Attempting to Secure Repatriates in Newark, New Jersey
Mrs. ALEXANDRIA TOLSTOY, Informant IS-R

On 5/26/56, Mrs. ALEXANDRIA TOLSTOY, President of the Tolstoy Foundation, 989 Eighth Avenue, NYC, telephone number Circle 7-2922, telephonically contacted the NYO and advised as follows:

She received a phone call from one AFANASY HAHN, 291 Morris Avenue, Newark, New Jersey (second floor) on the morning of 5/26/56. HAHN stated to TOLSTOY that a person had been around his residence that morning attempting to get some Russians to return home.

According to TOLSTOY, HAHN was not the person they were attempting to repatriate but it was another Russian who was married to a German girl.

HAHN advised TOLSTOY that this man would be back at 5:00 P.M. on the afternoon of May, 26, to see the person that he was trying to repatriate to Russia.

TOLSTOY used the term "Soviet agent" each time she referred to the person who was attempting to have the friend of HAHN's return to Russia. TOLSTOY did not know the "Soviet agent" who had contacted HAHN or the person who was being contacted regarding this return. According to TOLSTOY there is a colony of refugees around the neighborhood where this has happened and they have become greatly alarmed.

These facts were telephonically given to the Newark Office after the receipt of this complaint.
