Dear Mr. Greenewald:

Records responsive to your request were previously processed under the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act. Enclosed is one CD containing 111 pages of previously processed documents and a copy of the Explanation of Exemptions. This release is being provided to you at no charge.

Documents or information referred to other Government agencies were not included in this release.

Records which may have been responsive to your request were destroyed on November 21, 1988 and April 15, 2010. Since this material could not be reviewed, it is not known if it was responsive to your request. Record retention and disposal is carried out under supervision of the National Archives and Records Administration (NARA), Title 44, United States Code, Section 3301 as implemented by Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1228; Title 44, United States Code, Section 3310 as implemented by Title 36, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1229.10.

For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S. C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.

For questions regarding our determinations, visit the www.fbi.gov/foia website under “Contact Us.” The FOIPA Request Number listed above has been assigned to your request. Please use this number in all correspondence concerning your request. Your patience is appreciated.

You may file an appeal by writing to the Director, Office of Information Policy (OIP), United States Department of Justice, Suite 11050, 1425 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, D.C. 20530-0001, or you may submit an appeal through OIP’s FOIAonline portal by creating an account on the following website: https://foiaonline.regulations.gov/foia/action/public/home. Your appeal must be postmarked or electronically transmitted within ninety (90) days from the date of this letter in order to be considered timely. If you submit your appeal by mail, both the letter and the envelope should be clearly marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.” Please cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.
You may seek dispute resolution services by contacting the Office of Government Information Services (OGIS) at 877-684-6448, or by emailing ogis@nara.gov. Alternatively, you may contact the FBI's FOIA Public Liaison by emailing foipaqestions@fbi.gov. If you submit your dispute resolution correspondence by email, the subject heading should clearly state "Dispute Resolution Services." Please also cite the FOIPA Request Number assigned to your request so that it may be easily identified.

Sincerely,

David M. Hardy

Enclosure(s)
EXPLANATION OF EXEMPTIONS

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552

(b)(1) (A) specifically authorized under criteria established by an Executive order to be kept secret in the interest of national defense or foreign policy and (B) are in fact properly classified to such Executive order;

(b)(2) related solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of an agency;

(b)(3) specifically exempted from disclosure by statute (other than section 552b of this title), provided that such statute (A) requires that the matters be withheld from the public in such a manner as to leave no discretion on issue, or (B) establishes particular criteria for withholding or refers to particular types of matters to be withheld;

(b)(4) trade secrets and commercial or financial information obtained from a person and privileged or confidential;

(b)(5) inter-agency or intra-agency memorandums or letters which would not be available by law to a party other than an agency in litigation with the agency;

(b)(6) personnel and medical files and similar files the disclosure of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy;

(b)(7) records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, but only to the extent that the production of such law enforcement records or information (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of confidential source, including a State, local, or foreign agency or authority or any private institution which furnished information on a confidential basis, and, in the case of record or information compiled by a criminal law enforcement authority in the course of a criminal investigation, or by an agency conducting a lawful national security intelligence investigation, information furnished by a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions if such disclosure could reasonably be expected to risk circumvention of the law, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual;

(b)(8) contained in or related to examination, operating, or condition reports prepared by, on behalf of, or for the use of an agency responsible for the regulation or supervision of financial institutions; or (b)(9) geological and geophysical information and data, including maps, concerning wells.

SUBSECTIONS OF TITLE 5, UNITED STATES CODE, SECTION 552a

(d)(5) information compiled in reasonable anticipation of a civil action proceeding;

(j)(2) material reporting investigative efforts pertaining to the enforcement of criminal law including efforts to prevent, control, or reduce crime or apprehend criminals;

(k)(1) information which is currently and properly classified pursuant to an Executive order in the interest of the national defense or foreign policy, for example, information involving intelligence sources or methods;

(k)(2) investigatory material compiled for law enforcement purposes, other than criminal, which did not result in loss of a right, benefit or privilege under Federal programs, or which would identify a source who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;

(k)(3) material maintained in connection with providing protective services to the President of the United States or any other individual pursuant to the authority of Title 18, United States Code, Section 3056;

(k)(4) required by statute to be maintained and used solely as statistical records;

(k)(5) investigatory material compiled solely for the purpose of determining suitability, eligibility, or qualifications for Federal civilian employment or for access to classified information, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished information pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence;

(k)(6) testing or examination material used to determine individual qualifications for appointment or promotion in Federal Government service he release of which would compromise the testing or examination process;

(k)(7) material used to determine potential for promotion in the armed services, the disclosure of which would reveal the identity of the person who furnished the material pursuant to a promise that his/her identity would be held in confidence.

George Bell, 60: Ex-Aide To Nixon, D.C. Businessman

George T. Bell, 60, a former special assistant to President Nixon, died Tuesday at his home on Dexter Street NW after an illness of several months. He also had a country home in Aldie, Va.

Mr. Bell was a volunteer director of personnel for the United Citizens for Nixon Agnew in 1968. After Nixon became President, Mr. Bell was special assistant on personnel matters.

In 1970 he became a special assistant to the President and was liaison with non-governmental organizations concerned about opening communications between the administration and labor.

He was a graduate of Sidwell Friends School here and Lehigh University. During his business career he worked for General Electric and later was president of the Geonautics Inc., an engineering firm here. He was a member of the Chevy Chase Club.

He leaves his wife, Kathleen; a daughter, Mrs. George de Garde of Washington; a sister, Mrs. Nelson Cox of Covington, Va.; and two grandchildren.

GEORGE TILLMAN BELL
SPECIAL INQUIRY
BUDED: 2/26/69 WITHOUT FAIL

White House has requested expedite investigation of Bell who is apparently employed in a staff position at White House. Born 1/21/13, Sioux City, Ia., and resides 4821 Dexter St., N.W., Washington, D. C. Background data attached.

Due to urgent nature of request, it is imperative Budged be met without fail. No delay will be tolerated.

SPIN.

NOTE: Request received 2/19/69 from White House.
immediately upon graduating from Lehigh University around 1934. He was assigned to the Audit Department and as such travelled extensively to various GE plants throughout the country. BELL worked for approximately five - six years at which time he resigned to take a better paying position with the General Ice Cream Company, in Schenectady. He remained with the General Ice Cream Company until approximately 1941 or 1942, at which time he went into the U.S. Army.

advised that he was close to BELL during this period and is aware of BELL's activities in National politics through newspaper articles. He described BELL as a high grade individual, well respected and trusted, both in the community and on the job. He stated that he is a man of high moral character and definitely loyal. He stated that he would not hesitate to recommend him for a position involving a trust of the Government.

On February 24, 1969, Personnel, General Ice Cream Company, 101 Nott Terrace, advised that their records contain nothing identifiable with BELL. She pointed out that all records have been destroyed over ten years old. She made inquiry throughout the plant and determined that PAUL MILLER is no longer with the company and believed deceased. She was unable to identify anyone who recalled BELL.

CREDIT AND ARREST

On February 24, 1969, Credit Bureau of Schenectady, N.Y., and Schenectady Police Department, advised that their records contain nothing identifiable with BELL or his wife.

DETAILS:

EDUCATION

At Bethlehem, Pa.

On February 24, 1969, Lehigh University, advised that his records reflect that the appointee entered the University on September 15, 1930, and graduated on June 12, 1934, with a Bachelor of Science Degree in Business Administration. The appointee had listed his date of birth as January 21, 1915, at Sioux City, Iowa. The appointee graduated with a C Plus average in the upper one-half of his class. No honors were indicated on the transcript, and he entered the University with high school credits from Washington Mc Kinley High School and Cidwell Friends School in Washington, D. C. His nearest relative was listed as GEORGE T. BELL, SR., Southern Building, Washington, D.C., or 2718 32nd Street, Washington, D.C. advised that there are presently no instructors at Lehigh University who have been at the University a sufficient length of time to be familiar with the appointee.

made available a copy of the 1934 Lehigh Yearbook known as "Epidome" which reflected a photograph of the appointee and the name of GEORGE T. BELL, JR., and the nickname of "DINGLE." He was listed as being a member of the Psi Upsilon Social Fraternity. He was listed as being on the University Swimming Team all four years of his attendance at this school and being the Captain of the team during his senior year. Debating was listed as an activity during his senior year of college, and he was a member of the Alpha Kappa Psi Honorary Fraternity in Business Administration. He was also a member of the Interfraternity Council and Arcadia. The language below the photograph of the appointee is as follows:

"Take two pounds of JOHNNY WEISMULLER...a little bit of STEPHEN DOUGLAS...mix...a bit of RICARDO and CLARK GABLE until boiling. Spice with...a dash of personality...a teaspoon of good nature...a cup of loyalty...let cool. This delightful brew...a success...in Pennsylvania Dutch...a DINGLE."

stated that the four directories listing the addresses of students from 1930 until 1934 all list the appointee as being a resident of the Psi Upsilon Fraternity House, 920 Broadhead Avenue, Bethlehem, Pa. The directories for 1927, 1928, and 1929, fail to reflect a student with the last name of BELL.

On February 24, 1969, Lehigh University, advised that his files contain no record of disciplinary action concerning the appointee.

CREDIT AND ARREST

On February 20, 1969, Clerk,
PH 161-1324

Bethlehem Credit Bureau, 535 Main Street, advised that a credit file has been maintained concerning GEORGE BELL, JR., Psi Upsilon Fraternity since November 12, 1930. She advised that inquiries in the file are from the Houser Chevrolet. She advised that the appointee has a satisfactory credit rating and that an account at the Union Trust Company, Bethlehem, Pa., was rated as satisfactory on November 12, 1930.

On February 20, 1969, Clerk, Record Division, Bethlehem Police Department; advised that her records reflect that a GEORGE BELL, 1141 East 3rd Street, Bethlehem, Pa., was arrested on January 13, 1928, for aggravated assault and battery and rape. She advised that the only identifying information on the arrest card reflects that the person arrested had a dark complexion. She advised that there was no date of birth or other identifying material on the card. No other record was located which might be identical with the appointee.

MISCELLANEOUS

On February 24, 1969, a review of the "Bethlehem Globe-Times" newspaper for Friday, January 13, 1928, reflected the following article on page seven under the caption, "Negro Arrested:"

"GEORGE BELL, Colored, of 20 Columbia Street, was arrested last Thursday afternoon by Detectives MC GETTIGAN and QUIGNEY, following an investigation of the case of fifteen year old MARY MERRIT also colored of the Coke Works, who gave birth to a girl in St. Luke's Hospital on Wednesday;

"BELL has been in the toils of the police before, in 1920, he was convicted of a charge of highway robbery and was sentenced to serve three years in jail. After his release, he took up his abode with the parents of the little girl."

EMPLOYMENT

At Falls Church, Virginia.

On February 26, 1969, [ ] was interviewed by Special Agent [ ] at Geonautics, Incorporated, 803 Broad Street. [ ] advised that he has been with the company since April, 1966. He had only a brief encounter with the appointee, Mr. BELL, since at that time BELL was being voluntarily phased out of the company operation. [ ] contact was limited to questions directed toward Mr. BELL concerning operations in the accounting field as they applied to the company. At that time, the appointee was owner of the building which formerly housed Geonautics, Incorporated, at 4626 Wisconsin Avenue, Northwest.

[ ] advised that he found the appointee to be a man of high moral character and a competent and fair man to be employed by. [ ] advised that there is no question concerning the loyalty of the appointee to the United States. In regard to associates [ ] stated that he had had no other than business contact with the appointee and could make no comment in this area. The appointee's reputation was one of a competent and able director of business.

On February 26, 1969, [ ] contacted at his place of business. [ ] advised that he has known the appointee for some ten years. He has been in close association since that time when the appointee subsequently became President of Geonautics. [ ] described the character of the appointee by saying that the world needed more men like him. He advised that the appointee is of unquestionable loyalty and his associations in business were beyond reproach. He further stated that [ ] was of high moral character and of strict ethical principles. His reputation was one of a competent and able business man as well as a fine person. [ ] further described him as a most effective person and leader and highly recommended him for a Federal position.
On February 26, 1969, Senior Member, Technology Staff, was contacted at his place of business, Geonautics, Incorporated, 803 Broad Street. Advised he had joined the company in 1960 at which time the appointee was vice president and treasurer. Mr. BELL subsequently became President of Geonautics in approximately the same year.

Described Mr. BELLS as a very pleasant individual who was easy to get along with and very competent in his operation of business affairs. His reputation stood out not only because of his high ethical values but also his obvious devotion to his religious beliefs and participation in the Christian Scientist Church.

Advised that he had not had much social contact with the appointee other than attending the marriage of appointee’s daughter. He could make no comment regarding associates of the appointee. In regard to the loyalty of the appointee he stated that it was unquestionable. He summed up the appointee as a very good businessman, highly intelligent and a person whom he would highly recommend for Federal appointment.
White House Office (WHO)

The following investigation at WHO was conducted by SA  on February 25, 1969:

the Official Personnel File for the appointee, GEORGE T. BELL, which reflected he received an excepted appointment on January 21, 1969 as a Staff Assistant, WHO. The file contained no additional pertinent information.

advised he could locate no record for the appointee for the transition period November, 1968 through January, 1969. pointed out, however, that the appointee worked with the transition office since November, 1968, even though he was unable to locate a payroll file for him. has known the appointee since the fall of 1968 on a co-worker basis only, in connection with their work on the NIXON staff. He described the appointee as a very conscientious, level-headed person and has always been very favorably impressed with him. He believes the appointee to be a person of excellent character, associates, reputation and a loyal American citizen and highly recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.

has been the appointee’s immediate supervisor since BELL entered on duty with the transition office in November, 1968 and at the White House since the inauguration. He has had some limited social contact with the appointee. described the appointee as a very intelligent, able, discreet and reliable person. He has never heard or observed anything of a derogatory nature concerning the appointee’s personal life or habits. He has no reason to question the appointee’s character, associates, reputation or loyalty and favorably recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.
has known the appointee since the fall of 1968 on a co-worker basis only. The appointee is a very personable, friendly individual whom she has found to be most cooperative and easy to work with. She believes him to be a decent, respectable person who is completely devoted to his family. Her comments were favorable concerning the appointee's character, associates, reputation and loyalty and she favorably recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.

has known the appointee since August, 1968, on a professional, political basis in connection with their work with the Nixon campaign and on a co-worker basis at the White House since the inauguration. He has never had any social contact with Bell. He described the appointee as a very conscientious, responsible, reliable person and has always been very favorably impressed with him. He has never heard anything of a derogatory nature concerning the appointee's personal life or habits. He has no reason to question the appointee's character, associates, reputation or loyalty and favorably recommended him for a position of trust and confidence.
Air Survey Corporation
Isak Newton Square
Reston, Virginia

The following investigation was conducted by SA-on February 2, 1969.

advised that his records indicate that GEORGE T. BELL had worked for Air Survey Corporation from October, 1951, until the end of November of 1958. He was listed as Corporation Vice President. The only person now with the company who would know him is the President of the company, advised that GEORGE BELL is and has been a personal friend since approximately 1944. At one time, BELL had bought stock in Air Survey Corporation and did sales work in the Buffalo, New York, area. He later became director in the company and worked as Vice President and General Manager. They later following some business reviews had a difference in view as to the direction the company should take, so BELL left the company. This disagreement on the company's policy, in no way reflected their personal relationship, and they continued to be on quite friendly personal and social terms. BELL is an extremely wealthy individual and has no need of employment, however, he is a very fine person and loves to work hard. He had great skill in the executive capacity and has since shown his ability in this line with other companies. There is absolutely no question whatsoever regarding his character, associates, reputation and loyalty, and he recommended him to a position of trust in the United States Government.

Inaugural Committee

On February 26, 1969, the appointee was a volunteer with the committee from approximately the middle of November, 1968 to approximately November 25, 1968 at which time he went to the Transition Office. There are no records available that would verify his employment.

Advised he knew the appointee during the period of time he worked with the United Citizens for Nixon/Agnew from August, 1968 to November, 1968, the Inaugural Committee and with the Transition Office. He found him to be a very reliable individual. He was honest, cooperative, emotionally stable, conscientious, considerate and willing to do any job assigned him. He got along well with everyone. He never heard anything of an unfavorable nature concerning the appointee. His character, associates, reputation, and loyalty are without question. He recommended the appointee for a position of trust and confidence.
The following investigation was conducted by SA on February 25, 1969.

Payroll Clerk, Republican National Committee, advised that her records failed to reflect that the appointee was ever on the payroll of the Committee. She advised, however, that she knew the appointee and that he had been a volunteer worker for the United Citizens for NIXON-ACNEW for the Inagural Committee and also in the Transition Office. She said she did not enjoy a close relationship with him but that the reports she received concerning him were all favorable.

advised that he was formerly Comptroller of the United Citizens for NIXON-ACNEW and that he had accepted the volunteer services of the appointee who was assigned to Personnel Recruiting at the United Citizens for NIXON-ACNEW Office. The appointee worked without compensation and estimated that in all, he was employed for approximately three months. He recalled that also the appointee later went to the Inagural Committee and to the Transition Office all without compensation. was favorably impressed with the appointee and knew nothing that would preclude him from being considered for a position of trust and confidence.

Re: Report of SSA 2/26/69 at WDC.

On 2/26/69, the Director and [redacted] of U.S. Government Programs, Lockheed Aircraft Corporation, 900 17th Street, N.W., Washington, D.C. advised that the first became acquainted with the appointee, GEORGE T. BELL, in late 1968 when BELL, as Director of Personnel, was working on the United Citizens for NIXON/AGNEW Committee. Later for a period of approximately three weeks in November, 1968, BELL worked for [redacted] on the Inaugural Committee as [redacted] Director of Personnel, during which time [redacted] was [redacted] of this Committee.

[Redacted] advised that as Director of Personnel of the Inaugural Committee, BELL's responsibilities consisted in screening and selecting people to work for the Committee and recommending assignments for them. BELL performed these functions in a competent manner.
described BELL as an individual who was semi-retired after a successful business career, financially well established and happily married. BELL worked well with others and held an excellent reputation in the community.

knew nothing that would reflect adversely on BELL’s character, associates or loyalty to the United States Government.

After BELL worked for approximately three weeks on the Inaugural Committee he transferred to the Transition office.

He recommended the appointee for a position of trust and confidence.

On 2/25/69, IC determined that the files of the Metropolitan Police Department, Washington, D. C. reveal the appointee, GEORGE TILLMAN BELL, residing at 4821 Dexter Street, N.W., Washington, D. C. was charged on 2/23/55 for dog running at large and elected to forfeit $10.00.

It is to be noted that at all times an indefinite number of unidentified records are out of file and not available for review.
Records of the Passport Office, Department of State, reviewed 2/26/69 by SA [redacted] disclosed a passport was issued to GEORGE TILLMAN BELL on 7/28/64 for proposed travel to Portugal and Spain for a three week vacation. This passport was renewed 5/12/67 for proposed travel to Portugal, England, Ireland, France and Italy for a proposed three weeks vacation.

On 12/17/57 he was issued a passport for proposed travel to France, Switzerland, Austria and Italy for pleasure for a proposed length of stay of four to five weeks.

BELL was issued another passport on 1/18/50 for proposed travel to England, France and Switzerland for pleasure for a period of four weeks, and on 6/8/34 was issued a passport for proposed travel to England, Holland, Germany, Switzerland, Italy, France and Belgium to tour for pleasure for a period of three months.

A birth affidavit revealed that BELL was born 1/21/13 at Sioux City, Iowa.

The file contained no additional pertinent information.

The Defense Central Index of Investigations (DCII), Fort Holabird, Maryland, comprising indices to Army, Navy and Air Force investigative files, was searched through a representative of that agency on 2/24/69 and disclosed that information possibly identical with the appointee is contained in the files of the U. S. Naval Investigative Service (NIS).

On 2/26/69, IC [redacted] caused a search to be made of the files of the Naval Investigative Service Headquarters, Arlington, Virginia and was advised the files contained no additional pertinent information.
On 2/27/69, IC caused a search to be made of the files of the U. S. Secret Service, Department of the Treasury and was advised the files contained no additional pertinent information concerning the appointee.

It is also to be noted is unavailable for interview until 2/28/69 or 3/3/69.

Numerous attempts made to contact reference, with negative results.

CIA and IRS still outstanding.

ReWFOairtel 2/27/69.

On 3/3/69, advised SA that in August, 1968, GEORGE T. BELL volunteered his services to the Citizens for Nixon-Agnew Committee. As an executive of that committee, interviewed BELL, questioned him about his professional experience and selected him to handle personnel matters for the Committee.

advised he had no previous association with BELL but found that BELL performed his duties for the Committee, which consisted in selecting and placing personnel to work for the Committee, in an enormously effective manner under very intense pressure.

stated that BELL left the Committee in November, 1968, to work on the Inaugural Committee. He described BELL as a very pleasant, capable person and said he had no information that would reflect unfavorably upon BELL's character, associates, reputation or loyalty to the U. S. Government. He recommended the appointee for a position of trust and confidence.
