Re Los Angeles letter dated 8/5/66.

By telephone pretext on 9/14/66, SA LEON J. MEYER posing as an independent producer of television travel shows, interested in subject's services, obtained the following information from [redacted]

Subject, although highly interested in and spending a lot of time doing sky diving, actually earns most of his income as an aerial photographer. Subject has access to a number of aircraft, is a skilled pilot, generally operates out of the Elsinore, California Airport, and has done the aerial photography for a number of movie and television specials. Subject has also done extensive aerial photography in Mexico. It was also determined that CAMERON is currently in Bulgaria with the United States Parachute Team, and is serving as a judge for the United States Sky Diving Team in international competition. CAMERON is not expected to return to the United States until October 1, 1966.

LYLE HAZEN CAMERON

Reference is made to memorandum dated August 5, 1966, captioned as above.

Lyle Hazen Cameron, 15346 San Bruno Drive, La Mirada, California, was interviewed by Special Agents of the FBI on November 15, 1966, and advised as follows:

Cameron stated he is editor of "Sky Diver" magazine which he publishes from his residence. He stated he is also an aerial photographer as well as a pilot. He has done aerial photography work for the movie and television industry. However, his main occupation is connected with parachute jumping or, as it is popularly termed, sky diving. He stated he is currently Chairman and member of the Executive Board of the Parachute Clubs of America, which organization represents the United States in international competition. In this capacity he has participated in the past three world championships both as a coach and as a judge. He stated he is internationally known as a sky diver and is acquainted with most of the sky diving officials in such countries as Russia, Yugoslavia, Czechoslovakia, Bulgaria and East Germany.

In this regard Cameron stated he recently returned from Europe where he judged a number of international meetings, including the Golden Sands Meet in Bulgaria. He stated he also attended the world championships which were held in Leipzig, East Germany. He stated the United States State Department would not permit the United States team to participate but he attended primarily as a scout.

Cameron stated that, although he has had contacts with numerous officials and nationals from Russia and other iron curtain countries, he has never been contacted for intelligence or espionage purposes. He stated that he occasionally has contact with iron curtain nationals in the United States and in this regard he cited the following instance: (S) (U)

[redacted] stated his name was [redacted] and indicated he was representing various Russian aircraft manufacturers in the United States. He stated that [redacted] was a Master Sport in sky diving in Russia. He also stated that he was a Master Sport in motorcycle racing himself. Enroute to Cameron's home [redacted] noticed a motorcycle shop and asked Cameron to stop, which they did, and examined several imported motorcycles. Cameron then drove [redacted] to his residence, gave him the specific past issues of "Sky Diver" magazine which he requested, and then drove him to Los Angeles. They stopped in Hollywood for dinner and Cameron returned [redacted] to his hotel. The only request [redacted] made was to visit Ascot Park, a motorcycle racing park in Gardena, California, a suburb of Los Angeles. When advised of the location of the park [redacted] stated that he was not permitted to travel there. (S) (U)

Cameron stated that [redacted] indicated he would do what he could to furnish prices and specifications on a Russian commercial biplane which Cameron is interested in. According to Cameron this biplane is far superior to any American built plane for crop dusting and parachute jumping. (S) (U)

Cameron stated that shortly after [redacted] visit he left for Europe and has not heard from him since, although he, Cameron, wrote him a letter several weeks ago inquiring about the AN-2 biplane and is expecting an answer from [redacted]. (S) (U) area. At approximately 4:30 PM, a blue Chevrolet panel truck, license P 21445 arrived. It appeared that subject recognized the truck from a distance, and obviously recognized the lone occupant. They greeted each other effusively, and subject left in the truck. inquiry made through LT. [REDACTED]

Because of information set forth in LHM, 9/27/66
at Buffalo, New York, captioned LYLE HAZEN CAMERON to effect that according to a newspaper clipping dated, 4/23/52 in his credit record at Buffalo, subject had his license revoked because he passed a red light and had 4 previous traffic violations, Lt. [REDACTED] of Buffalo PD rechecked the Buffalo PD Identification Department records but still could find no type of traffic arrest or violation nor any other type of arrest for subject. He stated it is possible the 4 previous traffic violations may have been incurred outside of the Buffalo area and were recorded on his driver's license and that the violation on which the license revocation was made could have occurred outside the local area.

On 2/21/68, AUSA JAMES E. SHEKOYAN authorized seizure of the three cartons on the grounds that there was sufficient probable cause to assume it was government property.

LYLE H. CAMERON (a current PSI) assigned in the Los Angeles Division was interviewed on 2/26/68 and advised that about two weeks ago, he, together with [REDACTED], agreed to have [REDACTED] "scrounge" for surplus survival material ready for disposal in order to use it for trading at a surplus location for the purpose of obtaining parachute harnesses which would be used at the North Island Navy Parachute Club. that [ ] was a career Navyman with thirteen years of unblemished service and that all the items taken could have been given him for personal use on mere submission of a requisition slip. Also, [ ] Commanding Officer advised that while [ ] had technically committed a theft, the value of the items and the nature of the theft did not seem to warrant a conviction that would ruin [ ] career in the United States Navy. United States Commissioner SCHMOCK requested that the plea of guilty be withdrawn and that a plea of not guilty be made. [ ] then pled not guilty and the complaint was dismissed.

FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION

Date 3/1/68

LYLE HAZEN CAMERON voluntarily appeared in the Los Angeles FBI Office. A rights and waiver form was displayed to him which form he read, indicated he understood and signed.

He examined the contents of three cardboard cartons obtained from the Greyhound Bus Depot and advised that approximately two weeks previously he, together with [redacted], agreed to have [redacted] obtain old surplus parts to be disposed of from the Naval Air Station, North Island, California. [redacted] was to send these surplus items by Greyhound Freight to CAMERON and in turn CAMERON was going to take these items to a surplus auction in Las Vegas, Nevada, during the week commencing February 26, 1968, and trade these items for parachute harnesses and possibly coverings used in parachuting. These parachute harnesses and coverings would all be turned over to the North Island Parachute Club and used exclusively by members of this club.

b7C

He explained this club is supported by private funds but operates under the authority and approval of the Navy Department on Navy premises, and its members are exclusively Naval personnel on active duty.

CAMERON explained that it was agreed between [redacted] and himself for [redacted] to scrounge usable material that would have been disposed of or destroyed anyway; and, therefore, he felt that this was not stealing Navy property. CAMERON met [redacted] at Point Mugu, California. They are both active in having interests in sky diving and parachuting.

CAMERON did not know the value of the items obtained by [redacted]

On February 26, 1968, the facts of this case were discussed with Assistant United States Attorney JAMES E. SHEKOYAN by Special Agent [redacted] after which Mr. SHEKOYAN advised he would decline prosecution concerning CAMERON in view of the lack of guilty intent on his part.

On March 19, 1968, [redacted]

[redacted] advised that the value of one can of "desalter kit" is $33 and one plastic container of "distillation kit" is $20. He estimated the value of a dye marker as $3, one sea anchor as $5, and the metal cap with the rubber top as .50¢ each. Based on the above valuation, the following schedule was prepared:
