FOIPA Request No.: 1383137-000
Subject: DUNCAN, DONALD WALTER

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

The enclosed documents were reviewed under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Title 5, United States Code, Section 552. Deletions have been made to protect information which is exempt from disclosure, with the appropriate exemptions noted on the page next to the excision. In addition, a deleted page information sheet was inserted in the file to indicate where pages were withheld entirely. The exemptions used to withhold information are marked below and explained on the enclosed Explanation of Exemptions:

223 preprocessed pages are enclosed. To expedite requests, preprocessed packages are released the same way they were originally processed. Documents or information originating with other Government agencies that were originally referred to that agency were not referred as part of this release. This material is being provided to you at no charge.

In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIA online portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "D. Hardy", with a stylized flourish at the end.

Enclosure(s)

The enclosed CD represents the first interim release of information responsive to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

ReBuairtel 12/2/65.

[REDACTED] advised on 12/9/65 information developed that DuBois Club, Los Angeles, had rented Baces Hall, North Vermont Street, Los Angeles, for 1/16/66. DON DUNCAN, 1165 Sutter Street, Berkeley, California, scheduled as one of the speakers. DUNCAN described as an Army Sergeant who is critical of U.S. policy in Viet Nam.

b7D

[REDACTED] furnished identical information and commented that DUNCAN's appearance apparently widely disseminated among DuBois Club members.

For info San Francisco, subject's comments before Viet Nam Day Committee rally reported in 11/27/65 issue of "People's World," pages 1 and 2.

No additional information identifiable with subject located LA indices.

On January 5, 1966, [redacted] apartment house located at 2701 San Marino Street, Los Angeles, California, advised a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation that Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Gerber reside in Apt. 12 at this address. It will be recalled that Norma A. Gerber (Mrs. Henry W. Gerber) is the mother of Donald Duncan.

[redacted] said Henry W. Gerber formerly was the resident manager of this apartment building. About one year ago the building was purchased by a new owner and [redacted] moved in to take over the position of resident manager. [redacted] has only a limited English language ability and has not developed a very close relationship with the Gerbers.

[redacted] said she had learned that this was at least a second marriage for both Mr. and Mrs. Gerber. She did not know Donald Duncan and had no information concerning him. She said it was her understanding that Mr. Gerber was the father of the motion picture actress Mitzi Gaynor, and she occasionally sees Miss Gaynor at the apartment.

[redacted] added that Mr. Gerber has been ill and is confined to bed under the care of a nurse. She has not learned the nature of his illness. So far as [redacted] is aware, Mr. Gerber has not been employed since he was terminated as resident manager. Mrs. Gerber apparently is employed, but [redacted] has no information concerning the nature of this employment.

[redacted] considered the Gerbers as satisfactory tenants concerning whom she knew nothing unfavorable.

It was ascertained on December 28, 1965, that the files of the Los Angeles Police Department and the files of the Los Angeles County Sheriff's Office contained no record for Henry W. Gerber or Norma A. Gerber.

[redacted] Donald Duncan, a Master Sergeant, who left the United States Army in September, 1965, was scheduled to be the principal speaker at the press conference in connection with the feature story captioned, "The Whole Thing Was A Lie!", appearing on pages 12 through 24 in the February, 1966, issue of "Ramparts."

According to the informant, Duncan's press conference took place [redacted] lasting approximately one hour. He estimated that approximately 25 people from the press were in attendance. He also noted that 75 free copies of the February, 1966, issue of "Ramparts" were left [redacted]

Attached are copies of two press releases, "For Release Not Before 11 a.m. - February 10, 1966," relating to the above conference under sponsorship of "Ramparts," 1182 Chestnut Street, Menlo Park, California - Contact: Marc Stone, Public Relations, 120 East 56th Street, New York, N.Y. 10022, (212) Plaza 5-5180." DC

Relative to the above, the following article appeared under the caption, "Ex-GI Urges U.S. to Deal With 'Front'," in the February 11, 1966, issue (A-6) of "The Washington Post".

"A former Special Forces master sergeant said yesterday the United States should recognize that the National Liberation Front, political organ of the Vietcong guerrillas, is closer to the aspirations of the Vietnamese people than the government in Saigon.

"Donald Duncan, who last September quit the Army after serving for 18 months in Vietnam, claimed that the Front is the dominant political factor in Vietnam and that the United States should deal with it.

"At a news conference, Duncan, 35, claimed that the government of Nguyen Cao Ky would not last more than one week without American support. He claimed it is supported only by 20 to 30 per cent of the Vietnamese people.

"The former paratrooper, who left the Army after his 'disillusionment' with U. S. policies in Vietnam, said he personally is opposed to communism anywhere because it is 'sterile.' But, he added, it might appeal to other people, including those in South Vietnam, and the United States should not deny them a free choice.

"Duncan likened the United States to Mussolini when he invaded Ethiopia, because it is the world's richest nation attacking a small country.

DONALD WALTER DUNCAN

"Duncan, who once instructed at the Ft. Bragg special warfare center, charged that Special Forces troops are taught methods of torture to extract information from prisoners.

"Under questioning, however, Duncan conceded that nobody had ever told him or other soldiers to torture or kill Vietcong prisoners.

"The Defense Department issued a statement saying two Special Forces generals 'emphatically denied that methods of torture are taught to Special Forces personnel. On the contrary, they are taught that torture is a stupid and ineffective way of eliciting information.'"

U.S. SPECIAL FORCES HERO CALLS VIETNAM WAR 'A LIE'

An American hero of the war in Vietnam, the ^{first} only enlisted man to be nominated for the Legion of Merit and the soldier selected last July to brief Secretary of Defense McNamara on the operations of our Special Forces, charges our men are dying for "a lie" in an article in the February issue of Ramparts out today.

Master Sergeant Donald Duncan, who turned down a commission and captaincy and left the army after 10 years of service, tells in an article "The Whole Thing Was A Lie" of his evolution from "militant anti-communist" to the discovery that "it's not democracy we brought to Vietnam -- it's anti-communism."

"It had taken a long time and a mountain of evidence but I had finally found some truths," Duncan writes. "The world is not just good guys and bad guys. Anti-communism is a lousy substitute of ~~for~~ democracy. I know now that there are many types of communism but there are none that appeal to me. In the long run, I don't think Vietnam will be better off under Ho's brand of communism. But it's not for me or my government to decide. That decision is for the Vietnamese."

Far from criticizing American anti-war demonstrators, Duncan says, "I think they should be commended... They are opposed to people, our own and others, dying for a lie, thereby corrupting the very word democracy."

In a final memorial to his fallen comrades, written while still in service for an army publication, Duncan declares: "We can best immortalize our fallen members by striving for an enlightened future where Man has found another solution to his problems than resorting to the futility and stupidity of war."

The magazine reproduces the letter of commendation sent Duncan on 22 July 1965 by his commanding officer, Col. William A. McKean, following his briefing of McNamara: "The salient points which you so aptly presented to the Secretary of Defense may have significant results on future support of Special Forces in the Republic of Vietnam. You are to be congratulated on a job well done."

Some of the highlights of Duncan's revelations include:

American Special Forces are taught techniques of torture. ("When we asked directly if we were being told to use these methods the answer was, 'We can't tell you that. The Mothers of America wouldn't approve.' This sarcastic hypocrisy was greeted with laughs.") "I was later to witness first hand the practice of turning prisoners over to ARVN (Army of the Republic of Vietnam) for 'interrogation' and the atrocities which ensued."

Special Operations Group, composed of CIA, Air Force, Navy, Army and Special Forces personnel, is operating inside of North Vietnam.

"The real question was, whether communism is spreading in spite of our involvement or because of it."

A good percentage of Special Forces men were Lodge Act people -- men who came out of the Iron Curtain countries. Their anti-communism bordered on fanaticism. When "things" did not happen fast enough to satisfy them, many resigned and showed up later in Africa or Latin America "in the employ of others or as independent agents for the CIA."

Special Forces trainees were told, about prisoners: "You don't have to kill them yourself -- let your indigenous counterpart do that."

Racial discrimination was rampant in the Special Forces, from the former Latvian who was not interested in Vietnam ("I wouldn't blend. There are not many blue-eyed gooks"), to the captain who instructed Duncan: "Don't send me any niggers. Be careful, however, not to give the impression that we are prejudiced in Special Forces..." In the larger Vietnam towns, "Negroes do not go into white bars except at the risk of being ejected."

Resentment of Americans by South Vietnamese "runs all the way from stiff politeness to obvious hatred. It is so common that if a Vietnamese working with or for Americans is found to be sincerely cooperative, energetic, conscientious, and honest, it automatically makes him suspect as a Viet Cong agent."

Vietnamese soldiers were sent into Laos on a secret mission, without the Americans who had trained them and trained with them, because "it was an election year and it would cause great embarrassment if Americans were captured in Laos." ("This," says Duncan, "was the one thing, if I had to single one out, that made me really start questioning our role in Vietnam.")

This mission into Laos, from which only 6 out of 40 men returned, confirmed "that the Viet Cong were getting the bulk of their weapons from ARVN and by sea. It was also one more piece of evidence that the Viet Cong were primarily South Vietnamese, not imported troops from the North. One more thing was added to my growing lists of doubts of the 'official' stories...

"When teaching Special Forces how to set up guerrilla warfare in an enemy country, killing unpopular officials is pointed out as one method of gaining friends among the populace. It is recommended that special assassination teams be set up for this purpose. I know of a couple of cases where it was suggested by Special Forces officers that Viet Cong prisoners be killed.

"Communist or not, the vast majority of the people were pro-Viet Cong and anti-Saigon. I had to accept also that the position, 'We are in Vietnam because we are in sympathy with the aspirations and desires of the Vietnamese people,' was a lie."

While we view the Vietnamese on our side as "cowardly" and unable to accept discipline, our officers describe the Viet Cong as "dedicated," "tough," "disciplined," "well-trained" and "brave."

The Vietnamese on our side fight well in defense of themselves and their teams, but never out of the feeling that they "are fighting for democracy... freedom... the people..."

South Vietnamese troops and commanders "know that if they don't bother the Viet Cong they will be safe from Viet Cong."

In conclusion the much-decorated Duncan... criticism of young American anti-war demonstrators: "On the contrary. I am relieved. I think they should be commended... They are opposed to people, our own and others, dying for a lie, thereby corrupting the very word democracy."

DEPTH STUDY WARNS OAKLAND (CALIFORNIA)
MAY BE SCENE OF WATTS-TYPE RIOT

Oakland, California, is singled out as the most likely candidate as the next city to have Watts-type riots, in a 26-page study-in-depth by Executive Editor Warren Hinckle and a team of writers and researchers in the February issue of Ramparts.

"Oakland's leaders see a twofold spectre haunting their grimy city: the fear of an explosion from the ghetto within, and an invasion of 'outside agitators' from the sprawling, adjacent Berkeley campus of the University of California," says the study.

Taking as its point of departure the anti-war march last fall by the Berkeley Vietnam Day Committee, and the Selma-type opposition the Oakland police force mustered against it, the essay, titled Metropol (in a play on the name of the game, Monopoly) searingly surveys the entire power structure of California's second largest industrial city, selected by Look Magazine ten years ago as an "All American City."

Oakland's only newspaper, The Tribune, is not "the most reactionary newspaper in California. It did, after all, support Goldwater for President whereas the Santa Ana Register, in the heart of Southern California's Orange County, refused to support the Republican candidate because they considered him too liberal." But the paper, in the hands of ex-Sen. William F. Knowland, known as "The Senator from Formosa," heads a stalwart hidebound clique including Assemblyman Don Mulford, District Attorney J. Frank Coakley, Mayor John C. Houlihan, Police Chief Edward M. Toothman, and others, who are holding the line without giving an inch, says this study.

Dr. Floyd Hunter, respected sociologist, made an extensive study of community decision making in Oakland. Hired in 1962 by the Mayor's Committee on Full Opportunity to do a study on housing discrimination, his report turned out to be a "118-page bomb" that plainly said the Oakland "civic machine" needed its "social sights raised radically."

How the city attempted to stifle the report, after mimeographing 125 copies of it, and how the "power structure" continues to stand firm, while storm warnings grow more and more menacing on the horizon despite efforts by various clergymen and laymen of goodwill, is the basic burden of Metropol.

The study is lightened by descriptions of the vigilante group known as Hell's Angels (which attacked last fall's attempted peace march) and the fanciful intervention of beat poet Allen Ginsberg to make peace between the Hell's Angels and the anti-war marchers.

It concludes: "Oakland may be a funny place, but the joke is all on us."

The February 11, 1966, issue of the "Daily Bruin," a student newspaper of the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA), contained an article captioned "Viet Comm Speakers." The article stated that the University Committee on Viet Nam would present three speakers during February who would discuss various aspects of the war in Viet Nam.

The article indicated that Don Duncan would speak at noon, February 28, 1966, in the UCLA Student Union Grand Ballroom. Duncan was identified as a Special Forces veteran and military editor of "Ramparts" magazine. His planned talk was described as "A 'Green Beret' Blasts the Viet Nam War."

SF T-1 advised that information had been received that a debate was to be held between captioned individual and DAVID K. MARVIN, Professor of International Relations at San Francisco State College on February 18, 1966. This source did not know the exact time or place of the debate but stated the debate would concern the United States policy involving Vietnam.

A review of the "Golden Gater", a daily student publication at the San Francisco State College, San Francisco, for the pertinent period revealed no information concerning this debate.

On March 1, 1966, SF T-2 advised that this debate was originally planned by a group of people from Pacifica, California, who are against United States policy in Vietnam and selected Professor MARVIN to oppose DUNCAN since he also resides in Pacifica. Professor MARVIN consented to this debate which was to be held in Pacifica February 18, 1966, but debate was cancelled since DUNCAN was then and is still presently on a national tour and no new date was set for the debate. This source stated he does not believe that the debate will now be held.

J. Edgar Hoover, Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Hoover,

Recently I was given the enclosed handbill by a fellow employee at IBM research, and decided to write to you regarding the same.

I was brought up in the old patriotic tradition, and as "out" as that may be today, I still believe it is the right way. My family and the area in which I was born and raised are rich in the traditions and history of our nation, and I am sorry to see them slighted by anyone or any group. For those reasons, I feel I must ask you to answer some questions.

I would like to know the orientation of the group sponsoring Sgt. Duncan's talk. Is it Communist supported? In the reading material that gives Sgt. Duncan's background, it is stated that he was offered a "captaincy" to stay in the Green Beret. As a member of the U.S. Coast Guard Reserve, I have never heard of anyone being offered a direct commission to the rank of captain. I would like to know Sgt. Duncan's true background.

I fully realize that I will prove nothing to any extremists by finding out the truth, but I will have the satisfaction of knowing the truth myself. I do not wish to take away anyone's right to free expression, or free speech, or to suppress anyone's right to disagree. That would be un-American.

Congratulations to you and the bureau for the fine job you are all doing, and I thank you for your time and consideration.

Sincerely,

On March 31, 1966, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past provided the following data:

It was learned at a meeting of the Chapter of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) on the campus of the State University of New York at Buffalo (SUNYAB) held the evening of March 30, 1966, that former Master Sergeant DONALD DUNCAN, a veteran of the Special Forces (Green Beret) of the United States Army was scheduled to speak on this campus. He was being sponsored by the Council for Citizen Responsibility on Foreign Policy. He was scheduled to give his talk in the Millard Fillmore Room, Norton Union, SUNYAB, 8:00 p.m., April 19, 1966. At the SDS meeting it was mentioned that DUNCAN was charging a fee of $500.00 for his talk, plus all of his expenses. This sum would be raised by means of a 50 cent donation at the door. SDS planned to expend efforts to help make the DUNCAN affair a success.

The July 16, 1965 edition of "Spectrum," the weekly student newspaper of SUNYAB, described SDS as follows:

"Students for a Democratic Society is an association of young people on the left who maintain a vision of a democratic society, where at all levels people have control of the decisions which affect them and the resources upon which they are dependent."

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF COUNCIL
FOR CITIZEN RESPONSIBILITY ON
FOREIGN POLICY

With regard to the Council for Citizen Responsibility on Foreign Policy, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past described it in January, 1966, as a newly formed group in Buffalo, New York, which has as its purpose the protesting of United States participation in the war in Viet Nam. The initiating and dominating person in this new group is ARTHUR DAVID KAHN, a member of the faculty at the State University of New York at Buffalo. The core of people who first became associated with KAHN in this endeavor was made up of other SUNYAB faculty members. The group has since been expanded to encompass representatives from other walks of life, including labor, community leaders, clergymen, businessmen, and students.

Concerning ARTHUR DAVID KAHN, JOHN LAUTNER, an admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP) for over 20 years who was expelled from the CP in January, 1950, while serving as Chairman of the New York State CP Review Commission, identified ARTHUR DAVID KAHN as a CP member as of May, 1950.

The "Herald Tribune," a daily newspaper published in New York City, on September 30, 1951, in an article entitled "The Red Underground," by OGDEN R. REID, reported the following:

"Arthur David Kahn....a former State Department administrative assistant.... who worked successively during World War II for the War Department, Office of Strategic Services, Office of War Information and Allied Military Government....has been lecturing across the country since February for the subversive American Peace Crusade."

The article also stated that KAHN, during his tour, referred frequently to his book, "Betrayal, Our Occupation of Germany," which was published in Poland and reprinted in November, 1950, in Brooklyn, New York.

The American Peace Crusade has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In August, 1961, KAHN was observed by Special Agents of the FBI meeting with officials of the Albanian United Nations delegation in New York City.

On April 4, 1966, a third source who has furnished reliable information in the past stated that a meeting of captioned group was held in Buffalo the preceding evening. This group is working diligently to see to it that the affair at which DONALD DUNCAN will speak on April 19, 1966, will be a success. Many committees of this group have been expending a considerable amount of time to insure the success of the affair.

According to the third source, captioned group has distributed in large quantities a four-page brochure, the cover of which has a picture of DUNCAN in uniform, with the caption "I Quit!" The brochure makes use of what is purported to be a quotation from the "New York Times," which refers to DUNCAN as "a veteran of Special Forces," who "denounces U.S. policy as a 'lie.'" The brochure describes DUNCAN as a soldier who was decorated for valor in South Viet Nam. The last page of the brochure contains quotations which by inference must be ascribed to DUNCAN. Some of the quotations are:

"In the long run, I don't think Viet Nam will be better off under Ho's brand of Communism, but it's not for me or my Government to decide. That decision is for the Vietnamese."

"Those people protesting the war in Viet Nam. . . are not unpatriotic . . . They are opposed to people, our own and others, dying for a lie, thereby corrupting the very word democracy."

A fourth source who has furnished reliable information in the past on April 12, 1966, stated that the Erie County Communist Party is lending full support to captioned group and desires, in particular, to do whatever can be done to insure the success of the aforementioned DUNCAN meeting. Communist Party members are on a number of committees working toward the success of the DUNCAN meeting.

War Critic Hits U.S. Idea of Negotiation

The Viet-Cong long have been ready to negotiate, but the United States' interpretation of "negotiate" is more like "surrender," a critic of the Vietnam war said here yesterday.

Donald Duncan, a former member of the Army's elite Green Beret unit, spoke yesterday at the University of Washington and last night at the Masonic Temple. His topic was: "The Whole Thing Is a Lie."

Duncan, 36, who was a master sergeant, won the Silver Star and was nominated for the Legion of Merit award while serving an 18-month tour of combat duty in Vietnam.

AFTER TEN MONTHS in Vietnam, Duncan said in an interview, he began to feel that the United States was not telling the whole story of its reasons for being in Southeast Asia.

Duncan said his change of attitude was "no bolt of lightning" but came on gradually after he was asked to compile a history of the American Special Forces' activities in Vietnam.

"It was an eye opener," he said of the various documents about United States activities. "The documents were at great variance with the official versions put out to the public."

Duncan said the war was described by military men as "something like 'It's a lousy war, but the only one we've got.'"

HE SUBSEQUENTLY refused a field commission to captain and resigned from the service in 1965, ending his military career.

Duncan, a native of Toronto and a naturalized American citizen, said he is not a pacifist.

The San Francisco, who serves as military-affairs adviser for Ramparts magazine, said he has been harassed very little because of his views.

COMMENTING ON other questions, he said:

The Agency for International Development is "probably the biggest flop in the world" because Vietnamese government corruption often prevents the well-intentioned aid from reaching the villages.

The Vietnamese have no faith in the Saigon government. Since early 1964, the last remnants of democracy have been removed.

The Vietnamese are not really Communist, nor are they pro-government. They are "stuck in the middle."

IF THE United States got out of the country, "there is no doubt there would be a Communist government."

But the fiercely independent Vietnamese could just as well become dissatisfied with such a regime and rebel against it later.

His visit was sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee, the Associated Students' Political Union and the Vietnam Committee.

COMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF COUNCIL
FOR CITIZEN RESPONSIBILITY ON
FOREIGN POLICY

On April 20, 1966, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past provided the following data:

On the evening of April 19, 1966, captioned group sponsored a meeting at Norton Union, of the State University of New York at Buffalo (SUNYAB). It is estimated that there were over 2,000 persons in attendance, the vast majority of whom were students at the University.

DONALD DUNCAN was introduced as a former "Green Beret," a designation for the Army's Special Forces in Viet Nam. It was also stated that he had been decorated by the United States Government and by the Government of South Viet Nam for combat in the latter-named country.

The dominant theme of DONALD DUNCAN's 30-minute talk was that the United States should pull out of South Viet Nam because by being there the United States is making a grave mistake. According to DUNCAN, the United States should present as a solution to the Vietnamese problem alternatives other than military. In answer to a question, DUNCAN admitted that he did not know of any other alternatives, but he urged that the quest for such alternatives be conducted, not by the present politicians in Washington, but by honest citizens. In answer to a question regarding the morale of the fighting men in South Viet Nam, he replied that when he left there the spirits of the troops were extremely high.

The source received the impression that DUNCAN spoke honestly and did not attempt to propagandize for the cause of the Left. Furthermore, DUNCAN did not give the impression that he was attempting to maliciously derogate his Government.

A member of captioned group arose to request the audience to sign a petition sponsored by the Council for Citizen Responsibility on Foreign Policy calling for an immediate cease-fire, a quick withdrawal of all foreign troops, and compliance with the terms of the Geneva Accords.

With regard to the Council for Citizen Responsibility on Foreign Policy, a second source who has furnished reliable information in the past described it in January, 1966, as a newly formed group in Buffalo, New York, which has as its purpose the protesting of United States participation in the war in Viet Nam. The initiating and dominating person in this new group is ARTHUR DAVID KAHN, a member of the faculty at SUNYAB. The core of people who first because associated with KAHN in this endeavor was made up of other SUNYAB faculty members. The group has since been expanded to encompass representatives from other walks of life, including labor, community leaders, clergymen, businessmen, and students.

Concerning ARTHUR DAVID KAHN, JOHN LAUTNER, an admitted former member of the Communist Party (CP) for over 20 years who was expelled from the CP in January, 1950, while serving as Chairman of the New York State CP Review Commission, identified ARTHUR DAVID KAHN as a CP member as of May, 1950.

The "Herald Tribune," a daily newspaper published in New York City, on September 30, 1951, in an article entitled "The Red Underground," by OGDEN R. REID, reported the following:

"Arthur David Kahn....a former State Department administrative assistant....who worked successively during World War II for the War Department, Office of Strategic Services, Office of War Information and Allied Military Government....has been lecturing across the country since February for the subversive American Peace Crusade."

The article also stated that KAHN, during his tour, referred frequently to his book, "Betrayal, Our Occupation of Germany," which was published in Poland and reprinted in November, 1950, in Brooklyn, New York.

The American Peace Crusade has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

In August, 1961, KAHN was observed by Special Agents of the FBI meeting with officials of the Albanian United Nations delegation in New York City.

On April 12, 1966, a third source who has furnished reliable information in the past stated that the Erie County CP has been lending full support to captioned group and desired, in particular, to do whatever it could to insure the success of this, the "DONALD DUNCAN meeting." CP members were on a number of committees of captioned group, working toward the success of this meeting.

RE: DONALD W. DUNCAN

The files of the Federal Bureau of Investigation indicate Duncan was born on March 18, 1930, in Toronto, Canada. He became a naturalized United States citizen on June 18, 1955. His father, Walter Cameron Cruickshank Duncan, is deceased and his mother, Norma Augusta Duncan, nee Brooker, is presently married to Henry W. Gerber and resides at 2701 San Marino Street, Los Angeles, California. Duncan has a high school education. Duncan has been twice married and divorced and is the father of two children who have been awarded to his custody.

Norma Augusta Gerber
Duncan served in the United States Army from December 28, 1954, to September 9, 1965, when he was honorably discharged. He attained the enlisted rank of Master Sergeant and served in Vietnam March 13, 1964, to September 5, 1965.

Since his return from Vietnam, Duncan has made numerous speeches before varied groups, many of which are anti-Vietnam war organizations, attacking United States policy and participation in the Vietnam war. He is currently the military editor of the magazine, "Ramparts," which is self-described as a "Catholic journal of independent opinion."

Joining VISTA

Ex-Green Beret Against Viet War

By KAY REIMLER
News Staff Writer

Hal Adams is a former Green Beret sergeant who does not believe in the war in Vietnam.

He and his wife Carol just completed three weeks of training at Johnson C. Smith University here, and they've gone to Fayetteville for their first assignment as VISTA (Volunteers In Service To America) workers.

They'll be working with the poor near Fort Bragg where Adams received his Special Forces training before being sent to Vietnam.

ADAMS' ANTI-WAR feelings—supported, he said, by much study and reading—began building after he returned to the U.S. from Vietnam.

"The war has changed to a great extent," he said. "I'm for the South Vietnamese having advisers, but I'm not for the Americanization of the war."

"The South Vietnamese government is not responsible to its people. In effect, we're supporting a government of the elite there, not the poor people."

"It's a fact—printed in the AMA Journal—that there are 10 civilian deaths there for every military death . . ."

Adams' opposition led to a television debate in May with Barry Sadler (author of "Ballad of the Green Berets") on the Les Crane Show.

"Sadler was for being in Vietnam for all the reasons the administration lists and also because he said it was a good place to test weapons and tactics for the ultimate war with China."

"I felt that was so absurd it didn't need any rebuttal."

Adams went on the Crane show because a friend of his, Don Duncan, military editor for "Ramparts Magazine," who had originally been asked to, declined "when Sadler said he'd rather go on the show with Ho Chi Minh." Duncan asked Adams to go instead.

Adams also helped write a story about the strength of the National Liberation Front, to be published in October's issue of the magazine "Majority of One."

ADAMS LOOKS neither the part of the peacenik, nor the Green Beret.

A youthful-looking 30, soft blue-gray eyes behind horn rimmed glasses, he wears his hair trimmed short around the neck. Yesterday he was dressed in a neat, thin striped shirt and seersucker slacks.

"Actually I don't think I killed anybody in Vietnam," Adams said. "I was a medic and I trained Vietnamese to hold sick call, take care of sick and injured Vietnamese and American soldiers until they could get to a hospital."

He also helped write a history of the special forces work in Vietnam.

Adams' return to Fayetteville will be for a $50 a month job working with the poor.

"It's ironic," Adams says, laughing. "I was trained (in the Army) in field sanitation and sent 9,000 miles to do something about water that was not fit to drink."

"And here's a situation where I'm going back to where I was trained, in an area where the water's polluted."

The Adams say they plan to do something about it. "Yea," Adams says, "We're going to try to secure the help of the Army."

in December of 1967 resided at 707 Adams Street, Albany, California, and holds U.S. Passport #C037125 issued in San Francisco. This identifying data was set forth in a letterhead memorandum classified "~~Confidential~~" dated 1/9/68, and furnished to the Bureau by Legat, London, letter captioned "DONALD W. DUNCAN, IS-Vietnam" of the same date.

It is being pointed out that DONALD W. DUNCAN is currently the Military Editor of Ramparts Magazine, an ex-Green Beret member, who quit the special services in Vietnam to take up his position with Ramparts, and one who has been extremely critical of the U.S. involvement in Vietnam and in "stop the draft" actions at the University of California campus in Berkeley, California. It is further pointed out that by letter dated January 17, 1966, the Bureau instructed that no further investigation in the Security Matter - Miscellaneous case was desired. In view of these instructions and since it appeared that the DONALD V. DUNCAN reflected in reWFO letter is identical to DONALD W. DUNCAN, Subject of Bufile [REDACTED] and San Francisco file 100-56090, no further action is being taken in this matter.

DONALD WALTER DUNCAN

The files of the Passport Office, United States Department of State (USDS), reviewed by a representative of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on January 22, 1969, disclosed that Donald Walter Duncan was issued Passport Number G 037125 on January 4, 1966, at San Francisco, California, for a two-week business trip to "Okinawa, Ryukas". In his application, dated January 3, 1966, at San Francisco, he indicated that he planned to leave from San Francisco in January, 1966, via air. This passport was valid for three years' travel to all countries except Albania, Cuba, and those portions of China, Korea and Vietnam under communist control. By operation of law, effective August 26, 1968, the validity of this passport was extended to January 3, 1971.

He was born on March 18, 1930, at Toronto, Ontario, Canada, and immigrated to the United States in March, 1954. He had resided, since that time, at Rochester, New York; Killeen, Texas; El Paso, Texas; Fayetteville, North Carolina; and at Berkeley, California. He was naturalized on June 18, 1955, before the District Court, Geary County, Junction City, Kansas, and was issued Certificate of Naturalization Number 7256773. The file shows that this certificate was seen by the passport authorities. His permanent residence was listed as 1165 Sutter Street, Berkeley, California. His parents were shown as Walter Cameron Duncan, born at Toronto, Canada, on August 26, 1894, and Norma Augusta Brooker, also born at Toronto, Canada, on July 6, 1907. He was last married on September 12, 1965, to [redacted]

[redacted] who was born at Douglas, Wyoming, in [redacted] He stated that he had been previously married, on [redacted] who was born at [redacted]

[redacted] This marriage had been terminated by divorce in [redacted] He requested that his wife, at the above address, be notified in the event of death or accident.

The file also disclosed that Duncan, on October 16, 1967, requested that his passport be validated for travel to North Vietnam with possible transit through Peking, China. The file contained a letter from Warren Hinckle, President and Editor of Ramparts magazine, dated October 13, 1967, which confirmed Duncan's assignment by the magazine to Hanoi, possibly via Peking. Duncan was advised by letter from the Passport Office, dated November 14, 1967, that his request for validation of his passport for travel to North Vietnam and Communist China had been approved. He was instructed to present his passport to the Passport Agency, at San Francisco, for the necessary validation. The file shows that this action was completed on November 17, 1967. It was also noted that there was no time limit set for this travel.

A representative of the Domestic Operations Division, Passport Office, advised on January 22, 1969, that there was no record of validation of the above passport for travel to and in Cuba.

The file contained the following description:

DONALD W. DUNCAN

A source advised on December 27, 1968, that Donald Duncan is planning to go to Cuba by way of Mexico about the middle of January, 1969. The purpose of the trip is to make a motion picture of Cuba. The source was unable to further verify this information.

A confidential source abroad advised on December 20, 1967, that Duncan had testified before the Second International War Crimes Tribunal which was held in Copenhagen, Denmark, from November 21, 1967 - December 1, 1967. This source further stated that DONALD W. DUNCAN, born February 18, 1930, in Toronto, Canada, then resided in Albany, California, and held United States Passport G 037 125.

Duncan is publicly known as a former master sergeant in the United States Army who served as a Green Beret and quit the Special Services to become military editor of "Ramparts" magazine, which position he continues to fill.

From November, 1965, to the present Duncan has spoken at and participated in numerous meetings and demonstrations against United States participation in the war in Vietnam and against the draft.

On January 2, 1969, records of the Passport Office, United States Department of State, San Francisco, contained no information concerning a current passport for Duncan.

On January 2, 1969, the telephone operator at "Ramparts" magazine, 495 Beach Street, San Francisco, advised Donald Duncan resides at 3286 Kempton Avenue, Oakland, California.

ReBu 0-1 dated 6/13/69 regarding date letter will be submitted.

Although the Bureau informed by letter dated 1/17/66 that no further investigation was to be conducted concerning DUNCAN, it appeared that San Francisco should submit a letterhead memorandum disclosing the information that he intended to travel to Cuba. This was done in San Francisco airtel and LHM dated 1/2/69. Subsequently, Washington Field Office submitted LHM containing information from Passport Agency files on 1/28/69.

On 2/18/69, SAC letter 69-13 removed cases such as this from the requirements for submission of an LHM relating to foreign travel.

San Francisco has received no information from its sources or from the Bureau's sources abroad that DUNCAN actually traveled to Cuba. Likewise, there is no positive information that he did not travel to Cuba.

However, because of provisions of SAC letter 69-13 and as DUNCAN was not the subject of an active investigation, this case was closed administratively on 2/27/69.

UACB, San Francisco will not conduct investigation in an effort to ascertain DUNCAN's present location and travel status and this case will remain closed.

BLACK PANTHER PARTY, aka
Black Panther Party for Self Defense

According to its official newspaper, the Black Panther Party (BPP) was started during December, 1966, in Oakland, California, to organize black people so they can take control of the life, politics, and the destiny of the black community. It was organized by Bobby George Seale, BPP Chairman, and Huey P. Newton, BPP Minister of Defense. Newton is presently serving a sentence of 2 to 15 years on a conviction of manslaughter in connection with the killing of an Oakland police officer.

The official newspaper, "The Black Panther," which further describes itself as the "Black Community News Service," states that the BPP advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics in its revolutionary program to end oppression of the black people. Residents of the black community are urged to arm themselves against the police who are consistently referred to in the publication as "pigs" who should be killed.

"The Black Panther" issue of September 7, 1968, contains an editorial by BPP Minister of Education, George Mason Murray, which ends with the following:

"Black men. Black people, colored persons of America, revolt everywhere! Arm yourselves. The only culture worth keeping is a revolutionary culture. Change. Freedom everywhere. Dynamite! Black Power. Use the gun. Kill the pigs everywhere."

Included in the introduction to an article appearing in the October 5, 1968, edition of "The Black Panther" is the statement, "...we will not dissent from American Government. We will overthrow it."

Issues of "The Black Panther" regularly contain quotations from the writings of Chairman MAO Tse-tung of the People's Republic of China and feature MAO's statement that "political power grows out of the barrel of a gun."

The national headquarters of the BPP is located at 3106 Shattuck Avenue, Berkeley, California. Branches have been established at various locations throughout the United States.

LA T-1 (6/17/69)

DONALD DUNCAN participated in a protest picket line held in front of the Federal Building, Los Angeles, California, on June 17, 1969. This picket line protested the appearance of the Subversive Activities Control Board (SACB) in the Los Angeles, California, area where SACB hearings were being held.

PEACE ACTION COUNCIL (SUPRA)

LA T-1 (10/10/69)
LA T-16 (10/1/69)

~~On September 29, 1969,~~ DUNCAN attended a meeting of the PAC held on September 30, 1969, at 2936 West Eighth Street, Los Angeles, California. The purpose of this meeting was to discuss proposed peace demonstrations on November 15, 1969, at Washington, D.C., and San Francisco, California. DUNCAN spoke and stated he planned to bring several members of the U. S. Marine Corps from Camp Pendleton, California, to the November 15, 1969, anti-war demonstration at San Francisco, California.

In addition to the above PAC meeting, DUNCAN was observed by Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation at a PAC sponsored anti-Vietnam war demonstration held at the Summer White House, San Clemente, California, on August 17, 1969. DUNCAN, introduced as a former Green Beret in the U. S. Army, spoke about the injustice of the U. S. policy in Vietnam, and urged immediate withdrawal of U. S. troops from Vietnam.

MISCELLANEOUS

LA T-1 (10/8/69)
LA T-16 (10/1/69)

On September 24, 1969, DUNCAN attended a meeting of the Coalition Against Repression, an ad hoc committee formed for the purpose of protesting adoption of New Park Regulations by the Los Angeles Board of Recreation and Park Commissioners. This meeting was held at the Los Angeles Breakfast Club, 3201 Riverside Drive, Los Angeles.

LA T-19 (11/7/69)

Informant advised that DUNCAN was scheduled to arrange a trip to Los Angeles, California, from Camp Pendleton (USMC) for 40 members of the USMC. These members of the USMC would be in uniform and wear black arm bands, this in protest to the war in Vietnam. It was scheduled for them to also carry placards and provide a "send-off" for those leaving the Los Angeles area for San Francisco, California, where they would participate in a PAC (supra) demonstration against the war in Vietnam.

NEWS ARTICLES REGARDING DONALD DUNCAN

The "Los Angeles Herald-Examiner" issue of February 27, 1966 contained the following article regarding DUNCAN's appearance at a Los Angeles peace demonstration:

Boos, Coos
At 'Tower Of Protest'

Six white doves — symbolizing peace in Viet Nam — were released yesterday to dedicate the controversial "Artists' Tower of Protest Against the War in Viet Nam."

But the doves were preceded by the hawks at the site of the structure at the corner of Sunset and La Cienega Boulevards.

Sgt. R. Fleming of the West Hollywood sheriff's office said a fight at the tower before the ceremony was broken up by deputies.

During the formal dedication, there were mixed boos and cheers as former Army sergeant Donald Duncan spoke of his opposition to the war.

There was another minor disturbance by two sailors and a Marine during the ceremony, but no arrests were made.

"I'm not here to speak against our boys in Viet Nam — I am here to speak against us being in Viet Nam," Duncan told a gathering of some 500 persons.

The University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) "Daily Bruin", issue of February 28, 1966 contains the following article regarding DUNCAN:

By Joel E. Boxer
DB Editor-in-Chief

He has the clean cut look of an FBI agent.

He lights his cigarettes with a Zippo lighter which has an "Airborn" insignia plated on.

As he looked up at the Artists' Protest Tower at La Cienega and Sunset this weekend, Master Sergeant Donald Duncan softly said, "It's about time we built towers to promote peace, not glorify war."

Duncan, who now is a staff writer for the liberal leaning Ramparts Magazine, speaks at noon today in the Student Union Grand Ballroom under the auspices of the University Committee on Viet Nam, the group which sponsored last semester's teach-in. New hero for left

One year ago Duncan was as unknown as a human being could be—he was on active combat duty with the U.S. Army Special Forces in Viet Nam. Today, after writing an article for Ramparts entitled, "Memoirs of a Special Forces Hero—'The Whole Thing Was a Lie,'" he is the new hero of the left, the spokesman for the doves.

According to Ramparts, "Master Sergeant Donald

Duncan left the United States Army in September of 1965 after 10 years of service, including six years in Special Forces and 18 months on active combat duty in Viet Nam.

"While in Viet Nam he received the South Vietnamese Silver Star, the Combat Infantry Badge, the Bronze Star and the United States Army Air Medal. He was nominated for the American Silver Star and was the first enlisted man in Viet Nam to be nominated for the Legion of Merit. Both nominations are still pending.

Many missions behind enemy lines

"He participated in many missions behind enemy lines in War Zone D, Vung Tao and the An Khe Valley. Last March he turned down the offer of a field commission to the rank of captain. Instead he left Viet Nam on September 5, 1965 and received his honorable discharge four days later."

Duncan claims the Special Forces have nothing but contempt for the Vietnamese people. He told a crowd of 1000 at the dedication of the Protest Tower; "As far as the Special Forces are concerned, the Vietnamese people are like their flag. Those that aren't yellow are red. It's not a good war, my fellow soldiers told me, but it's the only war we've got."

In his Ramparts article, Duncan argues that (1) "We weren't preserving freedom in South Viet Nam. There was no freedom to preserve," and (2), "It's not democracy we brought to Viet Nam—it's anti-communism."

Finally found some truths

"It had taken a long time and a mountain of evidence," Duncan writes, "but I had finally found some truths. The world is not just good guys and bad guys. Anti-communism is a lousy substitute for democracy.

I know now that there are many types of communism but there are none that appeal to me. In the long run, I don't think Viet Nam will be better off under Ho's brand of communism. But it's not for me or my government to decide. That decision is for the Vietnamese. I also know that we have allowed the creation of a military monster that will lie to our elected officials; and that both of them will lie to the American people."

The March 1, 1966, issue of the "Los Angeles Times", a newspaper published daily in Los Angeles, California, contained an article reporting that Donald Duncan, military editor of "Ramparts" magazine and a former Army master sergeant discharged after ten years in the Army and eighteen months in Vietnam, had addressed 2,000 students at the University of California at Los Angeles (UCLA) on February 28, 1966. The article reported that Duncan's address was sponsored by the "University Committee on Vietnam, a faculty group which is encouraging debate on the administration's Vietnam policy".

The article reported Duncan's address, in part, as follows:

"He charged that South Vietnamese civilians are loyal to the National Liberation Front (NLF), not Saigon, and deliver both supplies and information to the enemy forces.

"He called village chieftans 'the most corrupt individuals in the world' in their misuse of aid intended for the South Vietnamese war effort.

"We often wondered why the Viet Cong did not attack certain hamlets,' Duncan said. 'It was because they would have destroyed their greatest source of supply.'

"Duncan said he was engaged in clandestine field work in Vietnam in a staff position normally held by a major. . ."

". . . Duncan said he arrived in Vietnam with the 'idealistic reasoning that we were there to preserve freedom,' but was soon disillusioned by what he saw.

"He said South Vietnamese troops abused not only Viet Cong prisoners, but civilians as well, exploiting them with terror tactics. . . ."

The UCLA student newspaper, "Daily Bruin" dated March 1, 1966, also reported Duncan's speech, in part, as follows:

"Communism isn't the worst thing that could happen to the country (Viet Nam) Don Duncan proposed, 'Isn't the annihilation of Vietnamese people far worse?'"

"I don't think that anyone ever doubted that if we spent millions of dollars and kept sending people in there that we could wipe out Viet Nam,' the former master sergeant who received numerous decorations in 18 months of action in Viet Nam, said. . . ."

"A specialist mainly in operations and intelligence, Duncan went to Viet Nam as a member of the Special Forces, green beret and all, with 'the mission of helping establish regimes - no matter how they were set up.'"

"Describing his relations with the South Vietnamese forces, Duncan described Project Delta which was an infiltration into Laos by U. S. advised Vietnamese troops.

"The project, Duncan added, did prove that we could fight a guerrilla war, using 'essentially the same tactics as the NLF.'"

"If we're not winning then what's left,' queried Duncan, responding that who is loyal to who? is a very basic question in relying on the support of the people. . . ."

". . . Contending that it is not so much 'support for the NLF but disdain for the Americans,' Duncan said that 'most of the people don't know any more about communism than Americans. They tend to associate the NLF with a strong feeling of nationalism.'"

"Commenting on the hearings of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and on General Maxwell Taylor, Duncan said, 'it seems that General Taylor is more concerned with the morale of 200,000 troops than the morality of two million Americans. I think the best support we can give our boys in Viet Nam is to bring them home.'"

The University of Southern California, Los Angeles, student newspaper, "Daily Trojan" dated March 2, 1966, contained a review of the magazine article captioned "The Whole Thing Was A Lie" authored by Donald Duncan which appeared in the February, 1966, issue of "Ramparts" magazine.

The UCLA "Daily Bruin" issue of March 1, 1966, page 1, contains the following article concerning DUNCAN:

Viet veteran Duncan hurls charges at U.S. role in Asia

By Perry Van Hook
DB Staff Writer

Communism isn't the worst thing that could happen to the country (Viet Nam) Don Duncan proposed, "Isn't the annihilation of the Vietnamese people far worse?"

"I don't think that anyone ever doubted that if we spent millions of dollars and kept sending people in there that we could wipe out Viet Nam," the former master sergeant who received numerous decorations in 18 months of action in Viet Nam, said.

"By getting out we are going to gain more than we're going to lose. Knowing what power we have and that we can use it and still admitting that we made a mistake is the most prestigious thing we can do," Duncan said.

Sponsored by the University Committee on Viet Nam, Duncan related through his experiences in South Viet Nam why he was opposed to the war.

Decorated specialist

Duncan, who received the Vietnamese Silver Star, the American Silver Star, and became the first enlisted man nominated for the Legion of Merit award, addressed some 2300 students who came to listen to his criticism of the war.

A specialist mainly in operations and intelligence, Duncan went to Viet Nam as a member of the Special Forces, green beret and all, with "the mission of helping established regimes—no matter how they were set up."

Duncan then turned for a while to the reports of the war, explaining that as reports are sent up the ladder they are rewritten, not using lies, but stressing the better face of the situation.

"This continues to happen which is why in part we've always had the optimism that we were always doing so well. We are further away from a solution in Viet Nam today than we were in 1954."

Project Delta

Describing his relations with the South Vietnamese forces, Duncan described Project Delta which was an infiltration into Laos by U.S.-advised Vietnamese troops.

The project, Duncan added, did prove that we could fight a guerrilla war, using "essentially the same tactics as the NLF."

"If we're not winning then what's left," queried Duncan, responding that who is loyal to who? is a very basic question in relying on the support of the people.

Before the ink was dry on the Geneva Accords, we had put millions of dollars into the country and advisors in there, Duncan asserted. "What are we supposed to expect the Vietnamese to think?"

Contending that it is not so much "support for the NLF but disdain for the Americans," Duncan said that "most of the people don't know any more about communism than Americans. They tend to associate the NLF with a strong feeling of nationalism."

"We're not going to accomplish anything if people like Humphrey are going to come back calling the NLF leaders 'stooges and an illegitimate band of minstrels'."

Commenting on the hearings of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee and on General Maxwell Taylor, Duncan said, "It seems that General Taylor is more concerned with the morale of 200,000 troops than the morality of two million Americans. I think the best support we can give our boys in Viet Nam is to bring them home."

The "Los Angeles Times", Los Angeles, California, issue of March 1, 1966 contains the following article concerning DUNCAN:

S. Vietnam Civilians Betray U.S. Troops, Ex-GI Declares

BY PHILIP FRADKIN

Times Staff Writer

American troops in South Vietnam are being betrayed to the Viet Cong by the civilian population, a former Army master sergeant told 2,000 UCLA students Monday.

Donald Duncan, 35, honorably discharged after 10 years in the Army and 18 months in Vietnam, also said he believes American military forces should be withdrawn from the country.

He charged that South Vietnamese civilians are loyal to the National Liberation Front (NLF), not Saigon, and deliver both supplies and information to the enemy forces.

He called village chieftains "the most corrupt individuals in the world" in their misuse of aid intended for the South Vietnamese war effort.

"We often wondered why the Viet Cong did not attack certain hamlets," Duncan said. "It was because they would have destroyed their greatest source of supply."

Duncan said he was engaged in clandestine field work in Vietnam in a staff position normally held by a major.

He served with the American Special Forces, he said, and last July was assigned to brief Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara on some of that unit's work.

Duncan said he arrived in Vietnam with the "idealistic reasoning that we were there to preserve freedom," but was soon disillusioned by what he saw.

He said South Vietnamese troops abused not only Viet Cong prisoners, but civilians as well, exploiting them with terror tactics.

He said it was the unofficial American military policy to put the best face on every report, "from the field level on up to the top."

The result was to perpetuate the optimistic idea that the war could be won "if only we have more men and money," he declared. "But still we are no nearer a solution."

American bombing accomplishes little but the terrorizing of civilians, Duncan said. He told the students he was in an area that was bombed for 28 hours, and "I know terror."

Duncan's speech was sponsored by the University Committee on Vietnam, a faculty group which is encouraging debate on the administration's Vietnam policy.

Duncan holds the U.S. Bronze Star and Army Air Medal and the South Vietnamese Silver Star for his service in Vietnam, and has been recommended for the Silver Star and Legion of Merit.

He is now military editor of Ramparts Magazine.

The University of Southern California "Daily Trojan", Los Angeles, California, issue of March 2, 1966 contains the following article regarding DUNCAN:

U.S. Special Forces Hero Calls Vietnam War A Lie

An American hero of the war in Vietnam, the first enlisted man nominated for the Legion of Merit and the soldier selected last July to brief Secretary of Defense McNamara on the operations of our Special Forces, charges our men are dying for "a lie" in an article in the February issue of Ramparts.

Master Sergeant Donald Duncan, who turned down a commission and captaincy and left the army after 10 years of service, tells in an article "The Whole Thing Was A Lie" of his evolution from "militant anti-communist" to the discovery that "it's not democracy we brought to Vietnam — it's anti-communism."

"It had taken a long time and a mountain of evidence but I had finally found some truths," Duncan, writes. "The world is not just good guys and bad guys. Anti-communism is a lousy substitute for democracy. I know now that there are many types of communism but there are none that appeal to me. In the long run, I don't think Vietnam will be better off under Ho's brand of communism. But it's not for me or my government to decide. That decision is for the Vietnamese."

Far from criticizing American anti-war demonstrators, Duncan says, "I think they should be commended . . . They are opposed to people, our own and others, dying for a lie, thereby corrupting the very word democracy."

Some of the highlights of Duncan's revelations include:

American Special Forces are taught techniques of torture.

("When we asked directly if we were being told to use these methods the answer was, 'We can't tell you that. The Mothers of America wouldn't approve.' This sarcastic hypocrisy was greeted with laughs.") "I was later to witness first hand the practice of turning prisoners over to ARVN (Army of the Republic of Vietnam) for 'interrogation' and the atrocities which ensued."

Special Operations Group, composed of CIA, Air Force, Navy, Army and Special Forces personnel, is operating inside of North Vietnam.

A good percentage of Special Forces men were Lodge Act people — men who came out of the Iron Curtain countries. Their anti-communism bordered on fanaticism. When "things" did not happen fast enough to satisfy them, many resigned and showed up later in Africa or Latin America "in the employ of others or as independent agents for the CIA."

Special Forces trainees were told, about prisoners: "You don't have to kill them yourself — let your indigenous counterpart do that."

Racial discrimination was rampant in the Special Forces, from the former Latvian who was not interested in Vietnam ("I wouldn't blend. There are not many blue-eyed gooks"), to the captain who instructed Duncan: "Don't send me any niggers. Be careful, however, not to give the impression that we are prejudiced in Special Forces . . ." In the larger Vietnam towns, "Negroes do not go into white bars except at the risk of being ejected."

Vietnamese soldiers were sent into Laos on a secret mission, without the Americans who had trained them and trained with them, because "it was an election year and it would cause great embarrassment if Americans were captured in Laos." ("This," says Duncan, "was the one thing, if I had to single one out, that made me really start questioning our role in Vietnam.")

This mission into Laos, from which only 6 out of 40 men returned, confirmed "that the Viet Cong were getting the bulk of their weapons from ARVN and by sea. It was also one more piece of evidence that the Viet Cong were primarily South Vietnamese, not imported troops from the North. One more thing was added to my growing lists of doubts of the 'official' stories

"When teaching Special Forces how to set up guerrilla warfare in an enemy country, killing unpopular officials is pointed out as one method of gaining friends among the populace. It is recommended that special assassination teams be set up for this purpose. I know of a couple of cases where it was suggested by Special Forces officers that Viet Cong prisoners be killed.

In conclusion the much-decorated Duncan says that he has no criticism of young American anti-war demonstrators: "On the contrary. I am relieved. I think they should be commended . . . They are opposed to people, our own and others, dying for a lie, thereby corrupting the very word democracy."

The "Seattle Times", Seattle, California issue of January 20, 1967 contains the following article regarding DUNCAN:

War Critic Hits U.S. Idea of Negotiation

The Viet-Cong long have been ready to negotiate, but the United States' interpretation of "negotiate" is more like "surrender," a critic of the Vietnam war said here yesterday.

Donald Duncan, a former member of the Army's elite Green Beret unit, spoke yesterday at the University of Washington and last night at the Masonic Temple. His topic was: "The Whole Thing Is a Lie."

Duncan, 36, who was a master sergeant, won the Silver Star and was nominated for the Legion of Merit award while serving an 18-month tour of combat duty in Vietnam.

AFTER TEN MONTHS in Vietnam, Duncan said in an interview, he began to feel that the United States was not telling the whole story of its reasons for being in Southeast Asia.

Duncan said his change of attitude was "no bolt of lightning" but came on gradually after he was asked to compile a history of the American Special Forces' activities in Vietnam.

"It was an eye opener," he said of the various documents about United States activities. "The documents were at great variance with the official versions put out to the public."

DONALD DUNCAN

Duncan said the war was described by military men as "something like 'It's a lousy war, but the only one we've got.'"

HE SUBSEQUENTLY refused a field commission to captain and resigned from the service in 1965, ending a ten-year military career.

Duncan, a native of Toronto and a naturalized American citizen, said he is not a pacifist.

The San Franciscan, who serves as military-affairs adviser for Ramparts magazine, said he has been harassed very little because of his views.

COMMENTING ON other questions, he said:

The Agency for International Development is "probably the biggest flop in the world" because Vietnamese-government corruption often prevents the well-intentioned aid from reaching the villages.

The Vietnamese have no faith in the Saigon government. Since early 1964, the last remnants of democracy have been removed.

The Vietnamese are not really Communistic, nor are they pro-government. They are "stuck in the middle."

IF THE United States got out of the country, "there is no doubt there would be a Communist government."

But the fiercely independent Vietnamese could just as well become dissatisfied with such a regime and rebel against it later.

His visit was sponsored by the American Friends Service Committee, the Associated Students' Political Union and the Vietnam Committee.

The "Seattle Post-Intelligencer", Seattle, Washington, issue of January 20, 1967 contains the following article concerning DUNCAN:

War Critic Deplores 'Cynical' Attitude

BY JACK JARVIS

The only thing that will change the administration's attitude toward the war in Vietnam is a major economic crisis at home, a critic of the war said in Seattle Thursday.

He is Don Duncan, veteran of 10 years in the Army, six of those years in the Special Forces and 18 months in Vietnam.

DUNCAN LEFT the Army in March, 1965, and since his return has consistently spoken out against U.S. involvement in Vietnam.

The former master sergeant scored the administration's attitude as being "hypocritical and cynical." We're there, he said, because we're mainly interested in world markets for our goods.

"Whether we get out of Vietnam tomorrow really doesn't matter," he said. "We'll be in some place else. There can be other Vietnams. We aid governments, not people."

DUNCAN SAID he is not a pacifist.

"I'd love to be a pacifist. It's a lovely philosophy," he said. "But I just don't have the temperament."

His was no overnight conversion, he said. It came gradually. He'd been there ("and a pretty good soldier, too") for 10 months before he began to have doubts.

"We saw the remnants of democracy being lost," he said. "The people have no faith in the Saigon regime because they know how corrupt it is. And by supporting the government we couldn't have picked a better way to promote communism."

VIETNAM might go communist if the United States withdraws, Duncan said, but its communism will be Vietnamese in character, not the communism of China or Russia.

Duncan said he thinks that the Viet Cong have been ready for a long time to make a deal — but not surrender.

"But when we say negotiate, we really mean surrender," he said.

HE HELD a press conference at the American Friends Service Committee center, then spoke to University of Washington students in Smith Hall under auspices of the Political Union and Vietnam Committee. In the evening he spoke at the Masonic Temple.

[REDACTED]

"The Militant," official publication of the Socialist Workers Party (supra), issues of August 23, 1968, page 3, and July 11, 1969, page 9, contain articles indicating that on August 10, 1969, DUNCAN participated in a "GI Teach-In" held at Berkeley, California, and on June 21, 1969, he participated in a meeting which was held for the purpose of evaluating a recently held demonstration and rally against the SACB, holding hearings in the Los Angeles area.

DUNCAN has been mentioned frequently in news articles which have appeared in the "People's World" (PW), west coast communist newspaper. The PW issue of June 21, 1969, contains an article stating that DUNCAN participated in a mock trial of the U. S. Government, held during the recess of hearings being held in Los Angeles, California, by the SACB. The September 27, 1969, issue of the PW contains an article indicating that DUNCAN participated in a conference held at Los Angeles on September 23, 1969, ridiculing the proposal of a conscription lottery by President RICHARD NIXON. This conference was held at the Valley Peace Center (VPC), 7105 Hayvenhurst Avenue, Van Nuys, California.

LA T-1 (December 9, 1969) advised that the VPC is the coordinating body for all peace activist groups in the San Fernando Valley area of Los Angeles, California.

The "Los Angeles Times" issue of September 24, 1969, Part II, page 8, contains an article regarding this conference held September 23, 1969, at the VPC, Van Nuys, California, and states that DUNCAN called for the removal of all troops from Vietnam and said that the lottery system of drafting into the services was discrimination against that element of society least able to protect themselves. He called for the mobilization of hundreds of thousands to pressure the NIXON Administration to end the war in Vietnam and end the conscription program.

APPENDIXDISCUSSION UNLIMITED, INC.

Records of the Division of Corporations, California State of Department of Investments, Los Angeles, California, indicate that Discussion Unlimited filed its Articles of Incorporation as a non-profit corporation, with the Secretary of State, Sacramento, California, on or about June 4, 1963, noting its principal site of office as Los Angeles County, California. The aims and purposes of the organization, as listed in the Articles of Incorporation, are "...to promote full and open discussion on our society and problems".

A source advised on May 8, 1963, that Discussion Unlimited, Inc. actually was originated in Los Angeles, California, in May 1962, and was composed largely of a number of present and former Communist Party members who assist in staging panel forums and in promoting such events. Original coordinator of the group was BERNARD LUSHER, who in 1961 was educational director of the Southern California District Communist Party.

This source was recontacted on April 9, 1965, and indicated that the basic concept of Discussion Unlimited, Inc. has not changed. It continues to present "left ideas" to at least partially non-committed audiences. It proposes to develop special activities around various issues on an irregular basis. It is not a membership organization, and does not hold regular meetings as such, but rather is strictly a forum-type organization.

On May 5, 1969, another source reported that Discussion Unlimited, Inc. continues to operate as a forum-type organization.

APPENDIXEMERGENCY COUNCIL ON THE CRISIS
IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY (ECCAFP)

In June, 1965, a source advised that PAUL and MARJORIE ALBERT formed a new organization called Emergency Council on the Crisis in American Foreign Policy (ECCAFP) in June, 1965.

A second source advised in October, 1965, that PAUL ALBERT and wife, MARJORIE, former residents of Ohio, moved to California in the 1950's. Prior to moving to California, both of these individuals had been members of the Communist Party (CP) in Ohio where they were acquainted with and worked with GUS HALL, then head of the CP, Ohio District, and now General Secretary of the CP, USA. In recent months, GUS HALL has renewed his acquaintanceship with the ALBERTs in California, and has met personally with both of them. In his contacts with the ALBERTs, particularly with PAUL, it was obvious that HALL dealt with these individuals as party members and as persons considered highly trusted by him.

According to the first source, MARJORIE ALBERT stated that the specific aim of ECCAFP is to effectively pursue political action "as everything we do will involve trying to move some Congressman or Senator or the President". According to this source, she further stated, "we are taking the approach that the military now dominate our foreign policy and this is the cause of our current woes. We are urging a return to open discussions, congressional debates, a different kind of advisors, etc." ECCAFP supports all organizations that are opposed to war in Vietnam.

On May 11, 1966, a third source advised that ECCAFP supports those candidates for election in the local, state, and national levels who advocate United States withdrawal from Vietnam. ECCAFP has sponsored teach-ins and forums which are opposed to the United States foreign policy in Vietnam.

APPENDIX CONTINUED

APPENDIX CONTINUEDEMERGENCY COUNCIL ON THE CRISIS
IN AMERICAN FOREIGN POLICY (ECCAFP)

On June 2nd, 1966, the third source advised that MARJORIE ALBERT had resigned her position as Executive Secretary of the ECCAFP. On October 14, 1966, this source advised that the ECCAFP was virtually defunct.

On May 27, 1968, the third source and a fourth source, respectively, advised that the ECCAFP, which then consisted of the San Gabriel Valley ECCAFP and its sub-councils, including the East San Gabriel Valley ECCAFP, the West San Gabriel Valley ECCAFP, the Pasadena ECCAFP, and the East Los Angeles Peace Committee, were, as of January, 1968, in existence. According to these sources, as of January, 1968, the ECCAFP was under the complete control of the Peace Action Council (PAC) and, for all practical purposes, could be considered a part of the PAC.

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR DEFENSE OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS,
formerly known as Los Angeles Committee for
Protection of Foreign Born (LACDBR)

A source advised in May, 1968, that the LACDBR has expanded its former scope of interest relating to the foreign born, and has become a militant general defense organization allegedly seeking to safeguard the rights of all individuals, including the foreign born, as well as those seeking to avoid military service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

The LACDBR is a non-membership organization which is represented by an Administrative Board of about 125 individuals from loosely organized area committees interested in the work of the LACDBR. These board members are invited by ROSE CHERNIN, Executive Director of the LACDBR, who is the guiding, dominant, and motivating force behind the LACDBR. Its headquarters are maintained at 326 West Third Street, Los Angeles, California.

Another source advised in May, 1968, that ROSE CHERNIN is currently Organizational Secretary of the Moranda Smith Section of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP).

LOS ANGELES LOCAL - SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY (LAL-SWP)

On May 10, 1968, a confidential source advised that the LAL-SWP has been in existence since the 1930's and continues to exist. The source further advised that the LAL-SWP is a local branch of the National SWP with aims and purposes identical to those of the National SWP.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

APPENDIX

APPENDIXPEACE ACTION COUNCIL

The "People's World", a weekly west coast communist newspaper, in its issue of November 5, 1966, in an article on Page 3, describes the Peace Action Council (PAC) as "a co-ordinating agency for peace activists" which conducts emergency mobilizations and demonstrative actions against the war in Vietnam.

On July 22, 1966, a source reported that the PAC, which has also been known as the Greater Los Angeles Peace Action Council (GLAPAC), was formed during the early summer of 1966 for the express purpose of protesting the war in Vietnam during the National Governors Conference held in Los Angeles, California from July 4 to July 8, 1966. Following the conclusion of that conference, the PAC members decided to continue as a coordinating group to sponsor similar protest demonstrations at later dates.

This source was recontacted on August 1, 1969, and reported that the PAC continues to operate under the same basic concept, noting that in 1968 and 1969, PAC had sponsored demonstrations againsts Presidents JOHNSON and NIXON, protesting the policies of their respective administrations governing American military commitments in Vietnam. PAC presently maintains its headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90004, telephone 462-8188.

WOMEN STRIKE FOR PEACE,
Also Known As
Women's International Strike for Peace

A source advised on May 12, 1969, that the Women Strike for Peace (WSP) in the Southern California area began its operations in the late fall of 1961, as an affiliate of the national organization formed that year in Washington, D.C.

WSP is a peace oriented women's organization which is opposed to the present United States foreign policy in Vietnam. It has also sought legislation which would bring about the abolition of the House Committee on Un-American Activities. In addition to conducting numerous letter writing campaigns on subjects which concern current United States civil rights and foreign policy problems, WSP locally has become quite active in draft counseling. This counseling, in the form of providing information concerning alternatives to the draft, has taken place at an increasingly consistent pace. WSP feels that these forms of opposing United States intervention in Vietnam have been quite effective and more effective than frequent participation in demonstrations protesting the war in Vietnam.

The same source stated that WSP is a non-membership organization and has no officers. The organization is open to women of all political persuasions who are interested in world peace. No effort is made to exclude from its activities members of, or persons sympathetic to, the Communist Party and related groups.

The guiding force behind the Southern California WSP is MARY CLARKE. A second source advised in July 1955, that CLARKE was dropped from the Western Division, Los Angeles County Communist Party (LACCP) in the spring of 1955, for personal reasons and not because of any political differences with the LACCP.

The first source advised that Southern California WSP maintains its office at 5899 West Pico Boulevard, Los Angeles.

LA T-2 (11/13/69,
12/3/69, 12/4/69)

Informant advised that on several occasions inquiries were made at the BPP headquarters as to how DONALD DUNCAN could be contacted. This source also said that a rally in which the BPP was interested was being handled by DUNCAN.

CITIZENS MOBILIZATION COMMITTEE (CMC)

The CMC, also known as the San Diego CMC, is self-described in a leaflet dated 11/12/69, as a coalition of local anti-war forces composed of individuals in contact with local civic, religious, peace, college, political, high school, military and other interested groups.

On December 14, 1969, Special Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation observed DONALD DUNCAN at a CMC sponsored parade and peace rally held at Oceanside, California. DUNCAN was master of ceremonies and spoke of alleged atrocities by United States troops at My Lai, Vietnam, and urged support of the Movement for a Democratic Military (MDM), which coordinated this rally.

Attitude Check (12/1/69)
Los Angeles Times (12/10/69)

On the weekend of November 29 to 30, 1969, the MDM was organized at San Diego, California. It was formed from two underground military groups; the "Green Machine", an organization with headquarters at Vista, California--composed of U.S. Marine enlisted men at Camp Pendleton, California, and "Duck Power", with headquarters at San Diego, California--composed of U.S. Navy enlisted men at the Naval Base, San Diego, California.

LA T-3 has advised that the "Green Machine" and "Duck Power" are protest groups composed of Marine and Navy enlisted men respectively, who are protesting U.S. involvement in the Vietnam war and "poor living conditions" of enlisted men in the military.

Attitude Check is an underground newspaper published periodically by members of the "Green Machine".

- The Los Angeles Times is a newspaper of general circulation published daily in Los Angeles, California.

LA T-4 (12/12/69)

LA 100-74878

At present, the MDM has no headquarters Office, but it maintains organizational offices in Long Beach, Los Angeles, San Diego, and Vista, California. Source advised that the Los Angeles chapter is presently sharing an office with the Vietnam Moratorium Committee, an anti-war group, at 3848 Inghram Street, Los Angeles, California. Observation of this facility by Special Agents of the FBI has determined that this is a duplex home that has been converted to an office space.

The San Diego Street Journal is an underground newspaper published weekly in San Diego, California.

The Vietnam Moratorium Committee is an anti-war organization established in 1969, with headquarters in Washington, D.C. It has been vocal in opposition to the war in Vietnam and has co-sponsored several demonstrations in this regard throughout the United States.

ASSOCIATION WITH SUBVERSIVE GROUPS

LA T-3 (12/8/69)

Source provided information which reflected that unknown representatives from the MDM met on December 1, 1969, at San Diego, California. Los Angeles representatives of the Peace Action Council (PAC) (See Appendix), Black Panther Party (BPP), (See Appendix), Socialist Workers Party (SWP), and the Young Socialist Alliance (See Appendix) attended this meeting. The purpose of the meeting was to enlist support for a military moratorium to be held at Oceanside, California, on December 14, 1969.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LA T-5 (8/6/69)

Source advised that at the time of its formation, it was composed of a loosely knit group of individuals whose primary purpose was to fight a controversial ordinance under consideration by Los Angeles City Council. The ordinance concerned assemblages of individuals in city parks. The individuals comprising CAR were of the opinion that the ordinance was directed toward hippies that frequented the Los Angeles City Parks..

LA T-1 (11/28/69)

On November 15, 1969, DUNCAN spoke at an anti-Vietnam War rally sponsored by CAR, held at Mc Arthur Park, Sixth and Alvarado, Los Angeles, California.

LA T-1 (12/10/69)

At a meeting of the SMC held on December 1, 1969, at the First Unitarian Church, 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California, DUNCAN spoke of the formation of the MDM. This was a coordination meeting held for the purpose of discussing anti-Vietnam war activities.

LA T-1 (12/12/69)

A meeting of the SMC was held on December 4, 1969, at 1930 New England Street, Los Angeles, California. This was a meeting to establish liaison with representatives of the MDM and to establish role SMC would take in the forthcoming MDM peace rally to be held December 14, 1969, at Oceanside, California. DUNCAN was not present at this meeting.

LA T-9 (12/17/69)

Informant advised that DUNCAN was master of ceremonies at the MDM rally held on December 14, 1969, at Oceanside, California, and that SMC was one of those organizations that supported the rally. LA T-9 stated that another speaker at the rally was ANGELA DAVIS, self-admitted member of the Southern California District Communist Party.

G.I coffee houses are largely staffed by civilians.

LA T-8 (2/12/70)

On January 29, 1970, a meeting of SOS was held at 3848 Ingraham Street, Los Angeles, California. The purpose was to unite all persons and organizations which had indicated interest in the G.I. organizing under one organization, that being SOS. DUNCAN did most of the talking at this meeting.

APPENDIXCOMMUNIST INFILTRATION OF THE FIRST UNITARIAN CHURCH OF LOS ANGELES

A source advised on May 16, 1969, that the premises of the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles, 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, California, have been utilized for meetings by Communist Party members and sympathizers over a period of years. Speakers and lecturers at the church frequently espouse Communist causes or follow the Communist Party line. Communist front group literature is distributed at the church. The church is used by some Communist Party members for "mass concentration" work.

This same infiltration extends to adjuncts of the church such as the Unitarian Public Forum and the Fellowship for Social Justice, formerly known as the Unitarian-Universalist Fellowship for Social Justice.

STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN has been minister of the church since 1948.

Reverend STEPHEN H. FRITCHMAN is described in the Fourth Report, Un-American Activities Committee in California, 1948, Page 115, as a very active "Communist fronter" and connected with numerous "Communist front organizations and activities".

Membership in the First Unitarian Church does not, of itself, connote membership in or sympathy with the Communist Party.

The Dow Chemical Company, a corporation engaged in the manufacture of napalm, has locations in the Los Angeles and Torrance, California areas.

A source advised on May 5, 1969, that the Dow Action Committee (DAC) originated in the Los Angeles area on January 29, 1968, for the purpose of protesting against the production of napalm by the Dow Chemical Company and the participation of the United States in the Vietnam War.

Source advised that the DAC, since its inception and up to the present, has been engaged in demonstrations throughout the Los Angeles vicinity, particularly in front of Dow Chemical Company premises, hoping to dramatize its opposition to the war and the production of napalm. The DAC advocates the boycott of all Dow Chemical Company products.

Source advised that DAC leadership, from its inception and to the present, has been [REDACTED] [REDACTED] DAC meetings are held weekly and usually attended by approximately 20 to 25 individuals. DAC is not a membership organization.

A second source advised on January 1, 1969, that when DAC was organized, members of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) attended meetings of the DAC and attempted to gain control; however, they were repulsed by members of DAC who desired that DAC be a peace organization.

The SWP has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

The first source advised that DAC at present has no office space and meets at the various members homes in the Los Angeles area.

LOS ANGELES COMMITTEE FOR DEFENSE OF THE BILL OF RIGHTS
formerly known as Los Angeles Committee for
Protection of Foreign Born (LACDBR)

A source advised in May 1969 that the LACDBR has expanded its former scope of interest relating to the foreign born, and has become a militant general defense organization allegedly seeking to safeguard the rights of all individuals, including the foreign born, as well as those seeking to avoid military service in the Armed Forces of the United States.

The LACDBR is a non-membership organization which is represented by an Administrative Board of about 125 individuals from loosely organized area committees interested in the work of the LACDBR. These board members are invited by ROSE CHERNIN, Executive Director of the LACDBR, who is the guiding, dominant, and motivating force behind the LACDBR. Its headquarters are maintained at 326 West Third Street, Los Angeles, California.

Another source advised in May 1969, that ROSE CHERNIN is currently Organizational Secretary of the Moranda Smith Section of the Southern California District Communist Party (SCDCP).

APPENDIX

APPENDIXPEACE ACTION COUNCIL

The "People's World", a weekly west coast communist newspaper, in its issue of November 5, 1966, in an article on Page 3, describes the Peace Action Council (PAC) as "a coordinating agency for peace activists" which conducts emergency mobilizations and demonstrative actions against the war in Vietnam.

On July 22, 1966, a source reported that the PAC, which has also been known as the Greater Los Angeles Peace Action Council (GLAPAC), was formed during the early summer of 1966 for the express purpose of protesting the war in Vietnam during the National Governors Conference held in Los Angeles, California from July 4 to July 8, 1966. Following the conclusion of that conference, the PAC members decided to continue as a coordinating group to sponsor similar protest demonstrations at later dates.

This source was recontacted on August 1, 1969, and reported that the PAC continues to operate under the same basic concept, noting that in 1968 and 1969, PAC had sponsored demonstrations against Presidents JOHNSON and NIXON, protesting the policies of their respective administrations governing American military commitments in Vietnam. PAC presently maintains its headquarters at 555 North Western Avenue, Los Angeles, California 90004, telephone 462-8188.

APPENDIX

STUDENTS FOR A DEMOCRATIC SOCIETY (SDS)

A source has advised that the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS), as presently regarded, came into being at a founding convention held June 1962, at Port Huron, Michigan. From an initial posture of "participatory democracy" the line of the national leadership has revealed a growing Marxist-Leninist adherence which currently calls for the building of a revolutionary youth movement. Concurrently, the program of SDS has evolved from civil rights struggles to an anti-Vietnam war stance to an advocacy of a militant anti-imperialist position. China, Vietnam and Cuba are regarded as the leaders of worldwide struggles against United States imperialism whereas the Soviet Union is held to be revisionist and also imperialist.

At the June 1969, SDS National Convention, Progressive Labor Party (PLP) forces in the organization were expelled. As a result, the National Office (NO) group maintained its National Headquarters at 1608 West Madison Street, Chicago, and the PLP faction set up headquarters in Cambridge, Massachusetts. This headquarters subsequently moved to Boston. Each group elected its own national officers, which include three national secretaries and a National Interim Committee of eight. Both the NO forces and the PLP forces claim to be the true SDS. Both groups also print their versions of "New Left Notes" which sets forth the line and the program of the particular faction. The NO version of "New Left Notes" was recently printed under the title "The Fire Next Time" to achieve a broader mass appeal.

Two major factions have developed internally within the NO group, namely, the Weatherman or Revolutionary Youth Movement (RYM) I faction and the RYM II faction. Weatherman is action-oriented upholding CASTRO's position that the duty of revolutionaries is to make revolution. Weatherman is regarded by RYM II as an adventurist elitist faction which denies the historical role of the working class as the base for revolution. RYM II maintains that revolution, although desired, is not possible under present conditions, hence emphasizes organizing and raising the political consciousness of the working class upon whom they feel successful revolution depends. Although disclaiming control and domination by the Communist Party, USA, leaders in these two factions have in the past proclaimed themselves to be communists and to follow the precepts of a Marxist-Leninist philosophy, along pro-Chinese communist lines.

A second source has advised that the PLP faction which is more commonly known as the Worker Student Alliance is dominated and controlled by members of the PLP, who are required to identify themselves with the pro-Chinese Marxist-Leninist philosophy of the PLP. They advocate that an alliance between workers and students is vital to the bringing about of a revolution in the United States.

SDS regions and university and college chapters, although operating under the outlines of the SDS National Constitution, are autonomous in nature and free to carry out independent policy reflective of local conditions. Because of this autonomy internal struggles reflecting the major factional interests of SDS have occurred at the chapter level since the beginning of the 1967-70 school year.

A source advised on May 15, 1969, that the Young Socialist Alliance (YSA) maintains its national headquarters at 41 Union Square West, New York, New York, and has as its official publication the "Young Socialist". The YSA is the youth organization of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) and has been described by the SWP as the main recruiting ground for the SWP.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

LANE stated that they had received encouragement from U.S. Senators WILLIAM FULBRIGHT (Arkansas), ALAN CRANSTON (California), MARLOW COOK (Kentucky), and CHARLES GOODELL (New York), the latter of whom is Chairman of a Senate Sub-Committee on Veterans Affairs.

LANE stated that his group would act as a clearing house for GI complaints, would investigate those complaints, and present the results to the above group of Senators. Senator COOK reportedly has vowed to hold nationwide hearings concerning such complaints.

Referenced Washington Field teletype indicated that DUNCAN and others have opened a "GI Office" in Washington, D. C., and that DUNCAN and [REDACTED] would head the organization.

Los Angeles has not been advised of the results of investigation, requested by referenced New York airtel, to determine if 5737 Mac Arthur Boulevard, Washington, D. C., is being used by DUNCAN for his dissident activities.

Los Angeles will remain office of origin in this matter until such time as DUNCAN's presence and activities in Washington, D. C., are verified.

"C.I. OFFICE"
SECURITY MATTER - ANA

On July 1, 1970, Jane Fonda, a well-known actress, and Mark Lane, an attorney and author who wrote "Rush to Judgment" a book critical of the Warren Commission's investigation into the assassination of President John F. Kennedy, appeared on the Dick Cavett television program.

b6
b7C

During this program Fonda stated that the Vietnam Veterans Against the War in Vietnam (VVAW) was planning a march from New York City to Washington, D. C., at the end of August in protest against the war in Vietnam. She further stated wounded Vietnam veterans would be carried in the march.

The VVAW was also planning to open an office in Washington, D. C., to be staffed by a former Green Beret by the name of Duncan.

On July 17, 1970, [REDACTED] Press Agent for Jane Fonda in New York City, advised that Fonda and Lane recently traveled to Washington, D. C., where they spoke to congressmen about the mistreatment of servicemen by military authorities. They were told that to pursue this matter further they would have to obtain documented proof of the mistreatment.

ENCLOSURE

Artif. dated 8-10-7

"G.I. OFFICE"

[] further advised that to obtain the proof, Fonda and Lane will establish an office at 5737 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D. C., where they would encourage persons who have been treated unfairly while in the service to furnish information about their specific mistreatment. She added the purpose of the office is not to counsel against going into the military.

b6
b7C

On August 8, 1970, Fonda, Lane, Donald Duncan, a former Green Beret, and Marilyn Moorhead (not further identified) gave a press conference at the Ambassador Hotel, Washington, D. C.

The conference was to announce the opening in Washington, D. C. of the "G.I. Office".

This organization would receive information from individuals treated illegally and unfairly while in the military, investigate and document these allegations and furnish the results to interested congressmen. Washington telephone Number 244-2831 and Washington, D. C., Post Office Box 9746 would receive all complaints. Duncan and Moorhead would head the Washington, D. C. office, but the organization's address would not be made public.

The following release, which includes examples of investigations presently being conducted by this organization, was furnished to the public at the press conference:

G.I. OFFICE

Washington, D.C. 20016

--FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE--

FOR INFORMATION: Marilyn Moorhead, 202/244-2831

August 8, 1970

"EVERY INDIVIDUAL IN THE MILITARY SERVICES IS ENTITLED TO THE SAME CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS, PRIVILEGES, AND GUARANTEES AS EVERY OTHER AMERICAN CITIZEN, EXCEPT WHERE SPECIFICALLY DENIED OR LIMITED BY THE CONSTITUTION ITSELF."

Judge Robert E. Quinn, COMA, 1954

Unfortunately for the men and women in service this enlightened opinion does not square with the reality of life within the military. As General Leonard F. Chapman, Commandant USMC states, "I can think of nothing less democratic than the military." (Camp Pendleton, Calif '70)

When the Department of the Army issued a memorandum May 27, 1969, titled "Guidance on Dissent" along Constitutional lines, a member of the House Armed Services Committee stated, "It is just nauseating to me to think that such a publication would be possible from the Army." Apparently many or most Career officers share the Congressman's disgust with the later DOD Directive, 1325.6, since when it isn't being ignored or circumvented it is directly violated by commanders who hold courts-martial convening authority.

For these and other reasons a G. I. OFFICE officially opened in Washington, D.C. Aug. 8, 1970 to represent servicemen and women whose rights have been violated by the military. It is a tragic irony that men and women in uniform, sworn to uphold and defend the Constitution -- give their lives for it if necessary -- are the least to derive any benefit or protection guaranteed by it -- and the U.S. Military least capable of understanding and upholding it.

The G.I. OFFICE will collect, investigate and document deprivation of the rights of our service personnel, both those received directly from GI's and those received through other agencies including the offices of Senators and Representatives who share the G.I. OFFICE's concern. The compiled documents will be made available to responsible agencies who desire to implement corrective action and to Senators and Congressmen upon request.

The need for such an office grew out of conversations between thousands of GI's and veterans with Jane Fonda and Mark Lane during the past few months. Subsequent conversations with certain Senators and Congressmen showed them not only receptive to the idea but welcomed it and promised cooperation. The office will be headed by Marilyn Moorhead and Don Duncan who, until recently were working with servicemen and women through the United Servicemen's Fund (USSF) and Support Our Soldiers (SOS).

Attached to this statement is a cross-section of cases in varying stages of investigation. They do not necessarily represent the most serious cases in terms of punishment but they do show the scope of the deprivation of due process and individual rights, and that the problems are not restricted to a single branch of service nor against those normally known as dissenters.

Because the misapplication of military justice and the threat or use of courts-martial as a coercive instrument has existed for a period sufficient to constitute a tradition, is no reason why such practices should continue. Although officers are no exempt from abuses of military justice the weight falls primarily on enlisted personnel with special attention given to those men and women in service who make their opposition to the war in Indochina known.

Well known are such cases as Capt. Howard Levy at whose trial the truth was ruled irrelevant; the Presidio mutiny trials where the severity of the sentences indicated "command influence", and so on. Less well known, however, are the numerous cases of harassment, intimidation or punishment visited on members of the services for distributing a congressional petition, arrested for distributing subversive material which in fact were copies of the Bill of Rights, the punitive transfers for flashing a "V", the courts-martial for being late for a formation but in reality for visiting an off-post coffeehouse not in favor with the military, etc. Once out of disfavor sufficiently to warrant a courts-martial it is almost impossible to escape either pre-trial or post-trial punishment. In 1969 there were 109,656 courts-martial 96% of which resulted in convictions (Ref: Annual Report, 1969, U.S. Court of Military Appeals), a record to make any district attorney envious. Not included are the number of men and women receiving non-judicial punishment, Art. 15, UCMJ. (In the Air Force for every court-martial there are approximately eleven reportable Article 15's.

As presently administered military justice ^{is} arbitrary and selective in many areas: In determining who is to be court-martialled and the degree of court-martial to be convened; the severity of the charges and specifications for a particular case; the selection and severity of sentence. (The severity of the sentence imposed on Capt. Levy and others should be compared against that of three marines found guilty of first degree murder in Viet-Nam) An increasingly important area of abuse is in the administration of AR635-212 Board actions as a means of imposing less than honorable discharges on individuals against whom no grounds can be found for courts-martial but are out of favor with the military.

The abuses of military justice, always important, are more so now. If the talk of abolishing the draft in favor of an all-volunteer military at the levels projected is to be a reality, it will require more than token pay incentives. As presently applied it would require a gross increase in pay to compensate for life under such a system of arbitrary law and to induce individuals to enlist in spite of it -- except under special circumstances: The civilian economy is so depressed and the labor market so glutted individuals would attempt to enlist for economic survival; justice under the law in civilian courts becoming even more arbitrary and abused than in the military.

ATTACHED IS AN ARTICLE CIRCULATED BY THE GI OFFICE TO GI NEWSPAPERS AND A SELECTION OF CASES IN RESUME FORM IN VARYING STAGES OF INVESTIGATION . The G.I. OFFICE is not part of any other organization and is funded solely by contributions from concerned individuals -- men and women in private business for the most part. Nor does it have any political affiliation or prejudice.

G.I. OFFICE OPENS IN WASHINGTON

New Front In Fight For G.I. Rights

by Don Duncan

July 1970, marks the opening of an office in the nation's capitol to represent men and women in military service. Curiously enough it is called G.I. OFFICE. The office, on the premise that persons in military service are entitled to all the rights guaranteed persons by the Constitution as individuals in a democratic society, will strive to make the premise a reality.

Utilizing lawyers, law students and other proffered volunteer help, the office will document and investigate violations of Constitutional rights by the military of servicemen and women stationed at home and overseas. Complaints from GI's WAC's, etc., will be carried directly to appropriate Senators and Congressmen.

The need for such an office grew out of conversations between thousands of GI's and veterans, and Jane Fonda and Mark Lane during the past few months. Subsequent conversations with certain Senators and Congressmen showed them not only receptive to the idea but welcomed it and promised cooperation.

The office will be headed by Marilyn Moorhead and Don Duncan who, until recently, were working with the GI movement in Southern California as part of the United States Servicemen's Fund (USSF) and Support Our Soldiers (SOS), the latter best known for its GI Coffeehouse programs.

The GI OFFICE is not part of any other organization and is funded solely by contributions from concerned individuals, private businessmen and women for most part. Nor does it have any political affiliation or prejudice. The office exists for GI's, to be used by GI's.

It is a matter of record that the military, traditionally, trammels the rights of its personnel under the guise of maintaining discipline. The severest repression comes against those vocally opposed to the war, racism within the Brass. Of late the practice has become rampant.

In an apparent attempt to silence opposition to the war in Indochina within its ranks, the military has moved strongly, and often illegally, against those actively involved in the GI Movement. The evident object is to intimidate the others not yet active from becoming so. Service personnel not usually associated with any organized group have few places to turn with their reports of injustices and violations of their rights as citizens.

GI's who take their complaints to the Chaplain or the IG (Inspector General) too often find both are Brass and the latter more general than inspector. Complaints to either about injustices invariably lead to more harassment or repression.

Many enlisted personnel who have written their Congressman or Senator have found, to their chagrin, that all martinets and militarists are not wearing uniforms. Certain members of Congress, however, for a variety of reasons, do want to help right past and present injustices and to preclude future repetition.

Because sympathetic members of Congress lack the machinery to personally check each letter they receive with complaints from GI's and vets, they have little choice but to inform the writer his or her letter has been referred to the Pentagon for clarification. Unfortunately this often means the complaint ends up back with the individual's commander. Whichever the case may be the result for the individual is a new level of harassment.

Harassment and intimidation for those out of favor with the Brass can take many forms: additional duties and details; being passed over for promotion; sudden adverse change in duty assignment—or shipping orders; board actions resulting in less than an Honorable Discharge; unequal, heavy-handed use of courts-martial with excessive punishments for minor or non-existent infractions—and the list can and does go on. Whether its a court-martial for being AWOL for three minutes (translation: slow or late making a formation—an actual example) or some other pretext, those in the company or squadron know the individual was punished because he or she attended (legally) a peace rally or was caught flashing "V", as an example or warning to the rest.

In addition to carrying letters directly to particular members of Congress the GI OFFICE will verify the authenticity of the complaint, inform the writer to whom the complaint has been handed and what action is being taken. In turn certain Senators and Congressmen have agreed to pass along to the GI OFFICE complaints received directly from service personnel in order to have them documented.

In this way instead of letters being filed away in hundreds of different Congressional offices, never to know the others exist, they will be compiled in one place. Collectively the documented complaints of GI's from all military posts will establish "pattern and practice" and eliminate the military's excuse of "isolated incident", and the otherwise necessity of a congressman having to handle a legitimate complaint as such. The documented files can then become the basis of public hearings by the House or Senate into the violations of Constitutional guarantees and individual rights of service men and women by the military.

Men and women in service with examples of violations of individual rights as guaranteed by the Constitution to all citizens, or who have been punished or harassed for attempting to exercise those rights are asked to write to: GI OFFICE, P.O. Box 9746, Washington, D.C. 20016. Veterans are also encouraged to write, especially those who may have received a less than Honorable Discharge as punishment for expressing political opinions, etc. Letters should contain as many details as possible and a return address if an individual, for fear of reprisal, prefers his or her name not to be made public, it should so be stated. Those writing of cases not directly involving themselves, their names will be kept in confidence.

It is ironic, atrocity may be a better word, that men and women in uniform, sworn to uphold and defend the Constitution—give their life for it if necessary—are the least to derive any benefit or protection guaranteed by it.

Don Duncan served 10 1/2 years in the U.S. Army and has spent two years in Viet-Nam—as a Green Beret and as a civilian correspondent. In the latter capacity he has covered stories in both Cambodia and Laos.

Camp Pendleton, California

Subject: Marines, Oceanside, Camp Pendleton, Calif.

1. On 15 May 1970, the day prior to an anti-war march organized in the main by members of the Marine Corps, in Oceanside, California, an information bulletin was circulated to various units. Over the signature of [redacted] the bulletin in reference to the march stated, "It is mandatory that the military personnel do NOT participate." (Emphasis in original.) Although it might be difficult to construe this as a direct order, it is certainly at odds with DOD Directive 1325.6.

b7C

The demonstration was held with the cooperation and coordination of local law enforcement agencies and was directed away from the camp with extra-ordinary precautions taken by all parties to avoid "incidents", facts known well prior to 15 May by civilian and military officials alike. In view of this, the following excerpts, same bulletin, same paragraph, are enlightening: "at 1000 16 May the demonstrators plan to rally at the gates." (Thousands of handbills to the contrary...The rally (marshalling) point was next to a rail siding in town at least one mile from the nearest gate, a site chosen by the demonstrators on the suggestion of the chief of police, Oceanside). "No medical assistance will be given without Valid ID card." Although not covered by DOD Directive 1325.6, this aspect is covered by the Hippocratic Oath. "Personnel on duty are to make no comments pertaining to the demonstration over the phone."

Fire Base Gela, R.V.N.

Subject: Death of eight GI's.

It is alleged that in August 1969, at Fire Support Base (FSB) eight members of the recon platoon, 1st Battalion, 28th Infantry, 1st Infantry Division were ordered by Lieutenant Colonel ----- (name withheld pending further investigation) through the platoon leader, to set up a 40-lb shape cahрге "outside the wire".

NOTE: Thought to be M3 Shaped Charge. Ten pound metal container encloses 30 lbs 50/50 pentolite (TNT and PETN -- 1.66 as powerful as TNT) or Composition B (1.35 as powerful as TNT) with a pentolite booster. Charge is capable of penetrating 5 feet of reinforced concrete or almost 2 feet of Armor plating. (Ref: AFM 5-25)

It is further alleged all eight men were 11 Bravos (Infantry) and unqualified in demolitions, a fact known to both officers. Additionally there was within the fire base a qualified demolition team qualified to employ high explosives.

Because of improper employment in setting the charge, or shock tremors from the nearby artillery fire, or a combination thereof, the charge exploded killing all eight men. Despite a local inquiry and assurances to men of the unit that action would be taken, investigation to date has failed to find anyone brought to account for what appears to be needless deaths resulting from improper use of command.

Investigation continues.

Title: DONALD WALTER DUNCAN

Character: RACIAL MATTER - SEDITION

Synopsis: DONALD WALTER DUNCAN has established an anti-military, anti-Vietnam war organization known as the "G.I. Office" at 5737 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D.C. DUNCAN reportedly also resides at that address. Prior to DUNCAN's relocation to Washington, D.C., during early July 1970, he was active in the Los Angeles area as a leading anti-war spokesman and activist.

- RUC -

DETAILS:RESIDENCE AND EMPLOYMENT

LA T-1 (8/8/70)

Source advised that DONALD DUNCAN, JANE FONDA, MARK KANE, and MARILYN MOOREHEAD held a press conference in Washington, D.C. on August 8, 1970, to announce the formation there of a "G.I. Office". The purpose of that organization was to assist servicemen with their problems. It was to be located on MacArthur Boulevard in Washington, D.C. DUNCAN's address was subsequently determined to be 5737 MacArthur Boulevard.

JANE FONDA is a prominent motion picture actress who has been active in the anti-war effort. MARK LANE is an attorney and author of "Rush to Judgement", a book critical of the Warren Commission investigation of the assassination of President JOHN F. KENNEDY. MARILYN MOOREHEAD is not further identified.

By communication dated August 10, 1970, the Washington, D.C. Office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), advised that FBI agents attending the August 8, 1970, news conference in Washington had determined that the purpose of the "G.I. Office" was to receive information from individuals treated illegally and unfairly while in the military, to investigate and document these allegations, and to furnish the results to interested Congressmen. Washington telephone number 244-2831 and Washington, D.C. Post Office Box 9746 were to receive all such complaints, and DUNCAN and MOOREHEAD were to head the organization.

By communication dated July 23, 1970, the New York Office of the FBI reported that FONDA and LANE had established an office at 5737 MacArthur Boulevard, Washington, D.C. It was to be staffed by a former Green Beret, DONALD DUNCAN.

LA T-2 (6/12/70)

Source advised that at a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Peace Action Council (PAC) (See Appendix) in Los Angeles, on May 27, 1970, DONALD DUNCAN was one of the eleven individuals nominated to fill nine vacancies on the Executive Committee of that organization. DUNCAN declined the nomination, stating that he would "be leaving the area June 30th."

LA T-3 (6/25/70)

Source advised that MARK LANE appeared on a local radio station talk-show on June 23, 1970, and stated that he and JANE FONDA would soon open a "G.I. Office" in Washington, D.C., with DON DUNCAN staffing the office. The organization would require $50,000 to operate for a year, and they had then raised $12,000, primarily from JANE FONDA's speaking engagements and solicitations from businessmen in several major cities.

LA 100-74878

LA T-4 (8/20/70)

Source advised that DONALD DUNCAN had departed the Los Angeles area sometime early in July 1970, and relocated to Washington, D.C. where he was reportedly engaged in anti-war activity among servicemen.

ACTIVITIES ON BEHALF OF ANTI-MILITARY
ANTI-VIETNAM WAR ORGANIZATIONS

LA T-2 (5/26/70)

Source advised that DON DUNCAN was one of 20 to 30 persons forming an ad-hoc group known as the Cambodian Crisis Coalition (CCC), an adjunct of the above- characterized Peace Action Council (PAC). The CCC and its parent organization, the PAC, was planning a continuing series of marches and mass demonstrations on a single theme, an end to the war in Vietnam and Southeast Asia. Source advised that DUNCAN, one of the moderates in CCC, had been angered by attempts of "Trotskyist elements" to radicalize the organization.

LA T-3 (5/19/70)

Source advised that DONALD DUNCAN was a speaker at an Armed Forces Day anti-war rally in Oceanside, California, on May 16, 1970. The main speaker was TOM HAYDEN, a founder of the Students for a Democratic Society (SDS) (See Appendix). Another speaker was reportedly an unidentified leader of the Black Panther Party (BPP) (See Appendix). The rally was apparently organized by the Movement for a Democratic Military (MDM).

DONALD DUNCAN was reportedly one of the founders of the MDM, which is an organization of radical servicemen, located originally in the San Diego, California, area, which has actively propagandized and recruited for the anti-Vietnam war movement on military reservations and bases since November 1969. The MDM reportedly has Communist Party support, and its twelve basic objectives are compatible with the ten-point program of the BPP.

LA T-4 (5/19/70, 5/27/70, 7/6/70)

Source advised that DUNCAN attended an emergency meeting of the CCC at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, 1200 South Manhattan Place, Los Angeles, on May 6, 1970. DUNCAN urged the approximately 100 persons present to attend the Armed Forces Day anti-war rally at Oceanside, California, and the adjacent Camp Pendleton Marine Corps Base on May 16, 1970. He suggested that participants distribute leaflets among the Marines at Camp Pendleton and encourage them to attend the rally.

Source advised that DUNCAN was a speaker at a peace rally at Balboa Park in Los Angeles, on May 23, 1970. Approximately 600 persons listened to a series of speakers decrying American involvement in Vietnam and Cambodia.

Source subsequently advised that DUNCAN authored an article entitled "Cambodia, Your Next Duty Station" in the first issue of "Military Intelligence", an underground publication which appeared in the Venice, California, area in May 1970. [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] a group known as SOS (Support Our Soldiers), an organization in which DUNCAN figured prominently.

The "Daily Californian", a campus newspaper of the University of California at Berkeley, California, carried an article on October 2, 1969, entitled "Counselor Damns Draft." In that article, a DONNA ARLINE MICKLESON, a G.I. coffeehouse organizer, stated that SOS originated in Southern California in 1967.

b7D

LA 100-74878

Its purpose was to establish coffee-houses for servicemen near military bases. The aims of the coffeehouses were to "help the G.I.s organize against the war, give them an 'island of sanity in exploitative towns near their bases', and provide them an access to a political education." The coffeehouses were staffed primarily by civilians.

Source further advised that [REDACTED]

b7D

[REDACTED] This group was to begin collecting intelligence on the military, and to collate anti-military demands by active duty servicemen.

LA T-5 (5/22/70)

Source advised that DUNCAN held a press conference at the Valley Peace Center, a Los Angeles area anti-war center, at 7105 Hayvenhurst Avenue, Van Nuys, California, on May 13, 1970. DUNCAN told the news reporters that American intervention in Cambodia was the result of Central Intelligence Agency intrigue in Phnom Phenh, the Capitol of Cambodia.

LA T-6 (5/26/70)

Source advised that DUNCAN attended a heated meeting of the Cambodian Crisis Coalition (CCC) on May 21, 1970, at a Methodist Church in Los Angeles. Participants argued about financing and strategy, the upshot of which was that DUNCAN and several other moderates walked out of the meeting.

LA T-7 (5/11/70)

Source advised that DUNCAN attended a meeting of the CCC at St. Paul's United Methodist Church in Los Angeles on May 6, 1970. DUNCAN spoke on behalf of the MDM and urged support for the Armed Forces Day anti-war rally at Oceanside on May 16, 1970. The CCC established an 18 man steering committee, called the New Mobilization

LA 100-74878

Committee, to implement a planned series of anti-war demonstrations.

LA T-8 (5/28/70)

Source reported DUNCAN's participation in the Armed Forces Day rally at Oceanside on May 16, 1970. The rally was sponsored by the CCC and directed by the New Mobilization Committee (NMC).

DUNCAN told the rally that thousands of servicemen will march in solidarity throughout the Armed Forces as "the tide of opposition to United States aggression in Cambodia and Vietnam" and against the "use of troops at home to repress dissent."

LA T-9 (5/27/70)

Source identified DUNCAN as present at a CCC meeting at 1575 West 14th Street, Los Angeles, on May 21, 1970. Source also advised that DUNCAN and other moderates walked out of the meeting after a heated debate concerning anti-war strategy to be employed by the group.

LA T-10 (6/11/70)

Source advised that DUNCAN addressed the morning service of the First Unitarian Church, 2936 West 8th Street, Los Angeles, on May 10, 1970, and urged the congregation to attend the anti-war demonstration at Oceanside on Armed Forces Day, the following Saturday. Source further advised that the First Unitarian Church of Los Angeles has been heavily infiltrated by Communists and has sponsored numerous local dissident groups.

LA T-11 (7/1/70)

Source advised that DON DUNCAN, 15461 Del Gado Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, was a supporter of the Los Angeles Venceremos Brigade.

LA 100-74878

The Venceremos Brigade has been publicly described as a group of American volunteers traveling to Cuba under the sponsorship of the Cuban Government and personal sanction of Premier FIDEL CASTRO to aid in the harvest of Cuban agricultural commodities.

"G.I. OFFICE"
Security Matter- ANA

Information on instant organization was previously reported on August 10, 1970.

The "G.I. Office" was established in Washington, D. C. (WDC) during the Summer of 1970 by Mark Lane, an attorney and author, Jane Fonda, a well-known actress, and Donald Duncan a former Green Beret.

This organization would receive information from individuals treated illegally and unfairly while in the military, investigate and document these allegations and furnish the results to interested congressmen. Washington telephone number 244-2831 and WDC Post Office Box 9746 would receive all complaints. Duncan and Marilyn Moorhead (not further identified) would head the WDC office.

On August 13, 1970, it was determined that Post Office Box 9746 was opened on July 1, 1970 by Donald W. Duncan of the "G.I. Office," 5737 Mac Arthur Boulevard, WDC.

On August 20, 1970, it was determined that WDC telephone number 244-2831 was an unpublished number listed to Donald Duncan, 5737 Mac Arthur Boulevard, WDC, as were telephone numbers 244-2832 and 244-2824.

For information Los Angeles reference WFO airtel to New York concerned telephone calls made on telephone of [REDACTED] to Washington, D. C. Investigation at Washington, D. C. determined that WDC telephone number was listed to DONALD DUNCAN, 5737 MacArthur Boulevard, N.W., Washington, D. C. Investigation further revealed DUNCAN's phone presently disconnected and address, 5737 MacArthur Boulevard, was vacant.

On 9/8/71 SA [REDACTED] using a suitable pretext, contacted the GI office, 1724 20th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. An individual stated that DONALD DUNCAN could be reached at 15461 DelGado Drive, Sherman Oaks, California. It was further learned that DUNCAN had no plans to return to the DC area.

Lead was set forth in reference communication for Los Angeles at Sherman Oaks, California, to locate DUNCAN.

SUCCINCT SUMMARY
DONALD WALTER DUNCAN

DONALD WALTER DUNCAN is presently on the Security Index, Priority II.

DUNCAN was born 3/18/30, Toronto, Canada and naturalized while in the U.S. Army, 1955. He served in the Army from 12/54 - 9/65 when he requested a hardship discharge. He served with the Special Forces Group in South Vietnam 3/64 - 9/65 and has since toured the U.S. speaking against the U.S. position in Vietnam. He has served as Military Editor and contributing Editor of "Ramparts" magazine.

DUNCAN reportedly traveled to Cambodia in a group to investigate claims that Cambodia was used as a sanctuary for North Vietnamese troops. He testified in a war crimes trial in Copenhagen, Denmark, 11/67.

DUNCAN established an anti-military, anti-Vietnam war organization known as the "GI Office" at 5737 MacArthur Blvd., WDC. The above office was subsequently closed.

DUNCAN is reported to be beginning a new commune on R.R. 2 Paoli, Indiana with a [REDACTED] possible past contact of [REDACTED] aka [REDACTED]

b6
b7C

In view of DUNCAN's activity in opposing the Vietnam war, both domestic and abroad, and his association with known New Left activists, he may prove detrimental to the defense interests of the nation during the time of a national emergency. It is recommended that DUNCAN be placed in Category II of the ADEX. A report or LHM will be submitted during March, 1972.

T-2 advised on August 5, 1970, that Duncan attended a meeting on July 28, 1970, of organizers and functionaries of the DMZ Coffee House (DMZ), 918 9th Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. (WDC). Duncan stated at that meeting that he would be at Fort Bragg, North Carolina, over the weekend of 1-2, August, 1970.

The DMZ is a former underground coffee house for off-duty servicemen, located in WDC.

T-3 advised, September 2, 1970, that Duncan was scheduled to speak at the DMZ on August 25, 1970.

T-2 and T-3 advised on numerous occasions, during the latter part of 1970, that Duncan had appeared and spoken at the DMZ. In addition, T-3 advised on September 11, 1970, that Duncan had contributed funds to the support of the DMZ.

T-1 advised on October 9, 1970, that Duncan had attempted to contact [redacted] in WDC.

by Duncan when he was released as a Prisoner of War in Vietnam. Duncan had been a former Green Beret and had come to Chester, West Virginia, to talk with [] about writing an article about him. [] advised that he gave Duncan the facts and Duncan wrote an article that appeared in about the September, 1969, issue of "Ramparts" magazine. Duncan contacted him frequently to let him write a book about his activities as a Prisoner of War and [] advised that he traveled to Los Angeles, about 1969, to tape several interviews.

b7C

[] advised that while he was in Los Angeles, Duncan, who was head or at least an officer of a group Support Our Servicemen (SOS) had a large meeting in McArthur Park, and [] stated that he [] had spoken to the crowd. [] said the book was due to be published September, 1970, and that he had attempted to contact Duncan by telephone at his residence, 15461 Del Gato Drive, Sherman Oaks, California, and through "Ramparts" magazine where they said they were trying to find Duncan also.

"Ramparts" is a monthly magazine with editorial offices in San Francisco, California.

[] advised that it was his understanding that the purpose of SOS was to furnish legal advice and aid to servicemen through offices located near the various military bases around the country.

T-4 advised on February 2, 1971, that Duncan attended the Winter Soldier Investigation (WSI), December 1, 2, and 3 at the Veterans Memorial Building, Detroit, Michigan.

WSI is self-described as a conference where 100 Vietnam Veterans from all over the United States were to give accounts of U. S. war crimes along with Vietnamese, Cambodian and Laotian victims who would give testimony from Windsor, Canada - WSI was located in Room 1003, 156 5th Avenue, New York, New York.

DONALD WALTER DUNCAN

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The source advised that Duncan resided at 5737 McArthur Boulevard, WDC.

On August 8, 1970, Duncan held a press conference at the Ambassador Hotel, WDC, to announce the opening of the WDC "GI Office," according to T-5.

The "GI Office" is self-described as an organization designed to receive information from individuals treated illegally and unfairly while in the military service, investigate and document these allegations and furnish the results to interested congressmen.

Source T-6 advised on December 30, 1970, that Duncan was expected to close his GI Office in the Spring of 1971 due to the lack of interest. The source anticipated that Duncan would leave town.

Source T-7 advised on March 10, 1971, that a meeting was held in the Grand Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel which was attended by 600 people on March 5, 1971. The purpose of the meeting was to solicit participation in demonstrations at military bases throughout the United States in protest of the war in Vietnam.

Donald Duncan, according to the source, spoke at the meeting and criticized the American military in Vietnam, the American Government, and stressed that the American Government had to be changed. In the middle of Duncan's speech a reporter stood up, asked to be recognized, and shouted obscenities at Duncan, and walked out. Duncan said to the reporter as he was leaving, "I am not easily frightened, but please go in peace."

On June 24, 1971, source T-6 advised that the GI Office headed by Donald Duncan at 5737 McArthur Boulevard, N.W., WDC, was closed due to inactivity and that Duncan would be returning to California.

and these sources report that DUNCAN continues to be principally occupied with building a home for himself [REDACTED] and their children.

Attempts by Indianapolis sources to ascertain information concerning activities in the Paoli, Indiana area, have been negative and sources report that there is no activity whatsoever of a subversive nature being undertaken in this area insofar as they are able to determine.

Subject was contacted on 6/16/72 and shown photographs of New Left type fugitives and continued to be receptive to contact by the FBI. Subject has advised that his activities are limited to building his home and writing articles and books; however, subject has declined to elaborate on his writings.

Due to the limited extent of known activity on the part of subject, no additional recommendation is being made to upgrade subject's status on ADEX and in fact, should subject's activities continue in this same vein subject will be recommended for reduction in category on ADEX in next report.

SUCCINCT SUMMARY

Subject recommended for deletion from ADEX inasmuch as he is felt to be unqualified for inclusion on ADEX based on revised standards. Subject is not an officer or active member of any subversive type organization and Agent who has contacted subject on numerous occasions does not evaluate subject to be a personal threat to the internal security of the United States. Investigation indicates that subject has severed his previous association with persons active in revolutionary activities and does not intend to reinstitute these contacts.

[REDACTED] advised on 10/4/72 that the Publication "Hollywood Reporter" (entertainment industry publication, published five days each week at Hollywood, California) dated 10/26/70 contained a small notice that DONALD SUTHERLAND and JANE FONDA had agreed to reteam in a film entitled "Executive Action". No date for filming was indicated. The article noted that "Executive Action" had a political theme involving the assassination of a fictional U.S. President. This source said no additional information concerning this film has come to his attention. This source added that it is unlikely a film involving SUTHERLAND and FONDA could be made without some knowledge of the film being published [REDACTED]

For the information of Indianapolis and Washington Field, documentation of SUTHERLAND and FONDA follows:

Movie Actor DONALD SUTHERLAND became active in the Los Angeles Friends of the Black Panthers, now known as the Liberation Union, in March 1969. Since that time he has appeared on behalf of and has been a continuous source of financial support for black extremist and anti-war causes. He has appeared in anti-war, anti-military programs throughout the United States, in Okinawa, the Republic of the Philippines and Japan.

The Liberation Union was organized in March 1969, as Los Angeles Friends of the Black Panthers, to support the Black Panther Party (BPP). The name was changed in January 1970 to LU, and is currently a support group to work with active duty GI's, the anti-war movement and defense of all political prisoners, in addition to the BPP.

The BPP is a black extremist organization started in Oakland, California, in December 1966. It advocates the use of guns and guerrilla tactics to bring about the overthrow of the United States Government. The Los Angeles BPP Chapter follows the ideology and dictates of the BPP National Headquarters in Oakland, California.

JANE FONDA has been an active supporter and spokesman for the BPP, the American Indians, Women's Liberation and the anti-war movement since early 1970. On March 13-14, 1971 she participated in an anti-war and anti-establishment show at Fayetteville, North Carolina, and has stated the program will be presented at military bases around the country. FONDA is an actress and has recently returned to the United States from a trip to North Vietnam.
