Dear Mr. Lee:

Ambassador Helms asked me to convey his appreciation for your note and the attached photograph of the new Australian banknote with Clunies Ross who resembled him.

It is my recollection that you served in Tehran about ten years ago. I hope you enjoyed it as much as we do.

Best regards,

Dear Mister Ambassador:

Enclosed is a photograph, for which I hope I may be forgiven, of the newly issued Australian fifty dollar note. It depicts Clunies Ross, a prominent Australian scientist and we, and some of your Australian friends, thought you might find it interesting.

Forgive me also for not sending an actual specimen, but exchange rates and salary simply do not permit.

Sincerely yours,

John F. Lee
