The Black Vault

The image shows a close-up of a heavy, metallic vault door. The door is partially open, revealing a complex internal mechanism with multiple locking bolts and a central handle. A bright blue light emanates from the gap between the door and the frame, creating a strong glow and casting shadows on the surrounding metal. The overall aesthetic is industrial and mysterious.

The Black Vault is the largest online Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) document clearinghouse in the world. The research efforts here are responsible for the declassification of hundreds of thousands of pages released by the U.S. Government & Military.

FOIPA Request No.: 1394617-000
Subject: General Mills Inc (1856-Present)

Dear Mr. Greenewald:

Records responsive to your request were previously processed under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. Enclosed is one CD containing 117 pages of previously processed documents and a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions. This release is being provided to you at no charge.

Documents or information referred to other Government agencies were not included in this release.

Please be advised that additional records potentially responsive to your subject may exist. If this release of previously processed material does not satisfy your information needs for this request, you may request an additional search for records. Submit your request by mail or fax to – Work Process Unit, 170 Marcel Drive, Winchester, VA 22602, fax number (540) 868-4997. Please cite the FOIPA Request Number in your correspondence.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA). See 5 U.S. C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us." The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so it may be easily identified.

Sincerely,

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information ( A ) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, ( B ) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, ( C ) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, ( D ) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, ( E ) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or ( F ) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

CONCORD, NEW HAMPSHIRE, APPEARED AT CONCORD RESIDENT AGENCY TO ADVISED FOLLOWING:

ON EVENING OF 2/14/93, [REDACTED] ALSO KNOWN AS

[REDACTED]
[REDACTED]
ACCOMPANIED BY HIS WIFE, [REDACTED] DATE OF BIRTH

[REDACTED] APPEARED AT THE DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER, LEBANON, NEW HAMPSHIRE, COMPLAINING OF SEVERE VOMITING.

[REDACTED] HAD IN POSSESSION ONE BOX OF COCOA PUFFS CEREAL WHICH HE HAD PURCHASED EARLIER IN DAY AT CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE, ROUTE 4, ENFIELD, NEW HAMPSHIRE, A RURAL AREA IN NEW HAMPSHIRE. [REDACTED] STATED THAT HE HAD BECOME SEVERELY ILL
AFTER CONSUMING CEREAL THAT EVENING. EXAMINATION BY HOSPITAL PERSONNEL AND SUBSEQUENTLY BY NEW HAMPSHIRE STATE PUBLIC HEALTH OFFICIALS DETERMINED APPROXIMATELY 346 CYLINDRICAL PELLETS OF UNKNOWN ORIGIN OR COMPOSITION, DESCRIBED AS GREEN WITH WHITE SPECS, IN DIMENSIONS OF 1/8 TO 1 INCH IN LENGTH,
1/16 TO 1/8 INCH IN THICKNESS, SIMILAR IN APPEARANCE TO RODENT BAIT, WERE IN THE BOX OF CEREAL. ALSO IN THE CEREAL WAS ONE PIECE OF AUTOCLAVE QUALITY ASSURANCE TAPE, HEAT SENSITIVE, 4

TO 6 INCHES BY 1 INCH USED TO DETERMINE EFFECTIVENESS OF HEAT STERILIZATION OF INSTRUMENTS.

THREE HUNDRED FORTY-SIX (346) PELLETS AMOUNTED TO APPROXIMATELY TWO ADULT HANDFULS OF PELLETS IN THE CEREAL BOX.

[REDACTED] WAS TREATED AS AN OUTPATIENT AND RELEASED.

[REDACTED] REPORTED THAT HE HAD VOMITED TWICE AT HOME, AND

VOMITED WHILE EMERGENCY ROOM PERSONNEL ATTEMPTED TO INTUBATE HIM FOR PREPARATION FOR PUMPING HIS STOMACH SINCE THE ATTENDING DOCTOR'S OPINION WAS THAT, BASED ON [REDACTED] STATEMENTS, [REDACTED] STOMACH WOULD NOT CONTAIN FURTHER AMOUNTS OF POISON, PUMPING OF [REDACTED] STOMACH WAS NOT COMPLETED. VOMITUS WAS COLLECTED AND TURNED OVER TO STATE PUBLIC HEALTH OFFICIALS.

[REDACTED] ACCORDING TO ATTENDING PHYSICIAN, DID NOT PRESENT WITH USUAL SYMPTOMS FOR RODENT POISON, WHICH GENERALLY CONTAINS AN ANTICOAGULANT AND THIRST INDUCER, AND DOES GENERALLY NOT CAUSE VOMITING. [REDACTED] WAS INSTRUCTED AND DID APPEAR FOR BLOOD TESTS ON THE FOLLOWING DAY, 2/15/93, AND COMPLAINED AT THAT TIME OF DIZZINESS, HOWEVER, BLOOD SAMPLES WERE TAKEN AND WERE NEGATIVE FOR TOXICANTS. [REDACTED] AT THAT

RE: United States vs [REDACTED]

Dear Sir:

I have briefed our County Attorney, [REDACTED] on the captioned case this date. [REDACTED] has displayed a keen interest and has advised me that he would like to review matters for possible prosecutions by his office. I most appreciate the continued flow of information and cooperation in this matter.

It has been a unique and rewarding experience to work with the Bureau on this case. Again, thank you for your considerations.

Sincerely,

- Went out Sunday night to get
"munchies" which could mean cereal
Not Common for them to eat cereal at night BOTH have diets which are not considered good.

- Came back up box of cereal. Cereal Pops.

- A worry or computer & watching TV at same time. He had a cereal not very unusual.

- Husband eat bowl. 3 hours green things at bottom of bowl and finally cereal.
He said I didn't know what it was.
Said don't eat anymore. Didn't think anything unusual.

- Minutes later started turning blue.
Went to S.R. Sunday while he was throwing up. She calls 911.
Go to D.H.C. Get back. But I am
Monday. LOST's bed left small size of green pellets. Put aside.

- Nothing happened Monday. Tues or Wed.
He says put out poisoning in cereal.
Wanted to commit suicide. Later he Says to didn't want to commit suicide any longer.

~~Told Anne~~

~~He told Anne about.~~

She called Anne who came over at which she told him what Bob had said. Told to Ottome to see P. not told. It being to get treatment.

In budget Counselor past two years bought trailers home in order to save money. Meeting 70% of G.I.s. Only 4% of G.I.s. They can't pay all the time and for medical G.I.s (asthma) getting by.

I, the undersigned complainant being duly sworn state the following is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. On or about February 14, 1993 in Grafton county, in the District of New Hampshire defendant(s) did, (Track Statutory Language of Offense) knowingly communicate false information that a consumer product had been tainted and such product affects interstate commerce, and such tainting had it occurred, would have created a risk of death or bodily injury to another person in violation of Title 18 United States Code, Section(s) 1365(c)(1)

I further state that I am a(n) Special Agent, F.B.I. and that this complaint is based on the following facts: The defendant purchased a box of breakfast cereal (CocoaPuffs) at a store in Enfield, New Hampshire. He went to another store and purchased a box of rat poison. He then went home and put the rat poison in the box of cereal, consumed some cereal and then started to vomit. Taken to Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center, [redacted] told various people that he became ill after eating the cereal. He later reported his intention to sue General Mills, the manufacturer of Coco Puffs Cereal, for damages and conferred with an attorney about suing General Mills. As a result, production of cereal was affected, thereby affecting interstate commerce.

INSTRUCTIONS

1. The purpose of this report is to record the initial data of an individual's arrest and thereafter secure the final disposition of the arrest at the earliest possible time from either the arresting agency, the prosecutor or the court having jurisdiction. (INTERIM DISPOSITION INFORMATION, e.g., RELEASED ON BOND, SHOULD NOT BE SUBMITTED.) The SUBJECT'S NAME, CONTRIBUTOR AND ARREST NUMBER should be exactly the same as they appear on the fingerprint card IN THE FILES OF THE FBI. The FBI number should be indicated, if known. Agency ultimately making final disposition will complete and mail form to: FBI Identification Division, Washington, D.C. 20537.
2. The arresting agency should fill in all arrest data on left side of form and obtain the finger impressions of the right four fingers simultaneously. This should be done at the same time as the full set of fingerprints are taken on the arrest fingerprint card. If the arrest is disposed of by the arresting agency, as where the arrestee is released without charge, then the arresting agency should fill in this final disposition and mail form to FBI Identification Division. Of course, if final disposition is known when arrest fingerprint card is submitted it should be noted thereon and this form is then unnecessary. In the event the case goes to the prosecutor, this form should be forwarded to the prosecutor with arrestee's case file.
3. The prosecutor should complete the form to show final disposition at the prosecution level if the matter is not being referred for court action and thereafter submit form directly to FBI Identification Division. If court action required, the prosecutor should forward form with case file to court having jurisdiction.
4. The court should complete this form as to final court disposition such as when arrested person is acquitted, case is dismissed, on conviction and when sentence imposed or sentence suspended and person placed on probation.
5. When arrested person convicted or enters guilty plea to lesser or different offense than that charged when originally arrested, this information should be clearly indicated.
6. If subsequent action taken to seal or expunge record, attach certified or authenticated copy of court order to this form so that FBI can return arrestee's fingerprints to original contributor.
7. It is vitaly important for completion of subject's record in the FBI Identification Division files that Final Disposition Report be submitted in every instance where fingerprints previously forwarded without final disposition noted thereon.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date of transcription 2/22/93

[redacted], white male, date of birth [redacted] was interviewed at the offices of the Enfield Police Department (EPD), Main Street, Enfield, New Hampshire. [redacted] was interviewed by Special Agents (SA's) [redacted] and JOHN E. MULVANEY, JR., who identified themselves as SA's of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), and Chief of Police (COP) PETER H. GIESE, EPD. whose identity as Chief of Police of the EPD was known to [redacted] was advised that the nature of the interview would concern his reported poisoning on the evening of Sunday, February 14, 1993 and the events surrounding same. Prior to interview, [redacted] was apprised of the elements of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1001 "False Statements" and its potential penalties. He was also advised that his presence was voluntary, that he was under no obligation to provide information to the interviewing Agents and officer, and that the door to the interview room was unlocked and that he was free to leave at any time. It was impressed on [redacted] the extreme gravity of the matter at hand, and the necessity of his providing complete and fully truthful information as regards same. After being so advised, [redacted] freely and voluntarily provided the following information:

He was born in [redacted] to [redacted] (Last Name Unknown (LNU)), his natural mother, currently residing in [redacted] and to an unknown father. At an early age, he and his natural brother [redacted] were adopted by their maternal aunt [redacted] currently residing at [redacted] and her recently deceased husband, ROBERT W. GILLILAND. His brother and he were raised along with the [redacted] own children, [redacted] [redacted] is currently in the Panama City Jail on a narcotics related charge and [redacted] is currently in jail in Florida for a drunken driving offense. [redacted] resides in [redacted] and [redacted] with his mother in [redacted] currently resides in [redacted]

He does not maintain regular contact with his family, and has not spoken with his natural mother for several years. To his knowledge, neither his natural mother nor his adopted parents have ever been in trouble with the authorities.

 COP PETER H. GIESE
 SA JOHN E. MULVANEY, JR.
 by SA [redacted] ljc Date dictated 2/19/93

At the time of interview, he was not under the influence of narcotics or alcohol. He does not use narcotics and drinks only an occasional beer. He has used marijuana only once, many years ago.

Prior to Wednesday, February 17, 1993, he had not consulted a mental health professional or had been treated for a mental illness or depression.

b6
b7C

He has lived in the Enfield, New Hampshire area on and off for approximately three years, after meeting his wife [REDACTED]. They own their own home, a trailer at [REDACTED] telephone number [REDACTED]. Both he and his wife work, she part-time at the [REDACTED] and he full time for [REDACTED]. He has no children.

Recently, his wife and he have been under financial pressure from bills associated with their mortgage, a second mortgage, a SEARS Credit Card bill in the amount of $3,000, Vermont taxes associated with his employment there through [REDACTED] and two car payments. He has been under constant pressure from his in-laws, who treat him as a child, always making sure that he is paying the bills on time. He has had no one to talk to, save for his friend [REDACTED] an [REDACTED] for the ENFIELD FAST SERVICE. He has tried to talk to his in-laws and his wife about the pressure he was undergoing without success. His wife and her parents do not understand what kind of pressure he has been feeling in response to their financial situation. He has been despondant over the recent death of his father from natural causes. He does not talk in his sleep.

On Sunday evening, February 14, 1993, the pressure overcame him and he "just snapped" and decided to commit suicide. He left his residence at approximately 7:30 p.m. and drove to GEORGES MARKET in Enfield, where he purchased a package of rat poison. He did not obtain a receipt or a bag for same. He purchased the rat poison, which was in a green and white pellet form, from the lady at the counter who was short and wore glasses. He purchased nothing else at GEORGES.

He then traveled to CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE, where he purchased one box of COCOA PUFFS cereal. He opened the package of rat poison and disposed of the wrapper in the trash can at an unrecalled location. He went home, opened the box of COCOA PUFFS and placed approximately one half handful of the rat poison into the box of COCOA PUFFS. He then poured a bowl of cereal for himself and sat down and ate the cereal. It is normal for him to eat cereal as a snack at night. After he ate the cereal, he started getting sick and started vomiting at his home. He developed a headache and could not breath. His wife panicked and called the emergency number 911, telling them that her husband was choking. His friend [REDACTED] was one of the EMT's to respond to the residence. The EMT's arrived in their ambulance and took him to DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER. At the hospital he panicked and told the EMT's and emergency room, as well as his wife, that he had become sick after eating the COCOA PUFFS "It wasn't supposed to go this far". The box of COCOA PUFFS had been brought to the hospital. His wife was present there and he told her that he had been poisoned by eating the cereal. He did not tell the hospital attendants or his wife that he had placed the poison in the cereal himself and had deliberately eaten it as a suicide attempt.

250-BS-67071

Cont. of interview of [REDACTED]

On 2/18/93, Page 3

At the hospital, the medical personnel attempted to pump his stomach. He vomited a bunch of food and his vomit was collected into a small white container; he did not know what became of this container.

He was sent home by the doctor who examined him and went to bed. Per the doctor's instructions, he returned to the hospital at 8:00 a.m. the following morning, Monday, February 15, 1993, for a blood test. At that time he told the medical personnel at the hospital that he just had a headache. He also mentioned that he was going to get an attorney and sue the COCOA PUFFS COMPANY.

On that same day, February 15, 1993, or the following day, Tuesday, February 16, 1993, he contacted an attorney in Woodstock, Vermont, [REDACTED] (PHONETIC). He told [REDACTED] that he had been poisoned after eating a box of COCOA PUFFS in which someone had placed rat poison and that he wanted to hire [REDACTED] to sue the COCOA PUFFS' manufacturer. [REDACTED] told him that he would check into the matter and get back to him. He knew [REDACTED] from having been deposed by [REDACTED] in the past. [REDACTED] had formerly worked for BARTELL'S (PHONETIC) RESTAURANT in Lebanon, New Hampshire with [REDACTED]. One evening, while both were at work, [REDACTED] allegedly fell and injured himself in the restaurant and initiated a lawsuit against the restaurant. [REDACTED] represented [REDACTED] and, though [REDACTED] did not observe the fall, he was "suckered into" being deposed by [REDACTED]. He believed that [REDACTED] had won a settlement for [REDACTED].

He also knew through viewing [REDACTED] ad in the telephone book that [REDACTED] specialized in consumer poisoning cases.

On Wednesday, February 17, 1993, he became aware that the matter of his faked poisoning would be investigated by the FBI. He became worried, as he had never intended the matter to go that far, and had been attempting to contact [REDACTED] for several days to talk to him about the true nature of the matter. After becoming aware of FBI involvement, he called Attorney [REDACTED] office and told [REDACTED] receptionist that he was no longer interested in pursuing the matter of a lawsuit against the manufacturer of COCOA PUFFS. He was now afraid of what might occur to him should he pursue a lawsuit based on a false claim. On the same morning, he confessed to his wife that, in fact, his poisoning had been an attempted suicide and that he was solely responsible for the situation. She started crying and called [REDACTED] and told him that her husband had tried to kill himself. [REDACTED] contacted him on the evening of February 17, 1993, and took him to the DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER for psychiatric help, and arranged for him to see a mental health professional, [REDACTED]. He told [REDACTED] what had occurred and what his role in the situation had been. [REDACTED] gave him another appointment for February 26, 1993.

He had never tried to commit suicide before. When he tried on the evening of Sunday, February 14, 1993, he did not leave a suicide note nor did he call or talk to anyone, including his wife, to express his depression or intention to kill himself because they might have tried to stop him.

Concerning the matter of his suicide attempt, he did not give any lengthy consideration to the method by which he intended to kill himself. He had not researched the signs or symptoms of rodent poisoning. His only thought was to kill himself, and the idea of poisoning himself came into his head as he left his residence that evening at about 7:00 p.m. His wife and he do not own any firearms. He gave no thought as to the way he might die following his ingestion of the rodent poison.

b7c

On Sunday evening, February 14, 1993, prior to going to GEORGES MARKET, he had first gone to TINKHAMS MARKET on School Street in Enfield to purchase rodent poison. However, they did not carry that item, prompting him to go to GEORGES MARKET. There, he paid .99¢ or $1.00 for a little package in which there were little pellets. After getting the poison and the cereal, he went to his house. After adding the poison to the cereal and contrary to his previous statement, he flushed the wrapper, and the excess poison that he had not added to the cereal, down his toilet. He added perhaps not even a half handful of the rodent poison to the cereal, though he did not pay much attention to how much he put in it. When he arrived home, his wife was in the living room. In the kitchen, he poured his wife a bowl of the COCOA PUFFS cereal, and then poured himself a bowl. Prior to pouring a bowl for his wife, he shook the COCOA PUFFS cereal box to get the rodent pellets down to the bottom to make sure that she would not get any of the poison. He then poured himself a bowl and added milk to it. The pellets were visible in his cereal.

His wife came into the kitchen, got her bowl and added milk to it herself. She then returned to the living room and started eating it before he began eating his. Both of them were eating at the same time while watching television; he could not remember the show that they were watching. He could taste the pellets of rodent poison in his cereal; they were slightly bitter. He did not remember a smell from the pellets. He did not know how many pellets he had eaten, nor did he spit any out.

In further regards to his purchasing the poison and the cereal, after he had purchased the rodent poison, he then traveled to CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE, passing by two other stores where he could have bought cereal. He did not know why he had not bought cereal at GEORGES MARKET, TINKHAMS MARKET, or at CATLINS STORE. He already had two boxes of cereal at home that evening, CORN FLAKES and "OATIES". He paid $4 for the box of COCOA PUFFS cereal at CATHY & DON'S COUNTRY STORE. He was in GEORGES MARKET a little after 7:00 p.m. and had stopped at TINKHAMS on the same journey prior to going into GEORGES. He did not see anything unusual in any of the stores that he was in that evening.

When [REDACTED] and the other EMT's came to his house on the evening of February 14, 1993, he did not remember talking to them or the EFD Police Officer who also responded. He did remember saying that he could not breathe, that he had a breathing problem and could not catch his breath. He just felt sick, and had a funny feeling around his heart. He wanted to die, but did tell the EMT's and the medical personnel at the hospital that he had become sick after eating the COCOA PUFFS cereal. He did not recall mentioning a lawsuit, but recalled that his wife had mentioned suing for compensation. He did not tell the EMT's that his wife had also eaten the cereal; she told them herself at the hospital later that evening.

He has had lots of arguments with his wife. They have been about their financial situation. To his knowledge he did not have an argument on February 14, 1993 with his wife. He has a bad temper, but has never assaulted his wife during one of their arguments. He tends to let things build up before he loses his temper. He has no one to talk to save for [REDACTED]

His wife is a full time student who works part-time at the [REDACTED]. She handles the bills. She has life insurance, paid for by her parents. They are the beneficiaries, not him.

b7C

In the past, he has been involved in accidents and has been involved in lawsuits. He has been represented by Attorney [REDACTED] of Concord, New Hampshire. After an accident at the Fort Harris Truck Stop in Lebanon, New Hampshire, he sued a truck driver for $3,000. He only received $300 or so after medical and legal bills were paid. This accident occurred approximately one and one half years ago during August in the Summer of 1989 or 1990.

He has been involved in so many accidents that he could not remember any specifically. However, on February 16, 1993, he and his wife wrecked their Ford Escort. His insurance company is ALLSTATE. He was also involved in accidents as a child, and other people may have sued on his behalf. He has also been sued himself for $1,000 by a truck driver.

At the conclusion of the above, the interviewing Agents and officer expressed to [REDACTED] their doubts concerning the truthfulness of the above account as provided by [REDACTED]. At 12:03 p.m., [REDACTED] advised that he did not wish to speak further without first consulting an Attorney. Questioning was discontinued at that time.

Following [REDACTED] request for an attorney, he was advised by SA [REDACTED] of certain discrepancies that existed within his statement. [REDACTED] was told by SA [REDACTED] that serious questions existed concerning [REDACTED] stated intent to commit suicide and of his providing COCOA PUFFS cereal to his wife. SA [REDACTED] indicated that he and the other interviewers did not believe [REDACTED] sequence of events regarding that evening, and thought it probable that [REDACTED] at the very least, had perpetrated a fraud in order to collect damages from the manufacturer of COCOA PUFFS, the GENERAL MILLS CORPORATION, and in the worst case, had tried to either injure or kill his wife in order to collect life insurance and damages from GENERAL MILLS.

[REDACTED] was further advised that the matter had now attracted media attention and the possibility of a public panic which could force an expensive recall of COCOA PUFFS and possibly create further false claims could result. [REDACTED] was advised to carefully consider the situation, and that time was of the essence to prevent further media coverage and possible public panic. At approximately 12:30 p.m., [REDACTED] expressed his desire to give the interviewing Agents a complete and truthful account of the above matter.

At 12:35 p.m., [REDACTED] was provided with a form entitled, "Interrogation: Advice of Rights" (FD-395). [REDACTED] then read aloud from the above form his Constitutional Rights and at 12:39 p.m. indicated his willingness to be further interviewed by affixing his signature to same form. Thereafter, [REDACTED] provided the following information:

He was lying when he stated that he had placed the rodent poison in the COCOA PUFFS in order to commit suicide. He did not want to commit suicide but was hoping to obtain a couple of thousand dollars from the manufacturer of COCOA PUFFS as part of a lawsuit. He would have used this money to pay bills.

He did not plot this scheme with anyone else, including his wife or [REDACTED]. He did not see or meet anyone on that evening and only told his wife that he was going out to get "munchies".

b7c

He has not confessed his true motive to anyone prior to interview. He recalled that he had been asked by someone in a store if he had an attorney, and that he had responded that, in fact, they had.

He told his wife that he was trying to commit suicide, and never confessed his true motive to her. He had planned the scheme only to a certain point, and then thought that he would let his attorney figure out a way to obtain money from the COCOA PUFFS manufacturer. He left his home at approximately 6:00 p.m. that evening, not 7:00 p.m., and should be on video tape at TINKHAMS. After purchasing the rodent poison and cereal, he stopped by the skating rink in Enfield and, while sitting in his car, opened the box of cereal and poured about one half handful into the cereal box. He figured that would be enough for his scheme. The box was sealed prior to him opening it. He had some poison left over; he did not flush it down his toilet, but instead took it behind the shed and dumped it in the snow there, it was probably still there.

When he got home, he did not figure that his wife would want some cereal as she did. When she asked for some, he became worried and got a strainer in the kitchen and poured the cereal into the strainer and picked out the rodent pellets before giving the cereal to his wife. She thought that his actions seemed odd, so he told her that he was looking for the prize in the box of cereal. He made sure his wife's bowl did not have any of the pellets in it; he loves his wife and would never hurt her. He poured his wife's bowl first and then poured his own, making sure that some of the pellets were in it. He only ate a little bit of the cereal and may have gotten one or two pellets; he is not sure that he ingested any pellets at all.

At this point in the interview, COP <sup>W</sup>GRESE discontinued his participation in the interview to attend to other matters.

He did not suffer any of the symptoms that he had described to the responding EMT's and later to the medical personnel at the hospital. The only symptom that he had was some gagging and the feeling of something coming up his throat; he spat out something that had come up his throat and his mouth into the sink. Even the symptoms of gagging was caused more by panic than anything else. He deliberately gagged so his wife would observe him and become panicked and call the ambulance, as he had planned. He did flush down the toilet the wrapper to the poison; after he got back from the hospital on the evening of February 14, 1993, he took the remains of his cereal with the rodent pellets in it and dumped it in the garbage.

When the EMT's had treated him, one of them had borrowed plastic sandwich bag from his kitchen and had put a sample of the cereal and the rodent pellets in it. They accidentally left this behind in his house when they left. This plastic bag is still in his kitchen somewhere.

He has never filed false claims before, nor did his family have a history of doing so. His wife was not involved, and he only told her yesterday of the matter. She then called [redacted] and eventually [redacted] told [redacted] that he was the person who had put the poison in the COCOA PUFFS cereal.

Since the incident, he has spoken to his inlaws. They have asked if he had an attorney; he responded that he had. He has also talked to [redacted] and his wife and told them the same information.

His [redacted] is studying at CLAREMONT TECHNICAL COLLEGE to be a licensed Practical Nurse. She is not involved in the sterilization of medical instruments.

After the incident, his wife had notified his employer, [redacted] of the incident to excuse his absence from work.

He does not know any other people who have gotten settlements from contaminated food. He figured he would be sick for a couple of days.

At the conclusion of the interview, [redacted] consented to being photographed, which was done by COP GIESE, who returned to the interviewing room for that purpose. He further consented to a search of his trailer and of the grounds, indicating his consent by affixing his signature to a "Consent to Search Form" (FD-26).

Following same, [redacted] was transported to his residence by SA's [redacted] and MULVANEY and showed the interviewing Agents where he had disposed of excess rodent pellets behind his shed in his yard. Approximately nine pellets were recovered from the snow by SA [redacted]

A brief search was conducted of [redacted] residence; no items of evidence were recovered from inside his residence:

[redacted] was interviewed at the Enfield Police Department, Enfield, New Hampshire. [redacted] was advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the purpose of the investigation. She thereafter provided the following information:

On February 14, 1993, [redacted] husband, [redacted] left the house at approximately 6:00 p.m. to buy "munchies". He returned from the store shortly thereafter with a box of "COCOA PUFFS". [redacted] explained that she and her husband do not have good diets and normally eat cereal at dinnertime. When her husband returned, she was working on her computer in the living room and watching television at the same time. Her husband poured her a bowl of cereal which she ate while working at the computer. Her husband sat down next to her and ate his bowl of cereal. After finishing it, he noticed three long green pellets at the bottom of the bowl. [redacted] advised that she did not know what the pellets were and suggested to her husband not to eat any more. She did not seem to think that this was very unusual.

Minutes later her husband began turning blue while sitting on the couch. He ran to the kitchen sink and began to vomit. [redacted] stated that she could not see her husband while he was at the sink, but based on what she heard it sounded as if he was vomiting. [redacted] stated that she quickly dialed 911 and after the Emergency Medical Technician's (EMT's) arrived, her husband was taken to the DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK CLINIC in Lebanon, New Hampshire. She and her husband returned to the house at approximately 2:00 a.m., on Monday, the 15th. The EMT's had left a small bag containing additional green pellets, which they had taken out of the box of cereal, and left it on a counter in the house.

On Tuesday, [redacted] husband admitted to her that he had put rat poisoning in the cereal because he wanted to commit suicide. [redacted] immediately called their mutual friend, [redacted] who came over to the house immediately. [redacted] suggested that [redacted] go back to the DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK CLINIC so that a psychiatrist may interview and observe him. [redacted] stated that she and her husband have been seeing a budget counselor for the past two years. The counselor has allowed them to put their financial matters in order. As a result, they purchased a trailer home in order to save money. [redacted] stated that they

[redacted] Co-Proprietor, was contacted at her [redacted] TINKHAMS MARKET, School Street, Enfield, New Hampshire, telephone number: (603) 632-4653. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

[redacted] TINKHAMS MARKET and split their time in running the store. [redacted]

Within the past week, prior to the date of interview, she specifically remembered a young, white male with a sloppy appearance coming into the store and asking for "Meese Poison" (sic). She recalled the incidence because of the individuals use of the word "meeses", to which she responded, "you mean mice poison, don't you?" She found the use of the word "meese" to be humorous.

As [redacted] does not sell rodent poison, she would have referred any individual seeking same to either the local hardware store or to GEORGES SUPERMARKET, the biggest store in Enfield, as is her custom. This incident definitely occurred within the past seven or eight days prior to interview.

[redacted] was shown a photograph of [redacted]. Upon viewing same photograph, [redacted] advised that she recognized [redacted] as an occasion customer in her store, but could not identify him as the individual who had been looking for "meese" poison. [redacted] could have been the person who asked for same; however, she could not be sure.

[redacted] placed her initials and the date on the back of the photograph of [redacted] to reflect her identification of [redacted] as an occasional customer in her store and possibly as the individual who asked for the rodent poison, as described above. The above mentioned photograph has been entered into evidence.

After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, Attorney [redacted] provided the following information:

Sometime prior to 8:30 a.m. on Monday, February 15, 1993, [redacted] left a message on his answering machine regarding his desire to retain [redacted] services.

[redacted] returned [redacted] phone call the same date, spoke to [redacted] and made arrangements to see [redacted] the following day, February 16, 1993.

He received a phone call on Tuesday morning, February 16, 1993, from [redacted] was calling from a gas station in Queechee, New Hampshire. [redacted] told him that he and his wife had been on their way to the appointment when they had an accident in their car. [redacted] told him that he would attempt to make other arrangements to see [redacted] that day.

In fact, [redacted] did appear in his office that afternoon having obtained a ride from his father-in-law.

At that time, [redacted] was retained by [redacted] for a civil matter. [redacted] does not practice criminal law.

On the following day, Wednesday, February 17, 1993, sometime late in the morning, [redacted] wife telephonically contacted [redacted] office assistant and indicated to her that she and husband no longer wished to pursue their matter with [redacted] services.

Since [redacted] did not hear directly from [redacted] himself, he considered himself still to be retained by [redacted] until Tuesday morning, February 23, 1993, when [redacted] himself left a message on his answering machine to the effect that [redacted] services were no longer required. At that point, [redacted] considered himself to be released from representation of [redacted]

[redacted] white female, date of birth: [redacted] was interviewed at the offices of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), Concord, New Hampshire. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

She is [redacted] CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE, Route 4, Enfield, New Hampshire, telephone number: (603) 632-4210. She has been [redacted] at that business for approximately three years and may be generally considered the night and weekend [redacted] When she works at the store on her shift, she is generally the only employee in the store save for the outside gas attendants. The store is owned by [redacted]

She generally works [redacted] and works two Saturdays a month at her choosing and works every Sunday. Saturdays, she generally works 2 p.m. to 9 p.m. and Sunday, 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. Generally, she works other hours as necessary.

She was working a 2 p.m. to 8 p.m. on February 14, 1993. [redacted] had come on duty after 5 p.m. as the gas attendant. [redacted] had taken a special switch with another employee who had gone skiing.

Some time after 5 p.m., when [redacted] had come on duty, an individual whose name she now knows to be [redacted] had come into CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE. [redacted] went immediately to the cereal section and selected a box of COCOA PUFFS cereal. He went directly to the COCOA PUFFS and made his purchase without hesitation.

After [redacted] made his purchase, he conversed with [redacted] whom he seemed to know. The conversation seemed to concern questions about married life and [redacted] responses. She understood that [redacted] had been recently married.

There may have been another individual in the store or in its vicinity that [redacted] was conversing with; she could not be sure about that. She did not see how [redacted] arrived at the store, nor how he departed.

by SA [redacted] /df Date dictated 2/23/93

Between one half hour and one hour of the time [REDACTED] left store, she received a phone call at the store from an individual that she presumed was [REDACTED] wife. That woman, who did not identify herself, did not seem angry, just upset and concerned. As best as [REDACTED] could recall, the woman stated that her husband had just purchased a box of COCOA PUFFS cereal at the store and that he (her husband) was now very sick. The woman mentioned that there something green in the cereal, but did not elaborate on that statement. The woman recommended that she [REDACTED] take all the other boxes of COCOA PUFFS cereal off of the shelf and told [REDACTED] that she was taking her husband to the hospital. There was some sound in the background; however, she could not tell if it was person's voice or a radio or television.

To her recollection, the woman caller did not mention anything about an ambulance being in attendance.

b6
b7C

After receiving that phone call, [REDACTED] went to the cereal shelf and removed the remaining two boxes of COCOA PUFFS cereal from the shelf and put them on a desk in the back room. She then called [REDACTED] and told him of the call she had received; however, [REDACTED] was preoccupied with a card game. However, he must have told his wife as she called a short time later. She again related the text of the woman's call.

The following day, she left for a vacation in Virginia. Later, after her return to New Hampshire from Virginia, she learned that officials from the State of New Hampshire had taken the cereal, and that the GENERAL MILLS COMPANY Representative from Boston had visited the store to make sure that all of the cereal had been removed from the shelves.

After learning more about the situation after her return to work, [REDACTED] questioned [REDACTED] about the identity of the person who had purchased the cereal. [REDACTED] though familiar with that person, as was [REDACTED] herself, only knew the individual as [REDACTED]. Later she would learn that his last name was [REDACTED] which she recognized, possibly from having cashed checks for [REDACTED] in the past.

Though she did not know [REDACTED] name at the time he came in to make the purchase of cereal, she had recognized him immediately as an occasional customer in the store.

[REDACTED] was shown a photograph of [REDACTED] taken on February 18, 1993. [REDACTED] immediately identified [REDACTED] as the individual who had come into CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE on February 14, 1993 and purchased a box of COCOA PUFFS cereal. [REDACTED] indicated her identification of [REDACTED] by placing her initials and the date of interview on the back of the photograph. The above mentioned photograph has been entered into evidence.

A purchase was made at GEORGES SUPERMARKET, Main Street, Enfield, New Hampshire, of two boxes of d-CON MOUSE-PROOF II RODENT POISON, marked .99¢ each.

The above boxes were purchased and shown to GEORGES SUPERMARKET [REDACTED]

Both individuals identified the above boxes as being the same type of mice poison as the box purchased by [REDACTED] on Sunday evening, February 14, 1993.

The above boxes were predominantly yellow in color, with a wedge-shape, and marked net weight 1.5 ounces (43 grams).

One box of the above purchased boxes was opened by the Writer and was determined to contain numerous cylindrical-shaped pellets, predominantly green and white in color with occasional specks of orange.

The above mentioned boxes and the receipt for same have been entered into evidence.

[redacted] was contacted at her [redacted] GEORGES MARKET, Main Street, Enfield, New Hampshire. After being advised of the identity of the interviewing Agent and the nature of the interview, [redacted] provided the following information:

On the evening of Sunday, February 14, 1993, she was at her [redacted] and working in the rear of the store. During the latter part of the day, she recalled that she observed a regular visitor to the store, whose identity she did not know. This individual was a short, young, white male with brown hair. She saw him wandering among the aisles of the store as if he was looking for a particular item. He seemed perplexed so she asked him if she could help him find what he was looking for. The individual said "I'm looking for something to kill mice". She told him where he could find mice poison; he seemed perplexed, so she took him by the arm, as is her custom, to the front of the store, directly in front of the cash register, and pointed out mice repellent in small packages. She saw him pick up one small package of mice repellent and get in line for the cash register. She then returned to where she was working.

Though the store was crowded that day, she specifically remembered the above incident.

Detach along this line. Give the top part of this form to employer; keep the lower part for your records.

Changes You Should Note.—The value of each withholding allowance has increased to $1,040 and the income tax brackets have expanded to reflect indexing. Therefore, income tax withholding has decreased. If you claim withholding allowances for deductions and credits, you should check to be sure that enough tax is being withheld.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice.—If you do not give your employer a certificate, you will be treated as a single person with no withholding allowances as required by law. We ask for this information to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. We may give the information to the Dept. of Justice for civil or criminal litigation and to the States and the District of Columbia for use in administering their tax laws.

Purpose.—The law requires that you complete Form W-4 so that your employer can withhold Federal income tax from your pay. Your Form W-4 remains in effect until you change it or, if you entered "EXEMPT" on line 6b above, until February 15 of next year. By correctly completing this form, you can fit the amount of tax withheld from your wages to your tax liability.

If you got a large refund last year, you may be having too much tax withheld. If so, you may want to increase the number of your allowances on line 4 by claiming any other allowances you are entitled to. The kinds of allowances, and how to figure them, are explained in detail below.

If you owed a large amount of tax last year, you may not be having enough tax withheld. If so, you can claim fewer allowances on line 4, or ask that an additional amount be withheld on line 5, or both.

If the number of withholding allowances you are entitled to claim decreases to less than you are now claiming, you must file a new W-4 with your employer within 10 days.

The instructions below explain how to fill in Form W-4. Publication 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax, contains more information on withholding. You can get it from most IRS offices.

For more information about who qualifies as your dependent, what deductions you can take, and what tax credits you qualify for, see the Form 1040 Instructions.

You may be fined $500 if you file, with no reasonable basis, a W-4 that results in less tax being withheld than is properly allowable. In addition, criminal penalties apply for willfully supplying false or fraudulent information or failing to supply information requiring an increase in withholding.

Line-By-Line Instructions

Fill in the identifying information in Boxes 1 and 2. If you are married and want tax withheld at the regular rate for married persons, check "Married" in Box 3. If you are married and want tax withheld at the higher Single rate (because both you and your spouse work, for example), check "Married, but withhold at higher Single rate" in Box 3.

Line 4 of Form W-4

Total number of allowances.—Use the worksheet on page 2 to figure your allowances. Add the number of allowances for each category explained below. Enter the total on line 4.

If you are single and hold more than one job, you may not claim the same allowances with more than one employer at the same time. If you are married and both you and your spouse are employed, you may not both claim the same allowances with both of your employers at the same time. To have the highest amount of tax withheld, claim "0" allowances on line 4.

A. Personal allowances.—You can claim the following personal allowances:

1 for yourself, 1 if you are 65 or older, and 1 if you are blind.

If you are married and your spouse either does not work or is not claiming his or her allowances on a separate W-4, you may also claim the following allowances: 1 for your spouse, 1 if your spouse is 65 or older, and 1 if your spouse is blind.

B. Special withholding allowance.—Claim the special withholding allowance if you are single and have one job or you are married, have one job, and your spouse does not work. You may still claim this allowance so long as the total wages earned on other jobs by you or your spouse (or both) is 10% or less of the combined total wages. Use this special withholding allowance only to figure your withholding. Do not claim it when you file your return.

C. Allowances for dependents.—You may claim one allowance for each dependent you will be able to claim on your Federal income tax return.

Note: If you are not claiming any deductions or credits or income averaging, skip D and E, add lines A, B, and C, enter the total on line F and carry the total over to line 4 of Form W-4.

Note: Before you claim allowances under D and E, total your non-wage taxable income (interest, dividends, self-employment income, etc.) and subtract this amount from estimated deductions you would otherwise enter in D1. If your non-wage income is greater than the amount of estimated deductions, you cannot claim any allowances under D. Moreover, you should take one-third of the excess (non-wage income over estimated deductions) and add this to the appropriate "A" value in Table 1 if determining allowances under E.

D. Allowances for estimated deductions.

If you expect to itemize deductions, you may be entitled to additional withholding allowances. You may also use net losses shown on Schedules C, D, E, and F (Form 1040), the last line of Part II of Form 4797, any net operating loss carryover, charitable contributions for nonitemizers, and adjustments to income (such as IRA or Keogh contributions, employee business expenses, alimony payments, etc.). See Schedule A (Form 1040) for deductions you can itemize and see the Adjustments to Income section on page 1 of Form 1040 for a list of adjustments. Do not include reimbursed moving expenses or IRA contributions made by your employer unless income tax has been withheld on them by your employer. If no tax has been withheld on them and you claim additional allowances for them, you will be underwithheld. For details, see Publication 505.

The deduction allowed a married couple when both work is 10% of the lesser of $30,000 or the qualified earned income of the spouse with the lower income.

Once you have determined these deductions, enter the total on line D1 of the worksheet on page 2 and figure the number of withholding allowances for them.

E. Allowances for tax credits.—If you expect to take credits like those shown on the 1984 Form 1040 (child care, residential energy, etc.), use the table on the top of page 2 to figure the number of additional allowances you can claim. You may estimate these credits. Include the earned income credit only if you are not receiving advance payment of it. Also, if you expect to income average, include the amount of the reduction in tax because of averaging and any excess social security tax withheld when using the table.

POTENTIAL ECONOMIC LOSS TO GENERAL MILLS IF RECALL OF COCO PUFFS BECAME NECESSARY

If General Mills were to recall Coco Puffs from the New England States, the following costs would be incurred based on shipments in December, January and up to February 18.

30,200 Cases --	$1,445,900
Transportation Costs --	$16,000
Collection Costs --	$5,000
Total	$1,466,900

We cannot accurately estimate the potential loss of consumer confidence which would result in the loss of sales and market share, but it would be in the millions of dollars, based on other tampering cases.

b6
b7C

COSTS INVOLVED IN REACTING TO THE ALLEGED TAMPERING

A large number of departments and personnel were involved in reacting to the tampering in New Hampshire. They include:

- Quality Control
- Security
- Public Relations
- Law
- Insurance/Risk Management
- Consumer Services

At the production plant in West Chicago, IL where the Coco Puffs were produced, a number of management personnel were also involved in reacting to the tampering. They were:

- Plant Manager
- Quality Control Manager
- Production Manager
- Warehouse Manager
- Security/Sanitation Manager

Based on the time spent and salaries of the General Mills personnel at Corporate Headquarters and the production plant, the estimated costs are:

Corporate Headquarters	$6,500
West Chicago Plant	$2,600
Total	$9,100

Enfield Man Allegedly Put Rat Poison in Cereal

By PAULA TRACY
Union Leader Staff

CONCORD — A 24-year-old Enfield man was charged yesterday with consumer product tampering, after he allegedly purchased a box of breakfast cereal, mixed it with rat poison and began eating it Sunday.

Federal law enforcement officials said Benjamin L. Gilliland of 9 Daniel Acres, Enfield, disclosed to them that his plan was to sue the manufacturer of the product for damages.

Consumer product tampering is a felony punishable by up to five years in jail and $25,000 in fines.

According to the warrant, issued yesterday in U.S. District Court, here, Gilliland went to a store in Enfield and purchased a box of Cocoa Puffs cereal, then went to another store in Enfield and purchased rat poison. The warrant states Gilliland put the rat poison in the box of cereal, and began to consume the product.

State health officials said they were notified of the matter by officials at Dartmouth-Hitchcock Medical Center in Lebanon, where an Enfield resident had gone for treatment, complaining of vomiting. They did not disclose the identity of the person involved, but said an Enfield resident had been treated at the hospital after arriving vomiting, and holding the box of cereal in his hands.

Both state health officials and the FBI contacted General Mills, manufacturer of Cocoa Puffs, but stressed that they believed it was an isolated matter.

William J. McMullin, special agent and spokesman for the FBI in Boston, said the agency was involved because General Mills is engaged in interstate commerce and tampering with a consumer product is a federal offense.

The FBI was called into the case earlier in the week and began questioning the victim involved.

"He indicated he intended to sue General Mills for damages," McMullin said.

General Mills officials said they searched manufacturing facilities to find any contaminant but could find nothing.

No recall was ever initiated or requested by health officials.

Peter Spokes, spokesman for General Mills, said he had not heard from the victim involved, but had been made aware Thursday night by the FBI that the matter was a hoax.

"Obviously, we're glad the person is fine and there is no problem with our product," he said yesterday.

On the evening of February 14, 1993, [REDACTED] telephonically contacted the Enfield, New Hampshire Emergency Medical Service to request an ambulance for her husband, [REDACTED] [REDACTED] who, she advised, was choking.

An ambulance and Emergency Medical Technicians (EMT's) responded to the [REDACTED] residence at [REDACTED] [REDACTED] There, [REDACTED] and his wife told the responding EMT's that [REDACTED] had become ill after consuming a box of COCOA PUFFS cereal and that they [REDACTED] had found what appeared to be rodent poison in the box of cereal. [REDACTED] was transported by ambulance to the DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER, Lebanon, New Hampshire. At the emergency room there, [REDACTED] complained of symptoms of shortness of breath, severe headache and indicated that he had undergone severe vomiting at his residence prior to the arrival of the EMT's. He again indicated that he had become severely ill after consuming the cereal, which he had purchased earlier in the day at CATHY AND DON'S COUNTRY STORE, Route 4, Enfield, New Hampshire. Attempts were made to pump [REDACTED] stomach; this caused a gag reflex and vomiting on [REDACTED] part; the vomit was collected for later examination. [REDACTED] was examined and released with instructions to report the following day for blood tests. Examination by hospital personnel and subsequently by New Hampshire State Public Health Officials determined approximately 346 cylindrical pellets of unknown origin or composition, described as green with white specks, in dimensions of 1/8 to 1 inch long and 1/16 to 1/8 inch wide, similar in appearance to rodent bait, in the box of cereal. Also in the box of cereal was one piece of autoclave quality assurance tape, 4 to 6 inches by 1 inch, a heat sensitive testing tape used to determine the effectiveness of heat sterilization of medical instruments.

Three hundred forty-six (346) pellets amounted to approximately two adult handfuls of pellets in the cereal box.

The following day, [REDACTED] appeared for blood work, as scheduled, and complained at that time of dizziness and headache; however, blood samples were taken and were negative for toxicants. [REDACTED] at that time, indicated that he was preparing to consult with an attorney to file a claim against the manufacturer of COCOA PUFFS, the GENERAL MILLS CORPORATION.

State Public Health Officials and a Consumer Safety Officer from the United States Food & Drug Administration went to the place of purchase and pulled the remaining two boxes of COCOA PUFFS cereal on the shelves there. One of the boxes was of the same lot as the suspect box and examination and opening of same was negative for tampering and contaminants. The second box was of a different lot number and was not opened because it did not bare any outside indications of tampering.

On Monday, February 15, 1993, [REDACTED] retained an attorney in Woodstock, Vermont, for the purposes of filing a claim against the GENERAL MILLS CORPORATION.

On February 17, 1993, the matter concerning [REDACTED] was reported to the Concord, New Hampshire Resident Agency of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI). On same date, the matter attracted media attention. On the same evening, the Enfield, New Hampshire Police Department (EPD) received a telephone call from [REDACTED] close friend of [REDACTED] and the first responding EMT to [REDACTED] house on the evening of February 14, 1993. [REDACTED] indicated to the Chief of Police of the EPD that [REDACTED] had concocted the above situation to cover up a suicide attempt on his part.

On Thursday, February 18, 1993, [REDACTED] was interviewed by the FBI and EPD, and initially provided information indicating that he had attempted suicide on the evening of February 14, 1993 and by purchasing rodent poison and COCOA PUFFS, mixing them together and eating same. Later in the interview, however, [REDACTED] confessed that his sole purpose in concocting the matter was to obtain a monetary settlement from the manufacturer of COCOA PUFFS, and that, in all likelihood, he had not eaten any poison, and that any symptoms he presented with were merely the results of panic and fear.

b6

On the following day, an authorized complaint was filed before United States Magistrate WILLIAM H. BARRY, District of New Hampshire, Concord, charging [REDACTED] with a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1365, Subsection (C)(1) - Making a False Report of Consumer Product Tampering. On the same date, [REDACTED] was arrested without incident at his residence by the FBI, and was brought before United States Magistrate BARRY, where he was released pending trial on a $5,000 unsecured bond.

Investigation to date has confirmed [REDACTED] purchase of the rodent poison at a separate store in Enfield. Additional investigation is being conducted to determine if any other individuals were involved with [REDACTED] in this matter.

[REDACTED] is described as follows:

Race:	White
Sex:	Male
Date of Birth:	[REDACTED]
Place of Birth:	[REDACTED]
Social Security Account Number:	[REDACTED]
Height:	5'7"
Weight:	150 pounds

PURPOSE:

The purpose of this communication is to obtain SAC authorization for the polygraph examination of [REDACTED] at the Concord Resident Agency on Wednesday, 3/3/93.

BACKGROUND:

Attached for background information are FD-302s regarding interviews of [REDACTED]

On 2/14/93, at approximately 7:15 p.m., [REDACTED] telephoned the local 911 medical services number to report that her husband, [REDACTED] was choking.

[REDACTED] a close friend of [REDACTED] was the first EMT to respond; in fact [REDACTED] admitted having been called some ten minutes earlier by [REDACTED]

When the ambulance arrived, [REDACTED] and his wife advised [REDACTED] and the other EMTs that he [REDACTED] had become sick after eating a box of Cocoa Puffs cereal, and had found small green pellets inside the box.

[REDACTED] initially, reported that he had vomited twice at his residence, and was suffering from a severe headache, nausea, shortness of breath, a "funny" feeling around his heart.

[REDACTED] was released and told to report the next day, 2/15/93, for blood tests. Same exam was undertaken, with negative results for any known toxicants.

[redacted] on the same day, retained the services of a Woodstock, Vermont attorney for the purposes of suing GENERAL MILLS, the Cocoa Puffs manufacturer. This matter attracted TV, radio, and print media attention.

On 2/17/93, [redacted] and [redacted] became aware that the matter was being investigated by the FBI.

On that day, according to [redacted] he was contacted by [redacted] wife, [redacted] who informed him that poisoning had, in fact, been a suicide attempt. [redacted] took it upon himself to have [redacted] admitted to the Psychological Services Unit of DARTMOUTH HITCHCOCK MEDICAL CENTER, where [redacted] was eventually seen by a psychiatrist.

[redacted] then, late in the evening telephonically contacted the Enfield, New Hampshire Police Department (EPD), and informed them that [redacted] in fact, had tried to commit suicide over his despondency over medical bills and the recent death of his father. He noted that [redacted] had been talking in his sleep to his deceased grandfather.

On 2/18/93, [redacted] was interviewed by the FBI and initially corroborated [redacted] statement about an attempted suicide. He initially stated that he had left his house at 7:00 p.m. in order to commit suicide, and the thought of poison only came into his head at that time. He denied meeting with anyone or plotting the matter with anyone, and stated that he had, in fact, vomited twice into the sink, and had the symptoms that the had, in fact, reported to the medical authorities. He denied ever talking in his sleep.

However, after intense interview, [redacted] finally admitted the following points:

- 1) That he had concocted the entire idea as a scheme to sue GENERAL MILLS CORPORATION for a substantial amount of money;
- 2) That he had never vomited at all, but had merely gagged in order to attract his wife's attention, inducing her to call 911;
- 3) That he had actually left his home at 6:00 p.m. that evening.

[redacted] did continue to deny that he had conspired with any other individual.

b6
b7C

On 2/19/93, [redacted] was arrested by FBI Agents for violation of Title 18, USC, Section 1365(c)(1) - False Claim of Product Tampering. [redacted] was interviewed the same day, and denied any conspiracy with [redacted] in order to collect monetary damages from the GENERAL MILLS CORPORATION. However, [redacted] was intensely interviewed for approximately 2 hours, and at that time, admitted that he might have been visited by [redacted] on the morning of the incident, though he could not be sure. [redacted] also stated that he had clearly observed two wet spots from where [redacted] had vomited on the floor, though his wife had cleaned it up prior to [redacted] arrival. [redacted] also stated that he observed vomit on [redacted] shirt. This last statement has been contradicted by the two other ambulance attendants and by [redacted] himself, in that he admitted that he did not vomit at all.

b6
b7C

[redacted] when interviewed, initially denied having much to do with the filing ambulance reports (run sheets), but admitted late into the interview that the majority of the run sheet and accompanying report would have been in his handwritten, indicating that he was the primary care provider during the ambulance run. Further, [redacted] instructed other EMTs present that [redacted] pulse was rapid and irregular, and ordered the use of oxygen therapy. However, [redacted] could not remember if he took other vital signs as well.

[redacted] absence of recollection concerning the emergency care rendered to his best friend is suspect at best. [redacted] in his capacity as an EMT, was in a unique and excellent position to bolster [redacted] false claim of accidental poisoning for the purposes of obtaining monetary compensation from the GENERAL MILLS CORPORATION.

When [redacted] was interviewed, he was confronted on several discrepancies, though not the matter of the vomit. [redacted] hands were visibly shaking during the interview, and at one point, [redacted] broke down and began to openly sob.

[redacted] has consented to polygraph examination on Wednesday, 3/3/93, at 10:00 a.m., at the Concord Resident Agency; AUSA [redacted] has authorized the use of a polygraph examination in this regard.

Chief's Corner

• A good friend called last week and asked that we write about the law governing plowing snow into the roadway. Well, there is a law which prohibits the placement or plowing of snow into the travel portion of a roadway. It is codified as RSA 236:20 and is titled Snow Obstruction. It seems that we have several people who are plowing their driveways or parking areas and depositing the snow in the highway. At some locations, there is just no place to pile the snow. And they saw more storms on the way! The department has had several complaints from motorists who have run into snow plowed into the roadway. It is dangerous, especially after the temperatures drop and the snow turns to an icy glob.

Another problem which surfaced with the heavy snow accumulation is the parking of vehicles along the road. It is true that in many places, particularly along Routes 4 and 4A, parking is extremely limited. However, recent changes in the law place increasing responsibilities on highway crews and law enforcement agencies. The bottom line is that if the plow crews request the removal of a vehicle which is parked in the state right-of-way, the vehicle will be towed. It is important to remember that personal convenience must give way to the safety of the public.

Rural postal customers are reminded to make certain the carrier can reach your mailbox. If you are aware of a handicapped or elderly person who needs help clearing the area near the mailbox or around their home exits - please let us know.

Our list for such projects needs to be updated. Currently, we have several citizens sentenced to community service projects who are most willing to work.

• It was a pleasure to work with the Federal Bureau of Investigation on a case in Town this past week. The agents came to Town, shared the information with us and everyone worked as an efficient team. The FBI did most of the work which led to an arrest in the Cocoa Puff caper. While the case sounded simple, it did have a potential financial impact, both locally and nationally.

This experience came shortly after reading a review of the recently published book on Mr. Hoover. It appears that the book trivializes Mr. Hoover's life and may be based on stories of the dead. It is important to note his many accomplishments, the

On 22 February 93 at 1505 hours the listed individual was interviewed by this writer:

[REDACTED] recalls the ambulance run to the [REDACTED] residence on 16 February. She did not enter the dwelling, but stayed in the ambulance. She said that [REDACTED] came into the ambulance with H<sub>2</sub>O<sub>2</sub> applied. As the ambulance was leaving the TP, she stated that [REDACTED] said to the effect "General Mills will pay for this."

[REDACTED] informed me that [REDACTED] said that he was called first. He went on to stated that [REDACTED] wife had called Cathi & Dons and someone there said that they would remove the Cocoa Puffs from the shelve.

On being asked by this writer on the condition of [REDACTED] she replied that he did not seem that bad. That he was conscious and that he stated at one time that he was nauseous. Just prior to the arrival at DMHC [REDACTED] complained of a pain or discomfort in his throat. She did not observe any fluids on him. She does recall joking about the Cocoa Puffs with the green things on the way back from the hospital.

I asked her about the meeting at 1900 hours at her house the following day. She recalled that [REDACTED] did talk about the run and that the cause was Rat Poisoning. She also said that [REDACTED] informed the Squad that [REDACTED] had a relapse at the hospital.

The interview was terminated at 1527 hours.

Cereal-Tampering Charge Brings Home Confinement

CONCORD (AP) — An Enfield man who pleaded guilty to tampering with a box of cereal was sentenced yesterday to six months of incarceration at his home, Assistant U.S. Attorney Michael Connolly said.

Benjamin Gilliland, 24, admitted putting rat poison in a box of Cocoa Puffs in February and then claiming that he got sick after eating the cereal. Gilliland contacted a lawyer about suing General Mills, Connolly said.

Connolly credited quick work by the FBI to head off an unnecessary product recall by the cereal-maker. "It could have caused a nationwide problem," Connolly said.

Connolly said Gilliland also got a three-year suspended sentence and must perform 300 hours of community service.

Suspects Face More Charges In Armed Raid

By PAULA TRACY
Union Leader Staff

LACONIA — The three armed assailants who entered a Gilford residence early Sunday morning had planned to kill three of the occupants, authorities said last night.

Detective Russell Pallas said new charges were brought last night against Chandra Chowanec, 26, of Columbia, Conn., and her alleged accomplices in the commando-style attack, Gretchen L. Davidson, 25, and Craig Davidson, 35.

Each suspect was charged with one count of conspiracy to commit murder and with three counts of attempted first-degree murder, Pallas said. They were charged in their individual jail cells in Laconia at about 8:20 p.m., he said.

Plymouth District Judge Edwin Kelly then ordered bail increased from $100,000 to $500,000 cash on each of the suspects.

The three suspects originally faced charges of kidnapping, burglary and felonious use of firearms. The kidnapping charges stemmed from the detention of the occupants against their will, not an attempt to abduct anyone, officials said.

Pallas said the new charges stem from additional information about the crime that was gathered during an exhaustive investigation yesterday. He indicated that the evidence led authorities to conclude that the attackers planned to kill Scott McDuffee, Chowanec's former husband, and his parents, David and Mary Ellen McDuffee.

Pallas would not be more specific about the new evidence.

Arraignment on the new charges is scheduled in Laconia District Court this morning at 8:30.

GENERAL MILLS, INC. • EXECUTIVE OFFICES

Number One General Mills Boulevard • Minneapolis, Minnesota

POTENTIAL ECONOMIC LOSS TO GENERAL MILLS IF RECALL OF COCO PUFFS BECAME NECESSARY

If General Mills were to recall Coco Puffs from the New England States, the following costs would be incurred based on shipments in December, January and up to February 18.

30,200 Cases --	$1,445,900
Transportation Costs --	$16,000
Collection Costs --	$5,000
Total	$1,466,900

We cannot accurately estimate the potential loss of consumer confidence which would result in the loss of sales and market share, but it would be in the millions of dollars, based on other tampering cases.

COSTS INVOLVED IN REACTING TO THE ALLEGED TAMPERING

A large number of departments and personnel were involved in reacting to the tampering in New Hampshire. They include:

- Quality Control
- Security
- Public Relations
- Law
- Insurance/Risk Management
- Consumer Services

b6
b7C

At the production plant in West Chicago, IL where the Coco Puffs were produced, a number of management personnel were also involved in reacting to the tampering. They were:

- Plant Manager
- Quality Control Manager
- Production Manager
- Warehouse Manager
- Security/Sanitation Manager

Based on the time spent and salaries of the General Mills personnel at Corporate Headquarters and the production plant, the estimated costs are:

Corporate Headquarters	$6,500
West Chicago Plant	$2,600
Total	$9,100

Mailing Address: P. O. Box 1113, Minneapolis, Minnesota 5544
