TESTIMONY OF THOMAS A. PARROTT

Mr. Schwarz. Would you state your name and address for the record, please?

Mr. Parrott. Thomas A. Parrott, 3512 P Street, N.W., Washington, D.C.

Mr. Schwarz. Now Mr. Parrott, when did you first become associated with the CIA?

Mr. Parrott. In 1949, September of 1949.

Mr. Schwarz. And briefly, what was your career at the Agency until you assumed a position in connection with the so-called Special Group?

Mr. Parrott. Well, I started out in the Office of Policy Coordination, which was a euphemism for, I guess, the Dirty Tricks Department. My first job was as a Deputy to Colonel Thomas Betts, who was in charge of planning. I did that for about a year or so and then I became the Chief of the Operations Staff of OPC. I moved from that to Deputy Director of the Soviet Division at a time when as soon as they had merged with OPC and the action arm at OSO, the secret intelligence arm, they put these together in 1952 and I was the Deputy Chief of the Soviet Division at that time. I did that for two and a half years. I moved to Frankfurt as the Chief of Frankfurt base. I came back from there in 1957 and was assigned as the so-called Board Assistant to Allen Dulles for the Operations Coordinating Board. discussed or attempted, as a matter of principle no official records were kept of planning, of approvals or of implementation. The few written records that do exist are either largely tangential to the main events or were put on paper from memory years after.

'William Harvey has retained skeletal notes of his activities during the years in question and they are our best source of dates, Dr. Edward Gunn of the Office of Medical Services has a record of whom he met and when, and cryptic references to the subject discussed. Ray Tsichler of TSD has a record of two or three dates that are pertinent, and so forth.'

Mr. Parrott. This all has to do with assassination.

Senator Baker. Yes.

Mr. Parrott. And your question is --

Senator Baker. Do you have any information that would confirm or dispute that appraisal, that the efforts, the planning and the implementation of efforts to assassinate Castro were not committed to paper, and because of the extreme sensitivity of operations, and it was a matter of principle that no official records were kept?

Mr. Parrott. I have no direct knowledge. I assume that probably is true. All I can say again is the records that I was responsible for did not include this but not because they were too sensitive but because it wasn't said.
4. Supply Drops - Cuba

Gen. Cabell explained that the Pinar de Rio supply mission had not taken place because of the absence of specified communication from the DZ, and the Escambray operation had been canceled because of weather. He said that these missions are still planned, and assumed that the Group had no objections. The members so signified.

5. U-2, Cuba

Gen. Cabell said that the photographic coverage on the first flight had been only about 50%, because of cloud cover. He continued that we are analyzing the exact results on a priority basis and that some time after the middle of next week we should be in a position to make recommendations for the missions required to extend the coverage.

Mr. Gray commented somewhat wryly that this was all right with him since he "would certainly not be available to discuss anything of this kind before the middle of next week." The other members appeared to have the same reaction.

6. Policy Consideration Re Cuban Exiles

Mr. Gray said that Assistant Attorney General Yeagley had spoken to him after his meeting with Col. King and Messrs. Esterline and Heilgen. He had said that the information given to him by the CIA representatives, and the arrangements for future coordination if necessary, were entirely satisfactory to him. He had stated, however, that a problem remains with respect to action the FBI should take; that is, the FBI needs guidance in its handling of Cuban exile groups other than those under the direction of CIA.

The Group agreed that the best way to attack this problem would be to have Mr. Yeagley attend next week's Special Group meeting and discuss the matter at first hand. Mr. Parrot was asked to make arrangements for this.

7. Value of Cuba to the USSR as a Base Vis-a-vis Cape Canaveral

Mr. Parrott gave Mr. Merchant the gist of the OSI memorandum
