Re Tampa letter to Bureau dated 12/7/64, advising that an individual residing within the Tampa Division had received "Minutemen" application forms and other literature with return address of Peace Foundation, P. O. Box 800, Hollywood, Florida.

On 12/10/64, Mr. DONALD WILLIAMS, Superintendent of Mails, Hollywood, Florida Post Office (protect), advised that P. O. Box 800 has been rented since 2/6/64, to an individual who identified himself as JOHN CARR, home address shown as 1513 Hollywood Boulevard, Hollywood, Florida.

No mention was made of Peace Foundation nor did the application reflect any additional information.

It was observed on 12/10/64, that there is no such address as 1513 Hollywood Boulevard. This area in that city is a vacant lot.

Local directories and indices of this office reflect no identifiable information on a JOHN CARR.

The above address as well as the name of the person renting that post office box is obviously fictitious.

Superintendent of Mails WILLIAMS during the interview checked the above post office box and determined that it contained a 4th class package, approximate size 12" x 9" x 2". It was addressed to JOHN CARR, P. O. Box 800, Hollywood, Florida, with a return address as Post Office Box 172, Independence, Missouri.
