Purpose: search for illegal foreign contributions. The four men were: Bernard Barker, Frank Sturgis, Virgilio Gonzalez and Rolando Martinez. A fifth man, James McCord, who was employed directly by G. Gordon Liddy, accompanied the entry team to place electronic intercept and telephone bugging devices. The five men were arrested on DNC premises.

A Pardon for Howard Hunt

Washington.

Under the Constitution, as President Ford well knows, the president has power to grant reprieves and pardons for offenses against the United States. This month the President will receive a petition for commutation in the case of E. Howard Hunt, Jr. In the name of mercy and justice, the petition should be granted.

Except for G. Gordon Liddy, who also merits relief but whose case is quite different, Hunt is the only Watergate defendant still in prison. No useful purpose whatever is being served by keeping him there.

We are concerned here with elementary questions of crime and punishment. Hunt's crime was conspiracy to commit burglary. His punishment is a prospective eight years in prison and a fine of $10,000. Except for the brutal 20-year sentence imposed on Liddy, the punishment given Hunt is the most severe of them all.

The crime itself, of course, was the breaking and entering of Democratic National Headquarters in the Watergate in June, 1972. Beyond question, Hunt was deeply involved in that sordid and stupid affair. He pleaded guilty. It is no defense to his crime, though it is a valid consideration in a plea for commutation, that he acted under the aegis of a former attorney general in what he supposed was the service of the then President of the United States.

The imposing of just sentences is the hardest task of criminal jurisprudence. Judges themselves cannot readily explain why Defendant A gets 1 year, Defendant B gets 5 years and Defendant C gets 10 years, when the defendants have similar personal records and are convicted of substantially identical offenses. Unhappily, there are parties turn up all the time, and as often as not they reflect little more than the passions and prejudices of the presiding judge.

This was the case in the matter of the Watergate defendants. They ran up against Judge John J. Sirica—"Hanging John," as a judge as ever sat on the federal bench. His thought was to terrify the Watergate defendants by imposing sentences of a severity unheard of in simple breaking-and-entering cases. He hit them originally with sentences to shock the conscience and to extort their "co-operation."

Eventually, after letting them twist slowly, slowly, in the wind, Hanging John had mercy on five of the seven defendants. Frank Sturgis, Virgilio Gonzalez, Eugenio Martinez, James W. McCord, Jr., and Bernard Barker, who had been hit with four to six years, were released after 4 to 15 months. Judge Sirica had no mercy in his soul for Hunt or Liddy. Their pleas for reduction of sentence were flatly denied.

Liddy has stonewalled from the beginning; his circumstances, to repeat, are different. Hunt, by contrast, has co-operated fully since his conviction. In the past two years, he has testified repeatedly both in Congress and in the trials of such defendants as John N. Mitchell and John D. Ehrlichman. His prison record is exemplary.

Why do we sentence men to prison? Three reasons usually are advanced. The first is simple incarceration: The object is to keep dangerous criminals behind bars, where they cannot endanger society. The second is rehabilitation: The thought is to train men for useful roles in society. The third is retribution: The idea is to exact punishment for an offense against the state.

Surely it is pointless to incarcerate Howard Hunt: It is inconceivable that he would take up a burglar's career. He needs no "rehabilitation"; he is an accomplished writer, fully capable of supporting himself. He has now spent almost two years in prison; as punishment for a political escapade, in which no one was hurt and nothing of value was stolen, this seems more than sufficient.
Eight months went by. I am a friend of Hunt’s, and godfather to three of his children, and accordingly telephoned the Pardon Attorney and asked if he could account for the extraordinary delay. Were there political considerations standing in the way of a commutation of sentence? He replied that I would have to draw my own conclusions, that he believed the recommendation would be made shortly.

A long while later—in July 1976—I addressed the Attorney General directly to ask whether, in fact, political considerations were vitiating due process. A month after that, I received a reply from the acting Attorney General advising me that the Pardon Attorney “expects to receive shortly the last report which he views as necessary to developing his recommendation to the Attorney General.”

On the whole, I like to believe Attorneys General, but it is difficult to do so in this case. If there is an American this side of the fever swamps who believes that Howard Hunt should still be in jail for the fog of conspiracy he committed in June 1972, after spending thirty months in jail, I doubt that that person would have taken ten months to forward his recommendation to the Pardon Attorney. What obviously the whole gang did not want is to pardon Hunt during the election campaign, on the grounds that doing so would revive talk about the pardon of Richard Nixon. Well, let us be grand about it and accept it that Hunt’s remaining in jail must be considered a trivial sacrifice to pay for the prospective re-election of a President of the United States.

But the election was weeks ago. Hunt rots in jail, for no purpose, and there is no explanation for it other than the sadistic neglect of uncommunicative bureaucrats who give speeches about justice and apparently think nothing of taking more than one year to process a simple application for justice and for mercy. If the Pardon Attorney concludes that Hunt should not be let out of jail, then why not develop the guts to say so? Perhaps the services of John Sirica as a ghost-writer could be made available? Or will Hunt have to wait for a Democratic President to exercise rudimentary clemency for a minor participant in that sordid affair who has been redundantly punished?
Barry For Watergate Pardons

WASHINGTON (AP) - Convicted Watergate conspirators who are seeking pardons have an advocate in Sen. Barry Goldwater.

"If he [President Ford] pardoned Nixon, I see no reason why he shouldn't pardon the others. I think all these men received sentences way, way out of line with what they did ... We even now don't know what went on and won't know until ex-President Nixon tells the truth," Goldwater said Monday in an interview with CBS.

Ford, in an October press conference, said there was "no credence" to rumors that he intended to give more Watergate pardons. But over the last weekend, in an interview with the Washington Post, Ford declined to say whether he planned to grant more pardons.

Four of the individuals convicted in the Watergate burglary, Bernard Barker, Eugenio Martinez, James McCord and Frank Sturgess, have asked the Justice Department for pardons. Two others, E. Howard Hunt and Gordon Liddy, have asked for commutations of sentences they are now serving.

H.R. Haldeman, John Mitchell and John Ehrlichman are appealing convictions; Ehrlichman has begun his sentence even as his appeal continues.

The Arizona Republican said Ford's pardon of Nixon hurt his re-election campaign. "But I don't think going ahead and pardoning those who are left would cause any trouble."

Opinion

A political silence?

Let President speak on Hunt amnesty bid

Relatives of E. Howard Hunt make a good case when they say that he has been more harshly penalized than others found guilty of participation in the Watergate conspiracy.

Hunt, a career espionage agent with the CIA, ran out of money to appeal his sentence of eight years in jail and a $10,000 fine. His appeals effort and his family both disintegrated when Mrs. Hunt was killed in a plane crash during a trip to secure money for legal fees.

Hunt has now served two years of his sentence and claims that he's been shuttled from jail to jail, denied privileges and subjected to "reverse discrimination" because his case is politically sensitive. He is bitter because Richard Nixon was pardoned after lying about Watergate, while he was jailed after telling the truth. Hunt says that he disapproved of the Watergate break-in from the beginning.

Hunt's only hope is executive clemency from President Gerald Ford. A clemency application was filed with the Justice Department last October, but in the nine months since then, Hunt's attorney has heard nothing. The Justice Department has no explanation for this long delay. The White House, pressed by Senator James L. Buckley and others, has been similarly silent.

This lack of attentiveness to what may be a serious miscarriage of justice must end. President Ford must direct the Justice Department to present the full facts on the Hunt case to him at once, and must make a prompt decision on whether or not clemency is justified.

Otherwise, suspicions will continue to exist that Hunt is languishing in jail because the Nixon pardon is highly unpopular and the White House is avoiding the clemency issue for

Field Office File #: 73-1443
Title: EVERETTE HOWARD HUNT, JR.

Character: APPLICATION FOR PARDON AFTER COMPLETION OF SENTENCE

Synopsis:
Applicant appeared at the Miami Office of the FBI on December 17, 1981. He is a retired CIA Agent and is presently self-employed as an author. He desires a pardon to restore his civil rights for personal and family reasons. When confronted with preforming an illegal act, he entered a plea of guilty and also cooperated with the authorities and testified in other trials.

DETAILS:

This investigation is based upon a petition for pardon after completion of sentence, filed by Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., Miami, Florida, dated October 9, 1981.

The applicant appeared in the Miami Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on December 17, 1981, at which time he was interviewed.

Interview of Applicant

A. Employment History

Applicant advised that he served for 26 years as an Agent for the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and retired on May 1, 1970. He was then employed by R.E. Mullen and Company, 1700 Pennsylvania Avenue, Washington, D.C., as Vice President from May, 1970, until June, 1972. He was also employed as a consultant by the Executive Office of the President, Washington, D.C., from July, 1971, until June, 1972. He was discharged from both the position at the White House and by R.E. Mullen and Company, because of the publicity over Watergate. Applicant is currently self-employed as an author and works from his residence.

B. Residence

Applicant resided at 11120 River Road, Potomac, Maryland, from 1965 to 1974, and at Miami, Florida, from 1974, to present.

C. Applicant's Version of Circumstances Under Which He Was Convicted.

Applicant advised that he met G. Gordon Liddy at the White House and believed that Liddy worked directly for Attorney General Mitchell, who was President Nixon's Campaign Manager. Liddy instructed him to organize a team to enter the Democratic National Committee Headquarters (DNCH) and to look for evidence that money was coming from a foreign source. He believed that executive authority was given for this venture. After working for the CIA for 26 years, he did not question his instruction and entered the DNCH.

Applicant entered a plea of guilty, in the United States District Court in the District of Columbia, Washington, D.C., to the charge of Conspiracy, 18 United States Code 371; Burglary, 22 District of Columbia 1801(b); and Illegal Interception of Communication, 18 United States Code 2511. He was sentenced to be imprisoned for 2½ to 8 years and to pay a fine of $10,000.00. Time was served and the fine was paid.

D. Reason Pardon Desired.

Applicant advised that he desired a pardon because he would like to have his civil rights restored, that were removed by his conviction. He served for many years for the United States Government, entered a plea of guilty and testified regarding the break-in, when he realized that executive authority was not given and he had violated the law. He would also like the pardon for employment opportunities if he desired to work and for family reasons. He would like to clear his name for his children.

E. Present Mode and Standard of Living

Applicant is self employed and earns an income as an author. He has also retired from the CIA and receives a federal retirement. He has some money invested, from which he receives an income and lives in a house, which he owns. Applicant lives comfortably and is not very active.
F. Reference and Associates

Applicant furnished names of individuals who are his associates, as follows:

Morris R. Poummit

Edward J. Dunn, Jr.

Kenneth W. Whittaker

Mrs. Frederick P. McIntosh

General John K. Linglaub

William F. Buckley, Jr.

MM 73-1443

The document appears to be a reference report submitted by the FBI to support an application for a pardon after completion of a sentence. The report is dated January 20, 1982, and includes a reference interview with Morris R. Poummitt, who provides comments favorable for Everette Howard Hunt, Jr. The reference report states that Morris Poummitt was interviewed at his residence and advised he has been acquainted with Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., since 1934, when he (Poummitt) was a music teacher at Hamburg High School and Hunt was his pupil. Poummitt stated that he also became acquainted with the Hunt family at that time and was very favorably impressed. Everette H. Hunt, Sr., according to Poummitt, was a well-respected lawyer in the Hamburg, New York community.

Poummitt advised that Everette Howard Hunt, Jr., was musically talented and played a major role as a singer and trumpet player in a school production directed by him at Hamburg High School. The document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.
School. Poummitt further advised that he admired Hunt inasmuch as he utilized his musical talent as a means to work his way through Brown University.

Poummitt stated that although he did not maintain contact with Hunt beyond Hunt's days at Brown University, he (Poummitt) again met Hunt in 1979 in Miami, Florida. Poummitt advised that he and Hunt renewed their friendship at that time and have met on numerous occasions since.

Poummitt advised Hunt, in his opinion, is a real gentleman. He further described him as an extraordinarily talented, personable, and honest man. Poummitt explained that Hunt feels no bitterness toward the Government and his country and believes Hunt to be loyal without question to the United States. Poummitt stated he has no reason to question Hunt's character or reputation and could provide no derogatory information regarding him. Poummitt further stated, in his opinion, Hunt's only failing would have been his blind loyalty which led to his legal problems. Poummitt is aware of applicant's petition for pardon and as such, highly recommends that a pardon be granted. Poummitt advised that Hunt desires a pardon for family reasons inasmuch as he feels his son and family have paid a great price for his (Hunt's) legal problems.

and his wife attended and they have been to parties in applicant's home. Applicant is a very nice person and is helpful whenever possible. They have had many discussions regarding world, national and community affairs and he considers applicant to be a conservative person. He lived at that address before applicant moved into the Miami area but he did not meet applicant until 1977 after he retired from the FBI. After applicant moved to Miami and before he retired, applicant's son became good friends with his son and he would take applicant's son to various places including church, but he simply accepted applicant's son as a boy who lived in the neighborhood and did not know who he was. After he retired he met applicant and applicant told him that he purposefully did not contact him because if he did so he would be afraid that someone may accuse him of associating with applicant which could cause bad publicity for both applicant and for the FBI. Since that time, he has become good friends with applicant and they have spent occasions together socially. Applicant is a fine gentleman and a good neighbor. When applicant moved into the area his wife had died and he has since remarried and his wife is a fine person. When applicant did realize he made a mistake, he admitted his mistake and took his punishment. Applicant has a fine character, is well respected by the neighbors, and has many nice friends. He considers applicant to be honest, trustworthy, and a loyal American. He knows that applicant has applied for a pardon and would recommend that applicant receive the pardon.

After applicant was released from prison and moved to Miami, he renewed his acquaintance with applicant and attended applicant's wedding when he married his current wife and they have been friends ever since. Applicant has an excellent character and never had any problems with the law until he became involved in the Watergate situation. He considers the Watergate break-in to be a stupid thing for applicant to do and believes applicant feels the same way about it now. Applicant has nice friends in the area, most of whom are professional people, and some of whom are former FBI Agents. He has never observed applicant or any of his associates use any drugs, narcotics, marijuana, or alcohol to an excess. He considers that applicant has a high integrity and is honest, trustworthy, dependable and a loyal American. Applicant is an athletic type and likes to play tennis and likes to hunt and fish. He has been told by applicant that applicant desires a pardon and he would recommend that applicant receive the pardon.

Douglas Caddy, advised as follows on January 19, 1987:

The Robert E. Mullen Company, a public relations firm, was formerly located at 1729 H Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. It was incorporated and

One of that company's clients was General Foods Corporation for whom Caddy worked as an employee and lobbyist. Caddy never worked for the Robert E. Mullen Company, but he did work out of offices of the Robert E. Mullen Company when he was in Washington serving as a lobbyist for General Foods.

U.S.GPO:1975-0-575-841
He recalled that applicant started to work for the Robert E. Mullen Company in May, 1970, and worked there until about June, 1972, but did not recall applicant's exact position and could not say whether applicant ever served that company as Vice President. He advised that Robert E. Mullen of that company, now retired and last known to Caddy to be living in Key Biscayne, Florida, would also have known Hunt.

When the Watergate scandal broke and Hunt was charged with criminal violations arising from that matter, Hunt initially retained Caddy as his attorney to represent him on those charges. Caddy later withdrew as counsel and became a witness at Hunt's trial, testifying for both Hunt and the United States Government. He last saw Hunt in person about five years ago in Washington, D.C., talked with him for the last time about two years ago by telephone, and corresponded with Hunt about eight months ago.

Caddy advised that he had heard over the radio that Hunt had applied for Presidential pardon. In that regard, Caddy said that, "I think he has paid his dues to society and I would recommend him for Presidential pardon".

Kapstein advised he was well aware of the FBI investigation regarding Hunt's application for pardon as he has spoken with Hunt during the Christmas vacation while Kapstein was visiting in the Miami, Florida area. Kapstein advised he may not agree with Hunt's political motivation for the Watergate incident but does feel that Hunt has paid his debt to society and should be granted a pardon so he may erase a "blot" from his otherwise impeccable record as an individual. According to Dr. Kapstein, the applicant is a loyal American citizen with impeccable integrity, reputation and character. Kapstein stated he personally believes that Hunt felt he was following direct orders from the Commander-in-Chief of the United States when he committed the Watergate break-in. Kapstein stated Hunt "took his medicine like a man" and therefore his past transgressions should be forgiven and forgotten.

Mrs. Stella Kapstein, advised she has known the applicant since 1936 when he was a student of her husband, Dr. I. J. Kapstein, supra. Mrs. Kapstein characterized Hunt as an intelligent individual who has suffered greatly because of his conviction in the Watergate break-in. During the trial Hunt lost his wife in an airplane crash and suffered deep bouts of depression while in prison. Since his release from prison he has resumed writing, remarried, and fathered a young son. During a recent visit with the Hunts in Miami, Florida, Stella Kapstein was greatly impressed by Hunt's recovery from the stigma associated with his conviction in the Watergate affair.

Stella Kapstein stated she concurred with her husband's opinion that Hunt had served his debt to society and should be granted a Presidential pardon. Mrs. Kapstein stated she has always maintained a close relationship with E. Howard Hunt and has always found him to be trustworthy with unquestionable loyalty to the United States.

APPLICATION FOR PARDON AFTER COMPLETION OF SENTENCE

Mr. and Mrs. Frederick P. Goodrich, Ledyard, Connecticut, interviewed, commented favorably re applicant, and recommended him for pardon.

- RUC -

DETAILS: ASSOCIATES

On January 20, 1982, Mr. Frederick P. Goodrich, [ ], Ledyard, Connecticut, was interviewed in the presence of his wife, who concurred with everything her husband said. Mr. Goodrich furnished the following information:

He became acquainted with applicant and his wife, Barbara, in the late 1950s as they were both employed at that time by the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA). He and his wife have maintained a close and friendly relationship with applicant since that time in spite of the troubles he had with the Watergate hearings. In fact, applicant talked with him on the phone a couple of days ago. Applicant graduated from Brown University in Rhode Island, and is a very intelligent, capable, and loyal person. He is very patriotic, although his loyalty to the Former President Nixon turned out to be an error in judgment. Applicant's wife was killed in an airplane crash several years ago, and applicant just recently remarried a former school teacher from Athens, Georgia. He has a baby boy, 2½ years old, from the second marriage. He had four children from the first marriage, who were friendly with Goodrich's children.
Applicant appears to have made an excellent adjustment after having gone through the traumatic experiences of having his first wife killed in an airplane and then having to serve time in jail for Watergate. He seems to be happily married to his second wife and has recently written a book entitled Gaza Intercept. Applicant is very cognizant of life in his community and acts like a very responsible citizen. He is a talented author, who has a creative personality. He is a very compassionate person who has outstanding character. He has corresponded with applicant on a regular basis, and has no reservations concerning applicant's character, loyalty, and associates. Applicant is a loyal American who he believes should be pardoned for any wrongdoings he was convicted of as a result of the Watergate hearings.
