-ADMINISTRATIVE-

On October 19, 1961, FRANK WATTERSON, State Department, Miami, Florida, advised that the State Department had some 40 or 50 cases involving trips made by individuals from the United States to Cuba without State Department permission, but as yet has formulated no policy on how this type of violation would be handled. WATTERSON explained that the State Department is presently "working up to it", but as yet he, WATTERSON, had received no instructions as to what to do concerning this type of violation.
