Suggest sending. There have been stories around town about all this, and Thomas is not only person who has talked to.

Nikolaev has a little folder into which he is putting all the little scraps he can find relating Oswald to the Cubans; when he gets enough of them I suppose he will try to do a dope piece.

If memory serves me, didn't Liscock refer to Oswald and the local leftist & Cubans in one of her equivs?

Since Don Levine is writing a book about the assassination, Nikolaev says that the Cuban connection bothers him increasingly as he progresses in his research. Max: I had long talk with Marina not long ago in Russian, IBL is Russian Jewish forigno, and reputable scholar - and of course convinced that she hiding information...
