Project ZARRFLE

1. Identification: The purpose of Project ZARRFLE is to set up, develop, and use a source of agents for Division D of foreign operations. Agents will be sought in several areas, including the United States, but some needs for operational security reasons will probably not be used in their countries of residence. Present developmental activity is being conducted in the US and Europe, but it is anticipated that this will be extended to other areas. The project will be operated against that country, installation and personnel.

2. Objective: The objective of this project is to meet requirements based on the need to provide Division D with agents subject to frequent rotation, so listing of sources would be valid for the duration of the project. Specific operations will be conducted on the basis of need and opportunity. The project will be conducted by Division D with assistance from CIA divisions and stations as needed.

3. Background: In response to the increasing requirements of Division D in 1962, began the setting up of a development activity, ZARRFLE, the same
