REFERENCE: Report of SA JAMES H. DOWING, 2/11/64, at Miami; Miami letter to the Bureau 9/18/64.

ADMINISTRATIVE

One copy of this report is being furnished locally to U. S. Secret Service due to their interest in the "Minutenem" organization.

One copy of this report is being furnished Jacksonville and Tampa for information to apprise these offices re the "Minutenemen" in the Miami Field Division.

The suitable pretext utilized on June 9, 1964, was an attempted interview with RICHARD F. OTIS, 1150 N. E. 161st Street, North Miami, Florida, by SA's JAMES H. DOWING and JOHN E. McHugh, without the Agents identifying themselves.
OTIS was not interviewed, inasmuch as it was determined he was a high school student, and because he was volunteering his services, part time, at the local headquarters of one of the two major political parties.

This report is classified Confidential, since the disclosure of the identities of the informants contained therein could be detrimental to the security of this country.
