Aaron Kohn, Managing Director of the Metropolitan Crime Commission, New Orleans, Louisiana, advised on May 4, 1967, that "Newsweek" magazine is planning an article which will expose some of the activities of the District Attorney for the Parish of Orleans, Louisiana, and his investigation of the alleged plot to assassinate President John Fitzgerald Kennedy. Kohn advised that on Monday, May 8, 1967, "Newsweek" magazine will publish an article which will allege that two witnesses have been intimidated by Garrison or Garrison's staff. Kohn advised that at the present time the magazine is waiting clearance to publish this article from the magazine's legal division.

We are in receipt of an allegation that District Attorney James C. Garrison may have committed a fraud against the Government and we must now decide how this allegation will be furnished to the Department and whether the Bureau should initiate a Fraud investigation. CRLEON PARISH, Louisiana

By airtel the New Orleans Office forwarded information received from Aaron Kohn, managing director of the Metropolitan Crime Commission in New Orleans. Generally, the information relates to some of the legal excesses of the Garrison investigation. Specifically, Kohn is alleged to have advised that he learned that District Attorney Garrison had been offered the opportunity of resigning his commission with the National Guard or facing military charges. Kohn advised that Garrison is alleged to have falsified his drill duty certifications for approximately six months for which he was paid. Mr. Kohn advised that Garrison might be in violation of Federal statutes for this alleged fraud.

In March, 1967, [REDACTED] of the U.S. Customs Service in New Orleans, advised that he received information that Garrison had been permitted to resign his commission in the National Guard as of the last week in February, 1967. [REDACTED] stated that it was his understanding that Garrison, who held the rank of lieutenant colonel, was falsifying his attendance records and claimed to be at "drill" when, in fact, he was not. [REDACTED] added that he did not know if this could be confirmed.

As reflected in memorandum 4-12-67, this information was supplied to Assistant Attorney General Vinson of the Criminal Division and Assistant Attorney General Yeagley of the Internal Security Division for information purposes and without highlighting.

MEMORANDUM FOR MR. SULLIVAN
RE: JAMES C. GARRISON

the possible fraud violation and without comment as to any action contemplated by the Bureau. At the same time, it was pointed out that any investigation of Garrison by us could well result in criticism of the Bureau and could be construed by Garrison and his associates as an attempt by the Bureau to impede Garrison's investigation of the assassination of President Kennedy.

OBSERVATIONS:

We have now received from two sources the same basic allegation of fraud in connection with Garrison's service in the Louisiana National Guard. The situation today is the same as existed in April, 1967. Any investigation of the fraud allegation by the Bureau would become known in the New Orleans area. Rightly or wrongly, the Bureau would be accused of trying to intimidate Garrison and engaging in the same tactics which are currently being charged to Garrison himself.

ACTION:

It is believed the Bureau's best course of action here would be to disseminate to Assistant Attorneys General Sanders, Vinson and Yeagley the information we have received since these individuals are the normal recipients of all data volunteered to the Bureau concerning the current Garrison investigation. It would not be in the Bureau's best interest to voluntarily institute a fraud investigation of Garrison at this time.

The article stated that Jim Garrison made a surprise appearance at a closed hearing of Criminal District Judge Malcolm V. O'hara who was on trial for allegedly attempting to obtain evidence to reverse federal court convictions of James Hoffa (72-1459). Garrison claimed he did not know why he was called and that he had nothing to do with the case. He stated he had never met Grady Partin, a Teamster official and the Justice Department's chief witness against Hoffa. Garrison became highly emotional and irrational and stated that when he was through there would be no doubt in anyone's mind about the conspiracy in the Federal Government, etc. [] stated if Garrison felt that way he would have to ask Garrison not to speak. The following references on James Garrison, District Attorney, Orleans Parish, Louisiana, appear in the file captioned "Assassination of President John Fitzgerald Kennedy, Dallas, Texas, 11/22/63". As early as December, 1966 to January, 1969 Garrison was involved in an independent investigation to expose errors in the Warren Report on the assassination and to prove that there was a conspiracy originating in New Orleans involving Cuban nationals with Harvey Oswald for the purpose of assassinating the President. Garrison was critical of the FBI, and feared that it would interfere with his investigation to the extent that he threatened to arrest any Agent caught becoming involved. Information indicated that Garrison was politically ambitious. He allegedly had connections with hoodlums and the La Cosa Nostra and used aliases when registering at hotels in Las Vegas and Los Angeles. CALIF. He was reportedly engaged in a shakedown racket involving homosexuals, and falsified his attendance records with the Louisiana National Guard. Garrison alleged that the FBI and the CIA cooperated in concealing facts (u)

SUBJECT: NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE ASSASSINATIONS

SYNOPSIS:

UPI release of 1-3-69 announced the formation of National Committee to Investigate Assassinations. Board members of the committee include Bernard Fensterwald; Jim Garrison, New Orleans District Attorney; William Turner, former FBI Agent; Fred J. Cook, author; Richard Sprague, a computer expert; Lloyd Tupling, Washington, D. C.; and Paris Flammonde, author of a book on assassinations, soon to be released.

Fensterwald, former Chief Counsel to Senator Long's committee on wiretapping, was subject of applicant-type inquiries conducted by Bureau in 1949 and 1959. The names of Fensterwald's mother appeared on a list of delegates and members in 1942 of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities. While employed by the State Department in 1956, Fensterwald and his mother traveled to the Soviet Union.

We have had considerable contact with Fensterwald over the past four years as Chief Counsel of the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary; Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure (the Long committee). In these contacts Fensterwald has clearly shown he is unscrupulous, untrustworthy and anti-FBI. RE: NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO

In December, 1965, it was obvious that Fensterwald had sent information to Fred Cook, longtime FBI critic, for article in "The Nation" by Cook dealing with wiretapping by Government agencies. Cook quoted Fensterwald as stating, "The thing that has impressed me most is the ease with which Federal agents can lie under oath."

Mr. DeLoach maintained close personal liaison with Senator Long regarding his committee hearings and it was necessary on occasion to contact him regarding letters written over Long's signature to the Bureau requesting certain information. One such instance was in December, 1967, regarding FBI contacts with credit unions. Long stated we should ignore the letter and he would instruct Fensterwald to "keep hands off" the FBI. On same occasion Senator Long advised Mr. DeLoach that Fensterwald had "shot off his mouth too much" in connection with two articles in "Life" magazine dealing with Senator Long which allegedly had been "planted" by Bobby Kennedy.

Fensterwald, who will be Executive Director of assassination committee, left his post as Chief Counsel for the Long committee last month, apparently when Long resigned as Senator in order to give his successor seniority when the present Senate went into session.

RE: NATIONAL COMMITTEE TO INVESTIGATE ASSASSINATIONS

DETAILS:

A UPI release on January 3, 1969, announced the formation of a new National Committee to Investigate Assassinations. According to Bernard Fensterwald, 47, of Arlington, Virginia, a board member, the committee's purpose is "to embarrass or force the Government to make investigations they have been putting off since November 22, 1963." According to Fensterwald, the committee will concentrate on the assassinations of President Kennedy, Senator Robert Kennedy and Dr. Martin Luther King. In addition to Fensterwald, other members were identified as Jim Garrison, New Orleans District Attorney; William Turner, former FBI Agent; Fred J. Cook, author; Richard Sprague, Hartsdale, New York, a computer expert; Lloyd Tupling, associated with the Sierra Club, Washington, D. C.; and Paris Flammonde, a New York writer who is the author of a book on assassinations, which is soon to be released.

Bernard Fensterwald: Fensterwald was born on August 2, 1921, at Nashville, Tennessee. He received the B. S. degree from Harvard College in 1942 and the LL. B. degree from Harvard Law School in 1949. He received the M. A. degree in 1950 from the School of Advanced International Studies, Washington, D. C.

Fensterwald was the subject of applicant-type inquiries conducted by the Bureau in 1949 and 1959. While generally favorable, the names of Mr. Fensterwald's mother [REDACTED] appeared on a list of delegates and members of the Southern Conference for Human Welfare, cited by the House Committee on Un-American Activities, at a meeting held on April 19-21, 1942, at Nashville, Tennessee. Fensterwald and his mother traveled to the Soviet Union in June, 1956, for a three-week vacation visit. At that time, Fensterwald was employed as a lawyer by the United States Department of State.

Fensterwald has been employed on the staffs of a number of Senate committees. In 1953 Fensterwald was employed by the Senate Subcommittee on Constitutional Rights (Henning Committee) and was involved in a request to the Bureau from this subcommittee for a list of instances wherein we had furnished information to members of Congress. Senator Henning subsequently advised the Bureau that Fensterwald's requests to the Bureau had been improper. Over the past four years we have had considerable contact with Bernard Fensterwald as Chief Counsel of the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary; Subcommittee on Administrative Practice and Procedure (the Long Committee). In these contacts with Fensterwald it was clearly evident he was unscrupulous, untrustworthy and anti-FBI. He frequently endeavored to draw the FBI into conflicts around the country by his requests of various telephone companies and other sources who might possibly have information of wiretaps and other technical surveillances by the FBI. In January, 1966, in connection with Fensterwald's hearings in San Francisco he indicated that [redacted] [redacted] would be one of the witnesses he intended to call in connection with the extent of FBI wiretapping. Mr. DeLoach briefed Fensterwald and Senator Long who was present at the time of the discussion with Fensterwald as to [redacted] unsavory background. Fensterwald indicated he would take a second look at [redacted] in view of the information furnished by Mr. DeLoach. [redacted] is reportedly [redacted]

"The Nation" magazine in December, 1965, carried an article by Fred J. Cook dealing with wiretapping by Government agencies, including the FBI. It was obvious Cook, a longtime FBI critic, had obtained the information for his article from Fensterwald whom he quoted several times. Typical of many of Fensterwald's utterances in connection with his assignment as Chief Counsel of Senator Long's committee was the statement, in "The Nation" magazine article, "The thing that has impressed me most is the ease with which Federal agents can lie under oath."

Mr. DeLoach maintained close personal liaison with Senator Long concerning the work of the FBI as it might pertain to inquiries conducted by his committee. On occasions letters directed to the FBI requesting certain information were handled orally by Mr. DeLoach with Senator Long who indicated that Fensterwald had prepared the letters. One such instance was in December, 1967, in connection with FBI contacts with credit unions. On that occasion, Senator Long stated we should ignore the letter and he would instruct Fensterwald to "keep hands off" the FBI. On the same occasion

Senator Long told Mr. DeLoach that Fensterwald has "shot off his mouth too much" in connection with two articles in "Life" magazine dealing with Senator Long which allegedly had been "planted" by Bobby Kennedy. According to the "Washington Post" of 1-3-69, Fensterwald will be the Executive Director of captioned committee. No guts

We believe the continued refusal of the legal profession to speak out against Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison says much about the quality of leadership in this community and across the state.

The Louisiana State Bar Association, for example, shrugs its shoulders and says it is powerless to disbar or take other disciplinary action against men such as Mr. Garrison.

The state attorney general has the power to act. But the mere thought of Jack P. F. Gremillion produces laughter rather than hope.

The Legislature, of course, has authority, too. But legislators, for political reasons, don't like to take action against other elected officials.

By failing to act, however, those in positions of authority are lending their support to a man who has shown he will not hesitate to persecute an innocent man, will not hesitate to attack the judiciary, indeed, will not hesitate to slander the Legislature.

It is a sad, sad commentary on our citizens and their leaders. Is Mr. Garrison really that admired? Or are we surrounded by cowards—men with no guts—who in the snug comfort of their own lives care not a whit about the world around them.

Another opportunity to act has presented itself. William R. Alford, executive assistant district attorney, resigned yesterday. In doing so, he leveled serious charges of wrongdoing against Mr. Garrison.

Is it too much to ask that the proper authorities investigate these charges. Or will those with the requisite authority once again default in their responsibility.

DA'S OFFICE 'FIXES' CHARGED BY EX-AID

Resigning Executive Assistant Links Garrison, Corruption

By CLARENCE DOUCET

The executive assistant district attorney for Orleans Parish announced his resignation Monday, charging that "fixes" for money and political reasons are occurring in the DA's office and the corruption is emanating from Jim Garrison.

William R. Alford Jr., for five years an assistant DA, delivered a scathing blast at Garrison in making his surprise announcement.

He likened the DA's office to "a house of ill-repute—business is good and everyone comes out smiling"—and cited four areas in which he said Garrison has allowed the office to "flounder and sink in politics and aimlessness":

(1)—The Rackets Division in the DA's office no longer functions effectively.

(2)—Certain politicians now have carte blanche and use the office to "help the criminals and themselves."

(3)—Organized crime is flourishing in the form of gambling, prostitution and narcotics, but his own efforts to curb gambling have been blocked by Garrison.

(4)—Convicted felons are being released from jail without posting bonds by some Criminal District Court judges, and the DA's office "is sitting idly by because the present DA has neither the interest nor the strength to attack this abuse."

Garrison in a brief statement, termed Alford's resignation as being politically motivated.

'ANOTHER STAR'

He claimed that Alford attempted to get him to run for governor and "since I decided not to run myself but rather to support someone else, I expect that he has hitched his wagon to another star."

For the past two years Alford, as executive assistant, has handled the prosecution in all capital cases under the jurisdiction of the Orleans Parish DA's office. Referring to Garrison's frequent absence from the office, Alford said he has not seen him more than five times this year.

Asked why he decided to resign, Alford said:

"It's not like being hit by a bolt of lightning. Slowly I saw one thing and then another and slowly I began to realize the office was something I didn't want to be associated with any longer."

Alford's decision, brewing for about a year, he said, was apparently precipitated by three recent events:

1. His learning last week that he was removed as adviser to a grand jury probing pinball machine gambling about a year ago by Garrison;

2. Garrison's recent attack on U.S. District Judge Herbert J. Christenberry after the jurist ruled that Garrison's office could not continue its prosecution of Clay L. Shaw;

3. Garrison's decision to support the release of a man from prison in a homicide case without consulting with Alford.

Alford also charged that during the first six months of this year the DA's office has not processed 690 cases, and that in one section of the court 101 cases have been allowed to prescribe.

"Forty of these cases," he said, "were narcotics violations, and at least 10 were vice cases (gambling, prostitution, etc.)."

Asked specifically if fixes were taking place, Alford said it is his belief that they are.

"The corrupt person in the DA's office is the DA, and I'd say the corruption is emanating from the top."

Alford said it is his belief that money does exchange hands in some cases and that in other cases Garrison grants preferential treatment for political reasons.

"Now, if you ask me do I have any doubts about these things, that's something else. But I believe it. I can't prove the sun is going to rise tomorrow, but I believe it will."

Concerning his removal from the grand jury probe of pinball machines, Alford said:

"You may remember that about a year ago I attempted, along with the Orleans Parish Grand Jury, to investigate pinball gambling. This investigation never effectively got off the ground—not because of me, nor because of the grand jury, but because of the present DA. Shortly thereafter I was removed as legal advisor to the grand jury, and I have just recently learned that the reason was that I was embarrassing the district attorney's friends."

"True, after about four months I was returned to the grand jury, but I was given strict instructions that I was to handle only the capital cases brought before that body."

Asked if he thought he might become the object of a grand jury probe or charges filed by the DA, Alford said:

"I will answer any questions about any case I've ever had anything to do with. I haven't played around with any cases. If I'm indicted, we'll cross that bridge when I come to it."

Alford said he was "totally devoid" of any faith in Garrison.

After Alford made his announcement, Garrison issued this statement:

"Just a few months ago Mr. Alford was pressing me to run for governor. Since I decided not to run myself but rather to support someone else, I expect that he has hitched his wagon to another star."

"In any event, it is rather apparent that this is an early gust of new political winds. The real meaning of this most recent buffet of wind probably will become more apparent with the passage of time."

"I believe most of the people in this city are well aware that I operate a thoroughly honest and competent office. Other than that I have no further comment to make."

Alford denied that he has any political aspirations and indicated he is uncertain what he will do now that he has quit his job.

In quitting, he said he hoped that the public inquiry of the way the Garrison office is operated, but he said such an inquiry would require an agency with the investigative apparatus of the DA's office, itself, the state attorney-general's office or state police or New Orleans police.

Alford, who is 31, went to work with the district attorney's office following his graduation from the Tulane Law School in 1966. A native of Brewton, Ala., his family moved to New Orleans when he was 6. He remained here until his sophomore year of high school when his family moved to Baton Rouge. He was graduated from University High School in Baton Rouge and received a bachelor of science degree in business administration from Louisiana State University in 1962.

STATES-ITEM

NEW ORLEANS, LA.

Assistant District Attorney William R. Alford today resigned his post, charging that Orleans Parish DA Jim Garrison permits crime to flourish and knowingly fixes cases in the Criminal District Courts.

Alford, who has been a member of Garrison's staff for five years and was serving as executive assistant DA, made the charges at a press conference he called at the Monteleone Hotel.

The assistant DA said that "certain politicians" and Criminal District Court judges are involved in wrong-doing. He said that "some state representatives" can get "anything they want from the DA's office."

ALFORD DID NOT name individuals other than Garrison who are involved in alleged wrong-doing. He said he "did not believe it would serve any purpose at this time." The assistant DA told newsmen that if they carefully researched the files of the Criminal

District Court, they would find that certain sections routinely dismissed far more cases than others and that certain attorneys fare better than do others in treatment of their clients.

The assistant DA, asked why he waited five years to resign, said that his awareness of practices in the DA's office did not come at once but occurred over a period of years.

HE SAID A turning point occurred when he discovered he had been pulled off an Orleans Parish Grand Jury investigation of pinball gambling because he was "embarrassing the District Attorney's friends."

Alford said he is resigning from the DA's office and hopes to remain in the private practice of law in New Orleans. He said he will not seek public office.

SPECIFIC CHARGES made by Alford:

—He said the "once-good" office of the DA "no longer cares that the people of this city are daily being swindled through the practice of all types of racketeering." He said a rackets division established by Garrison no longer functions because "vigorous prosecution in this area often makes political waves."

—He said "certain politicians now have carte blanche" in the DA's office. Alford named the DA's office to a "house of ill-repute" where "business is good and everyone comes out smiling." He charged "these corrupters are not coming to the DA's office for the purpose of helping the victims of crime—they are there to help the criminal and themselves."

—He said "organized crime is presently flourishing in the parish and state." Alford added, "The DA says different but how would he know—he is never in the office." The assistant DA said Garrison has been in the office only five or six times since Jan. 1 to the best of Alford's knowledge.

ALFORD ADDED: "The organized crime in this city is not of the gangland variety. It is of the very subtle type. Many of its leaders are considered upstanding citizens. I have tried to do something about this but have been blocked in every direction."

Gambling, prostitution and narcotics are rampant and I'm told not to rock the boat."

Alford said he was removed as a legal adviser to the Orleans Parish grand jury when a pinball gambling investigation began to embarrass Garrison's "friends."

HE ALSO CHARGED:

—Persons arrested for crimes and having previous felony convictions are being released from jail without posting bond by some Criminal District Court judges. He said the "DA's office is sitting idly by because the present DA has neither the interest nor the strength to attack this abuse."

—More than 690 cases have been dismissed by the DA's office this year and, in one section of Criminal District Court, 101 cases have been allowed to proceed. Of these, Alford said, 40 were narcotics violations and at least 10 involved vice charges.

ASKED ABOUT the Clay Shaw case in which he helped prosecute the New Orleans businessman who was eventually exonerated, Alford said he viewed the matter as an attorney representing one side in open court and was willing to accept the verdict of the jury and appeal courts.

Alford said he does not believe Garrison's physical problems with an infection of the spine have hindered the DA's ability to run his office.

"It didn't prevent him from meeting last week with politicians to discuss the governor's race. So why should it prevent him from running the DA's office?" Alford said.

Defendant Is Told To Stop Outbursts

GAINESVILLE, Fla.—U.S. District Court Judge Winston E. Arnow told one of the Gainesville Eight defendants yesterday that if he didn't stop speaking without permission he would be gagged or removed from the courtroom.

The action came after defendant William Patterson, who is acting as his own attorney, joined in numerous objections by lawyers for the eight Vietnam Veterans Against the War who are charged with plotting violence during the 1972 Republican National convention.

They protested almost every part of the testimony by FBI informer Emerson L. Poe, 39, a friend of defendant Scott Camil until he was unveiled last week as an informer.

After sending the jury to lunch, the judge was talking to attorneys about whether the defense had the right to see reports of interviews FBI agent Claude Meadow of Gainesville had with Poe.

Patterson interrupted the judge.

Calling for a U.S. marshal to stand beside Patterson, Arnow directed a marshal to gag the defendant "if he says one word before I give him permission to speak."

The judge then told Patterson if he continued "repetitious and unnecessary" statements, he would be removed from the courtroom and his case put in the hands of attorney James Tomlinson who was appointed standby counsel for Patterson. The defendant refuses to accept or confer with the lawyer.

Garrison Trial

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A jury of nine men and three women was seated to hear the federal court bribery case involving New Orleans District Attorney Jim Garrison and two pinball machine dealers.

A fourth defendant, 57-year-old Harby Marks Jr., was granted a separate trial by U.S. District Judge Herbert W. Christenberry.

Opening statements are expected Tuesday when the trial resumes.

The move left Garrison, 52, and two pinball machine dealers, John A. Callery, 63, and Robert Nims, 40, at the defendants table.

The federal indictment originally charged 10 men with conspiring to obstruct law enforcement by giving or taking bribes to protect pinball machine gambling, described as a multimillion dollar a year business.

State Drops Garrison Charges

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 27 (UPI)—Special Prosecutor Benjamin E. Smith dropped state gambling and bribery charges Friday against District Attorney Jim Garrison, saying the federal government's refusal to supply him with evidence in the case makes prosecution impossible.

Smith's action cleared the way for the federal government to proceed with its case charging Garrison with taking payoffs to protect illegal pinball operations in New Orleans.

Smith, however, said he would continue with a state malfeasance charge that accuses Garrison of having himself indicted on state charges in order to "weasel out" of similar federal counts.

The U.S. attorney's office charged Garrison June 30 on the bribery and gambling counts. Garrison countered that he was being persecuted for his contention that certain government agencies were responsible for the assassination of President John F. Kennedy.

Last week Garrison went before his own Orleans Parish Grand Jury and had himself and nine co-defendants indicted on state charges identical to the federal counts.

In dropping the state charges, Smith said there was "no reliable evidence on which to proceed with the indictment" since all corroborative evidence is in the custody of the U.S. attorney, who refused to release it to the state.

This includes "marked money, electronic recordings and tapes and key witnesses," Smith said.

GARRISON 7-8 NX
 ADV FOR SUN AMS JULY 11
 BY JACK R. PAYTON

NEW ORLEANS (UPI)--BIG JIM GARRISON LOOKS UPON HIS LATEST DONNYBROOK WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT AS WASHINGTON'S REVENGE FOR HIS THEORY ON THE ASSASSINATION OF PRESIDENT JOHN F. KENNEDY.

TO THE NEW ORLEANS DISTRICT ATTORNEY, WHO HAS LONG BELIEVED A
 WASHINGTON-BASED CONSPIRACY KILLED JFK, IT WAS JUST A MATTER OF TIME BEFORE FEDERAL AGENTS WOULD TRY TO GET HIM.

GARRISON AND TWO POLICEMEN WERE CHARGED BY THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT
 LAST MONTH WITH ACCEPTING BRIBES TO OVERLOOK ILLEGAL PINBALL MACHINE
 GAMBLING. SIX DAYS LATER, GARRISON FILED HIS OWN CHARGES AGAINST FEDERAL ATTORNEYS ON GROUNDS OF A "FRAME-UP."

THE GOVERNMENT'S CHARGES COVER NINE YEARS--STARTING ONE YEAR BEFORE HE JFK SLAYING IN DALLAS. BIG JIM DENIED THE CHARGES, SAYING HE NEVER RECEIVED A DOLLAR.

A 113-PAGE FEDERAL COMPLAINT, BASED ON THE ORGANIZED CRIME CONTROL ACT OF 1970, SAID GARRISON RECEIVED AS MUCH AS $1,500 A MONTH FROM PINBALL COMPANY OPERATORS ANXIOUS TO KEEP THEIR MULTIMILLION DOLLAR
 BUSINESS ALIVE. INCLUDED WERE TRANSCRIPTS OF TAPE RECORDINGS MADE BY A FORMER GARRISON INVESTIGATOR WHO SAID HE WAS THE MIDDLEMAN BETWEEN GARRISON AND THE GAMBLERS.

ONE OF THE TRANSCRIPTS QUOTED GARRISON AS SAYING HE COULD INFLUENCE LOUISIANA GOV. JOHN MCKEITHEN TO OPPOSE EFFORTS TO BAN
 GAMBLING TYPE PINBALL MACHINES FROM THE STATE. THE COMPLAINT ALSO HINTED THAT PINBALL OPERATORS MAY HAVE PAID OFF A NUMBER OF LEGISLATORS TO OPPOSE ANTIPINBALL LEGISLATION.

ANTIPINBALL BILLS WERE DEFEATED IN THE 1970 AND 1971 LEGISLATIVE SESSIONS.

THE 6-FOOT-6' DISTRICT ATTORNEY SAID THE FEDERAL CHARGES WERE A FRAME-UP CONCOCTED TO SILENCE HIS CLAIMS THAT "THE MILITARY-INDUSTRIAL-INTELLIGENCE COMPLEX" PLOTTED THE PRESIDENT'S DEATH IN 1963.

"SOONER OR LATER I HAD TO BE CHARGED," GARRISON SAID AFTER HIS ARREST JUNE 30. "I THOUGHT A FEW YEARS AGO THEY'D JUST SHOOT ME.

"THEY GOT ME BECAUSE I KEEP POUNDING AWAY AT THE PENTAGON COMPLEX AND I SAID I WOULDN'T STOP AND I WON'T STOP. I THINK THERE ARE SECTORS WHO KNOW WHAT HAPPEND TO JACK KENNEDY AND WHO DID IT, AND WHO FEEL IT'S WORTH ANY COST TO SHUT ME UP."

JUST TO SHOW HE MEANT BUSINESS, GARRISON FILED STATE CRIMINAL CHARGES LAST TUESDAY AGAINST U.S. ATTORNEY GERALD GALLINGHOUSE AND JOHN WALL, THE ATTORNEY WHO LED THE JUSTICE DEPARTMENT STRIKE FORCE IN DIGGING UP THE BRIBERY AND GAMBLING EVIDENCE AGAINST HIM. HE ACCUSED GALLINGHOUSE AND WALL OF USING THREATS AND EXTORTION TO FRAME HIM AND DEFAME HIS REPUTATION.

GALLINGHOUSE TOOK NO CHANCES. HE ASKED AND GOT A FEDERAL RESTRAINING ORDER TO PREVENT HIS AND WALL'S ARREST, AND FOR INSURANCE, HE HAD U.S. MARSHALS CORDON OFF HIS OFFICE.

"IT'S REALLY PATHETIC TO SEE A MAN WHO HOLDS HIS POSITION OF TRUST STOOPING TO SUCH SHAMEFUL PROPAGANDA PRACTICES," GALLINGHOUSE SAID. "NOTHING SURPRISES ME ABOUT MR. GARRISON."

AT WEEK'S END, ATTORNEYS FOR GARRISON AND THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT WERE ARGUING OVER WHERE THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S CHARGES WOULD BE TRIED - IN STATE OR FEDERAL COURT.

GARRISON, A 50-YEAR-OLD FORMER FBI AGENT ELECTED 10 YEARS AGO WITH A PROMISE TO BE A TOUGH CRIME FIGHTER, FIRST GAINED NATIONAL RECOGNITION WHEN HE TOOK ON THE CITY'S CRIMINAL COURT JUDGES. GARRISON, WHO WAS CLEANING UP B-GIRL BARS AND PROSTITUTION ON BOURBON STREET AT THE TIME, SAID THE JUDGES WERE SLACKERS WHO FREED CRIMINALS TO WALK THE STREETS.

THE JUDGES SUED HIM FOR DEFAMATION AND THE CASE WAS FOUGHT ALL THE WAY TO THE U.S. SUPREME COURT. THE COURT RULED, IN A LANDMARK CASE, THAT PUBLIC FIGURES ARE NOT PROTECTED AGAINST DEFAMATION OR LIBEL UNLESS MALICE IS INVOLVED.

ODDLY ENOUGH, THE DEFAMATION CHARGES AGAINST GALLINGHOUSE AND WALL WERE BASED ON THE SAME LAW USED AGAINST GARRISON BY THE JUDGES--THE LAW SUBSEQUENTLY DECLARED UNCONSTITUTIONAL.

GARRISON ALSO WENT THROUGH THE ENTIRE FEDERAL COURT SYSTEM WITH HIS PROSECUTION OF CLAY SHAW ON CHARGES OF CONSPIRING WITH LEE HARVEY OSWALD AND OTHERS IN THE DEATH OF PRESIDENT KENNEDY. SHAW WAS ACQUITTED IN THE STATE COURT TWO YEARS AGO, BUT GARRISON CHARGED THE FORMER BUSINESSMAN WITH PERJURY.

THE PERJURY CHARGE FELL THIS SPRING WHEN A FEDERAL JUDGE ORDERED GARRISON TO STOP PROSECUTING SHAW, SAYING THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY WAS CONTINUING THE CASE TO PROMOTE HIS BOOK, "HERITAGE OF STONE" WHICH DEALS WITH THE PRESIDENTIAL ASSASSINATION.

THE DISTRICT ATTORNEY'S LATEST BATTLE WITH THE FEDERAL GOVERNMENT IS ONE IN WHICH HIS FUTURE AS A PUBLIC OFFICIAL IN THE CITY, OR ANY POSSIBLE ASPIRATIONS HE HAS FOR HIGHER OFFICE, HANG IN THE BALANCE.

"I WOULD RUN AGAIN FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY--BUT RELUCTANTLY," GARRISON HAS SAID. THERE HAVE BEEN RUMORS HIS SIGHTS WERE ON A U.S. SENATE SEAT.

BUT THE BRIBERY AND GAMBLING CHARGE AGAINST GARRISON, AND HIS COUNTER-CHARGES AGAINST THE FEDERAL ATTORNEYS, HAVE QUIETED ALL TALK OF POLITICAL OFFICE FOR A TIME.

EVEN SO, SEVERAL ATTORNEYS IN THE CITY HAVE SAID NO JURY MADE UP OF RESIDENTS FROM THE AREA WOULD CONVICT JIM GARRISON OF BRIBERY OR GAMBLING--IN A STATE OR FEDERAL COURT.

GARRISON 'OUT' OR 'IN TRACTION'

Excuses Vary for Failures to Appear

Two Times-Picayune reporters who knocked at the door of District Attorney Jim Garrison's home Friday night were told he was out with his wife only an hour and a quarter after he had failed to appear at a meeting on the grounds that he was in traction to treat his ailing back. The DA had been listed as the guest speaker at a dinner at the Metairie Baptist Church at 7 p.m. Friday.

A Times-Picayune reporter who went to the church to cover Garrison's address was told by a member of the congregation that the DA had sent word that he was in traction and would be unable to attend the affair.

WISHED TO DELAY

The spokesman further stated that Garrison had said that instead of sending a substitute, as he has done throughout his campaign for reelection when he was scheduled to address the public, the DA wished to postpone his talk until he was able to appear personally.

At 8:15 p. m., the two reporters went to Garrison's home at 4600 Owens Blvd. and knocked on the door.

Garrison's 10-year-old son, Jasper, came to the door and said his parents were out. Asked when they would be back, the boy said he would try to find out from his grandmother, who was sitting with the DA's children.

The boy returned and said his parents would be home sometime after 9 o'clock Friday night.

HOSPITAL UNINFORMATIVE

A call to Hotel Dieu Hospital, which Garrison reportedly entered late last week for treatment of his back, proved fruitless.

An operator at the hospital's main switchboard connected one of the reporters with the hospital's information operator.

Asked what room the DA was in, the information operator said she had received orders not to give out any details about him.

When the information operator was asked merely to verify whether or not Garrison was a patient at the hospital, she replied, "I have been ordered not to reveal anything about him. Any information will have to come from his office or from the hospital administrator," who had left for the night.

Garrison Now Out of Hospital

District Attorney Jim Garrison is out of the hospital and may be returning to the campaign trail.

A spokesman for Hotel Dieu Hospital said today that Garrison checked out of the hospital at 2 p. m. yesterday.

Reporters checking Garrison's home over the weekend were told that the DA and his wife were out for the evening. A hospital spokesman said patients who are able can be released from the hospital for an evening with permission of their physicians.

Garrison checked into the hospital Sept. 20. He has not made any campaign appearances since that date. His office said a recurring back ailment was the cause of the hospitalization. Garrison is opposed by three candidates for his job: Harry Connick, Charles Ray Ward and Ross T. Scaccia.

The Phantom DA

(An Editorial)

Crime is on the rampage in New Orleans. Every law-abiding citizen is worried about it. The district attorney can do something about it. But where is the district attorney? He has become a phantom.

More often than not during the current campaign, the district attorney has failed to show up at public meetings to debate his opponents and to answer the questions that are preying on the minds of the people of New Orleans.

This is not to say the public won't be hearing from the phantom district attorney. We understand he has pre-recorded some slick, Madison Avenue-type television shows which are to be telecast during the last days of the campaign in an effort to blitz the voters and make them forget the past.

But isn't the public entitled to more than this from its district attorney? What about all those bail-bond cases? What about the Cimino heroin case? What about the McGill marijuana case? What about the Patrem rape case? And the

Hawkins abortion case? Doesn't the public have a right to know?

Why doesn't the phantom district attorney give the public an opportunity to question him about these cases? Does he have something to hide? Is he afraid? Is he sick? Or is it simply that the phantom district attorney does not have to answer to anyone but himself?

What Kind of DA?

District Attorney Jim Garrison says the States-Item is against him. He is right. We are against him. But for good reasons.

In a series of front page editorials, we have spoken out against Mr. Garrison. We felt an obligation to do so. Many private citizens would like to speak out against Mr. Garrison. But they are afraid. For Mr. Garrison has shown he will not hesitate to ruin innocent men.

This newspaper is not afraid of Jim Garrison. We were serving this community long before anyone ever heard of Jim Garrison and we will continue to serve it long after he has gone. And so we speak for those whose voices are stifled by fear.

We have criticized Mr. Garrison for the way he has misused and abused the vast powers of his office. We have called him a phantom district attorney for refusing to debate his opponents; for refusing to answer the questions that are preying on the minds of the people of New Orleans.

We have criticized him for indulging in wild fantasies while crime runs rampant in our city. We have criticized him for his negligence in collecting forfeited bail bonds. And we have criticized him for dropping charges against hardened criminals and for failing to vigorously prosecute others.

Mr. Garrison seeks to portray himself as a champion of the little man. It is a good political tactic. But if Mr. Garrison is genuinely interested in the little man, why has he not prosecuted those who take advantage of the little man? For it is the little people who suffer most at the hands of criminals. Why hasn't Mr. Garrison investigated Louisiana Loan & Thrift in which hundreds of little people stand to lose their life's savings?

If the people of this city want a district attorney who will continue to let crime run rampant, if they want a district attorney who will continue to make this city the laughing stock of the nation, then by all means they should vote for Jim Garrison.

But if the people of this city are ready for a real DA, if they are ready for a full-time DA who will enforce the law with firmness and justice for all, then HARRY CONNICK is their man.

Garrison Claim Is Challenged By Connick

District attorney candidate Harry Connick last night challenged Jim Garrison's claim that Garrison's office has never lost a murder case.

Connick, addressing a rally of his campaign workers at his headquarters, 924 Gravier, said he had found a case where the grand jury returned a murder indictment which was reduced to a manslaughter charge by Garrison only to have a 12-man jury return an innocent verdict.

Connick said Alphonse Williams was charged Sept. 20, 1967, with the murder of Robert Ferguson. Connick said court records show the charge was reduced to manslaughter and Williams was found innocent on March 13, 1968.

THE DA candidate also charged that Garrison has failed to bring to trial some 3,813 charges against people accused of crimes, including some cases that go back to 1962.

"The truth is that Jim Garrison has misled the people of New Orleans about every aspect of criminal justice," Connick said.

"Garrison misled us when he told us he never lost a murder case.

"He misled us when he told us he was speedily prosecuting persons accused of crimes when, in fact, he allows cases to linger for as long as seven years.

"HE MISLED us about the Clay Shaw case.

"He misled us when he said he cleaned up Bourbon Street when everyone knows that pornography and a heavy traffic in drugs are flourishing there."

Connick charged that Garrison's record does not stand up to close inspection. The achievements he claims are a flimsy cover that is blown away by the first strong breeze that comes along."

CONNICK TOLD his campaign workers that under Garrison, between Jan. 1, 1966, and June, 1969, the grand jury indicted 142 men for murder.

Of these, Connick said, 34 pleaded guilty or were found guilty at a trial. Twelve of the murder charges were dismissed. One, (Alphonse Williams) was found not guilty. Thirteen are still open and haven't been prosecuted.

Eighty-three, Connick said, were allowed to plead guilty to manslaughter or negligent homicide and received sentences from two to 21 years.

"IN OTHER words," Connick said, "Mr. Garrison went to trial on only 34 of 142 murder indictments, winning 33. The way that he has stacked the deck, taking to trial only those cases he was certain to win, it is indeed a mystery that he has ever failed to get a conviction in a murder case. The real question is whether this bargain basement approach to justice, allowing many defendants to cop lesser pleas, really protects the law-abiding citizens of New Orleans."

Garrison Stay In Hospital Undetermined

District Attorney Jim Garrison, who entered Hotel Dieu for treatment for a bad back July 14, was still there today, and when he will be able to return to his desk is questionable.

James Alcock, assistant district attorney, said he believes Garrison will be able to return to his office on a partial basis within the next two weeks. Alcock said he has been in almost daily consultation with Garrison either by phone or personal visit.

Dr. Walter H. Brent Jr., one of Garrison's physicians, was less optimistic about chances for Garrison to return to work within the next two weeks. He said this is possible, but added, "You can never be too certain about anything like this in medicine."

Garrison has been "much more comfortable" recently and has been taking exercises for his back, Dr. Brent said.

The district attorney's back troubles began at least as early as his campaign for reelection in late 1969, when he made only infrequent personal appearances.

DECLASSIFIED BY SP-9 ACA/RWS
 ON 11/3/95

Date 12/14/70

On November 23, 1970, Mr. JIM C. GARRISON, New Orleans District Attorney, spoke at Loeb Student Center, New York University, New York City, between 2:00 - 3:00 p.m.

GARRISON began his speech by stating that the United States was a fascist war machine.

According to GARRISON, Congress was originally vested with the major part of political power in the United States. The power was transferred to the office of the President during the Roosevelt Era, but now the Pentagon is the most powerful institution in the United States, and has been, GARRISON contended, since the assassination of President KENNEDY.

GARRISON held that KENNEDY had a plan to withdraw all troops from Vietnam by 1965. This plan for a withdrawal ran contrary to the wishes of the Joint Chiefs because they viewed South East Asia as a necessary conquest and eventually a bulwark against the expansion of Red China.

Because of this dispute, KENNEDY was murdered by an agent of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), according to GARRISON.

GARRISON believes that the military establishment has perpetuated the myth of the Cold War in order to get funds for its own expansion. Since the United States and United Soviet Socialist Republic (USSR) have achieved nuclear parity, the generals are now preoccupied with the Red Chinese and are preoccupied with propagandizing about the threat of Red China or to justify the need for receiving large amounts of funds.

All those who have gotten in the way of the Pentagon or have threatened to stop its growing power have been systematically eliminated by assassins of the CIA and Defense Department. The first assassination began with JOHN KENNEDY, as previously mentioned. Like JOHN, ROBERT KENNEDY represented a threat to the Pentagon particularly after he had won the California primary in 1964. He was therefore killed as was

REMARK DENIED BY GARRISON

Misquoted on Federal Judiciary, He States

District Attorney Jim Garrison claimed Monday that he was misquoted in Saturday's editions of The Times-Picayune, and did not state on Friday that "the federal judiciary has become corrupt."

The story Garrison referred to concerned his remarks Friday at the swearing-in ceremony for newly-appointed Criminal District Court Judge Charles Ray Ward.

Following is the text of Garrison's letter:

"The Times-Picayune of May

20 contained a news story in which I was incorrectly quoted as saying that 'the federal judiciary has become corrupt.' Nothing could be farther from the truth than such a statement. This was not what I said at all, and it is most unfortunate that such a mistake in reporting occurred.

It is possible that the reporter at Judge Ward's swearing-in really believes that the "federal judiciary" and the Justice Department—which was the subject of my comment—somehow are identical. In any event, I am quite sure that this error in quoting me was unintentional.

"Not merely attorneys, but virtually all laymen, recognize that, as a general proposition, the integrity of the federal judiciary simply is not open to question. The most outspoken critics of the federal government concede that, insofar as the federal judiciary is concerned, its quality and integrity is of the highest level and above reproach.

"The Justice Department is a horse of another color. This is not intended as a reflection on the horse, which is a very intelligent animal and an asset to mankind. The Justice Department, which is an asset only to the powers whom it serves, is located on Pennsylvania Ave. in Washington, D.C., and is a part of the Executive branch of the federal government. Despite its altruistic title, the Justice Department in fact has very little to do with justice.

"The Justice Department, at its very best, is politically oriented. Measured at its highest level, it is corrupt beyond any possible description. There are few political crimes which it has not committed. There is no offense which it will not commit, no individual right which it will not violate, if a political gain can be accomplished. The business of the Justice Department is injustice.

"Its so-called 'task forces' are nothing less than temporary versions of totalitarian secret police. Inasmuch as it is operating under a Republican administration, virtually all elected officials who are indicted and prosecuted are Democrats. Republican elected officials, it appears, never commit federal offenses.

"We live in an era in which tragedies, unprecedented in our history, have occurred. Great leaders of the people have been assassinated, time and time again, under repeatedly strange circumstances. In every case, the Justice Department has played an active part in concealing the truth and fooling the citizens of this country.

"Never before has a major element of the United States government been so busily engaged in working against the interests of the people and in undermining the traditions and ideals which for so many years represented the America which we once knew."

Garrison Announces Candidacy

Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison has issued his formal statement of candidacy for the Louisiana Supreme Court vacancy to result from the retirement of Associate Justice, Walter B. Hamlin.

Garrison pointed to his record as a district attorney as qualifications for the Supreme Court post, saying that in 10 years as DA "my office was successful in convicting every major lottery operator — and for the first time in history — sending every lottery owner to the penitentiary, thus ending the racket which had preyed upon the poor people of New Orleans for many decades."

The candidate also cited his cleanup of "notorious operations of Bourbon Street," and the organizing of the first organized rackets bureau ever to operate in the DA's office.

He said that he and his staff have built a DA's office "which has become recognized as one of the finest in the nation."

Garrison said he has not hesitated to fight for principle, adding that "in some instances the forces which I had to fight were considerably more powerful than I was."

He said that he and his family "had to suffer the consequences of confronting such powerful opposition. I have never quit nor compromised nor stepped backwards in any such fight where principle and the search for truth were involved."

Garrison resides with his wife and five children at 4600 Owens Blvd. He attended New Orleans public elementary and high schools and received a bachelor of law degree from Tulane University. Later he obtained a master of law degree.

He has practiced corporation law as well as represented plaintiffs in personal injury cases. He also practiced before state and federal trial court and appellate court.

Garrison served five years in the Army during World War II as well as 15 years in the Louisiana National Guard. He began his military service after more than 20 years as a lieutenant-colonel of the field artillery.

In World War II he served in combat in France and Germany as a pilot and was awarded the Air Medal for valor in aerial combat.

These questions are germane. . . Because "THE CAST" of characters here are just as "colorful" as the intrigue, which lifts the eyebrows at every turn of events.

The characters involved within this tragic Machiavellian charade might easily fall into the classification of good-guys and bad-guys, with the standard "white-hats" etc. However, we'll only list principals here, leaving Garrison - Kennedy Probe, the Jimmy Hoffa - Edward Grady Partin - Teamster - Labor Management cases, was a well known communications technical adviser in the field of eavesdropping listening devices, short wave radio etc., and to the best of our knowledge has always presented the unvarnished truth to our readers.)

NEW ORLEANS — Alerted on facts within local jurisdiction, it's rumored District Attorney Jim Garrison's office may soon launch its own, but parallel, "Watergate" investigation.

Although, the primary concern in this case will be the Democratic Party offices here, rather than Washington's Watergate Democratic headquarters. However, details may arise which could lead directly to it.

The approximate quote of one dependable courthouse source was, "If, or when this multifarious issue comes to a head before the grand jury, we should get some interesting answers, from an equally colorful group of dignitaries."

Frankly, this authority's choice of the adjective "multifarious" is an understatement. The entire issue is so complex that one question leads to another . . . An endless chain of relative material easily muddled by superfluous argument, to the point it may never be solved.

Just as in the Watergate case proper, some information gaps will surely be: (1) Who was really doing what to who, and (2) who was actually going to pay for it? Above all, (3) were people installing bugs, or (4) were they removing them, and if they were taking them out, (5) were they of course the discretion of authorities.

In alphabetical order, we have: Dr. Earl (Jim) Schindler, Tulane University scientist specializing in medical electronics, who also researches such fields as advanced physics, ballistics, violent elements (including fissionable or fusionable materials), and in order to relieve technical pressures of the otherwise busy day, practices on the side as an electronic eavesdropping expert, especially in the fine art of debugging and instrument detection. Schindler escapes the "hum-drum" by running around with private detectives, and as a "pee-eye-buff" he's become quite an investigator.

Next we have (2) Benjamin E. Smith, an attorney of "some" renown, who they say is a close friend of Senator George McGovern. He's well known for his assistance, and oft times gratis, but venomous defense of those who do not necessarily approve of our American form of government.

Smith's law offices, and a communist front organizational headquarters were once simultaneously raided by our district attorney (Jim Garrison) and the House Un-American Activities Committee in a joint operational venture. At the time several truck loads of documents were seized.

Particularly because of this, Smith has been mentioned so many times in Senate, House, and other Committee reports, to say nothing of the press, we could not begin to list his accomplishments in such gymnastical-extremist-functionary Arts of the serpentine nether world.

Then comes (3) Don Walsh creative practice, evidenced by several file cabinets full of happy clients.

Our last character listed for the moment is (4) George Owen Wyatt, once dishonorably discharged from the military service as a sexual deviate, and ex-convict, a notorious police character, noted even amongst the underworld as a stool-pigeon and setup artist, who fails to get along with anyone (given enough time). By working both sides against the middle, Wyatt, has upon occasion attempted to not only frame "people-on-the-street" but law enforcement officials too.

Some of those he's tried to put the knife to, so-to-speak, are: The Kennedy family (through R. F.), Attorney F. Lee Bailey, and Walter Sheridan (formerly with N.B.C. and the U. S. Justice Department).

Law enforcement officials Wyatt attempted to scuttle from time-to-time are:

Harry Roberts (former F.B.I. Agent, and once the Director of the Governor's Labor Management and Rackets Commission);

William (Bill) Dent (former F.B.I. Inspector, and Director of Louisiana Department of Public Safety);

General Thomas Burbank (former Chief, Louisiana State Police);

Colonel Raymond Ruiz (formerly with Labor Management and Rackets Commission, and now Provost Marshal 39th Military Police La. N.G.); usually F.B.I. men, Wyatt seems to make a 'side-line-living' by faking accidents and then shaking down his employer's insurance firms." Continuing to "play-both-ends" as usual, we understand this is his present means of livelihood, while secretly working as maintenance repairman in an apartment house complex owned by an attorney, who doesn't know his nefarious past.

Superintendent Clarence Giarusso (present Chief, New Orleans Police Department);

These are just a few of Wyatt's references, but like Smith, he's all over the place . . . From Washington to Honolulu, to Detroit (during their riots), then Cleveland (when they had trouble), now back to New Orleans (while we have problems) again, where he lives at 4762 Music Street. Most people wish that he'd go back to his "cooling-off-spot" in Mexico, where he often lives at No. 15 Emilio Caranza in Matamoros, across from Brownsville, Texas.

Put Smith and Wyatt together, and "THE CON JOB" these two could figure out might keep everyone in the nation guessing for years . . . That is considering listen, especially members of the news media. At the moment Smith argued in favor of this document's validity, pointing out its contents as proof that Army Intelligence people had successfully "bugged" every Democratic Party political headquarters in Louisiana and the entire nation.

One famous personality witnessing Smith's act was award-winning newscaster (1) Iris Kelso, political editor of television station WDSU (an N.B.C. affiliate for television, A.M. and F.M. radio).

Needless to say, Smith's report was also seen by (2) Major Hubert, commanding the local Army Military Intelligence detachment here. At the time Hubert "secured" a copy of it, which he immediately forwarded to his headquarters for an official authentication. Our sources inform us this report was proven to be an excellent forgery, and we (this reporter) so advised Mrs. Kelso and several others, "Do not be taken in like Jack Anderson, by phony

Another reputable person knowledgeable of this instrument was (3) Captain O'Neil P. (Frenchy) De Noux, who heads the crime laboratory of the Jefferson Parish (county) Sheriff's office. De Noux, a former intelligence officer with the Army and C.I.D., having once commanded the intelligence division of the sheriff's department, is well apprised of such escapades staged by "citizens" like Smith or Wyatt, and their ilk . . . He refers to this "bunch" of people as "a-sack-of-roaches" when they are mentioned, because "THE PITCH" usually attempted "stinks" from the onset.

A Smith master stroke was yet to come. Thickening his plot, Smith approached both Walsh and Schindler, attempting to engage their services. Smith desired to "protect" Democratic Party headquarters here and throughout Louisiana; but by the same token, to apparently "frame" Army Intelligence, and various elements of the Republican Party by implication.

Using this fake report to convince Walsh and Schindler, Smith claimed that all these premises were without doubt bugged. Smelling a foul, they quoted Smith a fee of $500 plus expenses for their inspection.

Smith protested this as far too much, at first. However, after Apparently he cared less whether evidence was "put there", just as long as he received some kind of tangible proof of these wild claims, so that he'd have an opportunity of screaming to all the powers that be! Now, you can bet on one sure thing . . . After this much effort, if Smith were denied this end result, "THE HAMMER" would surely fall on some poor soul.

The result was, Smith's little project fell like a ton of lead. Not because Walsh or Schindler hadn't fully snapped to just "what" he wanted of them; but that they would not falsify evidence for him or anyone else. Little did he know just "how wise" this academic and financially independent team was, or could be in such cases.

It goes without saying, Smith was "let down" by a negative report and we understand he almost refused to pay his bill. He sent Walsh and Schindler a letter in protest, and went through all sorts of gyrations over matters. It was evident that Smith was rather angry over this particular mission's failure, and his inability of cutting the so-called mustard, or to smoothly bribe the powers-that-be into acquiring "just what" he happened to need.

We're told that within several days, Wyatt made an appearance at Schindler's home. Knowing that Schindler was amongst other things a gun collector, Wyatt succeeded in allegedly selling him an old .44 calibre carbine rifle, that for some obscure reason or another was to cause Schindler grief. Anyway, Wyatt a few days later, again came around and introduced Schindler to "some friends" party), and our military.

We have further proof and evidence to give in additional news-stories, which we hope may lead to a more definite connection between the eavesdropping problems of New Orleans, and their relationship to Washington's Watergate.

some haggling he conceded, again showing them this forged report, explaining the "urgency" of the matter at hand, and validating his statements upon the strength of this documentation. In fact, he overplayed his act by more than "tempting - load - baiting - his - fishing - hook" with an added monetary inducement, far in excess of the original $500 amount suggested by Walsh and Schindler in order to discourage him.

In fact, Smith's proposition (figuring by then it was only a question of money) was, that he'd not only pay the agreed $500 fee and expenses, just for New Orleans . . . But that he personally would guarantee payment of another $500, plus expenses, for each and every other Democratic Party headquarters and office throughout the state, a projected aggregate sum of at least $50,000 in total, according to statistics at this time: Providing of course, they "found" bugs or any eavesdropping evidence, of any kind, no matter how remote, within the immediate area upon their first inspection of his local office and headquarters. Furthermore, Smith affirmed this by stating he was more than certain now that they would "find something of some sort" to prove his phony report, thus binding the "extra bonus portion" of his contract.

Moreover, Smith erased any doubt of his intentions, nor that such devices existed, or for that matter that he's challenge any evidence, regardless of how remote, if or when "it" was shown him. This pressure continued throughout his conversations he repeatedly offered very inducement, and did everything possible, short of offering a bold direct bribe, to have the Walsh-Schindler team "plant" any type of eavesdropping equipment necessary to prove his propaganda, or claims, as a point in question.

who were supposed to be gun buyers and hobby collectors too.

It seems that Wyatt's friends proved to be some "undercover agents" of sorts, on a "roping-in-party" . . . Because this led to Schindler's arrest, and charge under the gun control and firearms act. He was only released upon posting a $25,000 cash bond, which at that moment failed to prove much of a "strain" on anyone . . . In fact, Schindler cracks jokes about it now.

Directly following this little episode another group of agents moved in on Walsh, reading him "his rights" the moment they pushed their way into his office. However, after a brief game of "Mutt and Jeff" they made a hasty exit, warning him to keep his mouth shut and to mind his own business. Minutes later, two city detectives came by to pick up Walsh's pistol permit and special officer's commission, just for kicks, as a follow-up.

What do we have here? Nothing but a bunch of setup artists running around loose, using unsuspecting authorities to cover up for them. Actually "THE CLINCH" goes far beyond this point.

Bear in mind (1) this all happened prior to, or just at the time the Watergate breakin was brought to light. That (2) the military were to be the "fall-guys" accused of bugging, not only (3) headquarters and offices here, but (4) all over the state, and (5) the United States, which (6) includes Watergate.

The (7) same modus operandi was used, or was attempted here, with but minor difference, that was successful in Washington. That (8) sources all stem from the same radical elements who would destroy our faith in American government (regardless of

Garrison takes case to La. high court

By JAMES HEARTY

Attorneys for Dist. Atty. Jim Garrison today asked the Louisiana Supreme Court to hear his claim that he should have won the Democratic primary last month.

The court scheduled a conference of its seven justices at 8 p.m. Wednesday to review District Attorney Jim Garrison's appeal. Garrison's attorneys had filed his writs of review in the high court about an hour earlier.

Attorneys Russell C. Scho-nekas and Gibson-Tucker filed Garrison's appeal this morning and the full court was scheduled to take it up later today.

The DA is asking the court to grant him a trial on the matter, which was thrown out by two lower courts.

Garrison claims his narrow defeat Dec. 15 by Harry F. Connick was the result of irregularities in the second Democratic primary.

He is asking that he be declared the Democratic nominee rather than Connick or, alternatively, that a new election be called.

The petition filed this morning charged that the lower courts erred in failing to grant Garrison a full-scale trial.

If the high court rules against Garrison, the case is over and Connick remains the Democratic nominee.

It was the veteran district attorney's first defeat in 11 years. For Connick, it was the culmination of five years of campaigning after an unsuccessful effort to unseat Garrison four years ago.

Garrison says some 2,369 fraudulent votes were cast in the Dec. 15 election by persons who did not appear at the polls but whose names were entered on voting lists. He also claims more than 10,000 other instances of irregularities.

A majority of the appeals court, however, said the alleged irregularities do not constitute a basis for setting aside the election results.

Those results gave Connick a 2,200 vote margin.

"In the absence of fraud, mere failure of election officials to perform a ministerial duty will not warrant the setting aside of the election," Judge James Gulotta said in the appeals court decision.

"It cannot be presumed that the commissioners and watchers committed fraud," Gulotta wrote. "Factual allegations of fraud must be alleged, not conclusions presuming fraud."

Place : Weyburn Hall Cafeteria (off-campus) UCLA
947 Tiverton Ave. L.A.

SPEAKER: PENN JONES

Attendance: Approx. 450 - majority were college students - very few older adults.

Persons identified present: MIKE FARRELL

MIKE RAVEN

JERRY LUCAS

The theme of the speaker, PENN JONES, was "THE MYSTERY REVOLVING AROUND THE DEATH OF UPWARD OF 60" - one report was that 96 people had been killed or gotten out of the way after President Kennedy was assassinated. He talked for about 45 minutes.

Other speakers were STEVE JAFFEE, Assistant to Jim Garrison of New Orleans. He talked about 20 minutes and gave a chronological order of the events surrounding Jim Garrison's investigation, and told of some of the problems he had come into.

ROGER CRAIG, former Deputy Sheriff from Dallas, spoke for about half an hour on the events surrounding the assassination and the facts that were covered up - the confusion directly after the assassination, and his bitterness with the police force there. He was asked to leave the force shortly after the assassination, and he was called the only living witness willing to talk.

STEVE BURTON gave a little bit about some of the events - more ideological - about the assassination and what he thought should be done about it. He referred to himself as a political science major at UCLA.

PENN JONES mentioned that he had two books out, both of which could be purchased at the Free Press Book Store or the Dialogue Book Store in the Valley. Both of these books were on sale at the meeting and were sold out shortly after the meeting was over.

Following Penn Jones, they had a question and answer period which was pretty much dominated by five or six people - mostly males. Following this, they broke for about 10 minutes and said that any one who wished could come back after that - they would stay for half an hour and answer questions.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

[redacted] The attorney representing Mr. Bradley was at this meeting and it was actually mentioned by the people that he was in the audience. It was also mentioned that he was taping the meeting and that is why JAFFEE said he would have to watch what he said.

Following the recess, about 125 people came back and joined those who had stayed. When source came back into the room there were little clusters of people gathered together. Quite a large group was at the front where the speakers were and there were about 20 people gathered around Bradley's attorney, wanting to know his views on the investigation.

Little bits of conversation were overheard - mostly the people were just trying to find out exactly what these people were after. While source was waiting in line before the meeting started, he picked up the name of a woman who seemed to know quite a few important people. Her name was LALYNN (ph); she was heavysset, short, about 50 years old, with gray hair, and she knew enough important people to be called out of line and given a seat in the room before anyone else was allowed in. She was a friend of JAFFEE.

Quite a few of the people at this meeting were seen by source at the meeting the previous night. They were right up in front.

No literature was passed out.

The following statements were made by the persons indicated.

- BOUTELLE - White and black people should unite and organize through Marxism. Then the revolution should begin. The MLF and Cubans were all organized. If you don't organize the blacks will be slaughtered.
- ROBERTS - The white radicals Jewish girls come down to Watts to get screwed by the black men, not to help them. When the revolution comes this summer the white men better come down to help with guns or not come at all. She made an attack against Lisa Williams of the Free Press.
- GREENWOOD - If you want to come down to Watts with a Marx book in hand, you better come down with a gun in the other hand, or they will shoot you the same as they would shoot down the police. Don't come unless you are willing to bring your gun and fight in the revolution. He asked a question of the audience, "when the fighting is going on this summer how many of you will come down and help us?" One person raised their hand.
- WRIGHT - We are going to need help from the whites. In reply to a question from the audience; What can we do to help? She stated, "when we are meeting the police on the front, you can come from their flanks and from their rear. We will knock out the police stations and kill the fascist cops."
- JACQUETTE - The white radicals have promised us guns and ammunition but haven't come through. We've got a lot of guns and ammunition but we can always use more. The guns and ammunition can be donated through me [REDACTED] indicated that she carries a handgun on her person and keeps one in her automobile. She also indicated that [REDACTED] carries a handgun with her also.

b6
b7C

[REDACTED] explained the above may not necessarily carry the

handguns with them at all times but if they will be away from 1024 Jackson for any length of time, they will maintain the handgun on their person. In addition, she explained that at anytime they are driving in an automobile they will carry a handgun in the vehicle. She said they carry the weapons for the purpose of protecting themselves from the police.

[] then addressed her comments to [] and [] She noted that the two must make a decision regarding their residence. She noted that [] continues to live with [] at [] in New Orleans. She said that the two could move to 1024 Jackson if they so desired. She explained she wants to get [] away from [] and wants to get [] away from a friend of his, []

(U) She also explained that the two must make a decision regarding what type of handgun they desire to carry and that they then must obtain these weapons. [] indicated that it was not illegal to carry an unconcealed weapon, as long as it was not an automatic weapon. By "unconcealed," [] explained, one may leave the weapon in the glove compartment of their automobile. If they are stopped by the police, the driver should immediately lock the door and this would cause police to be forced to obtain a search warrant before they could examine the contents of the automobile.

[] also explained to the group the members must locate hiding places in the area to conceal either themselves or other individuals if going underground becomes necessary. [] stated the group should look for abandoned houses where it would be appropriate to leave medical supplies. In addition, ~~hiding~~ places should be arranged with close and trusted friends in the Movement. [] also stated that members of the group should discreetly comment to their close associates outside the Urban Guerrilla Group that the entire group may leave for California in the near future. She explained that, therefore, if the group actually does leave in a "minute's notice" no one else in the Movement will be alarmed.

b6
b7C

[] explained that the group, of course, will not leave for California and that the group has no plans to leave New Orleans. By spreading the word, however, that the group is going to California we may hide in the New Orleans area and none of our friends will wonder what happened to us. []

~~(S)~~

(U) [] indicated that [] and a member of the Urban group, who is an employee of the library at Delgado College, New Orleans, is in the process of attempting to locate hiding places for the group in the Cajun country in southern Louisiana. [] explained that in the event members of the Urban Guerrilla Group in New Orleans have to find a hiding place, we may be able to go into the rural part of the State.

b6
b7C

[] explained that members of the group may decide to commit an illegal act, such as the robbery of a bank or other store, and that the group will need a place to hide out.

b6
b7C

[] commented that the group wants to do everything they can to fight the military and industrial complex in the U.S., strengthen itself, and serve the people. They feel that possibly in the future

b6
b7C

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

they may commit a bank robbery or any other illegal act to achieve the above objective.

All the members of the group ^{expressed} ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ agreement regarding the general objective of committing an illegal act at some time in the future.

[] was then overheard to say that the group need not worry regarding any comments they made, for the house was not "bugged."

[] also mentioned that she and [] (LNU) are members of the ~~several~~ Shooting Clubs or Shooting Ranges in the New Orleans area. She indicated that she registered with her true name with these clubs.

Regarding illegal acts, both [] mentioned that one possibility for the group would be an assassination. They both indicated an excellent prospect would be the author of the recent book, "The Southern Stages of Economic Growth." The author is a professor of economics at the University of Texas at Austin, Texas.

~~(T) This is a fact that was overheard at a meeting at []~~ This person has also served on Government economic boards. The two explained that the book sets forth a rationalization for American imperialism and capitalism that the author of the book would be a good subject ^{they said,} to assassinate, for his assassination would be a ~~extreme~~ symbolic. [] also commented that this professor has a CIA contract and that he were assassinated it would frighten all the other ~~professors~~ all the other professors with CIA contracts in the country.

It should be emphasized that the above was discussed in terms of a possible group activity and no specific plan was formulated to actually put into effect the assassination.

[] indicated that she in the recent past has spent several hundred dollars on firearms. [] explained that she purchased guns at a local gun store in New Orleans. She explained that the proprietor would always sell guns to conservatives and members of the right wing organizations. The only way that she can obtain the weapons, she explained, is to convey the impression that she is a merely a housewife and has some connections with the conservative light organization. She also indicated that whenever she can attend a gun fair in the surrounding area she will do so and attempt to purchase weapons through them. She indicated that she purchases most of her weapons at a gun shop in either Slidell or Covington,

(U) Louisiana.

[] explained that she has developed extremely good contacts with the proprietor of the ^{above} gun shop and that he now looks upon her as an extremely good customer.

[] also indicated that she has purchased a number of weapons from the gun stores in the French Quarter section of New Orleans.

[] also said that the group must obtain substantial supplies (medical supplies), and she pointed out many of the items are supplies that the ordinary person cannot purchase, such as hypodermic needles, and, vaccines. She indicated that one possible site for medical supplies ^{abandoned} is at an/ factory on Bernard Avenue.

in St. Bernard Parish. She explained that if a member of the group is injured that person can go to the factory and treat himself.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

in the very near future members of the group will be handled. She also stated ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ medical treatments for each other and that members of the group must determine their blood types in the future to secure blood. [] stated the place was probably "bugged" and ^{someone} was probably listening to everything that was said. He said that none of the individuals present knew anything about electronics and that even though [] may have looked around the place for electronics eavesdropping devices she certainly could not be certain.

[] replied that it didn't matter. She explained that nobody would take the group seriously. In addition, she said, the police would react.

by saying that members of the group should not be taken seriously. She also stated that individuals in the group did not discuss any specific plans, nor plan to put into effect in the immediate future while at 10741044 Jackson.

[] stated that the above may be true; however, there are few groups who will discuss Urban Guerrilla warfare. [] further stated that as a result, the authorities would most probably watch this group more closely than they would watch a group merely discussing ideology. [] replied by saying there was simply no way for the authorities to effectively "watch us." She said they could observe the group train, listen to our meetings at 1034 Jackson, but she said that as long as the ^{police} do not have an informer in the group there is no way they can know when we plan a particular act. She stated that when we make a decision to commit a particular illegal act, we can then go underground.

[redacted] in her opinion, is a fool. She indicated he does not

[redacted] is pursuing the wrong road to a revolution. She indicated that she has "...feeling of affiliation in terms of ideology...." with the individuals who have broken away from [redacted] and are pursuing the goal of armed revolt now against the State. She indicated that these people are the ones who are really carrying the revolutionary burden and the struggle in the country at this time. [redacted] ^{also} indicated that it would be futile and meaningless to begin a Revolutionary Union chapter in New Orleans. She explained that by working with the Revolutionary guerrilla ^{group} in New Orleans, with which she is presently affiliated, this Urban Guerrilla group can maintain contact with all such revolutionary guerrilla movements throughout the country. (c)

(U) She noted that the Urban Guerrilla Group in New Orleans, which believes ⁱⁿ armed struggle, can maintain loose contacts with the more militant faction in the Revolutionary Union and even with the Weathermen.

Regarding [redacted] stated that, in her opinion,

[] then brought up the subject of the District Attorney in New Orleans, JIM GARRISON, who has written a book regarding his investigation of the KENNEDY assassination captioned, "A Heritage of Stone." Available at the meeting was an autographed copy of the book directed to one member of the Guerrilla Group, [] who works in the library at Delgado College. The book was given to [] during the Summer 1970 by GARRISON and on the front cover of the book he wrote the following statement:

"With grateful appreciation of her interest and deep gratitude for her insight and deep gratification for her understanding

(U) of what I'm trying to say in this book." (C)

[] said that she has been studying JIM GARRISON for approximately one year and she indicated that she "...knows how to program him." She explained that he is a very interesting man with a great deal of leadership ability but she stated the CIA and the entire Government is trying to stop him from proceeding with his work. [] indicated that she has carefully analyzed GARRISON himself and has carefully analyzed everything he has written in his book. [] indicated that, in her opinion, he has great potential to be used for the revolutionary movement in this country. She indicated that as a major goal, she personally will attempt to widen the split between the District Attorney's office in New Orleans and the New Orleans Police Department. She indicated that she considers the above to be part of her work as the primary strategist for the Urban Guerrilla Group in New Orleans.

[] also discussed the Revolutionary Union, which is headquartered in San Francisco. She noted that the organization has split into two factions and that the former leader of the Group,

b7C

[] also said in her ~~opinion~~ ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ the FBI is "a paper tiger" and she noted they simply haven't caught anybody.

She cited as an example, the Weatherman fugitives.

b6
b7C

Regarding the local New Orleans Police Department, [] stated that it is obvious that they have an extremely low morale and, in her opinion, the Urban Guerrilla Group would not have to fear the New Orleans Police Department nor the FBI. She explained that revolutionaries will risk their lives to bring about their goals but that the members of the law enforcement agencies will withdraw from a difficult situation rather than risk their lives.

b6

[] indicated in her opinion the right wing groups are not a threat either for, she stated, most of them have disbanded.

(U) [] stated that members of the Urban Guerrilla ^{Group} must learn the warehouses in the Port of New Orleans very well. Specifically, members must break into warehouses to determine where ammunition and weapons are maintained. (C)

The above was described in terms not of the present activity but rather of some possible future activity. She indicated that ^{as for now} members of the group should simply walk around the area and surveil the area but will not actually break into the warehouse. She noted, however, that most of the warehouses are open and individuals can simply walk in without causing suspicion.

Los Angeles, California

August 11, 1971

I. Subject: DOROTHY RAY HEALEY - Report of Public Remarks made on Her
KPFK-FM Radio Broadcast of August 10, 1971 re JOHN F. KENNEDY Assassination

II. Time: 11.03-11.45 P.M.

III. Guests Identified:

JACK C. KIMBROUGH
IVAN DRYER
PAUL EBERLE

IV. Information Concerning:

1) KPFK has revived its old DOROTHY R. HEALEY radio show. KPFK had dropped her several months ago, but she is now back. In one of her last shows, broadcasted in December of 1970, Mrs. HEALEY had launched into a scathing and critical attack on New Orleans' D. A. JIM GARRISON. GARRISON, she noted, had failed to obtain a conviction in the homicide of JOHN F. KENNEDY against CLAY L. SHAW. SHAW, said GARRISON, had been one of many conspirators. HEALEY stated then that was one reason why GARRISON was a fraud. She had urged the L.A. FREE PRESS, MARK LANE, MORT SAHL, RAMPARTS, etc., to join her in calling him a fraud. On last evenings show, she recalled that CARL BRADEN had, in 1970, called GARRISON a fraud. HEALEY stated that BRADEN put stock in an anti-GARRISON work written by MILTON E. BRENER. BRADEN states, according to HEALEY, that GARRISON, as New Orleans D. A. in 1963, had cooperated with a La. State "HUAC" operation against a JAMES DOMBROSKY and others. HEALEY's implication is that GARRISON was a right-wing extremist anti-Communist type, as well as being an undercover GEORGE C. WALLACE. GARRISON is a former Special FBI Agent who was originally elected D. A. in New Orleans on a reform ticket. He has appointed Negroes as assistant D. A.'s and had Negro support in being re-elected twice. GARRISON was recently arrested by U.S. Justice Dept. Organized Crime Division and Treasury's IRS for allegedly accepting a bribe in hoodlum pin ball machines, or these criminal operations. The FBI in Washington D.C. or the FBI in New Orleans under SAC HARRY MAYNARD, or the U.S. Secret Service, are not involved officially or publicly in the Justice-Dept.-IRS bust on GARRISON. ED REID, an organized crime expert respected by FBI Agent and Justice Dept. Organized Crime Squad agents, says in THE GRIM REAPERS, paperback edition, page 158, that D. A. GARRISON turned down a $3,000 per week bribe in hoodlum slot machine operations in 1963 and that the bribe came from La. Organized Crime director CARLOS MARCELLO. REID indicated that he believes that GARRISON turned the bribe down because he noted that BILL DAVIDSON of LIFE magazine had said that this was the case, and by the way in which REID brought up GARRISON. REID also notes on page 159 that FBI Agent PAT COLLINS, JR., had been punched by MARCELLO. MARCELLO has since spent 6 months in jail for Assaulting a Federal Officer.

2) On last evenings show, Mrs. HEALEY presented 3 guests to speak in defense of GARRISON. They were: JACK C. KIMBROUGH, the founder of the Echo Park Commission on Law and Order; PAUL EBERLE, the publisher of the Los Angeles STAR; and IVAN DRYER, an EPC member and a STAR columnist. KIMBROUGH is a man alleged to believe that the CIA had a hand in assassinating Pres. KENNEDY. EBERLE is alleged to think that the CIA, with the Pentagon and the FBI, had KENNEDY assassinated, partly to keep the Vietnam war going. DRYER presented some interesting data about the SHAW trial.

3) KIMBROUGH noted to Mrs. HEALEY that the left-wing movement has not supported GARRISON, and that, therefore, her argument that the Movement has been behind GARRISON is an argument that has no basis in actuality. Mrs. HEALEY commended EBERLE for having such a pro-Black Panther latest STAR edition out on the streets. (SARGEANT RAYMOND CALLAHAN of the LAPD C.C.S. is named at least twice in the issue. Lt. ROBERT KEEL of that same outfit is not mentioned). On page 2 of the current STAR issue on the street EBERLE, or someone, has this item in column 1-2: "KENNEDY - Sen. EDWARD M. KENNEDY (D. Mass.) told newsmen Tuesday that the possibility of being assassinated was 'the most crushing' consideration in his decision not to run for the presidency next year. His statement raises some interesting questions-like, if OSWALD is dead, and SIRHAN is in prison, and they had no co-conspirators, as we were told, then who would Sen. KENNEDY have to fear? Could it be possible that the government has not told us the whole story? Heaven forbid!" Assassination is on the mind of PAUL EBERLE. EBERLE told Mrs. HEALEY that GARRISON's movement supporters were practically limited to the 3 people in the studio with her. On page 5 of the current (8/8/71) edition of the STAR, DRYER's "Assassination Roundup" Column appears. DRYER, when more active with the EPC last year, has a wife who was coming home one night when some men began roughing her up and wanted to know "where the (RFK assassination) evidence (against them) was being kept." Out of many critics, some persons who seem to be involved in the RFK case or with SIRHAN are or were very concerned that the DRYER's were going to get them busted.

4) Mrs. HEALEY noted to pro-Panther EBERLE that the Black Panthers' latest newspaper issue is supposed to feature a "Get GARRISON" item. She said that the persons writing the Panther issue consider him as worse as GEORGE C. WALLACE. EBERLE replied to her that persons in the black and youth movements in New Orleans had told him that GARRISON was not causing them any trouble. MARKS LANE has said that Negroes in New Orleans overwhelmingly voted for him in the last D. A.'s election, despite the SHAW failure. The Police Superintendent, Mr. GIURRUSSO (phon. spelling), actually began the NOPD escalation on the Black Panthers when GARRISON was having his back operation and recovering from it last year and this year. EBERLE added that GARRISON has told him personally that the only Black Panthers left in New Orleans are nonexistent, and that, subsequently, the current Panthers are of the variety CIA-DIA-FBI-style. The Internal Revenue Service, it is known, was the federal agency coordinating attacks on the Panthers in 1969-1970. The Mayor of Seattle helped expose them. The IRS also coordinate the Governments' arrest of GARRISON. The Black Panthers in prison only began attacking GARRISON after the IRS busted him. The Panthers are infiltrated by FBI-CIA-DIA, and these Panthers could, indeed, be Agents. DICK GREGORY regularly gives support to GARRISON. ELDRIDGE CLEAVER has had no reason to be against GARRISON, the CIA fighting D. A. in New Orleans. According to material in the current STAR issue, the HUEY NEWTON Panthers have not decided to purge MELVIN SMITH despite their allegedly knowledge that SMITH had been a guest of Sgt. RAY CALLAHAN and would likely turn States evidence. CLEAVER has accused the Communist Party USA of being in or working with the CIA. The John Birch Society has said the same thing. In New Orleans, it is possible that the local Panthers would cooperate with IRS if they thought it would help them get out of jail. As for NEWTON, the Birch Society has accused him of being a Federal Government Employee, as well as BOBBY SEALE. The Birch Society sees a conspiracy over Communism that is called The Insiders, and they see NEWTON as being an agent of this neo-Illuminati. If The Insiders are against GARRISON, then NEWTON is one of their agents taking orders in the specific conspiracy. The FBI and Director HOOVER have had "no comment" about Birch allegations. DONALD FREED has said that BOBBY SEALE's trip to New Haven, Conn., was financed by CIA Agent C. TRACY BARNES (the first director of the CIA's Domestic Operations Div.).

5) One book that I recently looked at in the JFK case is called "FAREWELL AMERICA!" I wanted to see the book because I understand its author, JAMES HEPBURN, is a pseudonym for operatives of the French secret service SDECE, not to be confused with the DST, of the French FBI. What the French C.I.A. says about the KENNEDY assassination is always of interest. On page 327, SDECE quotes VLADIMIR Y. SEMICHASTNY, the former head of the KGB, as saying: "American spies must lead difficult lives. The most honest of them, and even their superiors, don't always know whom they're working for." On page 301, SDECE, or its representatives authorized to write this book, stated that before the end of November 22, 1963, the Secret Service knew that KENNEDY had been assassinated by professionals. SDECE says that the Agents of the SS discussed the professional nature of the conspiracy in their personal reports to SS Director JAMES ROWLEY. SDECE says that the Service recognized that it was a plot and that it had 3 or 4 gunmen fairly fast. "ROBERT KENNEDY, who had already interrogated KELIERMAN, learned that evening from ROWLEY that the Secret Service believed that President had been the victim of a powerful organization." This is a quote from that page. It is a quote that really sticks to the conscience of my brain. It is why I brought up FAREWELL AMERICA! here. It says a lot. It tells you what money means to the people who have it and how they use it. The "powerful organization" that the SDECE discussed is one that was able to keep ROBERT KENNEDY quiet about the matter until he died, even though he knew it existed. It tells you something about what being "powerless" means.

6) HEALEY and EBERLE were, for a moment, trying to figure out who is a CIA agent. Was it OSWALD? Was it SIRHAN? Is it the Panthers like NEWTON or MEL SMITH? Is it Sgt. RAYMOND CALLAHAN? Is it someone in that studio? Was it LEE OSWALD's wife? Or, perhaps, are they all victims of CIAPHOBIA, in which the CIA just keeps quiet to provoke the imaginations of the gullible? DRYER started talking about reality. He said that GARRISON demolished the Warren REPORT in trial court. He said that Col. PIERRE FINCK testified at the SHAW trial that when FINCK, at KENNEDY's (JOHN) autopsy, he was probing the neck wound to see if a bullet had gone through KENNEDY's body, a General or an Admiral or both told him to stop. DRYER also said that the Zapruder film of the assassination showed KENNEDY being hit from the grassy knoll or words to that effect. (FINCK helped with the RFK autopsy as well).

7) Mrs. HEALEY seemed to be saying that she wished she never brought it up last December. What a mess and intertwined drama she got herself mixed up into, she seemed to be saying. As a Party official, she is supposed to defend the interests of the Soviet Union. As a Leftist, she tries to purge it of undesirable influences. She wouldn't say why she thinks that the CIA would kill KENNEDY, if she thought that. For the benefit of her running feud with the FBI, she even defended GARRISON's book as being straight. She doesn't seem enthusiastic about GARRISON's contention that KENNEDY was so free of Cold War cliches. One caller called in and gave her a nightmare: He said that a KGB intelligence officer in jail in South Africa has said that KGB knew that KENNEDY would get killed before he did, etc. Then DRYER started telling Moscow's Red Queen of the West that he thinks that U.S. and Russian Intelligence actually works together and pulls together on certain matters. DRYER evidently sees a CIA-KGB-DI6 "Criminal Conspiracy Section" on an international level: the CCS of the LAPD is the group that all of the intelligence-type cops pool into in L.A. (One wonders what Sgt. CALLAHAN or Lt. KEEL thought of the Federal Narcotics Unit arrest of Officer HARDY FERNANDEZ and his wife and others for selling cocaine and not telling what else. FERNANDEZ, a 9 year veteran of the LAPD, was the LAPD Intelligence Squad's man at L.A. International Airport where he represented the Organized Crime Unit of Police Intelligence, and perhaps the Public Disorder Unit when IRVIN SARNOFF had peace actions there).

8). One arm of the U.S. Government that has had its reputation damaged badly by the GARRISON charges has been the Central Intelligence Agency. KENNEDY had fired its daddy, and Director, ALLEN DULLES after the Bay of Pigs in 1961. DULLES was a charter member of the CFR; unlike other charter members of that group, he had a particular interest in intelligence and his work in the OSS and connections in Government made him the ideal daddy of the CIA. When JFK fired DULLES, he made the mistake of making an intelligence agency leaderless in a time of great crisis for it. The CIA had just had its U-2 flights over Russia canceled and its child (the U-2) had its cover blown. The creator of the U-2 program, RICHARD M. BISSEL, had, along with DULLES, been fired for having run the Bay of Pigs. It was incredible that BISSEL had the genius to run the U-2 program but could ever plan the disastrous Bay of Pigs. KENNEDY fired DULLES at a time in which the Agency needed a leader, and with its father gone at that time, KENNEDY opened up troubles for himself that he only dimly perceived then. He did say that he should have appointed BOBBY as the DCI in 1961 and replaced DULLES then. That he didn't, according to GARRISON, is what eventually brought him down in Dallas in 1963 and which could have contributed to bringing RFK down in 1968. From 1961 until 1965, the CIA was in turmoil. JOHN MCCONE brought it under control somewhat, but RAYBURN had really screwed things up. "He's running a sinking ship" was the word at CIA. By 1966 DICK HELMS had taken over as the DCI. HELMS gradually began to put things back in order at CIA. He restored, as an Agency professional, field confidence in Washington. Even the Press and some of the public took a shine to HELMS. He was cool and pretty straight thinking and he started plugging up the holes. HELMS had been one of those who had known KGB man KIM PHILBY when KIM was working undercover for the KGB (or NKVD) as the British SIS (or MI6 now DI6) link man to the FBI, CIA and RCMP around 1949-1950. HELMS is supposed to have been one of those who did not talk a lot about anything significant around PHILBY, although, unlike a certain FBI Agent, he never came after KIM with a pistol (the FBI man had just missed PHILBY as PHILBY was on his way back to London when the Agent came after him). Given the data on OSWALD and his CIA connections, perhaps the vacuum at CIA in 1963 had encouraged field renegades to move on KENNEDY. If DDP HELMS had gone along with it, then perhaps this is why such a cool intelligence man would ever support a disaster like the war in Vietnam. Vietnam is a contradiction to HELMS's intelligence and capabilities, but then so was the Bay of Pigs to BISSEL. One wonders what is really going on at CIA.

9) DOROTHY HEALEY has had her share of GARRISONism. Poor DOROTHY.

He Didn't Like Garrison

By JOHN A. BARBOUR

WASHINGTON (AP) — J. Edgar Hoover, the late FBI director, developed an abiding distaste for New Orleans District Attorney James Garrison and his attempts to prove that President John F. Kennedy was the victim of a conspiracy.

FBI memos, released Wednesday, contained scrawled references to Garrison in Hoover's handwriting characterizing the controversial prosecutor as an "ego-maniac" and a "shyster." Garrison's investigation focused on the theory that Lee Harvey Oswald conspired with New Orleans sex deviates to kill Kennedy. There is no indication in the files that the FBI conducted an active investigation into Garrison's activities. It did, however, meticulously record volumes of derogatory data volunteered by informants, all of whose names were censored from the memos.

On one memo Hoover wrote: "More and more it becomes evident we should stay as far away as we can from this shyster."

In another he said, "I want no injection of the FBI into this farce. Already it is back-firing on Garrison and any action of ours can be twisted by this ego-maniac."

In still another, Hoover wrote: "I again stress I want no statements, whether on or off the record, made about the Garrison fiasco."

C. D. De Loach, a top FBI official, noted in a memo that then-U.S. Attorney General Ramsey Clark had relayed the fears of Rep. Hale Boggs, D-La., a member of the Warren Commission, that Garrison's allegations "might in some manner involve the President (Johnson)." Clark said he hoped "the FBI was on top of this situation."

De Loach informed Clark that Hoover "had already instructed us to closely follow this matter." He also noted that Garrison "apparently desired to run for lieutenant governor and was attempting to engender as much publicity as possible for himself."

Hoover, in another memo the same month, February 1967, said: "See that our New Orleans office meticulously stays on top of this fiasco. It smells."

FBI informants were even more condemnatory of Garrison and his actions. He was characterized as a psychopath, supported by a wealthy New Orleans car dealer. They alleged that he had bought an expensive home and had spent $25,000 on furniture, despite the fact that he had entered public office "dstitute."

Hoover waved away requests that the FBI enter the New Orleans investigation with the statement that it was outside of FBI jurisdiction and a matter for the state.

In orders to his special agents in charge, Hoover wrote in March 1967 regarding Garrison's investigation:

"All offices should continue to accept any information regarding the assassination; however, no investigation is to be conducted without bureau approval irrespective of the nature of the data furnished."

"Should pertinent information be received, which by necessity requires immediate investigation or other action, the bureau is to be notified either by telephone or teletype, depending upon the urgency of the situation."

Also in 1967, the FBI summarized all of the information it had on Garrison, omitting informants' names. It was two pages long and alleged connections with prostitutes and hoodlums.

It also noted: "He (Garrison) served as a special agent of the FBI from March 5, 1951, resigning on July 24, 1951, to enter military service. His services were considered satisfactory."
