Enclosed for CI are three (3) copies of a one-page, typewritten letter addressed to WILLIAM SAFIRE.

On or about 1/29/94, WILLIAM SAFIRE, a syndicated columnist for THE NEW YORK TIMES (TNYT), received at an office of TNYT, via the United States Postal Service (USPS), a one-page letter which is threatening to his life. The author appears to be upset over several of SAFIRE's recent columns in which he criticized members (or potential members) of President Clinton's staff and/or administration. SAFIRE reports that he has received no letters similar to this one in the past.

The transmittal envelope was discarded by a TNYT employee, however, at the end of the letter itself the author leaves the following information: [redacted] [redacted] Cincinnati, OH 45202".

POSSIBLY ARMED AND DANGEROUS

Re NY airtel to the Director and Cincinnati dated 3/1/94.

For the information of New York, investigation in Cincinnati has determined that an unknown subject is mailing threatening letters, postmarked in Cincinnati, to various persons who write syndicated newspaper columns or letters to the editor of THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER. The Cincinnati case, file number 9A-CI-63487, is titled "UNSUB; aka [redacted]

b6

[redacted] - VICTIM; EXTORTION."
 All investigation concerning these threatening letters is being done under this file.

It appears that this UNSUB reads the editorial page and then writes letters to persons who are identified there. The UNSUB signs the letters using the names of real persons that he also obtains from the editorial page. He obtains the addresses of these persons from the telephone directory. The UNSUB has been writing numerous letters over a period of almost two years. This division is aware of at least 20 of these letters (all mailed in Cincinnati) and it is believed that there have been many more. Most of these letters have been sent to persons residing in the Cincinnati area. The letters are typed on what appears to be the same typewriter. The signatures are signed in a handwriting that is unique enough in nature that it can be attributed to the same person. Additionally, many of the same words and phrases are used in different letters. Although the FBI has only recently learned of this matter, postal inspectors and local law enforcement authorities have been aware of it but are not conducting any active investigation. There is no indication that the UNSUB has ever carried out any of his threats.

The captioned matter is another that can be attributed to this UNSUB. [redacted] is [redacted] of THE CINCINNATI ENQUIRER. [redacted] whose office is located at [redacted] Cincinnati, Ohio 45202, writes a weekly column that is published each Sunday on the editorial page of THE ENQUIRER. On 3/9/94, [redacted] confirmed that he had not written the letter to WILLIAM SAFIRE. [redacted] is very familiar with the UNSUB and his modus operandi. He has also received mail from him.

In Cincinnati's above mentioned case, which originated in WMFO, columnist [redacted] received a letter which stated, "Within the next month I will be in Washington, D.C., and I will personally blow your fucking head off." In the Philadelphia Division, a professor at George Mason University who is also a syndicated columnist, [redacted] received a letter which stated, "Don't ever come back to Cincinnati, [redacted], or I'll blow your fucking head off." All threats are very similar in nature.

The facts concerning this matter have been presented to the U.S. Attorney in Cincinnati. This division is awaiting an opinion as to whether or not the U.S. Attorney's office would pursue prosecution of the UNSUB if he is identified. Should Cincinnati decide to continue with a full investigation of this matter, subsequent leads to New York may follow under the Cincinnati title. In view of the fact that Cincinnati's leads in the captioned matter are complete, this case is considered RUC.
