OCHIVTSOV intends to use the mentioned directory as a means to write letters and induce these book shops to sell the magazine. A 50% discount will be offered. ($\times$)

April 16, 1964
TODD and CURTIS present. ($\times$)

OCHIVTSOV appears to be making a well planned effort to increase the circulation of the magazine. Does not divulge very much. Has told KREISENGER several times "I will tell you later." Has said he intends to visit the office of the American News Company in New York. ($\times$)
KEISINGER has been told several times that his assistant, Mrs. TAMARA ZOKOVA, is a medical doctor. This is rather strange as her memory is poor. (6)

Although OGINIVSOV has adopted the plan of sending three more issues to all persons whose subscription had expired, he has not as yet ordered any letters printed to be sent to these subscribers inducing them to renew. (6)

It appears as if OGINIVSOV intends to add the number of magazines sent to expired subscribers to the regular list of current subscribers, thus "padding" the current list to make it appear much larger. (6)

The informer furnished the following information orally to SA KATZ: (6)

OGINIVSOV has not extended another invitation to the source to travel to New York and view a large subscription department to obtain ideas on how to handle subscriptions for the "USSR" magazine. Source noted OGINIVSOV left on Sunday for N.Y. (6)

According to OGINIVSOV, BORIS V. KARPOVICH was scheduled to return from Moscow to the United States on 4/17/64. (6)

OGINIVSOV has mentioned he plans to take the source to New York and visit the American News Company, the former distributor of the "USSR" magazine. The source was of the opinion that the American News Company is no longer in the distribution business. Source believed OGINIVSOV contacted the American News Company when he last visited New York City and that this company has a large subscription department, which OGINIVSOV will visit and attempt to get some ideas on how to handle the subscriptions to the magazine. Evidently Select Magazines, Inc., kept putting ONIVISOV's request off regarding his touring their Subscription Department and ONIVISOV has reached the point where he has given up. (\(\text{\textcopyright}\)\(\text{\textcopyright}\))

ONIVISOV has mentioned that he discovered Select Magazines is "gypping" them, but he did not elaborate on this point. ONIVISOV stated that when the new contract for the distribution of the magazine is written up, it will be different and eliminate any chance of the Soviets being cheated. (\(\text{\textcopyright}\)\(\text{\textcopyright}\))

In regard to the entry in the source's report dated April 15, 1954, stating that ONIVISOV would offer a 50% discount to the college book stores, the source advised this is not unusual as they give libraries and subscription agencies a 50% discount. (\(\text{\textcopyright}\)\(\text{\textcopyright}\))

The source advised he knew nothing regarding "HE" HARVEY GOSALD other than what he had read in the magazines and newspapers. Source said he has heard nothing at the Soviet Press Department concerning this individual. (\(\text{\textcopyright}\)\(\text{\textcopyright}\))

The source made available two letters received at the Soviet Press Department, which are set forth below. (\(\text{\textcopyright}\)\(\text{\textcopyright}\))
