"Those in Attendance: J. C. and CAROLYN BURDICK, KAE NORTON, WANDA HUBBARD, DAVE FOGARTY, JOANNE HOOD, CARLYN KING, JOHNNY HEALY, MARGARET GIVENS, EDDIE GIVENS, STEVE RUBICZ, MIKE RUBICZ, REE ANNE WEBB, RAY COOPER, and WILL PARRY.

"KAE began the meeting by saying that WILL was attending the club meeting as part of an attempt by the Section leadership to gain closer ties with the various clubs. She then read a prepared statement regarding the KENNEDY assassination.

"The gist of the statement was that, though unproved, the ultra-right must have had some hand in the assassination. The ultra-right was the only group which could benefit—that part of the capitalist class which tries to maintain a status quo by regressing. President KENNEDY represented progress. "WILL PARRY then spoke briefly on the election for mayor in San Francisco. He pointed the gain that can be made by exposing issues during election periods. This led to a discussion of the Seattle elections scheduled for next spring. It was agreed that a committee be set up to investigate the candidates, particularly those running for City Council. The information gathered can be passed on, in part, to organizations engaged in the same sort of program.

"KAE said that Governor WALLACE will be in Seattle sometime in January. She said the club should be well prepared for his arrival. The club members suggested that University of Washington students be organized to protest WALLACE's appearance on the campus. This was opposed because WALLACE had been invited to speak on the campus by the Political Union and because it would interfere with the left campaign for academic freedom. No plans for his reception were discussed at the meeting.

"It was further discussed of the possibility of having a Negro candidate in the City Council election. KAE repeated the agreed plan that if a Negro candidate should appear the Party would push for a boycott of the Open Housing issue on the ballot. If there is no such candidate, the Party will be forced to go along with the Negro community's decision not to boycott.

"KAE summarized the meeting by saying that the club
