ACTIVITY: Meeting held 3/30/64 at the Embassy Aud.
LA under auspices of the Citizens Committee of Inquiry.

RECEIVED: 4/1/64
AGENT: Writer 134-2436A-3 (WR)

Informant's letter set out verbatim is as follows:

"2371 Knoxville Ave.
Long Beach California
March 30, 1964

"Dear Mr. NORTH:

"Attended a public meeting at the Embassy Auditorium, Embassy Hotel, in Los Angeles at which attorney MARK LANE was the main speaker. Meeting held under the auspices of the 'Citizens Committee of Inquiry.'

"Tickets were sold ($1.50) in front lobby of auditorium. The enclosed piece of literature was given to me on sidewalk at entrance of auditorium (literature by ALLEN NOONAN). MR. NOONAN was connected with the Long Beach Peace Information Center and am aware of some of his local activities.

The meeting didn't break up till around eleven o'clock and I'm in a hurry to get a few hours sleep before going to work so please excuse the slopyness - you gave me the impression you were anxious to hear from me as soon as possible.

"The best of luck to and hope what little I have contributed here will be of some help.

"Sincerely,

"S. SWATTS"

ACTION:
