MOORE, James Walton

15 December 1953

OUT Cable 8751 from OSS to Kunming states that one Ensign James MOORE is ready for duty in China and the cable, which was examined at 1015L Building, requested clearance for Ensign James MOORE. Other cables dated in June 1946 (date of the above cable) recite the fact that one Ensign James MOORE was an employee in 1946 who was being considered for duty in China with OSS. (Cables from Shanghai IN 42366, September 1946; IN 37806 dated June 1946 and Chungking SI OUT 8751 dated 7/25/45).

There is also an assessment file on one James MOORE which is listed as 100-1-62-1 and is charged to the Assessment Staff of CIA.

If this is the same man as our Subject there would seem to be Archives files on him in the Archives Section of CIA which would give us more biographic information on the Subject.
