UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : FILE

DATE: 25 March 1965

FROM : James E. Mackey, Jr.

SUBJECT: MOSS, Edward K.
#172 646

1. Attached herewith is a memorandum dated 23 March 1965 from the Office of Legislative Counsel to Mr. Tom Lucid and a copy of the transmittal sheet also dated 23 March 1965. These copies were obtained from [redacted] Security Officer, NE Division. [redacted] interest was generated by the interest of the Legislative Counsel.

2. Mr. [redacted] reviewed Subject's file and advised the undersigned that the pertinent portions would be made available to the Legislative Counsel with the prohibition that the results of the FBI investigation would not be made available to the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

3. Also, on 23 March 1965, Betty Buckley, Secretary in the Chief's office, CA Staff, called and wanted to know when the last Covert Security Approval was granted and to whom. The undersigned advised Betty Buckley that the last Covert Security Approval was granted on 7 November 1962 to CA Staff for use by CA/PAG, Project ZRMAJOR, coordination with NE Division, who had a prior interest.

4. No further action is contemplated at this time.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Thomas Lucid

SUBJECT: Edward K. Moss

1. This is the case I called you about on Friday, result of an inquiry received from the House Foreign Affairs Committee. Subject is reportedly registered under the Foreign Agents Registration Act for Somalia, Cameroons, and Sudan.

2. RI check revealed a Bureau report on public relations work for Varona and an Attorney General letter to Congress, indicating his work for two other African countries. Have been advised that NE obtained a CSA in 1959 and CA in 1962 for an Edward Kipper Moss in the public relations field.

3. Could you help us get whatever information is appropriate to assure that we are not caught in the middle on this Congressional inquiry? Inquiry was received Friday and we need to get back to them as soon as possible. Thanks.

LYLE L. MILLER
Office of Legislative Counsel
