NOTE: Subject is Cuban Government official who has indicated desire to defect. CIA apparently made contact with him in Europe thru Cuban exile in New York who is long-time friend of [redacted] was visited by the Cuban exile who confided that he had been acting as contact man between CIA and subject. According to Cuban exile, subject complained to him that CIA refuses to furnish him with certain equipment with which he could take some effective action in Cuba and that CIA furnishes him with bulky unservicable equipment rather than compact equipment with which he could possibly eliminate Castro.

to kill Castro

According to Cuban exile there is some plan under discussion, details of which he did not know, in which subject would figure. CIA allegedly was in favor of plan, however, Attorney General would have no part of it and it was shelved.
