WFO 9-NEW

A summary teletype from the office of origin must reach the Bureau by close of business 5/27/74, immediately followed by LHM from office of origin suitable for dissemination.

This material was received 5/13/74 from SA [REDACTED] U.S. Secret Service (USSS), Washington, D.C. (WDC). USSS has made a check of their name and visual files of previously submitted letters with the following results:

The Intelligence Division, USSS, WDC, has associated captioned letter with one ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER who they believe beginning in 1971 through 1972 wrote four typewritten obscene letters to President NIXON and then Secretary of Treasury JOHN CONNALLY. Association based on letter content, form of letter and use of words. SCHUSTER was interviewed on 12/4/72 by USSS and denied authorship of letters. USSS closed case after receiving report of a [REDACTED] Toledo Mental Health Center, Toledo, Ohio, who advised that ANNETTE SCHUSTER suffers from the mental disease of Schizo-depression with paranoid ideas and is dangerous only to herself as she has attempted suicide, but is not dangerous to others. When interviewed in 1972, [REDACTED] as well as SCHUSTER's father, stated that she could have written letters but not recalled same as she is often under heavy medication. SCHUSTER is a white female, date of birth 12/4/36, place of birth Toledo, Ohio, 5', 140 pounds, address (1972) 24709 West River Road, Perrysburg, Ohio, telephone 878-3756, Social Security Account Number 269-34-0152.

ADMINISTRATIVE: (NOT FOR DISSEMINATION)

USSS determined ANNETTE SCHUSTER was not a threat to any of the protectees of that service.

USSS Intelligence and WFO believe similarities exist in captioned letter and letter in WFO case entitled:

UNSUB;
Representative AL ULLMAN - VICTIM EXTORTION
(OO:AX)
(WFO file 9-3386)

On 5/15/74 SA [REDACTED] advised the following individuals of the threat:

Klassen's Christmas presents

WASHINGTON: Postmaster General E. T. Klassen soaked the taxpayers $48,091.10 last Christmas for 350 fancy stamp albums, which he gave away as Christmas presents to friends and officials.

This is another example of the extravagance which has driven up the price the public must pay for mailing letters. In a series of columns, we have been reporting on misspending and mismanagement in the Postal Service.

The procurement director, Conrad Trahern, was so startled over the order for 350 Christmas stamp albums that he began asking questions. This got back to Assistant Postmaster General Robert McCutcheon, who fired off a sharp memo to Trahern, demanding to know who was poking into Klassen's Christmas boondoggle.

Inquiries had been made, wrote McCutcheon indignantly, about "some souvenir stamp albums prepared for the Postmaster General. Questions were asked as to how many were bought, what the costs were and what they were used for. Please advise as to why this inquiry was made and who was requesting the information. . . . What was the information to be used for?"

McCutcheon got back a straightforward reply. "I was the one who was asking the questions," wrote Trahern. "Since I am responsible for procurement, I have always made it my business to know what is going on in my organization. For the present time, the information is to be used for only my personal knowledge."

The details, thereafter, were suppressed by the postal brass. Nevertheless, we have obtained a complete breakdown of the $48,091.10 it cost the taxpayers for Klassen's Christmas presents.

The Postal Service did not respond to our request for comment. Trahern, who has left the Postal Service, refused to comment on postal matters.

Sparkman's style

Sen. John Sparkman, D-Ala., a Southern gentleman who likes to travel in style, saved 18 colleagues and their wives the indignity of flying home from Paris after Easter in a cramped and unadorned plane.

The senator telephoned the White House from Paris and demanded a more suitable plane to return the nine senators, 10 representatives, their spouses and purchases.

At first, the White House told Sparkman all the plush planes were in use. But someone close to the President, possibly remembering that all those legislators in Paris soon will be voting on impeachment, had afterthoughts.

Sparkman got a return call from the White House, offering him one of Vice President Gerald Ford's planes. Ford was vacationing in Palm Springs, it was explained, and wouldn't be needing the plane over the weekend.

The sleek jet made a special flight to Paris—at the taxpayers' expense, of course—to pick up the congressional travelers.

Sparkman was pleased with himself. "It was the same plane," he boasted afterward, "that Lyndon Johnson used when he was President."

THE CONGRESSIONAL delegation traveled to Europe ostensibly to attend the Inter-Parliamentary Union meeting in Bucharest. Their wives went along, Sparkman explained to us, "as a matter of protocol." All their travel and hotel bills were picked up, therefore, by the taxpayers.

An examination of their itinerary suggests, however, that the group spent more time East-ering in Athens and shopping in Paris than attending inter-parliamentary meetings.

They bought so much loot, say our sources, that they couldn't load it all aboard the small plane, which originally had been dispatched to haul them home from Paris. But Sparkman indignantly denied to us that he demanded a larger plane to accommodate the wives' Paris purchases.

The smaller plane, he insisted, was simply inadequate. It "didn't even have windows," he sputtered.

Washington whirl

Former Attorney General John Mitchell, who used to be consulted daily by President Nixon, has been abandoned by the White House in his hour of tribulation. But Mitchell, surprisingly, is not at all bitter. He has assured skeptical friends that the President is really a warm, compassionate man . . . the Russian literary great, Alexander Solzhenitsyn, was distressed over U.S. press reaction to his open letter to Soviet leaders last Fall. Some U.S. critics saw pro-authoritarian sentiments in his unabashed love of his native Russia. "I was very surprised," wrote Solzhenitsyn in a private letter to two U.S. congressmen, "to find that this (letter) was incorrectly and superficially interpreted by your country's press" . . .

. . . after we exposed the hazardous, ramshackle conditions of mobile homes provided by the federal government for victims of Hurricane Agnes, an effort was made to upgrade inspections. A secret report of the New York Public Interest Research Group, however, charges the effort has not been successful . . . J. Curtis Herge, the bagman for $25,000 to $50,000 from a milk cooperative to the 1972 Nixon campaign, has been picked as special assistant to Interior Secretary Rogers Morton. Although the contribution was patently illegal, the man who hired Herge, Interior Solicitor Kent Frizzell, insists Herge's actions in accepting the cash were "in every way legal, moral and otherwise acceptable."

Senate fight assured over federal pay raise

BY DAN E. TIMMASON
Scripps Howard Staff Writer

WASHINGTON: Chairman Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., of the Senate Postoffice and Civil Service Committee said today he will fight President Ford's efforts to delay what Ford called an "inflationary" $775 million pay raise for federal employees.

Senators close to McGee said a resolution disapproving of Ford's proposed three-month delay for the raise will be adopted "rather handily" by the committee within the next few weeks.

And Senate Republican Whip Robert P. Griffin, Mich., introduced a Senate floor vote in the test of opposition on the economy between Ford and the Democratic-controlled Congress could be very close.

"We have a real difficult test on the issue," Griffin said, noting that powerful federal employees unions already have begun an all-out lobbying effort to prevent the delay from Oct. 1 to Jan. 1 in the scheduled 5.5 per cent increase.

UNDER THE LAW, which grants the yearly increase to federal workers, Congress has 30 days in which to disapprove Ford's proposed delay. That 30 days began last Monday when the President announced he was asking for the delay.

All that is needed for the raise to go into effect Oct. 1 is a veto in the House or the Senate or disapproval of Ford's proposal by a simple majority.

While House leaders believe they can win in the House where all members are up for reelection and subject to challenge as "big spenders," by voters worried about inflation. But only one-third of the Senate's members face reelection this fall and chances ofousting the President there are considered good.

GRIFIN WELDED that Ford's plan of reducing federal jobs by 20,000, thus saving an estimated $600 million in addition to the $600 million saved by delaying the pay increase, would cut federal expenditures by $1 billion for the 1975 fiscal year.

"This is a good place to begin if we are serious about the battle against inflation," Griffin said.

McGee and others, however, agree with federal employees union supporters that the 5.5 per cent is too low anyway and has been too long in coming.

SENATOR P. GRIFIN

They contend that federal employees should not be asked to make sacrifices as one plant is willing to make.

Those opposing the President's delay also argue the increase is strictly a catch-up which brings federal employees to the pay level those working in private industry have held for 100 years.

SA [REDACTED] U. S. Secret Service, is based on letter content, form of letter and use of words. Schuster was interviewed on December 4, 1972, letters. U. S. Secret Service closed case after receiving report of a [REDACTED] Toledo Mental Health suicide, but is not dangerous to others.

On May 20, 1974, Assistant United States Attorney

Senate fight assured over federal pay raise

BY DAN K. THOMASSON
Scripps-Howard Staff Writer

WASHINGTON: Chairman Gale W. McGee, D-Wyo., of the Senate Postoffice and Civil Service Committee said today he will fight President Ford's efforts to delay what Ford called an "inflationary" $700 million pay raise for federal employees.

Sources close to McGee said a resolution disapproving of Ford's proposed three-month delay for the raise will be adopted "rather handily" by the committee within the next two weeks.

And Senate Republican Whip Robert P. Griffin, Mich., conceded a Senate floor vote in this test of cooperation on the economy between Ford and the Democratic-controlled Congress could be very close.

"We have a real difficult test on our hands," Griffin said, noting that powerful federal employee unions already have begun an all-out lobbying effort to prevent the delay from Oct. 1 to Jan. 1 in the scheduled 5.5 per cent increase.

UNDER THE LAW which grants the yearly increase to federal workers, Congress has 30 days in which to disapprove Ford's proposed delay. That 30 days began last Saturday when the President announced he was asking for the delay.

All that is needed for the raise to go into effect Oct. 1 as scheduled is for either the House or the Senate to disapprove of Ford's proposal by a simple majority.

White House advisers believe they can win in the House where all members are up for re-election and subject to challenge as "big spenders" by voters worried about inflation. But only one-third of the Senate's members face re-election this fall and chances of overriding the President there are considered good.

GRIFFIN NOTED that Ford's plan of reducing federal jobs by 40,000, thus saving an estimated $300 million in addition to the $700 million saved by delaying the pay increase, would cut federal expenditures by $1 billion for the 1975 fiscal year.

"This is a good place to begin if we are earnest about the battle against inflation," Griffin said.

McGee and others, however, agree with federal employee union arguments that the 5.5 per cent is too low anyway and has been too long in coming.

They contend that federal employees should not be asked to make sacrifices no one else is willing to make.

Those opposing the President's delay also argue the increase is strictly a catch-up which brings federal employees to the pay level those working in private industry have held for the last year.

You will be separately advised regarding the latent fingerprint examination and return of the submitted evidence.

For your information Q1 and Q2 in this case were submitted by your office with an airtel dated 5/15/74. The Cincinnati file for Q1 and Q2 is 9-2869

Also for your information the U.S. Secret Service, Washington, D. C., advised they had associated Q1 and Q2 with ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER. Since SCHUSTER suffers from a mental disease of Schizo-depression with paranoid ideas and is dangerous only to herself as she has attempted suicide, the Secret Service closed their case and the AUSA, Cincinnati, Ohio, declined prosecution on Q1 and Q2 because of the mental condition of SCHUSTER.

ENCLOSURE

RE: UNKNOWN SUBJECT;
Seniors Incorporated,
Also Known As, etc.

On September 19, 1974, the FBI Laboratory advised that they had identified described extortion letter as being typed from the same typewriter used to prepare a similar extortion letter addressed to Caspar W. Weinberger and Wilbur Mills, Washington, D. C., postmarked May 1, 1974, with the return address of Sim-Bol-Eze Exterminators Americans Incorporated.

Special Agent [] United States Secret Service, Washington, D. C., advised in May, 1974, that he had associated the extortion letter addressed to Caspar Weinberger and Wilbur Mills with letters written by Annette Clara Schuster, who during the period between 1971 and 1972, had written four obscene letters to then president, Richard M. Nixon, and Secretary of Treasury John Connolly. Association of these letters was based on letter content, form of letter and use of words.

Schuster was subsequently interviewed in December, 1972, by United States Secret Service Agents, and denied authorship of described letters. Subsequent interviews of [] Toledo Mental Health Center, Toledo, Ohio, revealed that Schuster suffers from mental disease of schizo-depression with paranoid ideas and is dangerous only to herself as she has attempted suicide. Doctor [] advised that Schuster is not dangerous to others.

b7C

On September 27, 1974, the facts of this case were presented to Assistant United States Attorney Robert J. Kielty, Southern District of Ohio, Cincinnati, who declined prosecution in this case because suspect, Annette Clara Schuster, suffers from a mental disease of schizo-depression with paranoid ideas and is dangerous only to herself.

Local authorities, United States Secret Service authorities, and United States Postal Authorities, Cincinnati, were advised of this matter.

The following information and descriptive data was developed of Annette Clara Schuster:

Race:	White

Date of Birth:	December 4, 1936

Synopsis:

On 9/12/74, extortion letter received by Senate Post Office and Civil Service Committee, Washington, D. C., addressed to Senator GALE MC GEE. Letter postmarked United States Postal Service 450 (Cincinnati, Ohio area) dated 9/5/74. FBI laboratory concluded typewriting appearing in this letter identical with typewriting appearing on similar letter received by WILBUR MILLS and CASPER WEINBERGER, postmarked United States Postal Service 450, dated 5/1/74. United States Secret Service advised that ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER in all likelihood authored described letters and that SCHUSTER suffered from mental disease, Schizo - Depression, with paranoid ideas and is dangerous only to herself. AUSA KIELTY, Cincinnati, advised he would decline prosecution in this case because of SCHUSTER's mental condition. On 11/18/74, Postal Inspector [REDACTED] Cincinnati, advised he had similar handwritten threatening letters addressed to E. T. KLASSEN, POSTMASTER GENERAL, postmarked United States Postal Service 450, 9/6/74. TAPP provided a copy of death certificate number 05177, in the name of ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER, from the Ohio Department of Health, Toledo, Ohio, and advised suspect died of an overdose on 11/20/73. AUSA KIELTY advised he would hold prosecutive opinion in abeyance pending further investigation. Investigation continuing. IN VIEW OF THREATS MADE IN CAPTIONED MATTER, UNSUB SHOULD BE CONSIDERED DANGEROUS.

A cursory examination was conducted by SA [redacted] Cincinnati, of the handwritten obscenity and signature, [redacted] which appears on captioned extortion letter, compared with the handwriting appearing on the anonymous letter received from United States Postal Inspector [redacted] Cincinnati, addressed to E. T. KLASSEN, postmarked United States Postal Service, 450, September 6, 1974, signed SLA. It should be noted that enough similarities exist between the handwriting appearing on the two letters to suspect they were written by the same person.

On November 12, 1974, Assistant United States Attorney ROBERT J. KIELTY was recontacted and advised that the suspect in this case, ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER, was deceased. Assistant United States Attorney KIELTY advised after reconsidering the facts in this case, that he would hold his prosecutive opinion in abeyance pending further investigation to be conducted.

PAGE TWO

1. The first part of the document is a letter from the President of the United States to the Congress, dated January 1, 1861. It is a formal communication, and it is written in a very formal and dignified style. The President begins by addressing the Congress, and then he goes on to discuss the state of the Union. He mentions the recent election of Abraham Lincoln as President, and he expresses his confidence in the new administration. He also discusses the issue of slavery, and he states that he will support the Constitution and the laws of the United States.

Dear Sir:

Two of your men came to my house today unexpectedly and told me not to write "open" face messages anymore. Well, I did use the word "Bastard" in one of my cards and I think it was in "Bad" taste. You know, like a woman appearing in a Bikini Bathing Suit or Mini-shirts or men and women posing for "nude" centerfolds, etc. Yes, all in "Bad" taste, indeed. But what can you do in this "free" Democracy? You tell me! Before you know it, they'll all be strutting and farting, what will you do then? The good Lord knows that I'm a lady and should not resort to using the word

23 Oct. 1974

23 Oct. 1974

Spit words, who in the hell cares about the Black Community. To the Jews, the about all the white people are especially the older citizens who were reaped (death penalty) by a nation and even raped (death penalty) by a nation in this city. It's a very simple case and protest, it should be the white people. So just don't pay attention to these black trouble makers. They who would be back to back to back to back. The city feed all those people. This is a very simple case of a white officer, personally, congratulating a white officer, saying his job as an officer of the law, and a white officer told him to take up and take up a gun for protection. Just like the S. S. who had a gun on the South Side, he could have had a gun first. Here, 1933, and he had to die.

25 Oct. 1974

Have you no drive to send to the Postal Inspectors to my home, especially my good Catholic home with the Lord ordered to full view? But kind of times are you anyway to Leo's bookstore on Superior Street where all kinds of filth is being sold by that Jew to pollute the city. But your such damn evil men, yourself you have to bother such women. You want to bother me, you shunk. If that police officer is not doing his job for which the people of this city is paying him for, then you tell me what he is. Bastard is a word, well mild. I'm not a double-bastard, but a real liar, like this whole stinkin' administration is. I'm above-board and I come to the point. I tell a story of a story as it is, because my love, my girl, taught us to tell the truth and to expose crooks, Funks, etc. This is the way good Christian people should operate and get rid of these stinkin' COWARDS.

[redacted] may have authored similar annoying anonymous letters directed to various Government officials in the Toledo, Ohio, area. [redacted] advised that upon receipt of any positive information concerning [redacted] authorship of described letters, [redacted] would contact SA [redacted] immediately.

b6
b7C

The following investigation was conducted at Toledo, Ohio, and Perrysburg, Ohio, by SA [redacted] on the dates indicated:

On December 18, 1974, [redacted] Bureau of Vital Statistics, Toledo, Ohio, advised that their records reflect that ANNETTE SCHUSTER died on November 20, 1973, and that this was recorded on Certificate of Death Number 05177.

On January 8, 1975, Mrs. MARIE SCHUSTER, mother of ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER by adoption, was contacted by Special Agents [redacted] at her residence, 1150 Louisiana Avenue, Apartment 45, Perrysburg, Ohio. SCHUSTER advised that her daughter, ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER, had died in November of 1973, and that shortly afterward her husband passed away. Mrs. SCHUSTER was shown a copy of the letter sent to GALE W. MC GEE and E. T. KLASSEN. She advised that she did not believe that her daughter, ANNETTE CLARA SCHUSTER, had written any letter to any political figures as she did not know of anyone in politics. Mrs. SCHUSTER advised that she did not have a typewriter in her possession unless it would be among the possessions of her late daughter in her (ANNETTE's) room. Special Agents [redacted] were permitted to check the room formerly occupied by ANNETTE SCHUSTER and were unable to locate any typewriter.

b7C

On January 24, 1975, [redacted] Toledo, Ohio, Mental Health Clinic, advised that he is a psychiatrist and that he treated ANNETTE SCHUSTER for mental illness

prior to ANNETTE SCHUSTER's suicide in November, 1973.

[redacted] was shown copies of extortionate letters sent to E. T. KLASSEN and GALE MC GEE and WILBUR MILLS in May, 1974. [redacted] advised that it would be very highly unlikely for a person suffering the mental disorder that ANNETTE SCHUSTER had to author those type of letters. [redacted] advised that none of the patients that he is currently treating at the Toledo, Ohio, Mental Health Clinic were, in his opinion, likely to have written those letters. [redacted] advised that he has never personally treated [redacted] but [redacted] has been a patient at the Toledo Mental Health Clinic on several occasions; and her disorder has been diagnosed as [redacted] advised that [redacted] was last treated at the Mental Health Center from January 4, 1973, through May 4, 1973. [redacted] advised that he did not know of any associates of ANNETTE SCHUSTER who might have authored the letters.

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] at Cincinnati, Ohio:

On February 17, 1975, [redacted] Document Examiner, U. S. A SOURCE, WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST, ADVISED ON OCTOBER 8, 1974, THAT SECRETARY OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE (HEW), CASPER E. WEINBERGER WOULD ARRIVE AT THE GREATER CINCINNATI AIRPORT AT 6:59 A.M. ON OCTOBER 11, 1974, AND WOULD GO TO THE NETHERLAND HILTON HOTEL. SOURCE ADVISED THAT HE WOULD STAY THERE UNTIL 9:30 A.M. WITH THIS VISIT OF MR. WEINBERGER.

A SECOND SOURCE WHO HAS FURNISHED RELIABLE INFORMATION IN THE PAST ADVISED ON OCTOBER 8, 1974, THAT MEMBERS OF THE RSB, RU AND VVAW/WSO ARE CALLING FOR A DEMONSTRATION TO COMMENCE ON OCTOBER 11, 1974, IN CONNECTION WITH THE APPEARANCE OF SECRETARY OF HEW.

THE REVOLUTIONARY STUDENT BRIGADE (RSB), FORMERLY KNOWN AS THE ATTICA BRIGADE, IS A STUDENT-BASED ORGANIZATION FOUNDED IN NEW YORK CITY IN THE FALL OF 1971. THE RSB CONSIDERS ITSELF TO BE AN ANTI-IMPERIALIST ORGANIZATION WHICH VIEWS UNITED STATES IMPERIALISM AS THE MAIN ENEMY OF THE PEOPLE OF THE WORLD. THE RSB FAVORS VIOLENT ACTIONS TO FURTHER ITS CAUSE AND IS MOVING CLOSER IN IDEOLOGY TO THE REVOLUTIONARY UNION (RU), WHICH HAS SIGNIFICANTLY INFILTRATED THE RSB AND PLAYS A MAJOR ROLE IN THE RSB POLICIES, DECISIONS AND ACTIVITIES. AS OF JULY 1974, THE RSB IS HEADQUARTERED IN NEW YORK CITY. THE RU IS A MARXIST-LENINIST-MAOIST REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION.

THE REVOLUTIONARY UNION (RU), FOUNDED IN EARLY 1968 IN THE SAN FRANCISCO BAY AREA, IS A MILITANT SEMI-COVERT MARXIST-LENINIST REVOLUTIONARY ORGANIZATION IDEOLOGICALLY ORIENTED TOWARDS THE PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC OF CHINA AND THE TEACHINGS OF CHARIMAN MAO TSE-TUNG. ITS

OBJECTIVES AS SET FORTH IN ITS THEORETICAL PUBLICATION, "THE RED PAPERS", AND IN ITS MONTHLY NEWSPAPER, "REVOLUTION," ARE THE DEVELOPMENT OF A UNITED FRONT AGAINST IMPERIALISM, THE FESTERING OF ~~R~~EVOLUTIONARY WORKING CLASS UNITY AND LEADERSHIP IN STRUGGLE, AND THE FORMATION OF A COMMUNIST PARTY BASED ON MARXISM-LENINISM" MAO TSE-TUNG THOUGHT, LEADING TO THE OVERTHROW OF THE UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT BY FORCE AND VIOLENCE. MEMBERS OF THE RU HAVE BEEN IDENTIFIED AS COLLECTING WEAPONS WHILE ENGAGING IN FIREARMS AND GUERRILLA WARFARE TRAINING. AS OF JULY, 1974, RU NATIONAL HEADQUARTERS WAS LOCATED IN MAYWOOD, ILLINOIS.

THE VVAW WAS FORMED IN 1967 AS AN ORGANIZATION OF VIETNAM VETERANS TO PROTEST AMERICAN INVOLVEMENT IN THE WAR IN SOUTHEAST ASIA. SINCE THAT TIME VVAW LEADERS HAVE TOLD MEMBERS THE VVAW IS A REVOLUTIONARY GROUP, NOT "JUST ANOTHER GROUP OF WAR VETERANS". ALSO, THE MEMBERSHIP HAS BEEN TOLD THE VVAW HAS BEEN ASKED TO COOPERATE ON AN INTERNATIONAL LEVEL WITH MANY ORGANIZATIONS, INCLUDING COMMUNIST AND MAOIST GROUPS. ADDITIONALLY, IT WAS INDICATED THAT "ANTI-IMPERIALIST GROUPS" CONSIDER THE VVAW A POTENT ORGANIZATION OF SIMILAR STATURE IN THE U.S. IN APRIL, 1973, THE GROUP CHANGED THEIR NAME TO VVAW/WSO SO THAT NON-VETERANS COULD BECOME MEMBERS.

CURRENT VVAW/WSO NATIONAL OFFICERS ARE MARXIST-LENINIST ORIENTED AND STRIVE TO EDUCATE THEIR MEMBERSHIP IN MARXIST-LENINIST DOCTRINE.

THE JAMES HARDY DEFENSE COMMITTEE IS COMPRISED OF SOME MEMBERS OF THE RU, RSB, AND VVAW. [REDACTED]

AGAINST SECRETARY OF DEFENSE CASPAR WEINBERGER WILL BE HELD FROM 5:30 P.M., TO 8:00 P.M., ON NOVEMBER 8, 1984.

ON NOVEMBER 8, 1984, A GROUP OF ABOUT 1,000 DEMONSTRATORS STARTED THEIR MARCH AT THE INTERSECTION OF POST AND MONTGOMERY STREETS, SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, CARRYING THEIR BANNERS AND

SHOUTING THEIR SLOGANS AGAINST WEINBERGER AND THE CIA. THEY MARCHED WEST ON MARKET AND NORTH ON POWELL TO THE ST. FRANCES HOTEL, WHERE WEINBERGER WAS TO RECEIVE THE BAY AREA USO'S MAN OF THE YEAR AWARD FOR EXCEPTIONAL SERVICE TO THE MEN, WOMEN AND FAMILIES OF AMERICA'S MILITARY COMMUNITY.

THE DEMONSTRATION, WHICH WAS ORGANIZED BY A COALITION OF ORGANIZATIONS, CONTAINED BANNERS OF COMMITTEE IN SOLIDARITY WITH THE PEOPLE OF EL SALVADOR (CISPES), REVOLUTIONARY COMMUNIST PARTY (RCP), MOVIMIENTO PARA LA LIBERACION NACIONAL (MLN), FARABUNDO MARTI LIBERATION NACIONAL (FMLN), FUERZAS ARMADAS DE LIBERACION NACIONAL (FALN), SPARTACUS LEAGUE AND PRAIRIE FIRE ORGANIZING COMMITTEE (PFOC).

THIRTY DEMONSTRATORS WERE ARRESTED. ARRESTS WERE CAUSED BY 12 DEMONSTRATORS WHO DECIDED TO STAGE A "DIE IN" BLOCKING THE CABLE CAR TRACKS. WHEN THESE WERE ARRESTED, OTHER DEMONSTRATORS ATTEMPTED TO TAKE THE ARRESTED DEMONSTRATORS FROM THE POLICE OFFICERS.

THE ABOVE ARRESTS RECEIVED MUCH MEDIA COVERAGE BECAUSE THE TV CAMERAS AND LIGHTS WERE FOCUSED ON THE OFFICERS MAKING

Re Bureau airtel to WFO dated 5/2/83.

Enclosed for San Francisco are a copy of captioned forged letter dated 10/7/81; a letter signed by [redacted] dated 4/8/83, and a copy of the envelope used to mail the aforementioned letters to the American Jewish Committee.

b6
b7C

For information of San Francisco, the enclosed self-explanatory letters were sent to the American Jewish Committee (AJC), 2027 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Based upon the nature of these letters, it appears that it was intended for the reader to believe that [redacted] an employee of Bechtel had somehow obtained a copy of Secretary WEINBERGER's letter to GEORGE P. SCHULTZ, who was a Bechtel employee at that time. An examination of the envelope used to mail the letters to AJC shows that it was post-marked San Francisco, California on 4/10/83. The envelope bore the following return address. Bechtel Group of Companies, 50 Beale Street, San Francisco, California 94105.

The Bureau, through referenced airtel, requested that an investigation be initiated to determine the true origin of WEINBERGER's letter and the manner in which it surfaced.

HYMAN BOOKBINDER, Chairman, American Jewish Committee, advised that the enclosed letters were received at the AJC on 4/12/83. He stated the letters he received were copies and the GEORGE P. SCHULTZ letter was not very legible. BOOKBINDER advised after reading the letters, his initial concern was to determine whether the Secretary WEINBERGER letter to GEORGE P. SCHULTZ was legitimate. In his effort to determine the legitimacy of this letter, BOOKBINDER contacted DOV S. ZAKHEIM, Deputy Assistant to the Undersecretary of Defense for Policy Research and NICHOLAS A. VELIOTES, Assistant Secretary of State for the Middle East. BOOKBINDER advised that he was subsequently informed that the Department of Defense denied the authenticity of the letter in question.

BOOKBINDER stated that he does not know the identity of the [redacted] who reportedly authored the letter which accompanied the WEINBERGER to SCHULTZ letter. BOOKBINDER advised that he is not aware of any other individuals and/or groups receiving copies of the enclosed letters.

POSSIBLE FORGERY OF LETTER FROM SECRETARY OF DEFENSE CASPAR WEINBERGER
TO MR. GEORGE P. SCHULTZ, PRESIDENT, BECHTEL GROUP OF COMPANIES,
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA
FOREIGN COUNTERINTELLIGENCE - RUSSIA

All markings, notations and items of information contained in this communication are classified "~~Secret~~" unless otherwise noted.

On April 12, 1983, an envelope postmarked on April 10, 1983, at San Francisco, California, bearing the return address - Bechtel Group of Companies, 50 Beale Street, San Francisco, California, was delivered to the American Jewish Committee, 2027 Massachusetts Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Hyman Bookbinder, the Washington Representative of the American Jewish Committee advised that the above described envelope contained a copy of a letter dated April 8, 1983, simply addressed to "Gentleman" and signed by [REDACTED]. Also enclosed in this envelope was a copy of a two page letter typed on Secretary of Defense stationery, dated October 7, 1981. This latter letter was addressed to Mr. George P. Schultz, President, Bechtel Group of Companies, 50 Beale Street, San Francisco, California and signed "Caspar." Bookbinder advised that the legibility of the letter allegedly written by the Secretary of Defense was poor. He stated the first paragraph on the second page of this letter was almost illegible.

Bookbinder stated that neither he nor any member of his staff is acquainted with [REDACTED]. He advised that [REDACTED] did not provide any information in his letter which would further identify him. Bookbinder stated that after reading the letters, he received the impression that [REDACTED] intended for the reader of his letter to believe he was an employee of Bechtel and it was through his position with Bechtel that he was able to obtain a copy of the letter allegedly written by the Secretary of Defense.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

In [] letter he states that, "In the recent past, Washington administrations have rightly regarded Israel as a devoted friend and ally serving as a guarantor of U.S. interests in the Middle East and as a bulwark against Communism and international terrorism." He goes on to say that, "the present Administration is visibly tilting toward Arab states" and that, "the campaign against Israel is spearheaded, as is clear from the enclosed letter by a high-ranking official of Jewish origin." [] letter further states that, "Arab oil money is involved" and "Weinberger and Schultz have done themselves very well as a result of Bechtel links with Saudi Arabia."

In the letter allegedly written by Caspar Weinberger, the Secretary of Defense, it starts off by commenting about, "the uproar aroused by the Administration's proposal to sell AWACS to Saudi Arabia" and the "damage to U.S. political, strategic and business interest (which) might ensue from a failure to go through with the AWACS deal." This letter then states that, "the President was furious when he realized the scope of the opposition orchestrated by Begin and his crowd with the help of their friends in the United States." The letter later states that "We are approaching the many corporations which have major interests in the Middle East in an effort to shock them into action aimed at protecting an all-American cause against manipulation by the Jewish lobby. I am looking to the combined wisdom and experience of yourself and your Bechtel associates to set a shining example and to use all means which you undoubtedly possess as a leader of U.S. enterprise and export capability."

In view of the politically inflammatory nature of this letter, Bookbinder advised that he wanted the Secretary of Defense to have an opportunity to publicly repudiate the authenticity of the letter allegedly written by him, before other copies surfaced. Bookbinder stated he therefore provided copies of the letters he had received to Dov S. Zakheim, Deputy Assistant to the Undersecretary of Defense for Policy Research and Nicholas A. Veliotis, Assistant Secretary of State for the Middle East. Bookbinder advised he was subsequently informed that the Secretary of Defense denied the authenticity of the letter allegedly written by him.

b6 Per FBI

Bookbinder stated he is not aware of any other individuals or organizations receiving a copy of the [] letter along with the letter allegedly written by Secretary Weinberger.

[REDACTED] Project Security Specialist, Bechtel Corporation advised that the computerization film of active Bechtel employees, failed to reveal the name [REDACTED]. He further stated that a search of Bechtel personnel files worldwide, including former employees, was also negative.

[REDACTED] stated that in regard to the envelope addressed to the American Jewish Committee, the Bechtel Corporation normally utilizes a Post Office Box number, in addition to a street address. Furthermore, Bechtel employees commonly utilize an in-office routing code with their return address, in order to expedite mail handling. The envelope in question possessed neither the Post Office Box number nor the in-office routing code. [REDACTED] advised that the name "Bechtel Group of Companies" is a holding company, not an operational company. It has several first tier operating corporations under it. The operating companies are Bechtel Power, Bechtel Petroleum and Bechtel Civil and Minerals. These above factors all tend to minimize the assumption that the source of the letters sent to the American Jewish Committee was an employee of Bechtel. b6 Per FBI b7C

Since efforts to identify the individual or organization responsible for preparing the letters allegedly written by [REDACTED] and Secretary Weinberger have been unsuccessful and all logical investigation has been conducted, further investigation will not be conducted. If information concerning this matter is subsequently obtained, consideration will be given to reinstitute this investigation.

[redacted] to Secretary of Defense Caspar W. Weinberger, advised that Secretary Weinberger had been the subject of a crude attempt at disinformation through the publication of an article on July 17, 1983, by the Lebanese news magazine, Al Sapis. This article consisted of an alleged transcript of the minutes of a meeting which took place between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Defense Minister, Sultan Ben Abdel Aziz. [redacted] stated this alleged transcript is a complete fabrication. He advised this alleged transcript identifies and quotes persons who were not at the meeting; mentions an alleged General, whose identity is not known to anyone at the Pentagon and uses language of a style never used by Secretary Weinberger.

b6

[redacted] stated that Secretary Weinberger initially became aware of the publication of this alleged transcript by Al Sapis on August 18, 1983, as a result of Edward I. Koch, Mayor of August 17, 1983, with a copy of the alleged transcript enclosed.

In his letter, Mayor Koch indicated that, if the alleged transcript is accurate, it is shocking and he requested that Secretary Weinberger confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript.

[] advised that on August 17, 1983, without affording Secretary Weinberger an opportunity to comment on the authenticity of the alleged transcript, Mayor Koch publicly disclosed the contents of the alleged transcript to the news media. As a result of this disclosure, an article captioned "Ed Blasts Caspar on Don't Tell the Prez Arms Talk" was printed on August 18, 1983, by the New York Post.

b7c

[] stated that on August 18, 1983, a statement was released from the Office of the Secretary of Defense denying the authenticity of the alleged transcript. The New York Post carried an article on August 19, 1983, captioned "Cap Calls Saudi Story Fabrication", wherein they report that Secretary Weinberger denied the authenticity of the alleged transcript.

A review of the alleged transcript which was published in the July 17, 1983 issue of Al Sapis, reveals the following areas of potential controversy. On page three of the transcript, the Saudi Defense Minister states he has been informed that the Reagan Administration has not been given notice of the Saudis request for twenty F-15 jets. In response to this statement Secretary Weinberger allegedly suggest that this matter not be presented to Congress before 1984. Furthermore, Secretary Weinberger allegedly states that President Reagan does not know of the Saudis request, that this information has been withheld from the President due to the fact that the Administration is suffering from leakage of information and if President Reagan were to be advised of the Saudis request, it would be leaked to Congress and the press.

On page five of the transcripts, an individual identified as General Wendelmeyer (Wendelmeyer was not present at the May 12, 1983 meeting between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudis nor is he known to any officials at the Pentagon) states that the National Security Council is preparing a report regarding the U.S.'s sale to the Saudis of an F-15 squadron, bomb racks and fuel tanks to which Secretary Weinberger allegedly replies that a copy of this report would be given to Emir Bendar.

On page six of the transcript, Saudi Defense Minister Sultan Ben Abdel Aziz states he has heard that the U.S. is going to supply Israel with jet engines for the manufacture of a jet. Secretary Weinberger allegedly replies that the U.S.'s weapon links with Israel are crucial for ensuring and spurring Israel's willingness to surrender many of its unyielding stands in the Arab-Israeli negotiations. He allegedly further states that the U.S. sometimes gives Israel aid and weapons as an incentive for surrendering obstinate positions, as was the case during the past two weeks, during the negotiations Secretary Schultz had with Israel and Lebanon.

On page seven of the transcript, in response to the Saudi Defense Minister Sultan Ben Abdel Aziz's statement that the Saudis do not know whether they will receive the new U.S. M-1 tank, Secretary Weinberger allegedly states that the U.S. will bring the M-1 tank to Saudi Arabia for a try-out; that the M-1 is not in the hands of the American Army and that an agreement between the U.S. and Saudis will be reached concerning the quantity of M-1 tanks to be delivered to the Saudis.

The Honorable Caspar W. Weinberger

Washington, D.C. 20301

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I just read a translation of the minutes of the meeting which took place between yourself and the Saudi Defense Minister, Sultan Ben Abd el Aziz, on May 12, 1983, in Paris. The transcript was published in the Lebanese news magazine, Al Safir, on July 17, 1983, a copy of which is enclosed.

The transcript, if accurate, is shocking. However, because there is always the possibility of a forgery as we saw with the Adolf Hitler diaries, I would like you to confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript.

I was appalled at the comment which conveyed your alleged view that President Reagan should not be told by you of Saudi arms requests because, as the transcript puts it, "If we were to inform President Reagan of your request it would be leaked to Congress and the press, and a problem would be created hampering the delivery of new weapons to Saudi Arabia." If that statement is accurate, and I hope it is not, it would imply that he is denied access to information relating to our nuclear secrets and other vital information because of a lack of trust in his integrity in keeping government secrets. I hope that is not so. Is there a secret super-government in which the President is not a participant?

I cannot believe that you would agree to provide a National Security Council report to Emir Bendar, which is the import of your alleged comment when you say to General Wandelmeyer in referring to that report, "Can we give a copy of the report to Emir Bendar, when it will be ready?"

Another glaring comment supposedly made by you which leaps off the page is your statement in referring to the United States' newest tank in which you say you are attempting to persuade the Saudi "to view a demonstration or an experiment of this new tank." You state that "we will bring the tank to Saudi Arabia during the course of this year for a try-out." And then you point out, "This model is not in the hands of the American army even." You go on to talk about delivery of that tank to the Saudis. Am I not correct that it is the policy of the United States to maintain Israel's superiority in the quality of its arms so as to offset the Arab quantity of arms? Have you abrogated that policy? This for me is most alarming as it bears out, if true, the critical comments made as they relate to your hostility to the State of Israel.

I do hope that if the transcript is a forgery, you will immediately make that clear not only by your letter to me but by so informing Al Sapir in Lebanon.

All the best.

Sincerely,

Edward I. Koch

. The meeting commenced with a report by Weinberger on the main points of the Israeli-Lebanese agreement. Weinberger apologized for not having a copy of the agreement. He explained that, as the U.S. is not a party to the agreement, it cannot distribute copies of it. Only the Lebanese and Israelis may distribute copies of the agreement (at this point, Weinberger's attention was drawn to the fact that Schultz had given a copy to Emir Saud Al Faisal during their meeting in Saudia on 5/7/83).

Weinberger: In any case, I can assure His Highness that the agreement is a very good one and it is to the benefit of the Arabs, or at least to the benefit of one Arab country. It is not a perfect agreement, but it does stipulate that Israel will withdraw from an Arab country, and this in itself should be welcomed by Arab countries, at least the friendly ones. The U.S. is relying on her friends' acquiescence to the agreement, so that these friends can persuade other countries to accept it.

The Sultan: I know what my friend Weinberger is alluding to. Every day I hear and read in the newspapers and on television that the key for a solution is in the Saudi's hands, and that the Saudis can compel the Syrians and the PLO to withdraw. There is some exaggeration in this. It is true that Saudi Arabia acts discreetly, in its own special way, without threats or shouts, but its influence on the Syrians is not as the world perceives it. In any case, we shall leave these matters to the King, President Reagan and Secretary Schultz. I and my friend Weinberger are defense ministers and we should not intervene in the internal affairs of other ministries. We should discuss only defense matters.

Weinberger: I agree. There are two matters which are related to defense and which I should like to present to you. I can assure you that discussing them will not constitute intervention in the affairs of Secretary Schultz or the Emir Saud. These two matters are of great concern to us, and I am sure that they are of even greater concern to you. I am referring to the enhanced Soviet presence in Syria--the increase in the number of Soviet advisors and the number of S.A. 5 and S.A. 10 missiles, which, according to our information, can be equipped with nuclear warheads. Syria has become the new Afghanistan, but without a formal Soviet invasion. The Syrians believe that the Soviets are giving them the aid and the advisors and the missiles for love of Syria, but of course that is not so. As you said in our last meeting, the Soviets are seeking troubled waters to fish in and warm waters to sit in.

After the dismal failure of their weaponry last year, they wish to prove through the Syrians that they have good weapons. Their arms sales have been dealt a severe blow in the Third World. Some states have started to turn to other countries to buy weapons--mainly to France. There is also the Iran-Iraq war, which can already be termed a war of attrition.

Secretary of State Schultz told me of his meeting with Mr. Tarq Aziz two days ago. Mr. Aziz expressed Iraq's sincere wish to bring the war to an end, in light of the deaths of youths on both sides. According to our information the Iraqis are prepared and willing to cease the hostilities almost unconditionally but it seems that the Iranian leaders are bent on personal vengeance towards the Iraqi leadership, and the victims are 10-12 year old children who are being killed by the hundreds every day.

We are of the opinion that our friends' influence is crucial in this matter because Syria has close relations with Teheran. All this has had a grave influence on Lebanon and I am referring to the increased Shiite extremism in Baal-Beq and Baqaa--an influence which is nurtured by Iran and protected by Syria.

The policy of the U.S. is to remain completely neutral in this war. We shall not sell arms to any side. We do not have any contacts with either party, but we do support efforts which may convince them to agree to a cease-fire and to negotiations. As you know, we have quietly worked to prevent the expansion of the war to a larger area, and in this context we have endeavored to improve our relations with Iraq. Mr. Schultz's meeting with Mr. Aziz was a link in a series of contacts between us, as you know, but regretfully one of the things which are delaying a continued effort is the lack of a clear Iraqi policy on terrorism, especially on groups such as Abu-Nidal.

The Sultan: I agree with my friend on all the points which he raised. We are doing all we can to help Iraq to retain their position, but the U.S. must do more in this matter.

Weinberger: Regretfully, the U.S. does not have relations with both sides and does not have leverage over them. Of course, we are operating quietly, and through intermediary countries, and lately we have succeeded in bringing both sides to one table to discuss the oil spill in the Gulf, and we hope that these contacts will lead to further contacts.

Sultan: I would like to discuss with the honorable Secretary the question of the defense and military cooperation between Saudi Arabia and the U.S.. It is true that we are in constant contact through the joint committee. However, the Emir Bendar has informed me that the Reagan Administration has not been given notice yet of Saudi Arabia's request for 20 F-15 jets. We wish to receive them as early as possible, because the Iranian danger is increasing daily.

Our pilots are prepared and every day a new course for pilots is finished. Now we have, practically, a larger number of pilots than planes, and we must get planes from whatever source so that the pilots will be in a state of constant preparedness. This is a problem for us.

Weinberger: Your highness, let us talk candidly.

Sultan: Yes, yes. Candor above all else. We must speak candidly. This has been the character of our relations for over 20 years.

Weinberger: All right. In all honesty--we know of your contacts with the French to buy weapons and jets. That is fine. It does not concern the U.S.. It is Saudi Arabia's affair. We do not wish to intervene in your internal policy concerning acquisition of arms, but the U.S. is willing to consider Saudi Arabia's request to receive a squadron of F-15 jets. However, I suggest that we do not present the matter to Congress before 1984, and perhaps preferably even later than that. I would like to confirm to you, as Emir Bendar knows, that President Reagan does not know of your request. There is good reason for this, for as you know the Administration is suffering from leakage of information, and if we were to inform President Reagan of your request it would be leaked to Congress and the press, and a problem would be created hampering the delivery of new weapons to Saudi Arabia.

The Emir Bendar: If the Emir Sultan and Mr. Weinberger will allow me-- we wish to purchase non-American weaponry for this very reason. We do not wish to become involved in another campaign like the one surrounding the Awacs, which was a scandalous and embarrassing affair for Saudi Arabia, even though we were ultimately victorious in the campaign. Additionally, the Saudi air force wishes to variegate its weapons and aircraft, it should not be dependent on one source or on only one type of weapon and aircraft. Additionally, the U.S. promised us during the Awacs campaign that it would sell us an F-15 squadron, and would even supply us with bomb racks and fuel tanks.

Weinberger: No, no, no! Wait one minute please. I do not believe that we promised.

Bendar: Yes, the Awacs overshadowed everything. Noone arouses the question of the F-15's any more, and until now we have not received the additional bomb racks for the planes we already have, and the additional fuel tanks as well.

Weinberger: I believe that General Wendelmeyer dealt with this issue.

General Wendelmeyer: The National Security Council dealt with this issue this week, and I think that the Agency is now preparing a report on the matter and it should be ready next week.

Weinberger: Can we give a copy of the report to Emir Bendar, when it will be ready? But I can already state that the report will mirror U.S. dissatisfaction with the Saudi acquisition of non-American weapons and aircraft. Saudi Arabia is not the only country in the Gulf to have done this. Kuwait and other Gulf countries have started purchasing French weapons and Mirage-2000 jets. I am being criticized that I travel frequently to sell American arms, but I believe that Mr. Arneaux, the French Defense Minister, has preempted me.

In any case the only thing that concerns us is the future of the R.I.A.D. plan (Regional Integrated Air Defense) which necessitates a uniform system of weapons and aircraft in order to form a uniform air defense structure for the protection of the Gulf States. If the Gulf States will buy non-American weapons we shall be forced to make a radical change in R.I.A.D. which would be very costly. All the effort which we have put into building the system will go to waste.

Sultan: If my friend Mr. Weinberger will permit me--after the Awacs campaign, Saudi Arabia lost its will to work with the U.S.. The honorable Secretary mentioned that the idea will be presented to Congress even after 1984, and this is really our problem with the U.S. when we start contemplating any new idea--there is little time left before the end of the President's term, and he is preoccupied with his election campaign and you always ask us to postpone everything until a new President and Congress are elected.

. In all honesty, if the Administration--any Administration, Democratic or Republican--will arouse an affair similar to the Awacs affair--Saudi Arabia shall be forced to alter its defense policy--for our enemies are numerous and they utilize any opportunity to attack Saudi Arabia, the Royal Family and its honor.

They produce movie and television films on the Royal Family. Every day an article is published on waste and corruption. This is not for us. You have a democratic regime and it's obvious that you cannot silence the press. Still...

Weinberger: There are other matters which we would like to discuss, but when we return to Washington I suggest that the Emir Bendar meet with General Secord(?) and General Wendelmeyer(?)--to find a way, which would be satisfactory to Saudi Arabia, to solve the F-15 problem. Now, if you will permit me, I would like to go on to the problem of the M-1 tanks.

Sultan: Excuse me. If my dear friend will allow me, before we discuss the M-1 tanks--we have heard that the U.S. is going to supply Israel with jet engines for the manufacture of a jet which...

Weinberger: Yes, yes, you mean the jet called 'Lavi'. This jet will apparently be produced by Israel in the 1990's. Our weapon links with Israel are crucial for ensuring and spurring Israel's willingness to surrender many of its unyielding stands in the Arab-Israeli negotiations. If we would not guarantee Israel, and if we would not give her this type of guarantees for her security, Israel will not cooperate with us in the future on matters of importance to us and to our Arab friends. In other words, we sometimes give Israel aid and weapons as an incentive for surrendering obstinate positions, as was the case during the past two weeks, during the negotiations Secretary Schultz had with Israel and Lebanon. Israel yielded much and abandoned many difficult demands, which Lebanon could not have accepted, and Israel would not have done so had President Reagan not decided to release the planes whose delivery was being held up. Did you say something about the M-1?

Sultan: Yes. this is a very important matter for us. However, a long time has gone by, and we still do not know whether Saudi Arabia will receive these tanks, when, and how many planes. The Emir Bendar has told me...

Weinberger: Allow me, honorable Emir, to state that the delay was not from our side. For over a year, or a year and a half, we have been attempting to persuade you to come to the U.S. and to view a demonstration or an experiment of this new tank. But we have not gotten your agreement. Now we have agreed to your request and we will bring the tank to Saudi Arabia during the course of this year for a try-out. Some of the tanks may participate in an exercise of the Rapid Deployment Force which will take place this year in the Gulf. But as you know, this model is not in the hands of the American army even.

We will be able to reach an agreement on the quantity, and it is clear that delivery will not take place before 1986 or 1987 or 1988. General Wendelmeyer knows the quantity, apparently.

Sultan: Let me tell you candidly that if a problem shall rise in the U.S. and in Congress about these tanks and their sale to Saudi Arabia, then we do not want them for we do not want another affair like the Awacs affair. As to the quantity, if we will request 2,000 you will only say: "No, 1,000 is enough". If we will request 1,000 you will say: "500". The truth is that we want as many as possible. The Emir Bendar reminds me that the exercises in the Gulf shall be in cooperation with Oman...

Weinberger: In any case we do not expect a campaign in Congress concerning the tanks, because we have learned through our contacts with the Israelis that they will not raise any objections--maybe they will raise a formal objection, as lip service. But the quantity will be fixed according to the Saudi Arabian army's capacity to absorb the tanks. I can assure Your Highness that we will not have any differences of opinion on this matter.

Sultan: Of course not. I hope that there won't be differences of opinion on any matter.

Weinberger: I see that Ambassador Cato is signalling that it's time to return to Washington. Unless there is another subject which you wish to raise before we end the meeting.

Sultan: Please.

Weinberger: A group from the Pentagon will arrive soon to discuss the "Centercon" system for the establishment of your front-line headquarters. I think that the correspondence we had last year and the situation in the Gulf make it imperative that we begin establishing this system as soon as possible. The Emir Bendar has informed me that Saudi Arabia is ready for this, but without the fanfare. We shall remain in touch. We are glad that the Emir Bendar is in Washington, for this makes it easier for us to establish direct contact with you. Before we depart--we shall remain in touch and in the next meetings, during the next few days, I hope that we shall find solutions satisfactory to the both of us on the subjects of the F-15, the M-1 and the CENTERCON.

Sultan: Very good. I wish to thank the honorable Secretary.

Weinberger: If the newspapermen assault us on the way out, I suggest that we say that our meeting was within the framework of our periodic meetings. Let us say that we dealt with mutual defense issues within the framework of the joint committee, etc, etc. I don't think the newspapermen will be content with that but...

Sultan: I think the press already reported a few days ago on today's meeting.

Weinberger: No doubt.

ED BLASTS CASPAR ON 'DON'T TELL THE PREZ' ARMS TALKS

By GEORGE ARZT
and DOUG FEIDEN DEFENSE Secretary
Weinberger reportedly told his Saudi Arabian counterpart that President Reagan should not be told about strategic Saudi arms requests because "the administration is suffering from leakage of information."

The report was disclosed last night by a furious Mayor Koch who branded it "shocking" and fired off an angry letter to Weinberger demanding that he confirm or deny its accuracy.

Koch said a transcript of a Paris meeting last May between Weinberger and the Saudi Defense Minister, Sultan Ben Abd el Aziz, appeared in the Lebanese newsmagazine,
Al Safir July 17.

"The transcript, if accurate, is shocking," said Koch.

"However," because there is always the possibility of a forgery as we saw with the Adolf Hitler diaries, I would like you to confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript."

always the possibility of a forgery as we saw with the Adolf Hitler diaries.
I would like you to confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript.

I was appalled at the comment which conveyed your alleged view that President Reagan should not be told by you of Saudi arms requests because, as the transcript puts it, "If we were to inform President Reagan of your request it would be leaked to Congress and the press, and a problem would be created hampering the delivery of new weapons to Saudi Arabia." If that statement is accurate, and I hope it is not, it would imply that he is denied access to information relating to our nuclear secrets and other vital information because of a lack of trust in his integrity in keeping government secrets. I hope that is not so. Is there a secret super-government in which the President is not a participant?

An extract from the letter Koch sent to Weinberger, asking him to confirm or deny a Lebanese magazine's report on arms talks with Saudi Arabia.

POST EXCLUSIVE

Koch said he was "appalled" at Weinberger's reported comments that Reagan should not be told about a Saudi request for a "squadron" of 20 F-15 jet fighter bombers.

"Is there a secret super-government in which the President is not a participant?" Koch asked.

According to the transcript, Weinberger told Aziz that he did not want to present the arms request to Congress "before 1984, and perhaps preferably even later than that," referring to the desirability of postponing public disclosure of the requests until after the Presidential election.

"I would like to confirm ... that President Reagan does not know of your request," Weinberger said.

"There is good reason for this, for as you know the administration is suffering from leakage of information, and if we were to inform President Reagan of your request it would be leaked to Congress and the press, and a problem would be created hampering delivery of new weapons to Saudi Arabia."

Navy Commander Fred Leader, a Pentagon spokesman, confirmed last night that the May 12 meeting took place, but he would neither confirm nor deny the accuracy of the transcript.

"We will not discuss the exact topics of that meeting, and we will have no comment on that until we see the Koch letter and the transcript and have a chance to verify its accuracy," Leader said.

Other highlights of the magazine story include:

● Weinberger saying he wanted the Saudis to view a demonstration of the new M-1 tank and offered to bring it to Saudi Arabia sometime this year for a "tryout."

He then pointed out,
"This model is not even in the hands of the American Army."

● The Defense Secretary also attempted to relieve Saudi concerns about U.S. jet engines being shipped to Israel for use in its new Lavi jet.

He said, "We sometimes give Israel aid and weapons as an incentive for surrendering obstinate positions, as was the case during the past two weeks during the negotiations Secretary [of State George] Schultz had with Israel and Lebanon."

"Israel yielded much and abandoned many difficult demands..."

A high-ranking Israeli source familiar with Weinberger's negotiating style was surprised at his directness in referring to the President by name.

"That's not like him,"
the source said. "He would not use Reagan's name directly unless he felt very comfortable with the people he was with."

But at one point, the two defense ministers spoke of their working relationship, which apparently dates back to Weinber-ger's days at Bechtel, a huge construction firm with a history of dealing with the Arabs, particularly Saudi Arabia. "Your highness, let us talk candidly," Weinberger said.

"Yes, yes," the Sultan responded. "Candor above all else. We must speak candidly. This has been the character of our relations for over 20 years."

Azis expressed concern about possible Congressional opposition to the sale of the M-1 tanks, saying "We do not want another affair like the AWACS affair."

As to the quantity, "The truth is that we want as many as possible," Aziz said.

To this Weinberger responded, "The quantity will be fixed according to the Saudi Arabian Army's capacity to absorb the tanks."

Also at the meeting was Prince Bandar bin Sultan, the 35-year-old son of the Defense Minister who was chief lobbyist for the AWACS sale and helped engineer the sale of 50
F-15s to the Saudis in 1978.

NEW YORK POST 19 August 1983 Pg. 4

CAP CALLS SAUDI STORY 'FABRICATION'

By GEORGE ARZT
DEFENSE Secretary
Caspar Weinberger
branded as "a complete fabrication" a magazine transcript saying he was withholding information from President Reagan about strategic arms requests from Saudi Arabia.

But Mayor Koch, who spotted the account in the Lebanese magazine, Al Safir, still seemed skeptical, and demanded to know what promises of military aid Weinberger had made to his Saudi counterpart.

On July 17 the magazine printed what was purported to be a transcript of that meeting in Paris last May, prompting Koch to fire off an angry letter to Weinberger demanding to know whether it was accurate.

The Pentagon, which on Wednesday confirmed that the meeting took place, yesterday released a statement saying, "The secretary totally denies the story.

"The alleged transcript is a complete fabrication, and a very crude attempt at disinformation."

The statement also said that Weinberger was "dismayed that Mayor Koch would so promptly and publicly use the alleged transcript with no attempt whatsoever to check its authenticity with the secretary by a simple direct phone call."

A National Security Council official told The Post he was both "angered and surprised" that the Pentagon had not acted more quickly.

"It took them a whole day to get that statement out, and meanwhile the story was being picked up all over the place."

The transcript quoted Weinberger as saying a Saudi request to buy a squadron of 20 F-15 jet fighter bombers should be concealed from the President because "the administration is suffering from leakage of information."

Weinberger also was quoted as offering the Saudi defense minister, Sultan Ben Abd el Aziz, the sale of M-1 tanks to the Saudis, before they even became available to the American Army.

NOTE:

WFO was advised by Secretary of Defense Weinberger's office that Secretary Weinberger had been the subject of a crude attempt at disinformation through the publication of an article on July 17, 1983, by the Lebanese news magazine, Al Sapis. This article consisted of an alleged transcript of the minutes of a meeting which took place between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Defense Minister, Sultan Ben Abdel Aziz. A representative in the Secretary's office advised this alleged transcript is a complete fabrication. The alleged transcript identifies and quotes persons who were not at the meeting; mentions an alleged General, whose identity is not known to anyone at the Pentagon; and uses language of a style never used by Secretary Weinberger.

Secretary Weinberger initially became aware of the publication of this alleged transcript by Al Sapis on August 18, 1983, as a result of Edward I. Koch, Mayor of the City of New York, sending Secretary Weinberger a letter, dated August 17, 1983, with a copy of the alleged transcript enclosed. Mayor Koch requested that Secretary Weinberger confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript. On August 17, 1983, without affording Secretary Weinberger an opportunity to comment on the authenticity of the alleged transcript, Mayor Koch publicly disclosed the contents of the alleged transcript to the news media. As a result of this disclosure, an article captioned "Ed Blasts Caspar on Don't Tell the Prez Arms Talks" was printed on August 18, 1983, by the New York Post. On August 18, 1983, a statement was released from the Office of the Secretary of Defense denying the authenticity of the alleged transcript. The New York Post carried an article on August 19, 1983, captioned "Cap Calls Saudi Story Fabrication", wherein they report that Secretary Weinberger denied the authenticity of the alleged transcript.

This requests CIA provide any information available their agency may have concerning the originator of the alleged transcript.

The Koch-Weinberger Letters: an Exchange of Rejoinders on the Mideast

The correspondence began last August with an "I was appalled..." letter from Mayor Koch to Defense Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger.

When appalled the Mayor was a misquoting transcript supposedly from a Lebanese news magazine of a meeting between Mr. Weinberger and Saudi Arabia's defense minister in Paris last spring. In it, Mr. Weinberger was quoted as saying that President Reagan was being denied defense secrets because he could not be trusted to keep them quiet.

Mr. Weinberger replied to the Mayor promptly, saying the transcript was "a complete fabrication and a crude attempt at disinformation."

It seemed to be a simple matter: case closed.

But it did not end there.

Mayor Koch, it turned out, had also written to dozens of members of the United States Senate and the House of Representatives, enclosing copies of his letter to Mr. Weinberger and asking them to pursue the case. The correspondence swelled into a thick file as 16 Senators and 12 Representatives joined in.

Meanwhile, the exchange between Mr. Koch and Mr. Weinberger, which began in the time of trash or less polite letters, had grown into a deeply considered dispute.

The Koch-Weinberger letters are reproduced here.

Aug. 17

To Mr. Weinberger:

I just read a translation of the minutes of the meeting which took place between yourself and the Saudi Defense Minister, Sultan Ben Abdul Aziz, on May 12, 1983, in Paris. The transcript was published in the Lebanese news magazine, Al-Safir, on July 17, 1983, a copy of which is enclosed.

The transcript, if accurate, is shocking, however, because there is always the possibility of a forgery as we saw with the Adolf Hitler diaries. I would like you to confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript.

I was appalled at the comment which reflected your alleged view that President Reagan should not be told by you of Saudi arms requests because, as the transcript puts it, "If we were to inform President Reagan of your request it would be leaked to Congress and the news and a problem would be created concerning the delivery of new weapons to Saudi Arabia."

If that statement is accurate, and I hope it is not, it would imply that he is denied access to information relating to our defense, or that our own vital information is being lost or that Mayor Koch and Defense Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger and portions of two of the letters they have exchanged.

Aug. 25

To Mr. Koch:

I received your letter of Aug. 17, 1983, in which you conveyed your concerns about the alleged transcript of a meeting between Saudi Defense Minister Prince Sultan and me, that took place on May 12 of this year in Paris. As you suggested, this so-called "transcript" is a complete fabrication and a very crude attempt at disinformation.

As you may be aware, hostile intelligence services often resort to published forgeries in an effort to influence United States public opinion and national policy. While I do not know the origin of this particular forgery, it appears designed to drive wedges between this country and our friends in the Middle East, principally Israel and Saudi Arabia.

I was both surprised and disappointed by the fact that you found it necessary to publicize your letter and the alleged transcript without an attempt to check its authenticity with me. I believe the American public is ill-served by the confusion created by this obvious forgery. I hope that you will not hesitate to call me in the future if you are again presented with such a "document."

Sincerely,

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER

Sept. 1

To Mr. Weinberger:

Thank you for your letter of Aug. 25. I can certainly appreciate your concern over this matter as I hope you can appreciate mine. I share your expressed view that "the American public is ill-served by the confusion created by this obvious forgery," but I am surprised and disappointed (to use your words) that you would imply that I am in part responsible for that confusion.

As you know, the transcript at issue was published in the Lebanese news magazine, Al-Safir, on July 17, 1983. For more than a month, there was no denial, demand for retraction or any public explanation on your part or on the part of our Government, whether in the Lebanese press or here at home.

Certainly these allegations were serious enough to the United States, as well as our allies, to warrant reply of some sort. It was their initial publication and the failure of response which is responsible for any possible "confusion." As a public official, and in my capacity as a private citizen, when I became aware of these charges I felt a duty to see to it that the record was set straight.

To my knowledge you have not yet responded to Al-Safir. If you have, I would appreciate receiving your reply. While I would never take the position that your own comments on this matter are anything but the truth, I sincerely believe that in order to maintain America's credibility with our allies, you must dispel even the perception that such a recitation in his integrity in keeping government secrets. I hope that is not so. Is there a secret supergovernment in which the President is not a participant?

I cannot believe that you would agree to provide a National Security Council report to Emir Bandar, which is the import of your alleged comment when you say to General Wendelmeyer in referring to that report, "Can we give a copy of the report to Emir Bandar, when it will be ready?"

Another glaring comment supposedly made by you which leaps off the page is your statement in referring to the United States' newest tank in which you say you are attempting to persuade the Saudis "to view a demonstration of an experiment of this new tank." You state that "we will bring the tank to Saudi Arabia during the course of this year for a tryout." And then you point out, "This model is not in the hands of the American army even." You go on to talk about delivery of that tank to the Saudis.

Am I not correct that it is the policy of the United States to maintain Israel's superiority in the quality of its arms so as to offset the Arab quantity of arms? Have you abrogated that policy? This for me is most alarming as it bears out, if true, the critical comments made as they relate to your hostility to the State of Israel.

I do hope that if the transcript is a forgery, you will immediately make that clear not only by your letter to me but by so informing Al-Safir in Lebanon.

All the best.

Sincerely,

EDWARD I. KOCH, Mayor

of the May 12 meeting could conceivably be true.

I believe this issue must be addressed more carefully and more specifically because, although personally I would accept at face value your assertion that the transcript is an "obvious forgery," others who are not so trusting do not.

In order to put this matter to rest completely, I suggest that you might address the allegation that your meeting with the Saudi Defense Minister on May 12, in Paris, included discussion of the following issues: the Israeli-Lebanese withdrawal agreement; the Saudi request for a squadron of F-15 jets (and President Reagan's ignorance of this request because of the fear of him leaking information to Congress); the Regional Integrated Air Defense system; the sale to Israel of the "Lavi" jet, and the Saudi request of M-1 tanks, which even the American forces do not have.

Your letter and public denial related to what appeared in the transcript. You and I know that there can be nuances which would make the transcript "a complete fabrication," but nevertheless allow for the delivery to Saudi Arabia of the advanced equipment but in different quantities and at different times and under different circumstances, and covered at the meeting of May 12.

If you can unequivocally deny having discussed these items at the May 12 meeting it would be imperative to do so. Certainly, if you have made the alleged commitments on arm sales or deliveries, which after all are subject to Congressional approval, and have to date withheld such information from the public, you now have an obligation to disclose it whatever the political strategy might have been to keep it secret, if that be the case.

America has a right to know for what, if anything, it is committed to the Saudis in the way of arm sales, and deserves to know now rather than after the 1984 Presidential elections. Therefore, I again urge that you fully comment on the allegations above, especially those relating to the delivery of arms.

All the best.

Sincerely,

EDWARD I. KOCH, Mayor

P.S. I would appreciate your earliest response. This matter should not linger.

Sept. 14

To Mr. Weinberger:

Attached is a copy of the letter I sent to you on Sept. 1 regarding a matter that I believe to be very important. To date, I have not received your response.

You were very distressed when I released my letter to you of Aug. 17 after having provided you with the original. This time, to oblige you, I decided not to release my Sept. 1 letter until I had received your response. I would ask that you give this your earliest consideration.

All the best.
Sincerely,

EDWARD I. KOCH, Mayor

Oct. 7

To Mr. Weinberger:

I am surprised that I have received no response to my letter of Sept. 1, followed up by my letter of Sept. 14.

I know that you have had many matters that have taken priority over the one which is the subject of my letter but, nevertheless, sooner or later I would hope you would respond; and sooner is better than later.

All the best.
Sincerely,

EDWARD I. KOCH, Mayor

Sept. 20

To Mr. Koch:

With regard to your letters of Sept. 1 and 14, 1983, it has been the policy of this and every other Administration not to reveal details of classified diplomatic exchanges. I have no intention of deviating from a practice that is essential to the conduct of diplomacy. I stand by what I said in my previous letter, which is that the purported transcript is a fabrication in its entirety.

No one here ever heard of the "news magazine" you mentioned so, of course, "there was no denial, etc." on our part. I cannot believe you are serious in suggesting that "these allegations," meaning the obvious forgery and disinformation in some obscure publication, "were serious enough to the United States" to warrant a reply. It is exactly as if I chided you for not replying to some Iranian publication of which you had never heard, accusing you of being anti-Semitic.

I have "unequivocally denied" the nonsense in this false transcript, and I certainly do not appreciate what seems to me to be a clumsy effort to make political capital out of these lies.

Very truly yours,

CASPAR W. WEINBERGER

Oct. 20

To Mr. Weinberger:

I must say that I was surprised at your letter of Sept. 20.

You state, "No one here ever heard of the news magazine you mentioned so, of course, there was no denial, etc. on our part." The fact is that a press officer at the Near Eastern desk in the State Department has advised a member of my staff that according to the United States Embassy in Beirut, Al-Safir is considered by some to be the second-ranking newspaper, after Al-Naha. Surely, the Pentagon has access to the same information that the State Department has on that matter.

You have indeed "unequivocally denied the nonsense in this false transcript," but you do not deny that a meeting took place, only that it was falsely reported. The matter is so serious that whatever comments you did make should be furnished to the members of Congress on the appropriate committees.

And since I have been in touch with them, a number of members have told me that they requested the information and so far as I know it has not yet been made available to them. I believe that it is essential that you publicly reject in Al-Safir the transcript, denounce it as a forgery for the benefit of its readers in the Middle East, and advise the members of Congress — publicly, where appropriate — what in fact you committed the United States to at that meeting.

Please understand that it is my intention to make public this letter as well as the remainder of the correspondence between us.

Sincerely,

EDWARD I. KOCH, Mayor

DETAILS:

WFO was recently advised by Secretary of Defense Weinberger's office that Secretary Weinberger had been the subject of a crude attempt at disinformation through the publication of an article on July 17, 1983, by the Lebanese news magazine, "Al Sapisr." This article consisted of an alleged transcript of the minutes of a meeting which took place between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Defense Minister, Sultan Ben Abdel Aziz. A representative of the Secretary's office advised this alleged transcript is a complete fabrication. The alleged transcript identifies and quotes persons who were not at the meeting; mentions an alleged General, whose identity is not known to anyone at the Pentagon; and uses language of a style never used by Secretary Weinberger.

Memo from [] to Mr. O'Malley
Re: Possible Active Measures Effort Directed Against Caspar W. Weinberger

Secretary Weinberger initially became aware of the publication of this alleged transcript by "Al Sapor" on August 18, 1983, as a result of Edward I. Koch, Mayor of the City of New York, sending Secretary Weinberger a letter, dated August 17, 1983, with a copy of the alleged transcript enclosed. Mayor Koch requested that Secretary Weinberger confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript. On August 17, 1983, without affording Secretary Weinberger an opportunity to comment on the authenticity of the alleged transcript, Mayor Koch publicly disclosed the contents of the alleged transcript to the news media. As a result of this disclosure, an article captioned "Ed Blasts Caspar on Don't Tell the Prez Arms Talks" was printed on August 18, 1983, by the New York Post. On August 18, 1983, a statement was released from the Office of the Secretary of Defense denying the authenticity of the alleged transcript. The New York Post carried an article on August 19, 1983, captioned "Cap Calls Saudi Story Fabrication," wherein they report that Secretary Weinberger denied the authenticity of the alleged transcript.

By letters, dated 10/31/83, to the United States Department of State (USDS), Bureau of Intelligence and Research, and the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA), the Bureau requested any additional information or observations they could provide regarding the above.

On 11/14/83, Dennis Kux, Deputy Assistant Secretary of State, called together representatives to the Interagency Active Measures Working Group in response to the Bureau's request. This group is chaired by the USDS and is responsible for monitoring and analyzing Soviet active measures throughout the world. Present during this meeting were Mr. Kux, Supervisory Special Agents [] and Intelligence Research Specialist (IRS) [] IRS [] is the FBI representative to this group. Also present were representatives from CIA, Defense Intelligence Agency, and Department of Defense, as well as representatives from other departments within USDS.

Memo from [] to Mr. O'Malley

The meeting began with a general discussion which was conducted for the purpose of allowing each representative to voice their opinion as to the possible source of this alleged transcript. Following this discussion Mr. Kux outlined the initial steps the working group would take to determine, if possible, the source of the document. This would include finding out if the daily newspaper "Al Sapis" did in fact publish the alleged transcript, and if so, attempt to determine if the source of this transcript could be established through analysis of the language and style of writing. Furthermore, the DOD representative was requested to provide the working group with specific examples of how the reporting contained in the alleged transcript differed from the actual account of the meeting between the Secretary of Defense and the Saudi Defense Minister on 5/12/83.

Mr. Kux ended by stating the working group would hold another meeting the following week (11/21-25/83) to review the results of the leads set out during this meeting.

December 15, 1983

Hon. William H. Webster
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation
Pennsylvania Avenue at 9th Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20535

Dear Judge Webster:

I am writing to you to confirm my deep concern, conveyed to you last Monday by [redacted] that others in the federal government may be attempting to use the FBI to stifle my constitutional rights to comment upon matters of national policy. As you know, I have the deepest respect and admiration for you as a person and for what you have accomplished at the bureau. However, as I have outlined below in detail, I am most concerned that (1) someone in the "Defense Establishment" provided confidential information about a matter within the jurisdiction of the FBI to a foreign journalist, and (2) the timing of the FBI's staff-level investigation strongly suggests that it was not my correspondence of last August with Secretary Weinberger which triggered a request by the Defense Department for FBI investigation, but rather such request was made as a result of the national media attention directed to this issue, namely the publication by the New York Times of my correspondence with the Secretary. The facts and background are as follows:

On July 17, 1983, there appeared in As-Safir a newspaper in Beirut, Lebanon, an article in Arabic which purported to be a transcript of the minutes of a meeting between Secretary Weinberger and the Defense Minister of Saudi Arabia, Sultan Benm Adb el Aziz, on May 12, 1983 in Paris. Approximately 30 days later, an English translation of the article was conveyed to me by [redacted]

The translation included a number of matters which, if true, were, indeed, shocking, e.g., Secretary Weinberger was quoted as stating that President Reagan had not been informed of a Saudi request for 20 F-15 jets for the reason that if "we were to inform President Reagan of your request it would be leaked to Congress and the press, and a problem would be created hampering the delivery of new weapons to Saudi Arabia"; that Secretary Weinberger and his aide, Gerneral Wendelmeyer, had offered to provide a copy of a National Security Council report with regard to a Saudi request for additional bomb racks and fuel tanks for the Saudi Awacs; that Secretary Weinberger had offered to the Saudis M-1 tanks which he stated were "not in the hands of the American army even;" etc.

52 [redacted]

Received Director's Office 12/15/83 m2

Said Director's Letter to Koch 12/21/83 Am

On August 17, 1983, I wrote to Secretary Weinberger (and forwarded to him a copy of the English translation of the July 17 article). In my letter, I stated that "the transcript, if accurate, is shocking. However, because there is always the possibility of a forgery as we saw with the Adolf Hitler diaries, I would like you to confirm or deny the accuracy of the transcript." In my August 17 letter, I urged the Secretary "that if the transcript is a forgery, you...immediately make that clear not only by your letter to me but by so informing Al Sapir (sic) in Lebanon."

By letter dated August 25, 1983, Secretary Weinberger in reply to my August 17 letter, stated that "this 'so-called transcript' is a complete fabrication and a very crude attempt at disinformation." Secretary Weinberger referred to the report as an "obvious forgery" and expressed his hope that I would "not hesitate" [to call him] in the future if [I was] again presented with 'such document'."

By letter dated September 1, 1983, I stated to Secretary Weinberger that the transcript at issue had been published in the Lebanese press on July 17, 1983 and that for more than a month there had been no denial, demand for retraction or any public explanation on the part of the Secretary or of our government of the matter. I urged the Secretary in order to maintain America's credibility with its allies that he dispel even the perception that such a recitation of the May 12 meeting could conceivably be true and, specifically, that he address the allegations that the May 12 meeting in Paris with the Saudi Defense Minister included discussion of the following issues:

"The Israeli-Lebanese withdrawal agreement; the Saudi request for a squadron of F-15 jets (and President Reagan's ignorance of this request because of the fear of his leaking information to Congress); the Regional Integrated Air Defense system; the sale to Israel of the 'Lavi' jet; and the Saudi request of M-1 tanks, which even the American forces do not have."

I stated in my letter to the Secretary, that if he could "unequivocally deny having discussed these items at the May 12 meeting it would be imperative to do so."

When I had received no answer from the Secretary to my September 1, 1983 letter, I repeated my requests for a response by letters dated September 14, 1983 and October 7, 1983. By letter dated September 20, 1983 (which my office received on October 19, 1983) the Secretary responding to my letters of September 1 and 14, stated that it has been the policy of the Administration not to reveal details of classified diplomatic exchanges. In his letter, the Secretary stated that he stood by what he had said in his previous letter which is that the purported transcript "is a fabrication in its entirety." In his September 20 letter the Secretary wrote:

"No one here ever heard of the 'news magazine' you mentioned so, of course 'there was no denial, etc.' on our part. I cannot believe you are serious in suggesting that 'these allegations,' meaning the obvious forgery and disinformation in some obscure publication, 'were serious enough to the U.S.....to warrant a reply'."

December 15, 1983

The Secretary, in closing, repeated that he had "unequivocally denied the nonsense in this false transcript" but did not address the specific matter raised in my earlier letters.

Given the seriousness of this matter, I brought the subject of the correspondence and of the translation to the attention of various members of Congress. On November 23, 1983, I received a brief letter from Fred C. Ikle, Under Secretary of Defense, dated November 13, in which he stated "that Secretary Weinberger believes his letters of August 25 and September 20... clearly set forth all of the facts and constitute a full response," apparently closing the book on the correspondence between the Secretary and myself.

Subsequently, I received a letter from Congresswoman Patricia Schroeder dated September 1, 1983, in which Ms. Schroeder stated that the Secretary "will not provide any details of the [May 12] meeting and that although the House Foreign Affairs Committee has tried unsuccessfully to get [Secretary] Weinberger to testify regarding the Saudi meeting [he] has declined, claiming the right of secrecy for the sake of national security."

As a result of the Secretary's active refusal to respond to the specific matter raised in my letters or by the Congress or to publicly deny the matter which appeared in the Lebanese press, I continued to make public comment on this subject. Indeed, my correspondence with Secretary Weinberger was published in its entirety in the New York Times. In addition, various newspapers and television reports with regard to the correspondence appeared during November and early December.

During these many weeks, I undertook, on my own initiative, to obtain additional information with regard to the matters raised by the Secretary. Specifically, the Secretary in his September 20, 1983 letter had stated that "no one here ever heard of the 'news magazine'" and, accordingly, "there was no denial, etc." I, therefore, requested of [redacted] that he attempt to obtain more information about the Lebanese publication.

On October 20, 1983, [redacted] called [redacted] press attache at the Lebanese Embassy in Washington (202-939-6300). [redacted] informed [redacted] that As-Safir is, in fact, a reputable daily publication in Beirut and, indeed, that the newspaper is a widely circulated daily, which he ventured had certainly been read by the appropriate staff at the U.S. Embassy in Beirut. [redacted] referred [redacted] to the Lebanese newspaper's Washington-based reporter [redacted]

[redacted] called [redacted] who stated that he is a reporter for As-Safir [redacted] and that he is known by the State Department. [redacted] then called the State Department and was referred to the press officer in charge of the Near-Eastern Desk, [redacted] (202-632-5150). [redacted] stated that As-Safir was considered the second ranking newspaper in Lebanon (after Al-Nahar) and expressed his surprise that Secretary Weinberger had been given a letter to sign which included the statements referred to above since [redacted] stated that his counterpart at the Pentagon had access to the same information that [redacted] had.

December 15, 1983

On December 5, 1983 [] received a call from [] the As-Safir reporter. He requested information concerning the responses to my letter to members of Congress with regard to my correspondence with Secretary Weinberger. In the course of the conversation, [] stated that he understood that both [] and I were the subjects of a federal probe with regard to the subject of how I had obtained the translation of the transcript which had appeared in the Lebanese newspaper. [] indicated to [] that he had learned of the Federal probe from a senior official in the "Defense Establishment". [] asked [] to provide a copy of the July 17, 1983 article in its original form, Arabic, and [] thereafter, arranged for delivery of a copy of the article to []

The call from [] was, to put it mildly, disquieting. Earlier my office had received a call from a representative of the State Department, Dennis H. Kux, Deputy Assistant Secretary for Coordination. Mr. Kux, who had called and asked to speak with me, had been referred to [] by Diane Coffey, my Chief-of-Staff. In his conversation with [] Mr. Kux stated that one of his responsibilities was to act "as a sort of staff director for an inter-agency task force on disinformation" comprised of the State Department, Defense Department, National Security Council, the FBI and others. Mr. Kux informed [] that the translation of the Lebanese newspaper article was a very good one (acknowledging, in effect, that the State Department had known of the article and had had it for some time). Mr. Kux asked [] to inquire of the Mayor as to the source of the translation and that [] get back to him. [] did not, thereafter, call Mr. Kux.

b7c

If the foregoing were all that had happened I would not be writing to you. However, on December 5, the same day as the call to [] from [] my office received a call from Kenneth Walton, the deputy head of the FBI office in New York City. The call from Mr. Walton was returned by [] Mr. Walton informed [] of the fact that a federal investigation into the source of the translation had been initiated. An appointment was arranged for agents of the FBI to meet with [] On December 7th the FBI agents told [] in a meeting at City Hall, that the probe focused on issues of "espionage" and "disinformation" and repeated the request for a statement from me as to the source of the translation. [] pointed out that the subject of my correspondence with the Secretary and the fact that the Lebanese newspaper article had appeared a month before my first letter had been widely reported upon and, indeed, had been the subject of a national piece on CBS which had included a picture of the page of the July 17, 1983 article in As-Safir. [] arranged for a viewing of the video of the CBS report. The FBI agents, I am informed, took copious notes as they watched the T.V. report.

Although the question as to the source of the translation may, conceivably, be a legitimate one, I am seriously concerned as to the motives of those who requested the FBI to make this inquiry. Let me first address the question of the source of the translation.

December 15, 1983

The translation was conveyed to me by my aide, [redacted] I learned from [redacted] received the translation in an envelope delivered by [redacted] who is a personal friend of both [redacted] and mine (I have visited [redacted] home and he has visited in mine) had apparently, called [redacted] to tell him that he was delivering an envelope that he thought [redacted] would find of interest. I subsequently learned that [redacted] had had similar communication at about the same time with three other individuals with regard to this same subject. Specifically, I am informed, [redacted] had called Rupert Murdoch, Publisher of The New York Post, to tell him that he was delivering some material which he thought Mr. Murdoch might find of interest; and [redacted] had made efforts to call [redacted] of The New York Times and George Will, the well-known writer (but as to the latter two, neither were in when [redacted] called and accordingly, he merely delivered the translation to each of them, apparently in the hope that they, too, would find it of interest). I am informed that the Israeli Consul General, consistent with the practice of other governments, forwards materials to numerous individuals and without any requests that any action be taken by the recipient with regard to such matters.

b6
b7C

I do not find it at all surprising that the Israeli Government or its Consul General found these materials worthy of comment by those of us who have expressed an interest in important issues in the Middle East. Further, I would expect that Israel among others, might be of the view that a report such as this one, in a widely read Lebanese newspaper, if untrue, should have been denied by a representative of the U.S. government. Although I have not, at any time, had any conversation with [redacted] or any other person on behalf of the Israeli government with regard to the content matter, I would have felt entirely comfortable with doing so. As it is, I initiated and conducted my correspondence with Secretary Weinberger entirely on my own and without discussing the same with any person on behalf of the Israeli government, including [redacted]

I am deeply concerned that the involvement of the FBI in this matter was initiated by the Defense Department not out of an interest in determining the source of alleged disinformation, but rather as part of an effort to discourage the exercise of my constitutional rights to inquire of the federal government and to comment on this important matter. It is difficult to accept that these inquiries were instigated out of a concern for national security on the part of the Defense Department with regard to the publication of a report, which, as Secretary Weinberger stated in his August 25 letter, "appears designed to drive wedges between this country and our friends in the Middle East...." The fact remains that this report appeared in a respected Lebanese newspaper approximately a month before the translation arrived at my office and during that entire period no public statement of any kind was made on this serious matter by any U.S. official. Most important, Secretary Weinberger and the Defense Department have rigidly refused to respond even to inquiries of the many members of Congress who have expressed an interest in this subject.

December 15, 1983

I have a deep and an abiding concern for the maintenance of the national security of this country. I have, however, the interest of any citizen in assuring that our government responds in a responsible way to the legitimate inquiries and concerns of those of us who seek to inquire or comment upon serious questions. There is no more important right than the First Amendment right of a free press or the right to petition one's government. I abhor any device which would adversely affect either of these important constitutional protections.

I am confident that you will take all appropriate steps to initiate an investigation into the leak from the "Defense Establishment" and determine if, in fact, anyone in the federal government is seeking to infringe upon my civil rights. Although I believe this letter discloses all I know regarding this issue and I would hope it resolves the matter to your satisfaction as it might concern me, if there is anything further you or your staff want, I am available, as is any member of my staff. Finally, I wanted you to be aware that due to the public attention and press inquiry this matter has received, I intend to make this letter public.

All the best.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Ed Koch", written in a cursive style.

Honorable Edward I. Koch

New York, New York

Dear Mayor Koch:

CASPAR WEINBERGER

I have received your letter of December 15, 1983, expressing your concern that others in Government might be using the FBI to chill your First Amendment rights. After a review of our records, I can assure you, categorically, such is not the case.

This matter first came to the attention of this Bureau, on August 23, 1983, when a Military Aide to the Secretary of Defense furnished an FBI Special Agent with copies of your letter to Secretary Weinberger, dated August 17, 1983; the alleged transcript that appeared in "Al Safir," and the "New York Post" articles, dated August 18, and 19, 1983.

These documents were furnished to the FBI with the explanation that the Secretary of Defense had been the subject of a crude attempt at disinformation, which had been brought to Secretary Weinberger's attention by your initial letter. Disinformation, as you may be aware, is but one of a wide range of activities employed by foreign intelligence services under the rubric of "active measures." Other activities include: manipulation or control of the media; forgeries; political influence operations utilizing assets of influence, manipulation of private communications channels, and exploitation of unwitting contacts; and covert propaganda.

The most prevalent, although not the only, practitioner of "active measures" is the Soviet Union, which uses the term to refer to operations intended to influence or otherwise affect another nation's policies. The term is often used in an intelligence context to distinguish influence operations from espionage and counter-intelligence.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

As the Federal agency delegated the principle responsibility, within the United States, of conducting counterintelligence and or coordinating counterintelligence activities of other agencies within the Intelligence Community, the FBI is responsible for investigations of suspected "active measures" operations. Not only was the Department of Defense not doing anything improper in bringing this matter to our attention, they are required by the President, under Executive Order 12333, dated December 4, 1981, to so coordinate all such activities.

The attempted interview of you on December 7th, following consultation and inquiry with other agencies of the government, was merely a logical progression in our ongoing investigation of this suspected "active measures" operation. The purpose was to elicit from you the original source of the alleged transcript. At no time did the Department of Defense request that you, or any member of your staff, be considered a subject of this investigation. The FBI was unaware of the subsequent correspondence between you and Secretary Weinberger, and it had no effect on the course of our inquiry.

I sincerely hope this explanation will sufficiently dispel any misperception of the FBI's role in this matter. You may be sure that this matter will be handled so as not in any way to interfere with your privilege to speak out on this subject. I appreciate very much your willingness to assist us.

Warm personal regards,

William H. Webster
Director

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NOTE:

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

This communication, which will be hand-delivered to the Office of the Mayor of New York City, responds to Mayor Koch's letter to the Director, 12/15/83. In his letter, Mayor Koch writes of his concern that the FBI is being used to "stifle my constitutional rights to comment upon matters of national policy."

On 8/17/83, Mayor Koch wrote to Secretary of Defense Weinberger, enclosing an English translation of an article appearing in the 7/17/83 edition of "Al Safir," a Beirut, Lebanon newspaper. The article contained an alleged transcript of a meeting between Secretary Weinberger and the Defense Minister of Saudi Arabia. In the transcript, Secretary Weinberger allegedly promises to supply Saudi Arabia with certain arms, without informing the President. Mayor Koch seeks an explanation or disavowal by Secretary Weinberger.

On 8/23/83, Special Agents of WFO were furnished copies of Mayor Koch's letter; the transcript; and copies of two articles that appeared in the "New York Post," dated 8/18 and 19/83. Mayor Koch had released his 8/17/83 letter to the press.

INTD first became aware of this suspected "active measures" operation on 10/12/83, upon receipt of WFO's airtel and LHM, dated 9/28/83. By airtel, 10/28/83, the NY Office was furnished the information and, ". . . requested to contact Mayor Koch's Office in an effort to determine how and/or from whom the Mayor received the translated version of the alleged minutes of the meeting, on May 12, 1983, in Paris, between Secretary of Defense Caspar W. Weinberger and the Saudi Defense Minister."

On 12/7/83, a NY Office Supervisor and senior Special Agent met with a representative of Mayor Koch, and attempted to elicit the requested information, supra. At no time was it ever suggested that Mayor Koch was a subject of the investigation or under any suspicion.

Unbeknownst to the FBI, Mayor Koch and Secretary Weinberger had corresponded several times since the initial letter, and according to Mayor Koch's instant letter, Congresswoman Patricia Schroeder informed him that Secretary Weinberger, ". . . will not provide any details of the [May 12] meeting and that although the House Foreign Affairs Committee has tried unsuccessfully to get [Secretary] Weinberger to testify regarding the Saudi meeting [he] has declined, claiming the right of secrecy for the sake of national security."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

NOTE (Cont'd.):

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

It is possible that Mayor Koch perceived the 12/7/83 visit by Special Agents as an attempt to intimidate or harass him for his outspokenness on this matter.

This letter to him assures him such is not the case; outlines the FBI role in "active measures" investigations; and briefly defines "active measures."

OFFICE BY DADIC KENNETH WALTON. [REDACTED] WAS ADVISED THAT WE WISHED TO INTERVIEW MAYOR KOCH AND/OR ANYONE ELSE WITH PERSONAL KNOWLEDGE OF CAPTIONED MATTER SINCE IT WAS SUSPECTED THAT THE ARTICLE IN THE NEWSPAPER AL SAFIR WAS PART OF A SOVIET ACTIVE MEASURES OPERATION. WE ALSO INDICATED THAT WE MAY WISH TO REQUEST THE ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS RECEIVED BY THE MAYOR'S OFFICE ALONG WITH ANY WRAPPERS, ETC. BE MADE AVAILABLE FOR EXAMINATION BY THE FEDERAL BUREAU OF INVESTIGATION (FBI) LABORATORY IF NECESSARY.

[REDACTED] WAS ADVISED THAT THIS MATTER CONSTITUTED A SENSITIVE AND ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ COUNTERINTELLIGENCE INVESTIGATION; THAT ANY INFORMATION RECEIVED FROM THE MAYOR'S OFFICE WOULD BE HANDLED ~~CONFIDENTIALLY~~; AND THAT WE DESIRED THE MAYOR'S OFFICE TO HANDLE THIS MATTER SIMILARLY.

NEW YORK OFFICE (NYO) SPECIFICALLY STRESSED THAT THIS INQUIRY WAS ENTIRELY ~~CONFIDENTIAL~~ IN NATURE; THAT WE HAD NO DESIRE TO BE INVOLVED IN ANY PUBLICITY REGARDING THIS MATTER AND THAT WE HAD NO

HE INFORMED US THAT THE DISPUTE BETWEEN THE MAYOR AND THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE HAD BEEN THE SUBJECT OF A STORY WHICH APPEARED ON A CBS TELEVISION AFFILIATE RECENTLY AND THAT A COPY OF THE LEBANESE NEWSPAPER AL SAFIR WAS SHOWN ON SALE AT A BROOKLYN, NEW YORK (NY) NEWSSTAND. [] ARRANGED FOR US TO VIEW THE TAPE WHICH WAS SUPPOSEDLY SHOWN ON THE CBS NEWS PROGRAM "NIGHT WATCH" ON NOVEMBER 28, 1983. [] ALSO OFFERED TO PROVIDE A COPY OF THAT TAPE, AN OFFER HE HAS YET TO FULFILL. IN ADDITION, [] WOULD ADVISE WHEN AN APPOINTMENT WITH THE PERSON OR PERSONS WITH KNOWLEDGE OF THE DOCUMENT RECEIVED BY THE MAYOR'S OFFICE COULD BE ARRANGED. TO DATE, HE HAS NOT RESPONDED TO THIS EITHER.

IN SEVERAL INSTANCES DURING THIS MEETING, [] STRESSED THAT THE MAYOR'S KNOWLEDGE OF THE MEETING BETWEEN THE SECRETARY OF DEFENSE AND THE SAUDI DEFENSE MINISTER CAME FROM A NEWSPAPER ARTICLE; THAT THE NEWSPAPER IN WHICH IT APPEARED IS THE "SECOND LEADING NEWSPAPER IN LEBANON"; AND THAT HE BELIEVED IT TO BE AVAILABLE IN BROOKLYN AND THEREFORE EASILY AVAILABLE TO THE NYO.

NYO IN RESPONSE TO [REDACTED] REGARDING AL SAFIR WAS THAT NYO HAD NOT YET SEEN A COPY OF THE JULY 17, 1983 ISSUE OF THE PUBLICATION AND, THEREFORE, DOES NOT KNOW IF THE ARTICLE APPEARED OR NOT. IN ADDITION, NYO TOLD [REDACTED] THAT WE HAD ATTEMPTED TO ACQUIRE AN ISSUE OF AL SAFIR FROM ONE OF THE LARGEST DISTRIBUTORS OF ARABIC LANGUAGE PUBLICATIONS IN NYC, BUT WERE TOLD THAT THIS DISTRIBUTOR DOES NOT CARRY IT. NOR DID THIS DISTRIBUTOR KNOW WHO DOES CARRY IT.

IN THE CONTEXT OF NYO BEING ABLE TO INTERVIEW MAYOR KOCH, [REDACTED] RAISED THE POSSIBILITY THAT WRITTEN ASSURANCES REGARDING CONFIDENTIALITY MIGHT BE REQUESTED TO WHICH WE REPLIED THAT SUCH AN ISSUE WOULD BE RESOLVED WHEN IT IS RAISED. [REDACTED] STATED THAT NOTHING IN HIS POSTURE WAS TO BE CONSTRUED AS A REFUSAL BY THE MAYOR TO DISCUSS THESE MATTERS WITH US.

1983 THAT HIS MILITARY AIDE HAD CONTACTED THE F.B.I. PURSUANT TO EXECUTIVE ORDER 12333 TO PROMPT AN INVESTIGATION OF A MATTER OF "DISINFORMATION", I WOULD NOT HAVE HAD THE CONCERNS I EXPRESSED IN MY LETTER. YOU SHOULD BE AWARE THOUGH, THAT THE SECRETARY'S SPOKEPERSON HAS PUBLICALLY DENIED THAT THE DEFENSE DEPARTMENT HAD ANYTHING TO DO WITH COMMENCING THIS INVESTIGATION. BUT HOPEFULLY THIS ISSUE IS RESOLVED. THERE ARE, HOWEVER, TWO OTHER IMPORTANT CONCERNS WHICH REMAIN.

THE FIRST IS ONE I RAISED IN MY INITIAL LETTER TO YOU, THAT IS, MY REQUEST OF THE BUREAU TO INVESTIGATE THE SOURCE OF THE "LEAK" TO A REPORTER FROM THAT THE F.B.I. WAS INVESTIGATING THIS MATTER AND PLANNING TO SPEAK TO [REDACTED] AND ME. THE REPORTER'S CALL CAME WITHIN HOURS OF THE BUREAU'S FIRST CONTACT WITH MY OFFICE. I WOULD APPRECIATE BEING ADVISED THAT STEPS ARE BEING TO ASCERTAIN THE SOURCE OF THE BREACH IN CONFIDENTIALITY.

THE SECOND AND MUCH MORE SERIOUS ISSUE, WAS NOT RAISED IN MY DECEMBER 15 LETTER (ALTHOUGH REPORTED TO THE BUREAU'S NEW YORK OFFICE) FOR REASONS WHICH WILL BE OBVIOUS FROM THE FOLLOWING. OVER THE PAST SEVERAL MONTHS A SERIES OF DEATH THREATS HAVE BEEN MADE ON THE LIVES OF BOTH [REDACTED] AND ME. IT IS OUR BELIEF THAT THESE THREATS ARE

DIRECTLY RELATED TO THE ISSUES RAISED IN MY CORRESPONDENCE WITH THE SECRETARY. THE NEW YORK CITY POLICE DEPARTMENT INTELLIGENCE DIVISION REGARDS THE MATTER TO BE OF SUCH SERIOUS CONCERN AS TO HAVE TAKEN CERTAIN EXTRAORDINARY SECURITY MEASURES TO PROTECT [REDACTED] OF COURSE, I HAVE A REGULARLY ASSIGNED SECURITY DETAIL. ATTACHED IS A CHRONOLOGY OF EVENTS LEADING TO THE CURRENT SITUATION AND I WOULD GREATLY APPRECIATE ANY HELP OF ASSISTANCE THE BUREAU COULD PROVIDE IN TRACKING DOWN THE SOURCE OF THESE THREATS. I BELIEVE THAT THE JURISDICTIONAL CONSIDERATIONS OF MY REQUEST WOULD CERTAINLY BE SATISFIED BY THE NATURE OF THE OVERALL ISSUE.

THANK YOU FOR YOUR PROMPT AND THOROUGH ATTENTION TO THIS MATTER OF SERIOUS CONCERN.

For your information, Mayor Koch sent a letter to the Director on December 15, 1983, concerning the purported transcript of the minutes of a meeting between Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger and Saudi Arabian Defense Minister Han bin Abd al-Aziz Al Saud, on May 12, 1983, in Paris. According to the Secretary of Defense and the Interagency Active Measures Working Group, chaired by the State Department, the transcript is a fabrication.

[redacted] In connection with our investigation of this apparent forgery, we would like to know if any representative of the Israeli Government has made an inquiry or issued a complaint to the State Department concerning the contents of the transcript. Dear Cap:

Pursuant to your request, telephonically conveyed to us on January 5, 1984, by of General Richard Stilwell's staff, I am enclosing a photocopy of my letter to Mayor Koch, dated December 21, 1983. My letter was in response to Mayor Koch's letter to me, dated December 15, 1983, wherein he alleges that, "others in the federal government may be attempting to use the FBI to stifle my constitutional rights to comment upon matters of national policy."

As you will note, my response states: "At no time did the Department of Defense request that you, or any member of your staff, be considered a subject of this investigation."

I hope this information will be of assistance to you.

Hon. William H. Webster
Director
Federal Bureau of Investigation

Dear Judge Webster:

CASPAR W.
Thank you for your prompt response to my letter of December 15, 1983. I accept your reassurance and again express my confidence in you and in the integrity of the role played by the bureau in this matter.. I assure you that had Secretary Weinberger informed me on August 23, 1983 that his Military Aide had contacted the F.B.I. pursuant to Executive Order 12333 to prompt an investigation of a matter of "disinformation", I would not have had the concerns I expressed in my letter. You should be aware though, that the Secretary's spokesperson has publically denied that the Defense Department had anything to do with commencing this investigation. But hopefully this issue is resolved. There are, however, two other important concerns which remain.

The first is one I raised in my initial letter to you, that is, my request of the bureau to investigate the source of the "leak" to a reporter from Al Safir that the F.B.I. was investigating this matter and planning to speak to [redacted] and me. The reporter's call came within hours of the bureau's first contact with my office. I would appreciate being advised that steps are being to ascertain the source of this breach in confidentiality.

The second and much more serious issue, was not raised in my December 15 letter (although reported to the bureau's New York Office) for reasons which will be obvious from the following. Over the past several months a series of death threats have been made on the lives of both [redacted] and me. It is our belief that these threats are directly related to the issues raised in my correspondence with the Secretary. The New York City Police Department Intelligence Division regards the matter to be of such serious concern as to have taken certain extraordinary security measures to protect [redacted]. Of course, I have a regularly assigned security detail. Attached is a chronology of events leading to the current situation and I would greatly appreciate any help or assistance the bureau could provide in tracking down the source of these threats. I believe that the jurisdictional considerations of my request would certainly be satisfied by the nature of the overall issue.

1. As a result of an exchange of letters between Mayor Koch and U.S. Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger in which the Mayor questions certain "secret deals" made by the Secretary of Defense and the Saudi Arabian Defense Minister, which were published in the New York Times early in November of 1983, numerous calls were received at City Hall. These calls were referred to [REDACTED] to Mayor Koch.

2. On November 18, 1983, [REDACTED] received a call at his office from an anonymous female who stated that she was a journalist. She discussed the mid-east situation with [REDACTED] and then stated, "I know you recently, but I've known about Koch for a longer time. He's no friend of the Arab people. This is going to end in an unpleasant way for you and Koch. We know where you are and certainly know where Koch is. We know you are at City Hall and other places." She further stated to [REDACTED] "We know what you do and how you got hold of those transcripts (a reference to the transcripts of the talks between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Arabian Defense Minister), you are an Israeli agent."

b7C

3. During the week of November 21st to 25th, 1983, the doormen at [REDACTED] residence received several calls questioning them as to the whereabouts and the telephone number of [REDACTED]. These calls were received on a pay phone in a small room off of the side of the lobby of the apartment house. The phone number there is not listed in the Bronx directory, but is, however, listed in the [REDACTED] neighborhood telephone directory. (NOTE: The doormen, when questioned about the calls, stated that the male caller stated that his name was [REDACTED] (phonetic).

4. On December 1, 1983, the day the doorman at [REDACTED] residence received a telephone call from a male [REDACTED] who asked for [redacted] the doorman advised the caller not to call again. The caller stated, "You were very helpful last week, why don't you be as helpful today?" and hung up. That same evening, the night doorman received a call from a male caller who asked what time [redacted] usually gets home. The caller stated that he was [redacted] (phonetic) from the A.R.U. or R.A.U."

5. On December 2, 1983, the office of Municipal Labor Relations, 110 Church Street, telephone 566-5143 (an office that [redacted] uses), received a call from a [redacted] asking for [redacted]. When told that [redacted] was not available at the moment, the secretary asked the caller where he may be reached by [redacted]. The caller left two telephone numbers: (1) 625-7888 and (2) 596-1919. [redacted] called these numbers and they checked out to (1) Atlantic House-Yemen (restaurant), 144 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn, and (2) Moroccan Star (restaurant), 205 Atlantic Avenue, Brooklyn. When [redacted] at these two locations, asked for [redacted] it appeared that he was not known at either one (NOTE the similarity between [redacted] [redacted])

b7c

6. On December 16, 1983, [redacted] received a call at his residence (phone number is listed in his wife's maiden name) from a male who stated that his name is [redacted] and said, "We were right, you are working for the Israelis. You and Koch have both been warned. This is the last warning. A trial will be held. No more calls. You will not be able to hide. You weren't with Koch yesterday. We are aware of your auto [redacted] (this is the registration of [redacted] 1980 Mazda). This is being done in the name of [redacted]"

7. A name check of [redacted] with the files of the Intelligence Division and the Federal Bureau of Investigation contained no record of either one.

8. [redacted] Threat Desk, Intelligence Division, conferred with Special Agent [redacted] Federal Bureau of Investigation on December 21, 1983, regarding this matter. Agent [redacted] stated that the FBI could not actively become involved in this matter because it did not fall within the following guidelines:

- (a) Interstate Calls (obscene or harassing) violating Federal Regulations;
- (b) Extortion (telephone or letter) demanding a thing of value;

- b6

- (c) An International Terrorist organization (specific information to indicate that the persons involved are acting on behalf of a foreign power or a foreign based terrorist organization).

However, Agent [] stated that he would render any assistance possible to this department in this matter.

Dear Mayor Koch:

I am in receipt of your letter of December 23, 1983, and appreciate your expression of confidence in the integrity of the FBI, and it's role in this investigation.

For your information, the FBI is continuing its investigation of this matter, and one of the issues to be resolved is the source of the statement to the "Al Safir" reporter, that the FBI was conducting an investigation, and planning to speak to you.

Because the incidents summarized in your chronology of threats directed against you and your aide, give rise to a suspicion of possible international terrorist activities, I have directed my Assistant Director-in-Charge of the New York office, to offer any possible assistance to the New York City Police Department in resolving this matter.

NOTE TO ADIC, NEW YORK

Effect liaison with NYCPD, and tender offer of assistance to that Department to resolve identification of individual(s) making threats against addressee and his aide.

NOTE:

This responds to addressee's letter, 12/23/83, wherein he acknowledges and accepts Director's assurances that the FBI is not being used to chill his First Amendment rights to speak out on National issues. Addressee raises two other points in his letter: (1) The FBI has not identified who in the "Defense Establishment" disclosed to [] the "Al Safir" reporter, that the FBI was conducting an investigation of him, and (2) he discloses that as a result of the publicity in the news media surrounding his earlier correspondence with Secretary Weinberger, [] [] has been receiving telephonic threats directed against both Mayor Koch and []

b6

Preliminary indications are that [] may have learned of FBI interest in this matter from [] [] both USDS employees who interviewed [] as part of their responsibilities as representatives of the Interagency Active Measures Working Group, chaired by USDS, of which the FBI is a member. WFO has been directed to interview [] to determine exactly how he came about his information.

As to the second issue, the threats of bodily harm directed against Mayor Koch and his aide, there is no clear FBI jurisdiction in this matter.. However, ADIC, New York is being directed to tender offer of assistance to NYCPD, because of the veiled references to an international terrorist group.

private office revealed that unknown persons or person had apparently entered and rifled through the contents of desk drawers and filing cabinets, leaving the contents in disarray.
Numerous tape cassetts, Beta Max tapes, and drawer contents were scattered about the office. [REDACTED] stated that the Present at this meeting were DADIC Walton, First Deputy Commissioner Murphy, NYPD, [REDACTED] and PLA [REDACTED]. [REDACTED] indicated that Mayor Koch was in no way displeased with efforts of the FBI but felt that if the FBI became more actively involved, [REDACTED] safety could be assured. DADIC Walton repeated previous assurances that the full services of both the FBI Laboratory and Identification Divisions, as well as full police cooperation resources of the FBI, are available upon request. To date, no such request from the NYPD has been received, although Commissioner Murphy is in direct

Concerning DADIC Walton's assessment of this situation, it is noted that during the above described meeting, he advised [] that in light of the world situation and the fact that [] was closely associated with a controversial figure, any threat must be taken seriously. Therefore, all appropriate preventive measures should be considered. DADIC Walton recommended a number of security precautions be taken by [] which were all agreed to by Commissioner Murphy. ~~(S)~~

On January 26, 1984, NYO telephonically advised that in order to secure this Bureau's interests from the outset, should the threats later be determined to be emanating from a terrorist group, an international terrorism preliminary inquiry is being initiated to follow and record the results of the NYPD investigation. ~~(U) (S)~~

COMMISSIONER MURPHY PREDICATED HIS REQUEST FOR SUCH A MEETING ON THE BASIS OF A CONVERSATION HE HAD WITH MAYOR EDWARD KOCH EARLIER IN THE DAY WHEREIN KOCH INDICATED TO COMMISSIONER MURPHY THAT HE HELD THE BUREAU IN VERY HIGH REGARD AND FELT THAT THE BUREAU COULD BE OF ASSISTANCE RELATIVE TO THE THREATS AGAINST [REDACTED] DADIC WALTON AGREED TO THE MEETING AS AN ACCOMMODATION TO COMMISSIONER MURPHY AND TO FACILITATE RESOLUTION OF CAPTIONED MATTER. COMMISSIONER MURPHY SUPPLIED DADIC WALTON WITH THE ENTIRE NYPD FILE RELATIVE TO THE [REDACTED] THREATS PRIOR TO THE MEETING. (U)

UPON REVIEW OF THIS FILE, IT WAS ONLY THEN THAT THE NYO FBI BECAME AWARE THAT [REDACTED] FIRST THREAT OCCURRED ON NOVEMBER 18, 1983, FROM AN ANONYMOUS FEMALE. THAT THREAT CONSISTED OF AN ANONYMOUS TELEPHONE CALL WHICH INDICATED IN ESSENCE, "THIS IS GOING TO END IN AN UNPLEASANT WAY FOR YOU AND KOCH. WE KNOW WHERE YOU ARE AND CERTAINLY WHERE KOCH IS. YOU ARE AN ISRAELI AGENT." THE TELEPHONE THREAT TO [REDACTED] RECEIVED ON [REDACTED] UNLISTED HOME TELEPHONE ON DECEMBER 16, 1983, CONCLUDED WITH THE STATEMENT, "THIS IS BEING DONE IN THE NAME OF SAMIR ABDULLAH." DURING THE MEETING WITH [REDACTED] ATTENDED BY [REDACTED] COMMISSIONER

THAT MAYOR KOCH WAS IN NO WAY DISPLEASED WITH THE EFFORTS OF

MEMO TO MR. REVELL

Mayor Koch called at approximately 5:30 this afternoon.

He had with him [redacted] on his staff who has been the subject of a number of threats following the publicity about the exchange between Mayor Koch and Secretary of Defense Weinberger.

CASPAR W. [redacted] has been having trouble with his telephone at the office, apparently going dead from time to time. He called the telephone company, repairmen came out, examined the phone and concluded it had been tampered with outside the building or at least outside his office.

Approximately two weeks ago there was a break in at his office; nothing of importance was taken. A number of tapes which he kept there for business purposes were apparently examined and some played. Also, an unsuccessful attempt was made to open his safe. Police officers examining the scene said it was a very professional job and that the burglar used surgical gloves.

Today while [redacted] was out of his office a call came in which was taken by one of his office personnel. The message was substantially to the effect that the people who took care of [redacted] would take care of [redacted] and Mayor Koch. The man identified himself as [redacted] (ph) and stated he was with the "PSLP."

Mayor Koch and [redacted] are currently receiving police protection. Ken Walton has been involved in the earlier threats and it is assumed by Mayor Koch and [redacted] that he has been informed of the latest developments.

troubleshooting jobs which take him out into the street, including health and hospital assignments. Apparently, his only relationship with the Middle Eastern matter came through the Koch-Weinberger papers.

I think the Mayor wanted to be assured that I was aware of the situation and I did assure him that we would stay on top of it and that the New York Office would be as cooperative and helpful as possible. It might be well for you to check with Ken Walton to be sure that he has received this latest information and in turn I would like to be informed of his current assessment.

Zaice advised that based upon a review of this trip's itinerary, the Secretary of Defense was scheduled to meet the Saudi Arabian Minister of Defense on May 11, 1983, and May 12, 1983 at the Saudi's residence. He stated since the meetings were to be held at the Saudi's residence, no effort would have been made to electronically sweep the room where the meetings were to be held.

Zaice stated that Richard L. Armitage, the Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs took notes at the May 12, 1983 meeting and would have prepared the only official record of this meeting.

On January 6, 1984, Richard L. Armitage, Assistant Secretary of Defense for International Security Affairs advised that the May 12, 1983, meeting between Secretary of Defense Caspar W. Weinberger, and Prince Sultan bin Abd al-Aziz, the Minister of Defense for Saudi Arabia took place at 72 Avenue Foch, Paris, France, a residence which Prince Sultan utilized while he was in Paris. Armitage stated he believed this particular residence was owned by a Frenchman, identity not known, who was associated with the French aircraft industry and Prince Sultan was afforded the use of this residence during his stay in Paris.

Armitage advised that this residence was not electronically swept before or after the meeting between the Secretary Weinberger and Prince Sultan.

Armitage stated that the May 12, 1983, meeting between Secretary Weinberger and Prince Sultan had been rescheduled from its originally scheduled date of May 11, 1983. He advised the fact that Secretary Weinberger and Prince Sultan were meeting was not a secret nor was it intended to be kept a secret. He stated, however, the purpose for the meeting was not publicly announced prior to the meeting nor did either party make any public statements subsequent to the meeting's completion.

With regards how the issues discussed at this meeting could have become known to parties not present at the meeting, Armitage provided the following possibilities. He stated that in the first place, it was not secret to any group monitoring U.S.-Saudi relations, what issues were of prime interest to the Saudis at this particular time. He further advised that it was being speculated widely in various Aviation Journals that the Saudis were interested in receiving delivery of F-15s from the United States. Armitage stated another possible source of information concerning the issues to be discussed at this meeting could have been a telephone call made the night before the May 12, 1983, meeting from Saudi Arabia to Prince Sultan's residence in Paris.

Armitage advised that present at this May 12th meeting and representing the United States were Secretary Weinberger; Richard Murphy, the U.S. Ambassador to Saudi Arabia; Major General Carl Smith (USAF), Military Assistant to Secretary Weinberger; and himself. He stated that present at this meeting and representing the Saudis were Prince Sultan bin Abd al-Aziz, Saudi Arabia's Minister of Defense; Prince Bandar bin Sultan, son of Prince Sultan who is presently the Saudis Ambassador to the United States; General Khalid; Ambassador Alhelgelau, the Saudis Ambassador to the United States at the time the meeting was held; and General Abdullah (retired).

Armitage advised that he took the notes during this May 12, 1983 meeting. He stated that immediately following the meeting, the American party boarded its plane for its return trip to the United States. Armitage stated that during their flight home a report concerning this May 12, 1983 meeting was sent via secure communication through the National Security Council to President Reagan; William P. Clark, the then National Security Advisor; W. Paul Thayer, the then Deputy Secretary of Defense and George P. Schultz, Secretary of State. He advised that upon his arrival home he prepared a more detailed report of the May 12, 1983 meeting. Armitage stated

NOTE:

WFO recently attempted to arrange an interview with [redacted] [redacted] correspondent for the As Safir newspaper, in an effort to determine [redacted] the alleged transcript of the meeting on 5/12/83, between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Defense Minister. On 1/3/84 [redacted] contacted WFO and advised the case agent that she was [redacted] attorney, and that before she considered whether or not to consent to the FBI interviewing her client, she wanted the Bureau to send her a letter requesting an interview as well as setting forth the nature and purpose of the interview.

In November, 1983, [redacted] advised State Department officials that [redacted] transcript in French via an envelope with a Paris postmark that had no return address. He also advised that he might possess more information concerning this matter but wanted to obtain exclusive rights to a published story before disclosing the information. In view of [redacted] comments, and our continuing efforts to resolve this investigation, the attached letter is considered appropriate.

This matter coordinated with [redacted] Special Staff.

At the commencement of the interview on 1/20/84, [] was asked what capacity he was acting in, and he stated that he is Counsel to both Mayor KOCH and to [] Case agent then asked if they were recording the interview, and they answered in the negative. They were then asked if they were familiar with Judge WEBSTER's letter to Mayor KOCH dated 12/21/83, in which the purpose and the legal basis for the inquiry was specified. They replied that they were. Case agent then reiterated that our inquiry is confidential in nature, that we have no interest in inhibiting any debate on broader policy issues, or in stifling anyone's right of free speech. They were asked if they could be depended upon to honor the confidential character of this inquiry, and they replied in the affirmative.

It should be noted for the record that [] acknowledged on 1/20/84 that he had understood our position on confidentiality at the 12/7/83 meeting. He stated that the decision to publicize our 12/7/83 visit was made with that in mind, but in the belief that other factors justified their course of action. He added that he still believes the decision to publicize the 12/7/83 meeting to be correct.

b7C

The enclosed LHM is presented in a question and answer format since [] volunteered very little. Asked if he believes Mayor KOCH has any knowledge of the alleged transcript apart from [] said he is confident KOCH does not. New York assumes that [] has an interest in protecting the Mayor, and; therefore, cannot accept his denial that the Mayor has additional knowledge without reservation. However, no interview of KOCH is being recommended for the following reasons:

1. [] has been aware of the specific objectives of this investigation since 12/7/83. No indication from the Mayor that he can assist in resolving the issues has thus far been forthcoming.

~~SECRET~~

NY 105A-173340

2. According to press reporting, KOCH initially denied publically that he received the alleged transcript from the Israelis. When an interview was sought by SA's of the NYO, he changed his story and admitted Israeli involvement in his letter to Judge WEBSTER, dated 12/15/83. Any future interview would necessarily challenge assertions already made or would seek information he should have already volunteered. Since it is apparent that the Mayor's office has been dealing with the NYC at arm's length on the matter of their handling of the alleged transcript (i.e., the participation of [redacted], New York has no reason to expect that an interview would produce a more complete version than we already have.

3. Although the NYO interview of [redacted] on 1/20/83 has not yet received publicity, the Mayor and/or his Counsel deliberately acted contrary to the condition of confidentiality outlined by interviewing SAS on 12/7/83, by making our visit public. New York cannot offer assurance that they may not again decide to disregard our requirements for confidentiality. City Hall has already demonstrated a capacity and a willingness to continue to bring this matter to public attention, and New York sees little to be gained by giving them another opportunity to breathe new life into a moribund active measures project whoever the originator was. Likewise, New York is not seeking permission to interview [redacted] unless OO specifically requests it. If [redacted] were a witting participant in an active measures scheme, he could hardly be expected to admit it to interviewing SAS. If he were not, but had pertinent information, regular diplomatic channels are available for this purpose.

Additional reporting regarding the threat to [redacted] safety is being captioned SURROGATE SON, NYfile [redacted] Instant matter is, therefore, being placed in an RUC status.

DETAILS:

On March 2, 1984, Col. Hofmann, supra, telephonically contacted SSA [Redacted] to advise that DOD had recently sent a letter to Congressman Fascell (D-FLA), Chairman of the Foreign Affairs Committee, which contained appropriate details revealing why the alleged transcript of the meeting between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Arabian Defense Minister, on May 12, 1983, MAR 12 1984 Paris, France, was in fact a fabrication. According to Col. Hofmann, Congressman Fascell sent DOD's letter to Mayor Koch who was pleased with the letter and requested authority to provide the letter to the news media.

[] Prior to providing the necessary authorization, [] wanted to determine if the Bureau had any objection to the Mayor's request since their letter did contain the information that the "As-Safir" correspondent in Washington, D.C, received the alleged transcript, in an envelope, mailed from Paris, France. This detail had not previously been made publicly available.

[] Per Deputy Assistant Director Parker's instructions, [] was advised on March 2, 1984, that the FBI could neither approve or disapprove what the DOD incorporates into its letters. However, he was reminded the FBI is conducting an ongoing investigation regarding captioned matter. He stated he understood and appreciated the Bureau's timely response.

On March 2, 1983, SSA [] Unit Chief, Press Office, was advised of the above in the event Mayor Koch attempted to contact the Director regarding this matter or publish the letter prior to receiving DOD authorization.

JUDGE:

I called a conference this morning with our people who are involved in the active measures investigation which was opened as a result of our being informed by the Department of Defense (DOD) of a letter furnished to Major Koch. The following information is derived from this conference called:

8/23/83

WFO was preparing to go to DOD on another case when a call was received from someone in Secretary Weinberger's office who stated that they wanted to furnish the Bureau certain information. Washington Field Agents then met with [redacted] to Secretary Weinberger, who stated that the Secretary had been the subject of a crude attempt of disinformation through the publication of an article on 7/17/83 by a Lebanese news magazine. [redacted] stated that it was a complete fabrication and they were furnishing it to us for our information. The [redacted] added that the Secretary first learned about this article as a result of Mayor Koch's letter dated 8/17/83. (The bombing of the American Embassy in Beirut occurred on 4/18/83 and, although all of our Embassies carefully review and cut out newspaper articles in the local press, our Embassy in Beirut may not have yet recovered from the tragic events of April.)

10/12/83

A WFO airtel dated 9/28/83 arrived at the Intelligence Division and sets out the conversation noted above with [redacted]

10/28/83

An airtel was sent to New York requesting that office contact Mayor Koch's office in an effort to determine how and from whom the Mayor received his version of the alleged minutes of the meeting in Paris between Secretary Weinberger and the Saudi Arabian Defense Minister.

10/31/83

Referral/Direct

INTD sent letters to CIA and U.S. Department of State asking for any information available that would indicate that we are dealing with an active measures effort. [redacted]

Re: Possible Active Measures Effort Directed

July 17, 1983, Issue of "As Safir," of an Alleged Transcript of the May 12, 1983,
Meeting in Paris Involving Saudi Arabian Defense Officials and Caspar Weinberger

On 12/19/83, SSA [] spoke to Mr. Butler and provided a summary of facts concerning our investigation. Mr. Butler commented that a very sensitive and ongoing ethics in government investigation was being conducted by CID which a very few people are aware of. He further stated this investigation was initiated as a result of an allegation by a CIA asset, in June 1982, that Secretary Weinberger was receiving a kickback from the sale of Airborne Warning and Control Systems (AWACS) to the Saudi Arabian Government. Upon reviewing the material presented by SSA [], Mr. Butler advised these investigations did not appear to be related to each other but appreciated Intelligence Division bringing this to his attention.

Judge:

You asked if there were a need to share the correspondence between you and Mayor Koch with the Department of Justice (DOJ) or the Department of Defense (DOD).

I believe that the correspondence should not be shared with DOJ or DOD. Your correspondence with Mayor Koch is in connection with questions he raised as to the purpose of our investigation and your reply addresses that issue. While Mayor Koch is certainly free to handle the correspondence as he sees fit, I fear that he could see additional justification for his original accusation that DOD was using the FBI "to chill his First Amendment rights" if he learned that DOD had copies of the correspondence. Mayor Koch could arrive at the mistaken conclusion that we had collaborated with DOD on our replies to him.

As far as DOJ is concerned, I see no need to go to anyone there at this time. This is an Active Measures investigation as opposed to a leak investigation and DOJ will not become involved unless we develop information of potentially prosecutable criminal activities. In addition we will provide you information on this case for your Attorney General briefing book.

Mayor Releases Webster Letters On F.B.I.'s Visit

Agency Chief Reassures Koch on His 'Rights'

By MICHAEL GOODWIN

Mayor Koch yesterday released the latest correspondence between himself and the head of the F.B.I. regarding the Mayor's suggestion that the Secretary of Defense was using the bureau to try to prevent him from speaking out on foreign policy matters.

Mr. Koch released portions of three letters — one he had written to William H. Webster, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, and two from Mr. Webster. Mr. Koch had previously released a letter he wrote to Mr. Webster. Portions of the letters were deleted, Mr. Koch said, because they dealt with personal safety.

In his letters, Mr. Webster assured the Mayor that nobody was using the F.B.I. to "chill your First Amendment rights." He also acknowledged — contrary to an earlier statement by an unnamed Federal official — that his agency had become involved at the request of the Department of Defense.

'Not Really a Contradiction'

On Dec. 16, The New York Times attributed to the unnamed Federal official a statement that the State Department had initiated F.B.I. involvement. On the same day, The Times quoted Michael Burch, Assistant Secretary of Defense for Public Affairs, as saying that it was "absurd" that the Secretary, Caspar W. Weinberger, "would initiate an investigation against Mayor Koch."

Col. Robert O'Brien, a Defense Department spokesman, said yesterday that there was "not really a contradiction." The previous Pentagon statements, he said, denied only that Mr. Weinberger had initiated an investigation of Mr. Koch.

Mr. Koch said he was "very pleased" with Mr. Webster's letters, but wanted to know who had told a Lebanese reporter in Washington that the F.B.I. was planning to talk to Mr. Koch.

Mr. Webster said that issue would be investigated.

Translation of Article Involved

Mr. Koch's initial letter complained that Mr. Weinberger was behind a visit to City Hall of F.B.I. agents who were seeking the source of a translation of a Lebanese newspaper article given to the Mayor.

Mr. Koch first denied, then confirmed, that an official of the Government of Israel had given him the translation. The translation of the article, which appeared in the newspaper Al Safir, said, among other things, that Mr. Weinberger had told a Saudi Arabian official that a Saudi request for 20 jets had not been passed on to President Reagan because it would be leaked to the press.

Mr. Weinberger said the article was "complete fabrication, but declined to

WASHINGTON (UPI)--PRESIDENT NIXON NAMED CASPAR WEINBERGER THURSDAY TO LEAD THE CONTROVERSY-BATTERED FEDERAL TRADE COMMISSION ON A NEW CONSUMER PROTECTION CRUSADE.

WEINBERGER, A PROMINENT CALIFORNIA REPUBLICAN AND STATE FINANCE DIRECTOR UNDER GOV. RONALD REAGAN, WILL BUMP DEMOCRAT PAUL RAND DIXON FROM THE CHAIRMANSHIP OF THE FIVE-MEMBER AGENCY CHARGED WITH REGULATING BUSINESS PRACTICES. THE APPOINTMENT IS SUBJECT TO CONFIRMATION BY THE SENATE.

DIXON, A BURLY AND OUTSPOKEN TENNESSEAN WHO HAS HEADED THE FTC SINCE 1961, WILL REMAIN AS A MEMBER. WEINBERGER, WHO CANNOT CLEAN UP HIS CALIFORNIA DUTIES UNTIL JAN. 1, 1970, WILL REPLACE ANOTHER DEMOCRAT, JAMES M. NICHOLSON, WHOSE TERM HAS EXPIRED.

THE 52-YEAR-OLD SAN FRANCISCO ATTORNEY TOLD NEWSMEN AT THE WHITE HOUSE AFTER HIS APPOINTMENT WAS ANNOUNCED THAT HE WOULD AIM TOWARD "AGGRESSIVE ENFORCEMENT" OF CONSUMER PROTECTION LAWS.

WEINBERGER SAID EARLIER THAT IN ASKING HIM TO SERVE, NIXON STRESSED THE NEED FOR FTC EMPHASIS ON CONSUMER PROTECTION, ESPECIALLY IN THE NATION'S URBAN GHETTOS.

HE TOLD REPORTERS THAT HE ALREADY HAS READ REPORTS CRITICAL OF THE FTC PREPARED BY THE AMERICAN BAR ASSOCIATION AND BY A YOUNG GROUP OF LAWYERS UNDER CONSUMER ADVOCATE RALPH NADER. WEINBERGER SAID THERE WAS MUCH "SOUND" MATERIAL IN THE TWO REPORTS, BUT HE RESERVED JUDGMENT UNTIL HE HAD A CHANCE TO EXAMINE THE FTC FROM THE INSIDE.

A NONSMOKER, WEINBERGER SAID HE FELT THE PRINTED WARNINGS NOW REQUIRED ON CIGARETTE PACKAGES WERE JUSTIFIED, BUT HE WAS NOT READY YET TO SAY WHETHER THEY SHOULD BE MADE STRONGER OR WHETHER CIGARETTE ADVERTISING SHOULD BE BANNED.

WEINBERGER SAID HE DID FAVOR FULL RELEASE TO THE PUBLIC OF PRODUCT TEST DATA DEVELOPED BY THE GOVERNMENT IN ITS OWN PURCHASING.

Re WFO report of SA [] dated 9/16/69, and WFO airtel to Bureau dated 9/17/69.

On 9/16/69, SE [] reviewed at the Library of Congress an article concerning the appointee which appeared in the May 10, 1958 issue of "The Peoples World". The author of the article was STEVE MURDOCK. The title of the article was "Ghost of McCarthyism Enters GOP Primary Battle".

The article reports that approximately two years previously, MURDOCK wrote a column in "The Peoples World" regarding appointee. According to MURDOCK, FULTON LEWIS, JR., a radio commentator, in his regular broadcast on Monday, 4/28/58, attacked appointee, making reference to this article and saying the appointee was "The Peoples World" candidate. LEWIS described the article as an "eulogy of WEINBERGER."

MURDOCK states in the instant article that "for the record it should be clearly stated that "The Peoples World" was not then and is not now supporting CASPAR WEINBERGER for

Attorney General." MURDOCK said the original article was entitled "Young Man on the Make" and it described WEINBERGER as a man who "intends to go places." According to MURDOCK, the original article was an attempt to appraise WEINBERGER's political ambitions and his means of achieving them. MURDOCK admitted that the original column noted WEINBERGER's emergence as "something of a liberal in the ranks of Republicans" and described WEINBERGER as "one of the brightest members of the California Legislature." However, MURDOCK states this did not constitute an endorsement of appointee, and he described these two statements as facts that ^{would} ~~are~~ not ~~be~~ be challenged by very many.

MURDOCK continues with an attack on FULTON LEWIS, JR., describing him as a person who uses the tactics of so-called "McCarthyism." The article contained no additional pertinent information regarding the appointee.

Calif. Finance Chief Eyed as Head of FTC

By Don Oberdorfer
Washington Post Staff Writer

Caspar W. Weinberger, director of finance for the State of California, is the leading candidate to succeed Paul Rand Dixon as chairman of the Federal Trade Commission, administration sources said yesterday.

The 52-year-old Weinberger, who is considered one of the leading liberals of the California Republican Party, was installed as state party chairman there in 1962 with the personal backing of Mr. Nixon, then a candidate for governor.

Prior to being named state finance director by Gov. Ronald Reagan last year, Weinberger was a partner in a large San Francisco law firm. In 1967 and 1968 he was chairman of the California State Commission on Government Organization and Economy.

The current expectation is that Weinberger would be named by Mr. Nixon to the FTC to replace Democrat James D. Nicholson, whose term runs out next week. Mr. Nixon would then designate his new appointee as chairman of the commission.

Dixon, whose administration of the FTC has been under attack from within by other commissioners, by an American Bar Association study committee and by consumer advocate Ralph Nader, is expected to remain a member of the commission until his term runs out in 1974.

The American Bar Association group, which undertook its study of the FTC at Mr. Nixon's request, recommended to the President this week that the new chairman be someone not previously affiliated with the agency, which is charged with enforcement of certain anti-trust statutes and with protecting consumers. The new chairman, the ABA study said, should be someone "with executive ability, knowledge of the tasks Congress has entrusted to the agency, and sufficient strength and independence to resist pressures."

Some sources reported that Weinberger has not yet decided whether he will accept the chairmanship of the bitterly divided commission even if he accepts the seat being vacated by Nicholson. Mr. Nixon's general policy until now has been to designate a new Nixon appointee to a regulatory agency as its chairman.

Weinberger, who is vacationing in Europe until Sept. 29, could not be reached for comment yesterday. Administration sources said the FTC vacancy will probably be filled by Mr. Nixon shortly after Oct. 1.

Honorable John D. Ehrlichman

Dear Mr. Ehrlichman:

Reference is made to my letter dated September 22, 1969, which furnished you a summary memorandum containing the results of investigation conducted concerning Mr. Caspar Willard Weinberger.

Alan Cranston, United States Senator from California, advised through his Administrative Assistant, [redacted] in Washington, D. C., that he knows Mr. Weinberger primarily as a result of Mr. Weinberger's political reputation in the State of California. Senator Cranston stated he has associated with Mr. Weinberger at various public functions in the State of California but he does not consider Mr. Weinberger to be a close personal friend. He said he has no reason to question Mr. Weinberger's character, associates, reputation, or loyalty. Senator Cranston advised he would interpose no objection to Mr. Weinberger's appointment to a high Federal post.

The records of the Central Intelligence Agency contain no pertinent information identifiable with Mr. Weinberger or [redacted]

FTC Chairman Asks Clamp on Credit Listers

By DAVID BREASTED
Washington, March 23, (News Bureau) — Federal Trade Commission Chairman Caspar W. Weinberger urged Congress today to protect consumers against credit bureaus which pass out wrong, malicious and arbitrary information about creditors.

Weinberger firmly endorsed a bill of Rep. Lenor K. Sullivan (D-Mo.) in testimony before Mrs. Sullivan's House Banking and currency subcommittee. Her bill would:

- Require that a consumer turned down on a credit report be notified of the name and address of the reporting agency.
- Give the consumer the right to see the report and to correct any errors in it, such as a "no-pay" notation when a bill has in fact been paid.

"All too often, credit bureaus report judgments outstanding, but fail to note satisfaction of the judgments. Sometimes arrests are reported, but not acquittals after trial. The consumer reporting agencies should report a clearing of the record, just as they now report a blot on someone's good name," Weinberger testified.

Cites Wrong Data

He also warned against the damages which impending nationwide credit data banks could cause through wrong and defamatory information.

Weinberger conceded, however, that the law might spread the trade commission's enforcement capacity too thin.

Documenting the need for the legislation was the tale of M. Eugene Williamson of Washington, who told of his six-month battle — still going on — with a collection agency hounding him for an unpaid oil company bill charged to the credit card of a Melvin E. Williamson.

Williamson told the subcommittee he never heard of Melvin E., nor had he ever been in or heard of Point Pleasant, Md.,

Saigon defense is now up to the S. Vietnamese

SAIGON, Sept 18 (UPI) — U.S. headquarters said today it was turning over the defense of Saigon to the South Vietnamese. The Saigon soldiers last week took their heaviest losses in a year in virtually going it alone for three days on the battlefield.

The announcement that the 82nd Airborne Division's 3rd Brigade, now guarding Saigon, would be pulled out in President Nixon's withdrawal plan meant the removal of the only U.S. unit still involved in the defense of the capital.

It would leave the job to the South Vietnamese, who lost 529 men killed last week. The period included three days in which they fought on while U.S. troops tacitly were honoring a communist-declared truce in honor of Ho Chi Minh.

SECOND HIGHEST

Government spokesmen said the 529 deaths were the highest since 642 Saigon soldiers died in the week ending Aug. 21, 1963. American losses last week were put at 143 killed and 1,343 wounded — an increase of six dead and 18 wounded over the previous week.

The government losses reflected their increasing combat role as American troops are being pulled out, and served as an indicator of their ability against the Viet Cong and North Vietnamese. A total of 2,361 communists died in fighting last week, spokesmen said.

RECRUITS in a special disciplinary unit at the Marine Corps recruit depot at San Diego were handcuffed naked to a mirror and forced to look at themselves for hours to "stimulate an attitude of change," a Marine Corps spokesman confirmed. He also said the handcuffing has ended. The punishment lasted as long as two days.

Frank Sawyer, 70, convicted 30 years ago for a bank robbery committed by the once-notorious Alvin Karpis, was granted a full pardon and will leave Kansas State penitentiary tomorrow. Karpis, now living in Montreal, signed an affidavit claiming Mr. Sawyer took no part in the robbery.

Czech chess champion Ludek Pachman is fasting in a Czech jail because he is being illegally detained for his alleged part in the Aug. 21 disturbances.

One thing that is emerging from the FTC hearings into auto sales practices, is that the pricing system is so complex that buyer is never sure whether he's getting a "good deal" or not. FTC said that fewer than 5 per cent of autos sold in the U.S. sell at "sticker" prices.

At work

Mansfield veto

SENATE Democratic leader Mike Mansfield has turned thumbs down on a Republican proposal that the Senate put off action on tax reforms until January.

Dr. Glenn T. Seaborg, in Stockholm, said a "fusion torch" capable of destroying all the wastes of the world (the Kenilworth dump, too) is now possible. He said that Americans were trailing Russians in this research, but the Russians have shared their knowledge with the U.S. freely.

The House votes on the proposed constitutional amendment today to determine whether Americans should have the right to choose their President by direct vote. Final action is still a long way off, however. If the Senate passes the bill, then two-thirds of the states have to vote on it.

President Nixon has offered California Finance Director Caspar W. Weinberger the chairmanship of the Federal Trade Commission.

Interior Secretary Walter J. Hickel says his department is considering a $6.3 billion program to turn rooftops, vacant lots and streets into city recreation facilities. He's not sure he'll get the necessary funds, he said.

Admiral urges whippings

By London Express Service
LONDON, Sept. 18 — British Vice Adm. Sir Robert Turner, gave yesterday his view of drinking and drug abuse by students.

"In my young days a junior midshipman who became drunk was given a dozen of the best on the taut breech. Perhaps this method would soon cure drunkenness and drug-taking in schools."

Weinberger Confirmed as HEW Chief

By Spencer Rich

Washington Post Staff Writer

With only token opposition, the Senate voted 81 to 10 yesterday to confirm Caspar W. Weinberger as Secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, completing action on President Nixon's second-term Cabinet nominations.

Before the vote, Sens. Harold Hughes (D-Iowa) and Edward M. Kennedy (D-Mass.) assailed the administration's budget slashes in anti-poverty, health, alcoholism and drug control programs, and said they would vote against Weinberger in protest.

"The little old lady eating a boiled egg in a room, the children, the poor, the disabled, the handicapped, the alcoholic, the drug addict—they are the people the administration thinks are contributing to inflation in this country," shouted Hughes.

Said Kennedy, "My objection is to this administration's destruction of the Department of HEW. I cannot in good conscience vote for confirmation."

tion of a Secretary who I believe will work to carry out this destruction."

Sen. Edmund S. Muskie (D-Maine) called Weinberger "the chief architect of the administration's negative and unconstitutional policies of impounding social program funds voted by Congress."

All 10 votes against Weinberger came from Democrats: Hughes, Kennedy, Muskie, Joseph Biden (Del.), Dick Clark (Iowa), William Hathaway (Maine), Hubert H. Humphrey (Minn.), Lee Metcalf (Mont.), Gaylord Nelson (Wis.) and Harrison A. Williams (N.J.).

Despite criticism of the administration's budget and vague threats by some Democrats to hold up nominations, all six of Mr. Nixon's second-term Cabinet nominees have now cleared the Senate without major difficulty.

The other five Cabinet secretaries are Elliot L. Richardson, Defense, James Lynn, Housing, Peter Brennan, Labor, Claude Brinegar, Transportation, and Frederick Dent, Commerce.

Yesterday's debate reflected the growing resentment, particularly among Democrats, toward what they see as President's usurpation of congressional prerogatives—unilateral foreign policy actions, for example, and impoundments of funds for lawmakers' favorite programs.

In another aspect of the impoundment dispute, Senate Foreign Relations Committee Chairman J. W. Fulbright (D-Ark.) introduced an amendment to the foreign aid authorization bill which would forbid the President to spend money for foreign aid unless funds impounded for domestic programs are released by April 30. "It simply states: Mr. President, whenever you impound funds appropriated for certain federal agencies, we in Congress are going to cut off foreign aid funds," Fulbright said.

proved Weinberger. Humphrey took the floor to demand more information on impoundment actions. He emphasized that the administration saying that any large-scale reconstruction of South and North Vietnam must be financed by further cuts in existing budget programs. (Budget Director Roy Ash made that point again at a hearing)

Before I'm going to vote for a Marshall Plan for North Vietnam, I want a Marshall Plan for America," shouted John O. Pastore (D RI). Meanwhile, proposals were advanced by different groups of senators to set up machinery for Congress to set its own budget limitations each year, and thereby retain the choice of where to cut if needed.

Sen Charles H. Percy (R Ill), together with Sens Harry F. Byrd Jr. (Ind Va) and Alan Cranston (D Calif) proposed creation of a special joint committee to set an expenditure limit by March 30 each year. The figure would be subject to floor approval in both chambers.

The 13 Senate freshmen led by Sam Nunn (D Ga) and Peter Domenici (R NM), appealed for machinery to set an overall spending limit before any appropriations bills are voted.

Amid all the strife, one calm, familiar voice was heard pleading with both the White House and his Senate colleagues on both sides of the aisle for a return to genuine bipartisanship in foreign policy.

George D. Aiken (R Vt), the senate's senior Republican, said earlier bipartisanship, based on a naive and inflated conception of the U.S. capacity to control events in other nations, had collapsed as a result of the Vietnam war.

On a routine series of voice votes yesterday, the Senate confirmed James Keogh as director of the United States Information Agency and Thomas F. McCormick as the public printer, and the following ambassadorial nominations: Daniel P. Moynihan, India; Richard Helms, Iran; Richard T. Davies, Poland; Cleo A. Noel Jr, Sudan; Melvin J. Manfull, Liberia.

Now Congress has left for a Lincoln's Birthday holiday. The Senate will return next Thursday, the House a week from Monday.

CASPAR WEINBERGER

DANIEL P. MOYNIHAN

Weinberger, Keogh Okayed by Senate

Associated Press

The Senate today confirmed Caspar W. Weinberger as secretary of health, education and welfare despite Democratic criticism of his role in helping shape budget cuts proposed by the Nixon administration. The vote was 61 to 10.

The nomination was the last of President Nixon's new Cabinet nominations to be acted upon by the Senate.

Sens. Harold E. Hughes, D-Iowa, and Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., delivered lengthy Senate speeches against the nomination, praising the nominee's ability while denouncing his role as budget director in fashioning sharp reductions for domestic programs.

Hughes charged that the Nixon budget "represents an abandonment of our efforts to help those least able to help themselves — our children, our aged, our sick."

The Senate earlier today confirmed the nomination of James Keogh of Greenwich, Conn., to be director of the U.S. Information Agency.

Keogh, newsman and author, was chief of the White House research and writing staff in 1969 and 1970. He succeeds Frank J. Shakespeare Jr. at USIA.

The Senate also confirmed the appointment of Thomas

F. McCormick of Connecticut to be Public Printer, succeeding the late Adolphus Nichols Spence.

In addition the Senate confirmed these ambassador appointments:

Daniel P. Moynihan to India, Richard Helms (former Central Intelligence Agency director) to Iran, Richard T. Davies to Poland, Sleo A. Noel Jr. to the Democratic Republic of the Sudan, and Melvin L. Manfull to Liberia.

EMPLOYMENT

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION AND WELFARE

b6

The following investigation was conducted by SA [redacted] on 9/30/76:

JOHN D. YOUNG, Assistant Secretary, Comptroller, advised that he had served with the appointee at the Office of Management and Budget and had accompanied him to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare when the ~~applicant~~ ^{appointee} was appointed to the Cabinet Post. YOUNG stated that the appointee was a man of great integrity and that he had done an outstanding job at both the Office of Management and Budget and at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare. YOUNG said that the appointee possessed both qualities of toughness and compassion and he described the appointee as a "great protector of the public interest who is compassionate in his concern for people." He concluded by stating that the appointee was most highly regarded while at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare and he recommended him highly for a sensitive and trusted Governmental position.

WILLIAM MORRILL, Assistant Secretary for Planning and Evaluation, stated that he had worked with the appointee at the Office of Management and Budget as well as at the Department of Health, Education and Welfare where the appointee had a distinguished record as an Administrator and Public Servant. He noted that the appointee was a person of the highest integrity and a loyal and patriotic citizen. MORRILL said that he knew nothing that would reflect unfavorably on the appointee and he recommended him by stating that "the American people would be fortunate if the appointee returned to Government Service."

St. JOHN BARRETT, Deputy General Counsel, described the appointee as "a very effective Government Servant who is sensitive to the integrity of the Governmental process". Federal Trade Commission (FTC)

b6
b7c

On November 5, 1976, SA [] conducted the following investigation at the FTC.

PAUL RAND DIXON, Commissioner, stated he knew the appointee as a close working associate during the entire time appointee served in the FTC. This was from January, 1970, to July, 1970. Mr. DIXON considered him to be an able administrator who had the facility for getting the job done. He was bright, intelligent, highly motivated and very conscientious. Appointee was stable, affable and upright. He was cooperative, reliable and trustworthy. Appointee was fair and equitable in all his dealings. His moral character, associates and loyalty to the country were above reproach. Mr. DIXON mentioned there was some criticism of the money spent for elaborate refurbishing of appointee's office at the FTC. According to Mr. DIXON, he understands about $42,000 of the FTC's appropriation was spent by appointee in redecorating with wood panelling and the like. It is Mr. DIXON's opinion this was an excessive amount spent from their meager budget, and he believes the appointee's office was already adequately furnished with Government-provided desks and decorating. He recalled this situation generated some criticism from unrecalled senators, adding the adverse comments concerning the decorating costs subsidized after appointee subsequently became Director, Office of Management and Budget. Mr. DIXON pointed out there was nothing illegal about the refurnishing of appointee's office with appropriated funds, although it is his opinion it was a mistake to spend the amount of money that was allegedly spent. In fairness to the appointee, Mr. DIXON said that many other high Federal officials do the same thing when they are first appointed, and, thus, appointee did not do any more than what other present and former high officials have done. He does not believe the above is significant in assessing appointee's eligibility for a high position of trust and responsibility, and he highly endorsed him without qualification.

CHARLES L. TOBIN, Secretary, said he was acquainted with appointee on a professional basis for about six months in 1970. He praised him as being an excellent lawyer and a fine administrator and executive. He was impressed with his demeanor, attitude and outlook. The appointee is a cultivated man with an outstanding reputation. He was intelligent, bright and nobly motivated. He was an able administrator who had the facility for getting the job done. He was upright, even-tempered, stable and scrupulous. He was fair and equitable in all his dealings. Appointee was mature and balanced in his views. He had a quick mind and could easily get to the heart of any problem. His patriotism and personal habits were never doubted. Mr. TOBIN recalled that appointee had his office redecorated when he first came there, adding he felt this represented only a modest amount of work and labor and was not excessive. He declared he is aware of nothing unfavorable concerning appointee and highly recommended him for important duties in the Federal service.

The appointee was endorsed for a high Government post by Ms. DORIS K. NAUMANN, Secretary to the Assistant Director, Office of Evaluation, Bureau of Competition. She worked on appointee's staff for six months at the FTC and for six months at the Office of Management and Budget. He was a top-flight executive and administrator with an excellent reputation. He conducted himself as a gentleman at all times and displayed a warm and friendly attitude. She described him as a brilliant man who handled his work with dispatch and precision. He is one of the nicest persons she ever worked for in her 25 years of Government employment. He was firm but fair in his dealings and worked long hours on a regular basis. Profiles of Key Members of the President-Elect's Transition Team

Weinberger

"Cap the Knife" they called Caspar W. Weinberger in the Nixon administration, where he displayed a noticeable zeal for budget-cutting as director of the Office of Management and Budget and secretary of health, education, and welfare. He authored a budget-cutting plan in Sacramento, too, when he served as Reagan's first finance director.

In the 1980 campaign, though, Weinberger is said to have been a moderating force, arguing against some of the deep spending slashes more conservative advisers wanted Reagan to propose. The 63-year-old business executive from San Francisco clearly has Reagan's ear — the president-elect calls him "my Disraeli" — and he is probably as good a bet as anyone for a Cabinet office or economic advisory position in the Reagan administration.

SA [REDACTED] on December 31, 1980:

William H. Taft, III, retired Government employee, 3101 35th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C., advised that he has been acquainted with the appointee both socially and professionally since 1969. Appointee enjoys people and enjoys life and Taft knows of no information that would be considered unfavorable nor does he know of any previous activity which would be considered a conflict of interest with his appointment. Taft has not known the appointee to use alcohol in excess or to use drugs of any kind. He has no reason to question the appointee's character, associates, reputation or loyalty to the United States Government and would recommend the appointee to a position of trust and confidence with the United States Government. ✓

IN ADDITION TO WORKING WITH THE APPOINTEE, HE HAS ALSO SOCIALIZED WITH THE APPOINTEE AND CONSIDERS THE APPOINTEE AND HIS WIFE TO BE MODEL CITIZENS. THE APPOINTEE IS A MAN OF GREAT ABILITIES AND INSIGHTS, WHO POSSESSES A WIDE RANGE OF EXPERIENCE AND WOULD CERTAINLY BE ABLE TO AID IN

THE BETTERMENT OF THE GOVERNMENT. THE APPOINTEE IS A PART OWNER IN BECHTEL, BUT WILL, WHEN AND IF HE IS CONFIRMED, DIVEST HIMSELF OF ALL INTERESTS WITH BECHTEL AND THEREFORE, SHOULD HAVE NO CONFLICTS OF INTEREST THAT HE WAS AWARE OF. THE APPOINTEE HAS NO BAD HABITS AND IS OF IMPECCABLE CHARACTER AND INTEGRITY AND HE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE.

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, STEVE WHITE, SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, BECHTEL GROUPS, INC., 50 BEALE STREET, ADVISED THAT HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS AND CONSIDERS THE APPOINTEE TO BE A MAN OF GREAT INTEGRITY AND ABILITY. THE APPOINTEE IS A SOLID CITIZEN AND HE KNEW OF NOTHING OF AN UNFAVORABLE NATURE CONCERNING THE APPOINTEE AND FELT THAT THE GOVERNMENT WAS QUITE LUCKY TO ATTRACT SUCH AN INDIVIDUAL. HE WOULD NOT QUESTION FOR A MOMENT THE APPOINTEE'S CHARACTER, HONESTY, OR LOYALTY, AND HIGHLY RECOMMENDED HIM FOR A POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE.

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, RITA O. GEORGE, PERSONAL SECRETARY TO THE APPOINTEE, ADVISED THAT SHE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE FOR FOUR YEARS AND CONSIDERS HIM TO BE A VERY DEDICATED AND HARD WORKING INDIVIDUAL WHO IS AN EXCELLENT PERSON TO WORK FOR. SHE FELT THE APPOINTEE IS OF EXCEPTIONAL ABILITY AND IS OF EXCELLENT

CHARACTER, HONESTY, AND LOYALTY. SHE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE.

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, JACKSON STROMBERG, ASSISTANT GENERAL COUNSEL, LEGAL DEPARTMENT, BECHTEL GROUPS, INC., 50 BEALE STREET, ADVISED THAT HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE SINCE THE APPOINTEE CAME TO BECHTEL AND HE HAS BEEN IMPRESSED WITH THE APPOINTEE'S ABILITY TO GRASP IDEAS AND FACTS AND IN A VERY SHORT TIME AND MAKE THE PROPER DECISIONS FROM THAT INFORMATION. HE CONSIDERS THE APPOINTEE TO BE OF EXCELLENT CHARACTER, HONESTY AND LOYALTY AND HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE.

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, MIKE FLETCHER, ATTORNEY, LEGAL DEPARTMENT, BECHTEL GROUPS, INC., ADVISED THAT HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE SINCE 1975 AND HAD ONLY FAVORABLE COMMENTS REGARDING THE APPOINTEE. HE CONSIDERS HIM TO BE WELL SUITED FOR A PRESIDENTIAL APPOINTMENT AND KNEW OF NOTHING UNFAVORABLE CONCERNING THE APPOINTEE. HE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE FOR A POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE.

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, ROBERT BRIDGES, SENIOR PARTNER, THELEN, MARRIN, JOHNSON, AND BRIDGES, TWO EMBARCADERO CENTER, ADVISED THAT HE IS A FORMER BOARD MEMBER OF BECHTEL CORPORATION

AND HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE IN EXCESS OF 20 YEARS. HE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE.

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, A.B. FERGUSON, SENIOR PARTNER, THELEN, MARRIN, JOHNSON, AND BRIDGES, TWO EMBARCADERO CENTER, AND MEMBER OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF BECHTEL, ADVISED HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE INTIMATELY FOR APPROXIMATELY FIVE YEARS AND CONSIDERS THE APPOINTEE TO BE WELL QUALIFIED, LOYAL AND A MAN OF IMPECCABLE CHARACTER. HE HAD NOTHING UNFAVORABLE TO SAY REGARDING THE APPOINTEE AND HIGHLY RECOMMENDED HIM. ✓

ON DECEMBER 31, 1980, J. BRIDGES, PARTNER, THELEN, MARRIN, JOHNSON AND BRIDGES, TWO EMBARCADERO CENTER, ADVISED THAT HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE APPROXIMATELY FIVE YEARS AND HAS ACTED AS THE APPOINTEE'S PERSONAL ATTORNEY ON A NUMBER OF MATTERS. HE CONSIDERS THE APPOINTEE TO BE A MAN OF COMPLETE HONESTY AND INTEGRITY, WHO IS LOYAL AND HE KNEW OF NOTHING UNSATISFACTORY CONCERNING THE APPOINTEE. HE ADVISED THAT TO HIS KNOWLEDGE, THE APPOINTEE WOULD HAVE NO CONFLICTS OF INTEREST AND HE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE. ✓

ASSOCIATES:

ON JANUARY 1, 1980, STEVEN D. BECHTEL, JR., ADVISED THAT ✓

HE HAS KNOWN THE APPOINTEE 20 YEARS AND HAS NO RESERVATIONS ABOUT THE APPOINTEE BEING APPOINTED TO THE REAGAN ADMINISTRATION. THE APPOINTEE IS A HIGHLY REGARDED INDIVIDUAL IN THE COMMUNITY AND BECHTEL IS SORRY TO SEE SUCH AN OUTSTANDING INDIVIDUAL LEAVE. HE ADDED THAT THE APPOINTEE IS MAKING A TREMENDOUS FINANCIAL SACRIFICE IN ACCEPTING AN APPOINTMENT AND HE HOPED THAT THE ADMINISTRATION WAS AWARE OF THIS. HE HAD NOTHING BUT THE UTMOST RESPECT FOR THE APPOINTEE'S ABILITIES AND HE FELT THAT THE APPOINTEE HAD DONE AN OUTSTANDING JOB FOR BECHTEL IN ALL HIS CAPACITIES AND HE COULD NOT SAY ENOUGH GOOD THINGS ABOUT THE APPOINTEE. HE ADDED THAT BECHTEL WAS BUYING THE APPOINTEE OUT OF ALL HIS DIVESTED INTEREST IN THE COMPANY AND HE SHOULD ANTICIPATE NO CONFLICTS OF INTEREST INVOLVING THE APPOINTEE. HE FELT THE APPOINTEE'S CHARACTER AND REPUTATION WERE IMPECABLE AND HE HIGHLY RECOMMENDED THE APPOINTEE FOR A POSITION OF TRUST AND CONFIDENCE.

ON DECEMBER 30, 1980, THE OFFICES OF PORTER E. THOMPSON, BECHTEL CORPORATION, ADVISED THAT HE WAS OUT OF TOWN UNTIL THE WEEK OF JANUARY 5, 1980.

A STRONG, CONFIDENT AMERICA THAT IS PERCEIVED BY OUR ALLIES AS A RELIABLE FRIEND, AND BY OUR POSSIBLE OPPONENTS AS BOTH WILLING AND ABLE TO FIGHT FOR OUR FREEDOM, IS OUR BEST HOPE FOR PEACE.

OUR NEW PRESIDENT AND I SHARE A DEEP APPRECIATION OF THE SACRIFICES YOU MAKE AND THE SKILLS WITH WHICH YOU SERVE AND DEFEND ALL THE PEOPLE.

ONE OF MY MAJOR PRIORITIES IS TO BE SURE THAT OUR COUNTRY FULLY RECOGNIZES AND HONORS YOUR GREAT SERVICE AT HOME AND ALL OVER THE WORLD.

I LOOK FORWARD WITH GREAT ENTHUSIASM AND EAGERNESS, AS WE BEGIN TO RE-ARM AMERICA UNDER THE LEADERSHIP AND WITH THE FULL BACKING OF OUR NEW COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

OURS IS A MOST EXCITING AND VITAL TASK. OUR SUCCESS WILL BE MEASURED BY WHETHER WE HAVE SO STRENGTHENED OUR COUNTRY THAT WE HAVE PRESERVED THE PEACE.

SIGNED: CASPAR W. WEINBERGER, SECRETARY OF DEFENSE

Minor editing changes shall be made on the xerox as follows: using a lead pencil ONLY draw single line through the first and last lines of the heading and connect these lines from top right to bottom left forming a "Z," figure. (DO NOT OBLITERATE THE HEADING.) Use horizontal lines to delete sentences or words. Printed changes of a word or two to the text of the message may be made; however, changes to the existing text involving more than a word or two necessitate the originator to initiate a new message using form 0-93.
3. Administrative data or notes may be typed immediately following the text and will be transmitted to all addressees.
4. When using the 0-73 form to disseminate information to field offices, Legal Attaches and other Government agencies simultaneously, the text, notes and administrative data must be identical for all addressees.

December 15, 1981

Honorable Caspar W. Weinberger
The Secretary of Defense Room 3E880
The Pentagon
Washington, D. C. 20301

Dear Mr. Secretary:

I would like to thank, through you, two of your colleagues who testified at the recently concluded espionage trial involving Marian W. Zacharski and William H. Bell.

Mr. Arthur F. Van Cook, Director of Information Security, Office of the Deputy Undersecretary of Defense for Policy, and Major General Richard X. Larkin, who recently completed assignment in the Defense Intelligence Agency, agreed to conduct pertinent research and to testify as to the sensitivity of the information contained in documents in question and the seriousness of their compromise. Both of these gentlemen were very effective witnesses and contributed a great deal to the successful outcome of the case. I would appreciate your passing along our gratitude to them for their help.

Sincerely yours,

William H Webster

CASPAR WILLARD WEINBERGER

Captioned individual, who you advised was born August 18, 1917, in San Francisco, California, and holds Social Security Number 096-12-1745, was the subject of applicant investigations by the FBI in 1969, 1976 and 1981, the results of which have previously been furnished to the Office of Security at the White House. (U) (161-6700)

In 1983, the FBI conducted a foreign counterintelligence investigation into an allegation of the possible forgery of a letter from Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger to Mr. George P. From 1982 to 1984, the FBI investigated allegations that Americans may have received payments by Saudi Arabian officials in an effort to influence United States policy toward Saudi Arabia. Mr. Weinberger was one of the individuals in question. Our investigation failed to develop any information to substantiate the allegation against him. (S) (U)

By communication dated June 18, 1984, from Stephen S. Trott, Assistant Attorney General, Criminal Division, Department of Justice (DOJ), no further investigation was requested by DOJ and this case was closed. (U) (58-11125-5; 10; 11; 129)

In 1983, the FBI conducted a foreign counterintelligence investigation into an allegation of the possible forgery of a letter from Secretary of Defense Caspar Weinberger to Mr. George P. WEINBERGER CHARGED WITH OBSTRUCTION, PERJURY AND FALSE STATEMENTS

Former Defense Secretary Caspar W. Weinberger was indicted today on five felony charges of obstruction, perjury and false statements in connection with congressional and criminal investigations of the Iran-contra affair, Independent Counsel Lawrence E. Walsh announced.

The indictment charges that Weinberger concealed from investigators extensive personal notes reflecting high-level Reagan Administration discussions about secret U.S. arms sales to Iran in 1985 and 1986 and about aid to the Nicaraguan Contras during a ban on U.S. support in the same general period.

Weinberger lied to Congress about his knowledge of the Iran arms sales, and about his knowledge of Saudi Arabian contributions to the Contras, according to the 31-page indictment handed up by a federal grand jury in Washington, D.C.

Independent Counsel Walsh said the Weinberger investigation was conducted by Deputy Independent Counsel Craig A. Gillen and associate counsel John Q. Barrett and Thomas E. Baker.

Weinberger, 74, was Secretary of Defense from 1981 to November 1987. As Defense Secretary, he was a member of President Reagan's National Security Council, whose staff oversaw the operational aspects of the Iran arms sales, as well as support for the Nicaraguan Contras.

The indictment charges that Weinberger concealed from Congress in 1987 the existence of his personal notes, which were explicitly sought by the House and Senate Iran-contra committees. During 1985 and 1986, he took more than 1,700 pages of daily notes and hundreds of additional pages of notes from White House meetings. Weinberger gave the congressional Iran-contra committees notes from only one White House meeting and falsely denied that he had other relevant notes, according to the indictment.

Weinberger made false statements to the Office of Independent Counsel about his note-taking practices and whether he deliberately withheld notes from investigators, the indictment charges. In an October 1990 interview with OIC investigators, Weinberger disputed the accuracy of a report of an earlier interview because it suggested "that it was his habit to make notes throughout his seven years as Secretary of Defense, which was not the case." Weinberger told the Office of Independent Counsel he did not make notes of his phone calls or records of his meetings and that he was not aware of any notes that had not been produced to investigators, the indictment states.

Weinberger's notes reflect most of the key meetings and discussions described in the indictment.

The indictment charges that Weinberger falsely denied to Congress in June 1987 that he was aware of Saudi Arabian contributions to the Nicaraguan Contras. According to the indictment, Gen. John Vessey, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told Weinberger in 1985 about the Saudi aid, and Weinberger repeated the information to National Security Adviser Robert McFarlane and others.

The indictment charges that Weinberger lied to Congress about his knowledge of a shipment of U.S. HAWK missiles to Iran by Israel in November 1985 in return for the release of American hostages held in Lebanon. Although Weinberger opposed the arms sales, he was informed several times of the HAWK shipment in November 1985 by McFarlane, according to the indictment. McFarlane told Weinberger the President had approved the shipment.

Weinberger attended a December 7, 1985, White House meeting at which the November 1985 HAWK missile shipment by Israel to Iran was discussed by Weinberger, President Reagan, Secretary of State George Shultz and other senior officials. According to the indictment, Weinberger complained that a U.S. embargo on arms sales to Iran made them illegal, and that "washing" them through Israel would not legalize them. Weinberger also attended a December 10, 1985, White House meeting with the President and others in which the replenishment of Israeli missile stocks was discussed.

After the secret Iran arms sales were publicly exposed in early November 1986, the indictment states, "officials within the White House and other Executive branch agencies expressed repeated concern that the 1985 Israeli arms shipments to Iran, and in particular the November 1985 HAWK shipment, had been illegal."

Weinberger's false statements about the HAWK shipment followed a Nov. 24, 1986, White House meeting at which Meese told President Reagan, Vice President Bush, Secretary Shultz, CIA Director William Casey, White House Chief of Staff Donald Regan, National Security Adviser John Poindexter, and Weinberger that the shipment "may have been illegal, but that the President did not know about the shipment at the time," the indictment states.

In summary, the indictment charges:

Count 1: Obstruction of the congressional Iran-contra committees in 1987 by withholding and concealing the existence of daily and meeting notes relevant to their investigation.

Count 2: False statement to the House Iran-contra committee on June 17, 1987, about whether he was aware of Saudi Arabian contributions to the Nicaraguan Contras.

Count 3: Perjury before the congressional Iran-contra committees on July 31, 1987, by falsely denying that he knew that a transfer of HAWK missiles by Israel to Iran in November 1985 was to take place.

Count 4: Perjury before the congressional Iran-contra committees on July 31, 1987, about whether he knew that the replenishment of Israeli missile stocks was at issue in the Iran arms sales.

Count 5: False statement to the Office of Independent Counsel on October 10, 1990, about whether he took notes of his phone calls and meetings, whether he had produced relevant notes to Iran-contra investigators, and whether he had deliberately withheld any documents.

Each of the counts carries a maximum penalty of five years in prison and $250,000 in fines.

TERROR against TERROR

The Israeli patriotic organization TERROR AGAINST TERROR punishes those that, both inside Israel and outside it, help the activities endangering the security of the Jewish State. TERROR AGAINST TERROR defends Israel against all that throw doubt upon the right of Jews to the Holy Land.

The United States grant the Israelis means needed for safeguarding the sovereignty and security of the State of Israel territory. It is so because ~~throughout its existence~~ Israel has been the most reliable ally and guarantee of U.S. interests in the Middle East. The U.S. - Israel close alliance is also a result of the activities of several Jewish generations living in the U.S. that have not spared any sacrifice striving to promote the interests of Jews and of Israel in the Western hemisphere.

U.S. leaders' utterances on U.S. - Israel "special relations", however, are far from indicating that everything goes on well between both countries. Even in U.S. policy there are trends stemming from anti-Jewish and anti-Israeli positions. We know only too well that Arab tycoons spend a lot of money on corrupting influential U.S. politicians.

One of Israel's staunchest enemies is sitting in the Pentagon. Caspar W. WEINBERGER takes advantage of every opportunity to harm Israel and to meet his Arab friends' wishes. An example of that is the cowardly U.S. policy in Lebanon the main promoter of which Weinberger was.

Another enemy of Israel is now on a tour of the U.S. trying to gain support of U.S. electorate. We know Jesse L. JACKSON will not get into the White House. Not even the money of his Arab bosses will help him get there. The pre-election platform Jackson preaches is nothing but an attempt to instil Arab policy striving for a destruction of the State of Israel into the minds of Americans.

TERROR AGAINST TERROR is not willing to stand 'idle face to face with Weinberger and Jackson promoting the Arabs' policy in the U.S. with impunity. We are aware of the bequest of Jewish fighters of the forties who did not spare any sacrifice in their fight against Arabs and their stooges. Weinberger and Jackson shall be punished too. The TERROR AGAINST TERROR fighters are throughout the world. Their bullets shall hit their targets no matter where Weinberger and Jackson may find a refuge. The well-trained bodyguards around Weinberger and Jackson pose no obstacle to prevent a just revenge.

Death on Weinberger, Jackson and their like!

Dear Congressman Tallon:

I have received your June 5th communication enclosing a letter received by the husband of one of your staff members from Terror Against Terror, and appreciate your bringing this information to the attention of the FBI.

I have been advised by our Criminal Investigative Division that we have developed information to indicate that Terror Against Terror may be identical with an Israeli right-wing terrorist group, which, until this time, has operated only in Israel and Israeli-occupied territories. An investigation is ongoing and appropriate law enforcement and defense agencies have been advised of the threats contained in the letter.

I thank you for writing and would appreciate your forwarding to us any additional material from this group which you or your associates receive.

Sincerely yours,

No watermark or indented writings were observed on specimens Q1 through Q4.

The address labels attached to the Q1 and Q3 envelopes were prepared using a photocopier.

It was determined that the Q2 and Q4 letters were prepared using an offset lithographic printing process and specimens Q2 and Q4 both originated from the same printing source.

The style of type appearing on Q1 through Q4 most closely resembles Laboratory standards on file for a courier style of type spaced ten (10) letters per inch (pica) which is found on numerous brand name typewriters including IBM.

Specimens Q1 through Q4 have been photographed and will be returned with the results of the latent fingerprint examination.

OFFSET LITHO

The Israeli patriotic organization TERROR AGAINST TERROR punishes those that, both inside Israel and outside it, help the activities endangering the security of the Jewish State. TERROR AGAINST TERROR defends Israel against all that throw doubt upon the right of Jews to the Holy Land.

The United States grant the Israelis means needed for safeguarding the sovereignty and security of the State of Israel territory. It is so because throughout its existence Israel has been the most reliable ally and guarantee of U.S. interests in the Middle East. The U.S. - Israel close alliance is also a result of the activities of several Jewish generation living in the U.S. that have not spared any sacrifice striving to promote the interests of Jews and of Israel in the Western hemisphere.

U.S. leaders' utterances on U.S. - Israel "special relations", however, are far from indicating that everything goes on well between both countries. Even in U.S. policy there are trends stemming from anti-Jewish and anti-Israeli positions. We know only too well that Arab tycoons spend a lot of money on corrupting influential U.S. politicians.

One of Israel's staunchest enemies is sitting in the Pentagon. Caspar W. WEINBERGER takes advantage of every opportunity to harm Israel and to meet his Arab friends' wishes. An example of that is the cowardly U.S. policy in Lebanon the main promoter of which Weinberger was.

Another enemy of Israel is now on a tour of the U.S. trying to gain support of U.S. electorate. We know Jesse L. JACKSON will not get into the White House. Not even the money of his Arab bosses will help him get there. The pre-election platform Jackson preaches is nothing but an attempt to instill Arab policy striving for a destruction of the State of Israel into the minds of Americans.

TERROR AGAINST TERROR is not willing to stand idle face to face with Weinberger and Jackson promoting the Arabs' policy in the U.S. with impunity. We are aware of the bequest of Jewish fighters of the forties who did not spare any sacrifice in their fight against Arabs and their stooges. Weinberger and Jackson shall be punished too. The TERROR AGAINST TERROR fighters are throughout the world. Their bullets shall hit their targets no matter where Weinberger and Jackson may find a refuge. The well-trained bodyguards around Weinberger and Jackson pose no obstacle to prevent a just revenge.

Death on Weinberger, Jackson and their like!

DATE 12-18-2008 BY 60322 uc/lp/stp/fls

The Israeli patriotic organization TERROR AGAINST TERROR punishes those that, both inside Israel and outside it, help the activities endangering the security of the Jewish State. TERROR AGAINST TERROR defends Israel against all that throw doubt upon the right of Jews to the Holy Land.

The United States grant the Israelis means needed for safeguarding the sovereignty and security of the State of Israel territory. It is so because throughout its existence Israel has been the most reliable ally and guarantee of U.S. interests in the Middle East. The U.S. - Israel close alliance is also a result of the activities of several Jewish generations living in the U.S. that have not spared any sacrifice striving to promote the interests of Jews and of Israel in the Western hemisphere.

U.S. leaders' utterances on U.S. - Israel "special relations", however, are far from indicating that everything goes on well between both countries. Even in U.S. policy there are trends stemming from anti-Jewish and anti-Israeli positions. We know only too well that Arab tycoons spend a lot of money on corrupting influential U.S. politicians.

One of Israel's staunchest enemies is sitting in the Pentagon. Caspar W. WEINBERGER takes advantage of every opportunity to harm Israel and to meet his Arab friends' wishes. An example of that is the cowardly U.S. policy in Lebanon the main promoter of which Weinberger was.

Another enemy of Israel is now on a tour of the U.S. trying to gain support of U.S. electorate. We know Jesse L. JACKSON will not get into the White House. Not even the money of his Arab bosses will help him get there. The pre-election platform Jackson preaches is nothing but an attempt to instil Arab policy striving for a destruction of the State of Israel into the minds of Americans.

TERROR AGAINST TERROR is not willing to stand idle face to face with Weinberger and Jackson promoting the Arabs' policy in the U.S. with impunity. We are aware of the bequest of Jewish fighters of the forties who did not spare any sacrifice in their fight against Arabs and their stooges. Weinberger and Jackson shall be punished too. The TERROR AGAINST TERROR fighters are throughout the world. Their bullets shall hit their targets no matter where Weinberger and Jackson may find a refuge. The well-trained bodyguards around Weinberger and Jackson pose no obstacle to prevent a just revenge.

Death on Weinberger, Jackson and their like!

Subject Priorities for FBI Arrest or Locates:

- A - Subject wanted for crimes of violence (i.e. murder, manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault) or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- C - All others

Claiming Non-Federal Arrests, Summonses, Recoveries or Convictions:

It is permissible to claim a local arrest, summons, recovery or conviction if the FBI significantly contributed to the accomplishment. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for the claim must accompany this report. When claiming a local recovery, enter the word "LOCAL" to the right of the amount. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

- 1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
- 2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.

An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IA/Ts) Used:

- Since more than one IA/T could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IA/T used must be rated.
- The IA/T used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - if informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

Instructions

Subject Priorities for FBI Arrest or Locates:

- A - Subject wanted for crimes of violence (i.e. murder, manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery and aggravated assault) or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- B - Subjects wanted for crimes involving the loss or destruction of property valued in excess of $25,000 or convicted of such crimes in the past five years.
- C - All others

Claiming Non-Federal Arrests, Summonses, Recoveries or Convictions:

It is permissible to claim a local arrest, summons, recovery or conviction if the FBI significantly contributed to the accomplishment. A succinct narrative setting forth the basis for the claim must accompany this report. When claiming a local recovery, enter the word "LOCAL" to the right of the amount. Enter "LF" in the "In-Jail" block for all life sentences and "CP" for capital punishment sentences.

Reporting Convictions:

Convictions should not be reported until the sentence has been issued. There are two exceptions to this rule. The conviction information can be submitted by itself if:

- 1. The subject becomes a fugitive after conviction but prior to sentencing.
- 2. The subject dies after conviction but prior to sentencing.

An explanation is required in the Remarks section for either of the above exceptions.

Rule 20 Situations:

The field office that obtained the process (normally the office of origin) is the office that should claim the conviction, not the office where the subject enters the plea in cases involving Rule 20 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedures.

Investigative Assistance or Techniques (IA/Ts) Used:

- Since more than one IA/T could have contributed to the accomplishment, each IA/T used must be rated.
- The IA/T used must be rated each time an accomplishment is claimed. (For example - if informant information was the basis for a complaint, an arrest, a recovery and a conviction and if separate FD-515s are submitted for each of the aforementioned accomplishments, the "Informant Information" block must be rated on each FD-515 even if it was the same information that contributed to all the accomplishments.)

Race Codes:

C = Chinese; I = Indian/American; J = Japanese; N = Negro; O = All other; U = Unknown; W = White

Bechtelmania

THERE'S BEEN nothing quite like it since Bealemania. It's Bechtelmania—the concern you hear voiced all over Washington about this giant construction company that seems to be stocking the upper reaches of government the way a fish hatchery stocks the Columbia River. What is the object of this concern? What sort of company is Bechtel?

Secretive, for one thing. Bechtel, based in San Francisco and entirely owned by the Bechtel family and top executives, does not have to, and does not, disclose how much money it makes or how much it pays its 120,000 employees. Successful, for another. Despite the secrecy, there is reason to believe that Bechtel is very profitable and very good at what it sets out to do: build things—big things, like nuclear power plants, new cities in Saudi Arabia, much of Washington's Metro subway system. Bechtel constructed Hoover Dam and the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge, the Transarabian Pipeline and the government buildings of Brunei.

Should Bechtel's business activities give us cause to worry about its alumni and associates in government? The company's extensive dealings with Saudi Arabia and other Arab countries have led some people to doubt whether George Shultz or Caspar Weinberger or W. Kenneth Davis (who is deputy secretary of energy) or Middle East negotiator Philip Habib can be disinterested about American policy in the Middle East. We think their Middle East policies should be assessed on the merits, not on the basis of Bechtel's presumed views. Mr. Shultz and Mr. Weinberger have proved their integrity in some of the most difficult circumstances public officials have ever faced, and Mr. Habib's disinterestedness has the implicit endorsement of the parties whose conflicts he is mediating.

We find it more interesting to ponder the possible effect of the scope of Bechtel's operations on these men's views. Bechtel's work extends around the world. Its main competitors are foreign companies. Its main customers are local and foreign governments and large corporations, not individual consumers. Probably the majority of its business is abroad. We certainly don't think there is material for imputing some sort of conspiracy here, any more than there was when President Carter appointed to high office several alumni of the Trilateral Commission or earlier administrations leaned so heavily on Midwest-based industrial companies for their top businessman appointees—from Charles E. Wilson of General Motors to Robert McNamara of Ford to Neil McElroy of Procter & Gamble.

In our view, anyone who deserves appointment to high office should be able both to use and to transcend the experiences he has had in private life. The good ones do.
