very much of today, in fact, I am rather concerned.

I think the problem is that the

the temptation to take over the civilized world. I believe that this is the greatest deficit in our present civilization, and I do think that we must do something about it. The program

(note: identification with letter of reporter. I think that we must do something about it.)

Political

leadership

must be strengthened.

It's going to be very difficult, but

we cannot afford to

wait. The time is right for

action.
