1. I visited the commander's residence to attend a farewell party for the new army attaché, our exchange assistant, and the attaché of the Soviet mission to the US. The attaché wore a military uniform and stood in the center of the room. The Soviet attaché introduced himself and conversed with the guests. I learned about his background and his position in the Soviet military. We discussed the upcoming events and the role of the Soviet ambassador. The attaché expressed his gratitude for the visit and the opportunity to meet with us.

2. The attaché mentioned that he was going on leave to the USSR for the month of August. During his absence, he planned to travel to various parts of the country and attend important meetings. He also mentioned that he would return via Cuba, a route which was more advantageous. The attaché expressed his gratitude for the visit and the opportunity to meet with us.

5. STAVININ does not like Italian food; dislikes tomato sauces and salads — he refers to salads as "certain graces". However, he does like Italian wine.

6. Y.T. is said to have sold his automobile (1948 Oldsmobile, "U-204", ID tags).

7. Y.T. is still smoking Camusier cigarettes. According to him, he smokes about fifteen a day.

8. Y.T. has a brother who is a law graduate and who is employed in the Ministry of Cultural Affairs (in Moscow). This brother is studying the English language on his own initiative.

9. Y.T. stated that the secretary to the Soviet naval attaché (who, according to the minister, is Lt. Colonel Petrovitch, YV[?]V[?]V[?]V[?]) was recently ill with jaundice.

10. While the conversation was on the subject of automobiles, Y.A. stated that the Soviet Embassy does not have any Soviet automobiles; that the Embassy has only about 10 or 12 official vehicles.
