HOW SHOULD WE SUPPORT OUR MEN IN VIETNAM?

1. Do we send more to be killed and maimed? Already (to be filled in with current figure when published), Americans have been killed and wounded. Over 20,000 Vietnamese men, women, and children have been killed. Can we afford to lose even one more soldier?

2. Did we send them home now—ALIVE?

3. Do we support them any better in the future?

We veterans of Vietnam and earlier wars agree with Capt. David R. Shute, (Ret.), U.S. Marine, Commandant during the Cuban missile crisis, who said, "I believe that if we had not kept our hands, blood-covered fingers out of the business of these nations to full of deceptively, exploitively people, they would arrive at a solution of their own. That is the only way and must be done. And above that, don't drum down through their threats by bombastic, (I think it is the right word), bombastic threats of destruction and retribution. We are not going to do that..."

We veterans of Vietnam and earlier wars agree with Adm. Arnold E. Vreem, (Ret.), U.S. Navy, who said, "We can and we will..."

REAL SUPPORT FOR OUR MEN IN VIETNAM COMES FROM THOSE WHO DEMAND...

"BRING OUR TROOPS HOME NOW!!"

Offer draft

The offer draft was sent to a major nationwide network of local organizers who are interested in working on this issue. In opposition to this war by mutual agreement, our local chapters will not offer their own recruiting efforts. Instead, we will listen to and offer to local people on their own Peace and Victory Committee in their own community. This draft is distributed by:

...and civil war in this country.

I joined the Veterans for Peace in Vietnam (VFP) and started a national chapter, which later became the nationwide Veterans for Peace in Vietnam (VFP). This movement played a significant role in promoting peace and military退出 from Vietnam.

Dissent right period

Concentration camps and segregation are nothing new in the history of the United States. These include the internment of Japanese Americans during World War II and the segregation of African Americans in the South. These policies and actions are a violation of human rights and freedom.

Letter to the Editor

Dear Editor,

Would you send the list of veterans who served in the Vietnam War to the VFW post near you? They are looking for new members to join their organization.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
