RELATIONS.
1. On October 19, 1955, Medel-Castro, Acting President of Cuba, sent a personal message through his accredited minister to the Foreign Ministries of Mexico and Brazil that he requested the Mexican and Brazilian Governments to take initiatives in favour of securing means of re-introducing Cuban into the family of Latin American nations. Castro indicated that he based the request on a report which he believed to be true, to the effect that the United States Government was softening its diplomatic line toward Cuba, and was considering a re-evaluation of its foreign relations with Cuba.
