1. A Spanish Communist named Juan MELJAND told Teresa PEDERA that he could get 100 signatures on any paper demanding justice for her. She politely asked him not to do so.

2. APARICID says that he understands that Teresa is trying to get a position in Cuba and that former ambassador PORTILLO is somehow involved in this.

3. A man named (name illegible) Communist from Mecical, B.C., probably mixed up with Emilio MALDONADO, was at the Embassy on 16 Jan. L-9 does not know who he dealt with.

4. Dr. RICARDO is "going crazy" now that LITANIL-7 is away on vacation. She recently pointed to a pile of papers on her desk and said, "If L-7 doesn't come back soon I'll die." L-9 says that this shows how important L-7 is to the smooth functioning of the office. As an aside to B, he remarked, "You know, L-7 is on our side." She is in Camaguey on vacation.

5. On Saturday, L-9 saw many of the Embassy staff were invited to a social function at the Soviet Embassy — all the other Socialist embassies received similar invitations. The Yugoslavs were conspicuously absent, L-9 noted that the Soviet ambassador was especially interested in greeting APARICID. Those present played volleyball and chess or just sat around and visited.

6. Silvia DURAN was visiting the consulate on the morning of 15 Jan — talking with Consulventor REYES, L-9 said, "Are you back with us, Silvia?" to which she replied, "No, you folks don't love me anymore."

7. The Embassy had a short ceremony in commemoration of the death of Kella — the ambassador, APARICID, and MIRAMAL spoke.

8. There will be an affair at the Cultural Institute on the 26th celebrating Marti's birthday. Photographs will be exhibited and a few speeches will be made. Among the speakers will be (name illegible) Melgo, Emilio (name illegible), APARICID, and Emmanuel CARASLLO, among others.

9. On Wednesday morning (15 Jan) L-9 and APARICID visited the Sociedad Mexicana de Planificacidn. This was merely a courtesy visit — no real business was transacted. (LIENVOX shows this visit).

5. In connection with the Lightning Contest, the Casa de las Americas in Havana, L-9 reported as follows:

a. A number of people from Mexico are expected to travel to Havana to act as judges in the contest. Among these are:

b. Alejandro FERNANDEZ (who) will be ready to go in January.

He is recommended by APARICID.

Gabriel FERNANDEZ Ledesma will go in April to be there when Soviet material is judged.
