56 pages were reviewed and 28 pages are being released.

☐ Document(s) were located which originated with, or contained information concerning, other Government Agency (ies) [OGA].

☐ This information has been referred to the OGA(s) for review and direct response to you.

☐ We are consulting with another agency. The FBI will correspond with you regarding this information when the consultation is completed.

☒ In accordance with standard FBI practice and pursuant to FOIA exemption (b)(7)(E) and Privacy Act exemption (j)(2) [5 U.S.C. § 552/552a (b)(7)(E)/(j)(2)], this response neither confirms nor denies the existence of your subject's name on any watch lists.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010)). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist. Enclosed for your information is a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under "Contact Us."

The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

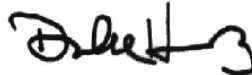

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP's FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following web site: <https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home>. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked "Freedom of Information Act Appeal." Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaquestions@ic.fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

☐ The enclosed material is from the main investigative file(s) in which the subject(s) of your request was the focus of the investigation. Our search located additional references, in files relating to other individuals, or matters, which may or may not be about your subject(s). Our experience has shown when ident, references usually contain information similar to the information processed in the main file(s). Because of our significant backlog, we have given priority to processing only the main investigative file(s). If you want the references, you must submit a separate request for them in writing, and they will be reviewed at a later date, as time and resources permit.

☒ See additional information which follows.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy
Section Chief

Enclosure(s)

In response to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request, enclosed is a processed copy of the responsive documents. The enclosed documents represent the final release of information responsive to your FOIA request. This material is being provided to you at no charge.

To minimize costs to both you and the FBI, duplicate copies of the same document were not processed.

EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

- (b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;
- (b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;
- (b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;
- (b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;
- (b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;
- (b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;
- (b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;
- (b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or
- (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

- (d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;
- (j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;
- (k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;
- (k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;
- (k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;
- (k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;
- (k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service the release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;
- (k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

RECEIVED-FBI

I. PURPOSE

The FD-610 is designed to promptly provide FBIHQ with a complete set of pertinent facts for each Civil Rights case investigated by the FBI. Data is directly entered into a computer which will assist in more effective, efficient, and economical management of the Civil Rights Program by FBIHQ and the field. Each office MUST correctly complete ALL items requested on the form either on the initial submission, or later by supplemental submission prior to the close of the case. Title changes should be submitted by report or FD-610, whichever is more appropriate.

II. WHEN TO SUBMIT

The FD-610 is to be submitted in all cases supervised by the Civil Rights Unit, which include the following classifications: 44-CR; 50-ISS; 173-CRA 1964; 177-DIH; 187-Privacy Act of 1974-Criminal; 189-EOA; 204-FRS; 214-CRIPA. The FD-610 should be, in most cases, the initial communication advising FBIHQ of the initiation of the investigation. In all instances, the FD-610 should be submitted within 5 working days of receipt of the complaint; however, the urgency of the situation may require a prior telephone call or teletype to FBIHQ.

III. DESCRIPTION AND REQUIREMENTS REGARDING ITEM #4 ON THE FD-610

Initial - Should be checked if it is the first FD-610 submitted in the case. Every attempt should be made to provide all the information required on the initial submission; however, the initial submission of the FD-610 should not be held in abeyance while awaiting data which will be obtained on a later date. The auxiliary office (AO) should submit the initial FD-610 when they receive the original complaint with two copies designated to the office of origin.

Supplemental - This should be checked whenever a subsequent FD-610 is submitted. When submitting a supplemental FD-610, provide data only for those items requiring a change. Instances requiring a supplemental submission are: when previously unknown data is obtained, data was previously omitted, or data was previously incorrectly reported. The supplemental FD-610 should be used as the cover communication for the submission of LHMs.

IV. SIGNIFICANT CASE

Significant cases are those receiving extensive media attention, involving a prominent individual or involving FBI personnel as the subject or victim. Significant cases are also those wherein FBI investigation has determined the allegations to be serious and substantial thus warranting a full investigation. When prosecution becomes imminent, FBIHQ should be advised promptly and a supplemental FD-610 should be submitted designating the case "significant" if not already so designated.

This section deals with the interference of a citizen and a citizen's right to petition the U. S. Government.

On 4/10/89, [REDACTED] NETWORK SECURITY COMPANY, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is employed as a security guard at the residence of the victim, and that victim was presently in Los Angeles, California. He would forward a message to victim to call the FBI.

On 4/11/89, victim telephonically advised that she would come to the FBI Office in Dallas, Texas for an interview on 4/17/89. On 4/14/89, victim telephonically advised she would not be able to be interviewed on 4/17/89, and if the FBI still wanted an interview to re-contact her.

On 4/20/89, [REDACTED] again advised that victim was still out of the Dallas area.

b7C

On 4/27/89, [REDACTED] advised that victim is now at home but would be resting for approximately three days and will not see anyone. She advised that [REDACTED] victim will be available for an interview during the next week and they would re-contact the FBI to set up an appointment. She advised that victim had been traveling to California, New York, Washington, D.C., Austin, Texas, and back again to Washington, D.C. in the last month, in addition to working on public relation matters for her upcoming movie.

On 4/27/89, [REDACTED] Supervisor, Civil Rights Section, FBIHQ, was advised of the lack of cooperation of the victim to be interviewed. He advised to wait approximately one additional week and submit a closing report with the results of the DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT investigation in this matter.

Title: UNSUB(S);
NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY, aka
Jane Roe - VICTIM;

Character: CIVIL RIGHTS (A)

Synopsis: Victim advised the DALLAS POLICE DEPARTMENT (DPD), Dallas, Texas, that unknown subject(s) shot three shotgun blasts at her residence at approximately 4:45 a.m., on April 4, 1989. The blasts hit the rear window of her vehicle, a glass front window, and the wood front door of the residence. No injuries occurred and no threats have been received. DPD is investigating the matter and has no suspects or productive leads. Victim's arrest record obtained. AUSA, NDT, on April 5, 1989, advised it is his opinion that this matter is not a civil rights violation. On April 6, 1989, Section Chief, Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division, advised this matter may be a possible violation of Title 18, Section 241, U. S. Code (Interference of a Citizen and the Citizen's Right to Petition the U. S. Government). Numerous efforts to make appointments with victim for an interview have failed because victim will not make a commitment for an interview. FBI Headquarters has instructed no further efforts will be made to interview victim, and DPD investigation is to be forwarded.

- C -

DETAILS:

Investigation in this matter was instituted by a report in the Dallas Morning News newspaper in an article that victim's home was "hit" by shotgun blasts at approximately 4:45 a.m., on April 4, 1989. Victim is also known as JANE ROE of the landmark 1973 U. S. Supreme (continued)

DETAILS:

Court decision in ROE vs. WADE which allowed legal abortions. As a result of this article, contact was made with the DPD, which is investigating the incident as a vandalism matter.

On April 5, 1989, [redacted] DPD, advised that victim was temporarily residing at [redacted] which is owned by [redacted]

[redacted] On April 4, 1989, at approximately 4:30 a.m., three blasts from what was believed to be a .410 shotgun hit the rear window of victim's automobile, a glass front window, and the wood front door of the residence. No injuries were sustained by occupants of the home. NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY is described as a white female, date of birth September 22, 1947 [redacted]

The DPD has no suspects and MC CORVEY advised that she has received no threats of any type prior to this incident. She stated she is scheduled to travel to Washington, D.C. for an April 9, 1989 demonstration for abortion rights. She has no suspects to the incident and is immediately "going into hiding" and told DPD investigators that "I'm getting the hell out of Dodge". On April 5, 1989, [redacted] DPD Intelligence Division, advised his unit is attempting to make contact with victim to advise her of proper security precautions. A thorough neighborhood investigation by DPD disclosed that the only possible related incident was that three white males in a black over gray, relatively new, full size pickup truck were observed at 9:05 a.m., on April 3, 1989, in the neighborhood area. They were observed by [redacted]

[redacted] resides at [redacted] [redacted] heard the shotgun blasts on April 4, 1989, and looked out the window, soon thereafter, and observed what looked to be a pickup truck in the dark, no further description.

In the initial report to DPD, MC CORVEY advised this department that she was going to contact the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI). At no time has MC CORVEY initiated contact with the FBI at Dallas, Texas, except in response to Dallas FBI contacts with her.

On May 4, 1989, [redacted] DPD, advised that his department has developed no further information concerning the incident involving the shotgun blasts to the MC CORVEY residence.

On April 5, 1989, Assistant United States Attorney (AUSA) [REDACTED] Northern District of Texas, Dallas, Texas, advised that he did not believe that the incident involving shotgun blasts into the home of NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY constituted a civil rights violation. b6 b7C

On April 6, 1989, Supervisory Special Agent [REDACTED] FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION Headquarters, stated that LINDA KAY DAVIS, Section Chief, Criminal Section, Civil Rights Division, U. S. DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE, advised him that this incident may be a possible violation of Title 18, Section 241, U. S. Code. This section deals with the interference of a citizen and the citizen's right to petition the U. S. Government. b6 b7C

DL 44A-10755

Checks at the Dallas Office of the FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION disclosed no record for NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY or JANE ROE.

The following investigation was conducted at Dallas, Texas:

The following efforts were made to interview NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY:

On April 10, 1989, [REDACTED] NETWORK SECURITY COMPANY, Dallas, Texas, advised that he is employed as a security guard at the residence of NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY and that she is presently in Los Angeles, California. He would forward a message to MC CORVEY to call the FBI.

On April 11, 1989, MC CORVEY telephonically advised that she would come to the FBI office for an interview on April 17, 1989. On April 14, 1989, MC CORVEY telephonically advised that she would not be able to be interviewed on April 17, 1989, and if the FBI still wanted to interview her for them to re-contact her at a later date.

On April 20, 1989, [REDACTED] again advised that MC CORVEY was out of town.

b7C

On April 27, 1989, [REDACTED] advised that the victim is now at home but would be resting for approximately three days and will not see anyone. She advised that [REDACTED] MC CORVEY will be available for an interview during the next week and they would contact the FBI. She advised that MC CORVEY had been traveling to California, New York, Washington, D.C., Austin, Texas, and back to Washington, D.C. in the last month, in addition to working on public relations for her upcoming movie.

DETAILS:

Additional investigation in this matter was requested by letter dated July 17, 1989 by JAMES P. TURNER, Acting Assistant Attorney General, Civil Rights Division (CRD), Department of Justice. This request was to obtain all Dallas Texas Police Department reports concerning this incident, monitor any ongoing Dallas Police investigation, and to interview victim NORMA NELSON MC CORVEY if she becomes available.

On July 28, 1989 and August 18, 1989 [REDACTED] Dallas, Texas Police Department (DPD) Intelligence Division, advised that his department has no ongoing investigation into this matter. There is no active investigation and the case is still open to receive any information of value that would lead to the identification of person(s) responsible for shooting into the house of victim. No other DPD reports have been prepared to supplement the DPD Offense Incident Report dated April 4, 1989 that has previously been furnished to the FBI and DOJ. [REDACTED] stated that he last contacted MC CORVEY approximately mid July, 1989 at which time she advised him she has received no threats and would keep him informed if she received any threats. She was contacted at telephone 214-503-0249 (unlisted) which is located at her residence [REDACTED]
