REFERENCE(S)

1. Attached is a Spanish-language letter addressed to the American Ambassador to Spain, and signed by one Antilin PERIS, alleging in the first paragraph that the author has some information of interest to impart. After opening the second paragraph by saying that he had to flee Paris due to an indiscretion committed there, the author states:

"There (apparently Paris), in the home of some American friends, I got hold of an authentic document about the assassination in Dallas, which they say was swiped from the Warren Commission and which is certainly prejudicial for President Johnson. I have it on good authority that they are currently trying to sell it to no less than the Director of "Paris-Match." Someone from the Embassy of the United Kingdom in Paris is involved in the matter."

The author closes by suggesting that an advertisement be inserted in a Madrid newspaper if there be any interest in further details.

2. There are no Station traces on Antilin PERIS, which is almost certainly an alias. Needless to say, there is no return address on the letter or envelope, which was mailed from Barcelona on 26 September 1964. We are forwarding a copy of the letter to Paris for your information and on the off chance that you may have received similar allegations; in such case, Madrid would appreciate learning the details so that we might inform the Embassy. It might also be useful to show the letter to the OSNAVY representative in Paris, but this we leave to your discretion.

Mi querido Sr. Embajador:

Despues de mi respetuoso saludo, paso a decirle que mi familia ha recibido muchos favores de este gran pais, que su Excia. tan dignamente representa. Me permito dirigirme a Ud. para manifestarle un asunto, que puede ser de la mayor importancia.

Acabo de llegar de Paris, y por buenas razones el tiempo apremia, y no se si llegaremos a tiempo. Una indiscrecion mia cometida en aquella capital me ha obligado a huir rapidamente. Allí, en casade unos amigos americanos, tuve en mis manos un documento autentico, que decian escamoteado de la Comision investigadora Warren, y, suguramente muy perjudicial para el Presidente Sr. Jenson, sobre el asesinato de Dallas. Se de buena tinta que actualmente estaban en tratos para venderlo nada menos que al Director de PARIS-MATCH. Alguien de la Embajada del Reino Unido en Paris interviene en el juego.

Es posible que a Uds. les interesen más circunstancias del hecho. Puedo estar en Madrid el dia 29 cte. Si es así, inserten este anuncio en la seccion de Ventas del diario "YA": "Vendo anaqueles. Hortaleza 6", y recibiran mis noticias. Ya veremos el modo, pues me siguen los pasos desde Paris.

De su Excia. queda afamo.

Antilin peris

Al Sr. Embajador de los Estados Unidos.
