According to a usually reliable sensitive source, Bohumil JIRKA and Josef HLUCHY, both identified as diplomatic couriers, arrived in Argentina from La Paz on 12 December 1961. They were met at the airport by Karel KRAL and Erhard SALAMON, members of the Czech IS permanently assigned to the Czech Legation in Buenos Aires.

LIFIRE reported that Bohumil JIRKA arrived in Mexico on 13 September 1963 to replace Zbynek SANONIL as chauffeur at the Czech Embassy. JIRKA was accompanied by his wife, Emma, and children, Jitka and Bohumil.

As possible traces we include the following:

A usually reliable sensitive source said in June 1962 that one (fam) JIRKA at an unspecified date, prior to June 1962, travelled to China, Peking, Shanghai and North China.

The 1962 Prague telephone directory lists one Bohumil JIRKA as residing at 7 Roles U Smaltovny 16.
