, but he simply accepted applicant's son as a boy who lived in the neighborhood and did not know who he was. After he retired he met applicant and applicant told him that he purposefully did not contact him because if he did so he would be afraid that someone may accuse him of associating with applicant which could cause bad publicity for both applicant and for the FBI. Since that time, he has become good friends with applicant and they have spent occasions together socially. Applicant is a fine gentleman and a good neighbor. When applicant moved into the area his wife had died and he has since remarried and his wife is a fine person. Applicant is a retired CIA agent and when he became involved in the Watergate situation he believes he did so not realizing he was violating the law. When applicant did realize he made a mistake, he admitted his mistake and took his punishment. Applicant has a fine character, is well respected by the neighbors, and has many nice friends. He considers applicant to be honest, trustworthy, and a loyal American. He knows that applicant has applied for a pardon and would recommend that applicant receive the pardon.

b6
b7C

MM 73-1443

b7C

On January 8, 1982, Edward J. Dunn, [redacted] [redacted] advised that he has known applicant for approximately 23 years. They met when they were in college together and after applicant graduated, he became a naval officer where he stayed for a number of years and went to work for the CIA. Dunn advised that he became an FBI Agent and worked in that capacity until his retirement. After applicant was released from prison and moved to Miami, he renewed his acquaintanceship with applicant and attended applicant's wedding when he married his current wife and they have been friends ever since. Applicant has an excellent character and never had any problems with the law until he became involved in the Watergate situation. He considers the Watergate break-in to be a stupid thing for applicant to do and believes applicant feels the same way about it now. Applicant has nice friends in the area, most of whom are professional people, and some of whom are former FBI Agents. He has never observed applicant or any of his associates use any drugs, narcotics, marijuana, or alcohol to an excess. He considers that applicant has a high integrity and is honest, trustworthy, dependable and a loyal American. Applicant is an athletic type and likes to play tennis and likes to hunt and fish. He has been told by applicant that applicant desires a pardon and he would recommend that applicant receive the pardon.

COURT RECORDS REVIEW

On January 15, 1982, the records of the Clerk of the Federal Court, 300 NE 1st Avenue, Miami, Florida, showed that applicant was plaintiff in a libel suit against Liberty Lobby, Inc., file number 80-1121 CID JWK, and on January 24, 1981, a final order was entered granting a judgment in favor of applicant for the sum of $650,000.00.

MM 73-1443

The records further show that applicant is a plaintiff in an action against [redacted] case number [redacted] SMA, which case is still pending. This is a civil case.

b6

PAROLE RECORDS

On January 11, 1982, Raymond J. Fletcher, Probation and Parole Department, U.S. Courthouse, 300 NE 1st Avenue, Miami, Florida, advised that he was applicant's parole officer from February 23, 1977, until applicant completed his parole. Applicant was required by him to report once a month, which he did, and applicant followed all of the requirements set forth by the department. Applicant was always courteous and polite and never caused any problems. They discussed various topics and he believes applicant to be a loyal American. Applicant was to complete his parole on July 11, 1982. Applicant impressed Fletcher to the point where he recommended applicant for early release from parole and applicant was released on May 1, 1980.

ARREST

On January 15, 1982, agencies were checked for possible arrest records for applicant with negative results as follows:

Miami Police Department, by Al Vagara;

Dade County Department of Public Safety, by Mary A. Turner;

Miami Beach Police Department, by SC Brenda J. Cochran.

CREDIT

On January 15, 1981, Annie Grimes, Credit Bureau of Greater Miami, advised that records in her office show that applicant's credit is satisfactory.

[REDACTED] advised as follows on January 19, 1982:

The Robert E. Mullen Company, a public relations firm, was formerly located at 1729 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. It was incorporated and [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] One of that company's clients was General Foods Corporation for whom Caddy worked as an employee and lobbyist. Caddy never worked for the Robert E. Mullen Company, but he did work out of offices of the Robert E. Mullen Company when he was in Washington serving as a lobbyist for General Foods.

He recalled that applicant started to work for the Robert E. Mullen Company in May, 1970, and worked there until about June, 1972, but did not recall applicant's exact position and could not say whether applicant ever served that company as Vice President. He advised that Robert E. Mullen of that company, now retired and last known to Caddy to be living in Key Biscayne, Florida, would also have known Hunt.

When the Watergate scandal broke and Hunt was charged with criminal violations arising from that matter, Hunt initially retained Caddy as his attorney to represent him on those charges. Caddy later withdrew as counsel and became a witness at Hunt's trial, testifying for both Hunt and the United States Government. He last saw Hunt in person about five years ago in Washington, D.C., talked with him for the last time about two years ago by telephone, and corresponded with Hunt about eight months ago.

Caddy advised that he had heard over the radio that Hunt had applied for Presidential pardon. In that regard, Caddy said that, "I think he has paid his dues to society and I would recommend him for Presidential pardon".

Character: APPLICATION FOR PARDON AFTER COMPLETION OF SENTENCE

Synopsis: Reference and associate Dr. I. J. Kapstein and his wife interviewed at Sarasota, Florida. Both Kapsteins speak highly of applicant. Both feel he has paid his debt to society and consider applicant to be an honorable and trustworthy individual.

-RUC-

DETAILS:b6

The following investigation was conducted by SA [REDACTED]
[REDACTED] at Sarasota, Florida, on January 19, 1982:

F. REFERENCE & ASSOCIATESb6
b7C

Dr. I. J. Kapstein, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] advised he has been acquainted with the applicant since 1936. Dr. Kapstein explained he first met the applicant while Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., was a freshman student at Brown University where Kapstein taught creative writing and English Literature. Kapstein taught Hunt during Hunt's undergraduate days at Brown University from 1936 to his graduation in 1940. Kapstein characterized Hunt as an industrious, highly talented individual, who was an excellent student during his undergraduate days at Brown University. Kapstein and Hunt regularly correspond and have done so for the last 42 years. In addition to a regular correspondence, Kapstein and Hunt maintain an infrequent visitation between their individual homes. Kapstein advised he was well aware of the FBI investigation regarding Hunt's application for pardon as he has spoken with Hunt during the Christmas vacation while Kapstein was visiting in the Miami, Florida area. Kapstein advised he may not agree with Hunt's political motivation for the Watergate incident but does feel that Hunt has paid his debt to society and should be granted a pardon so he may erase a "blot" from his otherwise impeccable record as an individual. According to Dr. Kapstein, the applicant is a loyal American citizen with impeccable integrity, reputation and character. Kapstein stated he personally believes that Hunt felt he was following direct orders from the Commander-in-Chief of the United States when he committed the Watergate break-in. Kapstein stated Hunt "took his medicine like a man" and therefore his past transgressions should be forgiven and forgotten.

TP 73-349

Mrs. Stella Kapstein, advised she has known the applicant since 1936 when he was a student of her husband, Dr. I. J. Kapstein, supra. Mrs. Kapstein characterized Hunt as an intelligent individual who has suffered greatly because of his conviction in the Watergate break-in. During the trial Hunt lost his wife in an airplane crash and suffered deep bouts of depression while in prison. Since his release from prison he has resumed writing, remarried, and fathered a young son. During a recent visit with the Hunts in Miami, Florida, Stella Kapstein was greatly impressed by Hunt's recovery from the stigma associated with his conviction in the Watergate affair.

Stella Kapstein stated she concurred with her husband's opinion that Hunt had served his debt to society and should be granted a Presidential pardon. Mrs. Kapstein stated she has always maintained a close relationship with E. Howard Hunt and has always found him to be trustworthy with unquestionable loyalty to the United States.

Title: EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT, JR.

Character: APPLICATION FOR PARDON AFTER COMPLETION OF SENTENCE

Synopsis: Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Goodrich, Ledyard, Connecticut, interviewed, commented favorably re applicant, and recommended him for pardon.

- RUC -

DETAILS: ASSOCIATES

On January 20, 1982, Mr. Frederick P. Goodrich, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] Ledyard, Connecticut, was interviewed in the presence of his wife, who concurred with everything her husband said. Mr. Goodrich furnished the following information:

b6
b7C

He became acquainted with applicant and his wife, Barbara, in the late 1950s as they were both employed at that time by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). He and his wife have maintained a close and friendly relationship with applicant since that time in spite of the troubles he had with the Watergate hearings. In fact, applicant talked with him on the phone a couple of days ago. Applicant graduated from Brown University in Rhode Island, and is a very intelligent, capable, and loyal person. He is very patriotic, although his loyalty to the Former President Nixon turned out to be an error in judgment. Applicant's wife was killed in an airplane crash several years ago, and applicant just recently remarried a former school teacher from Athens, Georgia. He has a baby boy, 2½ years old, from the second marriage. He had four children from the first marriage, who were friendly with Goodrich's children.

Applicant appears to have made an excellent adjustment after having gone through the traumatic experiences of having his first wife killed in an airplane and then having to serve time in jail for Watergate. He seems to be happily married to his second wife and has recently written a book entitled Gaza Intercept. Applicant is very cognizant of life in his community and acts like a very responsible citizen. He is a talented author, who has a creative personality. He is a very compassionate person who has outstanding character. He has corresponded with applicant on a regular basis, and has no reservations concerning applicant's character, loyalty, and associates. Applicant is a loyal American who he believes should be pardoned for any wrongdoings he was convicted of as a result of the Watergate hearings.

On January 26, 1982, Robert E. Mullen, [redacted] advised that he was formerly doing business in Washington, D.C. as Robert E. Mullen, Incorporated, and applicant was employed from approximately May, 1970 until June, 1971, when applicant went to work for the White House. He had a desk in the office after that, but cannot recall the date he left.

He first met applicant in 1950 when Mullen was Head of Public Relations for the Marshall Plan (MP). Applicant had experiences making movies and helped write a short film for the MP in Paris. In 1970, he received a call from a friend with the CIA, who told him that applicant wanted to retire and needed a job. Employees of the CIA have difficulties in getting jobs when they retire because they are not allowed to discuss their former work. His company was making T.V. shorts for gifted and retarded children for the United States Government and he could use applicant to write these productions.

Applicant is competent, reliable and a dedicated person. He is very talented and is a good writer. His character is excellent. Applicant's associates, that he met, are nice people and he has a good reputation. Applicant is honest, trustworthy and dependable. He is a loyal American and he would recommend applicant for a pardon.

On February 2, 1982, Mrs. Frederick P. McIntosh, [redacted] advised that she first became acquainted with Everett Hunt during the 1940's, when they worked together in the OSS. Mrs. McIntosh stated that she subsequently served under applicant when they were both employed by the Central Intelligence Agency between 1963, and 1965. Mrs. McIntosh stated that she worked for applicant at that time.

According to Mrs. McIntosh, applicant's life appears to have been changed since he was released from the penitentiary inasmuch as he has remarried and he appears to be living a very reputable life-style. According to Mrs. McIntosh, applicant's wife was a former teacher from Georgia and met Hunt while he was in prison. Mrs. McIntosh asserted that applicant does not appear to be bitter over his past mistakes and has a very positive attitude about his future. Mrs. McIntosh noted that applicant has just completed writing a book and is presently residing in Miami, Florida. Reference stated that she has never questioned applicant's loyalty to the Government and she considers him to be a very trustworthy, mature and strong-willed individual. Reference stated that she believes applicant has in fact paid for his wrong doings and she further stated that she would recommend that applicant receive a full pardon.

EMPLOYMENT

Mr. James Rogers, Personnel Officer, White House, advised SA [ ] that official records of his office contain no information concerning EVERETT HOWARD HUNT. Rogers believes that official records concerning Hunt are probably contained in the material gathered during the Watergate investigation and their present location is unknown.

However, Rogers recalled that Hunt worked under contract to the White House as a Consultant for a period of six months to one year during the period 1970 - 1972. He could not recall any more specific dates.

It will be noted that the applicant's Army Officer serial number is 0-587241, and not 97532 as shown on Bureau reference letter. The serial number 97532 is applicant's Navy Officer serial number.

A review of the applicant's Navy Officer record, serial number 97532, reflected that he was born October 9, 1918, at Hamburg, New York, and was appointed a Midshipman on February 14, 1941. He was appointed an Ensign on May 15, 1941, and was called to active duty on June 2, 1941.

A Medical Survey dated February 9, 1942, at the U. S. Naval Hospital, Chelsea, Massachusetts, reflected that the applicant was admitted on December 24, 1941, with a diagnosis of Astigmatism, mixed #670. Applicant was found "unfit for duty", and was ordered to appear before a Navy Retiring Board. The Navy Retiring Board met on May 28, 1942, and found the applicant incapacitated for duty. On October 13, 1942, the applicant was Honorably Discharged from the Navy Reserve as an Ensign.

On October 20, 1942, applicant requested to be reinstated in his Navy Commission. In reconsidering his case, the following pencilled notation was found on a memo form: "Forwarded for decision. Wants Commission as DVS discharged for physical defect. Attention invited to report from Medical Survey Board which would seem to me to indicate man was doing all he could to get out of Sea Duty. Note he requested two physical exams - one by a psychiatrist."

Applicant's Navy Officer record reflected he had prior enlisted service, serial number 403-64-91. His record contained no derogatory information.

The following records were checked with the results noted:
ONI - No record. MID - Not identifiable. Civil Service Commission Confidential Investigative Files - Not derogatory. House Committee on Un-American Activities - No record. No record at State Department.

DUDED: 7-30-71

Re Albany airtel 7-20-71 advising that 1949 applicant investigation in Albany has been destroyed.

For information Albany, 1949 investigation indicated that Hunt was employed by Economic Corporation Administration from May, 1948, to February, 1949. In August, 1949, he was residing at 30 Willett Street, Albany, New York, with his parents Everett H. Hunt and Ethel Jean Hunt.

Apparently from February, 1949, until he entered on duty with CIA, he was self-employed as a writer in Albany. This should be established during investigation so that his whereabouts from February, 1949, until CIA employment began can be accounted for.

EMPLOYMENT

Robert R. Mullen and Company, 1729 H Street, N. W.

On July 28, 1971, ROBERT R. MULLEN, Chairman, Robert R. Mullen and Company, advised the appointee has been employed by his public relations firm since May 1, 1970. He pointed out the appointee's record with the company is entirely clear, and he is considered a valuable employee.

Mr. MULLEN pointed out he has been acquainted with the appointee since about 1948, having met the appointee when the latter was employed by the Economic Cooperation Administration (ECA). He remarked he understands the appointee has done considerable writing and movie work for ECA, and that the appointee was self-employed for a period of several months writing, between ECA employment and Central Intelligence Agency employment. He advised he has been closer acquainted with the appointee in the last ten years, in that they have become friends and from time to time visit each other's homes.

He described the appointee as a dedicated American, a most capable man in his field, honest, discreet, trustworthy, and a gentleman in every respect. He has observed the appointee to be a person of moderate habits. Mr. MULLEN stated there is absolutely no question concerning the appointee's character, associates, reputation, or loyalty. He stated the appointee's family consists of his wife, DOROTHY LOUISE, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] He advised the appointee's family has impressed him as a very fine group of individuals and added the appointee is a very fine man. He recommends the appointee without any reservation for a position of trust and confidence.

AVERELL W. HARRIMAN, Former Ambassador, 3038 N Street, Northwest, advised on 8/3/71, that he <sup>HEADED</sup> had the Economic Cooperation Administration unit in Paris, France, in 1948 and 1949, but does not recall the appointee. He remarked that the personnel serving under him were of a high caliber as well as entirely loyal Americans and as the appointee worked under him, he would fall into this category.

The files of the Office of Security (SY), Department of State, reviewed by SA [REDACTED] on 8/5/71, disclosed that SY conducted a limited updating investigation concerning the appointee between September, 1952, and July, 1953. This investigation developed no additional pertinent information concerning the employee. This record indicated that SY had <sup>GRANTED</sup> cleared the appointee clearance on 12/7/50, for appointment or continued employment, but the clearance form was not in the SY file.
